TITLE 5—ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL

Chapter I—Civil Service Commission

PART 18—WAR SERVICE REGULATIONS

APPOINTMENT; REAPPOINTMENT; TRANSFER; EXTENT OF REGULATIONS

Section 18.5 Appointment (7 F.R. 7725, 8007; 8 F.R. 4375, 11463), § 18.8 Reappointment (8 F.R. 13549), § 18.9 Transfer (8 F.R. 13329), and § 18.11 Extent of regulations (8 F.R. 11464) are amended as follows:

§ 18.5 Appointment • • •

(c) Trial period. Except for persons appointed for a specific period of one year or less, the first full year of service shall be a trial period, satisfactory completion of which shall be considered part of the entrance examination. If and when, after a full and fair trial during this period, the conduct or capacity of the trial appointee be not satisfactory to the appointing officer, the appointee may at any time thereafter during the trial period be so notified in writing, and such notice shall terminate his service. In the case of substitutes in the Postal Service the trial period will be 2448 hours of active duty.

• • • • •

(e) Positions which become subject to the War Service Regulations. The following classes of employees may be given war service appointments without prior approval of the Commission:

(1) Any person holding a position in a public or private enterprise which is taken over by the Federal Government and who thereby becomes an employee of the Government;

(2) Any Federal employee holding a position which is excepted from the Civil Service Act and Rules and the War Service Regulations when his position is made subject to the Civil Service Act and Rules or the War Service Regulations.

All war service appointments made under this section shall be reported immediately to the Civil Service Commission.

No person given a war service appointment under this section shall acquire eligibility for a classified civil service status until six months after the end of the present war. At the expiration of six months after the war, such person may be recommended for a classified civil service status in accordance with section 6 of Civil Service Rule II (§ 2.6 of this chapter) provided his position becomes a permanent position in the classified civil service and he is still the incumbent thereof.

This section shall not apply to postal employees who become eligible for a classified civil service status in accordance with the provisions of Civil Service Rule II, section 7 (§ 2.7 of this chapter).

§ 18.8 Reappointment. Subject to the prior approval of the Commission, a former civilian employee who has rendered at least one year of service in the executive branch of the Federal Government or in the District of Columbia government may be reappointed by war service appointment to any position for which he meets the standards as to experience and education established for open competitive examination for such position: Provided, however, That former employees entitled to military preference and those who would have a status for reinstatement under Civil Service Rule IX (Part 9 of this chapter) and the regulations in force prior to March 16, 1942, when the War Service Regulations became effective, may be reemployed under this regulation without regard to the length of their previous Government service.

Such reappointment must be for actual service and not primarily for the purpose of bringing such former employee within the provisions of the Civil Service Retirement Act as amended.

Persons reappointed under this regulation will be required to serve a trial period of one year in accordance with §18.5 (c). In the case of substitutes in the Postal Service the trial period will be 2,448 hours of active duty.

When a former classified employee is to be reinstated to a position in the Postal Temporary appointment in the Postal Service may be authorized, when necessary, under section 1 of Civil Service Rule VIII (§ 8.1 of this chapter), pending reinstatement or reappointment.

§ 16.9 Transfer • • •

(h) Status of employees. In all transfers under this regulation, the employee shall retain for all intents and purposes, under the Civil Service laws and rules the same Civil Service status which he had in the agency from which he was originally transferred. When a classified employee is to be transferred to a position in the Postal Service, the transfer shall be made under Civil Service Rule X (Part 10 of this chapter) and the employee will have a regular classified Civil Service status.

Any transfer or reappointment of an employee who was originally appointed "subject to investigation" will be subject to the results of the investigation.

§ 16.11 Extent of regulations—(a) Regulations superseded. The foregoing regulations shall supersede Civil Service Rules III, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X (5 C.F.R., Parts 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10) and all provisions of joint regulations inconsistent with these regulations, for all positions except (unless otherwise specifically provided in these regulations):

(1) Positions other than those filled by civilian employees of the forces in the Police and the Fire Departments of the municipal government of the District of Columbia;

(2) Positions of policemen in the U. S. Park Police force of the Interior Department.

(3) Even though appointments in the field service of the Post Office Department (except postmasters) are now made under the War Service Regulations, persons who entered on duty in a post office prior to November 23, 1943, through certification for probational appointment but who were found ineligible for probational appointment because of physical condition, may be given a probational status as of the date of entrance on duty if they subsequently become eligible through correcting their physical condition.

Civil Service Rule II, section 6 (§ 2.6 of this chapter) is suspended as to appointments made under § 18.5 (e) of this chapter, but section 6 of Rule II (§ 2.6 of this chapter) is to be applied to those classes of postal employees referred to in Civil Service Rule II, section 7 (§ 2.7 of this chapter).

Chapter II—War Food Administration (Commodity Credit)

[CCC Grapefruit Juice Form 1, Amdt. 2]

PART 249—1943-1944 GRAPEFRUIT JUICE PAYMENT PROGRAM

OFFER OF COMMODITY CREDIT CORPORATION TO MAKE PAYMENTS IN RESPECT OF GRAPEFRUIT JUICE

In response to inquiries and in order that the "Offer of Commodity Credit Corporation to Make Payments in Respect of Grapefruit Juice", 9 F.R. 628, as amended by Amendment 1 thereto, 9 F.R. 1479 (such offer, amended as aforesaid, being herein called the "offer"), may reflect more precisely the commitments heretofore made by Commodity Credit Corporation (herein called "Commodity") in its 1943-1944 Grapefruit Juice Payment Program and to render the offer more explicit, Commodity hereby amends the offer in the manner and to the extent provided in this Amendment No. 2 to the offer.

Section 249.7 of the offer is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 249.7 Determination of seasonal average area fruit costs. On or before June 15, 1944, each eligible processor who elects to adopt the seasonal average area fruit cost basis pursuant to § 249.6 hereof, shall report to Commodity the quantity, if any, of eligible grapefruit juice packed by such eligible processor during each month of the period from October 1, 1943, to May 31, 1944, both dates inclusive, and sold or held for sale to Government Agencies. As soon as practicable after May 31, 1944, and after receipt of the above-mentioned report, Commodity shall determine with respect to such eligible processor on the basis of the applicable monthly area fruit costs determined pursuant to § 249.5 hereof (or such cost as may be required by the provisions of § 249.8 hereof to be used in lieu of the monthly area fruit cost in this computation) for such period, weighted according to the quantity of eligible grapefruit juice packed by such eligible processor during each month of such period less the quantity, if any, of eligible grapefruit juice packed in such month sold or held for sale to Government Agencies, such eligible processor's applicable weighted average seasonal delivered cost (herein called "Seasonal average area fruit cost") per net ton in respect of grapefruit delivered to such eligible processor's plant or plants in each such area for processing into eligible grapefruit juice during such period.

Section 249.8 (9 F.R. 628, 1479) of the offer is amended by amending the last sentence thereof to read as follows:

In the event any eligible processor's weighted average delivered purchase cost for grapefruit purchased on a fixed price basis for processing into eligible grapefruit juice in respect of any month during the term of this offer (whether such eligible processor elects to operate on a packing month basis or on a seasonal average area fruit cost basis) is less than or in excess of the applicable monthly area fruit cost for such month, then (1) such weighted average delivered purchase cost or (2) 103% of the applicable monthly area fruit cost, whichever of said two costs is the lower (such lower cost being herein called the "Alternate cost"), shall be used in lieu of the monthly area fruit cost in respect of the grapefruit so purchased: (1) in determining the rate of payment under this offer for such month if such eligible processor has elected to operate on the packing month basis, and (2) in determining the seasonal average area fruit cost if such eligible processor has elected to operate on the seasonal average area fruit cost basis: Provided, however, That in the event the alternate cost for any period during the term of this offer shall be in excess of the applicable maximum or less than the applicable minimum costs stipulated in § 249.5 hereof, then such applicable maximum (or minimum, as the case may be) shall be used in lieu of the alternate cost or monthly area fruit cost in making the two specified determinations.

Persons acting in reliance upon the offer shall do so in accordance with and subject to the offer as so amended in respect of all eligible grapefruit juice packed by them during the term of the offer with respect to which payment is sought from Commodity.

(Sec. 7, 49 Stat. 4, as amended by 50 Stat. 5, 53 Stat. 510, 55 Stat. 498, 57 Stat. 566, 57 Stat. 606, and Public Law 240, 78th Cong.)

Issued at Washington, D. C., the 28th day of April 1944.

§ 3.66 (a 7) Misbranding or mislabeling; Composition; Wool Products Labeling Act: § 3.71 (c) Neglecting, unfairly or deceptively, to make material disclosure; composition; Wool Products Labeling Act. In connection with the sale or offering for sale in commerce, misbranding shirts, sweaters, trousers, caps, underwear and blankets, or other "wool products", as defined in, and subject to, the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, which contain, purport to contain or in any way are represented as containing "wool", "reprocessed wool" or "reused wool" as defined therein, by failing to securely affix to or place on such products a stamp, tag, label or other means of identification showing in a clear and conspicuous manner, (a) the percentage of the total fiber weight of such wool product, exclusive of ornamentation not exceeding five percentum of said total fiber weight of (1) wool, (2) reprocessed wool, (3) reused wool, (4) each fiber other than wool where said percentage by weight of such fiber is five percentum or more, and (5) the aggregate of all other fibers; (b) the maximum percentage of the total weight of such wool products of any non-fibrous loading, filling or adulterating matter; (c) the name of the manufacturer of such wool product; or the manufacturer's registered identification number and the name of a seller of such wool product; or the name of one or more persons introducing such wool product into commerce, or engaged in the sale, transportation, or distribution thereof in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939; prohibited; subject to the proviso, however, that the foregoing provisions concerning misbranding shall not be construed to prohibit acts permitted by paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 3 of said Wool Products Labeling Act and to the further proviso that nothing contained in this order shall be construed as limiting any applicable provisions of said Act or the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b; 54 Stat. 1128; 15 U.S.C., Sec. 68) [Cease and desist order, The A. & N. Trading Co., Inc., trading as A. & N. Trading Company, A & N Trading Company, Inc., and Sport Center, Docket 4932, April 17, 1944]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 17th day of April, A. D. 1944.

In the Matter of The A. & N. Trading Co., Inc., a Corporation, Trading as A. & N. Trading Company, A & N Trading Company, Inc., and Sport Center

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the amended complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondent, in which answer respondent admits all the material allegations of fact set forth in said amended complaint and states that it waives all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that said respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, and the provisions of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939:

It is ordered, That the respondent, The A. & N. Trading Co., Inc., a corporation, trading as A. & N. Trading Company, A & N Trading Company, Inc., and Sport Center, or trading under any other name, its officers, representatives, agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the sale or offering for sale in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid acts, do forthwith cease and desist from misbranding shirts, sweaters, trousers, caps, underwear and blankets, or other "wool products", as defined in, and subject to, the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, which contain, purport to contain or in any way are represented as containing "wool", "reprocessed wool" or "reused wool" as those terms are defined in said act, by failing to securely affix to or place on such products a stamp, tag, label or other means of identification showing in a clear and conspicuous manner:

(a) The percentage of the total fiber weight of such wool product, exclusive of ornamentation not exceeding five percentum of said total fiber weight of (1) wool, (2) reprocessed wool, (3) reused wool, (4) each fiber other than wool where said percentage by weight of such fiber is five percentum or more, and (5) the aggregate of all other fibers.

(b) The maximum percentage of the total weight of such wool products of any non-fibrous loading, filling or adulterating matter.

(c) The name of the manufacturer of such wool product; or the manufacturer's registered identification number and the name of a seller of such wool product; or the name of one or more persons introducing such wool product into commerce, or engaged in the sale, transportation, or distribution thereof in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939.

Provided, That the foregoing provisions concerning misbranding shall not be construed to prohibit acts permitted by paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 3 of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939; And provided, further, That nothing contained in this order shall be construed as limiting any applicable provisions of said Act or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That the respondent shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] OTIS B. JOHNSON,
Secretary.

TITLE 25—INDIANS

Chapter I—Office of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior

Subchapter E—Credit to Indians

PART 22—ORGANIZATION OF INDIAN COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS

Sections 22.1 to 22.3, inclusive, are hereby repealed, and the following sections are promulgated as new regulations under the title "Organization of Indian Cooperative Associations":

Sec.
22.1 Eligibility.
22.2 Purpose.
22.3 Requirements for organization.
22.4 Articles of association.
22.5 Bylaws.

AUTHORITY: §§ 22.1 to 22.6, inclusive, issued under sec. 9, 49 Stat. 1968, 25 U.S.C. Supp. sec. 509; Pub. Law 133, 78th Congress.

§ 22.1 Eligibility. Under the Oklahoma Indian Welfare Act approved June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1967, 25 U.S.C. Supp. secs. 501–509), the Secretary of the Interior may issue charters to cooperative associations organized under the act and in accordance with his regulations. Under authority contained in the act of July 12, 1943 (Public Law 133, 78th Congress, 1st sess.), the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to make loans to Indian organizations. In order for Oklahoma cooperative associations to receive charters, and for these or other Indian cooperative associations to be eligible for loans under the provisions of 25 C.F.R., Part 23, "Loans to Indian Cooperative Associations", or 25 C.F.R., Part 24, "Loans to Indian Credit Associations", they must be organized in accordance with the regulations in this part. Cooperative associations whose members are also members of tribes incorporated under the act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 988, 25 U.S.C. sec. 479), and cooperative associations whose members are also members of unincorporated tribes which are conducting operations with revolving credit funds shall be organized under the provisions of 25 C.F.R., Part 21, "Loans to and by Indian Chartered Corporations and Unincorporated Tribes", and not under the regulations in this part unless specifically authorized to do so by the Secretary of the Interior.

§ 22.2 Purpose. Cooperative associations organized pursuant to this part shall promote the economic development of their members by providing the necessary economic and social facilities which the members as individuals cannot secure or maintain. They shall be organized for one or more of the following purposes: (a) credit administration; (b) production; (c) marketing; (d) consumers' protection; and (e) land management.

§ 22.3 Requirements for organization. A cooperative organized under the Oklahoma Indian Welfare Act, and all credit associations must have at least ten members. All other cooperatives must have at least five members. The members must reside in convenient proximity to each other and desire to act together for their mutual economic development. All members shall be Indians as defined in the Indian Reorganization Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 988, 25 U.S.C. Supp. sec. 479).

§ 22.4 Articles of Association. The articles of cooperative associations and credit associations shall be approved by the Secretary of the Interior. All articles shall include provisions relating to: (a) Name; (b) purpose; (c) powers; (d) principal place of business; (e) term for which organized; (f) eligibility for membership; (g) voting; (h) application of income; (i) management; (j) interest of members in the association; (k) procedure for amendments; (l) dissolution. The articles must show that each member will have but one vote; that voting by proxy will not be permitted; that capital invested in the enterprise shall be entitled to a limited return only; and that profits or refunds will be distributed on a patronage basis.

§ 22.5 Bylaws. The bylaws of cooperative associations and credit associations shall be approved by the Secretary of the Interior. All bylaws shall include provisions relating to: (a) Time, place, and manner of holding, calling, adjourning, and postponing meetings of members and directors; (b) quorums; (c) the number of officers and directors, titles, tenure of office, powers, duties, manner of election, filling of vacanies, and removal of officers and directors; (d) manner in which members may be expelled from or restored to membership, or withdraw from membership, and the liquidation or restoration of the interests of members in such cases; (e) creation of reserves and operating funds; (f) manner of making and recording receipts and disbursements and of keeping all accounts, records, books, and minutes. The bylaws must provide that no officer or director may be employed as a paid manager of the association. If the association is organized with capital stock, the manner of issuing such stock and the manner of transferring, retiring, and evidencing ownership thereof shall be specified.

§ 22.6 Charter. The Secretary of the Interior will, in his discretion, execute a charter of incorporation for cooperative associations organized under the Oklahoma Indian Welfare Act of June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1967, 25 U. S. C. Supp. secs. 504, 509). Such certificate together with the approved articles dealt with in § 22.4 shall constitute the charter of the association.

OSCAR L. CHAPMAN,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

PART 23—LOANS TO INDIAN COOPERATIVE ASSOCIATIONS

Sections 23.1 to 23.27, inclusive, are hereby repealed, and the following sections are promulgated as new regulations under the title "Loans to Indian Cooperative Associations."

Sec.
23.1 Eligibility.
23.2 Purpose.
23.3 Application for loan.
23.4 Security.
23.5 Interest.
23.6 Maturity.
23.7 Commitment order.
23.8 Loan agreement contract.
23.9 Modification of loan agreement.
23.10 Depository.
23.11 Bonding of officers.
23.12 Limitations of use.
23.13 Penalties on default.
23.14 Restrictions on approval.
23.15 Records.
23.16 Title to property.
23.17 Property identification.
23.18 Bills of sale.

AUTHORITY: §§ 23.1 to 23.18, inclusive, issued under sec. 9, 49 Stat. 1968, 25 U.S.C. Supp. sec. 509; Pub. Law 133, 78th Cong.

§ 23.1 Eligibility. To be eligible for a loan under the regulations in this part, a cooperative association must be organized in accordance with the provisions of 25 C. F. R., Part 22, "Regulations for Organization of Indian Cooperative Associations." Cooperatives organized for credit administration may receive loans under the provisions of 25, C. F. R. Part 24, "Regulations for Loans to Indian Credit Associations" and not under the regulations in this part.

§ 23.2 Purpose. Funds may be loaned to a cooperative to promote the economic development of its members.

§ 23.3 Application for loan. Applications shall be prepared on forms approved by the Secretary of the Interior, and unless otherwise authorized by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, shall include signed agricultural, commercial, or industrial plans. The superintendent of the Agency or his authorized representative shall be responsible for explaining the nature of all instruments signed, responsibility for care of the property, and the necessity for carrying out the provisions of the loan agreement. Unless otherwise authorized by the Commissioner, all applications shall be approved by the Commissioner.

§ 23.4 Security. The association shall offer the United States all possible security up to an adequate amount. Upon approval of the application the association must give the United States the security required by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs before any advance fo funds shall be made. Securing instruments shall be filed in accordance with instructions of the Commissioner.

§ 23.5 Interest. Associations shall be charged interest at the rate of three percent per annum from the date the money is advanced until repaid, which shall be figured on the basis of 360 days per annum.

§ 23.6 Maturity. Twenty years shall be the maximum time for which a loan may be made to a cooperative.

§ 23.7 Commitment order. Upon approval of the application for the loan, a commitment order covering the terms and conditions of making the loan and advances thereunder shall be submitted to the association through the superintendent, and shall be effective when the association delivers the required copies to the superintendent with its unconditional acceptance written on the original copy. Such delivery must be made within ninety days of the approval of the application.

§ 23.8 Loan agreement contract. The approved application, supporting papers, commitment order, and note or notes, constitute the loan agreement contract.

§ 23.9 Modification of loan agreement. Modifications of the loan agreement shall be handled through the same channels as the original agreement, except that the credit agent may approve modifications where the amount involved does not exceed $1,000 on applications originally approved by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Loan agreements shall not be permitted to remain in default; either payment must be made, a formal extension granted in the form of a modification, or action taken under the provisions of § 23.13.

§ 23.10 Depository. All advances shall be deposited immediately upon receipt in depositories approved by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and must be evidenced by promissory note or notes, the original of which only shall be signed.

§ 23.11 Bonding of officers. Each officer of the association authorized to handle funds shall furnish a bond satisfactory to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, except that when funds are handled in a manner similar to the handling of individual Indian moneys by a bonded Government disbursing officer, a bond shall not be required.

§ 23.12 Limitations of use. Credit funds may be used only for the purposes set forth in the association's loan agreement with the United States.

§ 23.13 Penalties on default. Failure on the part of the association to use or repay the funds loaned in keeping with the loan agreement as originally approved or as amended, or any improper use of funds loaned to the association, shall be grounds for any one or all of the following steps to be taken by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, with or without recourse to legal proceedings: (a) Declare the entire amount advanced immediately due and payable; (b) discontinue any further advances of funds contemplated by the loan agreement; (c) prevent further disbursements of credit funds under the control of the association; (d) withdraw any unobligated funds from the association; (e) take possession of any and all collateral or security; (f) take possession of the assets of the association and exercise or arrange for the exercise of its powers until the association's indebtedness to the United States shall be repaid, or until the Commissioner shall receive acceptable assurance of its repayment and of compliance with the loan agreement.

§ 23.14 Restrictions on approval. The Commissioner of Indian Affairs shall not approve, nor authorize the approval of a loan to an association: (a) For the development of commercial enterprises unless such enterprises are to be conducted on a cash basis, except when authorized in the loan agreement; (b) which is indebted to the United States for loans from "industry among Indians" or "tribal industrial assistance" funds, or which has livestock or crops of the same class as that upon which a lien exists, or the title to which is affected, because of existing debts or obligations from any source, unless plans of repayment acceptable to the Commissioner or his authorized representative are presented in the application; (c) for the production of crops, unless the loan will be repaid within one year; except for crops from which no income will be received the first year; maturity dates shall be fixed at the time when the crops are to be harvested and available for sale; (d) for less than $25.00; (e) for the purchase of land, except sites necessary for the operation of the association.

§ 23.15 Records. The association must keep records, files, and accounts and make signed reports as directed by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

§ 23.16 Title to property. All property purchased with credit funds shall be purchased in the name of the United States in trust for the association, and all buildings, fences, and other permanent improvements constructed wholly or in part with credit funds shall not be considered a part of the realty until the loan with which they were purchased is repaid in full, unless otherwise specified in the association's loan agreement.

§ 23.17 Property identification. All livestock and issue thereof and all major articles of equipment purchased with credit funds, and trust property given as security for loans of credit funds, except as otherwise authorized by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, shall be branded or marked with the letters "ID" to make identification permanently possible, and certificates showing compliance with this requirement shall be filed.

§ 23.18 Bills of sale. The association must obtain bills of sale on a form approved by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs for all livestock purchased with credit funds, title to which is taken in the name of the United States. This form also may be used for machinery, equipment, and other purchases, title to which is taken in the name of the United States, but receipted invoices on the vendor's stationery will be accepted in lieu thereof. Receipted invoices or appropriate bills of sale, which shall be filed in accordance with instructions of the Commissioner, must be obtained on purchases of all items costing twenty-five dollars or more.

OSCAR L. CHAPMAN,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

PART 24—LOANS TO INDIAN CREDIT ASSOCIATIONS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The title of the regulations in this part is amended as above, and the following sections of these regulations are amended to read as follows:

§ 24.1 Eligible borrowers. To be eligible for a loan a credit association operating in the State of Oklahoma must be organized under the Oklahoma Indian Welfare Act approved June 26, 1936 (49 Stat. 1967, 25 U. S. C. Supp. secs. 501-509). Credit associations operating in other states shall have a form of organization approved by the Secretary of the Interior. All credit associations shall be organized in accordance with the provisions of 25 C. F. R. Part 22, "Regulations for Organization of Indian Cooperative Associations." The name of the association shall include the words "Indian Credit Association" and its articles of association shall provide as its purpose the following: "To carry on the business of borrowing money from the United States and relending it to its members." In order to obtain a loan a credit association must agree to follow the rules and regulations in this part, those in 25 C. F. R. Part 25, "Loans by Indian Credit Associations," and such conditions as are agreed upon and set forth in the loan agreement between the association and the United States. The association must also agree in requesting funds to be reloaned, to accept such provisions, in addition to said regulations, as in the opinion of the Commissioner are necessary to insure fulfillment of the loan agreement between the United States and the association; and to require its borrowers to conform to applicable rules and regulations. The association may adopt such additional rules and regulations as it deems advisable, which are not inconsistent with the terms and conditions of the loan agreement with the United States and the regulations in this part.

§ 24.2 Purpose. Funds may be loaned to an association to promote the economic development of the association and its members. The association may make loans to qualified members under the regulations in 25 C.F.R., Part 25, "Loans by Indian Credit Associations."

§ 24.5 Annual carrying charge. The annual carrying charge by the United States shall be one percent per annum from the date the money is advanced until repaid, which shall be figured on the basis of 360 days per annum.

§ 24.9 Modification of loan agreement. Modifications of the loan agreement shall be handled through the same channels as the original agreement, except that the Commissioner of Indian Affairs may approve modifications when the amount of the loan is not increased. When the amount of the loan is increased, modifications must be approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

(Sec. 9, 49 Stat. 1968, 25 U.S.C. Supp. sec. 509, and Public Law 133, 78th Cong., 1st Sess.)

PART 25—LOANS BY INDIAN CREDIT ASSOCIATIONS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The title of the regulations in this part is amended as above, and the following sections of these regulations are amended to read as follows:

§ 25.6 Restrictions on approval. * * * (a) Except when authorized in the loan agreement, for the development of commercial enterprises unless such enterprises are to be conducted on a cash bases. * * * (d) Where the maturity dates extend beyond the maturity dates of the credit association's loan from the United States, unless the association has sufficient funds to make the loan in addition to paying its indebtedness to the United States.

(Paragraphs (b), (c), (e), (f), and (g) of § 25.6 continue as approved June 23, 1941, 6 F.R. 3366.)

§ 25.7 Applications requiring approval of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Applications of the following character shall require prior approval of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; (a) Applications of Government employees; (b) applications of individuals who will have an aggregate indebtedness to the association exceeding $3,000; (c) applications for loans for the purchase of livestock, machinery, and equipment with maturities exceeding six years; (d) applications for enterprises which are not conducted on lands within the boundaries of the reservation, except enterprises operated in the State of Oklahoma.

§ 25.25 Fees. Inspection fees may be charged a borrower when a physical inspection is necessary, but in no case may the fees exceed one percent of the loan, and in no event may they exceed five dollars.

Fees for the preparation of applications, and for assistance with the clerical work and maintenance of the records of the association may also be charged, when authorized in the loan agreement of the association with the United States, or when authorized by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

The total fees charged may not exceed one percent of the total amount of the loan, except on short-time loans to be repaid within one year, in which cases the Commissioner may approve fees up to two percent of the amount of the loan. Borrowers shall not pay directly or indirectly, any fees, interest, or charges, except as specifically provided for in the regulations in this part.

PART 26—LOANS BY UNITED STATES TO INDIVIDUAL INDIANS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

§ 26.1 Eligibility. To be eligible for a loan an individual must be an Indian as determined by the official tribal rolls; or an Indian descendant of such an enrolled Indian; or an Indian as defined in the Indian Reorganization Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 988, 25 U.S.C. Supp. sec. 479); and must be of not less than one quarter degree of Indian blood. Individuals who are members of any Indian tribe whose affairs are administered by any Indian agency in the State of Oklahoma must also be domiciled in and a resident of the State of Oklahoma. Members of unincorporated tribes are eligible for loans under the regulations in this part when such tribes are not conducting credit operations under 25 C.F.R. Part 21, "Loans to and by Indian Chartered Corporations and Unincorporated Tribes", and have either declined to conduct such operations or are, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Interior, incapable, at the time, of conducting such operations. Members of incorporated tribes are not eligible for loans under this part. Any applicant who resides in the territory of an Indian credit association conducting operations with revolving credit funds to be eligible must show that the credit association has rejected his application and the reasons for the rejection.

§ 26.6 Restrictions on approval. • • • (a) Except when authorized in the loan agreement, for the development of commercial enterprises unless such enterprises are to be conducted on a cash basis: • • •

§ 26.7 Applications requiring approval of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs. Applications of the following character shall require prior approval of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs: (a) Applications of Government employees; (b) applications of individuals who will have an aggregate indebtedness to the credit revolving fund exceeding $3,000; (c) applications for loans for the purchase of livestock, machinery, and equipment with maturities exceeding six years; (d) applications of enterprises which are not conducted on lands within the boundaries of the reservation, except enterprises operated in the State of Oklahoma.

Subchapter L—Irrigation Charges: Operation and Maintenance

PART 130—ORDER FIXING OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

COLORADO RIVER INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT, ARIZ.

APRIL 17, 1944.

Sections 130.6 to 130.8a, inclusive, of 25 CFR Part 130, Indians, as amended by the Assistant Secretary of the Interior on July 31, 1943 (8 F.R., 11714), are hereby amended further to read as follows:

§ 130.6 Basic water charges. Pursuant to the provisions of the Acts of August 1, 1914, and March 7, 1928 (38 Stat. 583, 45 Stat. 210; 25 U. S. C., 385, 387), the annual basic charge against the land to which water can be delivered under the Colorado River Indian Irrigation Project in Arizona, for the operation and maintenance of that project, is hereby fixed until further notice at $4.50 per acre for the delivery of not in excess of 4 acre-feet of water per acre per annum except that when, with the approval by the Superintendent, certain alkali tracts are planted to rice with a view to reclaiming the lands, a quantity of water reasonably sufficient to carry away alkali salts may be furnished to any such tracts of land for not more than two successive years at a rate of $2.00 per acre per annum.

The foregoing charges do not apply to the lands used by the War Relocation Authority. The Memorandum of Understanding between the Interior Department and the Authority of January 29, 1944, shall govern the charges for water delivery.

§ 130.7 Excess water charge. For the delivery of water in excess of 4 acre-feet per acre per annum, additional charges are hereby fixed as follows:

For the delivery of the 5th acre-foot of water or fraction thereof, per acre per annum, $1.50 per acre-foot.

For the delivery of each acre-foot of water or fraction thereof, in excess of 5 acre-feet per acre per annum, $2.00 per acre-foot.

§ 130.8 Payment. The basic water charge fixed in § 130.6 is due on March 1 of each year, and shall be payable on or before that date.

The excess water charge is payable at the time the written request is made for the delivery of water in excess of the minimum four acre-feet per acre per annum and must be paid prior to the delivery of excess water.

No water shall be delivered for use on Indian trust lands under lease until after the Superintendent of the Indian reservation has certified to the Project Engineer that the lessee has paid the annual operation and maintenance charges and complied with all terms of the lease contract.

§ 130.8a Payment waived. Advance payment of the basic and excess water charges may be waived and water may be delivered to trust lands farmed by Indians who are financially unable to pay the charges, when (a) the land is planted to crops other than cotton, (b) the land planted to cotton does not exceed 5 acres, and (c) the Superintendent certifies to the financial status of the Indian and to the factual requirements of (a) and (b). Water may be delivered upon payment of $3.25 per acre of the charges fixed in § 130.6 of this part upon the issuance by the Superintendent of a certificate setting out that while more than five acres of trust land are planted to cotton, the Indian is financially able to pay only $3.25 of the annual per acre charges. Certificates by the Superintendent shall be issued only in proper cases. All unpaid charges are a lien on the land and the amount thereof shall be entered on the accounts without penalty.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue

Subchapter A—Income and Excess-Profits Taxes

[T. D. 5363]

PART 19—INCOME TAX UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

RETROACTIVE EFFECT OF SECTION 169 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1942

In order to conform Regulations 103 [Part 19, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Sup.] to section 509 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Public Law 235, 78th Congress), enacted February 25, 1944, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.322–1 the following:

SEC. 509. RETROACTIVE EFFECT OF SECTION 169 OF THE REVENUE ACT OF 1942. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title I.)

(a) In general. Section 169 (c) of the Revenue act of 1942 (relating to the effective date of certain amendments to section 322) is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following: "A provision having the effect of the amendment inserting section 322 (b) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and a provision having the effect of the amendment made by subsection (b) of this section, shall be deemed to be included in the revenue laws respectively applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1923, but such amendments shall be effective with respect to taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1942, only if on or at some time after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943 the Commissioner may assess the tax for such taxable year solely by reason of having made (either before, on, or after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943) an agreement with the taxpayer pursuant to section 276 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding provision of the applicable prior revenue law to extend beyond the time prescribed in section 275 or the corresponding provision of such prior revenue law the date within which the Commissioner may assess the tax."

• • • • •

PAR. 2. Section 19.322–7; as amended by Treasury Decision 5256, approved April 7, 1943, is amended as follows:

1. By amending the last sentence of paragraph (a) to read as follows:

The provisions of this paragraph are subject to the exceptions provided in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) of this section.

2. By inserting immediately after the first three words "in any case" of the first sentence of paragraph (b) the following:

, other than a case covered by the last paragraph of this paragraph,

3. By inserting at the end of (b) the following:

In any case in which the Commissioner would be barred on February 25, 1944, the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943, or on any date thereafter, from assessing a deficiency but for the fact that the Commissioner and the taxpayer have executed an agreement under the provisions of section 276 (b) to extend beyond the period prescribed in section 275 the time within which the commissioner may make an assessment, the provisions of paragraph (d) of § 29.322–7 of Regulations 111 shall apply. Such provisions shall apply even though the Commissioner could assess a deficiency on the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943 without regard to such an agreement if at some time after the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943 the Commissioner would be barred from making an assessment but for the fact that such an agreement has in fact been executed. It is immaterial whether the agreement is executed before, on, or after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943. It is likewise immaterial whether the Commissioner actually does make an assessment pursuant to such an agreement. The authority to make the assessment is the determining factor.

4. By inserting at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

(d) Limitations in case waiver executed. In any case in which the Commissioner would be barred on February 25, 1944, the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943, or on any date thereafter, from assessing a deficiency but for the fact that the Commissioner and the taxpayer have executed an agreement under the provisions of section 276 (b) to extend beyond the period prescribed in section 275 the time within which the Commissioner may make an assessment, the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 29.322–7 of Regulations 111 shall apply. Such provisions shall apply even though the Commissioner could assess a deficiency on the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943 without regard to such an agreement if at some time after the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943 the Commissioner would be barred from making an assessment but for the fact that such an agreement has in fact been executed. It is immaterial whether the agreement is executed before, on, or after the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943. It is likewise immaterial whether the Commissioner actually does make the assessment pursuant to such an agreement. The authority to make the assessment is the determining factor.

PAR. 3. The amendments to § 19.322–7 of Regulations 103 (covering taxable years beginning after December 31, 1938 and prior to January 1, 1942) set forth in this Treasury decision are hereby made applicable to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1923 and prior to January 1, 1939 (such years being covered by Regulations 65, 69, 74, 77, 86, 94, and 101).

Secs. 62 and 322 of the Internal Revenue Code (53 Stat. 32, 91; 26 U.S.C. 62, 322), corresponding provisions of prior internal revenue laws, and sec. 509 (a) of the Revenue Act of 1943. (Pub. Law 235, 78th Cong.))

[SEAL] JOSEPH D. NUNAN, Jr.,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: April 29, 1944.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

PART 19—INCOME TAX UNDER THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE

PART 29—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1941

LAST-IN FIRST-OUT INVENTORY

In order to conform Regulations 103 [Part 19, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1940 Supp.] and Regulations 111 [Part 29, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, Cum. Supp.] relating to the income tax under the Internal Revenue Code, to section 110 of the Revenue Act of 1943 (Public Law 235, 78th Congress), enacted February 25, 1944, such regulations are amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. There is inserted immediately preceding § 19.22 (d)–1 the following:

SEC. 110. LAST-IN FIRST-OUT INVENTORY. (Revenue Act of 1943, Title I.)

(a) In general—(1) Retroactive effect. Section 22 (d) (6) (A) (relating to involuntary liquidation and replacement of goods subject to elective inventory) is amended (A) by striking out "December 31, 1941" and inserting in lieu thereof "December 31, 1940", and (B) by inserting after "taxpayer's income tax return for such year" the following: "(or, with respect to taxable years beginning in 1941, at any time within the six months period following the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943)".

(2) Effect of adjustment on carry-overs and carry-backs. The next to the last sentence of section 22 (d) (6) (A) is amended to read as follows: "The taxes imposed by this chapter and by chapter 2 for the year of such liquidation, for preceding taxable years, and for all taxable years intervening between the year of liquidation and the year of replacement shall be redetermined, giving effect to such adjustments."

(3) Technical amendment relating to replacements. Section 22 (d) (6) (C) (relating to replacements) is amended to read as follows:

(C) Replacements. If, in the case of any taxpayer subject to the provisions of subparagraph (A), the closing inventory of the taxpayer for a taxable year, subsequent to the year of involuntary liquidation but prior to the complete replacement of the goods so liquidated, reflects an increase over the opening inventory of such goods for the taxable year, the goods reflecting such increase shall be considered, in the order of their acquisition, as having been acquired in replacement of the goods most recently liquidated (whether or not in a year of involuntary liquidation) and not previously replaced, and if the liquidation was an involuntary liquidation shall be taken into purchases and included in the closing inventory of the taxpayer for the year of replacement at the inventory cost basis of the goods replaced.

(4) Effect of election. Section 22 (d) (6) (D) (relating to irrevocable effect of election) is amended by striking out "for subsequent taxable years" and inserting in lieu thereof "for prior and subsequent taxable years".

(5) Taxes affected by adjustment. Section 22 (d) (6) (E) (relating to adjustment with respect to closed years) is amended by striking out "Subchapter E of".

(b) Effective date. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940

PAR. 2. Section 19.22 (d)–7, as added by Treasury Decision 5199, approved December 10, 1942, is amended as follows:

1. By inserting in the second sentence of the first paragraph, and immediately after the words "at the time of filing his income tax return for the year of liquidation" the following: "(or, with respect to liquidations occurring in a taxable year beginning in 1941, at any time prior to August 26, 1944)".

2. By striking from the second paragraph the words "December 31, 1941," and inserting in lieu thereof the words "December 31, 1940,".

3. By striking the period at the end of the first sentence in the fourth paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof a comma and the following: "or, with respect to a taxable year beginning in 1941, prior to August 26, 1944."

4. By striking at the beginning of the second sentence of the fourth paragraph the words "In making such election," and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "In making such election for a taxable year other than one beginning in 1941,".

5. By inserting at the end of the fourth paragraph the following:

With respect to an election for a taxable year beginning in 1941, the required statement of the taxpayer shall be duly verified under oath and shall be filed with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, or with the collector of internal revenue, together with a statement of the time and place of filing the taxpayer's return for the taxable year.

6. By striking from the first sentence of the fifth paragraph the words "intervening and subsequent years" twice appearing therein and by inserting in lieu thereof in each case the words "prior, intervening, and subsequent years".

7. By striking the third sentence in the fifth paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

They may have consequences in the prior years by reason of adjustments in net operating loss or unused excess profits credit carry-backs, and in intervening and subsequent taxable years by reason of adjustments in carry-overs. Adjustments are to be made for the several years affected consistent with the adjustments made for the year of liquidation.

8. By changing the sixth paragraph thereof to read:

Notwithstanding the ultimate purchase price or the cost of production ultimately incurred by the taxpayer in effecting replacement of a stock involuntarily liquidated, the merchandise reflecting the replacement shall be taken into purchases and included in the closing inventory for the year of replacement, and shall be included in the inventories of subsequent taxable years, at the inventory cost figure of the merchandise replaced.

PAR. 3. There is inserted immediately preceding § 29.22 (d)–1 the following:

SEC. 110. LAST-IN FIRST-OUT INVENTORY. (Revenue Act of 1943, Table I.)

(a) In general—(1) Retroactive effect. Section 22 (d) (6) (A) (relating to involuntary liquidation and replacement of goods subject to elective inventory) is amended (A) by striking out "December 31, 1941" and inserting in lieu thereof "December 31, 1940", and (B) by inserting after "taxpayer's income tax return for such year" the following: "(or, with respect to taxable years beginning in 1941, at any time within the six months period following the date of the enactment of the Revenue Act of 1943)".

(2) Effect of adjustment on carry-overs and carry-backs. The next to the last sentence of section 22 (d) (6) (A) is amended to read as follows: "The taxes imposed by this chapter and by chapter 2 for the year of such liquidation, for preceding taxable years, and for all taxable years intervening between the year of liquidation and the year of replacement shall be redetermined, giving effect to such adjustments."

(3) Technical amendment relating to replacements. Section 22 (d) (6) (C) (relating to replacements) is amended to read as follows:

(C) Replacements. If, in the case of any taxpayer subject to the provisions of subparagraph (A), the closing inventory of the taxpayer for a taxable year, subsequent to the year of involuntary liquidation but prior to the complete replacement of the goods so liquidated, reflects an increase over the opening inventory of such goods for the taxable year, the goods reflecting such increase shall be considered, in the order of their acquisition, as having been acquired in replacement of the goods most recently liquidated (whether or not in a year of involuntary liquidation) and not previously replaced, and if the liquidation was an involuntary liquidation shall be taken into purchases and included in the closing inventory of the taxpayer for the year of replacement at the inventory cost basis of the goods replaced.

(4) Effect of election. Section 22 (d) (6) (D) (relating to irrevocable effect of election) is amended by striking out "for subsequent taxable years" and inserting in lieu thereof "for prior and subsequent taxable years".

(5) Taxes affected by adjustment. Section 22 (d) (6) (E) (relating to adjustment with respect to closed years) is amended by striking out "Subchapter E of".

(b) Effective date. The amendments made by this section shall be applicable with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1940.

PAR. 4. Section 29.22 (d)–7 is amended as follows:

1. By striking from the first sentence of the fifth paragraph the words "intervening and subsequent years" twice appearing therein and by inserting in lieu thereof in each case the words "prior, intervening, and subsequent years".

2. By striking the third sentence in the fifth paragraph and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

They may have consequences in the prior years by reason of adjustments in net operating loss or unused excess profits credit carry-backs, and in intervening and subsequent taxable years by reason of adjustments in carry-overs. Adjustments are to be made for the several years affected consistent with the adjustments made for the year of liquidation.

3. By changing the sixth paragraph thereof to read:

Notwithstanding the ultimate purchase price or the cost of production ultimately incurred by the taxpayer in effecting replacement of a stock involuntarily liquidated, the merchandise reflecting the replacement shall be taken into purchases and included in the closing inventory for the year of replacement, and shall be included in the inventories of subsequent taxable years, at the inventory cost figure of the merchandise replaced.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–520]

WILLIAM R. VOSS

William R. Voss, of Wareham, Massachusetts, owns and operates a variety store in Wareham, and owns two summer cottages nearby. In May, June, and July, 1943, without authorization from the War Production Board, he caused one of the cottages to be removed and reconstructed elsewhere, and on its former site began the erection of an open-air moving picture theatre, and also did some reconstruction on his store. The work on the theatre cost $1,350, on the cottage $527, and on the store $290. The latter two jobs he completed, but the theatre is still unfinished. All of this work was in violation of Conservation Order L–41 which placed a limit of $200 on such construction. Mr. Voss was aware of War Production Board restrictions on construction, and doing this construction without authorization constituted wilful violations of Order L–41.

These violations of Order L–41 have diverted critical material to uses not authorized by the War Production Board, and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve William R. Voss, his successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on April 28, 1944.

Issued this 21st day of April 1944.

By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–521]

HARRY C. VOSE

Harry C. Vose, of Wareham, Massachusetts, is a general contractor. In May, June, and July, 1943, he did carpentering and other construction work on three projects in Wareham, for William R. Voss. The cost of one project was $1350, of a second, $527, and of a third project, $290. All of the work, including the work done by Mr. Vose, was done without authorization from the War Production Board, in violation of Conservation Order L–41, which placed a limit of $200 on such construction. Mr. Vose was aware of War Production Board restrictions on construction, and participating in this construction without authorization constituted wilful violations of Order L–41.

These violations of Order L–41 have diverted critical material to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.521 Suspension Order No. S–521. (a) Deliveries of material to Harry C. Vose, his successors or assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation, including allotments, shall be made to Harry C. Vose, his successors or assigns, of any material or product the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order or regulation of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Harry C. Vose, his successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on April 28, 1944, and shall expire June 28, 1944.

Issued this 21st day of April 1944.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–522]

DANTE FAVA

Dante Fava, of West Wareham, Massachusetts, is a masonry contractor. In May, June, and July, 1943, he did the concrete work on an open-air moving picture theatre in Wareham, Massachusetts, for William R. Voss. The cost of the project was $1350. The work, including that done by Mr. Fava, was done without authorization from the War Production Board, in violation of Conservation Order L–41, which placed a limit of $200 on such construction. Mr. Fava was aware of War Production Board restrictions on construction, and participating in this construction without authorization constituted wilful violations of Order L–41.

These violations of Order L–41 have diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.522 Suspension Order No. S–522. (a) Deliveries of material to Dante Fava, his successors or assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation, including allotments, shall be made to Dante Fava, his successors or assigns, of any material or product the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order or regulation of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Dante Fava, his successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on April 28, 1944, and shall expire June 28, 1944.

Issued this 21st day of April 1944.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–523]

DESILVIA ELECTRIC COMPANY

DeSilvia Electric Company, of 75 Broadway, Taunton, Massachusetts, is a partnership composed of John Henry DeSilvia and Emanuel Arthur DeSilvia, and is engaged in the electrical supply business. In May, June, and July, 1943, the company installed electrical wiring and provided services and materials in connection therewith, in the construction of an open-air moving picture theatre in Wareham, Massachusetts, for William R. Voss. The cost of the project was $1350. The work, including that done by the company, was done without authorization from the War Production Board, in violation of Conservation Order L–41, which placed a limit of $200 on such construction. John Henry DeSilvia, who acted for the company, was aware of War Production Board restrictions on construction, and participating in this construction without authorization constituted wilful violations of Order L–41.

These violations of Order L–41 have diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.523 Suspension Order No. S–523. (a) Deliveries of material to John Henry DeSilvia and Emanuel Arthur DeSilvia, doing business as DeSilvia Electric Company, or otherwise, their successors or assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference rating shall be assigned, applied or extended to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders or any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No allocation, including allotments, shall be made to John Henry DeSilvia and Emanuel Arthur DeSilvia, doing business as DeSilvia Electric Company, or otherwise, their successors or assigns, of any material or product the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order or regulation of the War Production Board, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve John Henry DeSilvia and Emanuel Arthur DeSilvia, doing business as DeSilvia Electric Company, or otherwise, their successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on April 28, 1944, and shall expire June 28, 1944.

Issued this 21st day of April 1944.

PART 1226—GENERAL INDUSTRIAL EQUIPMENT

[Supplementary Order L–193–a, as Amended Apr. 29, 1944]

SPROCKET CHAIN, SPROCKET CHAIN ATTACHMENT LINKS AND SPROCKET CHAIN WHEELS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of sprocket chain, sprocket chain attachment links and sprocket chain wheels for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 1226.53 Supplementary Limitation Order L–193–a—(a) Definitions. The definitions in General Limitation Order L–193 do not apply to this order. For the purpose of this order "sprocket chain" means any chain, except ladder chain, designed for the purpose of operating over toothed sprocket wheels.

(b) Inventory limitations. No person who, in the course of his business, purchases and incorporates sprocket chain, sprocket chain attachment links or sprocket chain wheels into machinery or equipment manufactured in whole or in part by him, or who purchases such chain, links or wheels for resale as such, shall accept delivery thereof if his total inventory will, after acceptance, exceed what he reasonably expects to use or resell during the succeeding 45 days. No person may deliver sprocket chain, sprocket chain attachment links, or sprocket chain wheels if he knows or has reason to believe that such delivery will increase the recipient's inventory above this 45 day limitation.

(c) Exemptions. The provisions of paragraph (b) do not apply to Army maintenance depots, Navy yards, bases, stations and depots.

(d) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who wilfully furnishes false information to the War Production Board in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the War Production Board.

(e) Appeals. Any producer or purchaser of sprocket chain, sprocket chain attachment links or sprocket chain wheels who believes that the terms of this order result in undue hardship may appeal by letter stating the relief requested and the reasons it is necessary.

(f) Communications. All appeals and other communications concerning this order should be addressed to the General Industrial Equipment Division, War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: L–193–a.

Issued this 29th day of April 1944.

PART 1288—POWER, STEAM AND WATER AUXILIARY EQUIPMENT

[Limitation Order L–154, Schedule V, as Amended Apr. 29, 1944]

HIGH VOLTAGE INSULATORS

§ 1288.6 Schedule V to Limitation Order No. L–154—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this schedule:

(1) "Producer" means any person who produces, manufactures, processes, fabricates, or assembles high voltage insulators.

(2) "High voltage insulators" means all wet process porcelain (except tubes, cleats, knobs, etc., used in secondary wiring at voltages under 500 volts) or glass insulators or insulating parts, whether or not assembled with metal parts used in the transmission or distribution of electrical energy, or as a part of an electrical machine or piece of equipment, or in connection with telegraph, telephone, and signal systems over 500 volts. The term also shall include clamps, fittings, and accessory hardware used directly with such insulators or insulating parts and/or affecting their functioning, except crossarm pins, but shall not include "pin type" insulators.

(b) Restrictions on materials. The following restrictions on materials are hereby established for the manufacture of high voltage insulators of the classes covered by this schedule. The use of critical materials[1] including steel, copper, and aluminum and their alloys shall be reduced to a minimum consistent with strength and operating requirements of the product. The use of non-ferrous caps, pins (except nonferrous cotter pins used with suspension insulators), bolts, nuts and washers as parts of high voltage insulators is prohibited. Malleable castings shall be used instead of forgings wherever strength requirements make such use possible and where necessary equipment for manufacture, such as patterns, is available.

(c) Required specifications. The following required specifications are hereby established for the manufacture of high voltage insulators of the classes covered by this schedule.

(1) The electrical and mechanical characteristics of high voltage insulators set forth in the publication "NEMA High Voltage Insulator Standards," Publication No. 42–83 (November, 1942) are incorporated herein by reference and shall be considered standard. Such standard electrical and mechanical characteristics shall be strictly followed in the production of high voltage insulators except as modified by other provisions of this schedule or by special authorization of the War Production Board.

(2) No producer shall fabricate or deliver high voltage insulators having a design different from those being actually produced by him, except pursuant to the provisions of this schedule or special authorization from the War Production Board; provided nothing contained herein shall be deemed to restrict production of new design insulators for experimental purposes and not for resale.

(3) Only one type of insulator for each rating of each class of high voltage insulators permitted under this order shall be fabricated by any producer; switch and bus insulators of the same rating shall not be made in both one piece and multipart units.

(4) The tapped hole type of cap shall be standard for all outdoor switch and bus insulators, and caps of the slotted or clamp type shall not be produced.

(5) High voltage insulators of wet process porcelain shall be supplied only in chocolate or brown colored glaze.

(d) Limitations on cap and pin type suspension insulators. No person shall produce, deliver, or accept cap and pin type suspension insulators which do not conform to the specifications set forth in the following table:

NOTE 1. The variation in section length shall be held such that the connecting length of a string of six units selected at random shall not depart more than plus or minus ½ inch from the nominal spacing for the unit multiplied by six.

NOTE 2. The type of shell for a particular cap and pin type suspension insulator may be selected as desired by manufacturer but only one type of shell may be used with such suspension insulator.

[1] The Conservation Division of the War Production Board issues periodically a publication showing the relative scarcity of materials entitled "Material Substitutions and Supply" list.

NOTE 3. This type of shell may be manufactured in either 9" or 10" diameter and assembled at option of individual manufacturer with either ball socket or medium duty clevis type of connection but both may not be manufactured.

(e) Limitations on switch and bus insulators. No person shall produce, deliver, or accept outdoor switch and bus insulators which do not conform to the specifications set forth in the following tables. No new designs of any strength may be produced by any person without authorization from the War Production Board.

(f) Inspection and tests. (1) No manufacturer of high voltage insulators shall make any inspection, design or routine manufacturing tests except such as are permitted under paragraph (f) (2), or pursuant to special authorization of the War Production Board. Any tests made to establish ratings, such as wet and dry flashover, impulse, etc., shall not be repeated as long as the established design and materials remain unchanged. Certified copies of existing rating tests for any type of insulator shall be made available to purchasers upon demand.

(2) Manufacturers of high voltage insulators may furnish such of the tests listed below as have a reasonable relation to the needs of the purchasers, and are specifically requested by the purchaser in his purchase order. All such tests shall be made in accordance with the procedures and standards set forth in NEMA High Voltage Insulators Standards, Publication 42-83, and Appendix A, dated November 1942.

(i) Routine flashover tests on insulator parts—paragraph 41-800 (a) (1) or 41-800 (a) (2) and 41-800 (b), page 41.[1]

(ii) Routine mechanical proof tests on assembled insulators, Suspension insulators—paragraph 41-801 (a), page 42, Switch and Bus Insulators—paragraph 41-801 (b), page 42.

(iii) Routine flashover tests on assembled insulators—paragraph 41-800 (a) (1) or 41-800 (b), page 41.

(iv) Mechanical and electrical test—paragraph 41-300, page 36.

(v) Puncture test—paragraph 41-600 and 41-601, page 39.

(vii) Porosity test—paragraph 41-400, 41-401, 41-402, 41-403, and 41-404, page 37.

The total number of insulators used for tests (iv), (v), (vi), and (vii) shall not exceed the following quantities, and to the extent practicable the units used for destructive tests shall be those rejected or broken.

Total quantity ordered:	Number of switch and bus insulators permitted for destructive test
601–1000	4
over 1000	5 or .3 of 1% whichever is greater

Total quantity ordered:	Suspension type permitted for destructive test
over 1000	5 or .3 of 1% whichever is greater but not to exceed 50

(3) Purchasers shall be given 72 hours advance notice of tests and inspections, and shall be permitted to have an inspector present during the period of inspection and tests. No inspection requiring additional handling, repetition of tests, or delay in production or shipment shall be permitted due to failure of purchasers' inspector to be present at the time stated in the notice.

(g) Restrictions on production, deliveries, and acceptances. From and after June 28, 1943, no person shall accept deliveries of, and no producer shall deliver or produce (or accept deliveries of material for the purpose of producing) high voltage insulators which do not conform to the applicable restrictions on materials, required specifications, limitations of tests and other restrictions, established by this schedule unless such insulators fall within the exceptions of paragraph (h); Provided, however, That nothing herein contained shall prevent the production, delivery or acceptance of high voltage insulators, or materials therefor, which were wholly or partially fabricated on June 28, 1943, and which cannot readily be made to conform to the provisions of this schedule.

(h) Exceptions to applicability of this schedule. (1) In cases where types and designs of high voltage insulators other than those authorized by this Schedule are required for special purposes and inability to manufacture, assemble and deliver such high voltage insulators would cause undue inconvenience and hardship, special approval may be requested by letter addressed to the War Production Board, Reference L-154.

(2) Nothing contained herein shall prohibit the manufacture or assembly of outdoor cap and pin or insert type insulators of voltage ratings of 7.5 kv and 15 kv only and of cantilever strength not to exceed 500 pounds, for which provision is made pursuant to paragraph (c) (5) (i) of Schedule IV, Limitation Order No. L–154.

(3) The restrictions contained in this schedule shall not apply to any Radio, Radar, or Communication Insulators as specified and used by the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or War Shipping Administration for uses other than those of the high voltage insulators outlined for general use in Schedule V.

Issued this 29th day of April 1944.

PART 903—DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

[Directive 33 as Amended Apr. 28, 1944]

DISTRIBUTION OF COKE

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by Executive Order No. 9024 of January 16, 1942, Executive Order No. 9040 of January 24, 1942, and Executive Order 9125 of April 7, 1942, and in order to delegate to the Solid Fuels Administrator for War authority to provide for the equitable and efficient distribution of coke to domestic consumers, it is hereby ordered that:

§ 903.46 Directive 33. (a) The Solid Fuels Administrator for War shall, subject to the direction of the Chairman of the War Production Board, perform the functions and exercise the power, authority, and discretion conferred upon the President by section 2 (a) of the Act of June 28, 1940 (Pub. No. 671, 76th Congress, 54 Stat. 676) as amended by the Act of May 31, 1941 (Pub. No. 89, 77th Congress, 55 Stat. 236) and as further amended by Title III of the Second War Powers Act, March 27, 1942 (Pub. No. 507, 77th Congress, 56 Stat. 176), with respect to the exercise of control over the sale, transfer, delivery, or other disposition of coke intended for use by any domestic consumer from any producer to any wholesale or retail dealer, or from one dealer to another dealer, or from any producer, wholesale or retail dealer to any domestic consumer and over the use of coke by any domestic consumer. This authority, however, shall not include the power to limit or restrict the quantity of coke obtainable by the Army, Navy, Marine Corps or Coast Guard of the United States; by government agencies or other persons to the extent to which they acquire such coke for export to and use in any foreign country; or by any person to the extent that he acquires coke for use in an industrial process or for the production of power or for space heating which is incidental thereto.

(b) The authority of the Solid Fuels Administrator for War under this delegation shall include the power to regulate or prohibit the sale, transfer or delivery or other disposition of coke, or use of coke, by any person or domestic consumer who has acted in violation of any regulation or order prescribed by the Solid Fuels Administrator for War for the distribution of coke.

(c) The Solid Fuels Administrator for War is authorized to perform the functions and exercise the power, authority and discretion delegated to him by paragraphs (a) and (b) hereof upon such conditions and to such extent as he shall deem necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense. In order to perform such functions and exercise such power, authority, and discretion, the Solid Fuels Administrator for War is further authorized to exercise the authority, in accordance with the provisions of said Executive Order No. 9125, to obtain information, require reports and the keeping of records, make inspection of books, records and other writings, premises or property of any person, make investigations, administer oaths and affirmations, and require the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of books, records and other documentary or physical evidence.

(d) The Solid Fuels Administrator for War may exercise the power, authority and discretion conferred upon him by this directive through such personnel of the Solid Fuels Administration for War and the Department of Interior, and in such manner as he may determine and accept the services of other departments, agencies and officials of the government in carrying out the purposes of this directive.

(e) As used in this directive the term "producer" means any person who produces coke; the term "domestic consumer" means any person who acquires coke for space heating, domestic hot water or domestic cooking but does not include any person to the extent that he acquires coke for use in an industrial process or for the production of power or for space heating which is incidental thereto; and the term "person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, government or government agency or any other organized group or enterprise; and the term "coke" means coke made from bituminous coal.

(f) Nothing herein shall be construed to limit or modify any regulation, order or directive heretofore issued by or under the authority of the Chairman of the War Production Board nor to terminate or limit the power of the Chairman of the War Production Board to issue further directives, regulations or orders regulating the delivery or use of coke, nor to affect the authority vested in the Chairman of the War Production Board, pursuant to Executive Orders 9024, 9040 and 9125 to determine the relative importance of deliveries and certify as to the preferential treatment to be accorded them with respect to the delivery or use of coke, nor to affect the program of rationing coal, coke and wood for the Northwest Pacific Area by the Office of Price Administration in accordance with the provisions of its Rationing Order 14–A, effective September 18, 1943.

Issued this 28th day of April 1944.

DONALD M. NELSON,
Chairman.

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

[General Conservation Order M–317, as Amended April 8, 1944, Amdt. 1]

COTTON TEXTILE DISTRIBUTION

Section 3290.115 General Conservation Order M–317 is amended as follows:

In the Carded Gray Goods, Colored Yarn and Napped Fabrics and Specialties Distribution Schedule substitute for the present provisions relating to reference numbers 44 through 53 inclusive the following:

Column I	Column II	Column III	Column IV	Column V	Column VI
22	Class B sheetings: 40" 48 x 40 3.75 yd.		100	100	These cotton textiles, as piece goods, may not be delivered by the producer for export except to Canada. Shipments to Canada may not be counted as exports for the purpose of complying with the Column III obligations.
23	37" 48 x 44 4.00 yd.		100	100
26	36" 48 x 44 4.11 yd.		100	100
25	31" 48 x 44 5.00 yd.		100	100
28	32" 38 to 40 x 36 to 40 6.25 yd.		100	100
24	40" 44 x 40 4.25 yd.	40	100	100
14 through 21, 26 through 29.	All class A, and all other class B sheetings (except 36" 4.11 yd. and 22" 6.25 yd.).	15	100	100

The above provisions shall not prevent delivery for export where the order was accepted before April 8, 1944, in conformity with this order as amended February 21, 1944, for delivery before July 1, 1944. Those contracts shall be filled despite the presentation of higher rated orders for domestic use.

The above provisions relating to 40" 44 x 40 4.25 yd. shall not prevent the filling of any order for domestic use accepted before April 8, 1944, in conformity with this order as amended February 21, 1944, for delivery before July 1, 1944.

Issued this 28th day of April 1944.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 3, Direction 2, as Amended May 1, 1944]

PAPER CUPS AND PAPER FOOD CONTAINERS

The following direction is issued pursuant to Priorities Reg. 3:

(a) Purpose. This direction provides an exception to the provisions of List B of Priorities Regulation No. 3, which prohibits the use of MRO ratings to obtain paper cups and paper food containers. By the terms of this direction, MRO ratings may be used to obtain paper cups and paper food containers but only to the extent specified herein.

(b) Definitions. For the purpose of this direction:

(1) "Paper cups and paper food containers" means all empty open nested paper cups and round nested paper food containers with or without lids. The term does not include flat envelope types of cup, wedge-shaped food pails or nested paper plates.

(2) "In-plant feeding" means the serving of food, drink or refreshments on the premises of a plant or business activity to its employees when the food or drink is prepared on the premises of the plant or business activity, or when the food, or drink prepared in bulk (such as coffee or soup), is brought to the plant or business activity and served in paper cups or paper food containers on the premises. It shall also include the serving of food, drink and refreshments by (1) military exchanges and service departments (as defined in Priorities Regulation No. 17), (2) hospitals serving their patients, (3) welfare organizations such as USO, Red Cross, etc., serving servicemen and their guests, and (4) persons engaged in serving passengers on trains and in planes.

(3) "A caterer or concessionnaire" means a person who has an agreement with an operator of a plant or business activity to regularly provide in-plant feeding for its employees, and who prepares his food or drink on the premises of the plant, or brings his food, or drink prepared in bulk (such as coffee or soup), to the plant and serves it on the premises. It does not include persons supplying food or drink in paper cups or paper food containers from outside the plant.

Use of Preference Ratings

(c) Any person may use the blanket MRO rating assigned to him by any regulation of the War Production Board (including CMP Regulation No. 5, CMP Regulation No. 5A and orders in the P, T, or U Series) to buy paper cups and paper food containers for in-plant feeding.

(d) A person, such as a caterer or concessionnaire, may use his customer's blanket MRO rating to buy paper cups and paper food containers for use in providing in-plant feeding to employees of the customer. In such a case, the customer must include the cost of the paper cups and paper food containers (but need not include the cost of the food contained in them or any other charge in connection with the in-plant feeding) in his own MRO expenditures for the purpose of figuring whether he is within any quota limitation (such as paragraph (f) of CMP Regulation No. 5) imposed by the regulation or order assigning the MRO rating.

(e) Ratings on application. Preference ratings for users not included above and preference ratings differing from those assigned may be assigned on application by any person on Form WPB 541 (formerly PD–1A) and the use of the rating may be conditioned upon the placement of orders with specified suppliers. The assignment of a rating to an applicant on this form will permit him to use that rating to get only the specific quantities and items applied for. Where any person making such application justifies his need for a rating upon the ground that he provides eating facilities patronized principally by workers engaged in a nearby plant, he shall accompany his application with a statement from a responsible official of the plant certifying to his workers' dependence upon the applicant's eating facilities.

(f) Certificate. The ratings assigned pursuant to or permitted to be used by this order may be applied or extended only by use of a certificate in substantially the form prescribed by Priorities Regulation No. 7.

(g) Extension of ratings. Ratings applied or extended to get paper cups or paper food containers may not be extended to obtain materials for use in their manufacture.

Restrictions

(h) Inventory. No person shall accept delivery of any paper cups and paper food containers which will increase his inventory of any size and type to more than his reasonably anticipated requirements for the ensuing thirty days, except that the minimum standard commercial packing case quantity may be purchased, whenever the purchaser's inventory is less than a 30-days' supply.

(i) Equipment for use of chinaware. No person may use his blanket MRO rating to purchase paper cups or paper food containers for the serving of hot food or beverages if such person has equipment for using chinaware or other containers. In the event that such equipment can only serve a portion of his needs, he may order only the quantity of paper cups or paper food containers required in excess of such equipment.

(j) Paper cups as shipping containers. Attention is called to the fact that persons buying paper cups and paper food containers for use in packaging food or other products for shipment or delivery are not permitted to use blanket MRO ratings for this purpose.

(k) Persons not using paper cups before October 29, 1943. Any person who did not use paper cups or paper food containers for in-plant feeding before October 29, 1943 may not use his blanket MRO rating to obtain them unless he files an appeal by letter in triplicate with the appropriate field office of the War Production Board and such appeal is granted. The granting of the appeal shall constitute authority to use his blanket MRO rating for his future requirements of paper cups and paper food containers for in-plant feeding. This provision shall not apply to military exchanges or service departments.

(l) Prohibited uses. No person shall sell or deliver the following types of paper cups if he knows or has reason to believe that they will be used for the purposes stated, and no person shall use such paper cups for those purposes: (1) packages of cups for commercial retail sales, (2) hot drink cups for serving cold foods and beverages and (3) paper cups to be served with individual bottled beverages. The above prohibition against delivering paper cups in packages to be used for commercial retail sales shall not apply to stocks already made up on January 29, 1944.

(m) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this direction shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate with the appropriate field office of the War Production Board. The appeal should refer to the particular provision appealed from, state clearly the relief desired and explain fully the grounds for appeal.

(n) Reports. Any person affected by this direction shall file such reports and questionnaires as the War Production Board may request from time to time, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(o) Termination date. The provisions of this direction shall terminate and be void after May 15, 1944 unless previously extended. Any rating applied to an order to paper cups and paper food containers not shipped by that date shall be deemed void.

(p) Communications. All inquiries relating to this direction shall be addressed to: War Production Board, Containers Division, Washington 25, D. C., reference Direction 2 to Priorities Regulation No. 3.

Issued this 1st day of May 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Reg. 13, as Amended May 1, 1944]

§ 944.34 Priorities Regulation 13—(a) Purpose of this regulation. This regulation, in general, describes the rules under which materials may be sold by persons who are not in the regular business of selling such materials. While most sales of this kind will be sales of frozen, idle, or excess materials the regulation also covers any sale from inventory by such persons. For example, a person who has idle materials on hand because his business has been converted to war work, or because the business he used to carry on has been stopped or limited by War Production Board orders, or whose contract has been cancelled or changed, may sell off the idle or excess materials only under the rules in this regulation and, if he follows this regulation, he does not have to look at any other order or regulation except in a few cases which are described in paragraph (f) (2) below. This regulation also controls liquidation sales, bankruptcy sales, general auction sales, and other special sales, as defined in paragraph (b) (1).

(b) Special definitions used in this regulation. This regulation deals only with "special sales" of "industrial materials" or "finished products." As used in the regulation, those terms have the following meanings:

(1) "Special sale" means a sale of a material or product by a person who does not, in the regular course of his business, sell it in that form. For example, if a manufacturer sells the raw material he has bought to use in making his regular product, it is a special sale because selling raw material is not his regular business. Or, if a contractor has bought building materials and equipment to build a building and cannot finish it and sells them, that is a special sale because his business is building houses, not selling lumber and nails and lighting fixtures. Liquidation sales by trustees in bankruptcy, receivers and other kinds of liquidators (unless they are continuing to operate a business) and sales by general auctioneers are special sales as that type of person is not considered to be regularly in the business of selling any particular products.

(2) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind. It includes both "industrial materials" and "finished products."

(3) "Industrial materials" means the simple kinds of materials that finished products are made out of. It includes simple material forms like pipe, metal sheet and rod, wire, lumber, chemicals, nails, nuts and bolts. These are things that are bought for use in making something else, or are to be put together with other things to make a finished product.

(4) "Finished products" means completed articles which are ready for use just as they are and which do not need to be put together with something else before they can be used. It includes wrenches and hammers, assembled parts, replacement parts and products like tools, machinery, motors, valves, drums and fabricated industrial, agricultural or household equipment. Other examples of what it includes are clothing, furnishings, light bulbs, etc.

(5) "Used materials" means any industrial materials or finished products which have been put into actual use.

(6) Materials not covered by this regulation. There are three types of materials which are not covered by this regulation. They are the following:

(i) Scrap. This includes both scrap normally generated in production and other material which is sold as scrap. There are special orders covering certain types of scrap and except in those cases scrap may be sold to a scrap dealer.

(ii) Rationed products which are controlled by another government agency.

(iii) Foods for humans or animals, medicines, tobacco, oils and fats, petroleum and petroleum products including natural and liquefied petroleum gases.

(c) Kinds of special sales which may be made. If a person wants to make a "special sale" (as described above), the rules in this regulation apply and only these rules. There is no need to look at any other order or regulation, and these rules must be followed, no matter how the material was bought, and no matter what any other order or regulation provides. The only exceptions to this rule are stated in paragraphs (f) (2) and (3). The types of special sales which may be made are the following:

(1) Materials not on Lists A or B. (i) Industrial materials not on List A may be sold freely to anyone.

(ii) Finished products not on List B may be sold freely to any producer who makes such a product in the form in which the holder has it, or to a wholesaler whose regular business is selling that sort of a product either to industrial users or to other distributors for resale. They also may be sold to anyone else on a rating of AA–5 or higher. If a holder has a total of not more than $100.00 worth of the particular finished product he wants to sell, he may sell it freely to anyone. In deciding whether he has $100.00 worth, he must count all products of the same type and style. For example, all wrenches, or chairs or ash cans. This does not mean that a person may sell freely separate lots worth less than $100.00 if he has more than that amount. It only allows the sale if all he has of that product is worth $100.00 or less. A holder may also make a special sale of a finished product which is not on List B if he obtains permission from the War Production Board as explained below in paragraph (c) (2) (iii).

(2) Materials on List A or List B. If the material that the holder wants to sell is one of the industrial materials listed on List A or is a finished product appearing on List B, the following are the only kinds of sales that can be made.

(i) Sales may be made in accordance with List A or List B. Those lists have four columns showing classes of buyers who might want to buy materials. Opposite each material on the lists in each column is shown whether, and under what conditions, sales can be made to the class of buyer described in the heading of the column.

(ii) A holder may sell freely to one of the following Government corporations, or to anyone buying as agent for one of them: Commodity Credit Corporation, Defense Supplies Corporation, Metals Reserve Company or Rubber Reserve Company.

(iii) A holder may sell if he has been given permission by the War Production Board to make the particular sale. Form WPB–1161 (PD–470) should be used in applying for permission. It shows the information which is needed before permission can be given and it should be sent to the regional office of the War Production Board in the region where the material is located. Copies of this form can be obtained from district or regional offices of the War Production Board. If a note in List A or List B states that another form is to be used, application should be made on that form.

(iv) A holder may sell freely to anyone if he has a total of not more than $100 worth of the particular material to be sold, unless it is one of the few materials for which special rules and amounts are stated in Column 6 of List A or List B. In deciding whether the holder has $100 worth he must count all material of the same type and composition. For example, all zinc sheet or cattle hides, or all cotton duck, or all shovels or hammers. This paragraph does not mean that a person may sell freely lots worth less than $100 if he has more than that amount. It only allows the sales if all he has of that kind of material is worth $100 or less.

(v) If the material is copper, copper base alloy, aluminum or steel in a form described as a "controlled material" in CMP Regulation 1, the holder may sell it to a buyer who gives him an order bearing a CMP allotment symbol or number and this certification:

> The undersigned purchaser certifies that he is entitled under CMP regulations to place an authorized controlled material order for the above material.

Or the certification may be in the form set out in CMP Regulation 7 or in any other form which may be used in placing an authorized controlled material order. The buyer must charge material bought under this paragraph, against his CMP allotment account. If the material which the holder wants to sell is steel he may also sell it to steel warehouses, dealers or distributors on orders bearing the endorsements described in M–21–b–1 and M–21–b–2.

(vi) Special permission to sell controlled materials. The War Production Board may give special permission to sell idle or excess controlled materials for any use which is permitted under War Production Board orders or regulations either to a person who has no allotment or to a person who already has an allotment and an authorized production schedule under the Controlled Material Plan. This permission may be given only if the material has been reported to the War Production Board as idle or excess and if the material is iron, steel, aluminum, copper or copper base alloy in controlled material form. If this permission is given, the holder need not get from the buyer the certification provided in paragraph (c) (2) (v) above and if the buyer has an allotment he does not have to charge against his allotment account the amount of controlled materials bought under this special permission. In the case of copper and copper base alloy in controlled material form, the above permission may be given only if the buyer has a production schedule authorized under the Controlled Materials Plan and will use the material for the same purpose for which the production schedule was authorized. Either the buyer or the seller may apply for this permission in person or by writing, wiring or telephoning, giving full details about the size, shape, analysis, specifications and quantity of the material and the purpose for which it will be used. Requests for such permission should be directed to the regional office of the War Production Board for the region in which the material is located or to the appropriate materials division. If the material is being secured through the Copper Recovery Inventory Branch, then such request should be addressed to it at 350 Fifth Ave., New York 16, N. Y.

(3) Special orders. If the War Production Board, by an order or in any other way, has ruled that all persons engaged in a particular business may sell or exchange materials between themselves, they can do so.

(4) Used materials. Used materials may be sold freely to anyone unless there is a notation in List A or List B restricting the sale of the particular used material which the holder wants to sell.

(d) Transfers within a company. If a person wants to transfer material from one of his plants or operating units to another one which normally purchases separately, the transfer is considered equivalent to a sale and he may make it only under the same conditions as he could make a special sale under this regulation. In any other case where a person who has obtained material with priorities assistance wants to use it for another purpose, he should refer to § 944.11 of Priorities Regulation 1 or (in the case of controlled materials or Class A products obtained with an allotment) to paragraph (u) of CMP Regulation 1.

(e) Replacing material sold. If a person sells material under this regulation to someone who gives him a priority rating or a CMP allotment symbol or number, the seller cannot use this rating or allotment to replace the material he has sold. The effect of this rating or symbol or number stops when the seller receives it.

(f) Sales covered by this regulation. (1) This regulation applies only to "special sales" (as described in paragraph (b) (1)) and if the holder is regularly engaged in selling a material a sale of it by him is not a special sale and he is governed by all orders and regulations of the War Production Board which apply to the material he is selling.

(2) Provisions in any orders or regulations issued before May 1, 1944 which say that this regulation does not apply may be disregarded, except for Order U–1 affecting utilities, WPB Directive 16, which provides special rules for aircraft inventory transfers, and Order P–98–c, which applies to special sales in the petroleum industry. To find the rules for making a special sale there is no need to refer to any order or regulation other than Priorities Regulation 13, outside of the three exceptions stated. However, if another order or regulation issued after May 1, 1944 expressly mentions Priorities Regulation 13 and says that this regulation does not apply to a particular type of sale, then that order or regulation takes the place of this regulation.

(3) If any seller is allowed to make a sale under this regulation, the buyer is permitted to buy and accept delivery, except that:

(i) The buyer may not violate any regulation or order controlling the quantity of material which he may have or buy or receive or the amount of any product he may make or the use that he may make of any particular material. All the prohibitions in orders against the use of materials for particular purposes remain in effect.

(ii) If any order or regulation provides that a buyer of material must make any report or furnish any information either to the War Production Board or to the seller, this regulation does not excuse him from these requirements.

(iii) If any holder of material knows that a person who wants to buy it will use it for a prohibited purpose or would have more of it than he is permitted to have, the sale cannot be made.

(g) Records. Any person making a sale under this regulation must keep sufficient records so that he can show that the sale was permitted under this regulation.

(h) Listing materials with the War Production Board. If anyone has any excess, idle or frozen material that he wants to sell, he should report it to his nearest War Production Board office giving full details about its size, shape, analysis, specifications and quantity, and they will try to help him.

(i) Letters and questions. Any letters or questions about this regulation should be sent either to the Redistribution Division of the War Production Board in Washington, marked "Ref: P.R. 13", or to any of the field offices of the War Production Board.

(j) Revisions of Lists A and B. Lists A and B attached to this regulation will be revised on the first of each month. A person wishing to sell material under this regulation should be sure that he has the list which is in effect at the time of the sale. Copies may be obtained from any field office of the War Production Board.

Issued this 1st day of May 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

LISTS A AND B

Explanation of Lists A and B: Column (1) of List A lists the industrial materials (as defined in paragraph (b) (3) that are restricted under the regulation. This shows in some instances the class or group of materials and does not always list all the trade names and related materials.

Column (1) of List B lists the finished products to which the general sales rules in paragraph (c) (1) (ii) do not apply because the finished product is either more or less restricted than the general rule.

Columns (2), (3), (4) and (5) each apply to a type of possible buyer. Opposite each material in each column is shown the conditions under which a special sale of the particular material may be made to the person described in the heading of the column.

Column (2) applies to persons who make or produce material in the form in which the holder bought it. This includes nonintegrated producers. If the holder bought copper wire, column (2) refers to a wire mill, which makes copper wire. If he bought a machine tool, it refers to a company which makes that kind of a product.

Column (3) refers to persons who are permitted to buy and use the material for production, construction, maintenance, repair or operating supplies or for capital expansion or replacement.

Column (4) refers to persons who buy new, rejected or second grade materials and who rework them. This includes persons who change the form of the material by redrawing, rerolling, etc., except that it does not include controlled material producers.

Column (5) refers to persons who are wholesale dealers in the material the holder has like a wholesaler in chemicals or textiles. A wholesaler means anyone whose regular business consists in whole or in part of the sale from stock or inventory of the particular materials or products to other persons for the purpose of resale, or for fabrication or assembly into other products. It also includes persons who recondition or rebuild equipment and machinery for resale to industrial users. Such a person is not, however, relieved from compliance with any orders or regulations of the War Production Board which control the distribution of the material by him.

Column (6) contains notes which should be read whenever a star (*) or note shows on the list.

If the list shows "no," it means that the holder cannot sell to the class of person mentioned in the column head without special permission of the War Production Board except when a note in column (6) allows certain kinds of sales. Paragraph (c) (2) (iii) of the regulation tells how to get permission.

If the list shows "PR" followed by a letter and number, like "PR AA–5," it means that the holder can sell to anyone who gives him an AA–5 priority rating for the sale, or a higher rating.

If the list shows "W. O. P.," it means the holder can sell to the person at the head of the column without any priority rating or allocation or allotment being necessary.

If the list shows "X," it means that there are no persons who fall in the description at the top of the column so far as that particular material is concerned.

LIST A—CLASSES OF BUYERS TO WHOM SPECIAL SALES OF INDUSTRIAL MATERIALS MAY BE MADE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THIS LIST. SUBJECT TO PARAGRAPH (f) (2) AND (3) OF THIS REGULATION

This list refers only to new industrial material unless used industrial material is specifically mentioned. Industrial material not on this list may be sold freely to anyone.

Low carbon ferro-chromium under .50 carbon.	W. O. P.	W. O. P.	X	W. O. P.
Copper:
In controlled material form (new and used)*:					*A holder may sell freely to anyone, any item of copper or copper base alloy material if the total amount of that item held by him (determined as provided in para. (c) (2) (iv) of this regulation) does not exceed $25.00 in value. "Item" means any sheet, wire, rod, tube or cable made from copper or copper base alloy which is different from all other items of that form, by reason of one or more differences of its specifications such as size, shape, gauge, thickness, alloy, or insulation. Differences in temper or length do not differentiate items. Only to fill orders under para. (c) (2) (v) and (vi) of the regulation. Only to persons permitted to accept delivery pursuant to Copper Order M-9. *Only to persons having specific authorization to buy.

PART 3270—CONTAINERS

[Preference Rating Order P-146, Direction 1]

USE OF PREFERENCE RATINGS FOR U. S. NAVY DELIVERIES

The following direction is hereby issued with respect to Preference Rating Order P-146 (§ 3270.26):

(a) Notwithstanding the contrary provisions of Order P-146, any person may use a preference rating of AA-1 to get fibre shipping containers for the following items which are to be delivered directly to the Navy of the United States on orders placed before July 1, 1944 calling for delivery before August 1, 1944:

(1) Clothing, hats, gloves, and all other outer wear and undergarments or apparel, if made in whole or in part of leather or textile yarn, staple fibre or fabrics;

(2) Footwear, rationed and unrationed;

(3) Bedding.

(b) The preference rating to be used to obtain fibre shipping containers for the items listed in paragraph (a) of this direction for any purpose other than that stated above shall remain the same as set forth in the schedule attached to the order.

(c) The certification accompanying such an order shall refer to "Direction 1" instead of "paragraph ——."

Issued this 1st day of May 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 3296—SAFETY AND TECHNICAL EQUIPMENT

[General Limitation Order L-39, as Amended May 1, 1944]

FIRE PROTECTIVE, SIGNAL AND ALARM EQUIPMENT

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created shortages in the supplies of materials entering into the production of fire protective, signal and alarm equipment, for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3296.1 General Limitation Order L-39—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Fire protective equipment" means: sprinkler systems, couplings, playpipes and allied fittings, fire hose, fire hydrants, fire pumps, hose dryers, hose racks, indicator posts, lightning protection systems, piped extinguishing systems, portable fire extinguishers including back pack types, foam generators, stirrup pumps, water spray nozzles, and all other fire protective equipment for preventing or extinguishing fires, excepting self-propelled motorized fire apparatus and auxiliary units including trailer, skid, front mounted and portable apparatus.

(2) "Signal or alarm equipment" means fire, police, and protective alarm and signal systems, including central station, proprietary, auxiliary and automatic fire alarms; watchmen's time recording, burglar, bank vault, hold-up and intrusion systems; and all other instruments and devices to detect, signal or warn against fire or other casualty, except air raid warning devices.

(3) "Dry-pendant sprinkler head" means a sprinkler head for use in a pendant position on a dry pipe system and permanently attached to an extension nipple so as to exclude water from the nipple.

(4) "Incendiary bomb control equipment" means any pump, device, instrument, or material designed for the removal, control or extinguishment of incendiary bombs.

(5) "Stirrup pump" means a manually operated pump used to draw water or other liquid from a separate container to extinguish or control fires.

(6) "Air raid warning device" means any siren, whistle, horn, diaphone, signal or device used or intended for use to warn or signal civilians in connection with air raids or other war hazards.

(7) "Copper base alloy" means any alloy in the composition of which the weight of copper equals or exceeds 40 percent of the weight of all metal in the alloy.

(b) General restrictions—(1) Restrictions on use of scarce materials. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this order, no person shall incorporate in any fire protective, signal or alarm equipment, air raid warning device, or parts thereof, any aluminum, bismuth, cadmium, chromium, copper, monel metal, nickel, tin, or alloy of any such metals, asbestos, rubber or synthetic rubber, except to the extent permitted in Appendix A hereof.

(2) Restrictions on fire hose couplings. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this order, no brass fire hose couplings in the possession or control of any coupling manufacturer, fire hose manufacturer or distributor on April 27, 1942, shall be transferred, sold or incorporated in the manufacture or assembly of any fire hose.

(3) Restrictions on foam extinguishers. No person shall purchase or accept delivery of any foam extinguisher except for use in the protection of inflammable liquids, and no person shall sell or deliver any foam extinguisher which he knows or has reason to believe will be used in violation of this paragraph (b) (3).

(4) Restrictions on manufacture of alkali metal (loaded stream) extinguishers. No person shall in any quarter complete the manufacture of any type of alkali metal salt solution (loaded stream) extinguishers in excess of 25 percent of the total of such type (irrespective of size) manufactured by such person during the twelve month period ending November 30, 1941, except to fill purchase orders or contracts from any agency or government listed in subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii) of this paragraph (b) (4). In determining the number of extinguishers manufactured during said twelve month base period ending November 30, 1941, extinguishers manufactured to fill contracts or purchase orders from, or for delivery to, any of the following shall be excluded:

(i) The Army or Navy of the United States, United States Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Panama Canal, Coast and Geodetic Survey, Coast Guard, Civil Aeronautics Authority, National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development;

(ii) The Government of any of the following countries: the United Kingdom, Canada, and other dominions, Crown Colonies and protectorates of the British Empire, Belgium, China, Greece, the Kingdom of the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Russia, and Yugoslavia;

(iii) Any agency of the United States Government for delivery to or for the account of any country listed above or any other country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(5) Restrictions on manufacture of stirrup pumps. No person shall manufacture any stirrup pump, or part thereof, except to fill purchase orders from the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration, Defense Supplies Corporation, or from any agency of the United States Government for delivery to or for the account of the government of any country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled, "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(6) Restriction on manufacture of soda-acid fire extinguishers. No person shall manufacture any soda-acid fire extinguisher.

(7) Restrictions on sale and delivery of signal or alarm equipment and air raid warning devices. (i) No person shall sell, deliver or install any signal or alarm equipment costing $50 or more, or any air raid warning device costing $25 or more, except to or for the account of:

(a) The Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration;

(b) Any other person who has been specifically authorized by the War Production Board on Form WPB–1319 to receive the specific equipment or device and who has delivered to his supplier a copy of such form signed in the name of the War Production Board.

(ii) [Revoked Feb. 16, 1944]

(iii) In conjunction with the granting of specific authorization to receive signal or alarm equipment or air raid warning devices on Form WPB–1319, the War Production Board may also assign preference ratings to the authorized deliveries on such form. Any preference rating so assigned shall be applied and extended only in accordance with the terms of Priorities Regulation 3.

(8) Restriction on the manufacture of signal or alarm equipment. Except upon specific authorization by the War Production Board, no person shall manufacture, install, deliver or accept delivery of any smoke, fire, or intrusion detector employing photo-electric principles, except to fill purchase orders from a purchaser listed in paragraph (b) (4) of this order and unless such item is for use on board ship.

(9) Restrictions on the manufacture of air raid warning devices. No person shall manufacture, sell, purchase, deliver, install or accept delivery of any air raid warning device which requires for its operation a motor in excess of three (3) horse power.

(10) Restrictions on sale and delivery of cotton rubber-lined fire hose. No person shall sell, deliver, purchase or accept delivery of any new cotton rubber-lined fire hose except pursuant to a purchase order bearing a preference rating of AA–5 or higher. However, the above restriction does not apply with respect to purchase orders for fire hose which had been placed before August 23, 1943, and which bear preference ratings of A–9 or higher.

(11) Restrictions on manufacture of incendiary bomb control equipment. Effective thirty days after January 20, 1943, no person shall manufacture any incendiary bomb control equipment, except when and to the extent authorized by the War Production Board pursuant to application on Form PD–740, or to the extent permitted by paragraph (b) (5) of this order.

(c) Exceptions to paragraphs (b) (1) and (b) (2). (1) The restrictions of paragraphs (b) (1) and (b) (2) shall not apply to:

(i) Brass fire hose couplings, rings, or hose line fittings, provided that such couplings, rings, or hose line fittings are delivered to or for the account of:

(a) The Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, and are for use on board ship; or

(b) The Panama Canal; or

(c) Any person for use on board ships warranted by the United States Maritime Commission.

(ii) The restriction of paragraph (b) (1) shall not apply to carbon dioxide extinguishers manufactured in accordance with specifications of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration.

(d) Representations on orders from government agencies. Any purchase order or contract from any agency or government named in subparagraphs (i), (ii), or (iii) of paragraph (b) (4) of this order shall constitute a representation that the conditions exist under which such purchase order or contract may be filled within the terms of this order. Said representation may be relied upon by the person with whom the purchase order or contract is placed and by his subcontractors and suppliers.

(e) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(f) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(g) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(h) Correspondence. Reports to be filed and other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Safety and Technical Equipment Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L–39.

Issued this 1st day of May 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

APPENDIX A

In accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) of this order, the materials named in this Appendix A may be incorporated in the manufacture of fire protective equipment, signal or alarm equipment, and air-raid warning devices, and in component parts thereof, to the extent indicated in this Appendix A:

(1) Aluminum, only to the extent permitted by Supplementary Order M–1–l or by any specific authorization under that order.

(2) Bismuth:

(i) As a component of fusible link alloy;

(ii) Up to five and one-half (5½) per cent in solder.

(3) Cadmium, only to the extent permitted by General Preference Order M–65 or by any relief granted on an appeal taken under that order.

(4) Chromium, in alloy steel for any part;[1] and in plating to the extent essential to the efficient functioning of the parts plated.

(5) Copper or copper base alloys (where copper base alloys are permitted, the alloys used shall be of the lowest type and grade that are practical for the particular application) in:

(i) Pumps for vaporizing liquid extinguishers;

(ii) Lock nuts on removable hose connections;

(iii) Bodies, ends, inner chambers, valves and their component parts for vaporizing liquid and loaded stream extinguishers;

(iv) Either collars or caps (but not both) on 2½-gallon foam extinguishers;

(v) Fittings, strainers, syphon tubes and valves for carbon dioxide and gas operated dry powder extinguishers;

(vi) Snap clamps, clamp pins and wire springs for "Jones" type fire hose couplings;

(vii) Latch assemblies for "British" type fire hose couplings to the extent essential to the efficient functioning of the parts;

(viii) Swivels and wires for screw type fire hose couplings;

(ix) Swivels, wires, and rollers for suction hose couplings;

(x) Couplings and rings for (a) potable water purification plants, (b) ¾ inch, 1 inch, and 1¼ inch chemical or booster hose, and (c) 5 inch and 6 inch suction hose; and 1½ inch expansion rings;

(xi) Hose and hydrant adapters;

(xii) Swivels, wires, clappers and seats for Siamese connections;

(xiii) Playpipes made only from drawn, brazed sheet, or cast brass, provided that such playpipes are not more than 15 inches in length and are manufactured for connections not larger than 2½ inches in diameter.

(xiv) Ball and cylinder type shut-off nozzles;

(xv) Nozzle tips for playpipes, and not exceeding 1½" diameter at discharge ends;

(xvi) Portable deluge nozzles, not including tips or handles;

(xvii) The following hydrant fittings to the extent essential to their efficient functioning; valve seats, discs, guides, operating valve stems, stuffing boxes, bushings, rivets, retainer rings, and outlet nipples;

(xviii) The following indicator post and valve fittings to the extent essential to their efficient functioning: Valve stems; seats; discs; packing glands; glands of bonnet openings; extension stem operating washer, nut and target mechanism;

(xix) Parts of portable generators, engines and fixed piped systems to the extent essential to their efficient functioning (The parts referred to herein include generator bodies except bases, shut-off valves except handles, screens, check valves, inner chambers, heads, stopples, closing and other operating mechanisms.);

(xx) Water spray nozzles;

(xxi) Valve seats, discs, stems, guides, and clapper arms;

(xxii) The following parts of automatic sprinkler systems and signal or alarm equipment: Actuating, indicating, and recording units of alarm or signal systems; condenser parts; contacts; diaphragm assemblies; labels of inspection laboratories; links; tubing and fittings; valves not over 2 inches; wire and cables; impellers and rings for fire pumps and for water flow alarms; deflectors on closed sprinkler heads if made of casting, but the alloy shall not contain more than 74 per cent copper; all other parts of closed sprinkler heads, but the alloy for frames shall not contain more than 86 per cent copper and shall be made without the use of primary copper or primary tin, and the alloy for lever arms shall contain no tin and not more than 74 per cent copper.

(xxiii) Impellers, retaining rings and bushings for fire pumps;

(xxiv) Watchmen's time recording systems where required for efficient functioning;

(xxv) The following parts of air raid warning devices: motors up to three horse power, actuating units, wire and cable, control and reducer valves only to the extent necessary to the efficient functioning thereof.

(xxvi) Name and identification plates of a gauge of .03125 inch or less for fire extinguishers which are to be used in aircraft or on board ship.

(6) [Revoked.]

(7) [Deleted May 1, 1944.]

(8) Nickel, in signal or alarm systems as a component of bi-metal thermal discs for thermostats, as plating for protection against corrosion where magnetic properties of nickel are essential, as a component of wire wound resisters, as a component of thermocouple wire and as a component of permanent magnets; in signal or alarm systems for plating component parts of control mechanisms essential to the efficient functioning of the system, where less critical material as a substitute would not be suitable; and in alloy steel for any part.[1]

(9) Tin:

(i) As a component of fusible link alloy; and in dry pipe valve seat rings, but not to exceed fifty per cent in weight;

(ii) In copper base alloys the use of which is permitted by paragraph (5) hereof, but only where no tin-free alloy can be used, and only to the extent permitted by General Preference Order M–43;

(iii) Up to ten per cent by weight in metal for coating steel shells for vaporizing liquid extinguishers;

(iv) In solder, provided that the tin content does not exceed that permitted by General Preference Order M–43;

(v) As a component of foil for use in anti-intrusion and anti-sabotage systems, to the extent essential to the efficient functioning of the equipment, provided that the use of tin for this purpose is properly authorized under General Preference Order M–43.

(10a) [Deleted May 1, 1944.]

(10b) [Deleted May 1, 1944]

(11) Monel metal:

(i) In balls for check valves in dry pipe valves, accelerating equipment, and water flow alarms for automatic sprinkler systems;

(ii) In helical springs for fire detecting thermostats;

(iii) In vanes and pressure type flexible joints for water flow alarm devices.

(12) [Deleted May 1, 1944]

(13) Asbestos:

(i) In gaskets for hydrants, fixed or portable foam applicator pipes, and alarm systems.

(ii) As packing for vaporizing liquid extinguishers.

(14) Rubber and synthetic rubber, to the extent permitted by Rubber Order R–1, as amended, or to the extent permitted by any relief granted pursuant to an appeal taken in accordance with the provisions of that order.

[1] The War Production Board is at present restricting the types and grades of alloy steel, other than National Emergency Triple Alloy Steel (nickel-chromium-molybdenum), that may be produced for particular end uses. If a manufacturer desires to have alloy steel of a restricted type or grade produced for him, the matter should be discussed with the Steel Division of the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C.

PART 3296—SAFETY AND TECHNICAL EQUIPMENT

[Limitation Order L–114, as Amended May 1, 1944]

SAFETY EQUIPMENT

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created shortages in the supplies for the war effort, for private account and for export, of materials entering into the production of safety equipment; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the war effort:

§ 3296.31 General Limitation Order L–114—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Safety equipment" means equipment and devices designed primarily to promote safety or to prevent or reduce accidents, injuries, occupational hazards or diseases, including but not by way of limitation, the following articles: guards, goggles, shields, safety cans, oily waste cans; harnesses, headgear, belts, safety clothing, masks, respirators, inhalators, resuscitating apparatus, hazard measuring devices, protective creams, and treads. The term shall not include any automotive or traffic equipment or devices.

(2) "Hazard measuring devices" means devices or instruments designed to detect, indicate, measure or record the presence of poisonous or combustible gases or other harmful substances in the atmosphere for the purpose of promoting safety or preventing or reducing occupational accidents, diseases and hazards of all types. The term shall not include "industrial instruments" as defined in Limitation Order L–134, nor "laboratory equipment" as defined in Limitation Order L–144.

(3) "Safety clothing" means apparel containing special features or constructions designed primarily to protect the wearer from occupational injuries. The term does not include clothing designed primarily for protection against weather or for general work purposes.

(b) Restrictions on use of scarce materials. Except as provided in paragraph (c) below, no person shall incorporate in the manufacture of safety equipment, or of any component part thereof, any aluminum, chromium, copper, copper base alloy, nickel, rubber or synthetic rubber, or tin.

(c) General exceptions. Paragraph (b) shall not apply to safety equipment assembled or manufactured:

(1) Prior to May 5, 1942, or from parts which were finished and ready for assembly on said date, provided such safety equipment is delivered to fill purchase orders bearing preference ratings of A–10 or higher, or

(2) From materials to the extent permitted in Appendix A hereof, or

(3) For delivery to or for the account of, the Army or Navy of the United States, the Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Civil Aeronautics Administration, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics or the government of any country entitled to deliveries under the Act of Congress of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act), provided, and to the extent that the materials designated in paragraph (b) are necessary for efficient functioning and required endurance of safety equipment intended for use:

(i) In or on completed vehicles, aircraft, or ships, or

(ii) Outside of continental United States, or in Alaska, or

(iii) In the protection of military or naval personnel while not engaged in production, maintenance, or repair.

(4) Any order or contract from any agency or government mentioned in paragraph (c) (3) requiring the incorporation or use of scarce materials designated in paragraph (b) shall constitute a representation that the conditions exist under which such scarce materials may be incorporated or used within the terms of this order. Said representation may be relied on by the person with whom the purchase order or contract is placed, his sub-contractors, and suppliers.

(d) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(e) Records. All persons to whom this order applies shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(f) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(g) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as said Board shall from time to time request, subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(h) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(i) Appeals. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate, referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(j) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all other communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Safety and Technical Equipment Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L–114.

(k) Effect of other orders. With respect to the use of the materials named herein for incorporation in the products named herein, or in component parts thereof, this order shall be subject to all other orders to conserve specific raw materials (M orders), and all orders providing for a preference rating in deliveries, or for allocation, as are now or may hereafter be in effect.

Issued this 1st day of May 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

APPENDIX A

NOTE: Appendix amended May 1, 1944.

Pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this order, the following materials may be used in safety equipment, or component parts thereof, to the extent indicated:

(1) Aluminum in any safety equipment or part thereof to the extent permitted by Supplementary Order M–1–l or by any specific authorization under that order.

(2) Chromium in alloy steel for any safety equipment or part thereof;[1] and in plating to the extent essential to the efficient functioning of the parts plated.

(3) Copper or copper base alloys, other than nickel silver, when essential to the proper functioning of:

(a) Eyelets, rivets, and fasteners worn on the person where the use of non-sparking or non-corrosive material is essential for specific safety purposes and eyelets having a diameter of 1/16 inch or less for safety equipment where steel eyelets in available sizes cannot be used.

(b) Frames, side screen binders and temples for spectacle type industrial goggles and frames for slip-overs for industrial spectacles.

(c) Valves, unions, ferrules, tubing, connections, housings, non-sparking fittings, fastenings, gaskets, pins, probe tubes, orifices, regulators and bearings, for respirators, gas masks or hazard measuring devices through which explosive toxic, or corrosive gases, dusts or fumes may pass.

(d) Valves, tubing, manifolds, chambers, gaskets, discs, breaker valves, unions, connections, mouthpieces, orifices and facepiece parts on safety equipment through which oxygen or air under pressure is conducted.

(e) Conductors of electricity for safety devices and appliances.

(f) Lens retaining rings and fittings on gas mask facepieces.

(g) Exhalation and inhalation valve inserts and angle tubes for gas masks, air line respirator and breathing apparatus, face and mouth pieces.

(h) Tubing and fittings in hazard measuring devices.

(i) Screen for mask type industrial goggles or hoods.

(j) Bridge clips for molded industrial goggles.

(k) Cylinders, valves, tubing and regulators for compressed air, mechanical guarding devices.

(l) Internal valve mechanisms of safety filling cans with flexible pouring spouts, provided that the net weight of copper base alloy shall not exceed two ounces per can and that such alloy shall not be used in screens (or parts thereof) designed for non-flash-back or strainer purposes.

(m) Wire mesh for side screens for industrial goggles.

(4) Nickel in:

(a) Nickel silver for any part (except (i) side shields and (ii) core wire for plastic type spectacles) of spectacle type industrial goggles until, but not after, October 22, 1944. (The nickel silver shall contain not more than 10% nickel. Furthermore, no manufacturer of spectacle type industrial goggles shall use any nickel silver in the manufacture of spectacle type industrial goggles unless he knows or has reason to believe that at least 90% of the nickel content of the nickel silver was obtained from scrap; and no producer of nickel silver shall sell or deliver any nickel silver to a manufacturer of spectacle type industrial goggles for use in manufacturing such industrial goggles unless he knows or has reason to believe that at least 90% of the nickel content of the nickel silver was obtained from scrap.)

(b) Nickel silver for the following, but not to exceed 10% nickel in such alloy:

(i) Valve inserts for respirators.

(ii) Reducing, admission, dilution, check and safety valve pins, stems, plungers, inserts, screws, spiders, sleeves, yokes and bearings on gas masks breathing apparatus or hazard measuring devices.

(c) Leaded nickel silver for industrial goggle frame screws and rivets but not to exceed 18% nickel in such alloy.

(d) Nickel plating for:

(i) Spectacle type industrial goggles and slip-overs for industrial spectacles.

(ii) Safety and admission valves, saliva tubes and mouthpieces for oxygen breathing apparatus; facepiece check valve bodies for inhalators; and check valves for hose masks; to the extent necessary for the efficient functioning of the named parts.

(e) Nickel silver (containing not more than 10% nickel in the alloy) for spring clips, lugs, fasteners and clamps on slip-overs for industrial spectacles.

(f) Alloy steel for any safety equipment or part thereof.[1]

(5) Rubber and synthetic rubber, to the extent permitted by Rubber Order R–1, as amended, or to the extent permitted by any relief granted pursuant to an appeal taken in accordance with the provisions of that order.

(6) Tin in solder as permitted by Conservation Order M–43, as amended from time to time.

[F. R. Doc. 44–6205; Filed, May 1, 1944; 11:44 a. m.]

[1] The War Production Board is at present restricting the types and grades of alloy steel, other than National Emergency Triple Alloy Steel (nickel–chromium–molybdenum), that may be produced for particular end uses. If a manufacturer desires to have alloy steel of a restricted type or grade produced for him, the matter should be discussed with the Steel Division of the War Production Board, Washington 25, D. C.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1304—IRON AND STEEL SCRAP

[RPS 4,[1] Amdt. 15]

IRON AND STEEL SCRAP

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Price Schedule No. 4 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1304.13 (e) (5) is amended by deleting the last sentence which reads: "At no time shall the ownership of such scrap reside in the dealer to whom the preparation fee is paid".

2. Section 1304.14 (l) (1), No. 22 is amended to read as follows:

No. 22. Rerolling rails (A. A. R. No. 27). Standard section tee rails, original weight 50 pounds per yard or heavier, five feet long and over. Suitable for rerolling into bars and shapes. Free from bent and twisted rails, frog, switch and guard rails, or rails with split heads and broken flanges.

3. Section 1304.14 is amended by adding paragraph (m) to read as follows:

(m) Weights to govern. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, settlement for all scrap shall be made on the basis of weights at the point of delivery.

(2) Rail shipments. (i) If the consumer is a member of a weighing association, settlement shall be on the basis of mill weights. If the consumer does not have weighing facilities, settlement shall be made on the basis of railroad weights at the point of delivery.

(ii) If weights at the shipping point have been determined, no adjustment need be made for differences of 500 pounds or less per car between shipping point weights and weights at the point of delivery. If the difference exceeds 500 pounds per car, adjustments must be made for the full shortage in the car.

(3) Vessel shipment. When shipment is wholly or partially by vessel, weights at the dock prior to vessel movement shall govern. If the scrap moves from the shipping point to the dock by rail and weights at the shipping point have been determined, no adjustment need be made for differences of 500 pounds or less per car between shipping point weights and weights at the dock. If the difference exceeds 500 pounds per car, adjustment must be made for the full shortage in the car.

4. Section 1304.17, Appendix E, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1304.17 Appendix E: Maximum prices for iron and steel scrap imported into the United States. (a) Imported scrap means any scrap originating outside of the forty eight states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(b) (1) Imported scrap when imported by a consumer or his broker is at its shipping point when it has been placed f. o. b. carrier for delivery to the consumer at its port of entry (when imported by vessel movement) or, if imported by other than vessel movement, when it has reached its point of entry (the point of entry shall be that city at or nearest the point where the carrier crosses the border between the United States and the foreign country from which the scrap was exported).

(2) Imported scrap when imported by a dealer and delivered to the dealer's yard shall be at its shipping point when it has been placed f. o. b. carrier at the dealer's yard.

(c) Imported scrap is at its point of delivery to a consumer when it has arrived for unloading at the consumer's plant.

(d) When imported scrap has arrived at its shipping point as hereinbefore defined, it shall be subject to the maximum shipping point prices established in §§ 1304.13, 1304.14 or 1304.15, whichever is applicable, and subject to any and all other provisions found in this schedule, except that:

(1) The mixed shipment provisions shall not be applicable to scrap imported by vessel,

(2) The springboard limitations contained in § 1304.13 shall not be applicable.

(3) The intransit preparation provision contained in this schedule shall not be applicable unless intransit preparation for a specific consumer is specifically authorized by the War Production Board at the time it grants an import license for such scrap.

This amendment shall become effective May 5, 1944.

(Pub. Laws 421 and 729, 77th Cong.; E. O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681)

[MPR 348,[1] Amdt. 47]

LOGS AND BOLTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 348 is amended by the addition of Appendix A, Tables 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, Appendix E, Table 6, and Appendix K, Table 5.

APPENDIX A—NORTHEAST AREA

TABLE 1—LOGS IN NEW ENGLAND

Area. The entire State of Maine.
The entire State of New Hampshire.
The entire State of Vermont.
The entire State of Massachusetts.
The entire State of Connecticut.
The entire State of Rhode Island.

Species. Hard (sugar) maple (Acer saccharum), soft maple (Acer rubrum and Acer saccharinum), yellow birch (Betula lutea), basswood (Tilia americana), beech (Fagus grandifolia), ash (Fraxinus), oak (Quercus), white birch (Betula populifolia and Betula alba var. papyrifera), white pine (Pinus strobus), red pine (Pinus resinosa), other pines (Pinus), spruce (Picea), hemlock (Tsuga canadensis), balsam fir (Abies balsamea), and other species.

Scaling Rules

Required scale rule. International, Bangor, Vermont, Blodgett, Humphrey, Holland (Maine) or Scribner Rules. Each buying plant shall continue the use of the rule or rules actually used in January 1944. The "War purpose Veneer Grade" shall be scaled on the Scribner Rule only.

Diameter. (a) Logs shall be scaled at the average of the diameter at the small end, inside the bark, except that:

(1) The "War purpose Veneer" and select grades shall be measured at the smallest diameter of the small end, and

(2) Logs scaled on the Blodgett Rule shall be calipered at the middle of the log with proper deduction for bark.

(b) Fractions of an inch ½ and less shall be dropped and fractions over ½ may be raised to the next higher inch.

Lengths. Minimum length, 8 feet, unless otherwise stated in grading rules, to be cut in even lengths unless otherwise specified by buyer. All logs must be cut at least 4" over length to allow for trim; if sufficient trim allowance is not provided, the length must be reduced in scale to the next lower standard length.

Deductions in scale. All unsound and unusable wood must be eliminated from the scale by deduction in the measurement. The defects for which full deduction must be made include hollows or large holes, rot, dote, windshake, large or excessive worm holes, splinter pulls (drawn splinters) and crooks.

Hardwood Grading Rules

War Purpose Veneer Grade: Yellow Birch.

Diameter. Minimum diameter—14 inches. Up to 10 percent of the log shipment, however may be in 12" and 13" diameters if at least 7 feet in length.

Length. Minimum length, 7 feet. Up to 5 percent of the log shipment, however, may be 5 feet and 6 feet 6 inches in length if at least 16 inches in diameter.

General requirements. All logs to be cleanly crosscut from live timber, reasonably straight and round, and free from all visible defects such as cross-grain, bumps, lumps, black heart, ring shake, stub ends. All logs of this grade 12" and 13" in diameter (at least 7 feet in length) and under 7 feet in length (but at least 16 inches in diameter) must be straight and free of all visible defects.

Exceptions to general requirements. Yellow Birch logs at least 14" in diameter and 7 feet or more in length will permit the following exceptions to the above general requirements:

(1) Straightness. Logs generally must be straight, but one sweep will be allowed in lengths 11' and longer, provided 2 reasonably straight lengths can be obtained when cross cut, with the shorter length to be at least 5 feet. This type of log must be free of all other visible defects, including those listed below.

(2) Cross grain. Cross grain will be acceptable up to a ratio of 1 to 5.

(3) Knots, etc. 1 small sound knot, bump, or equivalent defect will be acceptable in logs 11 feet and longer by 14 inches and up in diameter, provided it will produce two clear sections, one at least 7 feet long and another at least four feet long.

(4) Rot or butt cavity. Acceptable in logs 7 feet and longer, if well centered, to the following extent:

(a) Diameter 14 to 15 inches, up to 3 inches in diameter.

(b) Diameter 16 to 18 inches, up to 4 inches in diameter.

(c) Diameter 19 inches and up, up to 5 inches in diameter.

But in each case full deduction must be made in scale measurement.

(5) Miscellaneous. Small splits and checks will be acceptable but splits from faulty felling must be trimmed off. (No visible raised curl will be considered as acceptable.)

War Purpose Veneer Grade: Hard Maple.

Diameter. Minimum diameter, 14 inches.

Length. Minimum length, 7 feet.

General requirements. Must be straight, sound, freshly cut and free of all visible defects.

NOTE: The term "War Purpose Veneer Grade" applying to Yellow Birch and Hard Maple logs as described above, refers only to logs which the buyer states in writing to the seller will be used in the manufacture of high grade veneers subject to Revised Maximum Price Regulation 338.

Select grade: All hardwoods.

Diameter. Minimum diameter, 12 inches.

Length. Minimum length, 8 feet. A maximum of 10 percent, however, may be less than 8 feet in length.

General requirements. Not more than one defect in logs 8 feet to 14 feet in length or 2 defects in 16 feet lengths. The permissible defects are listed in the note below.

No. 1 grade: All hardwoods.

Diameter. Minimum diameter, 10 inches.

Length. Minimum length, 8 feet.

General requirements. Logs 10" and 11" in diameter must be clear of all defects—Logs 12" and up in diameter may have 2 defects in 8' to 14' lengths and 4 defects in 16' logs. The permissible defects are listed in the note below.

NOTE: (applying to Select and No. 1 Grades). Permissible defects as stated above:

A sound knot up to 4" in diameter. Burl, curl, bump, swell, seam, sound catface not over 3" in diameter. Crook exceeding 2" (if less than 2" it is not considered to be a grade defect although proper scale deduction must be made). Rot or dote, if well centered, is permitted to the following extent without degrading the log, although full deduction in scale measurement must be made:

Log diameter:	Permissible rot or dote
12" and 13"	2"
14" and 15"	3"
16" and 19"	4"
20" and up	5"

No. 2 grade: All hardwoods.

Diameter. Minimum diameter, 8" if clear, 10" if better than cull.

Length. Minimum length, 8 feet.

Cull grade: All hardwoods.

General requirement. Any log not meeting the specifications of at least the No. 2 grade, and any log in which the net board foot scale is less than 50 percent of the gross board foot scale, shall be classed as a cull.

Woods run grade—Diameter. Minimum diameter, 8 inches for clear logs, 10" for sound logs.

Length. Minimum length, 8 feet.

General requirements. "Woods-run" shall include the entire product of the forest, exclusive of culls, from which no selection of large-sized or high-quality logs has been made. If any large-sized or high-quality logs have been removed from the run of logs, the remaining logs must be sold at the No. 2 grade price, if ungraded, or at the various grade prices if graded. If small-sized or low-quality logs have been removed, the remaining logs may still be classed as "Woods-run".

Shiptimber oak grade—Diameter. Minimum diameter, 16".

Length. Minimum length, 18'.

General requirements. Must be fresh-cut, sound to the center, and free from splits. Logs must be straight but a one-way bow will be permitted. One sound standard knot (4" or less in diameter) permitted in each 4 feet of length.

Bending oak grade—Diameter. Minimum diameter, 16 inches.

Length. Minimum length, 18 feet.

General requirements. Must be straight, freshly cut, sound to the center, and free of all visible defects. Twisted growth or swelled butts not accepted.

Softwood Grading Rules

Woods run grade. Softwoods shall be sold on a woods-run grade only, which shall include all merchantable logs 6" and up in diameter.

[1] On the basis of the Scribner Log Rule.

[2] No selection of large diameter or high-quality logs permitted. See definition of woodsrun grade in the grading rules.

[3] The price for ash applies to those ash logs sold in conjunction with other species. Ceiling prices for selected ash are set forth in Appendix M to the regulation.

[4] When white birch select logs are sorted and sold as an individual species in Grafton County, Carroll County, Belknap County and that portion of Merrimack County North of the Boston and Maine R. R. in New Hampshire, the quality requirements for select grade white birch can include 8" and up logs as well as 12" and up logs with not more than one defect for each 8' of length: Provided, That not more than 50 percent of the diameter is in heartwood.

[5] In the event that a seller has available for sale old growth high-quality pine logs and high-quality timber or forest spruce and fir logs the seller and buyer may apply to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. for approval of the price. The application must contain the names and addresses of the seller and buyer, the grade description of the log, the price to be paid and a statement from the buyer that because of the high quality of the log the special price can be paid under the existing end-product ceiling.

(a) The above prices apply for logs piled on headers or skids on year-around roads or at streamside of a drivable stream.

(b) For logs f. o. b. cars at rail siding or delivered to a mill by truck from within 10 miles, add $4.00 per thousand feet log scale for softwood species and $6.00 per thousand feet log scale for hardwood species. For delivery of logs to the mill from a distance in excess of 10 miles the buyer may add (1) for softwoods, not to exceed 10 cents per thousand feet log scale per load mile for the next 15 miles (miles 11–25 inclusive) and 8 cents per thousand feet log scale for each load mile thereafter and (2) for hardwoods, not to exceed 15 cents per thousand feet log scale per load mile for the next 15 miles (miles 11–25 inclusive) and 12 cents per thousand feet log scale for each load mile thereafter.

(c) When logs are delivered alongside a year-around road, the price shall be $1.00 per thousand feet log scale lower than the piled-on-header price.

(d) Cull grade hardwood logs may be sold at not to exceed two-thirds of the No. 2 grade price.

(e) If delivery of logs is taken at any point where the cost of delivering to that point is less than the cost of delivering to the nearest year-around road or the streamside of a drivable stream, the difference in delivery cost must be deducted from the maximum prices provided for logs delivered alongside the year-around road.

(f) Persons who sell "War purpose veneer grades" of yellow birch and hard maple to United States Treasury Department, Procurement Division, for export through Lend-Lease Administration, may apply to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C. for approval of a special selling price; this authority may be granted or denied by the Lumber Branch by letter or telegram.

SHIPTIMBER AND BENDING OAK GRADES

WHITE OAK SHIPTIMBERS

[Per M feet log scale]

Length (feet)	Diameters
	16"–19"	20"–23"	24"–26"	27"–28"	29" and up
18	$33.50	$42.50	$52.00	$61.00	$70.00
20	35.50	44.50	53.50	62.50	72.00
22	38.00	47.50	56.50	65.50	74.50
24	42.00	51.00	60.00	69.00	78.00
26	46.50	55.50	64.50	73.50	82.50
28 [1]	51.00	60.00	69.00	78.00	87.50

[1] For greater lengths, add $4.50 per M' for each 2 additional feet.

White oak bending oak. Add $10.00 per M to the above prices for white oak shiptimber grade.

Red oak shiptimber and bending oak. The maximum prices on red oak shiptimber is 75 percent of the price for white oak shiptimbers—Add $10.00 per M to the red oak shiptimber price to obtain the red oak bending oak price.

The above prices on all shiptimber and bending oak grades apply f. o. b. cars at rail shipping point or delivered to the mill by truck from within 25 miles. For logs delivered to the mill from a greater distance, add 10 cents per thousand feet log scale for each load mile in excess of 25 miles. If these logs are not delivered as described above, the maximum price must be reduced by the cost of bringing the logs to the base delivery point.

Specifically prohibited practices in this area: Using a log rule other than that used during January 1944 in order to pay a higher price.

TABLE 2—BOLTS IN NEW ENGLAND

Area. Part or all of the States of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont as follows:

The entire State of Maine;

In the State of New Hampshire, the counties of Carroll, Grafton and Coos; and

In the State of Vermont the counties of Essex, Caledonia, Orange and Orleans.

Species: White birch (Betula populifolia, Betula alba var. papyrifera), yellow birch (Betula lutea), beech (Fagus grandifolia), maple (Acer sp.), aspen (Populus sp.), basswood (Tilia americana) and white pine (Pinus strobus).

Scaling Rule

Required scale rule. All bolts to be measured on the basis of a cord of 128 cubic feet.

Grading Rules for Bolts

Log run white birch bolts. Must be straight, sound, and freshly cut. Sound red heart is acceptable to not greater than one-third of the total diameter of the bolt. The knot area must not exceed 6 inches per bolt. No crotches accepted. Bolts shall be cut either 36", 48" or 60" as specified by the buyer, plus at least 2" over length to allow for trim; no charge can be made for trim allowance. This grade shall include the complete product of the forest above the diameter specified in the price table from which the high-quality or large-sized bolts have not been selected. If large-sized or high-quality bolts have been selected from the log run of bolts, the remaining bolts must be sold at lower prices as set forth below in the price table. (Thus the grade 6" and up means the complete run of the woods of the grade and species above 6" and includes all sizes 8" and up as well; etc.)

Log run beech, yellow birch and maple bolts. All bolts must be straight, sound and freshly cut. Knots will be accepted provided that there are not more than 2 in each bolt and provided that they are not greater than 2 inches in diameter. Crotches not acceptable. Bolts shall be cut into 36", 48" or 60" lengths as specified by the buyer, plus at least 2" over length to allow for trim; no charge can be made for the trim allowance. This grade shall consist of the entire product of the forest of the species and grade described above the diameter specified in the price table below. If any high-quality or large-sized bolts have been selected from the log run of bolts, the remaining bolts must be sold at lower prices as set forth below the price table.

Log run aspen and basswood bolts. All bolts must be straight, sound, freshly cut. Knots will be accepted provided there are not more than 2 in each 48" length (one in 24" length) and, Provided, That they are not greater than 1½" in diameter. Bolts must be free of seams and burls; a small amount of dark stain will be accepted. Bolts shall be cut into 24" and 48" lengths as specified by the buyer. Bolts cut 24" in length must be cut at least 1" over length to allow for trim, 48" bolts must be cut at least 2" over length to allow for trim; no charge can be made for the trim allowance.

This grade shall include the entire product of the forest of the species and grade described above the diameter specified in the price table below. If any large-sized or high-quality bolts have been removed, the remaining bolts must be priced at lower prices as specified below the price table.

Veneer grade birch, beech and maple bolts. All bolts must be straight, sound, freshly cut, free of knots, seams, burls or other defects. Bolts shall be cut 48" or 96" in length as specified by the buyer. 48" bolts must be cut 2" over length and 96" bolts must be cut 4" over length to allow for trim; no charge can be made for the trim allowance. The minimum acceptable diameter is set forth below in the price tables.

Veneer grade white pine bolts. All bolts must be sound, freshly cut at least 8" in diameter. Sound knot defects will be accepted to the extent of 12 inches of lineal measure per 50" bolt; knots must be closely trimmed. No pine referred to by the industry as "Pasture Pine" is acceptable. Bolts shall be cut 48" in length and must be cut 2" over length to allow for trim. No charge can be made for trim allowance.

No. 2 grade white pine bolts. All bolts must be sound, freshly cut, and at least 7" in diameter. This grade includes all pine of boxboard quality. Bolts shall be cut into 48" lengths plus 2" over length to allow for trim; no charge can be made for the trim allowance.

MAXIMUM PRICES

[Per cord of 128 cubic feet]

	Roadside	F. o. b. cars at rail siding	Delivered to mill by truck
Log run white birch:
8" and up in diameter	$19.00	$21.50	$22.50
7" and up in diameter	18.00	20.50	21.50
6" and up in diameter	17.00	19.50	20.50
5" and up in diameter	16.00	18.50	19.50
4" and up in diameter	15.00	17.50	18.50
Log run yellow birch, beech and maple:
8" and up in diameter	16.00	18.50	19.50
7" and up in diameter	15.00	17.50	18.50
6" and up in diameter	14.00	16.50	17.50
5" and up in diameter	13.00	15.50	16.50
Log run aspen and basswood:
8" and up in diameter	16.00	18.50	19.50
6" and up in diameter	12.25	14.75	15.75
Veneer grade beech, birch and maple:
10" and up in diameter	26.50	29.00	30.00
8" and up in diameter	20.00	22.50	23.50
Veneer grade white pine	14.25	16.75	17.75
No. 2 grade white pine	11.25	13.75	14.75

(a) If the veneer grade of bolt is removed from the log run of bolts deduct $1.00 from the above prices. In the case of white pine, however, the balance after removal of the veneer grade shall be priced at the No. 2 grade.

(b) If the larger diameter logs are removed from the run of logs (i. e. if the 8" and up bolts have been selected, or the 6" and up, etc.) the remaining smaller diameter bolts can be purchased at the following prices:

(1) For yellow birch, beech, maple and basswood—$11.25 per cord at roadside, $13.25 per cord F. O. B. cars, and $14.25 per cord for bolts delivered to the mill.

(2) For white birch, the price shall vary by the diameters being sold. If the 7" bolts only are to be sold, the price shall be $2.25 per cord less than the 7" and up price; if the 6" bolts only are to be sold, the price shall be $2.25 per cord less than the 6" and up price; if the 5" bolts only are to be sold, the price shall be $2.25 less than the 5" and up price, and if the 4" only are to be sold, the price shall be $2.25 less than the 4" and up price.

If the lower diameters are sold in combination, the price shall be at the price for the lowest diameter bolt sold individually (i. e. if only the 5", 6", and 7" are to be sold the price shall be the 5" bolt price which is $2.25 less than the 5" and up price.)

"Roadside" is any road that is maintained and kept open for traffic 12 months of the year.

TABLE 3—LOGS IN NEW YORK AND PENNSYLVANIA

Area. Part or all of the States of New York and Pennsylvania by zones as follows:

Zone 1: In the State of New York the Counties of Clinton, Franklin, Essex, Warren, Washington, Saratoga, Hamilton, and Fulton.

Zone 2: The entire State of New York excluding the Counties of Clinton, Franklin, Essex, Warren, Washington, Saratoga, Hamilton, and Fulton. The entire State of Pennsylvania excluding the Counties of Delaware, Philadelphia, Montgomery, Bucks, Northampton, Lehigh, Berks, Chester and Lancaster.

Species. Yellow poplar (Lirodendron tulipifera), Yellow birch (Betula lutea), Hard maple (Acer saccharum), basswood (Tilia americana), Soft maple (Acer rubrum and Acer saccharinum), Beech (Fagus grandifolia), Cherry (Prunus—all species), Oak (Quercus—all species), Elm (Ulmus—all species), Ash (Fraxinus—all species), Red (Norway) pine (Pinus resinosa), White pine (Pinus strobus), Other pines (Pinus—all other species), Hemlock (Tsuga canadensis), Spruce (Picea—all species), Fir (Abies—all species), as well as all other commercial species.

Scaling Rules [1]

Required scale rule—All hardwoods. Doyle Log Rule.

Softwoods. In zone 1, the Scribner Log Rule or the Adirondack Standard Log Rule; in zone 2, the Doyle Log Rule.

Diameters. (a) Logs shall be scaled inside the bark at the average diameter of the small end of the log, except in the No. 1 Grade which shall be measured at the smallest diameter of the small end.

(b) Fractions of an inch ½ or less shall be dropped; and fractions of an inch above ½ may be raised to the next higher inch.

Lengths. Minimum length—8'; logs shall be cut into even lengths unless otherwise specified by buyer. All logs shall be cut at least 4" over length to allow for trim. Logs which are not cut at least 4" over length to allow for trim shall be reduced in scale to the next lower standard length.

Deductions. All unsound and unusable wood shall be eliminated from the scale by allowance in measurement. The defects for which full allowance must be made in measurement include hollows or large holes, rot, dote, windshake, large or excessive worm holes, damage in felling due to drawn splinters (splinter pulls) and crooks.

Hardwood Grading Rules

No. 1 Grade: (All hardwoods except yellow poplar).

Diameter. Minimum diameter—14".

Quality requirements. Logs less than 14' in length must have not more than one defect; logs 14' and up in length may have 2 defects as described below. The defects which are permissible and are to be counted when grading the logs are (a) one sound knot up to 4" in diameter, (b) burl, (c) curl, (d) bump, (e) swell, (f) seam, (g) sound catface not over 4" in diameter, (h) and a crook exceeding 2".

No. 2 grade: All hardwoods except yellow poplar.

Minimum diameter. 10".

Quality requirements. Includes all logs not meeting the specifications of a No. 1 log but which are better than culls. 8" or 9" logs, if clear of all visible defects, may also be included in this grade.

Cull grade: All hardwoods. Includes all logs in which the net board foot scale, after deductions have been made for defects, is less than 50 percent of the gross scale; Also, any logs not meeting the minimum specifications of a No. 2 Grade log.

Woodsrun grade: All hardwoods including yellow poplar.

Minimum diameter. 10".

Quality requirements. Shall consist of the entire product of the forest, exclusive of culls, from which no selection of high-quality logs has been made. If any high-quality logs have been removed from the run of logs, the remainder must be sold at the No. 2 grade price, if ungraded, or by grades if graded. If any low-quality logs have been removed, the remaining logs may still be sold at the woodsrun price. 8" or 9" logs, if clear of all defects, may also be included in this grade.

Grading Rules: Yellow Poplar Only

Clear grade. Logs 24" and up in diameter, clear of all defects.

Select grade. Logs 16"–23" in diameter clear of all defects; and

[1] In the event that a buyer who prior to January 1, 1944, purchased logs on the basis of the scale rule other than that specified above, said buyer may apply to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, 25, D. C. for permission to purchase logs based on a scale rule other than that specified. The application must contain the rule used and the proper conversion between that rule and the rule specified in this table. The Lumber Branch may approve the use of this rule but will require proper adjustment in price.

Logs 24'' and up in diameter having 3 clear faces or 75 percent of the length clear in one continuous section.

No. 1 grade. Logs 12''–15'' in diameter clear of all defects;

Logs 16''–23'' in diameter having 3 clear faces or 75 percent of the length clear in one continuous section; and

Logs 24'' and up in diameter having 2 clear faces or 50 percent of the length clear in one continuous section.

No. 2 grade. Logs 10'' and up in diameter that do not grade as a No. 1 log and which are better than culls.

Cull grade. Same as cull grade for other hardwoods.

Shiptimber and Bending Oak Grades

Shiptimber grade of oak:
Minimum diameter. 16''
Minimum lengths. 18'

Quality requirements. Must be fresh cut, sound to the center; free from splits; must be straight but will permit a bow one way. One standard knot (a sound knot 4'' or less in diameter) permitted in each 4 feet of length.

Bending grade of oak:
Minimum diameter. 16''
Minimum length. 18'
Quality requirements. Must be straight, freshly cut, sound to the center, and free of all visible defects. Twisted growth or swelled butts not acceptable.

Grading Rules: All Softwoods

Woodsrun grade only—Minimum diameter. 6'' for pine; 8'' for other softwoods.

Quality requirements. This grade shall consist of the entire merchantable product of the forest.

MAXIMUM PRICES

HARDWOOD LOGS BY GRADES (ZONES 1 AND 2)

[Per M feet log scale [a]]

Species	No. 1 grade	No. 2 grade
Yellow birch	$55.00	$35.50

28 [1]	56.00	66.00	76.00	86.00	96.00

[1] For greater lengths, add $5.00 per M' for each additional 2 feet.

[a] The above prices apply f. o. b. cars common carrier railroad at rail siding or delivered to mill by truck from within 25 miles. If delivered to mill from a distance greater than 25 miles, the buyer may add not to exceed 10 cents per M feet log scale for each additional load mile.

White Oak Bending Oak Grade.[a] Add $10.00 per M' to the above prices for White Oak shiptimber grade.

Red Oak Shiptimber and Bending Oak.[a] For Red Oak shiptimber, take 75 percent of above White Oak shiptimber prices. For Red Oak bending grade add $10.00 per M' log scale to Red Oak shiptimber prices.

Hardwood Woodsrun Log Prices (Zones 1 & 2)

[Per M' log scale]

Species:	Woodsrun
Yellow birch	$35.50
Hard maple	35.50
Basswood	35.50
Cherry	35.50
Soft maple	27.50
Oak	30.50
Beech	30.50
Elm	30.50
Ash [2]	30.50
Yellow poplar [2]	27.50
Other hardwoods	27.50

[1] The prices for ash apply for ash logs sold in conjunction with other species. Ceiling prices for ash special logs purchased on an individual selected basis are set forth in Appendix M of this regulation.

[2] Zone 2 only.

The above prices apply for logs piled on headera or skids at year-around roads. For logs f. o. b. cars or delivered to mill from within 10 miles—add $6.00 per M feet log scale. If delivered to mill from a distance greater than 10 miles, add 15 cents per M feet log scale for each of next 15 load miles (miles 11–25 inclusive) and 12 cents per mile thereafter.

Softwood Woodsrun Log prices (Per M' Log Scale).

	Zone 1 (Scribner log rule)	Zone 2 (Doyle log rule)
Red Pine	$24.00	$26.50
White Pine	24.00	26.50
Other Pine	22.00	24.00
Spruce	24.00	26.50
Fir	24.00	26.50
Hemlock	22.00	24.00
Other Softwoods	22.00	24.00

(a) The above prices apply for logs piled on headers or skids on year-around roads. For logs f. o. b. cars or delivered to mill by truck from within 10 miles, add $4.00 per M' log scale. If delivery to mill is from a distance greater than 10 miles, add 10 cents per M' log scale for each of the next 15 load miles (miles 11–25 inclusive) and 8 cents per M' log scale for each load mile in excess of 25.

(b) Deductions for all species of woodsrun logs. (i) When logs are delivered alongside a year-around road, the price shall be $1.00 per thousand feet log scale lower than the piled-on-header price.

(ii) If delivery of logs is taken at any point where the cost of delivering to that point is less than the cost of delivering to the nearest year-around road, the difference in delivery cost must be deducted from the maximum prices for logs delivered alongside the year-around road.

(c) For Softwood logs purchased in zone 1 on the basis of the Adirondack Standard, a conversion factor of 5 standards equal to one thousand feet Scribner log scale shall be used as the basis for conversions. (Thus the price for white pine logs would be $4.80 per standard for logs piled-on-headers on a year-around road.)

(d) In the event that a seller has available for sale old-growth high-quality pine and spruce logs, the seller and buyer may apply to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., for approval of the price. The application must contain the names and addresses of the seller and buyer, the grade description of the log, the price to be paid and a statement from the buyer that because of the high-quality of the log the special price can be paid under the existing end-product ceiling.

Area. Part or all of the States of New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia as follows:

The entire State of New Jersey;

The entire State of Delaware;

In the State of Maryland, the counties of Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne, Talbot, Caroline, Dorchester, Wicomico, Somerset and Worcester.

In the State of Pennsylvania the counties of Lancaster, Chester, Delaware, Philadelphia, Berks, Montgomery, Lehigh, Bucks, and Northampton.

In the State of Virginia the counties of Accomac and Northampton.

Species. All commercial species of the following genera: poplar (Liriodendron), gum (Liquidamber and Nyssa), oak (Quercus), cypress (Taxodium), elm (Ulmus), ash (Fraxinus), beech (Fagus), maple (Acer), sycamore (Platanus), pine (Pinus), as well as all other species.

Scaling rules. All logs shall be scaled with the Doyle Log Rule. The diameter shall be measured inside the bark at the small end of the log at the smallest diameter. Fractions of an inch ½ or less shall be counted back. Fractions of an inch more than ½ may be raised to the next higher inch. Logs 18' and longer may be measured as 2 separate equal-length logs; the second log may be computed as one inch larger than the first log.

All unsound and unusable wood must be eliminated from the scale by deduction in measurement. The defects for which full deduction in scale must be made include hollows or large holes, rot, dote, windshake, large or excessive worm holes, damage in felling by drawn splinters and crooks.

All logs are to be cut in even lengths 10' and longer unless otherwise specifically requested by the buyer. Lengths shorter than 10' may be accepted at the option of the buyer. All logs 10' and over must be cut 4 inches over length to allow for trim, under 10' in length, 2'' over length to allow for trim. Logs that are not cut over length sufficiently to allow for trim must be reduced in scale to the next lower standard length.

Grading Rules—No. 1 or Veneer Grade. (For all species except oak and cypress). This grade shall include all logs 12 inches and up in diameter that do not have more than two standard 5-inch knots or comparable defect in each 16 feet of length, except that pine logs must be clear of all defects.

No. 2 Grade. (For all species except oak and cypress). This grade shall consist of all logs 8 inches and up in diameter that are better than culls and which do not grade as a No. 1 or Veneer log.

Grading rules for oak species only—Clear grade. All logs 24'' and up in diameter that are clear of all visible defects.

Select grade. This grade shall include:

(a) Logs 24'' and up in diameter that have 3 clear faces or have 75 percent of the length clear in one continuous section; and

(b) Logs 16''–23'' in diameter that are clear of all visible defects.

No. 1 grade. This grade shall include:

(a) Logs 24'' and up in diameter that have 2 clear faces or have 50 percent of the length clear in one continuous section;

(b) Logs 16''–23'' in diameter that have 3 clear faces or have 75 percent of the length clear in one continuous section; and

(c) Logs 12''–15'' in diameter that are clear of all visible defects.

No. 2 grade. This grade shall include all logs 8'' and up in diameter that are better than a cull and that do not grade as a No. 1 log.

Woodsrun grade (All species) shall consist of logs 8 inches and up in diameter as produced from the forest that are better than culls and from which no selection of high-quality (No. 1 or Veneer Grade) logs has been made. If any high-quality logs have been removed from the run of logs, the remaining logs must be sold at prices no higher than the No. 2 grade price, if ungraded, or at the applicable grade price if graded. When any low-quality logs have been removed from the run of logs the remaining logs may still be sold at the woodsrun price.

A cull log shall be one where the net board foot scale after deductions have been made for defect is less than 50 percent of the gross scale.

MAXIMUM PRICES

[Per M feet log scale]

Species	No. 1 or veneer grade	No. 2 grade	Woodsrun grade
Poplar	$45.00	$22.50	$25.00

Maple	45.00	22.50	25.00
Sycamore	45.00	22.50	25.00
Cypress			28.00
Other species except oak			25.00

[1] For ash sold in conjunction with other species. Ceiling prices for ash specialty logs sold on an individual selected basis are set forth in Appendix M.

White Oak Clear Grade	$70.00
White Oak Select Grade	50.00
White Oak No. 1 Grade	37.50
White Oak No. 2 Grade	20.00
White Oak Woodsrun Grade	29.00
Red Oak Clear Grade	60.00
Red Oak Select Grade	42.50
Red Oak No. 1 Grade	32.50
Red Oak No. 2 Grade	20.00
Red Oak Woodsrun Grade	27.50

(a) The above prices are f. o. b. cars at a rail siding at common carrier railroad or delivered to mill by truck from within 25 miles. If logs are delivered to the mill by truck from a distance greater than 25 miles, the buyer may add 10 cents per M feet log scale for each load mile in excess of 25.

(b) Logs purchased f. o. b. trucks at roadside shall be priced $8.00 lower than the maximum prices set forth above.

(c) If the delivery of logs to the mill necessitates payment of bridge or ferry tolls, the buyer may pay for the toll in addition to the ceiling price.

(d) Special provision. In the event that a buying plant, because of the specialized product involved, requires a log of specifications not set forth above, said buying plant may apply to the Lumber Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., for the establishment of a special price. The application must contain an adequate description of the grade and species and a statement whether the price can be paid under the end-product ceiling price.

Area. In the State of Maryland, the counties of Carroll, Baltimore, Harford, Howard, Montgomery, Anne Arundel, Prince Georges, Calvert, Charles, and St. Marys.

Species. All commercial species of the following genera: poplar (Liriodendron), oak (Quercus), ash (Fraxinus), beech (Fagus), hickory (Hicoria), maple (Acer), gum (Liquidamber and Nyssa), walnut (Juglans), sycamore (Platanus), elm (Ulmus), pine (Pinus), as well as all other species.

Scaling rules. All logs are to be scaled with the Doyle Log Rule. The diameter shall be measured at the small end of the log, inside the bark, and at the smallest diameter. Fractions of an inch ½ inch and less shall be counted back to the next lower diameter inch, while fractions of an inch above ½ inch may be raised to the next highest inch.

All unsound and unusable wood must be deducted by allowance in measurement. The defects for which full allowance must be made in measurement include hollows or large holes, rot, dote, windshake, large or excessive worm holes, damage in felling by drawn splinters, rotten and wormy sap, and crooks.

Logs are to be cut in standard even lengths unless otherwise specified by the buyer. The minimum length accepted shall be 8 feet. All logs must be cut at least 4 inches over length to allow for trim. Logs that are not cut at least 4'' over the specified length will be scaled as of the next lower even length.

Grade specifications—Clear grade.—Minimum diameter 24''. All logs 24'' and over in diameter must be clear of all visible defects.

Select grade. Minimum diameter 16''. Logs 16'' to 23'' in diameter must be clear of all defects. Logs 24'' and over in diameter must have at least 3 clear faces or have 75 percent of the length clear in one continuous section.

No. 1 grade. Minimum diameter 12''. Logs 12''–15'' in diameter must be clear of all visible defects. Logs 16'' to 23'' in diameter must have at least 3 clear faces or 75 percent of the length clear in one continuous section. Logs 24'' and over in diameter must have at least 2 clear faces or have at least 50 percent of the length clear in one continuous section.

NOTE: In the Clear, Select or No. 1 Grades, a center rot or dote in the butt end of the log of up to 4'' in diameter for logs 24'' and up, up to 3'' in diameter for logs 16'' to 23'', and 2'' in diameter for logs 12'' to 18'' in diameter will not degrade the log, but full deduction for the defect must be made when scaling the log. A center rot or dote at the butt end greater than the limits cited above will degrade the log at least one grade, with full deduction for defects in scale still required.

No. 2 grade. Minimum diameter, 12''. This grade shall include all sound logs above the specified diameter limits that are better than a cull and that do not grade as a No. 1 log.

A cull shall be considered as any log where the net board foot scale after deductions have been made for defects contains less than 50 percent of the gross board foot scale.

Woodsrun grade shall consist of hardwood logs 12'' and up and pine logs 8'' and up in diameter as produced from the forest that are better than culls and from which no selection of high-quality (Clear, Select or No. 1 Grade) logs has been made. If any high-quality logs have been removed from the run of logs, the remaining logs must be sold at prices no higher than the No. 2 grade price if ungraded, or at the applicable grade price if graded. When any low-quality logs have been removed from the run of logs, the remaining logs may still be sold at the woodsrun price.

MAXIMUM PRICES

[Per M feet log scale]

Species	Clear	Select	No. 1 grade	No. 2 grade	Woodsrun
Yellow poplar	$70.00	$50.00	$35.00	$20.00	$28.00
Red oak	60.00	42.50	32.50	20.00	27.50
White oak	70.00	50.00	37.50	20.00	29.00
Post and chestnut oak	45.00	35.00	27.50	18.00	25.00
Ash [1]	55.00	40.00	27.50	18.00	25.00
Beech	50.00	32.50	22.50	18.00	21.00
Hickory	45.00	35.00	25.00	17.00	22.00
Soft maple	50.00	40.00	30.00	19.00	24.00
Gum	50.00	35.00	25.00	18.00	23.00
Walnut [1]					30.00
Sycamore	45.00	35.00	27.50	19.00	25.00
Elm	45.00	35.00	27.50	19.00	25.00
Yellow pine					20.00
Other species	35.00	30.00	25.00	17.00	21.00

[1] If sold in conjunction with other species.

The above prices are to prevail for logs f. o. b. cars at rail siding, f. o. b. barge at towable waters or delivered to mill by truck from within 25 miles. If logs are delivered to the mill from a distance in excess of 25 miles a sum not to exceed 10 cents per M feet may be added for every additional load mile.

Area. In the State of Ohio, the counties of Cuyahoga, Geauga, Lake, Ashtabula, Trumbull, Summit, Portage, Mahoning, Lorain, Medina, Wayne, Ashland, Erie, Huron, Seneca, Richland, Knox, Sandusky, Wood, Lucas, Ottawa, and Crawford.

Species. All commercial species of the following genera: beech (Fagus), gum (Liquidamber and Nyssa), hackberry (Celtis), poplar (Liriodendron), sycamore (Platanus), ash (Fraxinus), basswood (Tilia), cherry (Prunus), cottonwood (Populus), elm (Ulmus), hickory (Hicoria), oak (Quercus), maple (Acer), as well as all other species.

Scaling rules. All logs are to be scaled according to the Doyle Log Rule. The diameter shall be measured at the small end of the log, inside the bark, at the smallest diameter. Fractions of an inch ½ and less must be counted back to the next lower inch. Fractions of an inch above ½ inch may be counted as of the next higher inch.

All logs are to be cut to even lengths unless otherwise specifically requested by the buyer. The lowest acceptable length shall be 8'. All logs must be cut 4'' over length to allow for trim. Logs that are not cut at least 4 inches over length shall be reduced in scale to the next standard lower length.

All unsound and unusable wood must be eliminated from the scale by deduction in measurement. The defects for which full deduction in scale must be made include hollows or large holes, rot, dote, windshake, large or excessive worm holes, damage in felling by drawn splinters, and crooks.

Grading rules.—No. 1 or Veneer Grade. This grade shall include all logs 12 inches and up in diameter that do not have more than two standard 5-inch knots or comparable defect for each 16-feet of length. A center rot or dote in the butt end of the log will be permitted up to 25 percent of the log diameter for logs up to 24'' in diameter and up to 6'' for logs in excess of 24'' in diameter without degrading the log; however, full deduction in scale for the defect must be made when scaling the log.

No. 2 grade. This grade shall consist of all logs 8 inches and up in diameter that are better than culls and which do not grade as a No. 1 or Veneer log.

Woodsrun grade shall consist of logs 8 inches and up in diameter as produced from the forest that are better than culls and from which no selection of high-quality (No. 1 or Veneer Grade) logs has been made. If any high-quality logs have been removed from the run of logs, the remaining logs must be sold at prices no higher than the No. 2 grade price if ungraded, or at the applicable grade price if graded. When any low-quality logs have been removed from the run of logs, the remaining logs may still be sold at the woodsrun price.

A cull log shall be one where the net board foot scale for defect is less than 50 percent of the gross scale.

MAXIMUM PRICES

[Per M feet log scale]

Species	No. 1 grade	No. 2 grade	Woods-run grade
White Oak	$55.00	$25.00	$35.00
Basswood	55.00	25.00	35.00
Hard Maple	55.00	25.00	35.00
Poplar	55.00	25.00	35.00
Ash [1]	50.00	22.50	30.00
Beech	50.00	22.50	30.00
Elm	50.00	22.50	30.00
Soft Maple	50.00	22.50	30.00
Red Oak & Black Oak	50.00	22.50	30.00
Cherry	50.00	22.50	30.00
Hickory	50.00	22.50	30.00
Cottonwood	45.00	20.00	25.00
Sycamore	45.00	20.00	25.00
Other Hardwoods	45.00	20.00	25.00

[1] The above prices for ash will prevail for ash logs purchased in conjunction with other species and not on an individual selected basis.

These prices apply f. o. b. cars, or for logs delivered to the mill by truck from within 25 miles. If logs are delivered to a mill from a distance in excess of 25 miles, the buyer may add to the above ceiling prices 10 cents per thousand feet log scale for every load mile in excess of 25 miles.

If delivery of logs is taken at any point other than f. o. b. cars or at the mill by truck, the buyer must deduct

(a) The cost of hauling logs to the rail siding and the cost of loading on cars if logs are delivered to the mill by rail cars; or

(b) The cost of trucking logs to the mill if logs are delivered to the mill by truck.

TABLE 5

Area. Part or all of the States of New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island by zones as follows:

Zone 1: In the State of New Hampshire, the counties of Sullivan, Merrimack, Cheshire, Hillsboro and Rockingham.

Zone 2: The part of the State of Massachusetts and Connecticut east of the Connecticut River and the entire State of Rhode Island.

Species. Hardwood and pine species suitable for the manufacture of insulating or felt products, and in Zone 2, cordwood (pulpwood) suitable for the manufacture of woodpulp.

Scaling rule. The standard cord of 128 cubic feet.

Grading rules. Wood shall be cut into 4' lengths to a minimum diameter of 3½" inside the bark.

Maximum Prices

[Per cord of 128 cubic feet]

Zone 1: Hardwoods:

$12.25 per cord at roadside available to trucks on year-around roads.

$14.75 per cord f. o. b. cars at rail siding.

$15.75 per cord delivered to mill by truck.

Pine:

$10.75 per cord at roadside available to trucks on year-around roads.

$13.25 per cord f. o. b. cars at rail siding.

$14.25 per cord delivered to mill by truck.

Zone 2: Hardwoods and pine: $12.25 per cord at roadside available to trucks on year-around road. For f. o. b. cars or delivered to mill by truck from within 10 miles add $2.50 per cord. If delivered to mill by truck from a distance greater than 10 miles add 6 cents per cord per load mile for next 15 miles (miles 11–25) and 5 cents per cord per load mile for each load mile thereafter.

When the consumer purchases cordwood suitable for manufacture into insulation and felt products from a dealer, a dealer's allowance of not to exceed 50 cents per cord of 128 cubic feet may be paid in addition to the above maximum prices. A dealer is a person engaged in buying and selling insulation and felt cordwood not produced by himself. The allowance must be separately shown on the billing or settlement sheet and may not be charged on any of the wood which has been produced by the dealer himself.

This amendment shall become effective April 29, 1944.

PART 1381—SOFTWOOD LUMBER

[2d Rev. MPR 219,[1] Amdt. 1]

NORTHEASTERN SOFTWOOD LUMBER

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Second Revised Maximum Price Regulation 219 is amended in the following respects:

1. In section 2, paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Products covered. This regulation covers, under the name of "Northeastern softwood lumber," all items of lumber of the following softwood species produced in the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia, Kentucky, Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, and in the part of the Dominion of Canada located east of the 85th meridian; or imported from the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics: Northeastern white pine (Pinus strobus), Norway pine (Pinus resinosa), Eastern hemlock (Tsuga canadensis), Eastern spruce (Picea rubra, Picea Mariana, and Picea glauca), Eastern white cedar (Thuja occidentalis), and Jack pine (Pinus banksiana), and of all other softwood species except Southern pine (covered by Second RMPR 19), Cypress (covered by MPR 412 and MPR 513) and Cedar (covered by MPR 454), whether the item or species is specifically named in the price tables or not.

2. In section 24, Table 5, the subheading is amended to read: "(For Jack Pine and Norway Pine, see notes 37 and 38)"

3. In section 24, Table 7, the subheading is amended to read: "(For Jack Pine and Norway Pine, see notes 19 and 20)"

4. In sections 18, 25 and 29 the parenthetical references following the titles are amended to read: "(For domestic transportation addition, see section 5)."

5. In section 35, Table 24, the second and third parts are amended to read as follows:

GRADE: MERCHANTABLE

[Rev. SR 14 to GMPR, Amdt. 126]

IMPORTED PACKED PINEAPPLE

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1.28 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 1.28 Imported packed pineapple—(a) Maximum prices ex dock or ex railroad car or other type of carrier, duty paid. The maximum price for pineapple processed and packed outside the Continental United States other than in the Territory of Hawaii and in Puerto Rico which any person may pay to any seller, whether such seller is located in or outside the Continental United States, and whether the purchase is made directly from such seller or from his agent wherever located, and the maximum price at which any person other than a wholesaler or retailer may resell imported packed pineapple shall be as follows:

[1] The net weight of a number 10 can of pineapple topping shall not be less than 7 pounds 12 ounces. Pineapple topping means a mixture of pineapple and sugar solids containing not less than 40 and not more than 45 percent sugar solids by weight, with such color, flavoring and acidulant as is customarily added when the product is used as an ice cream topping or dressing or in the manufacture of ice cream.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

The maximum price for any item of imported packed pineapple which is not listed above shall be determined by adding to or subtracting from the maximum price named above, for the item which is most similar to the item being priced, the same dollars-and-cents differential which existed in March, 1942 between the seller's prices for the two items.

The maximum prices listed above are ex dock, Miami, Florida, duty paid, or ex railroad car or other type of carrier, Laredo, Texas, duty paid. The maximum price ex dock any other port of entry shall be determined by adding to or subtracting from the Miami, Florida, ex dock price the difference between (1) the April 29, 1944 actual cost of ocean freight, war risk insurance (at War Shipping Administration's rates prevailing on date of shipment) and marine insurance from the port of origin to Miami, Florida, and (2) the April 29, 1944 actual cost of ocean freight, war risk insurance (at same rates) and marine insurance from the same port of origin to such other port of entry. The maximum price ex railroad car or any other type of carrier for any other point of entry on United States-Mexico border shall be determined by adding to or subtracting from the Laredo, Texas, ex railroad car (or other type of carrier) price the difference between (1) the April 29, 1944 actual cost of transportation at lowest available common or contract carrier rate from the point of shipment to Laredo, Texas and (2) the April 29, 1944 actual cost of transportation at lowest available common or contract carrier rate from the same point of shipment to such other point of entry on United States-Mexico border.

The above-named maximum prices include all commissions and charges to the points specified and are applicable to all purchases, deliveries and transfers of pineapple processed and packed outside the Continental United States other than in the Territory of Hawaii and Puerto Rico and imported into Continental United States from such areas.

If a person is unable to determine his maximum price under the provisions of this section he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for authorization of a maximum price.

(b) Maximum prices ex warehouse. The maximum price in each case for all persons other than wholesalers and retailers for imported packed pineapple which is sold ex-warehouse Miami, Laredo, or other port or point of entry in the Continental United States, shall be the maximum price for the item set forth in paragraph (a), plus the cost of actually putting the imported packed pineapple in the warehouse. This cost shall include only the following charges: (1) transportation from the dock or point of entry to the warehouse, (2) "handling in and out" of warehouse, and (3) warehouse storage for not to exceed 30 days. All persons making sales ex warehouse of imported packed pineapple must show separately on the invoice in each case: (1) the maximum price for the item ex dock or ex railroad car or other type of carrier, (2) the allowable charges which have been incurred in putting the imported packed pineapple in the warehouse, (3) the name of the entry carrier, (4) the bill of lading number, and (5) the date when storage began.

(c) Payment of brokers. In accordance with existing trade custom every broker shall be considered as the agent of the seller and not the agent of the buyer. In each case, the amount paid by the buyer plus any amount paid by the buyer to the broker shall not exceed the maximum prices listed in paragraph (a) and (b) plus allowable transportation actually paid by the seller or by the broker. The term "broker" includes a "finder".

(d) Maximum prices for wholesalers and retailers. Wholesalers and retailers of imported packed pineapple shall determine their maximum prices under Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 and 423, respectively. The "net delivered cost" of imported packed pineapple for wholesalers and retailers who import such items directly from points outside Continental United States shall not exceed the maximum prices ex dock or ex railroad car or other type of carrier as set forth in paragraph (a), plus any allowable charges actually incurred in putting the imported packed pineapple in the warehouse at port or point of entry, as set forth in paragraph (b), plus the actual transportation charges from the port or point of entry to the wholesaler's or retailer's customary receiving point.

In this paragraph (d), "net delivered cost" means the amount the wholesaler or retailer pays for the imported packed pineapple delivered to his customary receiving point, but not in excess of the maximum prices ex dock any United States port of entry, duty paid, or ex railroad car or other type of carrier at any point of entry on United States-Mexico border, duty paid, plus any allowable charges actually incurred in putting the imported packed pineapple in the warehouse at port or point of entry, as set forth in paragraph (b), plus actual transportation charges from the port or point of entry to the wholesaler's or retailer's customary receiving point. However, the expense of local trucking or unloading is not included.

(e) Maximum prices for delivered sales. The maximum delivered price for imported packed pineapple shall in no case exceed the maximum prices set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) plus actual transportation charges incurred from the dock or warehouse at any port of entry or any point of entry on United States-Mexico border to the place where delivery is made, at lowest available common or contract carrier rate. However, the expense of local trucking or unloading may not be added.

(f) Notification to wholesalers and retailers of authorized change in maximum price. With the first delivery after the effective date of this section, or any amendment authorizing a change in maximum price, of any item of imported packed pineapple in any case where a seller determines his maximum price pursuant to this section, he shall supply each wholesaler and retailer who purchases from him with written notice, as set forth below:

Insert date

NOTICE TO WHOLESALERS AND RETAILERS

Our O. P. A. ceiling price for (describe item by kind, variety, grade, brand, style of pack and container type and size) has been changed by the Office of Price Administration. We are authorized to inform you that if you are a wholesaler or retailer pricing this item under Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 and 423, you must refigure your ceiling price for this item on the first delivery of it to you containing this notification on and after (insert effective date of ceiling price change). You must refigure your ceiling price following the rules in section 6 of Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 or 423, whichever is applicable to you.

For a period of 60 days after determining such maximum price and with each shipment after the 60-day period to each person who has not made a purchase within that period, each seller shall place upon or attach to each invoice the written notice set forth above.

(g) Prohibitions, and permission to carry out certain contracts. On and after April 29, 1944, or the effective date of any amendment to this section, regardless of any contract or obligation:

(1) No person shall sell, offer to sell, attempt to sell, deliver or transfer imported packed pineapple at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this section, and

(2) No person shall buy, offer to buy, attempt to buy, import or receive, in the course of trade or business, imported packed pineapple at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this section, except that:

(i) Contracts entered into by industrial users prior to April 29, 1944, providing for a price higher than the maximum prices established by this section may be carried out at the contract prices: Provided, That such purchasers shall file a copy of each contract with the Processed Fruits and Vegetables Section, Food Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on or before May 9, 1944;

(ii) Importers who have previously established their maximum prices for sales of canned Cuban pineapple or canned Cuban pineapple juice to industrial, institutional or commercial users under § 1341.155 (a) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 (Canned Fruits and Canned Berries at Wholesale and Retail) or under the General Maximum Price Regulation as to pineapple imported from other producing areas except the Territory of Hawaii and Puerto Rico, and who have entered into contracts prior to April 29, 1944, at prices not in excess of those maximum prices may carry out such contracts at the contract price notwithstanding that the contract price is higher than the maximum prices fixed by this section: Provided, That the importer shall file a copy of each such contract with the Processed Fruits and Vegetables Section, Food Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on or before May 9, 1944, together with a statement showing his maximum price as established under those regulations.

The importer's maximum price for canned Cuban pineapple or canned Cuban pineapple juice, purchased under the contracts referred to in the foregoing paragraph, in sales to industrial, institutional or commercial users shall be his maximum price as established under § 1341.155 (a) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 as in effect on April 1, 1944, and for sales to all other purchasers shall be the maximum price fixed by this section. The importer's maximum price for imported packed pineapple purchased under such contracts from sellers in producing areas other than Cuba shall be his maximum price as established under the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(3) Lower prices than the maximum prices established by this section may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

(h) Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export imported packed pineapple shall be determined in accordance with the Second Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation [1], issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(i) Records and reports. All sellers and buyers of imported packed pineapple who have entered into contracts prior to April 29, 1944, for the sale or delivery of imported packed pineapple on and after April 29, 1944, at prices higher than the maximum prices established by this section shall file a copy of such contracts with the Processed Fruit and Vegetable Section, Food Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., on or before May 9, 1944.

After the buyer has received the final shipment called for by the contract, he shall then report such receipt to the Processed Fruits and Vegetable Section, Food Division, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. within two weeks after receipt of the final shipment, stating that the total amount received did not exceed the quantity specified in the contract.

Every person making purchases or sales of imported packed pineapple on and after April 29, 1944, shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect, all records of the kind he has customarily kept relating to the prices paid or received, the name of the purchaser, the date of the contract and the variety, style, grade and amount of imported packed pineapple purchased.

(j) Definitions. When used in this section the term:

"Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, any other organized group of persons, and their legal successors or representatives. The term includes the United States, its agencies, other governments, their political subdivisions, and their agencies.

"Importer" means the first consignee of imported packed pineapple in the Continental United States.

"Imported packed pineapple" means any variety of pineapple, including frozen pineapple, which is processed and enclosed in any container, whether or not hermetically sealed, produced outside Continental United States other than in the Territory of Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

"Industrial user" means any person who subjects imported packed pineapple to a process that results in the production of a new and different kind of product, or who uses the packed pineapple as an ingredient or component part of such an article. However, a restaurant, hotel or other similar establishment shall not be considered an "industrial user".

"Wholesaler" and "retailer" mean the persons respectively referred to as such in Maximum Price Regulations Nos. 421, 422 and 423.

This amendment shall become effective April 29, 1944.

NOTE: All record-keeping and reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1413—SOFTWOOD LUMBER PRODUCTS

[MPR 381,[1] Amdt. 3]

STOCK SCREEN GOODS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 381 is amended in the following respects:

1. In section 2, paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

(a) Products covered by this regulation. This regulation covers, under the term "stock screen goods," all of the screen doors, combination doors, extension window screens, and knocked-down wooden screen frames made of Ponderosa pine (Pinus ponderosa), Idaho pine (Pinus monticola), Sugar pine (Pinus lambertina), and Pinus species known commercially as "Southern pine", or any species of hardwood lumber, in the patterns or designs mentioned in the appendices of the regulation.

2. In section 3 (a) (1), subparagraph (i) is amended to read as follows:

(i) Sales to jobbers and special dealers. A jobber is any distributor who in 1942 made 20 percent or more, by dollar volume, of his screen goods sales to other distributors. A special dealer is any distributor, other than a jobber, who in 1942 received from the manufacturer a discount or price equivalent to the price at which the manufacturer was invoicing his jobber customers.

3. In section 3, paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for stock screen goods shall be the prices arrived at by applying the following percentage addition or deduction for the specified species and products to the list prices in the appendices (adjusted for "list extras" and "list deductions").

(1) Ponderosa pine screen products. Maximum prices: (Percentage to be added to or deducted from list price.)

Kind of sale	Appendices: Tables 1, 2, 4, 5 (patterns N and Q)		Appendices: Table 9	Appendices: Tables 10 and 11

Mail-order sales:
Full bundles	List price plus 12 percent of list price.
Broken bundles	List price plus 21 percent of list price.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

4. A new section 3a is added to the regulation to read as follows:

SEC. 3a. Items not specifically priced. Any person desiring to sell an item covered by the regulation but not specifically priced therein must make application to the Lumber Branch Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. for approval of a price. The application must contain a complete description of the item to be priced, the requested selling price and any additional facts which the respondent cares to make in support of the requested price. Any price not approved within 30 days from receipt of the application shall be considered approved until specifically revoked. The seller may use his requested selling price, subject to adjustment, pending approval of a price.

5. Section 4 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 4. Additions for transportation and delivery—(a) What charges for transportation and delivery may be added to the maximum price. (1) In sales to distributors when shipment originates at a factory or factory warehouse, and in direct factory sales to consumers, the seller must allow freight (and freight tax) at the carload rail rate from factory to destination (or to point of distribution in the case of distribution cars).

(2) In sales to distributors, when the shipment originates at any place other than a factory or factory warehouse:

(i) The seller cannot charge for delivery when delivery is made by the seller's own truck.

(ii) When shipment is made by common carrier the seller may add only the actual charge or cost in excess of $0.75 per hundred pounds paid or incurred by him in making shipment by common carrier from his establishment to the purchaser. In "retail sales," when the distributor has paid this incoming delivery charge in excess of $0.75 per hundred pounds, he may add this amount to the maximum price for "retail sales."

(3) In "retail sales," the seller cannot charge for delivery within the free delivery zones recognized by him during March 1942. For delivery outside of these free delivery zones, the seller may add the actual charge or cost paid or incurred by him in making shipment from his establishment to the purchaser.

(4) In mail-order sales, the seller may add the actual charge or cost paid or incurred by him in making shipment from the loading (or shipping) point to the place of delivery designated by the purchaser.

(b) How to figure the actual charge or cost paid or incurred by the seller. (1) When shipment is by common or contract carrier, the actual charge is the amount paid to the carrier.

(2) In "retail sales" when shipment is by truck owned or controlled by the seller, the cost which the seller figures cannot be higher than the over-all average trucking cost for a similar delivery, arrived at as of the six-month period ending September 1, 1942.

6. In section 12 (a), Table 1 is amended by adding list prices as follows:

All sections open: $0.10 per door.
Sash section open, screen section wired: $0.14 per door.
Sash section glazed, screen section wired: $0.19 per door.

5. Doors higher than listed: Add to the list price of a 7-0" door of the same width, for each additional 2" or fraction thereof:
All sections open: $0.19 per door.
Sash section open, screen section wired: $0.19 per door.
Sash section glazed, screen section wired: $0.19 per door.

6. 1⅜" thick combination doors (inserts 1⅛" thick): 20% of the list price.

7. 1¾" thick combination doors (inserts 1⅛" thick): 60% of the list price.

8. Prime coat of linseed oil and white lead: $1.00 per door.

9. Doors with stiles and top rail wider than 4¾" over-all, for each additional ¼" wider or fraction thereof: $0.08 per door.

10. Top and lock rails wider than 4¾" over-all and bottom rail wider than 9¾" over-all for each additional ¼" wider or fraction thereof: $0.02 per door.

11. Preservative treatments:
Preservative treatment with both water repellant and toxic preservative.
Entire door: $.32 per door. Panels: $.13 per door.
Preservative treatment with toxic preservative only: Entire door: $.19 per door. Panels only treated: $.08 per door.

12. The maximum selling price for combination doors or parts of doors listed in Catalogue No. 40, pages 160 through 179, inclusive, but not listed in section 15 of this regulation shall be computed as follows:
Apply the prevailing dealer discount in RMPR 293 to the list in Catalogue No. 40, take the resultant figure and
(i) For jobbers: Multiply by 1.20.
(ii) For dealers: Multiply by 1.60.

Effective date. This amendment shall become effective April 29, 1944, except that:

If this amendment lowers any maximum price below that previously fixed in this regulation, then: (1) "Sales to jobbers and special dealers" pursuant to firm contracts in existence prior to the issuance of this amendment at lawful prices may be completed according to their terms with respect to shipments made on or before May 15, 1944;

(2) "Sales to regular dealers" may be made at the previous lawful prices where shipment is made on or before June 15, 1944; and

(3) "Retail sales" may be made at the previous lawful prices where delivery is made on or before July 31, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[2d Rev. MPR 346, Amdt. 2]

CORN

A statement of the considerations, involved in the issuance of this amendment, has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 19 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 19. Exempt sales. Whenever circumstances of emergency make the purchase of corn by the United States or any of its agencies imperative and it is impossible to secure or unfair to require immediate delivery at the maximum price which would otherwise be applicable, such purchases and deliveries may be made pursuant to the provisions of section 4.3 (f) of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1 to the General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended: Provided, however, That the Administrator may, by order, waive the reporting of any part of the information required by section 4.3 (f) in connection with a particular purchase or group of purchases upon determining that such information may not reasonably be required under all the circumstances, and he may, in lieu thereof, require the reporting of other information more suited to the circumstances.

This amendment shall become effective April 29, 1944.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[RO 1A,[1] Amdt. 76]

TIRES, TUBES, RECAPPING AND CAMELBACK

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order No. 1A is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1315.201 (a) (39) is amended by substituting the phrase "non-mechanically operated vehicle" for the phrase "animal-drawn vehicle".

2. Section 1315.503 (b) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) Occupational purposes. A certificate for a Grade I tire (or a Grade III tire at the applicant's option) may be issued for a passenger automobile, other than a motorcycle:
(i) Which has a valid supplemental gasoline ration; or
(ii) Which is operated on an interchangeable gasoline ration book; or
(iii) Which is operated on gasoline obtained against an Acknowledgment of Delivery (Form OPA R-544 revised) pursuant to § 1394.7952 of Ration Order No. 5C; or
(iv) Which is not propelled by gasoline or is operated on a valid non-highway gasoline ration, if it is used for an occupational purpose as defined in § 1394.7551 (a) (27) of Ration Order No. 5C.

3. Section 1315.503 (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) Motorcycle tires. A certificate for a motorcycle tire (new or used at applicant's option) may be issued for a motorcycle if any of the purposes for which it is used constitute occupational mileage as defined in § 1394.7551 (a) (27) of Ration Order No. 5C.

4. Section 1315.503 (b) (3) is hereby revoked.

5. Section 1315.503 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Eligibility for Grade III tires. A certificate for a Grade III tire may be issued for a passenger automobile, other than a motorcycle, which is not eligible under paragraph (b) and:
(1) Which is operated on a valid basic gasoline ration; or
(2) Which is operated on a valid non-highway gasoline ration or which is not propelled by gasoline; or
(3) Which is registered and normally garaged or stationed in Canada and obtains its gasoline under a special ration granted pursuant to §§ 1394.7851 or 1394.7856 of Ration Order No. 5C. Any Board may issue a certificate for a Grade III tire and new tubes under this subparagraph.

6. Section 1315.503 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) Replacement of recappable tire carcass. In any area where recapping facilities are unavailable or inadequate, an applicant may be granted a certificate for a Grade III tire if he is otherwise eligible under paragraph (b) (1) or (c) of this section, or a certificate for a new or used motorcycle tire if he is otherwise eligible under paragraph (b) (2) of this section.

7. The title and introductory paragraphs of § 1315.504 are amended to read as follows:

§ 1315.504 Additional proof of need for commercial motor vehicle and non-mechanically operated vehicle. In addition to meeting all of the conditions of § 1315.501, an applicant for a tire or tube for a commercial motor vehicle or a non-mechanically operated vehicle must meet the following conditions:

8. Section 1315.504 (b) is amended by deleting the phrase: "for a commercial motor vehicle".

9. Section 1315.505 (b) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) A certificate for a used truck tire of a size smaller than 7.50–20, for any grade of passenger tire, or for a new tube may be granted for any commercial motor vehicle which meets the applicable requirements of §§ 1315.501 and 1315.504.

10. Section 1315.506 (a) (1) (i) is amended by deleting the last sentence thereof.

11. Section 1315.511 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1315.511 Eligibility of house trailers. A person who meets the applicable conditions of §§ 1315.501 and 1315.504 may be granted a certificate for tires and new tubes for movement of house trailers in accordance with the following:

(a) If application is made for tires and tubes to equip a house trailer which is eligible under this paragraph (a), the Board may issue a certificate for new tubes and for Grade III tires if they are available in the community, or for Grade I tires if Grade III tires are not available. However, if the Board determines that a passenger-type tire would be an uneconomical use of rubber in view of the load to be carried, it may issue a certificate for a new or used truck tire of a size smaller than 7.50–20, except a new truck tire of the size 7.00–20/32 x 6 (ten-ply). Eligibility may be established under this paragraph:

(1) Use by itinerant workers. For a house trailer used exclusively to furnish housing to itinerant workers rendering any of the construction, maintenance or repair services listed in § 1315.505 (a) (14) (ii) or other services essential to the public health, safety or the war effort, if it is required to enable such persons to be located near their place of work;

(2) Use by commercial towers of trailers. To provide a person in the business of towing trailers with eight tires and eight new tubes, plus four additional tires and four new tubes for each separate branch where he maintains a tow car.

(b) If the house trailer is to be moved for any purpose other than those described in paragraph (a), the Board may issue a certificate only for Grade III tires and new tubes.

12. Section 1315.515 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1315.515 Eligibility of non-mechanically operated vehicle. If tires are essential for the operation of a non-mechanically operated vehicle which meets the applicable conditions of §§ 1315.501 and 1315.504, a certificate may be granted for the same types and grades of tires and tubes for which the vehicle would be eligible under § 1315.505 if it were a commercial motor vehicle. No certificate shall be issued under this section to equip any vehicle which is eligible for a tire or a new tube under § 1315.506.

13. Section 1315.511 (c) (1) is added to read as follows:

(1) Any dealer may, in exchange for a certificate for a Grade I tire, transfer to the holder thereof of a Grade I tire of any size suitable for use on the vehicle for which the certificate was issued.

This amendment shall become effective May 1, 1944.

PART 1394—RATIONING OF FUEL AND FUEL PRODUCTS

[RO 5F,[1] Amdt. 8]

MILEAGE RATIONING: GASOLINE REGULATIONS FOR THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 5F is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 4.1 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 4.1 Basic rations. A basic ration may be obtained for use with a registered passenger automobile or a registered motorcycle, except that no basic ration shall be issued for use with any motor vehicle which is:
(a) Owned or leased by a Federal, Territorial, local or foreign government or government agency.
(b) Part of a fleet of passenger automobiles or motorcycles.
(c) Held by a motor vehicle dealer for sale or resale.
(d) A vehicle available for public rental.

2. Section 4.2 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 4.2 Basic ration books. Class "A" and class "D" books marked "Basic", shall be issued as basic rations. Class "A" books are issued for passenger automobiles and class "D" books for motorcycles. Subject to the provisions of section 4.3 (e), which relates to the tailoring of coupons from books issued after the beginning of the ration period, each book issued for use after the dates specified in Table I below shall originally contain 48 coupons. Basic ration books issued previously to the dates specified in Table I below shall originally contain 32 coupons. Each coupon in a basic ration book shall have a value of one unit. Coupons in class "A" books shall be valid for the transfer of gasoline to a consumer only during the periods indicated in Table II below. Coupons in basic class "D" books shall be valid for the transfer of gasoline to a consumer for a period of twelve calendar months after the date upon which this order becomes effective on each island or the date of issuance of the ration, whichever is later.

TABLE I—REISSUE DATE FOR BASIC RATIONS CONTAINING 48 COUPONS

Island:	Date
Kauai	March 1, 1944.
Maui	April 1, 1944.
Oahu	June 1, 1944.
Hawaii	August 1, 1944.
Molokai	December 1, 1944.

PART 1407—RATIONING OF FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

[RO 16,[1] Amdt. 134]

MEAT, FATS, FISH AND CHEESES

A rationale for this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 16 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 7.3 (c) is added to read as follows:

(c) However, any person may make an industrial use of foods covered by this order which have a zero point value without registering as an industrial user.

2. Section 8.5 (c) is amended by adding the following sentence:

Similarly, if a person who deals in foods covered by this order and makes sales or transfers of them does not actually keep such foods at any particular place, his operations as a whole are regarded as his establishment, and he may register as a wholesaler or retailer (but not as a primary distributor of the type described in section 4.9), depending on the class of persons to whom he makes transfers.

This amendment shall become effective May 5, 1944.

PART 1411—COMPENSATORY ADJUSTMENT

[Rev. Comp. Adj. Reg. 1, Amdt. 3]

WARTIME INCREASES IN THE COST OF TRANSPORTING COAL

Revised Compensatory Adjustment Regulation No. 1 is amended in the following respect:

Section 1411.2 (c) (3) is amended by adding a proviso thereto, as follows:

Provided, That, in the case of an f. a. s. dock operator who, due to wartime conditions, purchased bituminous coal from the mine during December 15–31, 1941, (or the nearest earlier date on which such coal was received), at a price abnormally high in relation to the mine price upon which his December 15–31, 1941 selling price for such coal was based, the limitation set forth in this subparagraph (3) shall not apply.

This amendment shall become effective as of October 11, 1943, and the provisions thereof shall apply to applications relating to coal received on or after May 18, 1942.

PART 1439—UNPROCESSED AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

[MPR 502,[1] Amdt. 1]

POPCORN

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 502 is amended in the following respects:

1. In section 4, paragraph (c) is amended and a new paragraph (g) is added to read as follows:

(c) Meaning of "processor." As used in this regulation, the term "processor" means an individual, corporation or partnership, engaged in the business of processing popcorn and who performs all the functions of cleaning, screening, grading, testing and curing shelled popcorn and sells it in bulk or in packages. The processor's maximum prices named in section 4 (a) and (b) for processed shelled popcorn are applicable only to sales by processors as defined in paragraph (c) of this section.

(g) Meaning of "processed shelled popcorn." "Processed shelled popcorn" means shelled popcorn that has been fully cleaned, screened, graded, tested, and cured so that it contains not more than 14 percent moisture content and is in prime popping condition. Any shelled popcorn which does not conform with the requirements of this definition shall be deemed to be unprocessed shelled popcorn.

2. Section 16 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Evasion. Nor shall any person evade a maximum price, directly or indirectly, whether by commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege; by tying agreement or other trade understanding; by any change of style of pack; by a business practice relating to grading, cleaning, testing, screening, curing, processing; by temporarily leasing facilities for processing, labeling or packaging, or in any other way.

This amendment shall become effective May 1, 1944.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

[S. O. 205]

BUNKER ICING AT ROSEVILLE, CALIF.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of April, A. D. 1944.

It appearing, that the initial bunker icing at Watsonville Junction, California, of refrigerator cars loaded with fresh or green vegetables originating in the Salinas-Watsonville district of California, requires the shipment of ice from other points to Watsonville Junction, thereby interfering with the best utilization of cars, congesting traffic and wasting transportation; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action:

It is ordered, That:

§ 95.339 Refrigerator cars; initial bunker icing at Roseville. (a) For carriers' convenience refrigerator cars loaded with shipments of fresh or green vegetables originating in the Salinas-Watsonville district of California (defined herein as stations on the Southern Pacific Company, Coast Division, between King City, California, and Gilroy, California, including Santa Cruz, Monterey and Hollister branches), may be initially bunker iced at Roseville, California, where bunker icing on such shipments is not otherwise prohibited by order of this Commission.

(b) Tariff provisions suspended. The operation of all tariff rules, regulations, or charges insofar as they conflict with the provisions of this order is hereby suspended.

(c) Announcement of suspension. Each of such railroads or its agent, shall publish, file, and post a supplement to each of its tariffs affected hereby announcing the suspension of any of the provisions therein. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)–(17))

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., May 1, 1944; that a copy of this order and direction shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 3.

PART 97—ROUTING OF TRAFFIC

[S. O. 204]

REROUTING OF FREIGHT TRAFFIC IN OHIO, MISSOURI AND MISSISSIPPI RIVER VALLEYS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of April, A. D. 1944.

It appearing, that flood conditions existing in the following river valleys: Ohio, Missouri, Mississippi Rivers and their tributaries, are interrupting transportation service upon the lines of common carriers by railroad reaching such rivers and tributaries affected by the floods so that such carriers are unable properly to serve the public; in the opinion of the Commission an emergency exists requiring immediate action to avoid congestion of traffic, and in order to best promote the service in the interest of the public and the commerce of the people;

It is ordered, That:

§ 97.13 Flood conditions.—(a) Rerouting of freight traffic. Effective at once and until the further order of the Commission all common carriers by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act operating within the following river valleys: Ohio, Missouri, Mississippi Rivers, and their tributaries, where tracks are not usable due to floods, are hereby directed to forward freight traffic having origin or destination in, or ordinarily moving through such territory via routes most available to expedite its movement and prevent congestion, without regard to the routing thereof made by shippers or by carriers from which the traffic is received, or to the ownership of cars: Provided, That the billing covering all cars rerouted shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the rerouting. All rules, regulations, and practices of said carriers with respect to car service are hereby suspended and superseded insofar only as conflicting with the directions hereby made.

(b) Rates to be applied. That inasmuch as such disregard of routing is deemed to be due to carriers' disability, the rates applicable to traffic so forwarded by routes other than those designated by shippers, or by carriers from which the traffic is received, shall be the rates which were applicable at date of shipment over the routes so designated.

(c) Division of rates. In executing the orders and directions of the Commission provided for in this order the common carriers involved shall proceed even though no contracts, agreements, or arrangements now exist between them with reference to the divisions of the rates of transportation applicable to said traffic; such divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers; and upon failure of the carriers to so agree, said divisions shall be hereafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 418; 41 Stat. 476, 485; sec. 4, 10; 54 Stat. 901, 912; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)–(17), 15 (4))

It is further ordered, That copies of this order and direction be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 3.

Chapter II—Office of Defense Transportation

[Administrative Order ODT 1, Amdt. 11]

PART 503—ADMINISTRATION

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY; DIVISION OF RAILWAY TRANSPORT

Pursuant to Executive Order 8989, as amended, § 503.4 of Administrative Order ODT 1, as amended (8 F.R. 6001, 17278, 9 F.R. 223), is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 503.4 Division of Railway Transport. (a) The Director, Division of Railway Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, is authorized and directed as follows:

(1) Removal of freight from, and unloading of cars at port areas. To issue, in his discretion, the directions contemplated by § 502.25 of General Order ODT 12A (9 F.R. 222) or as such order may be amended, revised, or reissued.

(2) To amend, modify, or revoke any direction issued pursuant to the provisions of § 502.25 of General Order ODT 12A, or as such order may be amended, revised, or reissued.

(3) Passenger train operations. To execute and issue, in his discretion, and in the name of the Director of the Office of Defense Transportation, special permits as provided in General Order ODT 24, as amended (7 F.R. 7814, 10484), or as such order may be further amended, revised, or reissued.

(4) Movement of traffic in tank cars. To administer the provisions of §§ 502.109, 502.110, 502.113, 502.114, 502.115, 502.116, 502.117, 502.118, 502.119, and 502.121 of General Order ODT 7, Revised (7 F.R. 10484), or as such order may be amended, further revised, or reissued, and to issue such directions, instructions and orders, and require such reports, with the approval of the Bureau of the Budget where necessary, as may be required to administer the provisions thereof.

(5) To exercise the authority conferred by subparagraphs (1) to (4) of this paragraph (a) through such members of the staff of the Division of Railway Transport as he may designate.

(b) The Eastern Director, Eastern Region, Division of Railway Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, is authorized and directed as follows:

(1) Emergency rail service; Eastern Region. To request from rail carriers, in the event of enemy attack through bombing or otherwise, such emergency railroad service in the Eastern Region (including the States of Indiana, Ohio, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont, Maine, and the southern peninsula of Michigan) as may be necessary or required:

(i) To evacuate civilians from any area, point or place in such region;

(ii) For the transportation of fire apparatus from any point or place to any other point or place in such region;

(iii) For the transportation of injured persons in such region to any point or place for hospitalization;

(iv) For the transportation of food and other vital supplies in such region as may be requested by the Office of Civilian Defense; or

(v) For such other emergency railroad transportation as may be requested by responsible officials of the Office of Civilian Defense.

(2) The authority conferred in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (b) shall be exercised only at the request of responsible officials or officers of the Office of Civilian Defense, the Department of War, or the Department of the Navy.

(3) Coordination of rail traffic. To coordinate and direct domestic rail traffic movements over the lines of common carriers by railroad operating east of the Indiana-Illinois State line and north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers, but not including operations in the States of West Virginia and Virginia, or in the District of Columbia, with the objective of preventing or removing traffic congestion, and assuring the orderly and expeditious movement of men, materials and supplies to points of need.

(c) The Southern Director, Southern Region, Division of Railway Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, is authorized and directed as follows:

(1) Emergency rail service; Southern Region. To request from rail carriers, in the event of enemy attack through bombing or otherwise, such emergency railroad service in the Southern Region (including the States of Kentucky, West Virginia, Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, that portion of Louisiana east of the Mississippi River, and the District of Columbia), as may be necessary or required:

(i) To evacuate civilians from any area, point, or place in such region;

(ii) For the transportation of fire apparatus from any point or place to any other point or place in such region;

(iii) For the transportation of injured persons in such region to a place of hospitalization;

(iv) For the transportation of food and other vital supplies in such region as may be requested by the Office of Civilian Defense; or

(v) For such other emergency railroad transportation as may be requested by responsible officials of the Office of Civilian Defense.

(2) The authority conferred in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c) shall be exercised only at the request of responsible officials or officers of the Office of Civilian Defense, the Department of War, or the Department of the Navy.

(3) Coordination of rail traffic. To coordinate and direct domestic rail traffic movements over the lines of common carriers by railroad operating east of the Mississippi River and south of the Ohio and Potomac rivers, including operations in the States of West Virginia and Virginia and in the District of Columbia, with the objective of preventing or removing traffic congestion, and assuring the orderly and expeditious movement of men, materials and supplies to points of need.

(d) The Western Director, Western Region, Division of Railway Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, is authorized and directed as follows:

(1) Coordination of rail traffic. To coordinate and direct domestic traffic movements over the lines of western carriers by railroad (within and between the States of Washington, Oregon, California, Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Idaho, New Mexico, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Wisconsin, Illinois, the upper peninsula of Michigan, and all that part of Louisiana west of the Mississippi River), with the objective of preventing possible points of traffic congestion and assuring the orderly and expeditious movement of men, materials and supplies to points of need.

(2) Emergency rail service; Western Region. To request from rail carriers, in the event of enemy attack through bombing or otherwise, such emergency railroad service in the Western Region (including the States of Washington, Oregon, California, Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Idaho, New Mexico, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Wisconsin, Illinois, the upper peninsula of Michigan, and all that part of Louisiana west of the Mississippi River), as may be necessary or required:

(i) To evacuate civilians from any area, point or place in such region;

(ii) For the transportation of fire apparatus from any point or place to any other point or place in such region;

(iii) For the transportation of injured persons in such region to a place of hospitalization;

(iv) For the transportation of food and other vital supplies in such region as may be requested by the Office of Civilian Defense; or

(v) For such other emergency railroad transportation as may be requested by responsible officials of the Office of Civilian Defense.

(3) The authority conferred in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph (d) shall be exercised only at the request of responsible officials or officers of the Office of Civilian Defense, the Department of War, or the Department of the Navy.

(e) The Deputy Western Director, Western Region, Division of Railway Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, is authorized and directed as follows:

(1) Emergency rail service, Pacific Coast District, Western Region. To request from rail carriers, in the event of enemy attack through bombing or otherwise, such emergency railroad service within the Pacific Coast District, Western Region, as may be necessary or required:

(i) To evacuate civilians from any area, point, or place in such district;

(ii) For the transportation of fire apparatus from any point or place to any other point or place in such district;

(iii) For the transportation of injured persons in such district to a place of hospitalization;

(iv) For the transportation of food and other vital supplies in such district as may be requested by the Office of Civilian Defense; or

(v) For such other emergency railroad transportation as may be requested by responsible officials of the Office of Civilian Defense.

(2) The authority conferred in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (e) shall be exercised only at the request of responsible officials or officers of the office of Civilian Defense, the Department of War, or the Department of the Navy.

This Amendment 11 to Administrative Order ODT 1 shall become effective April 29, 1944.

PART 503—ADMINISTRATION

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY; DIVISION OF TRAFFIC MOVEMENT

Pursuant to Executive Order 8989, as amended, § 503.5 of Administrative Order ODT 1, as amended (8 F.R. 6001, 14857), is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 503.5 Division of Traffic Movement. (a) The Director, Division of Traffic Movement, Office of Defense Transportation, is authorized and directed as follows:

(1) Merchandise traffic. To execute and issue, in his discretion, and in the name of the Director of the Office of Defense Transportation, special permits as provided by General Order ODT 1, as amended (7 F.R. 3046, 3213, 3753, 9744), or as such order may be further amended, revised, or reissued.

(2) Carload traffic. To execute and issue, in his discretion, and in the name of the Director of the Office of Defense Transportation, special permits contemplated by § 500.73 of General Order ODT 18A, as amended (8 F.R. 14477, 9 F.R. 116), or as such order may be further amended, revised, or reissued.

(3) Movement of traffic in tank cars. (i) To administer the provisions of §§ 502.111, 502.112, 502.120 and 502.122 of General Order ODT 7, Revised (7 F.R. 10484), or as such order may be amended, further revised, or reissued, and to issue such directions, instructions and designations, establish such symbol train routes, prescribe such schedules and rules, and with the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, where necessary, require such reports as may be necessary to administer such provisions;

(ii) To establish symbol train routes and schedules (a) for the through and uninterrupted movement of petroleum and petroleum products, in tank cars, from any point in the continental United States to any destination in the continental United States located outside District No. 1 as such district is defined in General Order ODT 7, Revised (7 F.R. 10484), or as such order may be amended, further revised, or reissued; and (b) for the through and uninterrupted movement of empty tank cars, the loaded movement of which was over any such symbol train route; and

(iii) To issue such directions, instructions, rules, and regulations, and with the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, where necessary, to require such reports, as may be necessary to administer the provisions of subdivision (ii) hereof.

(b) Exercise of authority. The authority conferred by paragraph (a) of this § 503.5 may be exercised by the Director, Division of Traffic Movement, through such officials of the Office of Defense Transportation as he may designate.

This Amendment 12 to Administrative Order ODT 1 shall become effective April 29, 1944.

BOYD MOUNTS

ORDER REVOKING LICENSES, DIRECTING SURRENDER OF LICENSES, AND REQUIRING RECORDS TO BE FURNISHED

In the matter of licensee, Boyd Mounts. Proceedings for revocation of licenses.

To: Boyd Mounts, O'Keefe, Mingo County, West Virginia.

Based upon the records in this matter, including all communications received from you, I make the following findings of fact.

1. On February 25, 1944, a specification of charges against you, setting forth violations of the Federal Explosives Act (55 Stat. 863), as amended, and the regulations pursuant thereto of which you were accused, was mailed to you giving you notice to mail an answer within 15 days from February 25, 1944, answering the charges against you and requesting an oral hearing if you wished.

2. More than 50 days have elapsed since February 25, 1944. The length of time required for mail to be delivered to the Bureau of Mines, Washington, D. C., from O'Keefe, West Virginia, does not exceed 3 days. The only communications received from you have been your replies dated March 9, 1944, and April 3, 1944. You have not requested an oral hearing.

3. You have admitted that you purchased and possessed explosives at a time when you were not licensed under the act. This was a violation of section 2 of the act.

4. You have admitted that you sold explosives without requiring the purchasers to present licenses issued to them under the act and that you did not have certified or photographic copies of their licenses on file in your office. This was a violation of section 15 of the regulations.

5. You have admitted that you failed to keep a full, detailed, and tabulated record of your transactions and operations involving explosives. This was a violation of section 5 of the act and section 14 (d) of the regulations.

6. You have admitted that on or about January 6, 1944, you stored explosives otherwise than in a properly constructed, safely located and securely locked magazine. This was a violation of section 17 (a) of the regulations.

7. You have admitted that on or about January 6, 1944, you stored explosives on premises not marked with a sign containing the words "Explosives—Keep Off." This was a violation of section 12 of the act and section 17 (b) of the regulations.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Federal Explosives Act and the regulations pursuant thereto, I hereby order:

1. That all licenses issued to you under the Federal Explosives Act be and they are hereby revoked as of midnight, May 10, 1944.

2. That prior to midnight, May 10, 1944, you shall sell or otherwise dispose of to properly licensed persons, or destroy, all explosives and ingredients of explosives owned or possessed by you, or consigned to you, or which are in your custody.

3. That after having disposed of or destroyed all explosives and ingredients of explosives as required by paragraph 2 of this order you shall, prior to midnight, May 10, 1944, deliver or mail to Alex U. Miller, Supervising Engineer, United States Bureau of Mines, Post Office Building, Mount Hope, West Virginia, a sworn statement of your transactions in and destructions of explosives and ingredients of explosives, beginning with the date of this order and ending with the final sale or other disposition, or with the final destruction, of the explosives and ingredients of explosives as required above. The statement shall set forth the amount of each kind of explosives and ingredients of explosives which you had on hand at each location at the opening of business on the date of this order, the amount of each kind acquired by you on that date and each day thereafter, the dates on which acquired, the names and addresses of the persons from whom acquired, the amount of each kind sold or otherwise disposed of by you, the dates on which sold or otherwise disposed of, the names and addresses and the numbers and dates of Federal explosives licenses of the persons to whom sold or otherwise disposed of, the amount of each kind destroyed by you, the dates on which destroyed and the places where destroyed.

4. That prior to midnight, May 10, 1944, you shall surrender all licenses issued to you under the Federal Explosives Act, and all copies thereof, by mailing or delivering them to Alex U. Miller, Supervising Engineer, United States Bureau of Mines, Post Office Building, Mount Hope, West Virginia.

Failure to comply with any of the provisions of this order will constitute a violation of the Federal Explosives Act punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

This order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 27th day of April 1944.

OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION.

[Supp. Order ODT 3, Rev. 231]

COMMON CARRIERS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS BETWEEN POINTS IN MISSOURI AND ARKANSAS

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof to facilitate compliance with the requirements and purposes of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended (7 F.R. 5445, 6689, 7694; 8 F.R. 4660, 14562; 9 F.R. 2793, 3264, 3357), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and

It appearing that the proposed coordination of operations is necessary in order to assure maximum utilization of the facilities, services, and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials, and supplies, of the carriers, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved and the carriers are directed to put the plan in operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the carriers forthwith shall file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and likewise shall file, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations, and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order and of such plan; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on the shortest notice lawfully permissible, but not prior to the effective date of this order.

3. Whenever transportation service is performed by one carrier in lieu of service by another carrier, by reason of a diversion, exchange, pooling, or similar act made or performed pursuant to the plan for joint action hereby approved, the rates, charges, rules, and regulations governing such service shall be those that would have applied except for such diversion, exchange, pooling, or other act.

4. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any carrier subject hereto to perform any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to authorize or require any act or omission which is in violation of any law or regulation, or to permit any carrier to alter its legal liability to any shipper. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing interstate or intrastate operating authority of any carrier subject hereto, such carrier forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the carriers' possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

5. All records of the carriers pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

6. Withdrawal of a carrier from participation in the plan for joint action hereby approved shall not be made without prior approval of the Office of Defense Transportation.

7. The provisions of this order shall be binding upon any successor in interest to any carrier named in this order. Upon a transfer of any operation involved in this order, the successor in interest and the other carriers named in this order forthwith shall notify, in writing, the Office of Defense Transportation of the transfer and, unless and until otherwise ordered, the successor in interest shall perform the functions of his predecessor in accordance with the provisions of this order.

8. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the carriers to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

9. Communications concerning this order should refer to it by the Supplementary Order number which appears in the caption on page 1 hereof, and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington 25, D. C.

This order shall become effective May 5, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 1st day of May 1944.

J. M. JOHNSON,
Director,
Office of Defense Transportation.

CERTAIN TAXICAB OPERATORS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS IN KIRKSVILLE, MO.

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof (hereinafter called "operators") pursuant to General Order ODT 20A (8 F.R. 9231), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and it appearing that the operators propose, by the plan, to coordinate their taxicab operations within the area of Kirksville, Missouri, so as to assure maximum utilization of their facilities, services and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials and supplies, and to provide for the prompt and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved, and the operators are directed to place the plan into operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the operators shall forthwith file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order.

3. The provisions of this order shall not be construed or applied as to permit any operator named herein to alter his legal liability to any passenger. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing operating authority of any operator named herein, such operator forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the operators possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

4. All records of the operators pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination with inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

5. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the operators to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

6. Any operator duly authorized or permitted to operate taxicabs within the area herein described, and having suitable equipment and facilities therefor, may make application in writing to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Quincy, Illinois, for authorization to participate in the plan. A copy of each such application shall be served upon each of the operators named in this order. Upon receiving authorization to participate in the plan, each such operator shall become subject to this order and shall thereupon be entitled and required to participate in the plan in accordance with all of the provisions and conditions of this order, in the same manner and degree as the operators named herein.

7. Communications concerning this order should refer to "Supplementary Order ODT 20A–107" and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Quincy, Illinois.

[Region I Order G-69 Under RMPR 122]

SOLID FUELS IN SOUTHBRIDGE, MASS., AREA

Order No. G-69 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Specified solid fuels in Southbridge, Massachusetts, area.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region I of the Office of Price Administration by § 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 and the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, it is hereby ordered:

(a) Maximum prices established by this order. The maximum prices established by §§ 1340.252, 1340.254, 1340.256, 1340.257 and 1340.265 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 for sales of specified kinds of solid fuels in the Southbridge, Massachusetts, Area by dealers, and for specified services rendered by dealers in connection with the sale or handling of said specified solid fuels, are hereby modified, so that the maximum prices therefore shall be the prices hereinafter set forth.

Maximum prices are established for (1) sales of various quantities of specified solid fuels to various classes of purchasers under various conditions of delivery; and (2) charges which may be made, in addition to such maximum prices for the specified solid fuels, for specified services.

The geographical applicability of this Order G-69 is explained in paragraph (f) and the terms used herein are defined in paragraph (g).

Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, the provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 apply to all transactions which are the subject of this Order G-69. Specifically, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the prohibitions contained in § 1340.252 apply except to the extent that this Order G-69 provides uniform allowances, discounts, price differentials, service charges, and so forth. Nothing contained in this order shall be so construed as to permit non-compliance with any statutes of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or any rules or regulations promulgated under any such statutes, concerning sales or deliveries of solid fuels.

(b) Price Schedule I: Sales on a delivered basis. (1) Price Schedule I sets forth maximum prices for sales of specified kinds, sizes and quantities of solid fuels on a delivered basis to consumers at any point in the Southbridge, Massachusetts Area.

Kind and size	Per net ton	½ ton	¼ ton	100 lb.
Pennsylvania anthracite:
Broken, egg, stove and chestnut	$16.85	$8.45	$4.25	$0.95

Ambricoal	14.35	7.20	3.60	.80

(2) Maximum authorized service and deposit charges. (a) The foregoing maximum prices include any carrying or wheeling that may be necessary to effect delivery into consumer's bin or storage space, except for carries up or down flights of stairs of quarter-ton or larger quantities. If a carry up or down flights of stairs is necessary in order to effect delivery of a quarter-ton or larger quantity into consumer's bin or storage space and if the consumer requests such service of him, the dealer may charge the following amounts:

	Per net ton	½ ton	¼ ton
First flight up or down	$0.50	$0.25	$0.15
Each additional flight	.25	.15	.10

If the consumer does not request such service in such cases, the maximum prices shall apply for delivery to that available point which is nearest and most accessible to the stairs.

(b) If the buyer requests that fuel delivered in burlap bags furnished by the dealer be left in the bags, the maximum amount which may be required by the dealer as a deposit on, or as predetermined liquidated damages for failure to return, the bags shall be 25 cents per bag.

(c) Price Schedule II: Yard sales to consumers. (1) Price Schedule II sets forth maximum prices for sales of specified kinds, sizes and quantities of solid fuels delivered at the yard of any dealer in the Southbridge, Massachusetts Area to consumers.

Kind and size	Per net ton	½ ton	¼ ton	100 lbs.
Pennsylvania anthracite:
Broken, egg, stove, and chestnut	$15.85	$7.95	$4.00	$0.90

(2) Maximum authorized bagging and deposit charges. (a) If the buyer requests such service of him, the seller may make the following charges for bagging in 100 pound bags, exclusive of any deposit charges on bags furnished by the seller.

	Cents
Per net ton	50
Per half-ton	25
Per quarter-ton	15

(b) The maximum amount which may be required by the seller as a deposit on, or as predetermined liquidated damages for failure to return, burlap bags furnished by the seller shall be 25 cents per bag.

(e) Terms of sale. If payment is made by the buyer within 10 days after receipt of the fuel, the maximum prices set forth in paragraphs (b) (c) and (d) shall be reduced by $1.00 per ton or by 50 cents per half-ton, which reductions are "cash discounts". No further discount is required for cash on delivery, and no "cash discount" is required on any sales of less than a half-ton. If payment is not required or made at the time of delivery or (except in the case of less than half-ton lots) within 10 days thereafter, terms shall be net 30 days.

(f) Certain named Pennsylvania anthracite coals. The specific maximum prices set forth above for Pennsylvania anthracite may be increased by the following amounts when the following sizes of named Pennsylvania anthracite coals are sold: Provided, That the following increases may be charged only if the conditions set forth in paragraph (b) of Region I Supplementary Order No. 2 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 are observed.

Kind and size	Per net ton	Per ½ ton	Per ¼ ton	Per 100 lbs

(g) Definitions. When used in this Order G–69, the term:

(1) "Southbridge, Massachusetts Area" shall include the following cities and towns in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts: Southbridge and Sturbridge.

(2) "Specified solid fuels" shall include Pennsylvania anthracite, coke and Ambricoal.

(3) "Pennsylvania anthracite" means coal produced in the Lehigh, Schuylkill and Wyoming regions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

(4) "Named Pennsylvania anthracite" means Jeddo Highland, Greenwood, Raven Run, Orange Disc, and Legitts Creek and Black Stork.

(5) "Jeddo Highland" means that Pennsylvania anthracite which is prepared at Jeddo #7 breaker and Highland #5 breaker of the Jeddo Highland Coal Company, Jeddo, Pennsylvania, and marketed by said company under the trade names "Jeddo Coal", "Highland Coal", or "Hazel Brook Coal."

(6) "Greenwood" means that Pennsylvania anthracite which is produced by Lehigh Navigation Coal Company, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and marketed under the trade name "Old Company's Lehigh Greenwood Premium Anthracite."

(7) "Legitts Creek" and "Black Stork" both mean that Pennsylvania anthracite which is produced and prepared by Penn Anthracite Collieries Company, Scranton, Pennsylvania, and which meets the quality and preparation standards established by Revised Order No. 5 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 112.

(8) "Raven Run" means that Pennsylvania anthracite which is produced by Hazel Brook Coal Company, Jeddo, Pennsylvania, from its continental mines and the property of Raven Run Coal Company, an affiliated company, prepared at its Midvalley breaker and sold under that trade name, and which meets the quality and preparation standards established by Order No. 8 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 112.

(9) "Orange Disc" means that Pennsylvania anthracite which is produced and prepared by Payne Coal Company, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, at its Exeter Colliery and sold under that trade name, and which meets the quality and preparation standards established by Order No. 10 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 112.

(10) "Broken", "egg", "stove", "chestnut" and "pea" sizes of Pennsylvania anthracite refer to the legal standard sizes for anthracite offered for sale in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, effective December 1, 1941, as established by the Director of Standards of the Division of Standards of the Department of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts pursuant to General Laws (Ter. Ed.) Chapter 94, section 239A (Chapter 382, Acts of 1926), "Buckwheat" and "Rice" sizes of Pennsylvania anthracite refer to the sizes of such coal prepared at the mine in accordance with standard sizing specifications adopted by the Anthracite Emergency Committee, effective December 15, 1941.

(11) "Coke" shall include only coke produced by the following producers:

New England Coke Co., or its affiliated producing company, at their plant in Everett, Massachusetts.

Providence Gas Company, Providence, Rhode Island.

All other coke shall be priced under the appropriate provision of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

(12) "Dealer" means any person selling solid fuel except producers or distributors making sales at or from a mine, a preparation plant operated as an adjunct of any mine, a coke oven, or a briquette plant.

(13) "Carry" and "wheel" refer to the movement of fuel to buyer's bin or storage space by wheelbarrow, barrel, bag, sack or otherwise from the dealer's truck or wagon, or from the point of discharge therefrom, to buyer's bin or storage space.

(14) "Yard sales" shall mean deliveries made by the dealer in his customary manner at his yard.

(15) Except as otherwise specifically provided, and unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in §§ 1340.255 and 1340.266 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 shall apply to the terms used herein.

(h) Transportation tax. Any dealer subject to this order may collect, in addition to the specified maximum prices established herein, provided he states it separately, the amount of the transportation tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 actually paid or incurred by him, or an amount equal to the amount of such tax paid by any of his prior suppliers and separately stated and collected from the dealer by his supplier: Provided, however, That no part of that tax may be collected in addition to the maximum price on sales of lesser quantities than one-quarter ton; And provided, further, That the dealer need not state separately from his selling price the amount of said tax on a sale to the United States or any agency thereof, any State government or any political subdivision thereof.

(i) Geographical applicability. The maximum prices established by this order for "yard sales" shall apply to all such sales of the specified solid fuels at a yard located in the area covered by this order, regardless of the ultimate destination of the fuel. The maximum prices established by this order for sales on a delivered basis shall apply to all such sales of the specified solid fuels to purchasers who receive delivery of the fuel within the area covered by this order, regardless of whether the dealer is located within said area.

(j) Lower prices permitted. Lower prices than those set forth herein may be charged, paid or offered.

(k) Posting of maximum prices; sales slips and receipts. (1) Every dealer subject to this order shall post all of the maximum prices established hereby which apply to the types of sales made by him in his place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public and shall keep a copy of this order available for examination by any person during ordinary business hours. In the case of a dealer who sells directly to consumers from a truck or wagon, the posting shall be done on the truck or wagon. All postings shall include the relevant terms of sale. The prices established hereby need not be reported under § 1340.262 (c) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

(2) Every dealer selling solid fuel for sales of which a maximum price is set by this order shall give to each purchaser an invoice or similar document showing (a) the date of the sale or delivery, the name and address of the dealer and of the buyer, the kind, size and quantity of the solid fuels sold, and the price charged; and (b) separately stating any special services rendered and other charges made and the amount charged therefor. This paragraph shall not apply to sales of quantities of less than one-quarter ton unless the dealer customarily gave such a statement on such sales.

(3) In the case of all other sales, every dealer who during December, 1941, customarily gave buyers sales slips or receipts shall continue to do so. If a buyer requests of a seller a receipt showing the name and address of the dealer, the kind, size and quantity of the solid fuel sold to him or the price charged, the dealer shall comply with the buyer's request as made by him.

(l) Records. Every person making a sale of solid fuel for which a maximum price is set by this order shall keep a record thereof, showing the date, the name and address of the buyer (if known), the per net ton price charged and the solid fuel sold. The solid fuel shall be identified in the manner in which it is described in this order. The record shall also separately state each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(m) Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this order may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that the petition shall be filed in the Boston Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration. No appeals from a denial in whole or in part of such petition by the Regional Administrator may be made to the Price Administrator.

(n) This order may be revoked, amended, or corrected at any time.

This Order No. G–69 shall become effective May 1, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record keeping provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[Region III Order G–23 Under MPR 329]

FLUID MILK IN KENTUCKY

Order No. G–23 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 329. Purchases of milk from producers for resale as fluid milk.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region III of the Office of Price Administration by § 1351.408 (b), (c), and (f) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 329, It is hereby ordered:

(a) Any "milk" distributor in the Counties of Allen, Ballard, Butler, Caldwell, Galloway, Carlisle, Christian, Crittenden, Daviess, Fulton, Graves, Hickman, Henderson, Hopkins, Livingston, Logan, Lyon, McCracken, McLean, Marshall, Muehlenberg, Ohio, Simpson, Todd, Trigg, Union, Warren, and Webster in the State of Kentucky may pay to producers an amount not to exceed $3.40 per cwt. for "milk" of 4% butterfat content, plus or minus 5% for each one-tenth of one percent of variation over or under 4%, provided that each such distributor shall be subject to the express limitations and restrictions of § 1361.402 (b) (c) (d) (e) (f).

(b) Any "milk" distributor increasing his price to producers for "milk" pursuant to the provisions of this order shall, within five days of such action, notify the Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, Union Commerce Building, Cleveland, Ohio, by letter or post card of his price established pursuant to the provisions of this order together with a statement of his previous price.

(c) As to the distributors designated in section (a) hereof, the provisions of this order supersede and replace the provisions of Order No. G–3 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 329, "Purchases of Milk from Producers for Resale as Fluid Milk". Said Order No. G–3 is therefore revoked as to distributors located in the counties named in section (a) hereof.

(d) The provisions of this order supersede and replace the provisions of Orders No. G–6 and No. G–14 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 329, "Purchases of Milk from Producers for Resale as Fluid Milk". Said Orders No. G–6 and No. G–14 are therefore revoked.

(e) Definitions. (1) "Milk distributor" is defined to mean an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons or successors of the foregoing who purchases "milk" in a raw and unprocessed state for the purposes of resale as fluid milk in glass, paper, or other containers.

(2) "Producer" means a farmer, or other person or representative who owns, superintends, manages, or otherwise controls the operations of a farm on which "milk" is produced. For the purposes of this order, farmers' cooperatives are producers when (i) they do not own or lease physical facilities for receiving, processing, or distributing milk, and (ii) they do own or lease physical facilities for receiving, processing or distributing milk, but they act as selling agents for producers, whether members of such cooperative or not.

(3) "Milk" means liquid cow's milk in a raw, unprocessed state, which is purchased for resale for human consumption as fluid milk. "In a raw, unprocessed state" means unpasteurized and not sold and delivered in glass or paper containers.

(f) This order may be modified, amended, or revoked at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

This order shall become effective April 16, 1944.

(56 Stat. 23, 765, Pub. Law 151, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871 and E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681)

Issued April 15, 1944.

SOLID FUELS IN YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO, AREA

Amendment No. 2 to Order No. G–34 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Solid fuels sold and delivered by dealers. Maximum prices for specified solid fuels in the Youngstown, Ohio, Area.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region III of the Office of Price Administration by §§ 1340.254 and 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, it is hereby ordered that Order No. G–34 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 be amended in the following respects:

1. Section (a) is amended to include the township of Canfield as a part of the Youngstown area so that the entire section shall read as follows:

(a) This order establishes maximum prices for sales of specified solid fuels made within the municipal limits of Youngstown, Girard, Struthers, Campbell, Hubbard, Hall's Corners, Poland and Lowellville, and within the townships of Liberty and Hubbard in Trumbull County, and the townships of Youngstown, Coitsville, Boardman, Canfield and Poland in Mahoning County, all in the State of Ohio. These are the highest prices that any dealer may charge when he delivers such fuel at or to a point in such area; they are also the highest prices that any buyer in the course of trade or business may pay for them.

2. The introductory paragraph to the price schedules in section (c) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Schedule for sales of coal—(1) Price schedules. This schedule sets forth maximum prices for cash sales of specified sizes, kinds and quantities of solid fuels. Column I describes the coal for which prices are established; Column II shows maximum prices per ton for sales of two or more tons on a "direct delivery" basis, when payment is made within 15 days of the date of delivery, (on such sales in quantities of less than two tons, an additional charge of $.25 per ton may be added); Column III shows maximum prices per ton for "yard sales" to unequipped dealers reselling coal and to consumers. All prices are for sales on a net ton basis.

3. The general description of the heading contained in Part I of the price schedules in section (c) (1) is amended to read as follows:

I. High Volatile Bituminous Coals from Producing District No. 2 (Western Pennsylvania), excepting coals from Mine Index No. 224.

4. Subparagraphs (1) (a) and (1) (b) of Paragraph A, Part I of the price schedules in section (c) (1) are re-arranged and amended to read as follows:

Column I	Column II	Column III
I. • • •
A. • • •
1. • • •
a. Mine Price Classification A	$7.50	$6.50
b. Mine Price Classification B through E	7.40	6.40

5. Subparagraph (2) (a) of Paragraph A, Part I of the price schedules in section (c) (1) is amended to read as follows:

Column I	Column II	Column III
I. • • •
A. • • •
2. • • •
a. Mine Price Classifications A through C	$7.40	$6.40

6. The general description contained in the heading of Part III of the price schedules in section (c) (1) is amended to read as follows:

II. • • •

III. High Volatile Bituminous Coals from Producing District No. 4 (Ohio) excepting Mine Index No. 54.

7. Subparagraph 1 of paragraph A, Part III of the price schedules in section (c) (1) is amended to read as follows:

Column I	II	III
III. • • •
A. • • •
1. From the Ohio No. 8 Freight Origin District, Size Groups 1 and 2, (bottom size larger than 2")excepting Mine Index No. 122:
a. Produced at Mine Index No. 167 and 176	$7.30	$6.30
b. Produced at all other mines	7.05	6.05

8. Section (e) is amended to read as follows:

(e) Schedule of service and credit charges. This schedule sets forth maximum prices which a dealer may charge for special services rendered in connection with all sales under paragraph (c). These charges may be made only if the buyer requests such service of the dealer and only when the dealer renders the service. Every service charge shall be separately stated in the dealer's invoice.

	Per ton
Carrying from curb	$1.00
Wheeling from curb	.75
Credit charge permitted in Column II price when not paid within 15 days from date of delivery	.50
Use of an extra chute to deliver coal into customer's bin	.35

This Amendment No. 2 to Order No. G–34 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 shall become effective April 20, 1944.

ROOFING IN SHELBY COUNTY, TENN.

Order No. G–1 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 251. Construction and maintenance services and sales of building and industrial equipment and materials on an installed or erected basis. Adjustment of maximum prices for the sale of certain types of roofing on an installed or applied basis in Shelby County, Tennessee.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under the authority vested in the Regional Administrator for Region IV, Office of Price Administration, by § 1397.68 (b) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 251, It is hereby ordered:

(a) On and after the effective date of this order, no person may sell or offer to sell the types of roofing material herein named, on an installed or applied basis, in Shelby County, Tennessee, at prices higher than those specified herein. Lower prices than those provided herein may be charged.

(1) The maximum prices established by this order are as follows:

(i) 167 pound, hexagon shingles, $7.00 per square.

(ii) 210 pound, square tab strip shingles, $8.50 per square.

(iii) 90 pound, slate surface roll roofing (nailed on) $4.75 per square.

(iv) 90 pound, slate surface roll roofing (cemented on) $5.75 per square.

(v) An additional charge in the amount of 5% of the total charge may be added by a seller for maintenance cost, waste and building permit cost: Provided, however, That in the event such charge is added, each sale of roofing material on an installed or applied basis is accompanied by a guarantee for two years against defects of workmanship.

(vi) An additional charge of 50¢ per square may be added to the above prices on sales of such roofing when applied to roofs having more than ¼ pitch.

(b) The prices named herein shall be applicable during the effective period of this order to all sales of the named types of roofing material on an installed or applied basis within the geographical limits of Shelby County, Tennessee.

(c) Definitions. (1) In computing the area of a roof to which the named roofing materials are applied, 36 lineal feet of valley and/or 100 lineal feet of ridge shall be considered one square. Likewise, any fraction of a square, after computation of the total, shall be considered as one square.

(2) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in Maximum Price Regulation No. 251 shall be applicable to the terms used herein.

(d) Except as otherwise provided herein, all transactions subject to this order shall remain subject to all provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 251, together with all amendments and orders that heretofore have been or hereafter may be issued.

(e) This order may be revoked, amended, or corrected at any time prior to the expiration date contained herein.

(f) This order shall become effective April 24, 1944 and shall expire October 31, 1944.

COMMON BRICK IN LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CALIF.

Amendment No. 1 to Order No. G–3 under Maximum Price Regulation No. 188. Manufacturers' maximum prices for specified building materials and consumers' goods other than apparel. Adjusted maximum prices for sales of common brick in Los Angeles County, California.

For the reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and under authority vested in the Regional Administrator of the Office of Price Administration by § 1499.161 (a) (2) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, It is hereby ordered, That the order issued herein on March 4, 1944 be amended in the following particulars:

Paragraph (a) of said order is amended to read as follows:

(a) The adjusted maximum prices at which any manufacturer located in Los Angeles County, California, may sell and deliver common brick shall be the following:

(1) The adjusted maximum price for standard size common brick shall be $15.00 per M.

(2) The adjusted maximum price for standard size select brick shall be $17.00 per M, provided that the total deliveries of select brick by the particular manufacturer during any one month shall not be in excess of its deliveries of common standard size brick. If the deliveries during any one month do exceed the deliveries of common standard size brick, this adjusted maximum price for standard size select brick shall immediately terminate.

(3) The adjusted maximum price for larger size brick shall be $15.00 per M, plus the customary differential over the seller's price for standard size common brick which the particular seller had in effect during March 1942.

(4) The adjusted maximum prices herein established are f. o. b. the particular manufacturer's plant.

(5) The term "common brick" as herein used means a calcined clay solid including standard size common, standard size select and larger size brick made of the same material as the standard size and sometimes sold under a trade name and with or without patentable features. It does not include face brick or pressed brick.

b. Paragraph (b) of said order is amended to read as follows:

(b) All customary allowances, discounts, or other price differentials in effect during March, 1942 shall be maintained.

c. Paragraph (c) of said order is amended to read as follows:

(c) No deliveries of common brick at the adjusted maximum prices allowed by this order shall be made until the manufacturer shall receive a written acknowledgment of receipt in proper form of a statement in duplicate filed by him with the Los Angeles Office of Price Administration showing his unadjusted maximum prices and adjusted maximum prices for all types of common brick sold by him.

This Amendment No. 1 shall become effective immediately.

[Region V Order G–3 Under RMPR 122]

SOLID FUELS IN TOPEKA, KANS., AREA

Order No. G–3 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Maximum prices for solid fuels sold in the City of Topeka, Kansas, and part of Shawnee County adjacent to Topeka, Kansas.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region V by § 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 and for reasons stated in the opinion issued herewith, it is ordered:

(a) What this order does. This order establishes maximum prices for sales of specified solid fuels within the corporate limits of the City of Topeka, Kansas, as established by city ordinance, and, in addition thereto, the area lying adjacent to the said City of Topeka, Kansas, in Shawnee County, Kansas as follows:

Beginning at the intersection of 25th and Monroe Streets, thence in a southerly direction to the intersection of 29th and Monroe Streets; thence east on 29th Street to the intersection of 29th Street and California Avenue; thence north to the intersection of 21st Street and California Avenue; thence east on 21st Street to the intersection of Carnahan Avenue with 21st Street; thence north on Carnahan Avenue to a point on U. S. Highway No. 40 where Carnahan Avenue intersects with said U. S. Highway No. 40; thence east to Tefft Street; thence in a northerly direction along Tefft Street to the intersection of 3d Street and Tefft Street; thence east on 3d Street to the intersection of 3d Street and Strait Avenue; thence north on Strait Avenue to the corporate limits of the city of Topeka where it joins with the old channel of Shunganunga Creek. Also, that area lying immediately north of the Kansas River and north of the corporate limits of the city of Topeka, beginning at a point on the north bank of the Kansas River and Lynwood Avenue; thence in a northerly direction to 9th Street; thence east on 9th Street to Waltman Avenue; thence east on Waltman Avenue to Lyman Avenue; thence east on Lyman Avenue to the intersection of Lyman Avenue and K–10 Highway; thence in a southwesterly direction along K–10 Highway to the intersection of said Highway with the Grantville Golden Bell Road; thence in a southwesterly direction along the Grantville Golden Bell Road to the corporate limits of the city of Topeka at the intersection of Paramore Street and Maple Street; thence south on Maple Street to Saywell Street; thence east two blocks to the intersection of Saywell Street with Gonvil Street; thence south on Gonvil Street to the intersection of Gonvil Street with Sardou Avenue; thence west on Sardou Avenue to the intersection of Sardou Avenue and Maple Street.

The prices set forth in this order are the highest prices that any dealer may charge when he sells or delivers any of such fuels at or to a point within the area set forth above.

(1) Solid fuels not covered by this order. There are a few kinds and sizes of solid fuels covered by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 sold and delivered in the area covered by this order which are not included in and for which prices are not established by this order. The maximum prices of such solid fuels when sold by any person covered by this order shall continue to be the maximum prices for such fuels established by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, as amended. Such sales shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, as amended.

(b) What this order prohibits. Regardless of any obligation no person shall:

(1) Sell, or in the course of trade or business buy, solid fuels at prices higher than the maximum prices set by this Order No. G–3; but less than the maximum prices may at any time be charged, paid or offered.

(2) Obtain higher than maximum prices by:

(i) Charging for a service unless such service is expressly requested by the buyer and unless specifically authorized to do so by this order;

(ii) Charging a price higher than the schedule price for a service;

(iii) Using any tying agreement or requiring that the buyer purchase anything in addition to the fuel requested by him; or

(iv) Using any other device by which a higher than maximum price is obtained directly or indirectly.

(c) Price schedule. (1) Below and a part of this paragraph is the maximum price schedule which sets forth maximum prices for sales by direct delivery of specified sizes, kinds and quantities of solid fuels.

Description of fuel	Maximum price per ton
II. Low volatile bituminous coal from District 14 (Arkansas and Oklahoma)—Continued.
(F) Production Group 11:
1. Fancy Lump (Lump coal with a bottom size larger than 3"; and all double screened coal with a top size larger than 10")	$8.65
2. Standard Nut (Top size 3" to larger than 2", bottom size 1¼" and smaller)	8.00
3. Stoker (Top size 1¼" and smaller, bottom size ⅜" to larger than ¼")	6.90
IV. Low volatile bituminous coal from District 17 (Colorado):
(A) Sub-District No. 2:
1. Lump (Bottom size 3" and smaller)	14.05
2. Nut (Top size 3", bottom size 1¼")	12.95
V. Briquettes:
1. Produced in Kansas City, Missouri, consisting of 70% Arkansas Anthracite and 30% Semi-Anthracite from District 14	12.55

(2) The prices set forth in the foregoing schedule are on a per net ton basis (2,000 pounds to the ton). No dealer may add to the schedule prices any additional charge for the extension of credit.

(3) The prices set forth in the foregoing schedule are for raw coal, i. e., coal which has not been treated. On all sales of treated coal, whether oil, paraffin, or calcium chloride treatment and regardless of whether such treatment was applied at the mine or by the dealer, the dealer may charge an amount not to exceed 10¢ per ton in addition to the prices set forth in the foregoing schedule.

(4) A deduction from the prices set forth in the foregoing schedule of not less than 75¢ per ton must be made on sales of one or more tons of any solid fuel covered by this order where the buyer purchases the fuel for his own use as a fuel and loads it onto his conveyance at the dealer's yard or siding.

(5) A deduction from the prices set forth in the foregoing schedule of not less than $1.50 per ton must be made on sales of one or more tons of any solid fuel covered by this order by one dealer to another dealer, who purchases the coal for resale and loads it onto his conveyance at the seller's yard or siding.

(6) An addition not to exceed 25¢ may be added to the fractional per net ton price set out in the foregoing schedule where the dealer sells and delivers one-half ton.

(7) An addition not to exceed 50¢ may be added to the fractional per net price ton set out in the foregoing schedule where the dealer sells and delivers one-fourth ton.

(8) On sales of screenings to commercial and industrial users, a discount of 25¢ per ton shall be applied to the prices set forth in the foregoing schedule. Commercial or industrial user, for the purposes of this order, shall mean any person who purchases for use 20 or more tons of screenings per annum.

(d) Service charges. (1) Below and as a part of this paragraph (d) is a schedule that sets forth maximum prices which a dealer may charge for special services rendered in connection with all sales under preceding paragraph (c). These charges may be made only if the buyer requests such services of the dealer and only when the dealer renders the service. The prices for such services shall be separately stated in the dealer's invoice or bill of sale.

(i) A service charge not to exceed $1.00 per ton may be charged for a "carry in" service. A "carry in" service means the service of carrying in solid fuel from the curb or point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space to the buyer's fuel bin window. This service does not include the service of carrying fuel up or down stairs.

(ii) A service charge not to exceed $.50 per ton may be charged for a "wheel in" service. A "wheel in" service means the service of wheeling in solid fuel from the curb or point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space to the buyer's fuel bin window. This service does not include the service of carrying fuel up or down stairs.

(iii) Where a dealer is requested to perform additional "carry in" or "wheel in" services in addition to the services defined in paragraphs (i) and (ii), the maximum price for such additional services shall not exceed the price charged by the dealer for such services during December of 1941.

(e) Ex parte 148 freight rate increase; transportation tax; Kansas State sales tax—(1) The freight rate increase. Since the ex parte 148 freight rate increase has been rescinded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the dealers' freight rates are the same as those of December, 1941. Therefore, no dealer may increase any schedule price on account of freight rates.

(2) The transportation tax. Only the transportation tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 may be collected in addition to the maximum prices set out by this order provided the dealer states it separately from the price of the fuel and lists it separately on any sales slip or receipt given to the buyer. This tax need not be stated separately on sales to the United States or any agency thereof, the State government or any political subdivision thereof (See § 1340.265 (b) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122). No part of this tax may be collected in addition to maximum prices on sales of ¼ ton or lesser quantities.

(3) The Kansas State sales tax: The seller may add to the prices listed in the schedule in paragraph (c) the sales tax required to be collected by the laws of the State of Kansas. This tax shall be separately stated in the dealer's invoice, sales slip or receipt.

(f) Addition of increase in supplier's prices prohibited. (1) The maximum prices set out by this order may not be increased by a dealer to reflect increases in purchase costs or in supplier's maximum prices occurring after the effective date hereof; but increases in the maximum prices set hereby to reflect such increases are within the discretion of the regional administrator.

(g) Power to amend or revoke. (1) The Price Administrator or the Regional Administrator of Region V may amend, revoke, or rescind this order, or any provisions thereof, at any time.

(h) Petitions for amendment. (1) Any person seeking an amendment to this order may file a petition for amendment in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 except that the petition shall be filed with the regional administrator and acted upon by him.

(i) License. (1) Every dealer subject to this order is governed by the licensing provisions of Supplementary Order No. 72. This provides in brief that a license is required of all persons selling at retail commodities for which maximum prices are established. A license may be suspended for violation in connection with the sale of any commodity for which maximum prices are established. If a dealer's license is suspended, he may not sell any such commodity during the period of suspension.

(j) Records and reports. (1) Every person making a sale of solid fuel for which a maximum price is set by this order shall keep a record thereof showing the date, the name and address of the buyer, if known, the price charged and the kind and size of fuel sold. The fuel shall be identified in the manner in which the fuel is described in this order. The record shall also state separately each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(k) Posting of maximum prices; sales slips and receipts. (1) Each dealer subject to this order shall post all of the maximum prices set by it for all types of sales. He shall post his prices in his place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public. He shall also keep a copy of this order available for examination by any person inquiring as to his prices for solid fuel.

(2) In the case of all sales covered by this order every dealer who during December, 1941, customarily gave buyers sales slips or receipts shall continue to do so. In any case if a buyer requests a receipt, the seller shall furnish the buyer with a receipt showing the name and address of the seller, the kind, sizes, and quantity of the solid fuel sold to the buyer and the price or prices charged.

(l) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provisions of this order are subject to civil and criminal penalties, including suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this order are urged to communicate with the Wichita, Kansas District Office of the Office of Price Administration.

(m) Definitions and explanations. (1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Sell" includes sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, lease, transfer, and deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "sale", "selling", "sold", "buy", "purchase", and "purchaser" shall be construed accordingly.

(3) "Dealer" means any person selling solid fuel except producers or distributors making sales at or from a mine, a preparation plant operated as an adjunct of any mine, a coke oven or a briquette plant.

(4) "Direct delivery" means dumping or chuting the fuel from the seller's truck directly into the buyer's bin or storage space; but if this is unfeasible, because of the absence of a regular driveway free from all foreign matter which might damage trucks and tires, then direct delivery means discharging the solid fuel from the seller's truck directly at the street curb or at the point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space.

(5) "Production group" and "production groups," as used in this order, refer to the production groups established by the former Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, and as in effect at midnight, August 23, 1943.

(6) "Price groups", as used in this order refers to the price groups established by the former Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, and as in effect at midnight, August 23, 1943.

(7) "District No." refers to the geographical bituminous coal producing districts as delineated and numbered by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, as they have been modified by the Bituminous Coal Division and as in effect at midnight, August 23, 1943.

(8) "High volatile bituminous coal" means coal produced in the high volatile sections of the producing districts specified in this order.

(9) "Low volatile bituminous coal" means coal produced in the low volatile sections of the producing districts specified in this order.

(10) "Solid fuel" or ("solid fuels") means all solid fuel except wood and wood products, including all kinds of anthracite and semi-anthracite; bituminous and semi-bituminous and cannel coal; lignite; all coke, including low temperature coke (except by-product foundry and blast furnace coke, and beehive oven furnace coke produced in the State of Pennsylvania); briquettes made from coke or coal; and sea coal used for foundry facings.

(11) "Egg, nut," etc., sizes of bituminous coal refer to the sizes of such coal as defined in the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, and as prepared at the mine in accordance with the applicable minimum price schedule promulgated by the Bituminous Coal Division of the United States Department of the Interior, and in effect (or established) as of midnight, August 23, 1943.

Where the minimum price schedules do not make specific mention of any size designated in this order, such size designations shall refer to the sizes of bituminous coal sold as such in the area subject to this order during December, 1941.

(12) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein or as the context may otherwise require, the definitions set forth in §§ 1340.255 and 1340.266 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, as amended, shall apply to the terms used herein.

(n) Effect of this order on Revised Maximum Price Regulation 122. (1) To the extent applicable, the provisions of this order supersede Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

(2) This Order No. G–3 shall become effective the 1st day of May 1944.

NOTE: The provisions in this order which require approval by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942 have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget.

(56 Stat. 23, 765, Pub. Law 151, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681)

Issued this the 24th day of April 1944.

[Region V Order G–4 Under RMPR 122]

SOLID FUELS IN WICHITA, KANS.

Order No. G–4 under Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122. Maximum prices for solid fuels sold in the City of Wichita, Kansas, and a part of Sedgwick County, Kansas, lying adjacent to said city of Wichita.

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Regional Administrator of Region V by § 1340.260 of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 and for the reasons stated in the opinion issued herewith, it is ordered:

(a) What this order does. This order establishes maximum prices for sales of specified solid fuels covered by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 in the city of Wichita, Kansas, and the area lying immediately adjacent thereto within the following boundary line:

Beginning at the intersection of 21st Street Road and West Street Road; thence south along West Street Road to the intersection of West Street Road and an unnamed and unnumbered road lying immediately south of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railroad tracks; thence east on said unnamed and unnumbered road to a point where it intersects with Seneca Street Road; thence east across the Midland Valley Railroad tracks and the Big Arkansas River to Pawnee Avenue; thence east on Pawnee Avenue to the intersection of Pawnee Avenue and Hillside Avenue; thence north on said Hillside Avenue to the intersection of Hillside Avenue and Lincoln Street; thence east on Lincoln Street to the intersection of Lincoln and Oliver Street; thence north on Oliver Street to Kellogg; thence east on Kellogg to Glendale Avenue; thence north on Glendale Avenue to 9th Street; thence west on 9th Street to Oliver Street; thence north on Oliver Street to the 13th Street Road; thence west on the 13th Street Road to the corporate limits of the city of Wichita lying immediately east of Gentry Avenue; thence north on Gentry Avenue to 21st Street; thence west on 21st Street to the intersection of Platt Avenue with 21st Street; thence north on the line marking the boundary of the corporate limits of the city of Wichita at that point to 24th Street; thence west to Hydraulic Avenue; thence north on Hydraulic Avenue to the intersection of Hydraulic Avenue with 29th Street; thence west on 29th Street to the intersection of 29th Street and Guthrie Avenue; thence west on Cyrus Avenue to the intersection of Cyrus Avenue and Amidon Avenue; thence south on Amidon Avenue to the intersection of Amidon Avenue and 21st Street Road; thence west on 21st Street Road to the place of beginning at the intersection of 21st Street Road and West Street Road.

The prices set forth in this order are the highest prices that any dealer may charge when he sells or delivers any of such fuels at or to a point within the area set forth above.

(1) Solid fuels not covered by this order. There are a few kinds and sizes of solid fuels covered by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122 sold and delivered in the area covered by this order which are not included in and for which prices are not established in this order. The maximum prices of such solid fuels when sold by any person covered by this order shall continue to be the maximum prices for such fuels established by Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, as amended. Such sales shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, as amended.

(b) What the order prohibits. Regardless of any obligation no person shall:

(1) Sell, or in the course of trade or business buy, solid fuels at prices higher than the maximum prices set by this Order No. G–4; but less than the maximum prices may at any time be charged, paid or offered.

(2) Obtain higher than maximum prices by

(i) Charging for a service unless such service is expressly requested by the buyer and unless specifically authorized to do so by this order;

(ii) Charging a price higher than the schedule price for a service;

(iii) Using any tying agreement or requiring that the buyer purchase anything in addition to the fuel requested by him; or

(iv) Using any other device by which a higher than maximum price is obtained directly or indirectly.

MAXIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE

Description of fuel	Maximum price per ton
III. Low volatile bituminous coal from District 17 (Colorado):
(A) Subdistrict No. 1:
1. Lump (bottom size 3" and smaller)	$12.25
2. Nut (top size 3", bottom size 1½")	11.40
(B) Subdistrict No. 11:
1. Lump (bottom size 3" and smaller)	12.55

(2) The prices set forth in the foregoing schedule are on a per net ton basis (2,000 pounds to the ton). No dealer may add to the schedule prices any additional charge for the extension of credit.

(3) The prices set forth in the foregoing schedule are for raw coal, i. e., coal which has not been treated. On all sales of treated coal, whether oil, paraffin, or calcium chloride treatment and regardless of whether such treatment was applied at the mine or by the dealer, the dealer may charge an amount not to exceed 10¢ per ton in addition to the scheduled price.

(4) A deduction from the prices set forth in the foregoing schedule of not less than 75¢ per ton must be made on sales of one or more tons of any solid fuel covered by this regulation where the buyer purchases the fuel for his own use as a fuel and loads it onto his conveyance at the dealer's yard or siding.

(5) A deduction from the prices set forth in the foregoing schedule of not less than $1.25 per ton must be made on sales of one or more tons of any solid fuel covered by this regulation by one dealer to another dealer, who purchases the coal for resale and loads it onto his conveyance at the seller's yard or siding.

(6) An addition not to exceed 50¢ may be added to the fractional per net ton price set out in the foregoing schedule where the dealer sells and delivers one-half ton.

(7) An addition not to exceed 35¢ may be added to the fractional part net ton price set out in the foregoing schedule where the dealer sells and delivers one-fourth ton.

(d) Service charges. (1) Below and as a part of this paragraph (d) is a schedule that sets forth maximum prices which a dealer may charge for special services rendered in connection with all sales under preceding paragraph (c). These charges may be made only if the buyer requests such services of the dealer and only when the dealer renders the service. The prices for such services shall be separately stated in the dealer's invoice or bill of sale.

(i) A service charge not to exceed $1.00 per ton may be charged for a "carry in" service. A "carry in" service means the service of carrying in solid fuel from the curb or point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space to the buyer's fuel bin window. This service does not include the service of carrying fuel up or down stairs.

(ii) A service charge not to exceed $.50 per ton may be charged for a "wheel in" service. A "wheel in" service means the service of wheeling in solid fuel from the curb or point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space to the buyer's fuel bin window. This service does not include the service of carrying fuel up or down stairs.

(iii) Where a dealer is requested to perform additional "carry in" or "wheel in" services in addition to the services defined in paragraphs (i) and (ii), the maximum price for such additional services shall not exceed the price charged by the dealer for such services during December of 1941.

(e) Ex parte 148 freight rate increase; transportation tax; Kansas State sales tax—(1) The freight rate increase. Since the ex parte 148 freight rate increase has been rescinded by the Interstate Commerce Commission, the dealers' freight rates are the same as those of December, 1941. Therefore, no dealer may increase any schedule price on account of freight rates.

(2) The transportation tax. Only the transportation tax imposed by section 620 of the Revenue Act of 1942 may be collected in addition to the maximum prices set out by this order: Provided, The dealer states it separately from the price of the fuel and lists it separately on any sales slip or receipt given to the buyer. This tax need not be stated separately on sales to the United States or any agency thereof, the State government or any political subdivision thereof. (See § 1340.265 (b) of Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.) No part of this tax may be collected in addition to maximum prices on sales of ¼ ton or lesser quantities.

(3) The Kansas State sales tax. The seller may add to the prices listed in the schedule in paragraph (c) the sales tax required to be collected by the laws of the State of Kansas. This tax shall be separately stated in the dealer's invoice, sales slip or receipt.

(f) Addition of increase in supplier's prices prohibited. (1) The maximum prices set out by this order may not be increased by a dealer to reflect increases in purchase costs or in supplier's maximum prices occurring after the effective date hereof; but increases in his maximum prices set hereby to reflect such increases are within the discretion of the Regional Administrator.

(g) Power to amend or revoke. (1) The Price Administrator or the Regional Administrator of Region V may amend, revoke, or rescind this order, or any provisions thereof, at any time.

(h) Petitions for amendment. (1) Any person seeking an amendment to this order may file a petition for amendment in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 except that the petition shall be filed with the Regional Administrator and acted upon by him.

(i) License. (1) Every dealer subject to this order is governed by the licensing provisions of Supplementary Order No. 72. This provides in brief that a license is required of all persons selling at retail commodities for which maximum prices are established. A license is automatically granted. It is not necessary to apply for the license, but a dealer may later be required to register. The license may be suspended for violation in connection with the sale of any commodity for which maximum prices are established. If a dealer's license is suspended, he may not sell any such commodity during the period of suspension.

(j) Records and reports. (1) Every person making a sale of solid fuel for which a maximum price is set by this order shall keep a record thereof showing the date, the name and address of the buyer, if known, the price charged and the kind and size of fuel sold. The fuel shall be identified in the manner in which the fuel is described in this order. The record shall also state separately each service rendered and the charge made for it.

(k) Posting of maximum prices; sales slips and receipts. (1) Each dealer subject to this order shall post all of the maximum prices set by it for all types of sales. He shall post his prices in his place of business in a manner plainly visible to and understandable by the purchasing public. He shall also keep a copy of this order available for examination by any person inquiring as to his prices for solid fuel.

(2) In the case of all sales covered by this order every dealer who during December, 1941, customarily gave buyers sales slips or receipts shall continue to do so. In any case if a buyer requests a receipt, the seller shall furnish the buyer with a receipt showing the name and address of the seller, the kind, sizes, and quantity of the solid fuel sold to the buyer and the price or prices charged.

(l) Enforcement. (1) Persons violating any provisions of this order are subject to civil and criminal penalties, including suits for treble damages, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

(2) Persons who have any evidence of any violation of this order are urged to communicate with the Wichita, Kansas, District Office of the Office of Price Administration.

(m) Definitions and explanations. (1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Sell" includes sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, lease, transfer, and deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "sale," "selling," "sold," "purchase," "buy," and "purchaser" shall be construed accordingly.

(3) "Dealer" means any person selling solid fuel except producers or distributors making sales at or from a mine, a preparation plant operated as an adjunct of any mine, a coke oven or a briquette plant.

(4) "Direct delivery" means dumping or chuting the fuel from the seller's truck directly into the buyer's bin or storage space; but if this is unfeasible, because of the absence of a regular driveway free from all foreign matter which might damage trucks and tires, then direct delivery means discharging the solid fuel from the seller's truck directly at the street curb or at the point nearest and most accessible to the buyer's bin or storage space.

(5) "Production group" and "production groups" as used in this order, refer to the production groups established by the former Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, and as in effect at midnight, August 23, 1943.

(6) "Price groups" as used in this order refers to the price groups established by the former Bituminous Coal Division pursuant to the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, and as in effect at midnight, August 23, 1943.

(7) "District No." refers to the geographical bituminous coal-producing districts as delineated and numbered by the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, as they have been modified by the Bituminous Coal Division and as in effect at midnight, August 23, 1943.

(8) "Low volatile bituminous coal" means coal produced in the low volatile sections of the producing districts specified in this order.

(9) "High volatile bituminous coal" means coal produced in the high volatile sections of the producing districts specified herein.

(D) "Solid fuel" (or "solid fuels") means all solid fuel except wood and wood products, including all kinds of anthracite and semi-anthracite; bituminous and semi-bituminous and cannel coal; lignite; all coke, including low temperature coke (except by-product foundry and blast furnace coke, and beehive oven furnace coke produced in the State of Pennsylvania); briquettes made from coke or coal; and sea coal used for foundry facings.

(11) "Egg, nut," etc., sizes of bituminous coal refer to the sizes of such coal as defined in the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, as amended, and as prepared at the mine in accordance with the applicable minimum price schedule promulgated by the Bituminous Coal Division of the United States Department of the Interior, and in effect (or established) as of midnight, August 23, 1943.

Where the minimum price schedules do not make specific mention of any size designated in this order, such size designations shall refer to the sizes of bituminous coal sold as such in the area subject to this order during December, 1941.

(12) Except as otherwise specifically provided herein or as the context may otherwise require, the definitions set forth in §§ 1340.255 and 1340.266 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 122, as amended, shall apply to the terms used herein.

(n) Effect of this order on Revised Maximum Price Regulation 122. (1) To the extent applicable, the provisions of this order supersede Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 122.

(2) This Order No. G–4 shall become effective the 1st day of May 1944.

NOTE: The provisions in this order which require approval by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942 have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget.

SMALLER WAR PLANTS CORPORATION.

U. S. MANAGEMENT & ENGINEERING CO.—OPTICAL MANUFACTURERS GROUP

RECOMMENDATION OF FORMATION OF WAR PRODUCTION ASSOCIATION

U. S. Management & Engineering Co.—Optical Manufacturers Group is a War Production Association comprising five companies, having facilities for the manufacture of precision optics, as shown on the attached membership list.

The purpose of this association is to combine the facilities and skills of the member companies for the manufacture of precision optics, principally fire control apparatus, and to make available to the members a facility for special coating and cementing which none of the members individually can afford to install.

The activities of the Association will relate solely to war and essential civilian work and will terminate within six months after the end of the war.

In my opinion, the formation and the operation of the U. S. Management & Engineering Co.—Optical Manufacturers Group is appropriate to the fulfillment of the purposes of Public Law 603, 77th Congress, approved June 11, 1942 (56 Stat. 351) and Executive Order No. 6891 of September 4, 1941. I have therefore approved the Plan of Organization, Procedure, and Objectives [1] of the U. S. Management & Engineering Co.—Optical Manufacturers Group, and recommend that the Chairman of the War Production Board find and certify under Section 12 of Public Law 603, 77th Congress (56 Stat. 357), that the doing of any act or thing, or the omission to do any act or thing, by any person in compliance with said Plan is requisite to the prosecution of the war (See Certificate 202, infra).

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 20th day of April 1944.

MAURY MAVERICK,
Chairman and General Manager, Smaller War Plants Corporation.

Chapter XI—War Food Administration (Distribution Orders)

[Suspension Order Docket No. FDA-NE-125]

PART 1590—SUSPENSION ORDERS

JAMES VAN DYK TEA & COFFEE CO.

An order having been issued in the above-entitled matter on November 4, 1943 (8 F.R. 15309), which, among other things, provided that Max Aiken, an individual trading and doing business as James Van Dyk Tea & Coffee Co., his agents, successors, or assigns, shall not, in any manner, either directly or indirectly, either pack tea, or deliver tea, except as a beverage, and shall not accept tea to be delivered in any form other than as a beverage; and

The effective date of said order having been stayed by the Deputy Director pending further consideration of this matter; and

It having been determined that said order should be modified to assure the efficient distribution of tea to meet war and essential civilian needs; and

The respondent having consented to the issuance of the following order, and to the order heretofore issued on November 4, 1943, as amended herein, It is therefore ordered, That:

Section 1590.9 (e) of the suspension order heretofore issued in the above-entitled matter be, and the same hereby is, amended to read as follows:

§ 1590.9 Suspension order against Max Aiken, an individual doing business as James Van Dyk Tea & Coffee Co. • • •

(e) This order shall become effective 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., May 1, 1944, and, unless sooner terminated, shall expire 11:59 p. m., e. w. t., June 30, 1944.

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter VI—National War Labor Board

[G. O. 35]

PART 803—GENERAL ORDERS

ADJUSTMENT IN RATES OF PAY OF FEDERAL SECURITY AGENCY EMPLOYEES; PROCEDURE

§ 803.35 General Order No. 35. (a) The National War Labor Board hereby delegates to the Federal Security Agency, to be exercised on its behalf by the Administrator of the Federal Security Agency, the authority to approve adjustments in the wages or salaries of the employees of the Federal Security Agency, not fixed by statute, which would otherwise require the prior approval of the National War Labor Board, all in accordance with the further provisions of this order.

(b) In the exercise of the authority delegated hereunder, the Administrator of the Federal Security Agency shall comply with the terms of Executive Order 9250, dated October 3, 1942, Executive Order 9328, dated April 8, 1943, the Supplement thereto issued by the Director of Economic Stabilization on May 12, 1943, and all pertinent principles and policies of the National War Labor Board or of the Director of Economic Stabilization heretofore or hereafter announced.

(c) The Administrator of the Federal Security Agency, without making a ruling thereon, may refer to the National War Labor Board for decision any case which in his opinion presents doubtful or disputed questions of sufficient seriousness or import to warrant action by the National War Labor Board.

(d) A certificate by the Administrator of the Federal Security Agency attesting to the approval of the adjustment, stating the nature and amount of the adjustment, and briefly setting forth the facts indicating that the adjustment meets the requirements of the wage stabilization program, as set forth above, will be accepted by the National War Labor Board as sufficient evidence of the propriety of the adjustment. All rulings of the Administrator hereunder shall be subject to review by the National War Labor Board on its own initiative, but the reversal or modification of any such ruling shall not be retroactive.

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–532]

DR. ABRAHAM SILVER

On or about November 2, 1943, Dr. Abraham Silver, Columbia, South Carolina, began construction, consisting of alteration and remodeling of a dwelling located at 1421 Hampton Avenue, Columbia, South Carolina, at an estimated cost in excess of $3,000, without obtaining authorization from the War Production Board. Such construction was limited to an estimated cost not in excess of $200 by Conservation Order L–41, in the absence of authorization. Dr. Silver was aware of the existence of War Production Board regulations prior to begining construction, and his conduct was so grossly negligent that it must be deemed a wilful violation of Order L–41. This violation of the order has diverted scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.532 Suspension Order No. S–532. (a) Neither Dr. Abraham Silver, his successors or assigns, nor any other person, shall do any construction on the premises at 1421 Hampton Avenue, Columbia, South Carolina, including putting up or altering the structure, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Dr. Abraham Silver, his successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on April 29, 1944.

Issued this 22d day of April 1944.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–533]

HEYWARD S. SINGLEY

Heyward S. Singley, Columbia, South Carolina, is an architect who was employed to prepare plans and specifications, and to act as the owner's representative in connection with the alteration or remodeling of a building located at 1421 Hampton Avenue, Columbia, South Carolina. Mr. Singley knew of the War Production Board restrictions on construction but nevertheless, on behalf of the owner, he began construction on or about November 2, 1943, at an estimated cost in excess of $3,000, without authorization from the War Production Board; $200 was the maximum amount permitted in the absence of such authorization. This construction was in violation of Conservation Order L–41, and Mr. Singley's conduct was so grossly negligent that it must be deemed wilful. This violation of Order L–41 has diverted scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and has hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.533 Suspension Order No. S–533. (a) Neither Heyward S. Singley, his successors or assigns, nor any other person, shall do any construction on the premises at 1421 Hampton Avenue, Columbia, South Carolina, including putting up or altering the structure, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Heyward S. Singley, his successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on April 29, 1944.

PART 1038—GRAPHITE

[Conservation Order M–61, As Amended May 2, 1944]

Section 1038.1 Conservation Order M–61 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1038.1 Conservation Order M–61—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Strategic graphite" means only two types of graphite, namely, (i) Madagascar flake graphite of over 80 per cent graphitic carbon content and having flakes of such size that at least 80 per cent will stand on a Number 50 mesh screen, U. S. Sieve Series; and (ii) Ceylon amorphous graphite, either in lump or ground form, having more than 95 per cent graphitic carbon content.

(2) "Put into process" means the first change made by a person in the form of the material from that form in which it is received by him.

(b) Restrictions on processing and delivery of strategic graphite. No person shall put into process, deliver or accept delivery of any strategic graphite except to the extent specifically authorized by the War Production Board. These restrictions apply to all stocks of strategic graphite on hand as well as new supply received after (the effective date of this amendment).

(c) Exceptions to the processing and delivery restrictions contained in paragraph (b). No authorization of the War Production Board is required for:

(1) Delivery or acceptance of delivery of strategic graphite by Metals Reserve Company or any other corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, or any duly authorized agent of such corporation.

(2) Any person to deliver, accept delivery of, or put into process strategic Madagascar flake graphite if the graphite is to be physically incorporated into any item produced for delivery under a contract or subcontract for the United States Army, Navy, Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration and if the graphite is required by the specifications of the prime contract.

(3) Any person to deliver during any calendar month 200 pounds or less of strategic Madagascar flake graphite per person.

(4) Any person to accept delivery of and put into process during any calendar month, not more than 200 pounds of strategic Madagascar flake graphite from all sources.

(d) How to obtain authorization for processing or delivery. Each person who requires specific authorization from the War Production Board to put strategic graphite into process or to accept delivery of strategic graphite from any one (other than Metals Reserve Company, or any corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, or any duly authorized agent of such corporation) shall file with War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Form WPB–623, revised, in quadruplicate, by the 20th of the month before the month in which the graphite is to be put into process or received. The War Production Board will return one copy of Form WPB–623, revised, to the applicant on which will be indicated the quantity of strategic graphite authorized for delivery and processing. Specific authorization to put strategic graphite into process shall only be valid for the calendar month for which it is issued. If the application requests permission to accept delivery, War Production Board will send a copy to the applicant's supplier, which will constitute the supplier's authorization to make the delivery.

Each person requiring authorization to accept delivery of strategic graphite from Metals Reserve Company, or any corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, or any duly authorized agent of such corporation, shall apply by letter in duplicate to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., stating the quantity and description of the material requested and the purpose for which it is intended to be put into process. The War Production Board will issue instructions by letter to Metals Reserve Company, setting forth the quantity and description of material to be delivered and the purpose for which it may be processed. A copy of this letter will be forwarded to the applicant which will constitute the applicant's authorization to accept delivery and process.

(e) Reports. All persons having in their possession any of the types of graphite listed on Form WPB–624, revised, shall file Form WPB–624 revised with War Production Board on or before the 20th of each month following the month for which the report is made, showing inventory, receipts, consumption, and sales of such graphite.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(h) Bureau of the Budget approval. The reporting provisions of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(i) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Mica-Graphite Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-61.

Issued this 2d day of May 1944.

PART 3175—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE CONTROLLED MATERIALS PLAN

[CMP Reg. 9A, Interpretation 1 to Direction 2]

EFFECT OF OTHER ORDERS AND REGULATIONS

The following direction is issued pursuant to CMP Regulation 9A:

Direction 2 to CMP Regulation 9A permits the use of material bought under the regulation to install various types of equipment, but only where other orders of the War Production Board do not forbid the use of a particular type of material for the purpose. In addition, this direction does not affect any limitation or prohibition upon the purchase of material or equipment imposed by any order of the War Production Board. For instance, this direction does not permit a repairman or plumber to install copper or copper base alloy pipe, tubing or fittings or building material, except for those exceptional uses allowed by Order M-9-c-4. Furthermore, a jobber who supplies repairmen with material is not relieved from the prohibition in Order M-9-c-4 which prevents his selling, delivering, or otherwise disposing of those copper products if it is to be used for a purpose prohibited by Order M-9-c-4, regardless of the fact that the purchase order may carry a CMP allotment symbol and certification or a preference rating.

Issued this 2d day of May 1944.

PART 3208—SCHEDULED PRODUCTS

[Table 12 to General Scheduling Order M-293, Direction 1, as Amended May 2, 1944]

AUTHORIZATION TO ACCEPT DELIVERY OF ANTI-FRICTION BEARINGS

Direction 1 to Table 12 to Order M-293 is amended to read as follows:

(1) This direction as originally issued February 8, 1944 directed substantial users of bearings to submit their anti-friction bearings requirements for the period April 1–September 30, 1944 on Form WPB-3333. The War Production Board has decided to extend this procedure by further reviewing substantial users' requirements for the period August 1, 1944–January 31, 1945.

(2) Accordingly, during the period August 1, 1944–January 31, 1945, no person shall accept during any one month any anti-friction bearings from a manufacturer or distributor in excess of the following amounts without specific authorization to do so on Form WPB-3333:

(i) 1500 bearings of any one size where they are being purchased for incorporation by such person in his end products or for reshipment with his end products as concurrent spare bearings.

(ii) 500 bearings of any one size where they are being purchased for reshipment to the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration subsequent to delivery of the end product. For instance, this will include bearings bought by such person for the purpose of filling contracts for "second year replenishment" bearings and for similar supplemental spare bearing requirements ordered from him by the procuring service.

If a person has more than one plant, the amounts specified in (i) and (ii) above shall apply to deliveries to each plant.

(3) Form WPB-3333 must be filed with the War Production Board by June 1, 1944. Authorizations to be made on this filing will supersede previous authorizations made for August and September on previous filings. Any person who subsequent to June 1, 1944 finds that he will require bearing deliveries in any one month during the period August 1, 1944–January 31, 1945 in excess of the amounts specified in paragraph (2) of this direction must immediately file Form WPB-3333 submitting such requirements. In submitting Form WPB-3333 in compliance with this direction persons shall state their delivery requirements (for those sizes required to be reported under paragraph (2) of this direction) for the months of August 1944 through January 1945, inclusive. In submitting end product production schedules in section III of Form WPB-3333, applicant shall give such schedules for the months of August 1944 through April 1945, inclusive.

(4) All persons who during May, June, and July 1944 required bearings in excess of the minimum amount specified in paragraph (2) of this direction were instructed to submit these requirements by March 1, 1944, by the provisions of this direction as originally issued February 8, 1944. However, if any person finds that he will require bearing deliveries in May, June, or July 1944 in excess of the minimum amount specified in paragraph (2) of this direction and he has not previously filed Form WPB-3333 covering such requirements, he must do so as soon as possible.

(5) Authorization by the War Production Board to accept delivery of bearings does not constitute an allocation to the applicant against the bearing manufacturer but simply establishes the maximum amounts which the applicant may accept of those sizes of bearings required to be reported under paragraph (2) above. Applicants must adjust their shipping releases on bearing manufacturers to conform with the authorized amounts.

Issued this 2d day of May 1944.

PART 3290—TEXTILE, CLOTHING AND LEATHER

[General Limitation Order L-274, as Amended May 2, 1944]

MEN'S, WOMEN'S, CHILDREN'S AND INFANTS' HOSIERY

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of silk, nylon, rayon, cotton, wool and other materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3290.135 General Limitation Order L-274—(a) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of the War Production Board as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order, unless otherwise expressly defined all trade terms shall have their usual and customary meanings.

(c) Restrictions on the manufacture of certain types of hosiery. (1) Except as permitted in paragraph (c) (2), no person shall put into production:

(i) Any women's hosiery not conforming with Schedules A, B, D, or E; or

(ii) Any men's hosiery not conforming with Schedules C or E; or

(iii) Any infants', children's, boys' or misses' hosiery which does not conform with Schedules D or E and with the overall leg length measurements referred to in the appropriate tables contained in the Bureau of Standards' Commercial Standard CS46-40, entitled, "Hosiery Lengths and Sizes" (third edition, effective August 15, 1940), as follows:

Table 2—Standard lengths of boys' golf hosiery

Table 4—Standard lengths of children's and misses' ribbed hosiery

Table 5—Standard lengths of children's ⅝ hosiery, flat knit

Table 6—Standard lengths of children's ⅞ hosiery

Table 8—Standard lengths of infants' ribbed hosiery; (however, infants' ribbed long hosiery may not be made in sizes above 5½)

Table 9—Standard lengths of infants' and children's half socks; (however, infants' and children's half socks may not be made in sizes above 7½)

(2) The restrictions of paragraph (c) (1), and the schedules therein referred to, do not apply to the manufacture of any hosiery for or for the account of the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration.

(d) Appeal. Any appeal from the provisions of this order shall be made by filing a letter in triplicate referring to the particular provision appealed from and stating fully the grounds of the appeal.

(e) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Textile, Clothing & Leather Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: L-274.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

SCHEDULE A—WOMEN'S FULL-FASHIONED HOSIERY MADE OF RAYON OR COTTON

(a) This schedule applies to all types, except cut and sewed, of women's full-fashioned hosiery made of rayon or of cotton, but does not apply to constructions made of yarns which are combinations of any two or more of cotton, wool or rayon (either continuous filament or spun).

(b) No person shall produce any women's full-fashioned rayon hosiery unless it meets the minimum specifications shown on Table I, or any women's full-fashioned cotton hosiery unless it meets the minimum specifications shown on Table I (a), except that

(1) The minimum total course provisions of Tables I and I (a) do not apply to mesh, lace or non-run constructions, and

(2) Stockings made of acetate rayon may have 75 less total courses than the minimum established in Table I, and

(3) In single-unit or Rack-back construction the total minimum number of courses may be 40 less than established for conventional constructions.

TABLE I.—WOMEN'S FULL-FASHIONED RAYON HOSIERY

51 and higher	140/2	140/2	120/2	120/2	80/2	80/2	1350

(c) The standard leg length of women's full-fashioned stockings shall be as follows:

	Inches	Minus tolerance Inches
Viscose or cuprammonium ray on stockings	29	1½
Acetate rayon stockings	30½	1½
Cotton stockings	30	1
With reasonable plus tolerances

Any person who manufactured proportioned length hosiery outside the tolerances permitted by this paragraph (c) in 1942 may apply to the War Production Board for permission to continue such manufacture. Such application shall be in writing, and shall set forth all pertinent facts. The War Production Board may take such action on such application as it may deem proper.

(d) (1) In standard or conventional welt constructions, the minimum length of the double welt shall be 3½ inches.

(2) An afterwelt is required in rayon stockings except where the main or leg yarn is 100 denier or coarser.

(3) Double welts of less than 3½ inches, and special welt constructions including single thickness welts, are permissible, providing the welt yarn is heavier than the main end used in knitting the leg and providing the single thickness portion of welt or afterwelt is no finer than—

150 denier filament rayon or its equivalent in other fibers for 48 gauge or coarser, 100 denier filament rayon or its equivalent in other fibers for 51 gauge or finer.

In such special welt constructions, a proportionately lower number of courses than specified in Table I are permissible.

(4) When a standard or conventional double welt in rayon or in cotton full-fashioned hosiery is knit of a higher denier than that specified as the minimum in the table, it is permissible to reduce the minimum total courses at a rate of one course less per each denier used, over the specified minimum. That is to say, if 125 denier is used in the welt instead of the specified minimum of 100 denier, the minimum number of courses may be reduced by 25 courses in the welt but not in knitting the leg portion. In applying this provision to cotton welts, the denier equivalent of the cotton count shall be employed.

(5) In rayon hosiery, the total over-all length of welt plus the after-welt shall not be less than 5 inches, except as provided in paragraph (d) (2) of this schedule.

(e) All rayon stockings of 75 denier or finer made with either a cotton or rayon welt shall be made with an overlap of at least two (2) courses immediately following the afterwelt, in which the yarn of the afterwelt is to be knit together with the main end used in knitting the leg for a minimum of two (2) courses.

(f) The minimum number of needles used in knitting hosiery shall be the full 14 inch bar less two needles at each end of the bar on all gauges except in the case of drop needle or needle out constructions of cotton, wool or spun rayon, or combinations thereof.

(g) The minimum number of courses are to be counted in conventional or legger-footer construction, from the first course in the welt to the loose course in the heel; in single unit or rack-back constructions, from the first course in the welt to the course in the heel on which the widest course in the rackback falls.

(h) The heel splicing shall measure 4½ inches from the bottom of the heel with a ½ inch tolerance, plus or minus.

(i) All seams shall be made with a minimum of 16 stitches to the inch and be made of a good quality two or three ply seaming yarn.

(j) Based on a 14-inch head, the maximum number of total flare and calf narrowings in the leg of full-fashioned plain knit hosiery shall be:

	Back-Back Round Heel	Legger-Footer
39 gauge	44	40 narrowings
42 gauge	46	42
45 gauge	48	44
48 gauge	54	46
51 gauge	58	50
54 gauge and up	optional	optional

(k) The reinforcing yarn in the toe must start within 10 courses from the first toe narrowing.

(l) Where two-ply cotton yarns are specified the equivalent count in single yarns may be used. Where definite counts of cotton (but not rayon) yarn are specified in the table, no finer counts of cotton yarn may be used, but combination yarns of cotton and rayon, or cotton, rayon and wool mixed yarns, and coarser counts of cotton yarns, or spun rayon yarn of total equivalent denier or heavier may be used. No spun rayon yarn may be used as a toe splicing or toe reinforcing yarn.

(m) Plied ends of single rayon yarn may be used if they make the equivalent denier of yarns shown in the table. Sixty-five denier cuprammonium rayon yarn shall be deemed equivalent to 75 denier viscose yarn and may be used as an alternate wherever 75 denier is specified in the table. The use of acetate rayon yarn is not permissible in deniers finer than 75.

(n) No lace bands, fancy designs or numerals are to be knit in welts, or in after welts of plain knit stockings. No picot stitches are to be placed more closely than ¾ inch apart except for the top ⅛ inch of the welt.

(o) For any spring-summer or fall-winter line, no manufacturer shall put in dye or knit ingrain more than 7 basic body colors, and no more than 5 of these 7 shall be in any one style. In addition to the foregoing, white is also permitted.

[1] Heels and toes made entirely of rayon are not permitted. However, rayon and cotton heels and toes, plaited, twisted or random knit are permitted if the total counts used are at least equivalent to the cotton counts now allowed for heels and toes. No finer cotton counts are permitted under this footnote than 80/1 on machines up to and including 300 needle, 100/1 for 320 and 340 needle and 120/1 for 360 needle and up.

[2] Rayon yarn qualifying as yarn of 50 denier and having an over-all tenacity of 2.3 grams per denier or higher irrespective of elongation.

(b) Where definite counts of cotton (but not rayon) yarn are specified in the table, no finer counts of cotton yarn may be used, but combination yarns of cotton and rayon, or cotton, rayon and wool mixed yarns, and coarser counts of cotton yarns, or spun rayon yarn of total equivalent denier or heavier may be used. No spun rayon yarn may be used as a splicing or reenforcing yarn in heel or toe.

(c) Where two-ply cotton yarns are specified in the table the equivalent counts in single yarns may be used.

(d) The leg length of women's seamless rayon hosiery shall be 30 inches with a 1½ inch minus tolerance and a reasonable plus tolerance. All welts to finish a minimum of 4 inches.

(e) The specified minimum total courses are to be counted from the first course in the welt to the end of the high splicing where the reciprocating motion is started for the heel.

(f) When the welt of a woman's seamless stocking is knit of higher denier than that specified as the minimum in the table, it is permissible to reduce the minimum total courses at a rate of one course less per each denier used over the specified minimum. This total reduction in courses shall be adjusted to the nearest number divisible by 12. That is to say, if 125 denier is used in the welt instead of the specified minimum of 100 denier the minimum number of courses may be reduced by 24 courses in the welt, but not in knitting the leg portion. In applying this provision to cotton welts the denier equivalent of the cotton counts shall be employed.

(g) Mesh or tuck stitch constructions in women's circular knit hosiery are restricted to the following constructions:

(1) On single-end tuck stitch knitting, no finer than one end of 100 denier rayon yarn or its equivalent in other fibres may be used in the leg, on any machine regardless of number of needles.

(2) On double-end mesh knitting no finer than 75 denier rayon yarn or its equivalent in other fibres may be used in the leg, on any machine regardless of number of needles.

(3) Minimum number of turns per inch in the rayon yarn in mesh or tuck stitch constructions are to be the same as shown in Table II for plain knit constructions for similar deniers.

(h) All sole splicing yarns are prohibited in women's circular knit all-over cotton hosiery and in women's circular knit rayon hosiery when the main end is 100 denier rayon yarn or heavier.

(i) For any spring-summer or fall-winter line, no manufacturer of women's seamless hosiery shall put in dye or knit ingrain more than 7 basic body colors, and no more than 5 of these 7 colors in any one style. In addition to the foregoing colors, white is also permitted.

SCHEDULE C—MEN'S HOSIERY

(a) The following limitations apply to men's hosiery but do not apply to the manufacture of men's work socks or bundle socks made of wool, part wool, or cotton.

(b) No manufacturer may produce men's hosiery with an over-all leg length other than those specified in paragraph (h) of this schedule or in accordance with Schedule E.

(c) No manufacturer may produce in any mill men's hosiery in fancy patterns which were not in actual production in such mill during the sixty-day (60) period immediately prior to April 2, 1943. Any machines that have been idle for this entire period may be set-up on patterns of the mill's choosing, but when so set-up, they are subject to the limitations of this clause.

(d) (1) For any spring-summer or fall-winter line no one mill shall put in dye or knit ingrain more than 7 basic body colors and no more than 5 of such 7 basic colors in any one style, to which may be added white and three War Service colors.

(2) No limitations are placed upon the use of various colors in yarns used purely for decorative purposes in men's fancy hosiery.

(e) No men's cotton hosiery is to be manufactured with any splicing or reinforcing yarn in the sole.

(f) True-ribbed tops, those knitted separately and transferred, or those knitted automatically on H-H or Komet machines, shall not be doubled, turned or hemmed. None of the limitations of this paragraph shall apply to men's hosiery made on R. I. machines.

(g) No men's hosiery is to be manufactured with any mock-seams.

(h) The over-all leg length of men's half hose shall be as follows: 13½-inch minimum; 15½-inch maximum.

The over-all leg length of men's short socks or slacks shall be 10 inches maximum, including a top portion of not more than 2 inches.

SCHEDULE D—INFANTS', CHILDREN'S, BOYS' AND MISSES' HOSIERY AND WOMEN'S ANKLETS

(a) No manufacturer shall put in production any fancy or novelty patterns or designs, not actually in production in the period between October 1st, 1942, and April 2, 1943.

TABLE 10—STANDARD LENGTHS OF ANKLETS

[Folded and single cuffs]

Size	Number of needles	Size of cylinder (diameter)	Standard length	Tolerance
		Inches	Inches
5–5½	120–160	2¾–2¾	4	+¼
6–6½	120–180	2¾–3	4½	+¼
7–7½	130–200	2¾–3⅛	5	+¼
8–8½	140–220	2¾–3⅛	5½	+¼
9–9½	150–240	2⅞–3⅛	6	+¼
10–10½	160–240	3–3⅛	6	+¼
11–11½	120–180	3¼–3¾	6	+¼

(2) No top or cuff may be turned down or folded more than once. Anklet tops or cuffs made of true rib fabric or made on H. H. Komet, or Links & Links machines may be made of only a single thickness of fabric before turning or folding. Anklet tops or cuffs made on any other type of machine may be made of not more than a double thickness of fabric before turning or folding.

(3) No top or cuff either straight-up or folded is to measure when finished more than two (2) inches in length.

(c) [Deleted May 2, 1944]

(d) No women's anklets or misses', children's or infants' hosiery shall be manufactured with any splicing or reinforcing yarn in the sole of the foot.

(e) In each twelve months period following May 15, 1943, no manufacturer of women's anklets or misses', children's, or infants' hosiery shall knit ingrain or put in dye more than 8 basic body colors in staple constructions, and, in novelty constructions no more than 7 of such basic colors in any one style. In addition to the foregoing colors white is also permitted. No restriction is placed upon the use of any colored yarns in the manufacture of decorative stripes, designs and figures in any part of women's anklets, or misses', children's or infants' hosiery.

SCHEDULE E—CREW SOCKS

(a) For the purpose of this schedule crew socks are defined as a distinctive type of hosiery for men, women and children made with an ankle or top section knit on any ribbing machine coarser than 1 x 1 rib and with a plain knit foot.

(b) No manufacturer shall produce any men's, women's, or children's crew socks after July 15, 1943, except in accordance with the following specifications:

(1) The use of any continuous filament rayon is not permitted.

(2) The ribbed top shall end no farther than 3 inches from the bottom of the heel.

(3) To be knit, finished, packed and shipped with straight-up tops; not with cuffed or turned down tops.

(4) No restrictions are placed on the number of needles, diameter of cylinders or counts of yarn that may be used.

(5) The range of foot sizes may include all or any of sizes 4–13.

(6) The finished leg length shall not exceed the following measurements:

NOTE: Table amended May 2, 1944.

Foot sizes	Maximum permissible lengths (inches)	Tolerance (inch)
4–5½	5	±½
6–7	6	±½
7½–8½	7	±½
9–10½	8	±½
11–13	9	±½

(7) For any spring-summer or fall-winter line, no manufacturer of crew socks shall knit ingrain or put in dye more than 7 basic body colors, and in staples, no more than 6 of such basic colors shall be in any one style, and in noveltie no more than 4 of such basic colors shall be in any one style. No restrictions are placed upon the use of any colored yarns in the manufacture of decorative stripes in crew socks.

PART 3293—CHEMICALS

[Allocation Order M-340 as Amended May 2, 1944]

MISCELLANEOUS CHEMICALS

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of the chemicals subject to this order for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3293.491 Allocation Order M-340—(a) Definitions. (1) "Subject chemical" means any chemical listed in Appendix A, as therein defined.

(2) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of any subject chemical and includes a person who imports any subject chemical or has it produced for him pursuant to toll agreement.

(3) "Distributor" means any person who buys any subject chemical for the purpose of resale without further processing and without changing the form thereof.

(4) "Supplier" means a producer or distributor.

(b) Restrictions on deliveries. (1) On and after the applicable effective date stated in Appendix A, no supplier shall deliver a subject chemical to any person except as specifically authorized or directed in writing by War Production Board. No person shall accept delivery of a subject chemical which he knows or has reason to believe is delivered in violation of this order.

(2) Authorization or directions as to deliveries to be made by suppliers in each calendar month will generally be issued by War Production Board prior to the beginning of such month, but may be issued at any time. They will normally be issued on Form WPB-2947 (formerly PD-602) which is to be filed by the supplier with War Production Board as explained in paragraph (g) below.

(3) If a supplier is authorized or directed by War Production Board to deliver a subject chemical to any specific customer or group of customers, but is unable to make the delivery either because of receipt of notice of cancellation or otherwise, the subject chemical shall revert to inventory, and shall not be delivered, or used, without further instructions.

(c) Exceptions for small deliveries. (1) Specific authorization in writing of War Production Board is not required for delivery by any supplier to any person in any calendar month of a subject chemical in a quantity not exceeding the quantity stated in Column 3 of Appendix B.

(2) The aggregate quantity of a subject chemical which any supplier may deliver in any calendar month pursuant to paragraph (c) (1), shall not exceed:

(i) The quantity which he has been specifically authorized, upon application pursuant to Appendix D, to deliver on small orders; or

(ii) If he is a distributor, the quantity which he acquired upon certification that it was required to fill small orders or the quantity which he acquired himself on such a small order, or

(iii) If he is a distributor who customarily delivers exclusively on small orders, any quantity.

(d) Exceptions for deliveries for other reasons. Specific authorization in writing of War Production Board is not required for delivery of a subject chemical by any supplier to any other person for a purpose stated in Column 4 of Appendix B.

(e) Restrictions on use. (1) On and after the applicable effective date stated in Appendix A, no supplier shall use a subject chemical except as specifically authorized or directed in writing by War Production Board.

(2) Each person who with an order for a subject chemical furnishes a certificate required by paragraph (f) shall use the subject chemical delivered on such order only as specified on such certificate except as otherwise specifically authorized or directed in writing by War Production Board.

(3) War Production Board may from time to time issue directions with respect to the use or uses which may or may not be made of a subject chemical to be delivered to, or then in inventory of the prospective user.

(f) Supplier to obtain from customer a certificate of use. No supplier shall in any calendar month (beginning in the case of each subject chemical with the calendar month in which the order becomes effective as to that chemical as stated in Appendix A) deliver to any person a greater quantity of such subject chemical than is stated in Column 3 of Appendix B, unless he shall have received from such person a certificate as to the use for which such person is ordering such subject chemical. Such certificate shall be substantially in the form and shall be subject to the instructions stated in Appendix C and shall be in the hands of the supplier not later than the 15th day of the month in which delivery is to be made. It need not be filed with War Production Board. A supplier must not deliver a subject chemical where he knows or has reason to believe the purchaser's certificate is false, but in the absence of such knowledge or reason to believe, he may rely on the certificate.

(g) Applications by suppliers for leave to deliver or use. (1) Each supplier requiring authorization to make delivery of, or to use, a subject chemical during any calendar month shall file application on or before the 20th day of the preceding month. The application should be made on Form WPB-2947 (formerly PD-602) in the manner set forth in the general instructions appearing on that form, subject to the special instructions contained in Appendix D. If there is an inconsistency between the general and special instructions, the special instructions must be followed.

(2) War Production Board may issue to any supplier other and further directions with respect to preparing and filing Form WPB–2947 (formerly PD–602).

(h) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable regulations of War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(2) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(3) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington 25, D. C. Ref: M–340.

Issued this 2d day of May 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

APPENDIX A

Chemicals subject to this order. (1) "Acetaldol" means the chemical known by that name and by the names aldol, beta hydroxy butyric aldehyde oxybutanol, 3-hydroxy butanal.

Effective date—August 1, 1943. Comes in the following grades: no grades.

(2) "ST–115" means the preparation known by that trade name, as defined and specified in Appendix to Regulation No. 3 (1942 Revision) of the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Effective date—August 1, 1943. Comes in the following grades; no grades.

(3) "Dehydrol-O" means the chemical known by that trade name as defined and specified in Appendix to Regulation No. 3 (1942 Revision) of the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Effective date—August 1, 1943. Comes in the following grades: no grades.

(4) "G. C.–78" means the chemical known by that trade name.

Effective date—August 1, 1943. Comes in the following grades: no grades.

(5) "By-product—phosphoric acid" means phosphoric acid obtained as a by-product in the manufacture of methyl methacrylate.

Effective date—September 1, 1943. Comes in the following grades: no grades.

(6) "Oxidized petrolatum" means high paraffinic petrolatum oxidized and processed to contain aliphatic ketones, and which is suitable for use as a base in the manufacture of rust preventive compounds or corrosion inhibitors meeting specification Nos. AXS–673, 52–C–18 and AN–C–52, such as those petrolatums known by the trade marks Par-Al-Ketone, Alox 707, Alox 701 and Alox 600.

Effective date—October 9, 1943. Comes in the following grades: no grades.

(7) "Vinsol" resin and "Truline" binder means the resins known by those registered trade marks or any similar resin obtained from the oleo-resin of pine wood and having the following properties:

Maximum solubility in petroleum naphtha 20%; complete solubility in lower alcohols; toluene insoluble 10 to 30 per cent; methoxy content 4 to 6 per cent; acid number 90 to 110; softening point (ASTM ball and ring method) 103° to 118° Centigrade.

Effective date—October 9, 1943. Comes in the following grades: no grades.

(8) [Deleted Mar. 27, 1944]

(9) [Deleted Mar. 27, 1944]

(10) [Deleted Oct. 22, 1943.]

(11) "DDT" means the chemical 2, 2-bis (para chlorophenyl) 1, 1, 1-tri-chloroethane, and is also known by the trade name "Neocid".

Effective date—January 1, 1944. Comes in the following grades: no grades.

(12) "Enamel wire naphtha" (also known as E. W. naphtha) means a mixture of aromatic solvents derived from coke oven light oil, drip oil or coal tar, distilling between 150 and 290° C., with at least 15 per cent distilling above 200° C., and containing 20 to 60 per cent monomeric polymerizable constituents of the cumorone-indene type. The term does not include aromatic material for the production of E. W. naphtha, or for the production of cumorone-indene resin, or for the production of other chemicals or intermediates, or for use as solventa in the crude state.

Effective date—February 1, 1944. Comes in the following grades: no grades.

(13) "Methyl Bromide" means the chemical CH.Br.

Effective date—March 1, 1944. Comes in the following grades: no grades.

(14) "Precipitated calcium carbonate" means ultra fine particle calcium carbonate such as the chemical known as Kalvan, Witcarb R and Multifex.

Effective date—April 1, 1944. Comes in the following grades: no grades.

(15) "Pyronate" means the pyroligneous alcohol known by that trade name which is produced as a by-product of the destructive distillation of hardwood.

Effective date—May 1, 1944. Comes in the following grades: No grades.

Effective date—May 1, 1944. Comes in the following grades: No grades.

APPENDIX C—CUSTOMER'S CERTIFICATE OF INTENDED USE

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies to War Production Board and to his supplier, pursuant to Order No. M–340, that the _____ (specify subject chemical) ordered for delivery in _____, 194__ will be used by him for the manufacture or preparation of the following product(s), and that such product(s) will be put to the following end use(s):

	Quantity	Primary product	End use
(B)

Name of purchaser

_____ By _____ _____
Date Duly authorized official Title

Instructions for customer's certificate. (1) The certificate shall be signed by an authorized official of the purchaser, either manually or as provided in Priorities Regulation No. 7.

(2) Where a purchaser wishes to receive more than the exempted quantity of each of two or more subject chemicals, a separate certificate shall be obtained as to each.

(3) The purchaser will specify under "Primary product", the exact product or products in the manufacture or preparation of which the subject chemical will be used or incorporated A distributor ordering the subject chemical for resale as such will specify "resale" or, if ordering exclusively for resale on exempt small orders, will specify "small orders of _____ or less" (specify quantity stated in Column 3 of Appendix B). If purchase is for inventory state "inventory."

(4) Under "End use", purchaser will specify the ultimate or end use to which the primary product will be put. He will also indicate whether civilian, Lend-Lease, other export or military, and if the product is for uses falling in two or more such categories, the percentage falling in each. Also, he will give contract numbers in the case of military use or Lend-Lease, and in the case of export, export license numbers. A distributor ordering the subject chemical for resale as such will leave blank the "End Use" column.

APPENDIX D—SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR SUPPLIER'S FORM WPB–2947 (FORMERLY PD–602)

(1) Obtaining forms. Copies of Form WPB–2947 (formerly Form PD–602) may be obtained at local field offices of the War Production Board.

(2) Number of copies. Prepare an original and three copies. File original and two copies with War Production Board, Chemicals Division, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: M–340, retaining the third copy for your files. The original filed with the War Production Board shall be manually signed by a duly authorized official.

(3) Separate set for each chemical. Where the supplier's application relates to deliveries of two or more subject chemicals, he will file a separate set of Form WPB–2947 (formerly Form PD–602) for each.

(4) Information at top of form. In the heading, under "Name of Material", specify the subject chemical to which the Form WPB–2947 (formerly Form PD–602) relates; under "Grade", specify grade stated in Appendix A, or if no grade specified, leave blank; under "WPB Order No.", specify "M–340"; indicate month and year during which deliveries covered by the application are to be made; under "Unit of Measure", specify unit of measure stated in Column 2 to Appendix B; under name of company, specify your name and the address of the plant or warehouse from which shipment will be made.

(5) Listing of customers. In Column 1 (except for small orders as explained in (7) below) list the name of each customer from whom an order for delivery of the subject chemical during the applicable month has been received. If it is necessary to use more than one sheet to list customers, number each sheet in order and show the grand total on last sheet which is the only one that need be certified.

(6) Primary product and end use. In Column 1–a (except for small orders as explained in (7) below) specify the product or products in the manufacture or preparation of which the subject chemical will be used by your customer, the end use to which such product or products will be put, and military or Lend-Lease contract numbers, and export license numbers, all as indicated by the certificate obtained under paragraph (f) of this order. The quantity of the subject chemical used in the manufacture or preparation of each primary product for each product use shall be shown separately. If the subject chemical ordered by a customer is for two or more uses, indicate each use separately and indicate the quantity of the subject chemical ordered for each use.

(7) Small orders. The supplier need not list the name of any customer to whom he is to deliver in the applicable month a quantity of the subject chemical not exceeding the maximum quantity (indicated in Column 3 of Appendix B) which he is permitted to deliver to any one person in any calendar month without specific authorization. Also, in the case of any such delivery, he need not show the name of the product or the end use. Instead, he must write in Column 1 "Total small order deliveries (estimated)" and in Column 4, must specify the total estimated quantity of the subject chemical to be delivered on such orders.

(8) Use by producers. A producer requiring permission to use a part or all of his own production of the subject chemical shall list his own name as customer in Column 1 on Form WPB–2947 (formerly Form PD–602) specifying quantity required and product manufactured. Written approval of War Production Board on such Form WPB–2947 (formerly Form PD–602) shall constitute authority to the producer to use the subject chemical in the quantity and for the purposes indicated in such approved form.

(9) Table II. Each producer will report production, deliveries and stocks as required by Table II, Columns 9 to 16, inclusive. Distributors will fill out only Columns 10, 12 and 13. Producers and distributors will show in Column 8 Grade, as stated in Appendix A, or if no Grade is there specified, will leave Column 8 blank.

PART 1305—ADMINISTRATION

[Gen. RO 5,[1] Amdt. 61]

FOOD RATIONING FOR INSTITUTIONAL USER

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

General Ration Order No. 5 is amended in the following respect:

A new section 12.4 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 12.4 Petitions for a refreshment allotment for foods covered by Ration Order 16. (a) An institutional user who used meat, butter, cheese or margarine for services of refreshments only during his base month may petition the Board for a refreshment allotment for foods covered by Ration Order 16. The application shall be made on OPA Form R–315, and must state the quantities of meat, butter, cheese and margarine, in pounds, used in the base month. The Board may grant a petition for a refreshment allotment if it finds that the institutional user used meat, butter, cheese, or margarine for services of refreshments only in his base period, and shall determine that allotment in the following way:

(1) The total pounds of meat, cheese, butter and margarine used for services of refreshments only in the base month is divided by the total pounds of all foods covered by Ration Order 16 used for services of refreshments only in that month;

(2) The figure so obtained is multiplied by two; and

(3) The result multiplied by his refreshment base for foods covered by Ration Order 16 is his refreshment allotment for those foods for each allotment period.

This amendment shall become effective May 1, 1944.

PART 1364—FRESH, CURED AND CANNED MEAT AND FISH PRODUCTS

[RMPR 169,[1] Amdt. 40]

BEEF AND VEAL CARCASSES AND WHOLESALE CUTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 169 is amended in the following respects:

1. The words "the War Shipping Administration and/or" appearing in paragraphs (e) (3) and (4) of § 1364.407 are hereby deleted.

2. The words "the War Shipping Administration and/or" appearing in paragraph (a) of § 1364.415 are hereby deleted.

3. The headnote of paragraph (o) of § 1364.452 is amended to read as follows:

(o) Applicable zone prices for fabricated beef cuts and/or ground beef and miscellaneous beef items sold to purveyors of meals; Applicable zone prices for fabricated beef cuts (War Shipping Administration Specifications).

4. The last sentence of § 1364.452 (o) (1) (i) is amended to read as follows:

No person shall sell or deliver, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive, any fabricated beef cut, other than one defined in § 1364.455 (b) (3) for which maximum prices have been established for sales to purveyors of meals.

5. Section 1364.452 (o) (1) (iii) is added to read as follows:

(iii) Subject to the pricing instructions contained in paragraph (a) of § 1364.451, the maximum price for fabricated beef cuts (War Shipping Administration Specifications) shall be the applicable zone prices determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 1364.451, substituting for the purposes of this paragraph (o) the term "fabricated beef cut (War Shipping Administration Specifications)" wherever the words "wholesale cut" or "wholesale cuts" are used in said paragraph (a) of § 1364.451. No person shall sell or deliver any fabricated beef cut (War Shipping Administration Specifications) which does not meet War Shipping Administration specifications, to the War Shipping Administration, to a licensed ship supplier for resale as ship stores, or to any ship operator for ship stores.

6. Section 1364.452 (o) (2) and (3) are amended to read as follows:

"(2) The zone areas for each grade of each fabricated beef cut and/or ground beef and miscellaneous beef item and/or fabricated beef cut (War Shipping Administration Specifications) are identical to the beef zone areas set forth in Schedule I (§ 1364.452 (a) to (j) inclusive).

(3) The applicable prices in zones 1 and 2 and 5 to 10 for fabricated beef cuts, for ground beef and miscellaneous beef items, and for fabricated beef cuts (War Shipping Administration Specifications) shall be the prices specified in subparagraphs (4), (5), (6), (7) or (10) hereof (the applicable zone 3 and 4 prices), plus the following:

All sales under this paragraph are made subject to the provisions of § 1364.452 (k), and for the purposes of this subparagraph (6) the term "fabricated beef cut (War Shipping Administration Specifications)" shall be substituted for the term "wholesale cut" in § 1364.452 (k).

For purposes of this subparagraph (6), a sale of fabricated beef cuts (War Shipping Administration Specifications) by any selling establishment which satisfies the definition of "hotel supply house" as defined in § 1364.455 (b) (1), shall be deemed to be a sale by a person other than a slaughterer, packer, or packer's branch house.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of § 1364.451 (a) (4), the War Shipping Administration or any person authorized by the War Shipping Administration to make purchases under its direction and control, is authorized to purchase and sell fabricated beef cuts (War Shipping Administration Specifications).

(8) "Fabricated beef cut (War Shipping Administration Specifications)" means beef derived from steers and heifers of the grades choice, good, commercial or utility and satisfying the specifications and requirements contained in War Shipping Administration Food Control Regulation No. 2. Fabricated beef cuts (War Shipping Administration Specifications), shall be graded in accordance with § 1364.411 (a) (1) and (2) of this regulation, and no fabricated beef cut (War Shipping Administration Specifications), so graded shall be packed for sale and/or delivery to the War Shipping Administration, to a licensed ship supplier or to any person for resale as ship stores, authorized to make such purchase under the direction and control of the War Shipping Administration, or to a ship operator, except in the presence of an official United States inspector designated by the Food Distribution Administration, or other United States Government agency regularly performing grading and/or inspection service who shall certify that the cutting, boning, trimming, and other fabrication, the grade, the weight and the other specifications of the War Shipping Administration and/or Office of Price Administration, have been complied with and that the legends affixed to the package by the seller are correct. Certification by the official United States inspector shall be made by affixing a stamp or sticker to the container, which stamp or sticker shall attest the accuracy of all representations appearing upon the container.

(9) For purposes of subparagraphs (6), (7) and (8) hereof, (i) a licensed ship supplier means any person who has been licensed by the War Food Administration under the provisions of Food Distribution Regulation No. 3, as amended, (issued October 8, 1943) to sell and/or deliver meats and other food products to ship operators and (ii) a "ship operator" means any person as defined in Food Distribution Regulation No. 3, who conducts "* * * the business of vessels for the account of the United States under a general agency form of service agreement approved by the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration; or operating as the owner or owner's agent, a vessel time chartered to the United States, represented by the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration; which is owned, chartered, or operated by any allied or neutral country," or any other person conducting the business of vessels who is designated as a ship operator by the War Shipping Administration.

8. Subdivisions (ii) and (iii) of § 1364.455 (b) (2) are hereby revoked.

9. Subdivisions (iv) and (v) of § 1364.455 (b) (2) are redesignated (ii) and (iii) respectively.

10. The headnote of § 1364.467 (n) is amended to read as follows:

(n) Applicable zone prices for fabricated veal cuts sold to purveyors of meals; applicable zone prices for fabricated veal carcasses (War Shipping Administration Specifications).

11. Section 1364.467 (n) (1) is amended to read as follows:

(1) (i) Subject to the pricing instructions contained in paragraph (a) of § 1364.466, the maximum price for each grade of each fabricated veal cut shall be the applicable zone price determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 1364.466 substituting for the purposes of this subdivision (i) the term "fabricated veal cut" whenever the words "wholesale cut" or "wholesale cuts" are used in said paragraph (a) of § 1364.466, plus the permitted additions, if any, specified in Schedule VI (§ 1364.469), excluding therefrom the additions permitted under paragraph (e), (f), (g) and (h) thereof, minus the required deductions, if any, specified in Schedule V (§ 1364.468), substituting for the purposes of this subdivision (i) the term "fabricated veal cut" wherever the words "wholesale cut" or "wholesale cuts" are used in Schedules V and VI. No person shall sell or deliver any fabricated veal cut and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any fabricated veal cut unless such fabricated veal cut is a fabricated veal cut as defined in § 1364.470 (b) (3) for which applicable prices have been established for sales to purveyors of meals.

(ii) Subject to the pricing instructions contained in paragraph (a) of § 1364.466, the maximum price for each grade of fabricated veal carcass (War Shipping Administration Specifications) shall be the applicable zone price determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 1364.466, substituting for the purposes of this subdivision (ii) the term "fabricated veal carcass" (War Shipping Administration Specifications) wherever the words "wholesale cut" or "wholesale cuts" are used in said paragraph (a) of § 1364.466. No person shall sell or deliver any fabricated veal carcass (War Shipping Administration Specifications) which does not meet War Shipping Administration Specifications, to the War Shipping Administration, to a licensed ship supplier for resale as ship stores, or to any ship operator for ship stores.

12. Section 1364.467 (n) (2) is amended to read as follows:

(2) The fabricated veal cut zone areas and the fabricated veal carcass (War Shipping Administration Specifications) zone areas 1 to 10 are identical to the beef zone areas set forth in Schedule I (§ 1364.452).

13. Section 1364.467 (n) (6), (7), (8) and (9) are amended to read as follows:

(6) Subject to the additions and deductions hereafter provided in Column IV, the following table prices shall be the applicable Zone 4 prices on sales of fabricated veal carcass (War Shipping Administration Specifications), made:

Column I By—	Column II To—	Column III Which sales require delivery	Column IV Addition and deductions

For fabricated veal carcasses (War Shipping Administration Specifications) wrapped in kraft paper and cheese cloth, $.25 per cwt. shall be deducted from table price.

	Choice or AA	Good or A	Commercial or B	Utility or C
Veal carcass	$23.75	$22.75	$20.50	$18.50

All sales under this subparagraph (6) are made subject to the provisions of § 1364.467 (k), and for the purposes of this subparagraph (6) the term "fabricated veal carcass (War Shipping Administration Specifications)" shall be substituted for the term "wholesale cut" in § 1364.467 (k).

For purposes of this subparagraph (6), a sale of fabricated veal carcasses (War Shipping Administration Specifications) by any selling establishment which satisfies the definition of "hotel supply house" as defined in § 1364.470 (b) (1), shall be deemed to be a sale by a person other than a slaughterer, packer, or packer's branch house.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of § 1364.466 (a) (4), the War Shipping Administration or any person authorized by the War Shipping Administration to make purchases under its direction and control, is authorized to purchase and sell fabricated veal carcasses (War Shipping Administration Specifications).

(8) "Fabricated veal carcass (War Shipping Administration Specifications)," means veal derived from calves of grades choice, good, commercial or utility and satisfying the specifications and requirements contained in War Shipping Administration Food Control Regulation No. 2. "Fabricated veal carcass (War Shipping Administration Specifications)," shall be graded in accordance with § 1364.411 (a) (1) and (2) of this regulation and no such fabricated veal carcass so graded shall be packed for sale and/or delivery to the War Shipping Administration or to any person authorized to make such purchase under the direction and control of an official United States inspector designated by the Food Distribution Administration, or other United States Government agency regularly performing grading and/or inspection service, who shall certify that the cutting, dressing, trimming and other fabrication, the grade, the weight and the other specifications of the War Shipping Administration and/or the Office of Price Administration have been complied with and that the legends affixed to the package by the seller are correct. Certification by the official United States inspector shall be made by affixing a stamp or sticker to the container, which stamp or sticker shall attest the accuracy of all representations appearing upon the container.

(9) For purposes of subparagraphs (6), (7) and (8) hereof, (i) a licensed ship supplier means any person who has been licensed by the War Food Administration under the provisions of Food Distribution Regulation No. 3, as amended, (issued October 8, 1943) to sell and/or deliver meats and other food products to ship operators. (ii) A "ship operator" means any person as defined in Food Distribution Regulation No. 3 who conducts "the business of vessels for the account of the United States under the general agency form of service agreement approved by the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration; or operating, as the owner or owner's agent, a vessel time chartered to the United States, represented by the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration; or operating a vessel, the services of which are employed by the United States, represented by the Administrator of the War Shipping Administration; which is owned, chartered, or operated by any allied or neutral country", or any other person conducting the business of vessels who is designated as a ship operator by the War Shipping Administration.

14. Subdivisions (ii) and (iii) of § 1364.470 (b) (2) are hereby revoked.

15. Subdivisions (iv) and (v) of § 1364.470 (b) (2) are redesignated (ii) and (iii) respectively.

This amendment shall become effective May 1, 1944.

Chapter XIII—Petroleum Administration for War

[PAO 11 as Amended Jan. 1, 1944, Supp. Order 11]

PART 1515—PETROLEUM PRODUCTION OPERATIONS

OIL WELL DRILLING IN PANHANDLE FIELD, TEX.

Section 1515.17 Supplementary Order No. 11 to Petroleum Administrative Order No. 11 as amended January 1, 1944.

(a) Scope of this order. Except as otherwise modified by the provisions of any other order issued as a supplement to Petroleum Administrative Order No. 11, as amended January 1, 1944, or by the provisions of any specific exception or other grant of authority as provided for by Petroleum Administrative Order No. 11, as amended January 1, 1944, the provisions of this supplementary order shall to the extent provided herein be applicable to the use of material in drilling, deepening, completing, recompleting, and providing additions to, oil wells in the Panhandle Field located in Wheeler, Gray, Carson, Hutchinson, and Moore Counties, Texas, but not elsewhere.

(b) Definitions. The definitions of Petroleum Administrative Order No. 11, as amended January 1, 1944, shall apply in this supplementary order.

(c) Authorized uses of material in oil development drilling operations in the Panhandle Field. Material may be used to drill, deepen, complete, recomplete, and provide additions to, any oil well in that portion of the Panhandle Field located in Wheeler, Gray, Carson, Hutchinson, and Moore Counties, Texas, if the use is in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) The well must be located on a drilling unit consisting of at least 20 contiguous surface acres, no portion of which drilling unit is attributable to or falls within 300 feet of any other drilling or producible well located on the same lease or property, and the distance between any two points farthest apart on the drilling unit must not exceed a distance of 1,500 feet, and

(2) All separate property interests in the drilling unit upon which the well is located must first be consolidated, and

(3) The well must be located at least 660 feet from every other drilling or producible well, and

(4) The well must be located at least 330 feet from every lease line, property line, and subdivision line separating unconsolidated property interests.

If any well drilled in conformity with the provisions of this paragraph (c) is completed as a gas or condensate well, it shall not be produced other than for a test period of not exceeding 15 days, and no material may be used to produce the well or provide additions therefor, except as necessary for such testing of the well, until authorization has been granted by an authorized official of the Petroleum Administration for War.

(d) Computation of acreage attributable to oil wells in the Panhandle Field. (1) The acreage attributable to any oil well in the Panhandle Field spudded on or before December 23, 1941, shall be determined by assigning to the well an acreage equivalent to that of the existing well density contiguous to the well. In no event need the attributed acreage be greater than that required for a new well drilled and completed pursuant to this supplementary order.

(2) The acreage attributable to any oil well in the Panhandle Field spudded after December 23, 1941, need not be greater than that required for a new well drilled and completed pursuant to this supplementary order.

(e) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this supplementary order, or who, by any act or omission, falsifies records kept or information furnished in connection with this supplementary order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment.

Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this supplementary order may be prohibited from delivering or receiving any material under priority control, or may be subject to other appropriate action.

(f) Effective date. This supplementary order shall take effect on the date of issuance.

Notice of issuance of special certificates for the employment of learners under the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

Notice is hereby given that special certificates authorizing the employment of learners at hourly wages lower than the minimum rate applicable under section 6 of the Act are issued under section 14 thereof and § 522.5 (b) of the regulations issued thereunder (August 16, 1940, 5 F.R. 2862) to the employers listed below effective as of the date specified in each listed item below.

The employment of learners under these certificates is limited to the terms and conditions as designated opposite the employer's name. These certificates are issued upon the employers' representations that experienced workers for the learner occupations are not available for employment and that they are actually in need of learners at subminimum rates in order to prevent curtailment of opportunities for employment. The certificates may be cancelled in the manner provided for in the regulations and as indicated on the Certificate. Any person aggrieved by the issuance of the certificates may seek a review or reconsideration thereof.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION.

[Docket No. G-543]

PANHANDLE EASTERN PIPE LINE CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

MAY 1, 1944.

Notice is hereby given that on April 24, 1944, the Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, a Delaware corporation having its principal offices in Chicago, Illinois, and Kansas City, Missouri, filed with the Federal Power Commission an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to authorize the construction and operation of the facilities hereinafter described.

The proposed construction consists of a 22-inch pipe line approximately 17 miles in length, parallel to Applicant's 22-inch line between its Hansford (Texas) and Liberal (Kansas) stations, and the installation of 4,000 feet of 24-inch pipe to provide for an under-water river crossing (Cimarron River) near Applicant's Liberal (Kansas) compressor station; installation of two 800 horsepower compressor units with appurtenant equipment at Applicant's Hansford compressor station, situated in Hansford County, Texas; installation of one additional 1,300 horsepower compressor unit and appurtenant equipment at its Montezuma compressor station, situation in Vermillion County, Indiana.

Applicant asserts that the proposed looping is necessary to enable it to transport an additional 30,000,000 to 80,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas per day, such gas to be produced in Hansford County, Texas, and Texas County, Oklahoma, and purchased from the Phillips Petroleum Company. The Applicant states that the additional compressor units are necessary for it to maintain adequate service to its customers.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said application should, on or before the 18th day of May, 1944, file with the Federal Power Commission a petition or protest in accordance with the Commission's provisional rules of practice and regulations under the Natural Gas Act.

[Docket No. FDC-41]

TOLERANCES FOR FLUORINE SPRAY RESIDUE ON APPLES AND PEARS

NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of a proposed regulation limiting the quantity of fluorine remaining as insecticidal residue on apples and pears.

Notice is hereby given that the Administrator of the Federal Security Agency, upon the application of a substantial portion of the interested industry stating reasonable grounds therefor and in accordance with the provisions of sections 406 and 701 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, 21 U.S.C. secs. 346 and 371 (Supp. V. 1939); the Reorganization Act of 1939, 53 Stat. 561, 5 U.S.C. sec. 133 (Supp. V. 1939) and Reorganization Plans No. I (53 Stat. 1423, 4 F.R. 2727) and No. IV (54 Stat. 1234, 5 F.R. 2421), will hold a public hearing, commencing at 10 o'clock in the morning of June 27, 1944, in Room 1409, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Independence Avenue, between 12th and 14th Streets, S. W., Washington, D. C., upon a proposed regulation limiting the quantity of fluorine remaining as insecticidal residue on apples and pears.

The proposed regulation is as follows:

§ 120.1 Limit for the quantity of fluorine remaining as insecticidal residue on apples and pears. The quantity of fluorine remaining as insecticidal residue on apples and pears is hereby limited to not more than — milligrams of fluorine, calculated as F, per kilogram of each such fruit.

The blank in the foregoing section is to be filled in with a number based on substantial evidence of record at the hearing. The limit so prescribed may be the same as, or greater than, or less than, the informal tolerance for fluorine on apples and pears which was announced by the Administrator on August 10, 1940.

Mr. Joseph L. Maguire hereby is designated as presiding officer to conduct the hearing, in the place of the Administrator, with full authority to administer oaths and affirmations and to do all other things appropriate to the conduct of the hearing.

The hearing will be conducted in accordance with the rules of practice provided therefor (see 5 F.R. 2379-2381).

In lieu of oral testimony, interested persons may submit affidavits to the presiding officer at Room 4148, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Independence Avenue, between 12th and 14th Streets, S. W., Washington, D. C., at any time prior to the hearing. Such affidavits should be submitted in quintuplicate and, if relevant and material, will be received and made a part of the record of the hearing, but the Administrator will consider the lack of opportunity for cross-examination in determining the weight to be given to statements contained therein. Every interested person will be permitted, in accordance with the above-mentioned rules of practice, to examine all affidavits submitted and to file counter-affidavits with the presiding officer.

At the hearing evidence will be restricted to testimony and exhibits that are relevant and material to the issue contained in the proposal.

The proposal is subject to adoption, rejection, amendment, or modification by the Administrator, in whole or in part, as the evidence adduced at the hearing may require.

[SEAL] WATSON B. MILLER,
Acting Administrator.

hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC-1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on April 12, 1944.

GEORGES MAHOUX

In re: Patent of Georges Mahoux.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding;

1. That Georges Mahoux is a resident of France and is a national of a foreign country (France);

2. That the property described in subparagraph 3 hereof is property of Georges Mahoux;

3. That the property described as follows:

All right, title and interest, including all accrued royalties and all damages and profits recoverable at law or in equity from any person, firm, corporation or government for past infringement thereof, in and to the following patent:

Patent Number, Date, Inventor, and Title

1,939,712; 12-19-33; Georges Mahoux; treatment of metals and alloys.

is property of a national of a foreign country (France);

And having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC-1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on April 12, 1944.

MADELEINE L. OTTMANN

In re: Trusts under the will of Madeleine L. Ottmann, deceased, File No. D-66-760; E. T. sec. 4526.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by the City Bank Farmers Trust Company, Edward G. Burghard and Charles G. Proffitt, as trustees, acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court, New York County, New York;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Carl Stangen, Germany.
Georg Von Zedlitz, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Carl Stangen and Georg Von Zedlitz, and each of them, in and to the trusts created under the Will of Madeleine L. Ottmann, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold, or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

In re: Estate of J. Frederick Pape, deceased; File D–28–8292; E. T. sec. 9506.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by George Pape, Langhorne, R. D. #2, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, Executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the Orphans' Court of Bucks County, Pennsylvania;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

National and Last Known Address

Josephine Pape Grote, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest, and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Josephine Pape Grote in and to the estate of J. Frederick Pape, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by the Bank of New York, as Trustee and Executor, and Lilian May Pavenstedt, as Executrix, acting under the judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court, New York County, New York;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

National and Last Known Address

Frida Pfughaupt, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Frida Pfughaupt, in and to the trust established under the will of Adolf J. Pavenstedt, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

FRIEDA PICHL

In re: Estate of Frieda Pichl, deceased. File: D–28–1608; E. T. sec. 364.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Carl Sandner, as Executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the Orphans' Court, Union County, Elizabeth, New Jersey;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Teresa Pichl, Czechoslovakia.
Anna Huber, Czechoslovakia.
Karoline Grupp, Germany.
Wilhelm Ehrman, Germany.
Ernest Ehrman, Germany.
Martha Schoeffler (Shoffler), Germany.
Bertha Pichl, Germany.
Joseph Pichl, Germany.
Marie Pichl Schmidt, Germany.
Elizabeth (Liesl) Pichl Hesse, Germany.
Anna Pichl Papke, Germany.
Domiciliary Executor or Administrator of Joseph Pichl, deceased, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) Teresa Pichl and Anna Huber, citizens or subjects of a designated enemy country, Germany, and within an enemy-occupied country, Czechoslovakia, are nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany;

(4) To the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Teresa Pichl, Anna Huber, Karoline Grupp, Ernest Ehrman, Wilhelm Ehrman, Martha Schoeffler (Shoffler), Bertha Pichl, Joseph Pichl, Marie Pichl Schmidt, Elizabeth (Liesl) Pichl Hesse, Anna Pichl Papke and the Domiciliary Executor or Administrator of Joseph Pichl, deceased, and each of them, in and to the estate of Frieda Pichl, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

HERRMANN ALFRED STREULI

In re: Trust under the will of Herrmann Alfred Streuli, deceased; File No. D-28-1632; E.T. sec. 431.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by The Plainfield Trust Company, as Trustee, acting under the judicial supervision of the Prerogative Court of New Jersey, Trenton, New Jersey;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, a national of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

National and Last Known Address

Martha Streuli, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Martha Streuli in and to the trust created under the Will of Herrmann Alfred Streuli, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

LOUISE TERHART

In re: Estate of Louise Terhart, deceased; File D-28-1675; E. T. sec. 740.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Anthony H. Weber, 3617 Gravois Road, St. Louis, Missouri, Executor, acting under the judicial supervision of the Probate Court of the City of St. Louis, Missouri;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Alvine Ritzerfeld, Germany.
Henriette Wilhelmi, Germany.
Hubert G. Ritzerfeld, Germany.
Josef Wilhelmi, Germany.
Children of Alvine Ritzerfeld, Henriette Wilhelmi, Hubert G. Ritzerfeld, and Josef Wilhelmi, names unknown, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Alvine Ritzerfeld, Henriette Wilhelmi, Hubert G. Ritzerfeld, Josef Wilhelmi, children of Alvine Ritzerfeld, Henriette Wilhelmi, Hubert G. Ritzerfeld and Josef Wilhelmi, names unknown, and each of them, in and to the estate of Louise Terhart, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC-1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

Dated: April 17, 1944.

JOSEPHINE THELLIAN

In re: Estate of Josephine Thellian, also known as Josefa Thellian, deceased; File: D-66-926; E. T. sec. 5648.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by Marie di Micelli and Elsie Stelben, as Executrices, acting under judicial supervision of the Surrogate's Court, New York County, New York;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Maria Thellian, Germany.
Martha Thellian, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Maria Thellian, and Martha Thellian, and each of them, in and to the Estate of Josephine Thellian, also known as Josefa Thellian, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order, may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of said Executive order.

In re: Trust under the will of Charles H. R. Triebels, deceased; File D–28–2377; E. T. sec. 3896.

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian after investigation,

Finding that—

(1) The property and interests hereinafter described are property which is in the process of administration by the Land Title Bank and Trust Company, Trustee, acting under the judicial supervision of the Orphans' Court of Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania;

(2) Such property and interests are payable or deliverable to, or claimed by, nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany, namely,

Nationals and Last Known Address

Mary Triebels Fausten (formerly known as Mary Davis Baker), Germany.
Elsa Triebels Buddeberg, Germany.
Gerda Ingeborg Buddeberg, Germany.
Walter Harro Buddeberg, Germany.
Children and their issue, names unknown, of Elsa Triebels Buddeberg, Germany.

And determining that—

(3) If such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country, Germany; and

Having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification, required by said Executive order or act or otherwise, and deeming it necessary in the national interest,

Now, therefore, the Alien Property Custodian hereby vests the following property and interests:

All right, title, interest and claim of any kind or character whatsoever of Mary Triebels Fausten (formerly known as Mary Davis Baker), Elsa Triebels Buddeberg, Gerda Ingeborg Buddeberg, Walter Harro Buddeberg and children and their issue, names unknown, of Elsa Triebels Buddeberg, and each of them, in and to the Trust Estate created under the will of Charles H. R. Triebels, deceased, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property, and any or all of the proceeds thereof, shall be held in an appropriate special account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This shall not be deemed to limit the powers of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof, or to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined that such return should be made or such compensation should be paid.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may file with the Alien Property Custodian a notice of his claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon, on Form APC–1, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Alien Property Custodian.

KATAKURA CORPORATION

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the Alien Property Custodian, after investigation:

1. Having found in Vesting Order Number 91, dated August 6, 1942, and as amended on April 5, 1944, that Katakura Corporation is a business enterprise within the United States and a national of a designated enemy country (Japan);

2. Finding that of the outstanding capital stock of Katakura Corporation, consisting of 1,000 shares having a par value of $100 a share, one share registered in the name of Norbert Foerster and one share registered in the name of Gustav Eggena are beneficially owned by Katakura & Co., Ltd., which shares together with 998 shares (99.8%) of the outstanding capital stock that were beneficially owned by Katakura & Co., Ltd., prior to vesting said 998 shares of stock, are evidence of ownership and control of said business enterprise;

3. Finding that Katakura & Co., Ltd., a Japanese corporation whose principal place of business is Tokyo, Japan, is a national of a designated enemy country (Japan); and determining:

4. That to the extent that such nationals are persons not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country (Japan);

and having made all determinations and taken all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the two shares of the capital stock of Katakura Corporation, hereinbefore more fully described, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC-1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national", "designated enemy country" and "business enterprise within the United States" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

JOSEPHINE M. LORSCH

In re: Mortgage owned by Mrs. Josephine M. Lorsch covering real property in New York City.

Vesting Order Number 372, dated November 18, 1942, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding:

1. That the last known address of Josephine M. Lorsch is Eure-et-Loire, France, and that she is controlled by a designated enemy country (Germany), or a person within such country, and is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. That Josephine M. Lorsch is the owner of the property described in subparagraph 3 hereof;

3. That the property described as follows:

That certain mortgage executed on December 27, 1928 by Amanda Schwab, as mortgagor, in favor of Lawyers Trust Company, New York, New York, as mortgagee, and thereafter assigned to Josephine M. Lorsch, and any and all obligations secured by said mortgage including but not limited to any and all security rights in and to any and all collateral (including the aforesaid mortgage) for any or all of such obligations, and the right to enforce and collect such obligations, and the right to the possession of any and all notes, bonds or other instruments evidencing such obligations, is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

And determining that Josephine M. Lorsch is controlled by a designated enemy country (Germany), or a person within such country, and is a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

And further determining that to the extent that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

And having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification required by law, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraph 3 hereof, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest, and for the benefit, of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account, or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall this order be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order, may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC-1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

In re: Real properties, two second mortgages and a claim owned by Frederick Meyer.

Vesting Order Number 2247, dated September 22, 1943, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Under the authority of the Trading with the Enemy Act, as amended, and Executive Order No. 9095, as amended, and pursuant to law, the undersigned, after investigation, finding:

1. That the last known address of Frederick Meyer is 89 Drakenburg, Province of Hanover, Germany, and that he is a resident of Germany and a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

2. That Frederick Meyer is the owner of the property described in subparagraph 3 hereof;

3. That the property described as follows:

a. Real property situated at 904 Morris Avenue, New York, New York, particularly described in Exhibit A attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof, together with all hereditaments, fixtures, improvements and appurtenances thereto, and any and all claims for rents, refunds, benefits or other payments arising from the ownership of such property,

b. Real property situated at 1076 Teller Avenue, New York, New York, particularly described in Exhibit B attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof, together with all hereditaments, fixtures, improvements and appurtenances thereto, and any and all claims for rents, refunds, benefits or other payments arising from the ownership of such property,

c. That certain mortgage which was executed on May 26, 1926, by Margaret Branda (formerly Margaret Tyrabasso), as mortgagor, in favor of Frederick Meyer, as mortgagee, and recorded on May 27, 1926 in the Register's Office, Bronx County, New York, in Liber 1043 of Mortgages, page 93, and any and all obligations secured by said mortgage, including but not limited to any and all collateral (including the aforesaid mortgage) for any and all such obligations, and the right to enforce and collect such obligations, and the right to the possession of any and all notes, bonds or other instruments evidencing such obligations,

d. That certain mortgage which was executed on May 9, 1923 by Rosie Clar, as mortgagor, in favor of Rebecca Greenwald, as mortgagee, and recorded in the Register's Office, Bronx County, New York, in Liber 694 of Mortgages, Page 97, and assigned to Frederick Meyer, by said Rebecca Greenwald, by assignment recorded in the Register's Office, Bronx County, New York, in Liber 706 of Mortgages, Page 76, and any and all obligations secured by said mortgage, including but not limited to any and all collateral (including the aforesaid mortgage) for any and all such obligations, and the right to enforce and collect such obligations, and the right to the possession of any and all notes, bonds or other instruments evidencing such obligations, and

e. All right, title, interest and claim of any name or nature whatsoever of Frederick Meyer, in and to any and all obligations, contingent or otherwise and whether or not matured, owing to Frederick Meyer by George H. Scheele, 748 Melrose Avenue, New York, New York, and arising out of the management of the real property and mortgages described in subparagraphs 3-a, 3-b, 3-c and 3-d hereof, including but not limited to all security rights in and to any and all collateral for any or all such obligations and the right to enforce and collect such obligations, is property within the United States owned or controlled by a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

And determining that the property described in subparagraph 3-e hereof is necessary for the maintenance or safeguarding of other property (namely, that property described in subparagraphs 3-a and 3-b hereof) belonging to the same national of the same designated enemy country and subject to vesting (and in fact vested by this order) pursuant to section 2 of said Executive order;

And further determining that to the that such national is a person not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country (Germany);

And having made all determinations and taken all action, after appropriate consultation and certification required by law, and deeming it necessary in the national interest, hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraphs 3-a and 3-b hereof, subject to recorded liens, encumbrances, and other rights of record held by or for persons who are not nationals of designated enemy countries, and hereby vests in the Alien Property Custodian the property described in subparagraphs 3-c, 3-d and 3-e hereof,

All such property so vested to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest, and for the benefit of the United States.

Such property and any or all of the proceeds thereof shall be held in an appropriate account, or accounts, pending further determination of the Alien Property Custodian. This order shall not be deemed to limit the power of the Alien Property Custodian to return such property or the proceeds thereof in whole or in part, nor shall it be deemed to indicate that compensation will not be paid in lieu thereof, if and when it should be determined to take any one or all of such actions.

Any person, except a national of a designated enemy country, asserting any claim arising as a result of this order may, within one year from the date hereof, or within such further time as may be allowed, file with the Alien Property Custodian on Form APC-1 a notice of claim, together with a request for a hearing thereon. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to constitute an admission of the existence, validity or right to allowance of any such claim.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order No. 9095, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on April 24, 1944.

OFFICE OF DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION.

[Supp. Order ODT 3, Rev. 232]

COMMON CARRIERS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS BETWEEN POINTS IN MISSOURI AND ARKANSAS

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof to facilitate compliance with the requirements and purposes of General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended (7 F.R. 5445, 6689, 7694; 8 F.R. 4660, 14582; 9 F.R. 2793, 3264, 3357), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and

It appearing that the proposed coordination of operations is necessary in order to assure maximum utilization of the facilities, services, and equipment, and to conserve and providently utilize vital equipment, materials, and supplies, of the carriers, and to provide for the prompt, and continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved and the carriers are directed to put the plan in operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the carriers forthwith shall file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and likewise shall file, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs, or supplements to filed tariffs, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations, and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order and of such plan; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or supplements to become effective on the shortest notice lawfully permissible, but not prior to the effective date of this order.

3. Whenever transportation service is performed by one carrier in lieu of service by another carrier, by reason of a diversion, exchange, pooling, or similar act made or performed pursuant to the plan for joint action hereby approved, the rates, charges, rules, and regulations governing such service shall be those that would have applied except for such diversion, exchange, pooling, or other act.

4. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any carrier subject hereto to perform any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to authorize or require any act or omission which is in violation of any law or regulation, or to permit any carrier to alter its legal liability to any shipper. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing interstate or intrastate operating authority of any carrier subject hereto, such carrier forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the carriers' possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

5. All records of the carriers pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

6. Withdrawal of a carrier from participation in the plan for joint action hereby approved shall not be made without prior approval of the Office of Defense Transportation.

7. The provisions of this order shall be binding upon any successor in interest to any carrier named in this order. Upon a transfer of any operation involved in this order, the successor in interest and the other carriers named in this order forthwith shall notify, in writing, the Office of Defense Transportation of the transfer and, unless and until otherwise ordered, the successor in interest shall perform the functions of his predecessor in accordance with the provisions of this order.

8. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made by the carriers to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

9. Communications concerning this order should refer to it by the Supplementary Order number which appears in the caption on page 1 hereof, and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington 25, D. C.

This order shall become effective May 6, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 2d day of May 1944.

[Supplementary Order ODT 6A-26]

COMMON CARRIERS

COORDINATED OPERATIONS WITHIN MASON CITY, IOWA

Upon consideration of a plan for joint action filed with the Office of Defense Transportation by the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof to facilitate compliance with the requirements and purposes of General Order ODT 6A (8 F.R. 8757, 14582; 9 F.R. 2794), a copy of which plan is attached hereto as Appendix 2,[1] and

It appearing that the proposed coordination is necessary in order to conserve and providently utilize vital transportation equipment, materials and supplies; and to provide for the continuous movement of necessary traffic, the attainment of which purposes is essential to the successful prosecution of the war, It is hereby ordered, That:

1. The plan for joint action above referred to is hereby approved and the persons named in Appendix 1 hereof are directed to put the plan in operation forthwith, subject to the following provisions, which shall supersede any provisions of such plan that are in conflict therewith.

2. Each of the carriers forthwith shall file a copy of this order with the appropriate regulatory body or bodies having jurisdiction over any operations affected by this order, and likewise shall file, and publish in accordance with law, and continue in effect until further order, tariffs or schedules, or supplements to filed tariffs or schedules, setting forth any changes in rates, charges, operations, rules, regulations, and practices of the carrier which may be necessary to accord with the provisions of this order and of such plan; and forthwith shall apply to such regulatory body or bodies for special permission for such tariffs or schedules, or supplements, to become effective on the shortest notice lawfully permissible, but not prior to the effective date of this order.

3. Whenever transportation service is performed by one carrier in lieu of service by another carrier, by reason of a diversion, exchange, pooling, or similar act made or performed pursuant to the plan for joint action hereby approved, the rates, charges, rules, and regulations governing such service shall be those that would have applied except for such diversion, exchange, pooling, or other act.

4. The provisions of this order shall not be so construed or applied as to require any carrier subject hereto to perform any service beyond its transportation capacity, or to authorize or require any act or omission which is in violation of any law or regulation, or to permit any carrier to alter its legal liability to any shipper. In the event that compliance with any term of this order, or effectuation of any provision of such plan, would conflict with, or would not be authorized under, the existing interstate or intrastate operating authority of any carrier subject hereto, such carrier forthwith shall apply to the appropriate regulatory body or bodies for the granting of such operating authority as may be requisite to compliance with the terms of this order, and shall prosecute such application with all possible diligence. The coordination of operations directed by this order shall be subject to the carriers' possessing or obtaining the requisite operating authority.

5. All records of the carriers pertaining to any transportation performed pursuant to this order and to the provisions of such plan shall be kept available for examination and inspection at all reasonable times by accredited representatives of the Office of Defense Transportation.

6. The plan for joint action hereby approved and all contractual arrangements made to effectuate the plan shall not continue in operation beyond the effective period of this order.

7. Communications concerning this order should refer to "Supplementary Order ODT 6A-26" and, unless otherwise directed, should be addressed to the Division of Motor Transport, Office of Defense Transportation, Washington, D. C.

This order shall become effective May 6, 1944, and shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of the present war shall have been duly proclaimed, or until such earlier time as the Office of Defense Transportation by further order may designate.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 54-90]

WEST TEXAS UTILITIES COMPANY AND PECOS VALLEY POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 27th day of April, A. D., 1944.

West Texas Utilities Company ("West Texas") and Pecos Valley Power & Light Company ("Pecos Valley"), indirect subsidiaries of The Middle West Corporation, a registered holding company, having filed a joint application and declaration and amendments thereto pursuant to sections 10, 11 (e) and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-43 thereunder, regarding (a) the purchase by West Texas of all the assets and property of Pecos Valley at a price equal to (1) the face amount of the net free assets of Pecos Valley and (2) $937,860 (less certain adjustments) for property subject to an existing mortgage, (b) distribution of the proceeds to the security holders of Pecos Valley, and (c) liquidation of Pecos Valley; and

A request having been made for an appropriate order and findings of the Commission to conform to the requirements of Sections 371 and 1808 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended; and

A hearing having been held after appropriate notice, the Commission having considered the record and having made and filed its findings and opinion herein:

It is hereby ordered, That the plan providing for the acquisition by West Texas of the Pecos Valley assets and property, the proposed distribution to security holders and the liquidation of Pecos Valley is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act and is fair and equitable to the persons affected.

It is further ordered, Pursuant to the applicable provisions of said act that the aforesaid application and declaration as amended be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith and said plan be and hereby is approved subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 of the general rules and regulations promulgated under said act.

By the Commission.

WAR MANPOWER COMMISSION.

MARION, OHIO, AREA

MINIMUM WARTIME WORKWEEK

Designation of the Marion, Ohio, Area as subject to Executive Order No. 9301.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Regional Manpower Director of Region No. V by § 903.2 of War Manpower Commission Regulation No. 3, "Minimum Wartime Workweek of 48 Hours," (8 F.R. 7225), and having found that such action will aid in alleviating labor shortages which are impeding the war effort, I hereby designate the Marion, Ohio, Area as subject to the provisions of Executive Order No. 9301.

I. For the purposes of this designation the Marion Area shall include:

Marion County (all).
Morrow County (all).
Crawford County (all).
Wyandot County (all).
Hardin County (all).

II. The effective date of this designation is June 1, 1944.

III. Not later than the effective date, each employer in the Marion Area shall, in accordance with War Manpower Commission Regulation No. 3:

(a) Extend to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours, the workweek of any of his workers whose workweek can be so extended without involving the release of any worker;

(b) If extension of the workweek of any of his workers to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours would involve the release of any workers, submit to the Area Manpower Director the number and occupational classification of the workers whose release would be involved, together with proposed schedules for their release, and thereafter extend such workweek when and as directed in schedules authorized by the War Manpower Commission;

(c) File an application for a minimum wartime workweek of less than 48 hours for those workers engaged in employment in which the employer claims that a workweek of 48 hours would be impracticable in view of the nature of the operations, would not contribute to the reduction of labor requirements, or would conflict with any Federal, State or local law or regulation limiting hours of work. Such applications must be filed before May 18, 1944.

Date of issuance: April 26, 1944.

CERTAIN AREAS OF SHELBY COUNTY, ILL.

MINIMUM WARTIME WORKWEEK

Designation of certain areas in the State of Illinois as subject to Executive Order No. 9301.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Regional Manpower Director of Region VI by § 903.2 of War Manpower Commission Regulation No. 3, "Minimum Wartime Workweek of 48 Hours", and having found that such action will aid in alleviating labor shortages which are impeding the war effort, I hereby designate the following areas as subject to the provisions of Executive Order No. 9301:

The townships of Ash Grove, Flat Branch, Moweaqua, Okau, Penn, Pickaway, Richland, Ridge, Rose, Rural, Shelbyville, Town Hill, Todd Point and Windsor in Shelby County.

I. The effective date of this designation is May 15, 1944.

II. Not later than the effective date, each employer in the designated areas shall, in accordance with War Manpower Commission Regulation No. 3:

(a) Extend to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours, the workweek of any of his workers whose workweek can be so extended without involving the release of any worker;

(b) If extension of the workweek of any of his workers to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours would involve the release of any workers, submit to the Area Manpower Director the number and occupational classification of the workers whose release would be involved, together with proposed schedules for their release, and thereafter extend such workweek when and as directed in schedules authorized by the War Manpower Commission;

(c) File an application for a minimum wartime workweek of less than 48 hours for those workers engaged in employment in which the employer claims that a workweek of 48 hours would be impracticable in view of the nature of the operations, would not contribute to the reduction of labor requirements, or would conflict with any Federal, State or local law or regulation limiting hours of work.

"Minimum wartime workweek" as used in this order means a workweek of 48 hours, except in cases where a workweek of 48 hours (a) would be impracticable in view of the nature of the operations, (b) would not contribute to the reduction of labor requirements, or (c) would conflict with any Federal, State or local law or regulation limiting hours of work. In such cases "minimum wartime workweek" means the greatest number of hours (less than 48) feasible in the light of the nature of the operations, the reduction of labor requirements or the applicable Federal, State and local law or regulation, as the case may be.

Date of issuance: April 24, 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD.

SEVEN-UP BOTTLING CO., INC.

CONSENT ORDER

Seven-Up Bottling Company, Incorporated, a corporation of Huntington, West Virginia, is engaged in the bottling and distribution of non-alcoholic beverages, and was found in an investigation by the War Production Board to have used 12,000 gross of new closures made of restricted materials for the period from April 1, 1943, to October 1, 1943, for the bottling of non-alcoholic beverages, in excess of the quota permitted under the provisions of Conservation Order M-104, as then in effect. Seven-Up Bottling Company, Incorporated, admits the excess use as charged by the War Production Board and has consented to the issuance of this order.

Wherefore, upon the agreement and consent of Seven-Up Bottling Company, Incorporated, the Regional Compliance Chief and the Regional Attorney, and upon the approval of the Compliance Commissioner, It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) Seven-Up Bottling Company, Incorporated, its successors and assigns, shall, during the calendar year of 1944, reduce its use of new closures made of restricted materials to be affixed to glass containers for non-alcoholic beverages by 12,000 gross, under the quota it would otherwise be entitled to use in such a period, as defined by Limitation Order L-103-b, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Seven-Up Bottling Company, Incorporated, its successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect as of the date of issuance, and shall expire on December 31, 1944.

Issued this 1st day of May 1944.

(1) This allowance for any farm will be the sum of the following: except that in no case shall the allowance for any farm be less than $4.00.

(i) $4.00 per acre, not in excess of 10 acres, and $1.00 per acre, in excess of 10 acres, of cropland in the farm in excess of the largest acreage devoted to sugarcane at any one time in 1944.

(ii) 40 cents per acre, not in excess of 1,000 acres, and 10 cents per acre, in excess of 1,000 acres, of pastureland included in the farm but not included in the cropland, or, in Hawaii, of range land (for which the Territory tax-assessment valuation is 50 cents or more per acre) included in the farm but not included in the cropland.

(b) Payment in connection with conservation practices. Payment will be made within the limit of the conservation practice allowance established for the farm in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, for carrying out in the calendar year 1944 any of the conservation practices listed in paragraphs (c), (d), and (e), at the rates specified, provided the practices are carried out by methods and with kind of seed and other materials that conform to good farming practice, and in accordance with the specifications listed herein, and any additional specifications that may be issued by the Chief to assure that the practices will be performed in workmanlike manner and in accordance with good farming practices for the locality. No payment will be made with respect to practices carried out with labor and materials furnished entirely by any Federal or Territorial Agency or any agency of Puerto Rico. If a portion of the labor, seed, or other materials used in carrying out any practice is furnished by a Federal or Territorial Agency or any agency of Puerto Rico and this portion represents one-half or more of the total cost of the practice, no payment will be made with respect to it; if this portion represents less than one-half of the total cost of carrying out the practice, payment will be made with respect to one-half of it; Provided, That labor, seed, and materials furnished to the Territories of Alaska or Hawaii, or to Puerto Rico, or a political subdivision or agency thereof, by any agency of either Territory or of Puerto Rico, respectively, shall not be deemed to have been furnished by a "Federal or Territorial Agency" or any "Agency of

(c) Schedule of conservation practices for Alaska. (1) Interplanting leguminous crops with other crops: $2.00 per acre.

(2) Planting leguminous crops in rotation with other crops: $3.00 per acre.

(3) Using leguminous crops for green manuring: $4.00 per acre.

(4) Planting perennial varieties of protective crops on properly prepared land: $4.00 per acre.

(5) Contour strip-cropping land of 2 percent or more slope with protective crops or perennial varieties of crops which will prevent soil washing: $1.00 per acre.

(6) Seeding pasture land with good seed of adapted varieties of perennial grasses or legumes which do not require preparation of a seed bed: $0.20 per pound of seed sown.

(7) Applying crop residue on the surface of soil subject to wind erosion to promote the establishment of vegetative cover: $0.10 per cubic yard.

(8) Planting and cultivating land of 2 percent or more average slope along lines having a fall of not more than 2 percent: $4.00 per acre.

(9) Listing land along lines having a fall of not more than 2 percent for fallowing or for planting leguminous or protective crops: $0.50 per acre.

(10) Constructing permanent ditching on land of 6 percent or more average slope, with suitable outlets for the diversion of surface water to prevent soil washing. No credit will be given for ditches of more than 4 percent fall nor for any temporary field ditching. (i) When constructed on land where the topography, stoniness or size of fields requires that the ditching be constructed entirely by hand labor: $0.80 per 100 linear feet. (ii) When constructed on other land: $0.40 per 100 linear feet.

(11) Constructing a sufficient amount of continuous terrace to give adequate protection against erosion: $1.00 per 100 linear feet of terrace.

(12) Constructing and maintaining check dams in gullies: $0.10 per linear foot.

(13) Establishing a good stand of erosion-resisting perennial grasses in gullies: $0.025 per 100 square feet.

(14) Applying ground limestone or its equivalent. No credit will be given for the application of more than 2 tons per acre: $6.00 per ton.

(15) Applying phosphate to protective or leguminous crops. No credit will be given for the application of more than 100 pounds of phosphoric acid per acre: $5.00 per hundred pounds of phosphoric acid.

(d) Schedule of conservation practices in Hawaii. (1) Planting leguminous crops in rotation with other crops: $3.00 per acre.

(2) Using leguminous crops for green manuring: $4.00 per acre.

(3) Planting perennial varieties of protective crops on properly prepared land: $4.00 per acre.

(4) Seeding depleted range land with good seed of adapted varieties of perennial grasses or protective crops which do not require preparation of a seed bed. (i) For koa haole (Luceana glauca) seed; $0.10 per pound, (ii) for other varieties of seed: $0.20 per pound.

(5) Planting slips or stools of adapted varieties of perennial grasses on depleted range land: $2.00 per acre.

(6) Furrowing range land along lines having a fall of not more than 3 percent, with furrows not less than 8 inches in width and 4 inches in depth: $0.05 per 100 linear feet. No credit will be given for more than 4,000 linear feet per acre.

(7) Clearing range land heavily infested with range destroying plants: $5.00 per acre.

(8) Clearing range land lightly infested with range destroying plants: $2.00 per acre.

(9) Mowing or employing other approved means to prevent the reinfestation of cleared land. No credit will be given for mowing if the plants mowed are used for hay or sold for any purpose: $0.25 per acre for each operation within limits set by the State Office.

(10) Removing all livestock from range land, for a continuous period of more than four months, the months for which payment is made to be within the calendar year of 1944. This practice shall not be applicable to more than 25 percent of the range land included in the farm and shall not be applicable to land which normally is used for other purposes during the period in which livestock are excluded. Credit will be given for not more than eight months and only under the following conditions: (i) The deferred area is kept free of grazing; (ii) the remaining range land in the farm is not pastured to such extent as to injure the forage: $0.10 per acre month, in excess of four during which livestock are removed.

(11) Constructing permanent watersheds of galvanized iron or other approved material for accumulating rainwater for range livestock, provided other methods of furnishing or accumulating water are not available and the water is conveyed to a tank or storage reservoir: $0.025 per square foot of watershed constructed.

(12) Constructing water storage tanks of redwood, steel, or other approved material on adequate foundations or constructing reservoirs lined with concrete or stone set in mortar: $0.50 per 100 gallon capacity.

(13) Planting and cultivating land of 2 percent or more slope along lines having a fall of not more than 2 percent. (i) When the land is planted to truck crops: $4.00 per acre. (ii) When the land is planted to other crops (excluding sugarcane): $2.00 per acre. No credit will be given unless adequate ditching or terracing protection is provided in accordance with specifications covering practices 15, 16, and 19.

(14) Protecting fallowed land with furrows averaging not more than 10 feet apart and not less than 8 inches in width and 4 inches in depth, having a fall of not more than 2 percent, or, in areas subject to wind erosion, at approximately right angles to the direction of the prevailing winds. No credit will be given on land of 6 percent or more average slope unless it is protected from erosion by adequate ditching or terracing: $1.00 per acre.

(15) Constructing permanent ditching on land of 3 percent or more slope, with suitable outlets, for the removal of surface run-off water to prevent soil washing. No credit will be given for ditches having a fall of more than 2 percent, unless protected by adequate vegetative cover. (i) When constructed on land where the stoniness, or size of fields requires that the ditching be constructed entirely by hand labor: $0.25 per cubic yard of water carrying capacity. (ii) When constructed on other land: $0.40 per 100 linear fee of ditching. No credit will be given for this practice when carried out on land planted to clean cultivated crops unless practice 13 or 19, has been carried out.

(16) Constructing temporary ditching on fields of 6 percent or more slope, with suitable outlets, for the diversion of surface water to prevent soil washing. No credit will be given for ditches having a fall of more than four percent. (i) When constructed on land where the topography, stoniness, or size of fields requires that the ditching be constructed entirely by hand labor: $0.04 per cubic yard of water carrying capacity. (ii) When constructed on other land: $0.05 per 100 linear feet of ditching.

(17) Lining ditches, carrying water on a grade of two percent or more fall. Credit will be given for irrigation ditches used only for irrigation of truck or forage crops; ditches constructed in accordance with specifications of practice (15); and ditches for the discharge of water from systems of contour cultivation, ditching, or terracing. (i) When the ditch surface is lined with concrete or stone set in mortar: $0.06 per square foot of ditch surface lined. (ii) When the ditch surface is lined with plaster; or concrete, iron, or composition pipe is used: $0.03 per square foot of ditch surface lined or of the inside surface of pipe used, respectively.

(18) Establishing a protective sod lining in ditches used for removing excess water from systems of contour cultivation, ditching, or terracing: $0.25 per 100 square feet of ditch surfaced.

(19) Constructing a sufficient amount of continuous terrace to give adequate protection against erosion: $1.00 per one hundred linear feet of terrace.

(20) Constructing and maintaining check dams in gullies: $0.10 per linear foot.

(21) Establishing a good stand of erosion resistant perennial grasses in gullies: $0.05 per 100 square feet.

(22) Applying ground limestone or its equivalent. No credit will be given for the application of more than 2 tons per acre: $6.00 per ton.

(23) Applying phosphate to protective or leguminous crops. No credit will be given for the application of more than 100 pounds of phosphoric acid per acre: $5.00 per 100 pounds of phosphoric acid.

(24) Constructing and maintaining during 1944 individual terraces or catchpits among coffee trees: $0.04 per terrace or catchpit.

(25) Constructing and maintaining during 1944 individual terraces among fruit or nut trees: $0.08 per terrace.

(26) Applying coffee pulp around coffee trees. No credit will be given for application of more than 5 tons per acre: $1.00 per ton.

(e) Schedule of conservation practices for Puerto Rico. Payment will be made for not more than one practice on the same area, nor will payment be made when the total acreage on which practices were carried out is less than 3/10 acres.

(1) Planting leguminous crops: $4.00 per acre.

(2) Interplanting leguminous crops with intertilled crops (excluding sugarcane): $2.00 per acre.

(3) Planting intertilled crops (excluding sugarcane and orchards) along lines having a fall of not more than two percent on land having an average slope of from two to ten percent. Payment will be made for not more than 20 acres: $4.00 per acre.

(4) Establishing an adequate system of ditching to divert surface run-off water on land of more than 10 percent average slope, planted to intertilled crops (excluding sugarcane and orchards), provided that, (i) the ditches are of adequate size and (excepting boundary and outlet ditches) having a fall of not more than six percent, (ii) not less than 600 feet of ditches are constructed per acre: $4.00 per acre. Where the topography and stoniness of the land do not permit the construction of proper ditches, stone barriers may be constructed with the crop rows planted, as far as possible, parallel to the barriers.

§ 702.502 Division of payments; payments in connection with conservation practices. The payment earned in carrying out practices shall be paid to the producer who carried out the practices. If more than one producer contributed to the carrying out of the practices, the payment shall be divided in the proportion that the State Office determines the producers contributed to the carrying out of the practices. In making this determination, the State Office shall take into consideration the value of labor, equipment, or material contributed by each producer toward the carrying out of each practice on a particular acreage assuming that each contributed equally unless it is established to the satisfaction of the State Office that their respective contributions thereto were not in equal proportion.

§ 702.503 Increase in small payments. The total payment computed under § 702.501, for any person with respect to any farm shall be increased as follows:

(a) Any payment amounting to 71¢ or less shall be increased to $1.00;

(b) Any payment amounting to more than 71¢, but less than $1.00, shall be increased by forty percent;

(c) Any payment amounting to $1.00 or more shall be increased in accordance with the following schedule:

[2] No increase.

§ 702.504 Payments limited to $10,000. The total of all payments made in connection with programs for 1944 under section 8 of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, to any individual, partnership, or estate with respect to farms, ranching units, and turpentine places located within a single State, Territory, or possession, shall not exceed the sum of $10,000. The total of all payments made in connection with such programs to any person other than individual, partnership, or estate with respect to farms, ranching units, and turpentine places in the United States (including Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico) shall not exceed the sum of $10,000.

All or any part of any payment which has been or otherwise would be made to any person under the 1944 program may be withheld or required to be returned, if he has adopted or participated in adopting any scheme or device, including the dissolution, reorganization, revival, or formation of any corporation, partnership, estate, trust, or any other means, which was designed to evade, or would have the effect of evading, the provisions of this section.

§ 702.505 General provisions relating to payments—(a) Practices defeating purposes of the program. If the chief finds that any producer has adopted or participated in any practice which tends to defeat the purposes of the 1944 or previous programs, he may withhold or require to be refunded all or any part of any payment which has been or would be computed for such person.

(b) Failure to carry out approved erosion control measures. Payment will not be made to any person with respect to any farm which he owns or operates in a county if the State office finds that he has been negligent and careless in his farming operations by failing to carry out approved erosion-control measures on land under his control to the extent that any part of such land has become an erosion hazard during the 1944 program year to other land in the community.

(c) Depriving others of payment. If the State office finds that any person has employed any scheme or device (including coercion, fraud, or misrepresentations) the effect of which would be or has been to deprive any other person of any payment under the program, it may withhold, in whole or in part, from the person participating in or employing such a scheme or device, or require him to refund in whole or in part, the amount of any payment which has been or would otherwise be made to him in connection with the 1944 program.

(d) Payment computed and made without regard to claims. Any payment or share of payment shall be computed and made without regard to questions of title under Territorial law or laws of Puerto Rico, without deductions of claims for advance (except as provided in paragraph (e) of this section, and except for indebtedness to the United States subject to set-off orders issued by the War Food Administrator); and without regard to any claim or lien against any crop, or proceeds thereof, in favor of the owner or any other creditor.

(e) Assignments. Any person who may be entitled to any payment in connection with the 1944 program may assign his payment, in whole or in part, as security for cash loaned or advances made for the purpose of financing the making of a crop in 1944. No assignment of this kind will be recognized unless it is made in writing on Form ACP–69 in accordance with instructions (ACP–70 Revised) issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency and unless such assignment is entitled to priority, as determined under the instructions governing the recording of such assignments, issued by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency.

§ 702.506 Application for payment—(a) Persons eligible to file applications. An application for payment with respect to a farm may be made by any person for whom, under the provisions of § 702.502, a share in the payment with respect to the farm may be computed.

(b) Time and manner of filing application and information required. Payment will be made only upon application submitted through the respective State offices on or before March 31, 1945, except that the timely filing of an application by one person on a farm shall constitute the timely filing on behalf of all persons on that farm. Payment may be withheld from any person who fails to file or furnish any information required with respect to any farm which he is operating or renting to another person for a share of the crop grown thereon, or for cash or standing rent.

Any application for payment may be rejected if any form or information required is not submitted to the State office within the time fixed by the Chief. At least two weeks' notice to the public shall be given of the expiration of a time limit for filing prescribed forms or required information, any time limit to be such as affords a full and fair opportunity to those eligible to file the form or information within the period prescribed. Notice shall be given by mailing it to the office of each county agricultural extension agent, and making copies of it available to the press.

(c) Land area. All calculations involving land area in Puerto Rico will be made on the basis that one cuerda equals 0.97 acres.

§ 702.507 Appeals. Any producer may, within fifteen days after notice thereof is forwarded to or made available to him, request the State office in writing to reconsider its recommendation or determination with respect to any of the following matters affecting any farm in which he has an interest: (a) Eligibility to file an application for payment; (b) measurement, or conservation practice allowance; (c) the division of payment; or (d) any other matter affecting the right to or the amount of his payment with respect to the farm. The State office shall notify him of its decision in writing within fifteen days after receipt of a written request for reconsideration. If he is dissatisfied with the decision of the State office he may, within fifteen days after the decision is forwarded or made available to him, request the Chief to review the decision of the State office.

§ 702.508 State and regional bulletins, instructions, and forms. The Agricultural Adjustment Agency is hereby authorized to make such determinations and to prepare and issue such State and Regional bulletins, instructions and forms as may be required in administering the 1944 program.

§ 702.509 Definitions. For the purposes of the 1944 program, unless the content otherwise requires:

"Administrator" means the War Food Administrator.

"Chief" means the Chief of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency.

"Insular region" means the area included in the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, and Puerto Rico.

"State office" means the office of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency in Fairbanks, Alaska, Territory of Alaska; Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii; and San Juan, Puerto Rico, depending upon the area concerned.

"Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, trust, or estate, or other business enterprise or legal entity wherever applicable, a State, Territory, or Possession, or a political subdivision, or agency thereof.

"Producer" means any person who as landlord, tenant, or sharecropper, participates in the operation of a farm.

"Farm" means all tracts of cropland, pasture land, and other land in Alaska, Hawaii, or Puerto Rico (considering tracts located in only one of these areas) operated by one or more persons in 1944 as a single farming unit, with cropping practices, work stock, farm machinery, management, and labor substantially separate from that for any other such unit, and including any other land which serves as a watershed for the supply of water for the farm and on which any applicable conservation practice is performed.

"Cropland" means farm land which is tilled annually or in a regular rotation or is devoted to bearing or non-bearing orchards other than abandoned orchards.

"Orchards" means the acreage in planted fruit trees, nut trees, coffee trees, banana plants, or vineyards.

"Pasture land" means farm land on which the predominant growth is forage suitable for grazing and on which the spacing of any trees or shrubs is such that the land could not fairly be considered as woodland.

"Rangeland" means any land which produces or can produce forage suitable for grazing by range livestock without cultivation or general irrigation.

"Protective crops" means any of the following: all grasses, crotolaria, vetch, pigeon peas, clover, lespedeza, lupines, koa haole (Lucaena glauca).

"Leguminous crops" means any of the following: cow peas, pigeon peas, field peas, soy beans, velvet beans, sword beans, field beans.

§ 702.510 Authority, availability of funds applicability—(a) Authority. This program is approved pursuant to the authority vested in the War Food Administrator under section 7–17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act (49 Stat. 1148, 16 U. S. C. 1940 ed. 590g to 590q), and in the War Food Administrator by Executive Order No. 9322, as amended by Executive Order No. 9934.

(b) Availability of funds. The provisions of the 1944 program are necessarily subject to all legislation affecting the program as the Congress of the United States may hereafter enact; the making of payments herein provided are contingent upon whatever appropriation the Congress may hereafter provide for the purpose; and the amounts of payment will necessarily be within the limits finally determined by the appropriation, its apportionment under the provisions of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, and the extent of national participation.

(c) Applicability. The provisions of the 1944 program contained herein, except where the content otherwise indicates, are applicable only to the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii and to Puerto Rico. They do not apply to any department or bureau of the United States Government or any corporation wholly owned by the United States, or to lands owned by the United States which were acquired or reserved for conservation purposes or which are to be retained permanently under Government ownership.

The program is applicable to land owned by corporations, which are only partly owned by the United States, such as Federal Land Banks and Production Credit Administrations.

The program is also applicable to land owned by the United States or by corporations wholly owned by the United States which is farmed by private persons if such land is to be temporarily under such Government or corporation ownership and was acquired or reserved for conservation purposes. Such land shall include only that administered by the Farm Security Administration, the Reconstruction Finance Administration, the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, or the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation, unless the Agricultural Adjustment Agency finds that land administered by other agencies complies with all of the foregoing provisions for eligibility.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 2d day of May 1944.

GROVER B. HILL,
First Assistant
War Food Administrator.

Chapter XI—War Food Administration
(Distribution Orders)

[WFO 8–3]

PART 1401—DAIRY PRODUCTS

REPORTS RELATIVE TO FROZEN DAIRY FOODS AND MIX

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by War Food Order No. 8, 9 F.R. 4319 (formerly designated as Food Distribution Order No. 8, as originally issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on January 19, 1943, 8 F.R. 953, and as amended, 8 F.R. 12163), and to effectuate the purposes of said order, it is hereby ordered as follows:

§ 1401.17 Reports relative to frozen dairy foods and mix—(a) Definition. When used in this order, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent hereof, each term defined in War Food Order No. 8 shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as is set forth for such term in said War Food Order No. 8.

(b) Reports required. (1) Each processor who has not correctly completed Form FDO 8–1, "Production Report of Frozen Dairy Foods and Mix," and filed such report with the Administrator WFO–8, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., shall correctly complete said Form FDO 8–1, and mail such completed form to Administrator WFO–8, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 21 calendar days after the effective date hereof.

(2) Each processor who manufactures mix shall correctly complete Form "Dairy Products Report No. 4—Ice Cream," for each of the calendar months of April 1943 to March 1944, both dates inclusive, during which the respective processor manufactured frozen dairy foods and mix, and shall mail such completed form to the United States Department of Agriculture, P. O. Box 6910–A, Chicago, Illinois, within 21 calendar days after the effective date hereof.

(3) Each processor who manufactures mix shall correctly complete Form "Dairy Products Report No. 4—Ice Cream," for each calendar month during which the respective processor manufactures frozen dairy foods and mix, and shall, on or before the close of the tenth calendar day of the calendar month next succeeding the calendar month during which the respective processor manufactured frozen dairy foods and mix, mail such completed form to the United States Department of Agriculture, P. O. Box 6910–A, Chicago, Illinois.

(4) Each processor who purchases all of the mix used by him in the manufacture of frozen dairy foods and who utilized 5,000 pounds or more of milk solids in the manufacture of frozen dairy foods during the base period shall correctly complete Form "Dairy Products Report No. 5—Frozen Dairy Foods," for each of the calendar months of January, February, and March 1944 during which the respective processor purchased mix, and shall mail such completed form to the United States Department of Agriculture, Division of Agricultural Statistics, Washington 25, D. C., within 21 calendar days after the effective date hereof.

(5) Each processor who purchases all of the mix used by him in the manufacture of frozen dairy foods and who utilized 5,000 pounds or more of milk solids in the manufacture of frozen dairy foods during the base period shall correctly complete Form "Dairy Products Report No. 5—Frozen Dairy Foods," for each calendar month during which the respective processor purchases mix, and shall, on or before the close of the tenth calendar day of the calendar month next succeeding the calendar month during which the respective processor purchased mix, mail such completed form to the United States Department of Agriculture, Division of Agricultural Statistics, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, Washington 25, D. C.

(c) Exceptions. Each person referred to in (b) (2) or (b) (4) hereof shall not be required to complete and mail the forms as required by (b) (2) or (b) (4) hereof for any month designated therein if such person shall have correctly completed and mailed the required form for such month prior to the effective time of this order.

(d) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., May 1, 1944.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by, and subsequent reporting and record-keeping requirements will be subject to the approval of, Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1401—DAIRY PRODUCTS

DRIED SKIM MILK

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by War Food Order No. 54 (8 F.R. 7210, 9 F.R. 4319), and in order to ef-fectuate the purposes thereof, it is hereby ordered as follows:

§ 1401.179 Percentages of dried skim milk to be set aside—(a) Definitions. (1) "WFO 54" means War Food Order No. 54 (8 F.R. 7210, 9 F.R. 4319)

(2) "WFO 54–2" means War Food Order No. 54–2 (originally issued as Food Distribution Order No. 54–2, 8 F.R. 9903; and redesignated as War Food Order No. 54–2, 9 F.R. 4319).

(3) Each term defined in WFO 54 shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as set forth in said order.

(b) Percentages of dried skim milk to be set aside. Each person who is required to set aside dried skim milk pursuant to the provisions of WFO 54 shall set aside in the calendar month of May 1944, and in each succeeding calendar month, (1) a quantity of spray dried skim milk equal to 75 percent of all spray dried skim milk produced by such person during each such month, and (2) a quantity of roller dried skim milk equal to 50 percent of all roller dried skim milk produced by such person during each such month.

(c) WFO 54–2 superseded. This order supersedes in all respects WFO 54–2 except that (1) as to any violation of said WFO 54–2, or rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said WFO 54–2, prior to the effective date hereof, said WFO 54–2 shall be deemed to continue in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, liability, or appeal; and (2) as to any obligation to set aside dried skim milk, imposed on or prior to April 30, 1944, pursuant to WFO 54–2, such obligation shall continue subsequent to April 30, 1944.

(d) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., May 1, 1944.

TITLE 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs

[T.D. 51049]

PART 3—DOCUMENTATION OF VESSELS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

PART 4—VESSELS IN FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC TRADES

The Customs Regulations of 1943 are hereby amended as follows:

Section 3.13 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.13 Official number and signal letters. (a) Every documented vessel shall have an official number[1] awarded by the Commissioner of Customs. Application therefor shall be made on customs Form 1320 by the owner or his agent through the collector of customs. When the application is filed with the collector at the port designated as the home port of the vessel, the application shall be in duplicate. When the application is filed with the collector at any port other than the home port of the vessel, the application shall be in triplicate. The name or names of any former owner or owners shall be stated on the application. If there was no former owner, that fact shall be stated. In the case of corporate ownership, the application shall be signed in the corporate name by the president, secretary, or a specially authorized officer of the corporation, or by an authorized agent. In the case of a partnership, the partnership name shall be signed by one of the partners, or by a duly authorized agent. In the case of individual ownership by two or more persons, one of the owners may sign in his own name as managing owner, provided there is filed with the collector a written authorization for him to act in that capacity signed by the owners of a majority interest in the vessel. In every case the capacity in which the person signs, whether as owner, managing owner, agent, etc., shall be clearly stated below his signature. If a signature is by mark, it shall be witnessed by two persons, or acknowledged. Any acknowledgment valid under the law of the state where made may be accepted. No customs officer or employee is authorized by section 486, Tariff Act of 1930, to take such acknowledgments. (R.S. 161, secs. 2, 3, 23, Stat. 118, 119, R.S. 4177, as amended; 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2, 3, 45. E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

Paragraph (b) of § 3.13 is hereby rescinded, and paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of that section are relettered (b), (c), and (d), respectively. (R.S. 161; 5 U.S.C. 22.)

Section 3.22 is amended by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph (d) reading as follows:

§ 3.22 Issue and record of marine documents. • • •

(d) No document shall be issued to any vessel prior to the receipt by the collector of the approval of the designation of the home port by or on behalf of the owner in whose name the document is to be issued. (R.S. 161, secs. 2, 3, 23 Stat. 118, 119, R.S. 4141, R.S. 4155, as amended, 4164, as amended, R.S. 4176, 4314, as amended, 4319, as amended, 4329, as amended, sec. 1, 43 Stat. 947 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2, 3, 17, 18, 25, 34, 44, 254, 259, 271. E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

Section 3.26 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.26 Surrender of permanent documents. (a) The marine document shall be surrendered when a vessel is sold or transferred in whole or in part; when the owner of the whole or any part of a vessel dies; when a vessel has been lost, abandoned, dismantled, or taken by an enemy, or otherwise prevented from returning to the United States; when a vessel is burned or broken up; when a vessel is altered in form by being lengthened, shortened, or built upon, or is changed from one denomination to another by a change in the method of rigging or fitting; when the tonnage of a vessel is changed for any reason; when a vessel is altered so that it is no longer of the description set forth in its document; when a vessel changes from one employment to another; when a vessel is placed under foreign registry or flag; when a vessel changes her name; when the home port of a vessel is changed; when a president or secretary whose name appears on the document of a vessel owned by a corporation dies, is removed, or resigns; and when a trustee is appointed upon bankruptcy of the owner of the whole or any part of a vessel. The approval of the United States Maritime Commission of the surrender of the document of a vessel covered by a preferred mortgage shall be obtained, except as specified in note 19, § 3.30 (a) of this part. (R.S. 161, sec. 2, 23 Stat. 118, R.S. 4146, as amended, R.S. 4160, 4170, as amended, R.S. 4322, 4325, as amended, sec. 30, subsec. O (a), 41 Stat. 1004, sec. 204, 49 Stat. 1987; 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2, 23, 30, 39, 264, 267, 961 (a), 1114; E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

Section 3.26 is further amended by adding at the end thereof a new paragraph (d) reading as follows:

(d) A document need not be surrendered because of the appointment of a guardian or committee for the owner of the whole or any part of the vessel, nor because of the appointment of a receiver, either in bankruptcy or in equity, of the assets of the owner of the whole or any part of the vessel. (R.S. 161, sec. 2, 23 Stat. 118, R.S. 4170, as amended, R.S. 4325, as amended; 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2, 39, 267; E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

Section 3.32 is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.32 Sale or transfer of vessel. (a) Except as stated in § 3.35 of this part, when a documented vessel is sold or transferred in whole or in part to a citizen,[1] such vessel shall not be deemed a vessel of the United States until documented anew.

(b) In the case of the sale, gift, or conveyance (including conveyance in trust) of the whole or any part of such vessel, a written instrument in the nature of a bill of sale, which may be on customs Form 1340, 1342, 1344, 1346, or 1356, and which shall recite in full the marine document last granted to the vessel before the execution of the instrument, shall be filed with the collector of customs before a new document is granted.

(c) In case of the death of the owner of the whole or any part of such a vessel, if there is an administration of his estate, except as provided for in paragraph (e) of this section an authenticated copy of the certificate of death of the owner and of the letters of appointment of the personal representative of the deceased owner shall be filed with the collector of customs before a new document is granted to that personal representative or to his successors in interest. In such a case, an authenticated copy of the certificate of death of the owner (unless previously filed by the personal representative of the deceased owner) and of the decree of distribution shall be filed with the collector of customs before a new document is granted to the beneficiary under a will, to the person succeeding to the interest of the deceased owner in case of intestacy, or to successors in interest of either of them. The filing of the will of a deceased owner shall not be required.

(d) In case of the death intestate of the owner of the whole or any part of such a vessel, if there is no administration of his estate the collector shall forward to the Bureau a statement of all the facts and circumstances and, except as provided for in paragraph (c) of this section, an authenticated copy of the certificate of death of the owner, together with any documentary evidence in support of the claim of title presented to him, before a new document is granted to the next of kin of the deceased owner or to his successors in interest.

(e) If it is impossible to obtain an authenticated copy of the certificate of death of the deceased owner of the whole or any part of such a vessel for filing with the collector as required by paragraphs (c) or (d) of this section, other evidence of death of such deceased owner shall be filed with the collector in lieu thereof.

(f) In case of the sale or conveyance of the whole or any part of such a vessel by a guardian or committee of the owner thereof, an authenticated copy of the letters of guardianship and of the court order, if any, authorizing the transfer of title shall be filed with the collector of customs before a new document is granted.

(g) In case of the appointment of a trustee in bankruptcy of the assets of the owner of the whole or any part of such a vessel, an authenticated copy of the order of the referee or court appointing him as such shall be filed with the collector of customs before a new document is granted.

(h) The certificates, letters, decrees, orders, and other evidence of title referred to in paragraphs (c), (d), (e), (f), and (g) of this section shall not be required to recite a marine document of the vessel concerned. (R.S. 161, sec. 2, 23 Stat. 118, R.S. 4170, as amended, R.S. 4312, sec. 9, 39 Stat. 730, as amended; 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2, 39, 252, 808; E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

Paragraphs (b), (c), (e), and (f) of § 3.33 are amended to read as follows:

§ 3.33 Recording of bills of sale and mortgages. • • •

(b) No such instrument shall be accepted for recording prior to the receipt by the collector of the approval of the designation of the home port; nor unless the vessel affected is documented as a vessel of the United States or will be so documented substantially simultaneously with the recording of the instrument. If there has been more than one change in ownership of any interest in a vessel and the vessel has not been documented by the intermediate owners, all unrecorded bills of sale which are executed in the form and manner prescribed by this section may be recorded upon documentation of the vessel. No mortgage shall be accepted for recording unless the vessel which it covers was documented as a vessel of the United States at the time the mortgage was made. Any mortgage presented for recording may be on customs Form 1348.

(c) No such instrument shall be valid against any person other than the vendor, mortgagor, pledgor, grantor, the heirs or devisees of any of the foregoing, or a person having actual notice thereof, unless the instrument has been recorded in the office of the collector of customs at the home port of the vessel. If the instrument covers more than one vessel, it shall be recorded at the home port of each vessel and indexed under the name of each vessel whose home port is the port of recordation. The collector shall record all such instruments and certificates of discharge of mortgages in the order of their receipt in books to be kept for that purpose and indexed on customs Form 1360 or 1364 to show (1) the name of the vessel, (2) the names of the parties to the instrument, (3) the date and time of day the instrument was received, (4) the interest transferred, mortgaged, or discharged, (5) the book in which the instrument is recorded, (6) the number assigned to the instrument, and (7) in the case of a mortgage or certificate of discharge of mortgage, the amount and date of maturity of the mortgage.

(e) No certificate of death of the owner of any interest in a vessel, letters of appointment of the personal representative of a deceased owner, decree of distribution of the estate of a deceased owner, will of a deceased owner, letters of guardianship appointing a guardian or committee of an owner, order of a referee or court appointing a trustee in bankruptcy of the assets of an owner, nor court order authorizing the transfer of title of any interest in a vessel shall be recorded unless incorporated in a bill of sale, mortgage, hypothecation, or conveyance of an interest in a vessel of the United States.

(f) No bill of sale, conveyance, mortgage, release from mortgage, satisfaction or discharge of mortgage, assignment of mortgage, or certificate of discharge of lien shall be recorded unless previously acknowledged. Any acknowledgment valid under the laws of the state where made may be accepted. No customs officer or employee is authorized by section 486, Tariff Act of 1930, to take such acknowledgments. (R.S. 161, sec. 2, 23 Stat. 118, sec. 30, subsecs. C, H, 41 Stat. 1000, 1002, sec. 2, 43 Stat. 948; 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2, 921, 926, 1012; E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

Section 3.38 (h) is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.38 Record and endorsement of preferred mortgages and related instruments. • • •

(h) Each notice of claim of lien and certificate of discharge of lien presented to a collector shall be recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose and indexed on customs Form 1364. (R.S. 161, sec. 2, 23 Stat. 118, sec. 30, subsecs. C, D, G, W, 41 Stat. 1000, 1002, 1006, 49 Stat. 424; 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2, 921, 922, 925, 983; E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

Part 3 is further amended by adding at the end thereof a center head and two new §§ 3.80 and 3.81 reading as follows:

REGISTRATION OF PRIVATE CODE SIGNALS, HOUSE FLAGS, AND FUNNEL MARKS

§ 3.80 Application for registration of rockets, lights, or other similar code signals, house flags, or funnel marks. (a) Application for the registration of private code signals by rockets, lights, or other similar means shall be submitted in duplicate through the office of a collector of customs to the Commissioner of Customs by the owner of the vessel or vessels by which they are to be used. The application shall describe in detail the signals which it is desired to use and shall state the purpose for which they will be used.

(b) Application for the registration of a house flag or funnel marfl, or both, shall be submitted in duplicate through the office of a collector of customs to the Commissioner of Customs by the owner of the vessel or vessels on which they are to be used. The application for registration of a house flag shall describe such flag in detail, giving the colors, shape, and proportionate dimensions of the fly, field, union, or canton, and any insignia, markings, or stripes thereon in relation to the length of the hoist. Funnel marks shall be described in detail giving the colors to be used, the position of any insignia, markings, or stripes with relation to the top or collar of the funnel, the size of such insignia, markings, or stripes in relation to the diameter of the funnel, and the color of the remainder of the funnel. In addition there shall be submitted three replica drawings of the house flag or funnel, or both, drawn to scale, in the colors to be used, in ink, watercolor, oil pigments, or other permanent colors, and not exceeding 6 by 4 inches in size. (R.S. 161, secs. 2, 3, 23 Stat. 118, 119, sec. 7, 35 Stat. 426; 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2, 3, 49; E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

§ 3.81 Registration of rockets, lights, or other similar signals, house flags, or funnel marks. (a) Except as stated in paragraph (b) of this section, upon the filing of an application duly executed in accordance with § 3.80 of this part, the Commissioner of Customs will register private code signals by rockets, lights, or other similar means, house flags, and funnel marks, and will cause a description of such signals, flags, or funnel marks to be filed with the Division of the Federal Register, together with one replica drawing of the house flag or funnel mark, or both.

(b) The Commissioner will refuse to register any signals which in his opinion cannot easily be distinguished from signals of distress, signals for pilots, or signals prescribed by laws for preventing collisions. The Commissioner will also refuse to register any signal, flag, or funnel mark which is identical or nearly identical with one previously registered.

(c) Applicants will be notified of the action of the Commissioner through the office of the collector transmitting the application. (R.S. 161, secs. 2, 3, 23 Stat. 118, 119, sec. 7, 35 Stat. 426; 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2, 3, 49; E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

Section 4.1 (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 4.1 Boarding of vessels; cutter and dock passes. • • •

(c) No person, with or without the consent of the master, except a pilot, officer of the customs or coast guard, immigration officer, health officer, agent of the vessel, or consular officer, shall go on board or, except for the purpose of reporting the arrival of the vessel as required by law, leave any vessel arriving from outside the customs territory of the United States without permission of the collector of customs or the customs officer in charge until such vessel has been properly inspected by the customs and brought to the dock or anchorage at which cargo is to be laden or unladen and until all passengers and their baggage have been landed from the vessel.[2] Every person permitted to go on board shall be subject to customs and quarantine regulations. (R.S. 161, sec. 2, 23 Stat. 118, sec. 9, 22 Stat. 189, secs. 1, 2, 3, 31 Stat. 58, sec. 1, 33 Stat. 711, sec. 1, 37 Stat. 736, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759, R.S. 251; 5 U.S.C. 22, 19 U.S.C. 1624, 19 U.S.C. 66 and Sup. III; 46 U.S.C. 2, 158, 163; E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

Section 4.24 (d) as amended by T.D. 50881, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

§ 4.24 Application for refund of tonnage tax. • • •

(d) The collector of customs to whom payment was made shall make any refund authorized by the Commissioner of Customs. Unless the payment from which refund is authorized has been deposited in special deposit account, an authorized refund shall be made only to the owner of the vessel concerned or to its charterer. If the payment has been deposited in special deposit account, an authorized refund shall be made only to the payor. (R.S. 161, sec. 3, 23 Stat. 119; sec. 26, 23 Stat. 59; 5 U.S.C. 22, 18 U.S.C. 643, 46 U.S.C. 3; E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

Section 4.60 (d) is amended to read as follows:

§ 4.60 Vessels required to clear. • • •

(d) In the event that departure is delayed beyond the second day after clearance, the delay shall be reported within 72 hours after clearance to the collector who shall note the fact of detention on the certificate of clearance and on the official record of clearance. When the proposed voyage is canceled after clearance, the reason therefor shall be reported in writing within 24 hours after such cancelation and the certificate of clearance and related papers shall be surrendered. (R.S. 161, sec. 2, 23 Stat. 118, 55 Stat. 733, R.S. 4197, as amended; 5 U.S.C. 22, 19 U.S.C. 288 and Sup. III, 46 U.S.C. 2, 91, 46 U.S.C. 111 and Sup. III, 46 U.S.C. 123 and Sup. III; E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

Section 4.69 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 4.69 Shipping articles and enforcement of Seamen's Act. No vessel of the United States bound for a foreign port outside the British North American possessions, the West Indies, and Mexico, shall be granted final clearance until there has been presented to the collector at the port of final departure the shipping articles of the vessel executed in duplicate before a shipping commissioner on coast guard Form 705, 705–A, or 705–B, and the collector shall have attached his certificate on coast guard Form 1435 to the duplicate copy of the articles and returned it together with the original to the master; nor shall any vessel, bound for a foreign port, be granted final clearance until the collector is satisfied that there has been full compliance with the pertinent requirements of sections 11 and 13 of the Seamen's Act of March 4, 1915 (46 U. S. C. 599, 672), and the coast guard regulations issued thereunder, relating to allotments of wages, the language test, and the crew. (R.S. 161, sec. 2, 23 Stat. 118; 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2; E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

Section 4.80 (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 4.80 Vessels entitled to engage in coastwise trade. (a) No vessel shall transport any passenger or merchandise between points in the United States embraced within the coastwise laws, including points within a harbor, unless it is:

(1) Owned by a citizen, as defined in § 3.19 (a) and (b), and is so documented under the laws of the United States as to permit it to engage in the coastwise trade; or

(2) Owned by a citizen, as defined in § 3.19 (a) and (b), is exempt from documentation,[19] and is entitled to or, except for its tonnage, would be entitled to be enrolled and licensed or licensed for the coastwise trade; or

(3) Owned by a partnership or association in which at least a 75 percent interest is owned by such a citizen, is exempt from documentation, and is entitled to or, except for its tonnage, or citizenship of its owner, or both, would be entitled to be enrolled and licensed or licensed for the coastwise trade. (See § 3.19 (d).) (R.S. 161, sec. 2, 23 Stat. 118, R. S. 4311, sec. 2, 39 Stat. 729, as amended, sec. 27, 41 Stat. 999, as amended; 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2, 251, 802, 883; E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

Section 4.96 (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 4.96 Fisheries. • • •

(b) A vessel of the United States to be employed in fishing may be enrolled and licensed or licensed, depending upon its size, or registered. If registered, the vessel must be entitled to be enrolled and licensed or licensed for the fisheries. (See §§ 3.2 and 3.42.) (R.S. 161, sec. 2, 23 Stat. 118, R.S. 4132, as amended, R.S. 4311, 4339; 5 U.S.C. 22, 46 U.S.C. 2, 11, 251, 280; E.O. 9083; 7 F.R. 1609)

TITLE 24—HOUSING CREDIT

Chapter VII—National Housing Agency

[Reg. 60–9A]

PART 702—PRIVATE WAR HOUSING

LIMITATIONS ON TOTAL MONTHLY PAYMENTS

Sec.
702.25 General.
702.26 Definition of total monthly payments.
702.27 Applicability of this regulation.
702.28 Agency jurisdiction.
702.29 Tenant's responsibility.

AUTHORITY: §§ 702.25 to 702.29, inclusive, issued under 54 Stat. 676 as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 177, 50 U.S.C. 1152; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329 as amended by E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527, E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719, E.O. 9336, 8 F.R. 5425; W.P.B. Directive 25, 8 F.R. 8801.

§ 702.25 General. The purpose of this regulation is to define more specifically the limitations applicable to total monthly payments for private war housing rented by war workers.

§ 702.26 Definition of total monthly payments. (a) The overall limitations on the total monthly payments which owners may accept from or require of tenants of private war housing rented by war workers are specified in section 3.01 of NHA General Order No. 60–3c as follows:

> • • • the payments specified in the application for priority assistance or authority to begin construction submitted in connection with such dwelling units, which total monthly payments (unless otherwise authorized in section 4 hereof) shall in no event exceed $50 per month shelter rent per unfurnished dwelling unit plus a reasonable charge for tenant services (in no event, exceeding $3 per month per room), plus a reasonable price for garage space, plus the actual cost on a pro rata basis of tenant gas and electricity • • •

(b) The owner is required in return for the approved monthly payment to supply and suitably to maintain the dwelling unit and appurtenances described in the application.

(c) "Shelter rent," as used in connection with private war housing means the total rent approved pursuant to the PD–105, less additional charges and approved charges for tenant services.

(d) "Charges for tenant services," means the charges for those of the services listed below which are stipulated on the PD–105 and approved, and no other service charge shall be approved, allowed or collected by the owner for any other item or service:

(1) Heating and air conditioning, including heat and air conditioning supplied direct to tenants, pro rata charges for heating and air conditioning common hallways, stairways and rooms, and heating hot water for tenant use.

(2) Janitor or maid service to tenants, including cleaning of common hallways and rooms.

(3) Project lighting, including lighting of common hallways and rooms, common recreation areas and driveways, exclusive of tenant gas and electricity.

(4) Elevator service, maintenance and operating expenses, but not depreciation.

(5) Water, including cost of water supplied direct for tenant use and for use in common rooms such as laundries.

(6) Garbage and rubbish removal.

(7) Insect and rodent extermination.

(8) Extra equipment, including venetian blinds, telephone and buzzer equipment in tenant units; furniture, carpets, mats, stair treads, draperies, and recreation equipment in common areas, but not including project office furniture and similar management overhead.

(9) Cooking ranges and refrigerators or iceboxes.

(10) Ground maintenance.

NOTE: The National Housing Agency does not determine the charge permitted for household furniture and furnishings supplied for tenant use in dwelling units (as distinguished from furniture supplied in common hallways and common rooms). Such charges are determined by OPA.

(e) Other charges mentioned in the quotation in § 702.26 (a) are defined as follows:

(1) "Reasonable price for garage space" means a reasonable charge approved by the local FHA office and specified in the priority application. Such a charge will be approved only if the local FHA office determines that garage space need not be supplied as an essential part of the dwelling unit and included in the shelter rent.

(2) "Actual cost on a pro rata basis of tenant gas and electricity" means the cost to the landlord divided as equitably as possible among the tenants. Such charges may not be specified in the priority application or approved by the local FHA office.

§ 702.27 Applicability of this regulation. (a) This regulation is applicable to all private war housing rented by war workers for which a PD–105 application is submitted to the local office of the Federal Housing Administration on or after the effective date hereof.

(b) This regulation shall also apply to private war housing for which a PD–105 application was submitted to the local office of the Federal Housing Administration prior to the effective date hereof; Provided, That charges specifically authorized in the application for such housing will be permitted even though not permitted under § 702.26 of this order, And provided, further, That no increase in total monthly payment for such housing shall be effected by this regulation except upon application to the Office of the Regional Representative of the National Housing Agency, through the local office of the Federal Housing Administration, if such housing is not yet occupied, or to the Office of Price Administration if occupancy has occurred. Any increase in total monthly payment for such housing shall, after the effective date of this regulation, be authorized only in accordance with the definitions in § 702.26.

§ 702.28 Agency jurisdiction. (a) Directive 25 of the War Production Board has delegated WPB jurisdiction over matters pertaining to rents chargeable for priority-assisted private war housing, including interpretation and formulation of policy, to the National Housing Agency, and such matters will be processed by the National Housing Agency.

(b) This jurisdiction applies only to the initial rental—established prior to initial occupancy—which may be charged for private war housing. Once the housing has been occupied the National Housing Agency has no jurisdiction over changes in the rent chargeable or the facilities, equipment and services which owners shall furnish. After initial occupancy, all such matters are within the jurisdiction of the Office of Price Administration.

(c) The local offices of the Federal Housing Administration shall, in certifying as eligible a project described in a PD–105, determine that the accommodations proposed to be provided are suitable for the persons for whom intended and that the total monthly payment stated in the application is consistent with the accommodations described therein.

(d) When local FHA offices are unable to determine any question of interpretation of this regulation, they may refer the case to the NHA Regional Representative for decision. Such references should be accompanied by a full statement of all the facts and circumstances relevant to the case, together with recommendations.

(e) When Regional Representatives are unable to interpret or apply any portion of this regulation, they shall refer the appropriate question to the Office of the Administrator.

§ 702.29 Tenant's responsibility. Although landlords are responsible for maintaining the construction, equipment and condition of private war housing, none of the provisions of this regulation shall be interpreted as relieving the tenant from legal liability for waste.

This regulation shall be effective March 9, 1944.

JOHN B. BLANDFORD, Jr.,
Administrator.

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter VI—National War Labor Board

PART 802—RULES OF PROCEDURE

VIOLATION PROCEEDINGS

The following rules of procedure relative to possible violation of the Wage and Salary Stabilization Program were adopted by the National War Labor Board on July 30, 1943, and govern the procedure to be taken by officials of the National War Labor Board or Regional War Labor Boards and parties to violation proceedings.

Sec.
802.70 Preliminary inquiry.
802.71 Submission of a report to the Regional War Labor Board.
802.72 Hiring of new employees.
802.73 Conduct of hearing.
802.74 Findings of Regional War Labor Board.
802.75 Appeal to the National War Labor Board.
802.76 Review by the National War Labor Board.
802.77 Transmittal of findings to appropriate Government agencies.

AUTHORITY: §§ 802.70 to 807.77, inclusive, issued under E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871, as amended by E.O. 9381, 8 F.R. 13083; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681; Regs. of Economic Stabilization Director, 7 F.R. 8748, 8 F.R. 6489, 6490, 11960, 12139, 12238, 16702; 56 Stat. 765.

§ 802.70 Preliminary inquiry. Upon receipt of information covering a possible violation of the wage and salary stabilization program, the Regional Attorney shall institute a preliminary inquiry. If the Regional Attorney, after consultation with the employer is satisfied that no violation has occurred, the matter will be closed and the employer appropriately notified.

§ 802.71 Submission of a report to the Regional War Labor Board. At the conclusion of the preliminary inquiry, or any further or additional investigation that may be warranted, the Regional Attorney (unless satisfied that no violation has occurred) shall submit to the Regional War Labor Board a written report on the facts. If, upon consideration of such report, the Regional War Labor Board is satisfied that there is reasonable cause for believing that a violation has occurred, it may direct that the alleged violator be requested to appear at a hearing before a tripartite division, or panel of the Regional Board composed of one industry representative, one labor representative, and one public representative. At such hearing the public representative shall act as chairman.

§ 802.72 Hiring of new employees. If the situation requires such action, the employer may be called upon to show cause within such time as is deemed proper by the Regional Board, why he should not refrain from hiring any new employees at the rates reported to be in violation, pending a hearing before and a finding by the tripartite division or panel.

§ 802.73 Conduct of hearing. (a) Not less than ten days' notice of the hearing shall be served by registered mail upon the alleged violator. Such notice shall contain (1) a statement of the time and place of the hearing; (2) a concise statement of the nature of the alleged violation; (3) a statement advising the alleged violator that at the hearing he may be represented by counsel and will be given full opportunity to present written or oral testimony and to examine and cross-examine witnesses on all matters relating to the charge.

(b) For good cause shown, the hearing may be adjourned from time to time by the division or panel.

(c) Evidence in support of the charge shall be presented by the Regional Attorney. The alleged violator may, at his own expense, provide for the making of a verbatim transcript in which case a copy thereof shall be furnished without cost to the division of panel and at the regular cost for copies to any other parties to the proceeding.

(d) Timely notice of the hearing may also be sent to any other person or persons having information relating to the charge. Such persons, in the discretion of the division or panel, may be permitted to present relevant testimony.

(e) Opportunity shall be given to the alleged violator or his counsel to argue orally before the division or the panel and to present written briefs and statements.

§ 802.74 Findings of Regional War Labor Board. (a) If, at the conclusion of the hearing, a majority of the division or the panel is satisfied that the charge has been sustained by a preponderance of the evidence, it shall find accordingly.

(b) Proposed findings shall be prepared by the Regional Attorney's office and submitted within five days after the close of the hearings to the panel, and a copy thereof shall be served on the alleged violator. The findings as finally adopted shall be subscribed by the concurring members of the division or the panel, and a copy of the findings shall be served by registered mail on the alleged violator.

§ 802.75 Appeal to the National War Labor Board. (a) The findings of the division or panel shall be final, subject, however, to the right of the alleged violator or the Regional Attorney, as the case may be, within 10 days after receipt of notice of the findings, to file with the National War Labor Board an original and four copies of a petition for review (including a legal brief if he desires).

(b) Such petition shall set forth concisely the respects in which it is claimed the findings were erroneous, and shall state in detail the particular ground of the objections and shall make specific reference to those portions of the record upon which reliance is placed.

(c) If no timely petition for review is filed and if the National War Labor Board does not review on its own motion, the findings of the division or panel shall, on the day following the last day for filing a petition, stand confirmed as the findings of the National War Labor Board.

§ 802.76 Review by the National War Labor Board. Upon consideration of the petition for review, the National War Labor Board will render its decision upon the record, the objections of the parties, the replies or comments thereto, and such further oral or written argument or proof as it may require or permit. In rendering its decision, the National War Labor Board may affirm, reverse or modify the findings or send the matter back to the division or the panel for appropriate action.

§ 802.77 Transmittal of findings to appropriate Government agencies. (a) If within the ten days stated above, a petition for review is not filed, the Regional Attorney shall forward to the National War Labor Board the findings of the division or panel for transmittal, in the National War Labor Board's discretion, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the Attorney General, or any other appropriate governmental agency.

(b) If a petition for review is filed within the 10 day period above stated, the National War Labor Board shall transmit its decision and the appropriate findings to the alleged violator, the Regional Attorney, and, in its discretion to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the Attorney General, or any other appropriate governmental agency.

THEODORE W. KHEEL,
Executive Director.

TITLE 31—MONEY AND FINANCE: TREASURY

Chapter II—Fiscal Service

Subchapter A—Bureau of Accounts

[1944 Dept. Circ. 327 (Rev.)[1]]

PART 204—ISSUE OF DUPLICATES[2] OF CHECKS OF THE UNITED STATES[3]

APRIL 29, 1944.

Part 204, Subchapter A, Chapter II, Title 31 of the Code of Federal Regulations of the United States of America (appearing also as Treasury Department Circular No. 327 (Revised), dated October 27, 1939) is hereby revised to read as follows:

Sec.
204.0 Introductory.
204.1 Advice of nonreceipt or loss.
204.2 Request for duplicate check.
204.3 Issuance of duplicate check.
204.4 Procedure where disbursing officer who issued original check is dead or no longer in the service of the United States.
204.5 Receipt or recovery of original check.
204.6 Amendment of regulations.
204.7 Previous regulations superseded.

AUTHORITY: §§ 204.0 to 204.7, inclusive, issued under R.S. 3646, sec 9, 50 Stat. 482, secs. 5–7, 53 Stat. 1359, R.S. 3647, 35 Stat. 644, sec. 304, 42 Stat. 24; 31 U.S.C. 528, 31 U.S.C. 119.

§ 204.0 Introductory. The regulations in this part governing the issuance of duplicates of checks drawn by a duly authorized officer or agent of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the District Unemployment Compensation Board, on their behalf against an account or funds of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the District Unemployment Compensation Board, including instruments issued by any corporation or other entity owned or controlled by the United States, the funds of which are deposited and covered into the Treasury of the United States or deposited with the Treasurer of the United States, are hereby established pursuant to the provisions of section 3646 of the Revised Statutes of 1873, as amended (31 U.S.C. 528), and section 3647 of the Revised Statutes of 1873, as amended (31 U.S.C. 119). The requirements contained in this part must be strictly observed except as the Secretary of the Treasury, being satisfied that observance thereof is not necessary to carry out the purposes of the law and the regulations in this part may waive or modify any such requirement.

§ 204.1 Advice of nonreceipt or loss. In the event of the nonreceipt or loss of such a check, the owner, better to protect his interest, should immediately notify the Treasurer of the United States or the Federal Reserve Bank through which payable or other drawee, describing the check, stating the name of the officer or agent of the United States, the District of Columbia, the District Unemployment Compensation Board, or the corporation or entity by which the check was drawn, giving, if possible, its date, number, and amount, and requesting that payment be stopped.

Upon receipt of such request by the Treasurer of the United States and upon a determination that the check is outstanding or upon receipt of advice from a drawee other than the Treasurer that such request has been received and that the check has been found to be outstanding, a bond of indemnity (Form 2244[4]) or, in an appropriate case, an application (Form 2244a) will be prepared in the Treasurer's office and transmitted for execution by the claimant who will transmit the duly executed form to the drawer of the original check, except as otherwise provided in § 204.4.

§ 204.2 Request for duplicate check. A bond of indemnity (Form 2244) in a penal sum equal to the amount of the check or, in an appropriate case (See §§ 204.3a–204.3e), an application (Form 2244a), in substantially the form prescribed, must be executed by the claimant and submitted to the drawer of the original check except as otherwise provided in § 204.4, giving the claimant's name and residence in full, describing the check and all endorsements thereon and showing the claimant's interest therein. In the event the claimant is someone other than the payee of the original check he should present clear and satisfactory evidence of his ownership.

If executed in a foreign country, by one other than an officer or an employee of the United States, or a member of the Armed Forces of the United States, the application shall be sworn to before (a) a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States, or (b) an officer of the United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, or (c) an official of such foreign country authorized by law to administer oaths generally, and such foreign official shall affix his official seal, if any, and a diplomatic or consular officer of the United States shall certify that the foreign official who administered the oath was duly authorized under the laws of such foreign country so to act.

§ 204.3 Issuance of duplicate check. Before the close of the fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the original check was issued, the drawer will prepare a duplicate (marked "Duplicate") which must be an exact transcript of the original, special care being taken that the number, date, amount, and name of the payee correspond to those of the original. In the case of checks issued on account of public-debt obligations and transactions regarding the administration of banking and currency laws, duplicates may be issued without limitation of time. The drawer will then forward, without delay, the bond of indemnity (Form 2244) or, in an appropriate case, the application (Form 2244a), and the duplicate check to the Division of Disbursement, Treasury Department. The bond of indemnity or the application and the information obtained shall be examined by the Division of Disbursement and if satisfactory shall be scheduled and submitted to the Secretary of the Treasury for approval.

Certification of approval shall be made in writing by the Chief Disbursing Officer or the Assistant Chief Disbursing Officer on the duplicate check. Any duplicate issued pursuant to these regulations, and certified as provided above, may, if properly endorsed, be paid subject to the same rules and regulations as apply to payment of original checks.

Unless the Secretary of the Treasury deems a bond of indemnity is essential to the public interest, or unless the drawer of the check is no longer in the service of the United States, no bond of indemnity shall be required in any of the following classes of cases:

(a) If the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied that the loss, theft, destruction, mutilation, or defacement, as the case may be, occurred without fault of the owner or holder and while the check was in the custody or control of the United States, including the Postal Service when carrying mail for an officer, employee, agent, or agency of the United States when performing services in connection with an official function of the United States, but not including the Postal Service when otherwise acting solely in its capacity as a public carrier of the mail, or of a person thereunto duly authorized as lawful agent of the United States; or while it was in the course of shipment effected pursuant to and in accordance with regulations issued under the provisions of the Government Losses in Shipment Act, as amended;

(b) If substantially the entire check is presented and surrendered by the owner or holder and the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied as to the identity of the check presented and that any missing portions are not sufficient to form the basis of a valid claim against the United States; and in cases where the circumstances justify such action, a letter of application may be accepted in lieu of Form 2244a;

(c) If the Secretary of the Treasury is satisfied that the original check is not negotiable and cannot be made the basis of a valid claim against the United States;

(d) If the amount of the check is less than $50 and the check has not been endorsed by the payee;

(e) If the owner or holder is the United States or an officer or employee thereof in his official capacity, a State, the District of Columbia, a Territory or possession of the United States, including the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands, a municipal corporation or political subdivision of any of the foregoing, a corporation the whole of whose capital is owned by the United States, a foreign government, or a Federal Reserve Bank.

§ 204.4 Procedure where disbursing officer who issued original check is dead or no longer in the service of the United States. In case of the loss of a check issued by an officer or agent (other than the Secretary of the Treasury, or the Treasurer of the United States) who is dead or no longer in the service of the United States, the bond required to be furnished by the owner of said check to an officer or agent in the service of the United States, prior to the issuance of a duplicate check, should be forwarded to the Division of Disbursement, Treasury Department, which will refer it to the General Accounting Office for examination and the statement of an account in favor of the owner of said check, as provided in section 3647 of the Revised Statutes of 1873, as amended (31 U.S.C. 119), and section 307 of the act approved June 10, 1921 (42 Stat. 25; 31 U.S.C. 47). Payment will then be made by a check issued pursuant to such statement of account.

§ 204.5 Receipt or recovery of original check. If the original check is received or recovered after stoppage of payment has been requested, but before a duplicate check has been received, the Treasurer of the United States, or the Federal Reserve Bank through which payable, or other drawee, shall be immediately advised that the stoppage request may be disregarded. This notice should be signed by the owner of the check who requested the stoppage and should be mailed by the owner or drawer in time to reach the Treasurer or the Federal Reserve Bank through which payable, or other drawee, before the check is presented for payment.

If the original check is received or recovered after a duplicate has been received, the duplicate must not be cashed, but must be immediately forwarded to Division of Disbursement, Treasury Department, Washington 25, D. C., for cancelation.

If the original check is received or recovered after the duplicate has been cashed, the original must not be cashed, but must be immediately forwarded to Division of Disbursement, Treasury Department, Washington 25, D. C., for cancelation.

§ 204.6 Amendment of regulations. The Secretary of the Treasury may withdraw or amend at any time or from time to time any or all of the foregoing rules and regulations.

§ 204.7 Previous regulations superseded. This part supersedes Treasury Department Circular No. 327, dated October 27, 1939, and all previous regulations governing the issuance of duplicate checks.

[SEAL] D. W. BELL,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

Chapter IX—War Production Board

Subchapter B—Executive Vice-Chairman

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–524]

JOSE MARIA SALINAS

Jose Maria Salinas of Laredo, Texas, in May 1943, without authorization from the War Production Board began construction at 1020 Santa Rita Street, Laredo, Texas, consisting of remodeling a residence at an estimated cost of construction of more than $7,000, which amount exceeded the limit of $200 permitted by Conservation Order L–41 and was in violation of that order. Jose Maria Salinas was aware of War Production Board restrictions on construction, and doing this construction without authorization constituted a wilful violation of Conservation Order L–41.

These violations of Conservation Order L–41 have diverted critical materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board, and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.524 Suspension Order No. S–524. (a) Neither Jose Maria Salinas, his successors or assigns, nor any other person, shall do any construction on the premises at 1020 Santa Rita Street, Laredo, Texas, including putting up or altering the structure, unless hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

[1] The introductory paragraph of Treasury Department Circular No. 327 (Revised), dated April 29, 1944, corresponds to § 204.0 of this part, and secs. 1 to 7, inclusive, of that Circular correspond respectively to §§ 204.1 to 204.7, inclusive, of this part.

[2] The word "duplicate" as used herein means a "substitute, marked duplicate" as provided in section 3646 of the Revised Statues of 1873, as amended (31 U.S.C. 528).

[3] The forms mentioned in this part were filed as a part of the original document with the Division of the Federal Register. Copies may be obtained upon request from the office of the Division of Disbursement, U. S. Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.

[4] Filed as part of the original document.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Jose Maria Salinas, his successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on May 2, 1944.

Issued this 25th day of April 1944.

WAR PRODUCTION BOARD,
By J. JOSEPH WHELAN,
Recording Secretary.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-527]

BLOOMFIELD MANUFACTURING COMPANY

The Bloomfield Manufacturing Company, of 3333 South Wells Street, Chicago, Illinois, is a corporation engaged in the production of various war materials and metal kitchen equipment. The Company violated War Production Board orders and regulations as follows: Although instructed to operate as a PRP unit in the second quarter of 1943, the company did not do so, but extended customers' ratings to acquire critical material in violation of Priorities Regulation 11A. In May 1943, the company violated Priorities Regulation 3 in that it extended an AA-1 preference rating on 13 various purchase orders, although no such preference rating had been extended to or assigned to it, and for one such purchase order on a prospective War Department contract the company extended the rating so as to obtain critical materials to complete 624 potato cutting machines and 624 butter cutting machines above the number for which it did receive a contract. On June 3, 1943, the company extended an AA-1 preference rating for the hotplating of 3,500 basting spoons despite the fact that it had no order for these basting spoons nor had such preference rating been assigned to it, in violation of Priorities Regulation 3. During the first six months of 1943, the company placed orders by telephone, stating that an AA-1 preference rating should be accorded to them and that written confirmation would follow, but the company sent no subsequent written confirmation either as to the orders or in certification of the preference ratings used, in violation of Priorities Regulation 3. Between April 12, and May 12, 1943, the company used iron and steel to make 30 potato cutting machines to fill an order which was not a preferred order, in violation of Supplementary Limitation Order L-30-d. Between January 1, and June 15, 1943, the company processed 23,750 basting spoons in violation of Supplementary Limitation Order L-30-d. The company also failed to maintain adequate production and inventory records, in violation of Priorities Regulation No. 1.

These actions constituted wilful violations of Priorities Regulation Numbers 1, 3, and 11A, and Supplementary Limitation Order L-30-d. They have diverted scarce materials to uses not authorized by the War Production Board and have hampered and impeded the war effort of the United States. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.527 Suspension Order No. S-527. (a) The Bloomfield Manufacturing Company, Chicago, Illinois, its successors and assigns, shall not cut, shape, form, put in process, process or manufacture any metal as set forth in the lists attached to Priorities Regulation No. 13, to make any metal kitchen equipment in any of the shapes or forms as defined in any order of the L-30 series, as amended from time to time, except as hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) No person shall deliver any metal as set forth in the lists attached to Priorities Regulation No. 13 to the Bloomfield Manufacturing Company, Chicago, Illinois, its successors or assigns, if such person knows or has reason to know that such metal is to be used by the Bloomfield Manufacturing Company in violation of paragraph (a) of this order.

(c) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve the Bloomfield Manufacturing Company, its successors and assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision of any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(d) This order shall take effect on May 2, 1944, and shall expire on July 31, 1944.

Issued this 25th day of April 1944.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[PR 3, Direction 5, as Amended May 3, 1944]

RATINGS FOR LISTED CHEMICALS AND OTHER MATERIALS

The following direction is issued pursuant to Priorities Regulation 3:

(a) Purpose. Owing to the fact that the supply of certain materials is controlled by peculiar factors including their interchangeability and their use both as production materials and for MRO (maintenance, repair and operating supplies), it is necessary to provide special rules for the use of ratings in getting these materials. The purpose of this Direction is to prohibit the use of AA-1 and AA-2 blanket MRO ratings for the materials on the attached list, and to substitute in the place of these ratings, the use of production materials ratings. Where no production materials ratings are available, this direction assigns ratings which may be used in place of AA-1 and AA-2 blanket MRO ratings.

(b) Restriction on use of certain blanket MRO ratings. Blanket MRO ratings of AA-1 and AA-2 may not be used to get any of the materials on the attached list for any purpose. An exception to this prohibition, however, is a rating assigned under P-98-b when the rating is applied with the allotment symbol, MRO-P-3, and a rating assigned under P-68 where the rating is applied with the allotment symbol S-8. "Blanket MRO ratings" are defined in paragraph (e) (2) of Priorities Regulation No. 3.

(c) What ratings may be used instead. You may use any of the following ratings which may be applicable to your situation for the materials listed in this direction:

(1) Production materials ratings. If you have a rating for production materials to be physically incorporated in your product, you may use that rating to get the materials on the attached list as MRO. You may not use the MRO symbol in this case, but your allotment number and symbol, if any, assigned to your production schedule should be used. "Production materials" are defined in paragraph (b)(2) of Priorities Regulation No. 11B and Interpretation No. 1 of that regulation issued June 16, 1943, and also paragraph (b)(1) of CMP Regulation No. 3. For the purpose of this Direction, any rating assigned under Orders P-65 and P-135 are production materials ratings. The amount of these materials which are bought as MRO with any production materials rating must be deducted from your MRO quota under CMP Regulation No. 5, or any other regulation or order which places limits on your purchase of MRO.

(2) Blanket MRO rating of AA-1 lowered to AA-2X. If you have a blanket MRO rating of AA-1, you may use an AA-2X rating to get the materials listed in this direction for MRO. If a purchase order bearing a blanket MRO rating of AA-1 is served upon a seller for a product which does not appear on the attached list but which contains any materials listed under "Chemicals" on the attached list, the seller may not extend that AA-1 rating to get the necessary production materials (appearing on the attached list) to make that product. The seller may use a rating of AA-2X instead to get the necessary production materials.

(3) Blanket MRO rating of AA-2 lowered to AA-3. If you have a blanket MRO rating of AA-2, you may use an AA-3 rating to get the materials listed in this direction for MRO. If a purchase order bearing a blanket MRO rating of AA-2 is served upon a seller for a product which does not appear on the attached list but which contains any materials listed under "Chemicals" on the attached list, the seller may not extend that AA-2 rating to get the necessary production materials (appearing on the attached list) to make that product. The seller may use a rating of AA-3 instead to get the necessary production materials.

(4) Ratings for construction projects. If you have a rating for materials to be physically incorporated in a construction project, you may use that rating to get materials on the attached list for MRO for use in that construction project.

(5) Specific ratings. You may use any rating assigned by a preference rating certificate which specifically names the kinds and quantities of material rated to get the materials on the attached list.

(d) Persons engaged in several activities. If a person is engaged in several business activities to which different ratings are assigned and it is impracticable to apportion his needs for any material on the attached list between those activities, he must use the rating assigned to the activity in which he is principally engaged. For example, if a person has 75 per cent of his production devoted to filling orders bearing AA-1 production materials ratings, and 25 per cent of his production devoted to filling orders bearing other production materials ratings and it is impracticable to apportion his MRO needs between these, he may use his AA-1 production materials rating to procure items on the attached list to satisfy his entire MRO needs. Also if a person produces only one product but has more than one production rating for the materials going into that product, he must use the rating applicable to the greater portion of his production.

(e) Applications for special assistance. Any person who needs any material listed in this direction either as production material or for MRO, and is unable to get it with the rating which he has, may apply on Form WPB-541 (formerly PD-1A) to the nearest local office of the War Production Board for a higher rating.

Issued this 3d day of May 1944.

Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1312—LUMBER AND LUMBER PRODUCTS

[MPR 348,[1] Amdt. 46]

LOGS AND BOLTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation 348 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 2 (b) is amended by the addition of a new sentence at the end of the paragraph:

Sales of logs produced in the United States west of the 100th meridian, except those covered by RMPR 161, however, are exempt from this and any other price regulation, except where specific tables are set forth in Appendix F.

2. Article II is amended by the deletion from Appendix F of all tables 1 through 4.

3. Table 5 of Appendix F is amended to read as follows:

(a) The section entitled "Area" is amended to read as follows:

"Area: Montana—Missoula, Flathead, Lincoln, Lake Sanders, Ravalli, Mineral, Granite, and Powell Counties."

(b) In the listing of species add "Western White Pine—(Pinus monticola)" immediately after "Engelmann Spruce (Picea Engelmanii)."

(c) The paragraph on grading rules and maximum prices shall read as follows:

Grading Rules—All merchantable Pine logs must measure at least 8" inside the bark at the small end and must be at least 12' long. All such logs must have a net scale of at least 33⅓ of their gross contents but in no case shall a log be accepted with less than 30 board feet log scale. All merchantable logs of species other than those mentioned above must measure at least 10" inside the bark and be at least 12' long. All such logs must have a net scale of at least 50 percent of their gross contents but in no case shall a log be accepted with less than 50 board feet net log scale. All logs must be cut 4" over length to allow for trim. No charge can be made for the trim allowance.

Maximum Prices:	Per M' log scale
Western White Pine	$20.50
Ponderosa Pine	16.00
Engelmann Spruce	15.00
Other Species	14.50

These prices shall prevail f. o. b. cars at rail siding of common carrier railroad, f. o. b. barge or raft at towable waters, or delivered to the mill by truck.

This amendment shall become effective May 8, 1944.

PART 1340—FUEL

[MPR 88,[1] Amdt. 8]

FUEL OIL, GASOLINE AND LIQUEFIED PETROLEUM GAS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Maximum Price Regulation No. 88 is amended in the following respects:

1. Section 1.2 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) This regulation applies in the 48 states of the United States, District of Columbia and the territories and possessions of the United States except in the Panama Canal Zone and except in the Territory of Alaska.

2. Section 1.7 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 1.7 Transfers of business or stock in trade. This section covers cases where the business effects or stock in trade of any seller or any person are sold, leased or otherwise transferred after February 11, 1942 and the transferee carries on the business or contracts to deal in the same commodity in an establishment separated from any other establishment previously owned or operated by the transferee. In such cases the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place. His obligation to keep records and make reports shall be the same as those of the transferor. The transferor shall either preserve and make available or turn over to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the provisions of this regulation and those of the General Maximum Price Regulation where the latter were applicable.

3. Section 2.51 is revoked and the reference thereto in the index is deleted.

4. In Article III, special section 1, the words "or Table II" are added after the words "Table I" wherever such words appear in this section.

5. In Article III, special section 2, the words "or Table II" are added after the words "Table I" wherever such words appear in this section.

6. Section 4.51 is revoked and the reference thereto in the index is deleted.

[1] 8 F.R. 3718.

7. Section 6.5 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) In the Territory of Puerto Rico; at all selling levels. In the Territory of Puerto Rico on deliveries to all purchasers other than the U. S. Government, its agencies or instrumentalities, when purchased for their exclusive use, the sum of 3 cents per gallon may be added to a maximum price determined under Article V for deliveries of gasoline.

This amendment shall become effective May 8, 1944.

ARTICLE I—MAXIMUM PRICES FOR SALES OF IMPORTED DISTILLED SPIRITS AND IMPORTED WINES BY IMPORTERS

SECTION 1.1 Purposes of Article I—(a) Generally. Article I establishes maximum prices for sales of imported distilled spirits and wines by importers to any purchaser. Maximum prices for sales of bulk imported distilled spirits and bulk imported wines by persons other than the importer must be established under other applicable regulations of the Office of Price Administration or under Article II (when effective) of this regulation. Except for sales which are specifically exempted by Article V of this regulation, maximum prices for sales of packaged imported distilled spirits and packaged imported wines by persons other than the importer must be established under that article.

(b) Prior regulations, orders and interpretations superseded. Except as otherwise provided in this regulation, Article I supersedes all other maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations issued by the Office of Price Administration before August 14, 1943, with respect to sales of imported distilled spirits and wines by importers, in bulk or in packages, including the applicable provisions of the following:

(1) The General Maximum Price Regulation;[1]

(2) Section 2.12 of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14;

(3) Section 2.3 (b) of § 1499.26 of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1;

Provided, That such maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations shall remain in force with respect to a particular sale of imported distilled spirits or wine by an importer until provisions of this article become applicable thereto pursuant to section 1.11.

[1] 9 F.R. 1385.

SEC. 1.2 General rules for figuring importers' maximum prices. An importer must observe the following rules in establishing his maximum prices under this article:

(a) Division of items. He must separately price all items he has imported, in his stock at the close of his business on August 9, 1943, according to the group to which the item belongs as follows:

(1) Items which he sold or offered for sale during March 1942. He must figure his initial maximum prices for such items under section 1.4. His maximum prices for the item are to be refigured under section 1.6 if certain elements of his cost change thereafter.

(2) Items which he sold or offered for sale between April 1, 1942 and April 30, 1943, but which he did not sell or offer for sale during March 1942. He must figure his initial maximum prices for such items under section 1.5. His maximum prices for the item are to be refigured under section 1.6 if certain elements of his cost change thereafter.

(3) Items for which special pricing methods are provided in section 1.7. He must figure his maximum prices for any such item under that section, irrespective of the dates on which he previously sold or offered the item for sale. Maximum prices for such items may not be refigured under section 1.6.

(4) Items for which maximum prices are not provided by sections 1.4, 1.5, or 1.7. He must apply to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., in accordance with section 1.8, for authority to establish maximum prices for such items. Maximum prices thus established may not be refigured under section 1.6.

(b) Figuring maximum prices for each item separately. Each item of imported distilled spirits or wine to be sold or offered for sale by an importer after August 29, 1943, must have a separate maximum price. An "item" is a particular brand name, container size and formula of imported distilled spirits or wine. One item must not be considered the same as another if there is any difference in [Paragraph (b) as amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 11851, effective 8-25-43]

(1) Their brand names, or
(2) Their countries of origin, or
(3) The names of their processors, or
(4) Their container sizes (bulk as compared with bottles, quarts as compared with fifths, etc.), or
(5) Their formulae (as defined in section 7.12), or
(6) Material information contained on their labels in accordance with the United States Labeling Laws or regulations applicable to each. Age, proof, alcohol content, type designation, vintage and ingredients, as stated on the labels, shall be deemed material information.

[Subparagraph (6) as amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16928, effective 12-16-43]

(c) Customer classifications. (1) A separate maximum price must be established for an importer's sales of each item to each class of his customers in accordance with the section under which the maximum price for the item is established.

(2) Where an importer establishes maximum prices under sections 1.4, 1.5, or 1.6, his customers for sales of the item are to be classified in accordance with his March 1942 customer classification. Where an importer establishes maximum prices under section 1.7, his customers for sales of the item are to be classified only as wholesalers, primary distributing agents, monopoly states, retailers and consumers. Where an importer establishes maximum prices after application to the Office of Price Administration under section 1.8, the maximum prices thus established shall apply only to his sales to the classes of customers stated in the application, or in the order or amendment issued pursuant thereto.

(d) Discounts, allowances, price differentials and terms of sale. (1) Customary discounts, allowances and other price differentials in effect during March 1942 in accordance with an importer's March 1942 customer classifications must be applied to his maximum prices established under sections 1.4, 1.5, 1.6 and 1.7: Provided, That discounts and allowances based solely on quantity purchases (in dollars or units) need not be maintained: And, provided further, That allowances and price differentials in accordance with an importer's March 1942 customer classifications need not be maintained with respect to sales of items for which maximum prices are established under section 1.7.

(2) If an importer makes his terms of sale to a customer more onerous than those in effect during March 1942 for his sales to a customer of the same class, he must make a compensating reduction in his maximum price established under this article.

(3) If an importer directly or indirectly requires a customer to make any payment in advance of delivery (whether to the importer or to another person), the importer must reduce his maximum price established under this article for that sale by an amount equal to interest at the rate of 5 percent per annum on the amount of the advance payment from the date the payment is made to the date on which the item is delivered or the payment is refunded to the customer.

(e) Exchange rates. The costs used by an importer in figuring his maximum prices must be actual costs which he pays. Amounts paid in foreign currency must be expressed in terms of United States dollars at the actual rate of exchange paid by the importer.

(f) F. o. b. and delivered prices. (1) Where an importer's highest price charged during March 1942 to a customer of a particular class (used under sections 1.4, 1.5, or 1.6 to determine his maximum price) is a delivered price or an f. o. b. particular freight base point price, the maximum price established under those sections shall correspondingly be a delivered price or an f. o. b. particular freight base point price, as the case may be.

(2) Maximum prices provided by section 1.7 for sales of bulk imported distilled spirits and wines are prices f. o. b. port of entry. Maximum prices provided by that section for sales of domestically packaged imported distilled spirits and wines are prices f. o. b. domestic bottling plant unless otherwise expressly stated therein.

[Subparagraph (2) as amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16928, effective 12-16-43]

(g) Sales and offers to sell. (1) Where the price for a sale or for an offer to sell during a particular period of time is to be used in determining a maximum price under this article, the price for a sale completed by delivery must be used if such sale was made during that time. An offering price may be used only if no such sale was made and if it was an offering price for supply or delivery during that time, and if the offer or an acceptance thereof is supported by written evidence.

(2) Where the price for a sale or for an offer to sell during a particular period of time is to be used by an importer in determining a maximum price under this article, the price so used must be the price for an item with respect to which he was the importer during that period.

[Paragraph (g) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

SEC. 1.3 Meaning of "net cost" used in figuring importer's maximum prices under sections 1.4, 1.5, and 1.6. The "net cost" to be used by an importer to figure his maximum prices under sections 1.4, 1.5, and 1.6 is the total of the following elements of cost actually paid by him with respect to a particular purchase of the item to be priced:

(a) Purchase price. The foreign vendors' selling price (less all discounts excepting any discount for prompt payment [cash discount]), not in excess of his maximum prices under applicable regulations or orders of the Office of Price Administration in instances where his selling price is subject thereto, nor in excess of his selling price in effect on April 30, 1943, in all other instances.

(1) Including charges for transporting the item to foreign port of embarkation (where shipment to the United States port of arrival is made by water), and

(2) Including foreign customs charges and export taxes at rates not in excess of those in effect on April 30, 1943.

NOTE: Where the item is one which has not been produced in the United States or a Territory or Possession thereof, the importer, in calculating his net cost will in all cases use the price which he paid the foreign vendor or the foreign vendor's selling price in effect on April 30, 1943, whichever of the two figures is the lower. Where the item is one which has been produced in a Territory or Possession of the United States, the importer in calculating his net cost will use the price which he paid the territorial supplier or the territorial supplier's established ceiling price for sale of the item to importers, whichever of the two figures is the lower. However, if in any instance, the sale to an importer of an item produced in a Territory or Possession of the United States is not subject to the provisions of an order or regulation of the Office of Price Administration, the importer will use the price which he paid the territorial supplier or the territorial supplier's selling price in effect on April 30, 1943, whichever of the two figures is the lower.

(b) Insurance. Insurance charges for the period during which the item is in transit to the importer's receiving point, including war risk insurance at rates not in excess of applicable rates published by the War Shipping Board.

(c) Freight—(1) Items imported in packages or imported and sold in bulk. Ocean freight from foreign port of embarkation to port of arrival in continental United States (where shipment to port of arrival is made by water) or land freight from foreign shipping point to point of arrival in continental United States (where shipment to point of arrival is made by land); inland freight from port or point of arrival to port of entry, and inland freight from port of entry to the importer's customary receiving point for the item, exclusive of charges for hauling, drayage or handling within the metropolitan area of such port or point. The importer shall include only the freight he paid, figured at the rate paid.

(2) Items imported in bulk and sold in packages after domestic bottling. Ocean freight for transporting the item in bulk from foreign port of embarkation to port of arrival in the continental United States (where shipment to port of arrival is made by water) or land freight for transporting the item in bulk from foreign shipping point to point of arrival in continental United States (where shipment to point of arrival is made by land); inland freight for transporting the item in bulk from port or point of arrival to port of entry nearest the plant where bottling or rectifying is done; inland freight for transporting the item in bulk from that port of entry to such plant, and inland freight for transporting the item in packages from that bottling plant to the importer's customary shipping point for the packaged item, exclusive of charges for hauling, drayage or handling within the metropolitan area of any such port or point. The importer shall include only the freight he paid, figured at the rate paid.

(d) Taxes and United States customs duties. United States excise taxes, United States customs duties, one cent for each strip stamp affixed to individual containers, and state or local excise taxes. All taxes and customs duties shall be figured at rates in effect on November 2, 1942 and shall be included only if imposed upon and applicable to the sale of the item for which a maximum price is being figured. License, income, franchise, receipts, gross receipts, sales, use or other similar federal, state or local taxes cannot be included in "net cost."

[Sec. 1.3 amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16928, effective 12-16-43]

SEC. 1.4 Importers' initial maximum prices for items sold or offered for sale during March 1942.

NOTE: This section does not apply to any item for which special pricing methods are provided under section 1.7.

(a) Method to be used. An importer's initial maximum price for sale of an item which he sold or offered for sale during March 1942 shall be the total of the following:

(1) Net cost. His net cost (figured according to section 1.3) per unit of sale

(i) For his latest purchase of the item from his foreign supplier before May 1, 1943, or

(ii) If he made no purchase of the item between January 1, 1943 and April 30, 1943 but received from his foreign supplier a bona fide written or cable quotation offering the item for shipment between those dates, the net cost that would have been applicable to the same unit of sale if he made a purchase of the item on terms evidenced by the latest such quotation.

[Subparagraph (ii) as amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16928, effective 12-16-43]

NOTE: If a quotation is used, net cost shall be figured according to section 1.3 on the assumption that shipment was made from the foreign supplier's customary shipping point on the date the quotation was received; that the shipment arrived April 30, 1943, and that port or point of arrival and port of entry were those used for the importer's latest actual purchase of the item.

(2) Mark-up. The difference between

(i) His net cost (figured according to section 1.3) for his last purchase of the item prior to March 31, 1942 from his foreign supplier out of which he made or offered to make sales during March 1942, and

(ii) The highest price he charged during March 1942 for the unit of sale, or at which he offered to sell that unit to a customer of the particular class, exclusive of any discount for prompt payment (cash discount).

NOTE: For sales of an item he imports, an importer who also sells at wholesale or retail must not use the percentage mark-ups provided in Article V. However, an importer who, prior to August 9, 1943 operated both import and wholesale divisions, and had an established practice of selling items to independent wholesalers and billing them to his own wholesale division at prices equal to those he charged independent wholesalers, may while he continues to observe those practices, consider his wholesale division as a separate entity and use the percentage mark-ups provided in Article V to determine maximum prices for sales by his wholesale division. Similarly, an importer who prior to August 9, 1943 operated both wholesale and retail divisions and had an established practice of selling items to independent retailers and billing them to his own retail division at prices equal to those he charged independent retailers, may while he continues to observe those practices, treat his retail division in like manner.

[Note as amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 13496, effective 10-7-43]

(b) Sales to customers of a class not sold during March 1942. If an importer sold or offered an item for sale during March 1942 but did not sell or offer to sell it to a customer of a particular class and wishes to make sales of the item to customers of that class, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration in accordance with section 1.8 for authority to establish an initial maximum price for such sales.

SEC. 1.5 Importers' initial maximum prices for items sold or offered for sale between April 1, 1942 and April 30, 1943 but not sold or offered for sale during March 1942:

NOTE: This section does not apply to any item for which special pricing methods are provided under section 1.7.

(a) Method to be used. An importer's initial maximum price for sales of an item sold or offered for sale between April 1, 1942 and April 30, 1943, but which he did not sell or offer for sale during March 1942, shall be the total of the following:

(1) Net cost. His net cost (figured according to section 1.3) per unit of sale

(i) For his latest purchase of the item from his foreign supplier before May 1, 1943, or

(ii) If he made no purchases of the item between January 1, 1943 and April 30, 1943 but received from his foreign supplier a bona fide written or cable quotation offering the item for shipment between those dates, the net cost that would have been applicable to the same unit of sale if he had made a purchase of the item on terms evidenced by the latest such quotation.

[Subparagraph (ii) as amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16928, effective 12-16-43]

NOTE: If a quotation is used, net cost shall be figured according to section 1.3 on the assumption that shipment was made from the foreign supplier's customary shipping point on the date the quotation was received; that the shipment arrived April 30, 1943, and that port or point of arrival and port of entry were those used for the importer's last actual purchase of the item.

(2) Markup. The difference between:

(i) His net cost (figured according to section 1.3) for the same unit of sale from his last purchase prior to March 31, 1942 of an item of the same type designation from a foreign supplier out of which he made or offered to make sales during March 1942, and

(ii) The highest price he charged during March 1942 for the unit of sale or at which he offered to sell that unit of the item of the same type designation to a customer of the particular class, exclusive of any discount for prompt payment (cash discount).

[Subparagraph (2) as amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16928, effective 12-16-43]

NOTE: One item shall be considered of the same type designation as another only if both items are within the same classification and subclassification of identity under applicable United States labeling laws and regulations, and only if the following matters as stated on the label thereof are identical: Proof, age, vintage, alcohol content, country of origin and container size.

For sales of an item he imports, an importer who also sells at wholesale or retail must not use the percentage markups provided in Article V. However, an importer who prior to August 9, 1943 operated both import and wholesale divisions, and had an established practice of selling items to independent wholesalers and billing them to his own wholesale division at prices equal to those he charged independent wholesalers, may while he continues to observe these practices, consider his wholesale division as a separate entity and use the percentage markups provided in Article V to determine maximum prices for sales by his wholesale division. Similarly, an importer who prior to August 9, 1943 operated both wholesale and retail divisions and had an established practice of selling items to independent retailers and billing them to his own retail division at prices equal to those he charged independent retailers, may while he continues to observe these practices, treat his retail division in like manner.

[Note amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 13496, effective 10-7-43, and Am. 10]

(b) Items of a type not sold or offered for sale during March 1942 to customers of the particular class. If an importer did not during March 1942 sell or offer to sell an item of the same type as the item being priced to a customer of the particular class, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration in accordance with section 1.8 for authority to establish an initial maximum price for sales of the item to customers of that class.

(c) Report and correction of maximum prices established under section 1.5. On or before September 13, 1943, each importer shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., a report of all items for which his initial maximum prices are established under section 1.5. The Office of Price Administration may, by order, adjust any such prices which have been erroneously figured. The report shall be signed by the importer and shall contain:

[Paragraph (c) as amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16928, effective 12-16-43]

(1) A description sufficient to identify each item for which maximum prices are so established;

(2) A list of his maximum prices therefor to each class of customers, and

(3) An explanation of how those maximum prices were figured, including a description sufficient to identify the item of the same type used to establish such maximum prices.

SEC. 1.6 Changes in maximum prices for items to which sections 1.4 or 1.5 apply—(a) How long particular maximum prices for such items continue in effect. An importer's initial maximum prices for items to which sections 1.4 or 1.5 apply, and his refigured maximum prices for such items shall apply to all his sales and offers to sell of the item so priced made prior to the date on which subsequently refigured maximum prices for sales thereof become applicable in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section.

(b) When an importer must refigure his maximum prices for such items. An importer who after August 13, 1943 receives from a foreign supplier a purchase of an item for which his initial maximum prices are established under sections 1.4 or 1.5 shall, before making any sales from that purchase, determine his net cost therefor according to section 1.3.

If such net cost per unit of sale differs from the net cost per unit of sale for the latest purchase used in establishing the importer's maximum prices then in effect for the item, the importer may, if the most recent purchase shows the greater total and he must, if the most recent purchase shows the lesser total, establish refigured maximum prices for the item: Provided, That if the item is packaged imported distilled spirits or wine and the difference is 25 cents per case or less, the importer shall not establish refigured maximum prices.

(c) How an importer must refigure his maximum prices for such items. An importer required or permitted by this section to establish refigured maximum prices for an item shall determine such prices under sections 1.4 or 1.5 (according to the section he used to establish his initial maximum prices for the item), substituting however, the net cost (figured according to section 1.3) of his most recent purchase of the item for the net cost of his latest purchase thereof before May 1, 1943.

(d) When refigured maximum prices become applicable. His refigured maximum prices determined under this section shall apply to stock on hand (in bond or otherwise) and shall be the importer's maximum prices for sales of the item on and after, but not before, the 4th day (exclusive of Sundays and holidays) following receipt (in bond or otherwise) of the purchase to be used to establish such refigured maximum prices, until in turn superseded by other refigured maximum prices subsequently determined: Provided, That until, on and after the earliest effective date for prices posted or listed at the first opportunity after the 4th day (exclusive of Sundays and holidays) after receipt of such purchase, refigured maximum prices shall not apply to any sale which an importer is required by statute, ordinance, or regulation to make at a price posted or listed with a State or other public authority before receipt of such purchase.

SEC. 1.7 Special pricing methods for items not sold or offered for sale during March 1942 and which cannot be priced under section 1.5, and for certain other commodities—(a) Sales of bulk or packaged imported distilled spirits or wine not sold or offered for sale during March 1942 and which cannot be priced under section 1.5.

NOTE: Persons other than importers selling bulk imported distilled spirits or wine must establish their maximum prices under other applicable regulations of the Office of Price Administration or under Article II (when effective) of this regulation.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, an importer's maximum price for sales of any bulk or packaged imported distilled spirits or wine not sold or offered for sale during March 1942 and which cannot be priced under section 1.5, shall be a price established after application to the Office of Price Administration pursuant to section 1.8.

(b) Importer's maximum prices for certain commodities imported in bulk. An importer's maximum price for any commodity listed below, imported in bulk and sold either in bulk or in packages, shall be determined according to its base figure and type of sale indicated below, except that if the commodity he imports in bulk and bottles domestically is of the same type designation and is sold in the same container size at the same proof under the same brand name as an item which the importer imported in packages and sold or offered for sale during March 1942, his maximum price to a class of purchaser for the commodity imported in bulk and bottled domestically shall be the maximum price to the same class of purchaser which he could compute under section 1.4 for the item which he imported in packages and sold or offered for sale during March 1942.

(1) Base figures for certain imported commodities.

Commodity	Base figure
Cuban distilled gin (as defined in section 7.12)	$1.75
Cuban rum (as defined in section 7.12)	[1] 2.75
Cuban whiskey bearing an age statement or accompanied by a certificate showing age of six months or less (as defined in section 7.12)	.83
Mexican distilled gin (as defined in section 7.12)	1.90
Mexican tequilla (as defined in section 7.12)	2.10
Mexican whiskey bearing an age statement or accompanied by a certificate showing age of six months or less (as defined in section 7.12)	.83
Distilled spirits (produced in or imported from Cuba) made from cane products and flavored with aromatics	1.28
Distilled spirits (produced in or imported from Mexico) made from cane products and flavored with aromatics	1.38

[1] Or the importer's "direct cost", f. o. b. port of arrival, plus 15¢ per proof gallon, whichever figure is the lower. "Direct cost" means the price paid the foreign vendor, not in excess of the foreign vendor's selling price in effect on April 30, 1943 (less all discounts and allowances except the discount given for prompt payment) plus charges for cooperage, Cuban export tax, freight to port of arrival, loading, war risk insurance and marine insurance, wharfage, consular fees, customs broker fees, customs entry fees, and loss of merchandise and customs duty due to leakage and evaporation in shipment to the United States.

(2) When imported and sold in bulk by the importer.

NOTE: Maximum prices for sales of any such commodity in bulk by persons other than the importer must be established under other applicable regulations of the Office of Price Administration or under Article II (when applicable) of this regulation.

An importer's maximum price for sales of any such commodity imported and sold by him in bulk shall be as follows:

(i) Sales in bond. Its base figure per original proof gallon f. o. b. port of entry, plus inland freight (if paid by the importer) to transport the particular quantity from port or point of arrival in continental United States to the bonded warehouse where it is at date of sale. "Original proof gallon" shall be determined according to first customs gauge in the United States. Freight shall be figured at the carload rate in effect at the date of shipment from port or point of arrival and shall not include hauling, drayage or handling in the metropolitan area of port or point of arrival or port of entry.

(ii) Tax paid sales f. o. b. port of entry. The maximum price provided under (i) above for a sale of the same quantity, in bond, plus United States customs duties and United States excise taxes paid thereon by the importer at rates in effect on November 2, 1942. The amount of excise taxes shall be determined on the number of proof gallons according to the regauge on which they are paid. The amount of customs duties shall be determined on original proof gallons according to the first customs gauge in the United States: Provided, That where the commodity has been imported at less than 100° proof, the amount of customs duties and excise taxes shall not be in excess of that which would have been applicable if the commodity had been imported at 100° proof.

(3) When imported in bulk, bottled domestically and sold in packages.

NOTE: Persons other than the importer, bottling such commodity domestically or having it bottled for their account must establish their maximum prices for the packaged item by using the method herein provided for determination of the importer's maximum prices.

An importer's maximum price per case for sales of any such commodity imported in bulk, bottled domestically and sold in packages shall be as follows:

(i) Sales to wholesalers. The total of the following amounts paid by or for the account of the importer and applicable to the quantity in the case:

(a) The commodity's base figure per proof gallon bottled.

(b) United States customs duties and United States excise taxes at rates in effect on November 2, 1942: Provided, That where the commodity has been imported at less than 100° proof, the amount of United States customs duties and excise taxes shall not be in excess of that which would have been applicable if the commodity had been imported at 100° proof.

(c) Inland freight from port or point of arrival in continental United States to port of entry nearest the plant where bottling or rectifying is done, and inland freight from port of entry to that plant at the carload rates in effect on the respective dates of shipment. Charges for hauling, drayage, or handling within the metropolitan area of such ports or point, or within the metropolitan area about such plant shall not be included.

(d) Two percent of the total of (a), (b), and (c) above.

(e) A charge for bottling and casing as follows:

$1.50 per case of quarts or fifths.
2.10 per case of pints.
2.85 per case of half pints.

(f) Rectification tax, if any, at the rate paid: Provided, That rectification tax paid for re-processing, reconditioning or otherwise treating the imported commodity because of any defect or substandard quality of such imported commodity may not be added.

(g) $1.70 per proof gallon bottled.

(h) State and local excise taxes and one cent for each strip stamp affixed to individual containers. All taxes shall be figured at rates in effect on November 2, 1942 and shall be included only if imposed upon and applicable to the sale of the item for which a maximum price is being figured. No amount shall be added for license, income, franchise, receipts, sales, use or other similar federal, state, or local taxes.

(ii) Sales to monopoly states. The maximum price per case provided in (i) above for sales of the particular container size to wholesalers, plus the amount paid by the importer to purchase and affix monopoly state seals or stamps to individual containers in the case being priced. If the seals or stamps are affixed by the monopoly state, the amount added shall not exceed the highest amount charged for the corresponding seals or stamps and service during March 1942, and if the importer affixed the seals or stamps before delivery of the item, shall not exceed fifty cents per case.

(iii) Sales to primary distributing agents. The maximum price per case provided in (i) above for sales of the particular container size to wholesalers subject to any discount, allowance or price differential agreed upon by the particular importer and primary distributing agent.

(iv) Sales to retailers. The maximum price per case provided in (i) above for sales of the particular container size to wholesalers plus the percentage markup provided in Article V for sale of the same item by wholesalers to retailers.

Where the importer makes the sale to a retailer f. o. b. a customary shipping point other than the domestic bottling plant, he may add to his maximum price to wholesalers, before applying the markup, inland freight he pays for direct shipment from such plant to the shipping point, exclusive of charges for local hauling, drayage, or handling within the metropolitan areas of such points.

(v) Sales to consumers. The maximum price per case provided in (i) above for sales of the particular container size to wholesalers plus the percentage markup provided in Article V for sales of the same item by retailers to consumers.

Where the importer makes the sale to a consumer f. o. b. a customary shipping point other than the domestic bottling plant, he may add to his maximum price to wholesalers, before applying the markup, inland freight he pays for direct shipment from such plant to the shipping point, exclusive of charges for local hauling, drayage, or handling within the metropolitan areas of such points.

(vi) For individual container. An importer's maximum price for individual containers of such item shall be his maximum price per case for the item to a customer of the same class divided by the number of containers customarily packed in the case.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 13496, effective 10-7-43; Am. 4, 8 F.R. 13845, effective 10-13-43; Am. 5, 8 F.R. 14016, effective 10-19-43; Am. 8, 8 F.R. 16907, effective 12-20-43; Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16928, 9 F.R. 303, effective 12-16-43; and Am. 13, 9 F.R. 2747, effective 3-16-44]

SEC. 1.8 Application for authority to establish maximum prices—(a) Who shall file. An importer who seeks to sell an item for which maximum prices must be established under section 1.7 (a), or who is required by sections 1.4 or 1.5 to apply for authority to establish an initial maximum price for sales of an item to customers of a particular class, shall make application under this section.

(b) Prohibition. An importer required to make application for authority to establish a maximum price for an item shall not sell, offer to sell or deliver the item to any person (if the item is one for which maximum prices must be established under section 1.7 (a)) or to the particular class of customers (if a maximum price for sales of the item to a particular class of customers is sought under section 1.4 or 1.5) until the application is filed and authority granted. However, where an importer is required to make application for authority to establish initial maximum prices under section 1.4 or 1.5 he may, if so permitted by applicable statutes, ordinances or regulations and after making the application, continue to sell, offer to sell or deliver the item to the class of customers for which an initial maximum price is sought for 30 days after the application is made, if the sale, offer to sell, or delivery is made under an agreement with the customer to adjust the price charged to an amount no higher than the maximum price later established under this section. With respect to a particular sale which the importer is required to make at a price posted or listed with a state or other Public Authority, the importer may continue so to sell, offer to sell or deliver the item until the effective date for prices thus posted or listed at the first opportunity after the 34th day (including Sundays and holidays) after the application is made.

(c) Contents of application. The application shall be in writing, signed by the importer or his authorized agent and sent to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C. by registered mail. It shall contain the following:

(1) The importer's name and address and the name and address of the person signing the application.

(2) A description of the item for which authority to establish a maximum price is sought, including (if the item is packaged imported distilled spirits or wine) copies of the approved front label and the back label (if any) of any one individual container size of the item. The description shall also supply the following information if not disclosed by such labels:

(i) The type of item (e. g. whiskey, gin, cordial, wine, etc.)

(ii) The brand name.

(iii) The country of origin.

(iv) The name and address of the processor.

(v) If the item is imported distilled spirits, the formula thereof (as defined in section 7.12), or if the item is imported wine, the type designation thereof (as defined in section 7.12).

(vi) The container sizes to be sold.

(3) The maximum prices the importer proposes to establish for sales of the item to his classes of customers. If the importer has established initial maximum prices under sections 1.4 or 1.5 for sales of the item to certain classes of customers, the application shall also state such maximum prices and the class of customers to which each applies.

(4) The amount of his net cost (as defined in section 1.3) for his latest purchase of the item with each element thereof separately stated. If the item is produced in a territory or possession of the United States and his supplier's maximum price therefor is prescribed by an order or regulation of the Office of Price Administration, the importer shall furnish a letter from the appropriate office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction over his supplier, or other satisfactory evidence, that his supplier's price for the item does not exceed the supplier's maximum price for the sale established under applicable Office of Price Administration regulations. In all other instances, the importer shall furnish evidence in the form of invoices, offer and acceptance, documents or affidavits that the amount used as his purchase price does not exceed the corresponding amount as of April 30, 1943. Figures used to show cost of insurance and freight shall be based on firm contract or actual experience if available, and shall be substantiated by invoices, offers, documents or affidavits submitted with the application, or, where no shipment has been received, shall be stated as estimates, and computed on the assumption that shipment was made from the foreign supplier's customary shipping point on the date the quotation was received and arrived the same day at a customary point of arrival for shipments from the particular supplier.

[Subparagraph (4) as amended by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16928, effective 12-16-43]

NOTE: Where increases in the importer's purchase price have become effective after April 30, 1943, the purchase price as of that date and the amount of any subsequent increase therein shall be separately stated.

If a quotation is used, net cost shall be figured according to section 1.3 on the assumption that shipment was made from the foreign supplier's customary shipping point on the date the quotation was received and arrived the same day at a customary port or point of arrival for shipments from the particular supplier.

(5) The gross markup over net cost (as defined in section 1.5) which the importer proposes to use in establishing his maximum prices for the item to each of his classes of customers. The importer shall state whether or not he sold or offered items of the same type designation in the same container sizes for sale to customers of those classes during March 1942, and if he did, shall submit evidence in the form of invoices, offers, documents or affidavits showing that such gross markup does not exceed his March 1942 dollar and cents markup for sales of items of the same type designation in the same container size to customers of these classes.

[Subparagraph (5) added and former (5) redesignated (6) by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16928, effective 12-16-43]

(6) Any other pertinent information which the importer desires to submit.

(d) When and how authority is given or denied—(1) Approval of or objection to application. If within 30 days (including Sundays and holidays) after receipt of the application by the Office of Price Administration, the importer shall not receive notice of objection to the maximum prices proposed in the application by letter from the Office of Price Administration, he shall be deemed authorized to establish such maximum prices for sales of the item to the particular classes of customers described therein: Provided, That if within the 30-day period the Office of Price Administration shall by letter request supplemental information with respect to any matter set forth in the application, that period shall be figured from the date on which the requested supplemental information is received in writing by the Office of Price Administration. The authority so granted may be revoked by the Price Administrator at any time. Upon written request of the importer received by the Office of Price Administration within 30 days (including Sundays and holidays) after the date of a notice of objection given under this paragraph, the Office of Price Administration will issue a formal order denying authority to establish the maximum prices requested in his application.

(i) Adjustment of prices based upon estimates. If any maximum prices proposed for an item in the importer's application are based upon estimated elements of cost, and the prices for that item so proposed are, or have been approved pursuant to this section, the maximum prices so approved shall be reduced and may be increased, without further action by the Office of Price Administration, to the extent necessary to reflect any difference between the estimated expense and the actual expense for those elements on the first delivery of the item from the foreign suppliers. Within thirty days after delivery of the item, or on or before December 16, 1943, whichever is later, the importer shall report for the item to the Office of Price Administration, Beverages and Imported Foods Section, Washington, D. C. the actual expenses for the estimated elements of cost and the resulting increase or reduction in the maximum price for the item. Expenses when reported shall be substantiated by invoices or other evidence satisfactory to the Office of Price Administration.

[Subparagraph (1) added by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16928, effective 12-16-43]

(2) The Price Administrator may, at any time, by order or by amendment to this article establish maximum prices for importer's sales of particular items to one or more classes of their customers. When the Price Administrator acts by amendment, maximum prices thereby provided shall supersede an importer's maximum prices for any such item previously established by order issued under this regulation or by authority granted under (1) above and shall apply to all his sales, offers to sell, or deliveries of the item made on and after the effective date of the amendment: Provided, That where an importer's maximum price for an item have been thus established or authorized prior to the issue date of the amendment, and prior to the fifth day following that issue date he has posted or listed those prices with a state or other public authority in accordance with a statute, ordinance, or regulation requiring him to do so, the price first established or authorized shall remain in effect with respect to particular sales, offers to sell or deliveries which the importer is required to make at those prices until on and after the first effective date for prices so posted or listed by him at his first opportunity following the ninth day after the issue date of the amendment.

[Subparagraph (2) as amended by Am. 10]

(3) Compliance with price posting or listing requirements. Authority to establish maximum prices granted by the Price Administrator pursuant to application under this section or by order or by amendment to this article shall not authorize an importer to sell or offer an item for sale until after compliance with provisions of any applicable statute, ordinance or regulation requiring the posting or listing of his prices.

SEC. 1.9 Notice of maximum prices to consumers. (a) Each importer who sells or offers imported distilled spirits or wine for sale to consumers shall adopt before August 30, 1943, and thereafter continue to observe one of the following practices with respect to notifying consumers that prices charged are not in excess of maximum prices established under this article:

(1) Use of marking on individual containers. Before delivering an item to a consumer, an importer may mark on the container in plainly visible letters and figures his selling price for the particular brand and container size (exclusive of retail sales taxes), and a statement that the price so marked is his maximum price under this article or less, and his name and address. The following:

OPA price $_____
(insert amount)

(name of importer)

(address of importer)

so written or stamped on a label or on a state or local tax stamp affixed to the container shall be compliance with this requirement.

An importer who is the holder of a license or permit bearing a distinguishing number and issued under an applicable statute or ordinance, authorizing him to make sales of distilled spirits or wine to consumers may substitute such license or permit number for the statement of his name and address required hereunder.

(2) Use of a sales slip or receipt. At or before delivering any individual container of imported distilled spirits or wine to a consumer, the importer may hand the purchaser a sales slip or receipt setting forth in plainly visible letters and figures:

(i) The brand name, container size and number of individual containers of each item sold to the purchaser, and

(ii) The selling price of each such individual container, or the total selling price for all such containers (exclusive of retail sales taxes), and

(iii) The name and address of the importer and date of sale.

An importer complying with this requirement shall post and maintain in a place readily visible to consumers making purchases in his establishment a legible sign or placard reading substantially as follows:

Prices charged in this store are our OPA ceiling prices to consumers or less (exclusive of retail sales taxes).

(3) Use of price posting. An importer may post his maximum price for each item sold or offered for sale to consumers according to one of the following methods:

(i) By displaying a list of the names of each brand of imported distilled spirits or wine offered for sale to consumers, his maximum price therefor and a statement that such maximum price is his OPA ceiling price to consumers or less (exclusive of retail sales taxes). When more than one type, formula or container size of a particular brand is offered for sale each such type, formula or container size and the maximum price thereof shall be separately itemized. Such list may also contain the importer's selling price for each item described therein. The list shall be posted and maintained in a place readily visible to consumers making purchases in the importer's establishment, shall be in letters and figures plainly visible and legible to such consumers and shall be maintained complete and correct. An importer complying with this requirement shall not sell or offer any item for sale to a consumer until the item and his maximum price therefor is so listed.

(ii) Except when prohibited by statute or ordinance, an importer may mark his selling and/or maximum price for each item on the shelf, bin, rack or other holder thereof in letters plainly visible and legible to consumers making purchases in his establishment. An importer compiying with this requirement shall so maintain complete and correct markings of his selling and/or maximum prices for all items he offers for sale to consumers and shall not sell or offer any item for sale to a consumer until his selling price therefor is thus marked.

(iii) An importer posting or marking prices in accordance with (i) or (ii) above shall post and maintain in a place readily visible to consumers making purchases in his establishment a legible sign or placard reading substantially as follows:

Prices posted in this store are our OPA ceiling prices to consumers or less (exclusive of retail sales taxes).

(b) The provisions in this section shall not apply to an importer's sales of an unopened case of individual containers or to his prices therefor.

SEC. 1.10 Other provisions of this regulation applicable to sales of imported distilled spirits or wine by an importer. The following sections of Article VII of this regulation shall apply to sales of imported distilled spirits or wine by an importer:

Section 7.1 Treatment of fractional parts of a cent in figuring maximum prices.
Section 7.1a Changes in case sizes.
Section 7.2 When a sales tax may be charged in addition to a maximum price.
Section 7.2a Treatment of brokers compensation.

SEC. 1.11 Dates on which this article shall apply. This article shall apply to all sales or offers to sell of bulk or packaged imported distilled spirits and wine made by an importer on and after August 30, 1943: Provided, That this article shall not apply to any sale which an importer is required by statute, ordinance or regulation to make at a price posted or listed prior to August 14, 1943, with a state or other Public Authority (if the price so posted or listed is greater or less than that established by this article for such sale) until on and after the first effective date for prices so posted or listed at the first opportunity after August 19, 1943.

ARTICLE II—MAXIMUM PRICES FOR SALES OF CERTAIN BULK DOMESTIC DISTILLED SPIRITS BY ANY PERSON; FOR SALES OF CERTAIN RELATED COMMODITIES IN BULK BY ANY PERSON, AND FOR SALES OF BULK IMPORTED DISTILLED SPIRITS OR WINE BY PERSONS OTHER THAN THE IMPORTER THEREOF

[Article heading as amended; former sec. 2.1 revoked and new sec. 2.1 added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 13500, effective 10-7-43]

SEC. 2.1 Purposes of Article II—(a) Generally. Article II is designed to establish maximum prices for the following:

(1) Sales of certain bulk domestic distilled spirits by any person;

(2) Sales in bulk of certain products related to domestic distilled spirits when made by any person;

(3) Sales of bulk imported distilled spirits or wine by persons other than the importer thereof.

[Undesignated paragraph deleted by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(b) Prior regulations, orders and interpretations superseded. Except as otherwise provided in this regulation, Article II supersedes all other maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations issued by the Office of Price Administration before October 7, 1943, with respect to all sales to which it applies, including the applicable provisions of the following:

(1) The General Maximum Price Regulation;

(2) Article II of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14;

(3) Maximum Price Regulation No. 193,[1] as amended;

(4) Orders Nos. 1 through 5 inclusive under Maximum Price Regulation No. 193;

Provided, That such maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations shall remain in force with respect to a particular sale until provisions of this article become applicable thereto pursuant to section 2.6.

SEC. 2.2 General rules for figuring maximum prices under this article. A seller required to establish maximum prices under this article must observe the following rules with respect thereto:

(a) Customer classifications. Where a maximum price is provided by sections 2.3 or 2.4, that maximum price applies to the classes of customers specified therein, or, if no class of customers be specified, then to all classes of customers.

(b) Discounts, allowances, price differentials and terms of sale. (1) Customary discounts in effect during March 1942 in accordance with a seller's March 1942 customer classifications must be applied to his maximum prices established under this article.

(2) If a seller makes his terms of sale to a customer more onerous than those in effect during March 1942 for his sales to a customer of the same class, he must make a compensating reduction in his maximum price established under this article.

(3) If a seller directly or indirectly requires a customer to make any payment in advance of delivery (whether to the seller or to another person) the seller must reduce his maximum price established under this article for that sale by an amount equal to interest at the rate of 5% per annum on the amount of the advance payment from the date the payment is made to the date on which the item is delivered or the payment is refunded to the customer.

(c) Procedure where no maximum price is provided in this article for a particular sale. If a person desires to sell a commodity for which his maximum price must be determined under this article, and no maximum price or pricing method is otherwise provided in this article for the particular sale, that person shall make application to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C. for authority to establish such maximum price. The application shall be in writing signed by the applicant or by a duly authorized officer or agent thereof and shall state that it is filed under this section. It shall also contain the name and address of the applicant, the nature of his business, descriptions both of the commodity to be sold and of the particular sale applicant desires to make, and the maximum price which applicant desires to establish. After such application is filed, the Price Administrator may establish a maximum price for such sale by amendment to this regulation or authorize a maximum price therefor by order. Such order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time. No person required to apply hereunder for authority to establish a maximum price for a particular sale shall make that sale until after such amendment or order is issued and becomes effective: Provided, That while the request for authority to establish a maximum price is pending on such application, the Office of Price Administration may permit applicant to sell, deliver, or agree to sell or deliver under an agreement with the customer to adjust the price charged to an amount not in excess of the maximum price later established under this article. Such permission may be given only if necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 as amended, and may be given by letter or order signed by the Price Administrator, or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom authority to grant such permission has been delegated.

[Paragraph (c) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

SEC. 2.3 Maximum prices for bulk domestic whiskey and for bulk domestic brandy.

NOTE: "Bulk domestic brandy" comprehends only brandy made from grapes. See definition of brandy in section 7.12 (a) (16).

(a) Maximum prices for sales in bond. Any seller's maximum price for a sale of bulk domestic whiskey in bond on an original proof gallon basis or on a regauged proof gallon basis, whether or not made by transfer of warehouse receipt or other evidence of title, shall be determined according to the age of the whiskey and the basis of sale as set forth in paragraph (c) of this section. Any seller's maximum price for a sale in bond of bulk domestic brandy in distiller's original barrels whether or not made by transfer of warehouse receipt or other evidence of title shall be determined according to the age of the brandy to be priced as set forth in paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) Maximum prices for tax paid sales. Any seller's maximum price for a tax paid sale of bulk domestic whiskey on an original proof gallon basis or on a regauged proof gallon basis, whether or not made by transfer of warehouse receipt or other evidence of title, shall be as follows: (1) For sales on an original proof gallon basis, the maximum price per original proof gallon shall be the price set forth in paragraph (c) (1) of this section according to the age of the whiskey being priced, plus the amount of United States excise taxes at rates in effect on November 2, 1942 paid by the seller and applicable to that whiskey; (2) For sales on a regauged proof gallon basis, the maximum price per regauged proof gallon shall be the price set forth in Column 2 of paragraph (c) (2) of this section according to the age of the whiskey being priced.

Any seller's maximum price for a tax paid sale of bulk domestic brandy in distiller's original barrels, whether or not made by transfer of warehouse receipt or other evidence of title, shall be the maximum price set forth in paragraph (c) (3) of this section according to the age of the brandy being priced, plus the amount of United States excise taxes at rates in effect on November 2, 1942, paid by the seller and applicable to that brandy.

(d) Determination of age. The age of bulk domestic whiskey to be priced hereunder shall be calculated by determining the number of full months intervening between the date of entry into bond (as indicated on the warehouse receipt) to and including the date of sale. The age of bulk domestic brandy to be priced hereunder shall be calculated by determining the number of full months intervening between the date of original gauge (as indicated on the barrel) to and including the date of sale. A full month shall be the period from the date of the month of the original entry into bond or original gauge, as the case may be, to but not including, the corresponding date of the following month, and in like manner from the corresponding date of each following month.

(e) License contracts. (1) Paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this section shall not apply to sales or deliveries of bulk domestic whiskey made pursuant to a license contract entered into prior to February 3, 1943 at prices not in excess of those provided in such contract, or made pursuant to renewals after February 2, 1943 of such contracts entered into prior to February 3, 1943 if the renewal is made within 90 days after the expiration of the preceding contract or renewal at prices not in excess of those provided therein. Similarly, those paragraphs shall not apply to sales or deliveries of bulk domestic brandy made pursuant to a license contract entered into prior to October 1, 1943 at prices not in excess of those provided in such contract, or made pursuant to renewals after September 30, 1943 of such contracts entered into prior to October 1, 1943 if the renewal is made within 90 days after the expiration of the preceding contract or renewal at prices not in excess of those provided therein. Paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this section shall, except as so provided, apply to sales, offers to sell or deliveries of bulk domestic whiskey and bulk domestic brandy in distiller's original barrels made pursuant to license contracts.

(2) Except as provided in subparagraph (1) above the sale or bulk domestic whiskey pursuant to license contract entered into subsequent to February 2, 1943 or renewals thereof, or the sale of bulk domestic brandy pursuant to license contract entered into subsequent to October 1, 1943 or renewals thereof, shall not exceed the maximum prices established under paragraph (c) hereof. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the making of such license contracts, provided the prices contained therein shall not exceed the maximum prices established under paragraph (c) hereof.

[Subparagraph (2) added and former (2) redesignated (3) by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(3) Each seller of bulk domestic whiskey pursuant to a license contract entered into after March 31, 1942 and prior to February 2, 1943 and each seller of bulk domestic brandy pursuant to license contract entered into after March 31, 1942 and prior to October 1, 1943, shall file a true and correct copy of such contract with the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C. on or before November 1, 1943.

NOTE: License contracts for the sale or delivery of bulk domestic whiskey, previously filed with the Office of Price Administration in accordance with § 1420.13 (h) (3) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 193, need not be refiled.

(f) Alterations of original proof. No sales of bulk domestic whiskey or bulk domestic brandy shall be made at the maximum price per original proof gallon provided under (c) after the original proof of such whiskey or brandy has been altered, otherwise than as the result of aging. In the event the original proof of such whiskey or brandy has been altered otherwise than as the result of aging, and prices for the sale are not otherwise provided in this article, the person desiring to make the sale shall apply to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C. for authority to establish such maximum price pursuant to section 2.2 (c).

(g) Bulk domestic malt whiskey. The provisions of section 2.3 shall not apply to sales, offers to sell or deliveries of bulk domestic malt whiskey. Maximum prices for the sales of bulk domestic malt whiskey shall be established by application pursuant to section 2.2 (c).

[Paragraphs (f) and (g) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(h) Sales of bulk domestic brandy on regauged basis. The maximum price for any sale of bulk domestic brandy in distillers original barrels or otherwise whether in bond or tax paid, sold on a regauged basis, shall be determined by application to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C. pursuant to section 2.2 (c).

[Paragraph (h) added by Am. 15.]

SEC. 2.4 Maximum prices for bulk domestic grape spirits, and bulk domestic spirits-fruit, neutral brandy, high proof and high wines made from any fruits or berries except grapes—(a) For sales by the processor. The processor's maximum price to a customer of any class for a commodity to which this section applies shall be $1.11 per proof gallon naked f. o. b. processor's premises in carload quantity. For sales in less than carload quantity, the processor may add 2½ cents per proof gallon to his maximum price naked f. o. b. processor's premises in carload quantity. If the processor furnishes the containers in which the commodity is packed and such containers become the property of the customer upon delivery of the commodity, the processor may make a separate charge for the containers not in excess of his maximum price therefor.

NOTE: For sales on a delivered basis, the processor may add transportation charges per proof gallon from his point of shipment to the place of delivery at the rate actually paid (exclusive of expense of hauling, drayage or handling within the metropolitan area of such point or place.)

(b) For sales by dealers who on and prior to October 1, 1943, maintained a warehouse. (1) A dealer who, on and prior to October 1, 1943, maintained a warehouse for distribution and sale of any commodity to which this section applies shall determine his maximum price for the commodity pursuant to this paragraph.

(2) Such dealer's maximum price per proof gallon for any quantity of the commodity, naked f. o. b. dealer's shipping point shall be the total of the following:

(i) Processor's price. $1.11 per proof gallon naked f. o. b. processor's premises.

(ii) Container cost. The amount per proof gallon which the processor is authorized to and does charge the dealer as the purchase price of containers of the quantity to be priced.

(iii) Freight. Transportation charges per proof gallon from the processor's premises to the dealer's customary receiving point for the commodity at the carload rate. No amount shall be included for

(a) Transportation charges on sales f. o. b. processor's premises where shipment is made directly to the customer at the customer's expense; or

(b) Expense of hauling, drayage or handling within the metropolitan area of the shipping or receiving point.

(iv) 10¼ cents per proof gallon of the quantity to be priced.

NOTE: For sales on a delivered basis, the dealer may add transportation charges per proof gallon from his point of shipment to the place of delivery at the rate actually paid (exclusive of expense of hauling, drayage or handling within the metropolitan area of such point or place).

(c) Tax paid sales. Maximum prices for sales of bulk domestic grape spirits, and bulk domestic spirits-fruit, neutral brandy, high proof and high wines established by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section are prices in bond. If a sale is made tax paid, the seller may add to his maximum price for the quantity in bond, the amount of United States excise taxes at rates in effect on November 2, 1942 paid by him to the taxing authority or to a prior vendor with respect to that quantity.

SEC. 2.4a Maximum prices for bulk domestic neutral spirits produced from any material and bulk domestic high wines manufactured from cane or grain. Any seller's maximum price to any class of customers for sales of bulk domestic neutral spirits produced from any material or for sales of bulk domestic high wines manufactured from cane or grain (as defined in section 7.12 (a) (44) and (48)) shall be his maximum price therefor established under § 1499.2 (a) (1) of the General Maximum Price Regulation. Sellers who are unable to establish maximum prices for these items pursuant to § 1499.2 (a) (1) of General Maximum Price Regulation shall determine their maximum prices by application pursuant to section 2.2 (c).

SEC. 2.4b Maximum prices for bulk imported distilled spirits and bulk imported wines by persons other than the importer. Maximum prices for sales of bulk imported distilled spirits and bulk imported wines by persons other than the importer thereof shall be established by application pursuant to section 2.2 (c).

[Secs. 2.4a and 2.4b added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

SEC. 2.5 Maximum prices for denatured rum. Any seller's maximum price to a customer of any class for a sale of denatured rum shall be $.80 cents per wine gallon in any quantity, including the cost of barrel, drum or other container, f. o. b. seller's place of production. "Denatured rum" means that product produced in accordance with Formula No. 4 as set forth in the Appendix of Regulations No. 3 as amended, issued by the Treasury Department, Bureau of Internal Revenue.

[Sec. 2.5 added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44. Former Sections 2.5 and 2.6 added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 13500, effective 10-7-43 and redesignated Sections 2.6 and 2.7, respectively, by Am. 15]

SEC. 2.5a Provisions relating to certain distributions of bulk domestic distilled spirits—(a) Notice requirements. Any corporation, unincorporated association, cooperative association, company or partnership transferring or distributing bulk domestic distilled spirits (in the form of warehouse receipts or otherwise) to its shareholders or members or to representatives of its shareholders or members, shall give notice of the maximum prices applicable to sales of such bulk domestic distilled spirits to each shareholder or member or distributee entitled to receive or to participate therein. Such notice shall be given on or before the date of the transfer or distribution and shall be in writing stating substantially as follows:

Under OPA regulations, ceiling prices for sales of (specify type or types of domestic distilled spirits being transferred or distributed, such as bulk domestic whiskey, bulk domestic brandy, bulk domestic neutral spirits, etc.) are as follows:

(Here set forth applicable maximum prices determined pursuant to sections 2.3 (c) (1) or 2.3 (c) (2) of MPR 445 or such other sections or regulations as may apply.)

These ceiling prices are for sales in bond and apply to your resales of (specify type or types of domestic distilled spirits as above) being distributed by this company. Where sales are made tax paid, applicable U. S. excise taxes which you pay may be added. If you sell or transfer in bulk the domestic distilled spirits distributed by this company, a report of the sale must be filed within ten days thereafter, with the district office of OPA having jurisdiction over the territory in which you reside or in which your place of business is located.

OPA requires you to keep this notice for examination.

Name of company

(b) Application requirements. If the maximum price for which the bulk domestic distilled spirits may be sold by the shareholders, members or distributees must be determined by application to the OPA, the corporation, unincorporated association, cooperative association, company or partnership shall, prior to making the transfer or distribution, apply to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., for the establishment of such price, and shall state the price established pursuant to the application in the notice required to be given by paragraph (a).

(c) Prohibition. No corporation, unincorporated association, cooperative association, company or partnership shall pay to or for the account of a shareholder, member or distributee receiving or entitled to receive bulk domestic distilled spirits as the result of a corporate distribution or otherwise, as consideration for a transfer or surrender of the shareholder's, member's or distributee's rights therein, money or property exceeding in value the maximum price for a sale of the particular bulk domestic distilled spirits by the shareholder, member or distributee.

(d) Report to be filed by shareholder, member or distributee. Every person who receives bulk domestic distilled spirits (in the form of warehouse receipts or otherwise) as the result of a transfer or distribution thereof by a corporation, unincorporated association, cooperative association, company or partnership and thereafter sells or transfers the same, shall file a report of the sale or transfer with the district office of the Office of Price Administration having jurisdiction of the territory in which he resides or in which his place of business is located. Such report shall be in writing, signed by the seller, and shall be filed within ten days after the sale or transfer is made, and shall contain:

1. The name and address of the seller.
2. The name and address of the buyer.
3. The date of the sale.
4. A description sufficient to identify the character and quantity of each type of bulk domestic distilled spirits sold or transferred including, in the case of bulk domestic whiskey, the date of entry into bond as shown by the warehouse receipt, and in the case of bulk domestic brandy, the date of original gauge as shown on the barrel.
5. The total price which the buyer has paid or contracted to pay for the purchase of the bulk domestic distilled spirits described in the report.
6. The amount of any commission, brokerage or fee which the seller has contracted to pay in connection with the sale or transfer and the name and address of each person to whom payment thereof is to be or has been made.
7. Whether, to the seller's knowledge, the buyer has paid or contracted to pay any commission, brokerage or fee in connection with the sale or transfer, and, if known by the seller, the amount thereof and the name and address of each person to whom payment thereof is to be or has been made. If the seller has no knowledge of such commission, brokerage or fee which the buyer has paid or contracted to pay, the report shall so state.

ARTICLE III—MAXIMUM PRICES FOR SALES OF PACKAGED DOMESTIC DISTILLED SPIRITS BY PROCESSORS

SEC. 3.1 Purposes of Article III—(a) Generally. (1) Article III establishes maximum prices for sales of packaged domestic distilled spirits by processors to any purchaser.

(2) Maximum prices for sales of bulk domestic distilled spirits must be established under Article II of this regulation or under Maximum Price Regulation No. 193, whichever is applicable to the particular sale. Maximum prices for sales of bulk or packaged imported distilled spirits must be established under Articles I, II or V of this regulation or under the General Maximum Price Regulation, whichever is applicable to the particular sale.

(3) Maximum prices for sales of packaged domestic distilled spirits by persons other than the processor must be established under Article V of this regulation, or under Maximum Price Regulation No. 193, whichever is applicable to the particular sale.

NOTE: Article III is applicable to processors' sales of all classifications and subclassifications of packaged domestic distilled spirits, including (but not limited to) those classifications and subclassifications containing as an ingredient imported neutral spirits, imported distilled spirits, or neutral spirits derived from domestic processing of imported distilled spirits.

[Sec. 3.1 as amended by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 17415, effective 1-6-44]

SEC. 3.2 Processors' maximum prices. The maximum prices provided in this article for processors' sales of packaged domestic distilled spirits are as follows:

(a) Items sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942. The processor's maximum price for sales of an item of packaged domestic distilled spirits which he sold or offered for sale during March 1942 shall be one of the following maximum prices:

(1) For all classifications of domestic distilled spirits, the March 1942 maximum price determined as provided in Appendix A; or

(2) For domestic whiskey only, the processor may elect to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price determined as provided in Appendix E; or

(3) For all classifications of domestic distilled spirits (except where a maximum price can be established under Appendix A or where the processor elects to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price under Appendix E) the special maximum price by authorization determined as provided in Appendix F.

(b) Items of a brand name sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942, but of a different formula or container size. The processor's maximum price for sales of an item of packaged domestic distilled spirits where the brand name is the same as that for the item which he sold or offered for sale during March 1942, but the formula or container size is different, shall be one of the following maximum prices:

(1) For all classifications of domestic distilled spirits, where there is a change in container size, the converted March 1942 maximum price determined as provided in Appendix B. Where the particular change in container size is not covered in that appendix, the special maximum price by authorization determined as provided in Appendix F.

(2) For domestic whiskey, domestic gin, domestic brandy and domestic rum, where there is a change in proof, the converted March 1942 maximum price determined as provided in Appendix C. For all other classifications of domestic distilled spirits, where there is a change in proof, the special maximum price by authorization determined as provided in Appendix F.

(3) For domestic whiskey only, where there is a change in formula (other than proof), the converted March 1942 maximum price determined as provided in Appendix D. For all other classifications of domestic distilled spirits, where there is a change in formula (other than proof), the special maximum price by authorization determined as provided in Appendix F.

(4) For domestic whiskey only, the processor may elect to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price determined as provided in Appendix E.

(5) For all classifications of domestic distilled spirits (except where a maximum price can be established under Appendices B through D inclusive or where the processor elects to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price under Appendix E), the special maximum price by authorization determined as provided in Appendix F.

NOTE: Where the change in formula (other than proof) involves only a substitution of the ingredient distilled spirits for which provision is made in paragraph (d) below, such items must be priced in accordance with Appendix G where applicable. A special maximum price by authorization may not be established where a maximum price provided in the other appendices can be adjusted in accordance with the provisions of Appendix G.

(c) Items of a brand name not sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942. The processor's maximum price for sales of an item of packaged domestic distilled spirits of a brand name not sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942 shall be one of the following maximum prices:

(1) For domestic whiskey only, the prescribed uniform maximum price determined as provided in Appendix E.

(2) For all classifications of domestic distilled spirits (except for sales of domestic whiskey for which a maximum price can be established under Appendix E), the special maximum price by authorization determined as provided in Appendix F.

(d) Items in which substitution is made of certain ingredients. For sales of any item of packaged domestic distilled spirits in which imported neutral spirits, neutral spirits derived from domestic processing of imported distilled spirits, imported distilled spirits, high wines or spirits-fruit are substituted in the item, the processor's maximum price shall be a maximum price established under paragraphs (a), (b), or (c), as though no substitution had been made, adjusted for the applicable substitution as provided in Appendix G.

SEC. 3.3 General rules. Processors must observe the following rules in establishing their maximum prices under this article.

(a) Pricing methods provided in this article. (1) Article III provides several pricing methods for processors' sales of items of packaged domestic distilled spirits. Those pricing methods are set forth in detail in Appendices A through G, and specific rules are provided therein for each pricing method. One of those methods requires processors of items of domestic whiskey of a brand name not sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942 to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price for the item. That method, set forth in Appendix E, applies only to items of domestic whiskey. From time to time appendices will be added in which prescribed uniform maximum prices will likewise be provided for items of other classifications of domestic distilled spirits such as brandy, rum, gin, cordials and liqueurs. Until such time as prescribed uniform maximum prices for each of those classifications are added to this article, processors of items of those classifications of a brand name not sold or offered for sale during March 1942 must establish special maximum prices by authorization in accordance with the provisions of Appendix F.

(2) Processors of items of a brand name, container size and formula (including proof) which they sold or offered for sale during March 1942, regardless of the classification thereof, are required to establish March 1942 maximum prices under Appendix A for sales to customers of a particular class to which the item was sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942. Where the sale is to a customer of a different class, the processor must establish a special maximum price by authorization under Appendix F. However, for items of domestic whiskey the processor may elect to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price under Appendix E. Where the processor elects to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price for any item of domestic whiskey he must, after making a sale at such price, establish prescribed uniform maximum prices for all sales thereafter to any purchaser of any item of domestic whiskey bearing the same brand name.

(3) Where only the container size of an item is different from that for the item sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942, the processor, except where he elects to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price for the item, must establish a converted March 1942 maximum price under the method in Appendix B. That method is applicable to all classifications of domestic distilled spirits subject only to the qualification that the change must be from and to the sizes covered in the appendix. For other sizes, the processor must establish a special maximum price by authorization under Appendix F.

(4) Where the proof of an item of domestic whiskey, domestic brandy, domestic gin or domestic rum is different from that of the item sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942, the processor, except where he elects to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price for the item, must establish a converted March 1942 maximum price under the method provided in Appendix C. For all other classifications of domestic distilled spirits where the proof is different from that for the item sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942, the processor must establish a special maximum price by authorization under Appendix F.

(5) Where the formula (other than proof) of an item of domestic whiskey is different from that for the item sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942, the processor, except where he elects to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price for the item, must establish a converted March 1942 maximum price under the method provided in Appendix D. For all other classifications of domestic distilled spirits, where the formula (other than proof) is different from that for the item sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942, the processor must establish a special maximum price by authorization under Appendix F.

(6) In any instance where two or more changes are involved the conversion must be made first, for the change in container size; second, for the change in proof; and third, for the change in formula other than proof.

(7) Where there is a substitution of certain ingredient distilled spirits an adjustment of the maximum prices established under other provisions of this article is provided in Appendix G.

(8) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this article, converted March 1942 maximum prices as provided in Appendix D, and prescribed uniform maximum prices as provided in Appendix E cannot be established for items of domestic whiskey containing malt whiskey. For items of domestic whiskey containing malt whiskey, where the formula (other than proof) or brand name is different from that for the item sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942, the processor must establish a special maximum price by authorization under Appendix F.

(b) Figuring maximum prices for each item separately. Each item of packaged domestic distilled spirits must have a separate maximum price determined in accordance with the applicable pricing appendix. One item must not be considered the same as another if there is any difference in

(1) Their brand names,

(2) Their container sizes,

(3) Their formulae (as defined in section 7.12), or

(4) Requirements of United States labeling laws or regulations applicable to each, with respect to material information contained on their labels. Age, proof, type designation, and ingredients, as stated on the labels, shall be deemed material information. "Bottled in bond" domestic whiskey shall be deemed to be four years of age where no age statement appears on the labels.

"Item" means a particular brand name, formula and container size of packaged domestic distilled spirits of a particular classification or subclassification of identity.

"Classification" or "subclassification" of domestic distilled spirits, as used in this article, means the applicable classification or subclassification of identity contained in Articles II and III of Regulations No. 5 relating to Labeling and Advertising of Distilled Spirits, as amended, issued under the provisions of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended.

Any difference whatsoever between brand names shall be deemed to require separate pricing. For example, a change of name from "Royal King" to "Royal King Reserve" or to "Royal King Three Star" or to "Royal" is a change of brand name. However, a change of brand name when made to comply with any judicial decree, or to terminate legal proceedings to compel such change, shall not require the item to be repriced if the processor before changing the brand name, or having under such circumstances changed the brand name on or before January 6, 1944, notifies the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., in writing of the facts which require or did require the change; and if the processor receives written permission from a duly authorized officer of the Office of Price Administration to establish maximum prices for items bearing such brand name under the methods provided in this article for items of a brand name sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942.

(c) Customer classifications. (1) A separate maximum price must be established for the processor's sales of each item to each class of customers he sells in accordance with the method under which the maximum price for the item is established.

(i) Where a processor establishes a March 1942 maximum price under Appendix A, his customers for sales of the item must be classified in accordance with his March 1942 customer classifications. If the processor desires to sell the item so priced to a customer of a class to which he did not sell or offer to sell it during March 1942, he must establish a special maximum price by authorization under Appendix F.

(ii) Where a processor establishes a converted March 1942 maximum price under the Appendices B, C or D, his customers for sales of the item must be classified in accordance with his March 1942 customer classifications for sales of the item used as the base for the conversion. If the processor desires to sell the item so priced to customers of a class to which he did not sell or offer to sell the base item during March 1942, he must establish a special maximum price by authorization under Appendix F.

(iii) Where a processor establishes a prescribed uniform maximum price under Appendix E, his customers for sales of the item are to be classified only as wholesalers, monopoly states, primary distributing agents, retailers and consumers.

(iv) Where a processor establishes a special maximum price by authorization under Appendix F, the maximum price thus established shall apply only to the class of customers stated in the application or in the order, or amendment to this regulation issued pursuant thereto.

(v) Under subdivisions (i) and (ii) no purchaser shall be deemed to be in the same class as another if during March 1942, with respect to the processor's sales of items of packaged domestic distilled spirits to such persons, any difference existed in the rates of applicable taxes paid by the processor, or any difference existed in applicable transportation charges paid by the processor if the selling price was a delivered price. In no event shall a purchaser be deemed to be in the same class as another if there is any difference between such purchasers in accordance with the processor's March 1942 customer classifications or in the identity of such persons as described in the definitions in section 7.12.

(d) Discounts, allowances, price differentials and terms of sale. (1) Customary discounts, allowances and other price differentials (except "special deals" to which § 1499.4 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation applied) in effect during March 1942 in accordance with the processor's March 1942 customer classifications must be applied to his maximum prices established under this article: Provided, That discounts and allowances based solely on quantity purchases (in dollars or units) need not be maintained: And, provided further, That allowances and price differentials in accordance with the processor's March 1942 customer classifications need not be maintained with respect to sales of items for which prescribed uniform maximum prices are established.

NOTE: Nothing in the above paragraph shall be construed to prevent any sale at an amount lower than any maximum price established by this regulation. A processor need not maintain any customary discount, allowance or price differential if he reduces his maximum price by an amount which compensates all his customers of the particular class for the elimination of the discount, allowance or price differential.

(2) If a processor makes his terms of sale to a customer more onerous than those in effect during March 1942 for his sales to a customer of the same class, he must make a compensating reduction in his maximum price established under this article.

(3) If a processor directly or indirectly requires a customer to make payment in advance of delivery (whether to the processor or to another person), the processor must reduce his maximum prices established under this article for that sale by an amount equal to interest at the rate of 5 percent per annum on the amount of the advance payment from the date the payment is made to the date on which the item is delivered or the payment is refunded to the customer.

(e) F. O. B. and delivered prices. (1) Where a seller establishes a March 1942 maximum price or a converted March 1942 maximum price for an item, and the highest price at which he sold or offered to sell during March 1942 (used to determine such maximum price) was a delivered price, or an f. o. b. particular freight base point price, the maximum price thus established shall correspondingly be a delivered price or an f. o. b. particular freight base point price, as the case may be. A separate maximum price must be established for the item for each freight basing point from which shipment was made during March 1942 if the processor continues to make shipment from such freight basing point. In any instance where shipment is to be made from a freight basing point from which no shipment was made during March 1942, a special maximum price by authorization must be established under Appendix F.

(2) Prescribed uniform maximum prices are prices f. o. b. bottling plant, except as otherwise expressly provided.

(3) If a processor's maximum price is a price f. o. b. bottling plant, or f. o. b. a particular freight base point, and he desires to convert it to a delivered price for delivery to a point outside the metropolitan area of that place, he may add to his maximum price transportation charges from that place to the point of delivery at the same rate payable for the same transportation service in March 1942.

NOTE: For a definition of "transportation charges" and the method of computing them when the seller uses his own vehicle, see section 7.12 (d) (4) of Article VII.

(4) Any processor who during March 1942 maintained a practice of selling in specific territories on an average freight charge included in his selling price may continue such practice with respect to any maximum price established under this regulation, if he uses the same rates (no addition may be made for federal freight taxes) as he used in March 1942, and if he follows a uniform practice with respect to this method.

(f) Sales and offers to sell. Where the price for a sale or for an offer to sell during March 1942 is to be used in determining a maximum price under this article, the price for a sale completed by delivery during that month must be used if such sale was made. An offering price may be used only if no such sale was made during March 1942, if it was an offering price for supply or delivery during that month, and if the offer or an acceptance thereof is supported by written evidence.

Where the price for a sale or for an offer to sell during March 1942 is to be used by the processor in determining a maximum price under this article, the price so used must be the price for an item with respect to which he was the processor during March 1942.

(g) Prior regulations, orders and interpretations superseded. Except as otherwise provided in this regulation and in Supplementary Order No. 40,[1] Article III supersedes all other maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations issued by the Office of Price Administration before January 6, 1944, with respect to sales of packaged domestic distilled spirits by processors, including the applicable provisions of the following:

(1) Maximum Price Regulation No. 193.

(2) Orders Nos. 1 through 5 inclusive under Maximum Price Regulation No. 193:

Provided, That such maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations shall remain in force with respect to a particular sale of packaged domestic distilled spirits until provisions of this article become applicable thereto pursuant to section 3.7.

(h) Price posting. The processor shall post his maximum price for each item of packaged domestic distilled spirits to be sold or offered for sale to consumers by using the procedure provided in section 4.10 of Article IV for sales to consumers by processors of wines.

(i) Affixing tax stamps. No addition to a processor's maximum price established under this article shall be made for affixing federal strip stamps, State tax stamps, decalcomania insignia used in lieu of such State tax stamps, or any other stamps or insignia.

(j) Maximum prices for individual containers. The processor's maximum price for individual containers of an item to any class of customers shall be an amount determined by dividing his maximum price per case to a customer of the same class by the number of individual containers customarily packed in the case (see Appendix B for definition of case of quarts, fifths, tenths, pints and half-pints).

[Former paragraphs (f) through (k) redesignated (e) through (j) by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

SEC. 3.4 Inability to fix maximum prices. In any case where the processor is unable to establish a maximum price for a particular sale of an item of packaged domestic distilled spirits under other pricing provisions of this article, he shall establish a special maximum price by authorization in accordance with the provisions of Appendix F.

SEC. 3.5 Applicable taxes. In each instance taxes must be added to or included in a maximum price only in accordance with the specific conditions provided in each appendix to this article, and in accordance with the provisions of sections 7.2 and 7.3 of Article VII.

(a) Where pursuant to any of the provisions of this article an amount is required to be added for certain applicable taxes, the rates of such taxes must be applied only to the actual quantity packaged and sold. Taxes paid with respect to any quantity of distilled spirits lost in processing or otherwise cannot be added.

(b) For processors' sales of any item to a monopoly state, the amount of any tax which became effective after March 31, 1942, and which may be included in or added to the maximum price under the provisions of this article, shall be separately stated on the invoice issued in connection with each sale, or on a statement made in connection with any offer to sell.

(c) License, income, franchise, receipts, gross receipts, sales, use or other similar federal, state or local taxes cannot be included in or added to a maximum price established under this article, except that in certain cases a sales tax or gross receipts tax may be charged in addition to a maximum price under the conditions provided in section 7.2 of Article VII.

[Former subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) redesignated as paragraphs (a), (b) and (c); (c) amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

SEC. 3.6 Other provisions of this regulation applicable to sales for which maximum prices are established under this article. The following sections of Article VII of this regulation shall apply to sales for which maximum prices are established under this article:

Section 7.1 Treatment of fractional parts of a cent in figuring maximum prices.
Section 7.1a Changes in case sizes.
Section 7.2 When a sales tax may be charged in addition to a maximum price.
Section 7.2a Treatment of brokers compensation.
Section 7.3 When new taxes, or increases in existing taxes may be added to a maximum price.
Section 7.3a Distribution of packaged distilled spirits or wine.
Section 7.4 Use of minimum resale prices under State Fair Trade Laws.
Section 7.4a Maximum prices for sellers for whom no specific provision is made.
Section 7.5 Adjustment of maximum prices for tax exempt sales to the United States or any agency thereof.
Section 7.5a Deposit charges on containers.
Section 7.6 Certain provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation continued in effect.
Section 7.6a Licensing.
Section 7.7 Export sales.
Section 7.7a Compliance with other laws or regulations.
Section 7.8 Compliance with this regulation.
Section 7.9 Current records required.
Section 7.10 Petitions for amendment.
Section 7.11 Adjustable pricing in certain instances.
Section 7.12 Definitions.
Section 7.13 Geographical applicability.

SEC. 3.7 Dates on which this article shall apply. This article shall apply to all sales or offers to sell of items of packaged domestic distilled spirits by a processor on and after January 6, 1944, Provided, That with respect to sales of any item for which the processor is required or permitted to establish a special maximum price by authorization under Appendix F, if the processor files an application in accordance with Appendix F on or before January 21, 1944, the maximum price established for the item in accordance with Maximum Price Regulation No. 193 or other appropriate regulations or orders shall remain in force and effect until a special maximum price by authorization is established pursuant to Appendix F, or until May 21, 1944; notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (e) (1) of Appendix F of Article III, in the case of applications for the establishment of special maximum prices by authorization filed prior to March 21, 1944, the maximum prices proposed in such applications shall not be deemed authorized until May 21, 1944, unless an order establishing such maximum prices shall have been issued by the Price Administrator prior to March 21, 1944, or prior to May 21, 1944: And provided further, That this article shall not apply to any sale which the processor is required by statute, ordinance or regulation to make at a price posted or listed prior to the appropriate date referred to above, with a state or other public authority (if the price so posted or listed is greater or less than that established by this article for such sale) until on and after the first effective date for prices so posted or listed at the first opportunity following the fourth day after that date.

NOTE: In the following appendices the examples are offered for purposes of illustration only. The examples are not to be regarded as a substantive part of this regulation. They neither enlarge nor restrict the definitive provisions. The examples do not reflect the applicable amount of the increase effective April 1, 1944 in United States excise taxes.

APPENDIX A—MARCH 1942 MAXIMUM PRICES

(a) Rules for establishing maximum prices under Appendix A. (1) A March 1942 maximum price is applicable only when the brand name, formula (including proof) and container size of the item are exactly the same as those for the item sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942.

(2) A March 1942 maximum price is applicable only to sales to customers of the same class as that to which the item was sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942. For sales of the item to customers of another class, a special maximum price by authorization must be established under Appendix F.

(3) A March 1942 maximum price is inapplicable to sales of any item of domestic whiskey bearing the same brand name as an item for which the processor has established a prescribed uniform maximum price under Appendix E.

(b) Procedure for establishing March 1942 maximum prices. The processor's March 1942 maximum price per case for sales of an item to customers of a particular class is the highest price per case at which the processor sold or offered to sell the same item during March 1942 to a customer of the same class, in accordance with the processor's March 1942 customer classifications, plus the applicable amount of any new or increased federal, state or local excise tax which became effective after March 31, 1942 and before November 3, 1942: Provided, That the amount of such tax imposed is actually paid or has accrued and become payable by the processor to the proper taxing authority or to any prior vendor.

NOTE: For addition of applicable excise taxes which became effective after November 2, 1942, see section 7.3 of Article VII.

See section 3.3 (c) for rules respecting customer classifications.

The March 1942 maximum price does not include any additions permitted under MPR No. 193 for the use of high wines. Adjustments permitted in such cases must be made under Appendix G.

APPENDIX B—CONVERTED MARCH 1942 MAXIMUM PRICES FOR CHANGES IN CONTAINER SIZES

(a) Rules for establishing maximum prices under Appendix B. (1) A converted March 1942 maximum price provided in this Appendix cannot be established for an item in the same container size as that in which it was sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942.

(2) The conversion provided in this Appendix must be made from the processor's March 1942 maximum price for the largest container size of the item sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942 for which a conversion method is provided in this Appendix.

(3) The converted March 1942 maximum price is applicable only to sales to customers of the same class as that to which the base item was sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942.

(4) The converted March 1942 maximum price is applicable only where the container size sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942 and the container size to be priced are sizes covered in this Appendix. For conversions involving other sizes, a special maximum price by authorization must be established under Appendix F.

(5) The converted March 1942 maximum price is inapplicable to sales of any item of domestic whiskey bearing the same brand name as an item of domestic whiskey for which the processor has established a prescribed uniform maximum price provided in Appendix E.

(b) Procedure for establishing converted March 1942 maximum prices. The processor's converted March 1942 maximum price (for a change in container size) for sales of an item to customers of a particular class is the processor's March 1942 maximum price provided in Appendix A for the base item, adjusted for the change in container size as set forth below. The "base item" is an item of the same brand name and formula (including proof) in the largest container size (covered herein) sold or offered for sale during March 1942 to a customer of the same class, in accordance with the processor's March 1942 customer classifications.

(1) Subtract from the March 1942 maximum price per case for the base item the following charges included therein:

(i) The amount of any state or local tax (except a processing tax).

(ii) The amount of any freight or transportation charges, if the March 1942 maximum price for the base item is a delivered price.

(2) For a change from a case of quarts, pints or half-pints to a case of fifths or tenths:

(i) Subtract from the resulting figure in (1), in accordance with the container size of the base item, $1.50 for quarts, $2.10 for pints, or $2.85 for half-pints;

(ii) Multiply the resulting figure in (i) by .80; and

(iii) Add to the resulting figure in (ii) the amount of $1.50 if the size to be priced is fifths, $2.10 if tenths.

(3) For a change from a case of fifths or tenths to a case of quarts, pints or half-pints:

(i) Subtract from the resulting figure in (1), in accordance with the container size of the base item, $1.50 for fifths, or $2.10 for tenths;

(ii) Multiply the resulting figure in (i) by 1.25; and

(iii) Add to the resulting figure in (ii) the amount of $1.50 if the size to be priced is quarts, $2.10 if pints, or $2.85 if half-pints.

(4) Add to the resulting figure in subparagraphs (2) or (3), as the case may be, the following amounts:

(i) The applicable amount of freight or transportation charges, at rates in effect during March 1942, if the March 1942 maximum price for the base item is a delivered price, using the same method of calculating such charges that he used in figuring his delivered price during March 1942.

(ii) The applicable amount of any state or local excise tax at rates in effect on November 2, 1942; Provided, That the amount of such tax imposed is actually paid or has accrued and become payable by the processor to the proper taxing authority or to any prior vendor.

The resulting figure is the converted March 1942 maximum price for the changed container size covered in subparagraphs (2) or (3), as the case may be.

(5) For a change from a case of quarts, pints or half-pints to a case of any of the other such container sizes:

(i) Subtract from the March 1942 maximum price for the base item the amount of freight or transportation charges included therein if such price is a delivered price.

(ii) Add to or subtract from the resulting figure in (i) the amount indicated in the table below for the container size to be priced.

From—	To quarts	To pints	To half-pints
Quarts		+$.60	+$1.35
Pints	−$.60		+.75
Half-pints	−1.35	−.75

(iii) Add the applicable amount of freight or transportation charges at rates in effect during March 1942, if the March 1942 maximum price for the base item is a delivered price, using the same method of calculating such charges that he used in figuring his delivered price during March 1942.

The resulting figure is the converted March 1942 maximum price for the changed container size covered in subparagraph (5).

(6) For a change from a case of fifths to a case of tenths, or for a change from a case of tenths to a case of fifths:

(i) Subtract from the March 1942 maximum price for the base item the amount of freight or transportation charges included therein if such price is a delivered price.

(ii) Subtract 60 cents from the resulting figure in (i) if the size to be priced is fifths, and add 60 cents to the resulting figure in (i) if the size to be priced is tenths.

(iii) Add the applicable amount of freight or transportation charges at rates in effect during March 1942, if the March 1942 maximum price for the base item is a delivered price, using the same method of calculating such charges that he used in figuring his delivered price during March 1942.

The resulting figure is the converted March 1942 maximum price for the changed container size covered in subparagraph (6).

(7) As used in this Appendix the term:

"Case of quarts" means a total quantity of 3 wine gallons of domestic distilled spirits packaged in 12 individual containers of one-fourth wine gallon each, all enclosed in a single carton or box.

"Case of fifths" means a total quantity of 2.4 wine gallons of domestic distilled spirits packaged in 12 individual containers of one-fifth wine gallon each, all enclosed in a single carton or box.

"Case of pints" means a total quantity of 3 wine gallons of domestic distilled spirits packaged in 24 individual containers of one-eighth wine gallon each, all enclosed in a single carton or box.

"Case of half-pints" means a total quantity of 3 wine gallons of domestic distilled spirits packaged in 48 individual containers of one-sixteenth wine gallon each, all enclosed in a single carton or box.

"Case of tenths" means a total quantity of 2.4 wine gallons of domestic distilled spirits packaged in 24 individual containers of one-tenth wine gallon each, all enclosed in a single carton or box.

(c) Reports required to be filed. On or before the date of making the first sale of an item at a converted March 1942 maximum price established under this Appendix, the processor shall, by letter to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., report the maximum price so established. The letter-report shall contain the following:

(1) The name and address of the processor filing the report.

(2) A statement that the report is filed under Appendix B to Article III of MPR 445.

(3) The brand name and container size of the item which is the subject of the report.

(4) The date upon which the processor filed OPA Form 635-232-A (brand name report required under Amendment No. 6 to MPR 193) for the base item used for the conversion made under this Appendix.

(5) The converted March 1942 maximum price for the item which is the subject of the report, and a statement showing the steps (similar to those illustrated by the examples) made by the processor to figure such price, in accordance with procedure provided in this Appendix.

(6) A list of all items of the same brand name and formula sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942.

Neither acceptance nor failure to act upon a letter-report filed under this paragraph shall constitute approval by the Office of Price Administration of the maximum prices so reported.

APPENDIX C—CONVERTED MARCH 1942 MAXIMUM PRICES FOR CHANGES IN PROOF ONLY

(a) Rules for establishing maximum prices under Appendix C. (1) The conversion provided in this Appendix is applicable only to items of domestic whiskey, domestic gin, domestic brandy and domestic rum. For items of any other classification in which the proof differs from that for the item sold or offered for sale during March 1942, the processor must establish a special maximum price by authorization under Appendix F.

(2) If the processor during March 1942 sold or offered for sale two or more items differing only with respect to proof or container size, a converted March 1942 maximum price in this Appendix cannot be established for those items.

(3) The conversion provided in this Appendix must be made from the processor's March 1942 maximum price for an item of the same brand name and formula (except for the difference in proof) at the highest degree of proof sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942.

(4) The converted March 1942 maximum price is applicable only to sales to customers of the same class as that to which the base item was sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942.

(5) The converted March 1942 maximum price is inapplicable to sales of any item of domestic whiskey bearing the same brand name as an item for which the processor has established a prescribed uniform maximum price provided in Appendix E.

(b) Procedures for establishing converted March 1942 maximum prices. The processor's converted March 1942 maximum price per case (for a change in proof) for sales of an item to customers of a particular class is the processor's March 1942 maximum price provided in Appendix A for the base item, adjusted for the change in proof as set forth below. The "base item" is an item of the same brand name, container size and formula (except for a difference in proof) at the highest degree of proof sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942 to a customer of the same class, in accordance with the processor's March 1942 customer classifications.

(c) In any instance where the container size of the item to be priced differs from that of the base item in paragraph (b), the processor's March 1942 maximum price for the base item shall first be adjusted under Appendix B for the difference in container size, and the converted March 1942 maximum price for the item in such changed container size shall then be adjusted for the change in proof as follows:

(1) Subtract from the March 1942 maximum price in paragraph (b) or from the converted March 1942 maximum price in paragraph (c), as the case may be, the following charges included therein:

(i) The amount of federal rectification tax;

(ii) The amount of any state or local tax (except a processing tax); and

(iii) The amount of any freight or transportation charges if the price in (a) or (b) is a delivered price.

(2) Subtract from the resulting figure in subparagraph (1) the amount of $1.50 if quarts or fifths are to be priced; $2.10 if pints or tenths, or $2.85 if half-pints.

(3) Figure the cost per degree of proof by dividing the resulting figure in subparagraph (2) by the number of degrees of proof of the formula of the base item. (This computation must be carried to four decimal places).

(4) Multiply the resulting figure in subparagraph (3) by the number of degrees of proof of the formula of the item to be priced.

(5) Add to the resulting figure in subparagraph (4) the following amounts:

(i) The amount of casing cost subtracted in subparagraph (2).

(ii) The applicable amount of freight or transportation charges, at rates in effect during March 1942, if the price in paragraphs (b) or (c) is a delivered price, using the same method of calculating such charges that he used in figuring his delivered price during March 1942.

(iii) The applicable amount of any state or local excise tax at rates in effect on November 2, 1942, and the applicable amount of federal rectification tax at rates in effect on November 2, 1942; Provided, That the amount of such taxes imposed are actually paid or have accrued and become payable by the processor to the proper taxing authority or to any prior vendor.

The resulting figure is the converted March 1942 maximum price for the change in proof, or for the change in container size and proof, as the case may be.

(d) Reports required to be filed. On or before the date of making the first sale of an item at a converted March 1942 maximum price established under this Appendix, the processor shall, by letter to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., report the maximum price so established. The letter-report shall contain the following:

(1) The name and address of the processor filing the report.

(2) A statement that the report is filed under Appendix C to Article III of MPR 445.

(3) The brand name, container size and proof of the item which is the subject of the report.

(4) The date upon which the processor filed OPA Form 635-232-A (brand name report required under Amendment No. 6 to MPR 193) for the base item used for the conversion made under this Appendix.

(5) The converted March 1942 maximum price for the item which is the subject of the report, and a statement showing the steps (similar to those illustrated by the examples) made by the processor to figure such price, in accordance with procedure provided in this Appendix.

(6) A list of all items of the same brand name sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942.

Neither acceptance nor failure to act upon a letter-report filed under this paragraph shall constitute approval by the Office of Price Administration of the maximum prices so reported.

APPENDIX D—CONVERTED MARCH 1942 MAXIMUM PRICES FOR CHANGES IN FORMULAE OTHER THAN PROOF

(a) Rules for establishing maximum prices under Appendix D. (1) The conversion provided in this Appendix is applicable only to items of domestic whiskey, except items containing malt whiskey. For items of all other classifications including items of domestic whiskey which contain malt whiskey, in which the formula (other than proof) differs from that for the item sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942, the processor must establish a special maximum price by authorization under Appendix F.

(2) The converted March 1942 maximum price is inapplicable to sales of any item of domestic whiskey bearing the same brand name as an item for which the processor has elected to establish a prescribed uniform maximum price provided in Appendix E.

(3) The conversion provided in this Appendix must be made from the processor's March 1942 maximum price for an item of the same brand name as that to be priced.

(4) The converted March 1942 maximum price established under this Appendix is applicable only to sales to customers of the same class as that to which the base item was sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942.

(5) The converted March 1942 maximum price established under this Appendix is applicable only where the new formula replaces the formula used as the base for the conversion. The processor cannot continue to sell both the item of the base formula at the March 1942 maximum price or the converted March 1942 maximum price for other changes and the item of the new formula at the converted March 1942 maximum price established under this Appendix. Where he desires to sell items of both formulae each such item must be priced under Appendix E by establishing prescribed uniform maximum prices, and all other items of domestic whiskey bearing the same brand name must also be priced under Appendix E.

(6) In computing whiskey costs under the methods provided in this Appendix, the age used for the computation shall be the age shown on the labels, and for blends, where the respective ages are not separately stated on the labels, the age of the youngest whiskey in the blend as stated on the labels. "Bottled in bond" domestic whiskey shall be deemed to be four years of age where no age statement appears on the labels.

(b) Procedures for establishing converted March 1942 maximum prices. The converted March 1942 maximum price (for a change in formula other than proof) for sales of an item to customers of a particular class is the processor's March 1942 maximum price provided in Appendix A for the base item, adjusted for the change in formula (other than proof) as set forth below. The "base item" is an item of domestic whiskey of the same brand name sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942 to a customer of the same class, in accordance with the processor's March 1942 customer classifications.

(c) In any instance where either or both the container size and proof of the item to be priced differ from that of the base item in paragraph (b), the March 1942 maximum price for such base item shall first be adjusted under Appendix B for the difference in container size, if any, and second, under Appendix C for the difference in proof, if any. The converted March 1942 maximum price for the altered base item, in accordance with either or both of such changes, shall then be adjusted for the other changes in formula as follows:

(d) Subtract from the March 1942 maximum price in paragraph (b) or from the converted March 1942 maximum price in paragraph (c), as the case may be, the amount of federal rectification tax, if any, included in such price.

(e) Ascertain from Table I the cost of the whiskey or the cost of the whiskey and neutral spirits, as the case may be, both per case of the base item in paragraph (b) or of the altered base item in paragraph (c), and per case of the item to be priced, as follows:

(1) Formulae composed entirely of whiskey of one age. (i) Multiply the cost of the whiskey, as determined from Table I, in accordance with the age and container size of the item, by the percentage of proof of the item. The resulting figure is the cost of the whiskey for the particular formula and container size.

(ii) Determine the amount of the difference between the cost for the formula of the item to be priced and the cost for the formula of the base item in paragraph (b) or the altered base item in paragraph (c), as the case may be.

(iii) Adjust the resulting figure in paragraph (d) above as follows:

(a) Where the amount of the cost for the formula of the item to be priced is greater than the amount of the cost for the formula of the base item or the altered base item, as the case may be, add the amount of the difference between the respective costs to the resulting figure in paragraph (d).

(b) Where the amount of the cost for the formula of the item to be priced is less than the amount of the cost for the formula of the base item or the altered base item as the case may be, subtract the amount of the difference between the respective costs from the resulting figure in paragraph (d).

(c) Add to the resulting figure in (a) or (b), as the case may be, the applicable amount of federal rectification tax, if any, for the item to be priced: Provided, That the amount of such tax is actually paid or has accrued and become payable by the processor to the proper taxing authority or to any prior vendor.

The resulting figure is the converted March 1942 maximum price for a change in formula (other than proof), or for a change in either or both the container size and formula (including proof), as the case may be.

(2) Formulae composed entirely of whiskey of more than one age. (i) Multiply the cost for each age of whiskey in the formula of the item, as determined from Table I, by the percentage of whiskey of such cost present in the formula, and determine the total of such computations.

(ii) Multiply the resulting figure in (i) by the percentage of proof of the item.

(iii) Determine the amount of the difference between the cost for the formula of the item to be priced and the cost for the formula of the base item in paragraph (b) or the altered base item in paragraph (c), as the case may be.

(iv) Adjust the resulting figure in paragraph (d) as follows:

(a) Where the amount of the cost for the formula of the item to be priced is greater than the amount of the cost for the formula of the base item or the altered base item, as the case may be, add the amount of the difference between the respective costs to the resulting figure in paragraph (d).

(b) Where the amount of the cost for the formula of the item to be priced is less than the amount of the cost for the formula of the base item or the altered base item, as the case may be, subtract the amount of the difference between the respective costs from the resulting figure in paragraph (d).

(c) Add to the resulting figure in (a) or (b), as the case may be, the applicable amount of federal rectification tax, if any, for the item to be priced: Provided, That the amount of such tax is actually paid or has accrued and become payable by the processor to the proper taxing authority or to any prior vendor.

The resulting figure is the converted March 1942 maximum price for a change in formula (other than proof), or for a change in either or both the container size and formula (including proof), as the case may be.

(3) Formulae composed of both whiskey and neutral spirits. (i) Multiply the cost for each age of whiskey in the formula of the item, as determined from Table I, by the percentage of whiskey of such cost present in the formula.

(ii) Multiply the cost for neutral spirits in the formula of the item, as determined from Table I, by the percentage of neutral spirits present in the formula.

(iii) Determine the total of the resulting figures in (i) and (ii), and multiply the figure so obtained by the percentage of proof of the item.

The resulting figure is the cost of the whiskey and neutral spirits for the particular formula and container size.

(iv) Determine the amount of the difference between the cost for the formula of the item to be priced and the cost for the formula of the base item in paragraph (b) or the altered base item in paragraph (c), as the case may be.

(v) Adjust the resulting figure in paragraph (d) as follows:

(a) Where the amount of the cost for the formula of the item to be priced is greater than the amount of the cost for the formula of the base item or altered base item, as the case may be, add the amount of the difference between the respective costs to the resulting figure in paragraph (d).

(b) Where the amount of the cost for the formula of the item to be priced is less than the amount of the cost for the formula of the base item or the altered base item, as the case may be, subtract the amount of the difference between the respective costs from the resulting figure in paragraph (d).

(c) Add to the resulting figure in (a) or (b), as the case may be, the applicable amount of federal rectification tax, if any, for the item to be priced: Provided, That the amount of such tax is actually paid or has accrued and become payable by the processor to the proper taxing authority or to any prior vendor.

The resulting figure is the converted March 1942 maximum price for a change in formula (other than proof), or for a change in either or both the container size and formula (including proof), as the case may be.

(f) Reports required to be filed. On or before the date of making the first sale of an item at a converted March 1942 maximum price established under this Appendix, the processor shall, by letter to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., report the maximum price so established. The letter-report shall contain the following:

(1) The name and address of the processor filing the report.

(2) A statement that the report is filed under Appendix D to Article III of MPR 445.

(3) The brand name, container size and formula of the item which is the subject of the report. (Attach front and back labels to letter-report.)

(4) The date upon which the processor filed OPA Form 635-232-A (brand name report required under Amendment No. 6 to MPR 193) for the base item used for the conversion made under this Appendix.

(5) The converted March 1942 maximum price for the item which is the subject of the report, and a statement showing the steps (similar to those illustrated by the examples) made by the processor to figure such price, in accordance with procedure provided in this Appendix.

(6) A list of all items of the same brand name sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942.

Neither acceptance nor failure to act upon a letter-report filed under this paragraph shall constitute approval by the Office of Price Administration of the maximum prices so reported.

APPENDIX E—PRESCRIBED UNIFORM MAXIMUM PRICES

(a) Rules for establishing maximum prices under Appendix E. (1) The prescribed uniform maximum price provided in this Appendix is applicable only to items of domestic whiskey (not including items containing malt whiskey). All other classifications of domestic distilled spirits (including malt whiskey) must be priced under other applicable provisions of Article III.

(2) All items of domestic whiskey of a brand name not sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942 must be priced under this Appendix. Any item of domestic whiskey, whether or not sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942 may be priced under this Appendix. However, after once making a sale of an item of domestic whiskey at a prescribed uniform maximum price provided in this Appendix, maximum prices for all sales thereafter of any item of domestic whiskey bearing the same brand name, under any formula or in any container size, must be established under this Appendix.

(3) Any change whatsoever in the brand name of an item of domestic whiskey sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942 shall be deemed to be a new brand name, and the item so changed must be priced under this Appendix.

(4) Prescribed uniform maximum prices are applicable only to the particular classes of customers specified in this Appendix. For all other classes of customers a special maximum price by authorization must be established under Appendix F.

(5) In computing prices under the methods provided in this Appendix, the age of the whiskey in the formula shall be the age shown on the labels, and for blends, where the respective ages are not separately stated on the labels, the age of the youngest whiskey in the blend as stated on the labels. "Bottled in bond" domestic whiskey shall be deemed to be four years of age where no age statement appears on the labels.

(b) Procedures for establishing prescribed uniform maximum prices.

The processor's maximum price per case, for sales of an item of packaged domestic whiskey to customers of the classes specified below, shall be the prescribed uniform maximum price determined as follows:

(1) Processors' sales to wholesalers and monopoly states.

(i) Formulae composed entirely of whiskey of one age.

(a) Ascertain from Table II the applicable maximum price per case of quarts or fifths, respectively, in accordance with the age of the whiskey in the formula, at 80° proof.

NOTE: Table II prices are shown only at 80° proof in quarts and fifths. They are completed prices for items at 80° proof in quarts and fifths, except for applicable state and local taxes for which see (d) below.

(b) Where the proof of the item to be priced is greater than 80°, ascertain from Table II the applicable proof adjustment figure in accordance with the age of the whiskey in the formula and the container size, and multiply such proof adjustment figure by a figure equal to the difference between 80 and the number of degrees of proof of the item to be priced. Add the resulting figure to the amount determined in (a).

(c) Where the container sizes to be priced are either pints or half-pints, add to the resulting figure in (b) per case of quarts $0.60 if pints are to be priced, and $1.35 if half-pints.

(d) Where state or local excise taxes apply, add to the figure obtained in (a), (b) or (c), as the case may be, the applicable amount of any state or local excise tax in effect on November 2, 1942; Provided, That the amount of such tax imposed is actually paid or has accrued and become payable by the processor to the proper taxing authority or to any prior vendor; And provided further, That the amount of such tax once so added shall not again be added to the maximum prices established under subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph (b).

The resulting figure in (a), (b), (c) or (d), as the case may be, is the processor's prescribed uniform maximum price f. o. b. bottling plant, for sales to wholesalers and monopoly states of an item of packaged domestic whiskey where the formula of the item is composed entirely of whiskey of one age.

NOTE: The maximum prices so figured include applicable Federal, state or local excise taxes through November 2, 1942. The increases effective April 1, 1944 in Federal excise taxes, or new or increased state or local excise taxes not otherwise included in the prescribed uniform maximum price, may be added to that price in accordance with section 7.3.

(ii) Formulae composed entirely of whiskey of more than one age.

(a) Ascertain the weighted average age of the whiskey in the formula by multiplying the percentage of each age of whiskey in the formula by the age (in months) of such whiskey, and determine the total of such computations.

Whiskey over 96 months old shall be deemed 96 months old for the purpose of this computation.

[Above sentence added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

The resulting figure is the weighted average age of the whiskey in the formula.

NOTE: Where the label of the item contains no age specification other than a statement of the youngest age in the blend compute whiskey cost in (b) on the basis of the youngest age as stated on the label. In such case, weighted average age must not be computed.

(b) Ascertain from Table II the applicable maximum price per case of quarts or fifths, respectively, in accordance with the weighted average age of the whiskey in the formula, at 80° proof.

(c) Where the proof of the item to be priced is greater than 80°, ascertain from Table II the applicable proof adjustment figure in accordance with the weighted average or youngest age of the whiskey in the formula and the container size, and multiply such proof adjustment figure by a figure equal to the difference between 80 and the number of degrees of proof of the formula to be priced. Add the resulting figure to the amount determined in (b).

(d) Where the container sizes to be priced are either pints or half-pints, add to the resulting figure in (c) per case of quarts $0.60 if pints are to be priced, and $1.35 if half-pints.

(e) Where federal rectification or state or local taxes apply, add to the figure obtained in (b), (c), or (d), as the case may be, the applicable amount of federal rectification tax in effect on November 2, 1942, and the applicable amount of any state or local excise tax in effect on November 2, 1942: Provided, That the amount of such taxes imposed are actually paid or have accrued and become payable by the processor to the proper taxing authority or to any prior vendor; and provided further, that the amount of such taxes once so added shall not again be added to the maximum prices established under subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph (b).

The resulting figure, (b), (c), (d) or (e), as the case may be, is the processor's prescribed uniform maximum price f. o. b. bottling plant for sales to wholesalers and monopoly states of an item of packaged domestic whiskey where the formula of the item is composed entirely of whiskey of more than one age.

NOTE: The maximum prices so figured include applicable Federal, state or local excise taxes through November 2, 1942. The increases effective April 1, 1944 in Federal excise taxes, or new or increased state or local excise taxes not otherwise included in the prescribed uniform maximum price, may be added to that price in accordance with section 7.3.

(iii) Formulae composed of both whiskey and neutral spirits.

(a) Ascertain the weighted average age of the whiskey in the formula by multiplying the percentage of each age of whiskey in the formula by the age (in months) of such whiskey; determine the total of the figures so obtained; and divide that total by the total percentage of whiskey in the formula.

Whiskey over 96 months old shall be deemed 96 months old for the purpose of this computation.

[Above sentence added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

The resulting figure is the weighted average age of the whiskey in the formula.

NOTE: Where the label of the item contains no age specification other than a statement of the youngest age in the blend, compute cost in (b) on the basis of the youngest age as stated on the label. In such case, weighted average age must not be computed.

(b) Ascertain from Table III the applicable maximum price per case of quarts at 80° proof, or from Table IV the applicable maximum price per case of fifths at 80° proof, in accordance with the weighted average or youngest age of the whiskey and the percentage of neutral spirits in the formula.

(c) Where the proof of the items to be priced is greater than 80°, ascertain from Table III (for quarts) or from Table IV (for fifths) the applicable proof adjustment figure in accordance with the weighted average or youngest age of the whiskey and the percentage of neutral spirits in the formula, and multiply such proof adjustment figure by a figure equal to the difference between 80 and the number of degrees of proof of the item to be priced. Add the resulting figure to the amount determined in (b).

(d) Where the container sizes to be priced are either pints or half-pints, add to the resulting figure in (c) per case of quarts $.60 if pints are to be priced, and $1.35 if half-pints.

(e) Where state or local excise taxes apply, add to the resulting figure in (b), (c) or (d), as the case may be, the applicable amount of any state or local excise tax in effect on November 2, 1942; Provided, That the amount of such tax imposed is actually paid or has accrued and become payable by the processor to the proper taxing authority; or to any prior vendor; and provided further, that the amount of such tax once so added shall not again be added to the maximum prices established under subparagraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph (b).

The resulting figure is the processor's prescribed uniform maximum price f. o. b. bottling plant for sales to wholesalers and monopoly states of an item of packaged domestic whiskey where the formula of the item is composed of both whiskey and neutral spirits.

NOTE: The maximum prices so figured include applicable Federal, state or local excise taxes through November 2, 1942. The increases effective April 1, 1944 in Federal excise taxes, or new or increased state or local excise taxes not otherwise included in the prescribed uniform maximum price, may be added to that price in accordance with section 7.3.

(2) Processors' sales to primary distributing agents. The processor's prescribed uniform maximum price per case, f. o. b. bottling plant, for sales to primary distributing agents shall be the processor's prescribed uniform maximum price per case f. o. b. bottling plant, for sales of the item to wholesalers and monopoly states (determined as provided in subparagraph (1) above), subject to any discount, allowance or price differential agreed upon by the particular processor and primary distributing agent.

NOTE: The maximum prices so figured include applicable Federal, state or local excise taxes through November 2, 1942. The increases effective April 1, 1944 in Federal excise taxes, or new or increased state or local excise taxes not otherwise included in the prescribed uniform maximum price may be added to that price in accordance with section 7.3.

(3) Processors' sales to retailers.

(i) Sales of items shipped directly to the retailer's premises from the bottling plant. The processor's prescribed uniform maximum price per case for sales of an item shipped directly to the retailer's premises from the bottling plant shall be figured by the processor as follows:

(a) Determine the prescribed uniform maximum price per case f. o. b. bottling plant, in accordance with subparagraph (1) above, for his sales of the item to wholesalers and monopoly states (excluding, however, the increase effective April 1, 1944, in Federal excise taxes or new or increased state or local excise taxes effective after November 2, 1942).

(b) Add to the figure so obtained the applicable amount of any state or local excise tax at rates in effect on November 2, 1942: Provided, That the amount of such tax is actually paid by the processor.

(c) Multiply the resulting figure in (b) by the percentage markup provided in section 5.4 (b) (1) (i) of Article V for sales of packaged distilled spirits by wholesalers to retailers.

(d) Add to the resulting figure in (c) the actual amount of transportation charges paid by the processor if such charges are prepaid by him.

The resulting figure in (c) or (d), as the case may be, is the processor's prescribed uniform maximum price per case for sales of an item shipped directly to the retailer's premises from the bottling plant.

NOTE: The maximum prices so figured include applicable Federal, state or local excise taxes through November 2, 1942. The increases effective April 1, 1944, in Federal excise taxes, or new or increased state or local excise taxes not otherwise included in the prescribed uniform maximum price, may be added to that price in accordance with section 7.3.

(ii) Sales of items shipped to the retailer's premises from the processor's zone warehouse. The processor's prescribed uniform maximum price for sales of an item shipped to the retailer's premises from the processor's zone warehouse shall be figured by the processor as follows:

(a) Determine the prescribed uniform maximum price per case f. o. b. bottling plant, in accordance with subparagraph (1) above, for his sales of the item to wholesalers and monopoly states (excluding, however, the increase effective April 1, 1944, in Federal excise taxes or new or increased state or local excise taxes effective after November 2, 1942).

(b) Add to the figure so obtained the actual amount of transportation charges paid by the processor for shipment from the bottling plant to his zone warehouse. No amount shall be included for local hauling, loading, unloading, drayage or other handling.

(c) Add the resulting figure in (b), the applicable amount of any state or local excise tax at rates in effect on November 2, 1942: Provided, That the amount of such tax is actually paid by the processor.

(d) Multiply the resulting figure in (c) by the percentage markup provided in section 5.4 (b) (1) (i) of Article V for sales of packaged distilled spirits by wholesalers to retailers.

The resulting figure in (d) is the processor's prescribed uniform maximum price per case, delivered to the retailer's premises, for his sales of an item to a retailer located within the metropolitan area of the processor's zone warehouse, and it is also the processor's prescribed uniform maximum price per case, f. o. b. zone warehouse, for sales of an item to a retailer located outside of the metropolitan area of such warehouse.

NOTE: The maximum prices so figured include applicable Federal, state or local excise taxes through November 2, 1942. The increases effective April 1, 1944, in Federal excise taxes, or new or increased state or local excise taxes not otherwise included in the prescribed uniform maximum price, may be added to that price in accordance with section 7.3.

(4) Processor's sales to consumers. The processors' prescribed uniform maximum price provided in subparagraph (1) for sales of the item to wholesalers and monopoly states (excluding, however, the increase effective April 1, 1944, in Federal excise taxes or new or increased state or local excise taxes effective after November 2, 1942) plus the additions provided in section 5.3 (b) (2) and (3) (i) of Article V and the total thereof multiplied by the percentage markup provided in section 5.5 (b) (1) (i) of Article V for sales of packaged domestic distilled spirits by retailers to consumers, shall be the processors' prescribed uniform maximum price for sales of the item to consumers.

NOTE: The maximum prices so figured include applicable Federal, state or local excise taxes through November 2, 1942. The increases effective April 1, 1944 in Federal excise taxes, or new or increased state or local excise taxes not otherwise included in the prescribed uniform maximum price, may be added to that price in accordance with section 7.3.

(c) Reports required to be filed. On or before the date of making the first sale of an item at a prescribed uniform maximum price established under this Appendix, the processor shall, by letter to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., report the maximum price so established. The letter-report shall contain the following:

(1) The name and address of the processor filing the report.

(2) A statement that the report is filed under Appendix E to Article III of MPR 445.

(3) The brand name, container size and formula of the item which is the subject of the report. (Attach front and back labels to letter-report.)

(4) The prescribed uniform maximum price for the item which is the subject of the report, and a statement showing the steps (similar to those illustrated by the examples) made by the processor to figure such price, in accordance with procedures provided in this Appendix.

(5) A list of all items of the same brand name sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942, if any.

Neither acceptance nor failure to act upon a letter-report filed under this paragraph shall constitute approval by the Office of Price Administration of the maximum prices so reported.

[Box head as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(d) Determining amount of increase effective April 1, 1944 in Federal excise taxes. The amount of the increase effective April 1, 1944, in Federal excise taxes which a processor may add to prescribed uniform maximum prices determined under this Appendix shall, in each instance, be figured by multiplying $3.00 by the number of proof gallons in the case being priced.

APPENDIX F—SPECIAL MAXIMUM PRICES BY AUTHORIZATION

(a) Who is permitted or required to file an application for authority to establish special maximum prices by authorization. (1) Processors of items of packaged domestic distilled spirits for which no other pricing method is provided in this Article, or processors who for any reason are unable to establish a maximum price under the other Appendices to this Article.

(2) Processors who have established maximum prices under Appendices A through F inclusive, for sales of an item to particular classes of customers but who now desire to sell the item to another class of customers for which they cannot establish a maximum price under the applicable Appendix.

(b) Prohibited sales. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section:

(1) A processor making application for authority to establish a special maximum price by authorization for sales of an item of packaged domestic distilled spirits shall not, prior to the date on which that authority is granted, sell, offer to sell, or deliver the item that is the subject of the application; and

(2) A seller required to make application for authority to establish a maximum price for a particular sale shall not make, or agree to make that sale until after the application is filed and authority granted.

(c) Adjustable pricing while an application under this section is pending before the Office of Price Administration. (1) If permitted by the Office of Price Administration, but not otherwise, a person making application under this Appendix may, after the application is filed and while it is pending, sell, offer to sell and deliver the item that is the subject of the application if the sale, offer to sell, or delivery is made under an agreement with the customer to adjust the price charged to an amount not in excess of the maximum price therefor later established under this section. Such permission may be granted only if necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The permission may be granted by letter addressed to the applicant, signed by the Price Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom authority to grant such permission has been delegated.

(2) Permission to use adjustable pricing granted under this paragraph may be revoked at any time in the manner in which it was granted. It shall be deemed revoked on the day on which authority to establish a maximum price is granted, or such maximum price is otherwise established pursuant to this section: Provided, That with respect to any sale which the applicant is required to make at a price posted or listed with a state or other public authority, he may continue so to sell, offer to sell, or deliver the item until the effective date for prices thus posted or listed at the first opportunity after the 4th day (including Sundays and holidays) after the authority applied for is granted, or an applicable maximum price is otherwise established pursuant to this section.

(3) Where permission to use adjustable pricing under this Appendix has been granted, and a special maximum price by authorization is thereafter established in an amount less than that charged, the processor shall immediately refund to his purchasers all amounts received in excess of the special maximum price by authorization so established.

(d) Contents of application. The application shall be by letter, signed by the processor or his authorized agent, and sent in duplicate to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., by registered mail, return receipt requested. It shall contain the following:

(1) The processor's name and address, and the name and address of the person signing the application.

(2) A statement that the application is filed under Appendix F of Article III of Maximum Price Regulation No. 445.

(3) A statement in detail of the reasons for his inability to establish a maximum price under other provisions of this Article.

(4) A description in detail of the item which is the subject of the application. Copies of the approved front label and the back label, if any, must be attached to the application. The description shall supply the following information if not disclosed by the labels attached to the application:

(i) Brand name.

(ii) Formula.

(iii) Container size or sizes.

(iv) Classification or subclassification of identity.

(v) The name and address of the bottler.

(5) An itemized statement of the processor's actual costs (not in excess of applicable OPA maximum prices) for the item prepared from regularly kept accounts, all taxes to be separately itemized.

(6) Applicant's proposed maximum prices for each container size, f. o. b. bottling plant, stating the address of the bottling plant, the particular classes of customers to which the proposed maximum prices are applicable, and the discounts and allowances applicable.

(7) In any case where the application is made for sales of an item to a new class of customers, the application shall also contain a statement of the maximum prices established for sales to other classes of customers, describing the particular classes, and the Appendix under which such maximum prices were established.

(8) For cordials, liqueurs and packaged alcoholic beverage specialties, the application shall also include a copy of the approved formula on Treasury Department Form 27-B Supplemental or a photostatic copy or other facsimile thereof. Ingredient costs as required under (5) above may be grouped to correspond with the approved formula. The detailed costs of items need not be stated separately where they do not represent a significant part of the total cost.

(9) Any other pertinent information which the processor desires to submit.

(e) When and how authority is given or denied—(1) Approval of or objection to application. If within 60 days (including Sundays and holidays) after receipt of the application under this Appendix by the Office of Price Administration, the applicant shall not receive notice by letter from the Office of Price Administration, of objection to the maximum prices proposed in his application, he shall be deemed authorized to establish such maximum prices for sales of the item in the container sizes and to the particular classes of customers described therein: Provided, That if within the 60 day period the Office of Price Administration shall by letter request supplemental information with respect to any matter stated in or omitted from the application, that period shall be figured from the date on which the requested supplemental information is received in writing by the Office of Price Administration. The authority so granted may be revoked by the Price Administrator at any time. Upon written request of the applicant received by the Office of Price Administration within 30 days (including Sundays and holidays) after the date of a notice of objection given under this paragraph, the Office of Price Administration will issue a formal order denying authority to establish the maximum prices requested in his application.

(2) By order or amendment. The Price Administrator may, at any time, by order or by amendment to this regulation establish maximum prices for sales of any items of any classification of domestic distilled spirits to one or more classes of customers. The maximum prices established by any such order or amendment shall supersede all maximum prices previously authorized under (1) above.

(f) Compliance with price posting or listing requirements. Permission to use adjustable pricing and authority to establish maximum prices granted by the Price Administrator pursuant to application under this section, or by order or by amendment to this Article, shall not authorize an applicant to sell or offer for sale an item until after compliance with provisions of any applicable statute, ordinance or regulation requiring the posting or listing of his prices.

APPENDIX G—ADJUSTMENT OF MAXIMUM PRICES FOR SUBSTITUTION OF CERTAIN INGREDIENTS

(a) Procedure for adjustment of maximum prices—(1) Substitution of imported neutral spirits, neutral spirits derived from domestic processing of imported distilled spirits, or imported distilled spirits. The processor shall add to the maximum prices established under Appendices A through F inclusive, the actual amount of the direct cost of importation (as defined in (iv) below), in no event to exceed 50 cents per proof gallon, and the amount of import duty applicable to the quantity of

(i) Imported neutral spirits used as a substitute for the same quantity of domestic neutral spirits thereby displaced in the item;

(ii) Neutral spirits, derived from domestic processing of imported distilled spirits, used as a substitute for the same quantity of domestic neutral spirits thereby displaced in the item.

(iii) Imported distilled spirits of a particular classification and subclassification of identity under applicable United States labeling laws and regulations used as a substitute for the same quantity of domestic neutral spirits or the same quantity of domestic distilled spirits of the same classification and subclassification of identity thereby displaced in the item.

(iv) The "direct cost of importation" means the actual amount of the charges paid for cooperage, export tax, freight to port of arrival, loading, war risk and marine insurance, wharfage, consular fees, customs broker fees, customs entry fees, loss of merchandise and customs duty due to leakage and evaporation in shipment to the United States, and freight from port of arrival to the processor's bottling plant.

(2) Substitution of domestic grape spirits, spirits-fruit, spirits-fruit processed, and neutral brandy. The processor shall add to the maximum prices established under Appendices A through F, inclusive, the amount of $.55 per proof gallon of the products stated above, used as a substitute for the same quantity of domestic neutral grain or cane spirits thereby displaced in the item.

NOTE: The amount of any permitted increase pursuant to Maximum Price Regulation No. 193 must not be included in a maximum price established under Article III except as is provided in subparagraph (3) below.

(3) Substitution of domestic high wines (manufactured from cane or grain) for domestic neutral spirits. The processor shall add to the maximum prices established under Appendices A through F, inclusive, the amount of the permitted increase for high wines manufactured from cane or grain used as a substitute for the same quantity of domestic neutral spirits thereby displaced in the item as required to be computed by the processor under § 1420.13 (a) (1) (i) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 193.

(b) Rules for establishing maximum prices under Appendix G. (1) The additions provided in this Appendix can be computed only with respect to the quantity of distilled spirits actually displaced in the item. No allowances are provided for loss in processing or otherwise.

(2) The additions provided for substitution of imported distilled spirits are applicable where an ingredient of an item of domestic distilled spirits is displaced by the same ingredient except that such displacing ingredient is imported, or where domestic neutral spirits are displaced by imported distilled spirits.

(3) The additions provided for substitution of imported distilled spirits are inapplicable where the item as sold or offered for sale during March 1942 contained as an ingredient the same classification of imported distilled spirits.

(c) Reports required to be filed. On or before the date of making the first sale of an item at a maximum price adjusted under this Appendix, the processor shall, by letter to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., report the maximum price so established. The letter-report shall contain the following:

(1) The name and address of the processor filing the report.

(2) A statement that the report is filed under Appendix G to Article III of MPR 445.

(3) The brand name, container size and proof of the item which is the subject of the report.

(4) The date upon which the processor filed OPA Form 635-232-A (brand name report required under Amendment No. 6 to MPR 193) for the base item used for the adjustment made under this Appendix if such item was sold or offered for sale by the processor during March 1942.

(5) The maximum price for the item which is the subject of the report, and a statement showing the steps (similar to those illustrated by the examples) made by the processor to figure such price, in accordance with procedures provided in this Appendix. Neither acceptance nor failure to act upon a letter-report filed under this paragraph shall constitute approval by the Office of Price Administration of the maximum prices so reported.

[Sections 3.2 through 3.7, inclusive, and Appendices A through G added by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 17415, effective 1-6-44]

ARTICLE IV—MAXIMUM PRICES FOR SALES OF CERTAIN BULK DOMESTIC WINE AND RELATED PRODUCTS BY ANY PERSON, AND FOR SALES OF CERTAIN PACKAGED DOMESTIC WINE BY PROCESSORS

[Article heading as amended; former sec. 4.1 revoked and new sec. 4.1 added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 13500, effective 10-7-43]

SEC. 4.1 Purposes of Article IV—(a) Generally. Article IV establishes maximum prices for sales of the kinds of bulk domestic wine, and for sales in bulk of the related products specified therein when made by any person. It also establishes maximum prices for the processor's sales of the kinds of packaged domestic wine specified therein. Maximum prices for the kinds of bulk domestic wine and related products, or for processors' sales of the kinds of packaged wine not specified in Article IV must be determined under other applicable regulations or orders of the Office of Price Administration. Except for sales which are specifically exempted by Article V of this regulation, maximum prices for sales of all packaged domestic wine by persons other than the processor must be established under that article.

(b) Related products not within the scope of this article. Article IV and other provisions of this regulation do not apply to sales of the following products, maximum prices for which shall be determined under other applicable regulations or orders of the Office of Price Administration:

Tartrates	Pomace stock feed
Argols	Lees (dried)
Pomace	Wine vinegar
Seeds	Cooking wine unfit for use for beverage purposes
Grape seed oil
Grape seed cake
Pomace fertilizer	Enocianima (coloring)

(c) Prior regulations, orders and interpretations superseded. Except as otherwise provided in this regulation, Article IV supersedes all other maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations issued by the Office of Price Administration before October 7, 1943 with respect to the sales of domestic wine and related products to which it applies, including the applicable provisions of the following:

(1) The General Maximum Price Regulation;

(2) Article II of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14 (except that section 2.18 thereof shall continue in force with respect to reports required to be filed thereunder prior to September 10, 1943: Provided, That such maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations shall remain in force with respect to a particular sale of domestic wine or a related product until provisions of this article become applicable thereto pursuant to section 4.12.

SEC. 4.2 General rules for figuring maximum prices under this article. Each seller to whom this article applies must observe the following general rules for establishing his maximum prices pursuant thereto:

(a) Figuring maximum prices separately. Each type and quality of bulk domestic wine and each related product sold, offered for sale or delivered by any person on and after the date on which a maximum price therefor must be established under this article must have a separate maximum price. Each item of packaged domestic wine sold, offered for sale or delivered by the processor on and after the date on which a maximum price therefor must be established under this article must likewise have a separate maximum price. An item is a particular brand name, container size and type designation of packaged domestic wine. One packaged item must not be considered the same as another if there is any difference in

(1) Their brand names, or

(2) Their processors, or

(3) Their container sizes (quarts as compared with fifths, etc.), or

(4) Requirements of United States labelling laws or regulations applicable to each, or in material information contained on their labels. Type designation, vintage, alcohol content, appellation of origin and grape variety from which produced shall be deemed material information.

NOTE: Any change of brand name shall be deemed to require separate pricing. For example, a change of name from "Royal King" to "Royal King Reserve" or "Royal King Three Star" or "Royal" is a change of brand name. However, a change of brand name only, when made to comply with any judicial decree, or to terminate legal proceedings to compel such change, shall not require the item to be repriced if the processor, before changing the brand name, gives the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., written notice of such action and the reason therefor.

(b) Customer classifications. (1) A separate maximum price determined in accordance with the applicable section of this article must be established for sales to each class of customers which the processor desires to sell.

(2) Where a processor establishes an "adjusted March 1942 price" or an "adjusted March 1942 price" converted for a change of container size, his customers for sales to which such maximum price applies must be classified in accordance with his March 1942 customer classifications. If he desires to sell the bulk domestic wine, related product or packaged item so priced to a customer of a class to which he did not sell it during March 1942, he shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for authority to establish a maximum price for such sale pursuant to section 4.9.

(3) Where a section of this article provides a "specific maximum price" or an "alternate maximum price" which the seller is required or elects to use for bulk domestic wine, or for a related product or packaged item, that maximum price applies to the classes of customers stated therein, or if no classes of customers be stated, then to all classes of customers.

(4) Where a seller established "special maximum prices" after application to the Office of Price Administration under section 4.9, the maximum prices so established shall apply only to his sales to the classes of customers stated in the application, or in the order or amendment issued pursuant thereto.

(c) Discounts, allowances, price differentials and terms of sale. (1) Customary discounts, allowances and other price differentials (except "special deals" to which § 1499.4b of the General Maximum Price Regulation applied) in effect during March 1942 in accordance with a seller's March 1942 customer classifications must be applied to his maximum prices established under this article: Provided, That discounts (other than discounts for prompt payment), allowances and price differentials in accordance with a seller's March 1942 customer classifications need not be maintained with respect to sales of bulk domestic wine, related products or packaged items for which the seller is required or elects to use either a "specific maximum price", an "alternate maximum price", or a "special maximum price."

(2) If a seller makes his terms of sale to a customer more onerous than those in effect during March 1942 for his sales to a customer of the same class, he must make a compensating reduction in his maximum price established under this article.

(3) If a seller directly or indirectly requires a customer to make any payment in advance of delivery (whether to the seller or to another person), the seller must reduce his maximum price established under this article for that sale by an amount equal to interest at the rate of 5% per annum on the amount of the advance payment from the date the payment is made to the date on which the commodity is delivered or the payment refunded to the customer.

(d) Sales and offers to sell. (1) When the price for a sale or for an offer to sell during March 1942 is to be used in determining a maximum price under this article, the price for a sale completed by delivery during that month must be used if such sale was made. An offering price may be used only if no such sale was made during March 1942, if it was an offering price for supply or delivery during that month, and if the offer or an acceptance thereof is supported by written evidence.

(2) Where the price for a sale or for an offer to sell during March 1942 is to be used by the processor in determining a maximum price under this article, the price so used must be the price for an item with respect to which he was the processor during March 1942.

[Paragraph (d) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(e) F. o. b. and delivered prices. (1) Where a seller establishes an "adjusted March 1942 price" or an "adjusted March 1942 price" converted for a change of container size as his maximum price for bulk domestic wine, or for a related product or a packaged item, and the highest price he charged or at which he offered to sell during March 1942 used to determine such "adjusted March 1942 price" was a delivered price, or an f. o. b. particular freight base point price, the maximum price thus established shall correspondingly be a delivered price or an f. o. b. particular freight base point price, as the case may be.

(2) "Specific maximum prices," "alternate maximum prices" and "special maximum prices" provided in this article are prices f. o. b. processor's premises or seller's point of shipment, unless otherwise expressly stated.

(3) If a seller's maximum price is a price f. o. b. a particular place, and he desires to convert it to a delivered price for delivery to a point outside the metropolitan area of that place, he may add to his maximum price transportation charges from that place to the point of delivery, at the rate he actually pays.

NOTE: For a definition of "transportation charges" and the method of computing them when the seller uses his own vehicle, see section 7.12 (d) (4).

(f) Carload and less than carload prices. (1) Where a seller establishes an "adjusted March 1942 price" or an "adjusted March 1942 price" converted for a change of container size as his maximum price for bulk domestic wine, or for a related product or packaged item, and the highest price he charged or at which he offered to sell during March 1942 used to determine such "adjusted March 1942 price" was a carload price, or a less than carload price, the maximum price thus established shall correspondingly be a carload, or less than carload price, as the case may be.

(2) "Specific maximum prices," "alternate maximum prices" and "special maximum prices" provided in this article are prices in carload quantity, unless otherwise expressly stated.

(3) A seller whose maximum price is a carload price may, for sales in less than carload quantity, add to such maximum price his March 1942 customary differential over the carload price for the commodity. Similarly, a seller whose maximum price is a less than carload price shall, for sales in carload quantity, reduce his maximum price by the amount of his March 1942 customary differential over a carload price for the commodity.

(g) California state marketing order assessment. A processor may charge, in addition to his maximum price established under this article for a sale of any California grape wine, the amount of any applicable California state marketing order assessment at rates in effect on October 1, 1943, paid or payable by the processor with respect to that sale. For purposes of this article such amount shall be deemed a part of the maximum price to which it is added and for purposes of Article V shall be deemed a part of a supplier's price.

NOTE: If the processor's maximum price for a particular sale is an "adjusted March 1942 price" including the California state marketing order assessment, no additional amount shall be added therefor.

(h) Addition of certain taxes to maximum prices. A seller may add to his maximum price established under this article for a sale, the amount of any applicable United States, state or local excise taxes at rates in effect on November 2, 1942, paid or payable by the seller to the taxing authorities or to a prior vendor for the type and quality of wine or product being priced: Provided, That no amount shall be added for such taxes otherwise included in that maximum price, and no amount shall be added to "specific maximum prices", "alternate maximum prices" or "special maximum prices" for any United States excise tax stated as being included therein. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this regulation, no amount shall be added for license, income, franchise, receipts, gross receipts, sales, use or other similar federal, state or local taxes.

[Last sentence added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44. Note deleted by Am. 15]

(i) Fractional parts of a gallon. In any sale of bulk domestic wine or a related product, where the total quantity to be priced involves the fractional part of a gallon, the seller's maximum price for the fractional part of a gallon shall be proportionate to his maximum price for a gallon.

(j) [Revoked]

(k) [Revoked]

[Paragraphs (j) and (k) revoked by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

SEC. 4.3 Processor's maximum prices for California grape wine in bulk—(a) Sales of current wine. A processor's maximum price to a customer of any class for current California grape wine in bulk in carload quantity, naked f. o. b. processor's premises, shall be a specific maximum price according to the wine to be priced as follows:

28 cents per gallon of red table wine.
33 cents per gallon of white table wine.
55.5 cents per gallon of dessert wine.

NOTE: The above prices do not include California marketing order assessment, or United States, state or local excise taxes which may be added as provided in section 4.2 (g) and (h).

(b) Sales of non-current wine. A processor's maximum price per gallon to a customer of any class for any type and quality of non-current California grape wine, naked in bulk in carload quantity, shall be either an adjusted March 1942 price or an alternate maximum price or a special maximum price as follows:

(1) Adjusted March 1942 price. The highest price per gallon the processor charged or at which he offered the particular type and quality of wine for sale in bulk on such terms during March 1942 to a customer of the particular class, plus the last amount (permitted increase) which section 2.2 or section 2.5 of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14 permitted him to add to that price.

[Subparagraph (1) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

NOTE: If the processor did not sell or offer to sell the particular type and quality of non-current wine in bulk during March 1942 to any customer, he must not use an adjusted March 1942 price therefor.

(2) Alternate maximum price. An amount f. o. b. processor's premises according to the wine being priced as follows:

40 cents per gallon of red table wine.
45 cents per gallon of white table wine.
68 cents per gallon of dessert wine.

NOTE: These alternate maximum prices do not include California state marketing order assessments or United States, state or local excise taxes which may be added as provided in section 4.2 (g) and (h).

(3) Special maximum prices. A processor who is unable to determine an adjusted March 1942 price under (1) above for a particular type and quality of non-current wine in bulk may, if permitted by section 4.8, make application to the Office of Price Administration for authority to establish special maximum prices for that wine. Such application shall be made in accordance with section 4.9. A special maximum price authorized pursuant to that section shall be the processor's maximum price to the specified classes of customers for the type and quality of non-current wine in bulk that is the subject of the application.

NOTE: Section 4.6 contains special provisions and pricing instructions applicable to the following types of California grape wine and related products if sold in bulk:

Spanish type blending sherry;
Lees wine;
Vermouth and flavored wines made from dessert wines;
Flavored wines made from table wines;
Light sweet wine;
Sparkling and carbonated wines;
Unfinished wine;
Mixed wine containing California grape wine or made in part from juice of California grapes;
Wine fermented in whole or in part from California grape concentrates;
California grape concentrates.

(c) Sales of current or non-current wine in bulk in less than carload quantity to retailers and consumers. A processor's maximum price to a retailer or to a consumer for current or non-current California grape wine in bulk in less than carload quantity (in barrels or other containers) shall be an adjusted March 1942 price per gallon, equal to the total of the following:

(1) The highest price per gallon the processor charged, or at which he offered current wine or the particular type and quality of non-current wine for sale in bulk in less than carload quantity (in barrels or other containers) to a retailer or to a consumer respectively; plus

(2) The last amount (permitted increase) which section 2.2 or section 2.5 of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14 permitted him to add to that price.

[Subparagraph (2) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(d) Sales of a carload quantity in barrels or other containers. A processor who sells a carload quantity of current or non-current California grape wine in bulk in barrels or other containers to a customer of any class may, for such sale add 2 cents per gallon to his maximum price naked established under (a) or (b) above for a carload quantity of the wine being priced.

NOTE: This allowance includes handling and loading but does not include the cost of the barrels or containers. If the seller furnishes the barrels or containers which, upon delivery to the customer, become the customer's property, the seller may add a charge for the barrels or containers, not in excess of his maximum price therefor.

SEC. 4.4 Wholesalers', packers' and retailers' maximum prices for California grape wine in bulk—(a) Wholesalers and packers. A wholesaler's or packer's maximum price per gallon to a customer of any class for current or non-current California grape wine in bulk (whether repacked or not) in carload quantity f. o. b. seller's shipping point shall be a specific maximum price equal to the total of:

(1) Processor's price. The processor's maximum price per gallon for the type and quality of wine in bulk in carload quantity as provided in this article.

(2) Freight. Transportation charges per gallon from the processor's premises to the wholesaler's or packer's customary receiving point at the carload rate (exclusive of expense of hauling, drayage or handling within the metropolitan area of such premises or receiving point). No amount shall be added for any such transportation charges included in the processor's price under (a) above.

(3) Mark-up. 10 cents per gallon where the bulk wine is delivered to the customer in the original barrel or other container in which it was received by the seller without repacking, or 12 cents per gallon where the bulk wine is delivered to the customer in other than the original barrel or other container in which it was received by the seller.

NOTE: This mark-up includes handling and loading but does not include the cost of the barrels or containers. If the seller furnishes the barrels or containers which, upon delivery to the customer, become the customer's property, the seller may add a charge for the barrels or containers, not in excess of his maximum price therefor.

(b) Retailers. A retailer's maximum price per gallon for any California grape wine in bulk shall be the total of the following:

(1) Net cost. His net cost for the wine being priced (figured according to section 5.3 of this regulation), plus

(2) Mark-up. The difference between

(i) His net cost per gallon (figured according to section 5.3 for his last purchase of the same type of bulk wine on or prior to March 31, 1942 out of which he made or offered to make sales during March 1942, and

(ii) The highest price per gallon he charged during March 1942 or at which he offered to sell that type of wine.

NOTE: Retailers' maximum prices for bulk wine do not authorize such sales where prohibited by statute or ordinance.

SEC. 4.5 Processor's maximum prices for packaged California grape wine—(a) Sales of packaged current wine. A processor's maximum price per case for a brand and container size of packaged current California grape wine shall be either an adjusted March 1942 price for that brand and container size or an alternate maximum price as follows:

(1) Adjusted March 1942 price. The highest price per case the processor charged, or at which he offered the same kind and type of wine for sale under the same brand and in the same container size to a customer of the particular class, plus the last amount (permitted increase) which section 2.2 or section 2.5 of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14 permitted him to add to that price.

NOTE: Except as otherwise expressly provided in this article an adjusted March 1942 price cannot be used as a maximum price for a brand not sold or offered for sale during March 1942, or not used during March 1942 for sales of such kind and type of wine.

If the processor sold or offered such kind and type of packaged wine for sale during March 1942 under the brand, but not in the container size to be priced, he may use as his adjusted March 1942 price for that container size of such wine, his adjusted March 1942 price for the container size sold or offered for sale during that month, converted however in accordance with section 4.7 for the change of container size.

(2) Alternate maximum price. An alternate maximum price per case in any quantity according to the wine being priced and the class of customers, as set forth in paragraph (c) of this section.

[Subparagraphs (1) and (2) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(b) Sales of packaged non-current wine. A processor's maximum price per case for a type, quality, brand and container size of packaged non-current California grape wine shall be either an adjusted March 1942 price for that type, quality, brand and container size, an alternate maximum price, or a special maximum price as follows:

(1) Adjusted March 1942 price. The highest price per case the processor charged, or at which he offered the type and quality of non-current wine for sale under the same brand and in the same container size to a customer of the particular class, plus the last amount (permitted increase) which section 2.2 or section 2.5 of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14 permitted him to add to that price.

NOTE: Except as otherwise provided in this article, an adjusted March 1942 price cannot be used as a maximum price for a brand not sold or offered for sale during March 1942, or not used during March 1942 for sales of the particular type and quality of wine.

If the processor sold or offered the type, quality and brand of wine for sale during March 1942, but not in the container size to be priced, he may use as his adjusted March 1942 price for that container size of such wine, his adjusted March 1942 price for the container size sold or offered for sale during that month, converted however in accordance with section 4.7 for the change of container size.

(2) Alternate maximum price. An alternate maximum price per case in any quantity, according to the wine being priced and the class of customers, as set forth in paragraph (c) of this section.

[Subparagraphs (1) and (2) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(3) Special maximum price. A processor who is unable to determine an adjusted March 1942 price under (1) above for a particular type, quality, brand and container size of packaged non-current wine may, if permitted by section 4.8, make application to the Office of Price Administration for authority to establish special maximum prices for that wine. Such application shall be made in accordance with section 4.9. A special maximum price authorized pursuant to that section shall be the processor's maximum price to the specified classes of customers for the type, quality, brand and container sizes of packaged non-current wine described therein. If a special maximum price is established for a type, quality, brand and container size of packaged non-current wine, and the processor thereafter desires to sell such type, quality and brand in a different container size, his maximum price for the different container size shall be the special maximum price established for the original container size, converted in accordance with section 4.7 for change of container size.

NOTE: Section 4.6 contains special provisions and pricing instructions applicable to the following types of California grape wine if sold in packages:

Vermouth and flavored wines made from dessert wines;
Flavored wines made from table wines;
Light sweet wine;
Sparkling and carbonated wines;
Mixed wine containing California grape wine or made in part from juice of California grapes;
Wine fermented in whole or in part from California grape concentrates.

(c) List of alternate maximum prices. The alternate maximum prices provided by this section for sales of packaged current or non-current California grape wine shall be as follows:

(1) For sales to wholesalers. A price per case delivered at the wholesaler's customary receiving point for the item equal to the total of (i) and (ii) below.

(i) The amount per case set forth in the following table for the wine and container size to be priced:

TABLE FOR COMPUTING PROCESSORS' ALTERNATE MAXIMUM PRICES FOR SALES OF PACKAGED CALIFORNIA GRAPE WINE

(Prices listed are per case in any quantity and include United States excise taxes at rates in effect on November 2, 1942 but not California marketing order assessment or any state or local excise taxes. Such assessment and state or local excise taxes (as applicable) may be added as provided in section 4.2 (g) and (h)).

(a) For current wine.

Type of current wine	For a case containing
	2.4 gallons		3 gallons			4 gallons
	12 fifths	24 tenths	12 quarts	24 pints	6 half gallons	4 one-gallons
White table wine	$3.85	4.45	$4.37	$4.97	$4.02	$4.62
Red table wine	3.74	4.34	4.23	4.83	3.88	4.43
Dessert wine	4.79	5.33	5.52	6.12	5.17	6.24

(b) For non-current wine.

Type of non-current wine	For a case containing
	2.4 gallons		3 gallons			4 gallons
	12 fifths	24 tenths	12 quarts	24 pints	6 half gallons	4 one-gallons
White table wine	$4.14	$4.74	$4.73	$5.33	$4.38	$5.11
Red table wine	4.03	4.63	5.59	5.19	4.24	4.92
Dessert wine	4.91	5.51	5.75	6.35	5.40	6.56

[Note deleted by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(ii) The amount per case for transportation charges determined as follows:

(a) For sales by a processor located in the State of California, delivered at a wholesaler's, customary receiving point within that State, such amount shall be equal to transportation charges per case applicable to shipment at the carload rate from processor's premises to the wholesaler's customary receiving point.

(b) For sales by all processors (regardless of location) delivered at a wholesaler's customary receiving point outside California, such amount shall be equal to transportation charges per case applicable to shipment at the carload rate from Bakersfield, California to the wholesaler's customary receiving point.

NOTE: The carload rate to be used in determining the maximum prices for packaged wine under this paragraph is the lowest regularly published carload rate to the point of delivery, regardless of the minimum carload weight to which it applies. An average weight of 38 lbs. per case shall be used to determine the freight rate per case.

Example: The lowest carload rate from Bakersfield, California to New York, N. Y. is 99¢ per cwt. subject to a minimum carload weight of 50,000 lbs. Other carload rates are published but these apply to lesser minimum weights consequently the lowest rate is used and computation made as follows: 99¢ per cwt. equals $.0099 per lb. x 38 lbs. per case equals .3762¢ or 38¢ per case. Adding this figure to the appropriate amount in the table at (i) gives the delivered price for that type and container size of wine in New York, N. Y.

Explanation: Alternate maximum prices for packaged California grape wine are figured on the so-called "base point system", with Bakersfield, California, as the base point. By adding carload freight from Bakersfield, California, to the purchasing wholesaler's customary receiving point to an amount representing the maximum price of the commodity, f. o. b. processor's premises in California, the maximum price for a sale in any quantity by any processor to any wholesaler located outside of California is readily determined. Maximum prices for the same type and quality of wine will thus, if the alternate maximum price is used, be generally uniform regardless of where the bottling is done.

A processor located in California who desires to sell f. o. b. his premises in that state will use as his maximum price for such f. o. b. sale, the applicable amount under (i) without the addition under (ii) for transportation. A processor located outside of California who desires to establish a price f. o. b. his premises to wholesalers within the metropolitan area of such premises, will use as his f. o. b. price the total of (i) and (ii) (b). If a processor located outside of California desires to establish a price f. o. b. his premises for a sale to a wholesaler outside the metropolitan area of those premises, will use as his f. o. b. price the applicable total of (i) and (ii) (b) less an amount sufficient to compensate the wholesaler for the freight the wholesaler is thus required to pay.

(2) For sales to monopoly States. The maximum price per case figured under (1) above for sales of the brand and container size delivered to a wholesaler at the March 1942 freight base zone of the monopoly State: Provided, That if the processor during March 1942, customarily sold packaged California grape wine to monopoly States at a price greater or less than his corresponding price per case to wholesalers, his maximum price per case to monopoly States shall be increased or decreased respectively by the amount of such differential in dollars and cents.

(3) For sales to retailers. The maximum price per case figured under (1) above for sales of the brand and container size delivered to a wholesaler at the retailer's customary receiving point for the item, plus applicable state and local excise taxes and California marketing order assessment, and plus the percentage mark-up provided under section 5.4 for sales of packaged domestic wine by wholesalers to retailers.

(4) For sales to consumers. The maximum price per case figured under (1) above for sales of the brand and container size delivered to a wholesaler at the point where the consumer is located, plus applicable state or local excise taxes and California marketing order assessment, and plus the percentage mark-up provided under section 5.5 for sales of packaged domestic wine by retailers to consumers.

(5) Transactions between processors and primary distributing agents. Transactions between processors and primary distributing agents may or may not involve a sale. Where the transaction does not involve a sale, the processor and primary distributing agent may make any proper arrangement for the handling and billing of the item, subject to the limitation that sales by the processor through the primary distributing agent may not exceed the processor's maximum price to a customer of the particular class. Where a processor sells a brand and container size to a primary distributing agent, the parties may use for the transaction between themselves, either an f. o. b. processor's premises price (which will be a uniform price for all transactions) or a delivered price or prices not exceeding the maximum price which the processor may charge for a direct sale to any wholesaler or monopoly State within the territory the primary distributing agent serves.

NOTE: Where the primary distributing agent figures his own maximum price under section 5.7 for a brand and container size the processor has sold to him, the primary distributing agent shall, for a sale to a monopoly State, use the processor's maximum price delivered to such monopoly State. In figuring his maximum price for sales of the brand and container size to a wholesaler, retailer or consumer, the "processor's maximum price to wholesalers and monopoly States" to be used under section 5.7 shall be deemed the processor's maximum price to wholesalers determined under (1) above.

SEC. 4.6 Pricing provisions and instructions applicable to particular California grape wines and to certain related products.

NOTE: Maximum prices provided under sections 4.4 and 4.5 do not apply to sales of California grape wines for which maximum prices are established by this section.

(a) Processors' maximum prices for Spanish type blending sherry. A processor's maximum price per gallon to a customer of any class for any type and quality of Spanish type blending sherry (as defined in section 7.12 (a) (36)) shall be either an adjusted March 1942 price, or an alternate maximum price as follows:

(1) Adjusted March 1942 price. The highest price per gallon the processor charged, or at which he offered the type and quality of Spanish type blending sherry for sale during March 1942 to a customer of the particular class, plus the last amount (permitted increase) which section 2.2 or section 2.5 of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14 permitted him to add to that price.

[Subparagraph (1) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

NOTE: If the processor did not sell or offer the type and quality of Spanish type blending sherry for sale during March 1942 to any customer, he must not use an adjusted March 1942 price.

(2) Alternate maximum price. An amount per gallon f. o. b. processor's premises for any quantity according to type and alcohol content as follows:

PROCESSORS ALTERNATE MAXIMUM PRICE FOR SPANISH TYPE BLENDING SHERRY

[United States, state and local excise taxes not included]

Type	Alcohol content	Maximum price per gallon
16° to and including 21° (Balling).	Over 19% but not in excess of 24% by volume.	$2.005

NOTE: The above maximum price includes cost of any containers supplied by the seller. If the seller does not supply containers, he shall make a corresponding reduction in his maximum price for the sale.

(b) Processors' maximum prices for lees wine. A processor's maximum price per gallon to a customer of any class for any quantity of lees wine in bulk shall be a specific maximum price f. o. b. processor's premises, computed according to the alcohol content by volume and the pure potassium bi-tartrate (cream of tartar) content of the quantity to be priced. Such maximum price shall be the total of:

(1) 1½ cents for each 1% of alcohol by volume; plus

(2) 11 cents for each pound of pure potassium bi-tartrate (cream of tartar).

NOTE: The above maximum price includes the cost of any containers supplied by the seller. If the seller does not supply containers, he shall make a corresponding reduction in his maximum price for the sale.

(c) Processors' maximum prices for light sweet wine—(1) Sales in bulk. A processor's maximum price per gallon to a customer of any class for current or non-current light sweet wine in bulk shall be 90% of the maximum price per gallon (established by section 4.4) for his sales of current or non-current dessert wine respectively to a customer of the same class.

(2) Sales in packages. A processor's maximum price per case to a customer of any class for packaged current or non-current light sweet wine shall be 90% of the maximum price per case (established by section 4.5) for his sales of current or non-current dessert wine respectively to a customer of the same class.

(3) Recognition of difference in tax rate. In determining a maximum price for light sweet wine, in bulk or in packages, the processor shall before applying the percentage provided in (1) and (2) above, deduct from his maximum price for the corresponding dessert wine, the amount of any United States excise tax included therein, and in determining a tax-paid maximum price for light sweet wine shall include therein the amount of the United States excise tax at the rate applicable to light sweet wine.

(d) Processors' maximum prices for packaged sparkling and carbonated wine. A processor's maximum price per case for any type, quality, brand and container size of packaged sparkling or carbonated wine (as defined in section 7.12 (a) (25) and (26)) shall be either an adjusted March 1942 price for that type, quality, brand and container size, or a special maximum price established after application to the Office of Price Administration pursuant to section 4.9.

(e) Pricing vermouth and flavored wines. (1) Vermouth and flavored wines made from dessert wine shall be classified as non-current dessert wine, and shall be subject to the provisions of this article applicable to such dessert wines.

(2) Flavored wines made from table wine shall be classified as the corresponding non-current table wine, and shall be subject to the provisions of this article applicable to such table wine.

(f) Processors' maximum prices for sales of certain mixed wines containing California grape wine or made in part from grapes grown in California. In determining his maximum price to a customer of a particular class for bulk or packaged mixed wine (as defined in section 7.12 (a) (31)), a processor shall figure his maximum price for the percentage of wine made from California grapes, (established by section 4.4 or 4.5 of this article as may be applicable), and his maximum price for the percentage of berry wine other than grape wine under section 2.15 of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14, as if the two were separate wines. The figures obtained shall then be added, and the total plus applicable rectification tax, if any, shall be the processor's maximum price for the mixed wine.

NOTE: This paragraph applies only to mixed wine made in part from California grapes, and in part from berries other than grapes, in which not in excess of 20% of the mixed wine is made from berries.

(g) Sales of unfinished wine in bulk by any seller. A seller's maximum price per gallon to a customer of any class for unfinished California grape wine in bulk shall not exceed his maximum price per gallon (established by section 4.4) for the same type and quality of wine in a finished condition, sold on the same terms to a customer of the same class.

(h) Maximum prices for California grape concentrates—(1) For sales by processors. A processor's maximum price per gallon to a customer of any class for any type, kind and quality of California grape concentrates shall be either an adjusted March 1942 price or an alternate maximum price as follows:

(i) Adjusted March 1942 price. The highest price per gallon he charged or at which he offered the same type, kind and quality of California grape concentrate for sale during March 1942 to a customer of the particular class, plus the last amount (permitted increase) which section 2.2 of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14 permitted him to add to that price.

NOTE: If the processor did not sell or offer the particular type, kind and quality of concentrate for sale during March 1942 to any customer, he may not use an adjusted March 1942 price for his sales.

(ii) Alternate maximum price. An alternate maximum price per gallon for the type, kind and quality of concentrate f. o. b. processor's premises, in any quantity, determined as follows:

PROCESSORS' MAXIMUM PRICES FOR CONCENTRATES

Type of concentrate	Kind of concentrate
	Price per gallon
	Red	White	Muscat
55° to 66° Balling:
Open pan	$1.25	$1.25	$1.50
Vacuum	1.00	1.00	1.25
(66° to 80° Balling:
Open pan	1.50	1.50	1.75
Vacuum	1.25	1.25	1.50

NOTE: The above maximum prices include the cost of containers supplied by the seller. If the seller does not supply the containers, he must make a corresponding reduction in his maximum price for the sale.

(2) For sales by dealers. The maximum price per gallon for a sale of any type, kind and quality of California grape concentrate by a dealer shall be a specific maximum price, f. o. b. seller's warehouse in any quantity, equal to the total of the following:

(i) The maximum price established under (1) above for a processor's sale of the same type, kind and quality of concentrate;

(ii) Transportation charges per gallon from the processor's premises to the seller's customary receiving point for the concentrate being priced at the rate he actually pays. No amount shall be included for

(a) Transportation charges on sales f. o. b. processor's premises where the concentrate is shipped directly to the customer at the customer's expense; or

(b) Expense of hauling, drayage or handling within the metropolitan area of the shipping or receiving point;

(iii) 15 cents per gallon.

(i) Wine fermented in whole or in part from California grape concentrates. Wine fermented in whole or in part from concentrates, shall for the purposes of this article, be classified as the same type and kind of wine as if made from the same materials without concentration.

SEC. 4.7 Conversion of a maximum price for a change of container size. A processor required by this article to establish a maximum price for a brand in a new container size by converting his maximum price for the same brand in a different container size shall do so as provided herein:

(a) He shall select as the base container size for purposes of conversion, the largest of the following container sizes in which he sold or offered the brand for sale during March 1942 to a customer of the particular class. If the processor has been authorized pursuant to section 4.9 to establish a special maximum price for the brand to customers of the particular class, he shall select as the base container size for purposes of conversion, the largest of the following container sizes for which such special maximum price has been authorized to customers of that class.

(b) He shall first deduct the amount of any state or local excise taxes and the amount of any California state marketing order assessment from his maximum price for the base container size and then determine his maximum price for the brand in the new container size to be priced as follows:

(1) For a change from quarts, pints or half-gallons to any other such container size in a case having a total quantity of three gallons. (i) Add to or subtract from such maximum price per case for the brand in the base container size, the applicable amount as follows:

From—	To—
	Quarts	Pints	Half-gallons
Quarts		+$0.60	−$0.35
Pints	−$0.60		−.95
Half-gallons	+.35	+.95

(ii) The resulting figure is the processor's corresponding maximum price per case to a customer of the particular class for the brand in the new container size.

(2) For a change from gallons to half-gallons or from half-gallons to gallons in a case having a total quantity of four gallons. (i) Add to or subtract from such maximum price per case for the brand in the base container size, the applicable amount as follows:

From—	To—
	Half-gallons	Gallons
Half-gallons		−$0.30
Gallons	+$0.30

(ii) The resulting figure is the processor's corresponding maximum price per case to a customer of the particular class for the brand in the new container size.

(3) For a change from fifths to tenths or tenths to fifths in a case having a total quantity of 2.4 gallons. (i) Add to or subtract from such maximum price per case for the brand in the base container size, the applicable amount as follows:

From—	To—
	Fifths	Tenths
Fifths	-$0.60	+$0.60
Tenths

(ii) The resulting figure is the processor's corresponding maximum price per case to a customer of the particular class for the brand in the new container size.

(4) For a change from quarts or pints to fifths. (i) Subtract from such maximum price per case for the brand in the base container size, the sum of $1.50 or $2.10 for quarts or pints respectively, as may be appropriate;

(ii) Multiply the resulting figure at (1) by .80;

(iii) Add the sum of $1.50;

(iv) The resulting figure at (iii) is the corresponding maximum price per case to a customer of the particular class for the brand in fifths.

(5) For a change from fifths to quarts or pints. (i) Subtract from such maximum price per case for the brand in the base container size, the sum of $1.50;

(ii) Multiply the resulting figure at (1) by 1.25;

(iii) Add the amount of $1.50 or $2.10 for quarts or pints respectively as may be appropriate.

(iv) The resulting figure at (iii) is the corresponding maximum price per case to a customer of the particular class for the brand in quarts or pints respectively.

(6) For other changes from any size in a case having a total quantity of 2.4 gallons, 3 gallons or 4 gallons, to any size in a case having a different total quantity.

NOTE: Changes of this character to which (4) or (5) above apply, are to be made as therein provided.

(i) Convert such maximum price per case for the brand in the base container size into a corresponding maximum price for the container size below for a

Case containing—	Convert to—
2.4 gallons	fifths
3 gallons	half-gallon
4 gallons	gallons

NOTE: If the base container size corresponds to that listed above for a case having the same quantity, this step may be omitted.

(ii) Deduct from the resulting amount at (i) the applicable figure for the container size derived thereunder as follows:

Container size:	Deduct—
Fifths	1.50
Half-gallons	1.15
Gallons	1.00

(iii) Multiply the resulting figure at (iii) by the applicable factor according to the quantities in the cases from which and to which conversion is being made as follows:

From a case containing—	To a case containing—
	2.4 gallons	3 gallons	4 gallons
2.4 gallons	.....	1.25	1.66
3 gallons	0.80	.....	1.33
4 gallons	.60	.75	.....
Multiply by

(iv) Add to the resulting figure at (iii) one of the following amounts according to the size of the case to which conversion is being made as follows:

To a case containing—	Add—
2.4 gallons	$1.50
3 gallons	1.15
4 gallons	1.00

(v) The resulting figure at (iv) is the processor's corresponding maximum price to a customer of the particular class per case of 2.4 gallons, 3 gallons or 4 gallons in fifths, half gallons and gallons respectively. If the processor desires to sell in a particular case, a container size other than that for which a price has resulted, he shall convert such resulting price into a corresponding maximum price for the container size he desires to sell, using for that purpose paragraph (1), (2) or (3) above as may be applicable.

(7) All maximum prices derived under the preceding subparagraphs of (b) are prices exclusive of any state or local excise taxes and California marketing order assessment. Such state and local excise taxes and assessment (if applicable) may be added to a corresponding maximum price as provided in section 4.2 (g) and (h).

Example of conversion under subparagraphs (6) and (7): A processor has established a maximum price of $4.60 per case of 24 tenths for a brand to wholesalers. He has not established a maximum price to wholesalers for the brand in any other container or case size. He desires to convert his container and case size from 24 tenths, (2.4 gallons) to 24 pints (3 gallons). The method to be employed is as follows:

Maximum price per case of 24 tenths (exclusive of state and local excise taxes and California marketing order assessment)	$4.60
First: Convert the price for tenths into a price for fifths by deducting $0.60 per subparagraph (3)	.60
	4.00
Second: Deduct for fifths	1.50
	2.50
Third: Multiply by factor of 1.25 applicable to conversion from case of 2.4 gallons to case of 3 gallons. 2.50×1.25=	3.125
Fourth: Add $1.15 to secure price of 3 gallon case in half-gallon containers	1.15
	4.275

SEC. 4.8 Types and kinds of California grape wine for which a special maximum price may be authorized pursuant to section 4.9. A processor who is unable to establish an adjusted March 1942 price for a particular type and kind of bulk or packaged non-current California grape wine may apply to the Office of Price Administration for authority to establish a special maximum price therefor, if such wine requires individual consideration. In general, the wine will not be deemed to require such consideration unless:

(a) It is produced principally from varietal types of grapes (as defined in section 7.12 (a) (41)); or unless

(b) Applicable United States labelling laws and regulations permit the processor to label individual packages thereof as wine of the 1941 or earlier vintage; or unless

(c) It is produced by blending two or more kinds of wine, and non-current wine is the principal component of the wine resulting; or unless

(d) It has been subjected to cellar treatment by methods or to an extent generally recognized as producing a wine requiring individual consideration, such treatment involving additional fining, stabilization, finishing, racking, filtering, aging, binning and other cellar treatment beyond that customarily given non-current wines.

SEC. 4.9 Application for authority to establish maximum prices—(a) Who is permitted or required to file. (1) Any processor who desires to sell or offer for sale bulk or packaged non-current California grape wine for which a special maximum price may be authorized pursuant to the provisions of section 4.8 may make application under this section for authority to establish such maximum price.

(2) Any seller who is required by any provision of this article to make application for authority to establish any maximum price, or who is unable to determine a maximum price for a particular sale of any wine or related product to which this article applies shall make application under this section.

(b) Prohibition. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section:

(1) A processor making application for authority to establish a special maximum price for bulk or packaged non-current California grape wine shall not, prior to the date on which that authority is granted, sell, offer to sell, or deliver the wine that is the subject of the application at any prices in excess of those provided therefor under other applicable provisions of this article; and

(2) A seller required to make application for authority to establish a maximum price for a particular sale shall not make, or agree to make that sale until after the application is filed and authority granted.

(c) Adjustable pricing while an application under this section is pending before the Office of Price Administration. (1) If permitted by the Office of Price Administration, but not otherwise, a person making application under this section may, after the application is filed and while it is pending, sell, offer to sell and deliver the wine or related product that is the subject of the application if the sale, offer to sell, or delivery is made under an agreement with the customer to adjust the price charged to an amount not in excess of the maximum price therefor later established under this section. Such permission may be given only if necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

The permission may be given by letter addressed to applicant, signed by the Price Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom authority to grant such permission has been delegated.

(2) Permission to use adjustable pricing given under this paragraph may be revoked at any time in the manner in which it was given. It shall be deemed revoked on the day on which authority to establish a maximum price is granted, or such maximum price is otherwise established pursuant to this section: Provided, That with respect to any sale which the applicant is required to make at a price posted or listed with a state or other public authority, he may continue so to sell, offer to sell or deliver the wine or related product until the effective date for prices thus posted or listed at the first opportunity after the 4th day (including Sundays and holidays) after the authority applied for is granted, or an applicable maximum price is otherwise established pursuant to this section.

(d) Contents of application. The application shall be in writing, signed by the processor or his authorized agent, and sent in duplicate to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., by registered mail, return receipt requested. It shall contain the following:

(1) The processor's name and address, and the name and address of the person signing the application.

(2) The section of this article which requires or permits applicant to file the application.

(3) A description of the wine or related product for which authority to establish a maximum price is sought, including (if the subject of the application is packaged wine) a statement of the date on which OPA Form No. 635–369a, 635–369b or 635–369c was filed for the particular brand, or if no such form was filed, copies of the approved front label and the back label, if any, of any one container size of the wine. The description shall supply the following information if not disclosed by the form previously filed with the Office of Price Administration or by such labels:

(i) The kind of wine, e. g. still wine, sparkling wine, carbonated wine, etc.

(ii) The type of wine, e. g. Sherry, Port, Muscatel, etc.

(iii) The sub-type designation of the wine, e. g. natural, dry, pale dry, etc.

(iv) The appellation of origin, such as Napa Valley, Livermore Valley, etc.

(v) Alcohol content of wines containing 14% or more alcohol by volume. For wines containing less than 14% alcohol by volume, alcohol content may, but need not be stated.

(vi) For bulk wine, the brand name, if any.

(4) The maximum price f. o. b. processor's premises which applicant proposes to establish for his sales of the wine or related product to each of his classes of customers for each package and case size. If applicant has established maximum prices therefor under sections 4.3, 4.5 or 4.6 for sales to certain of his classes of customers the application shall state such maximum prices and the classes of customers to which each applies.

NOTE: Proposed maximum prices for sales in packages must be stated f. o. b. processor's premises in carload quantity, including United States excise taxes, for each package size and class of customers applicant desires to sell. Proposed maximum prices for sales in bulk must be stated f. o. b. processor's premises in carload quantity, exclusive of all United States, state or local excise taxes, and if applicant desires to sell in barrels or other containers, shall state the amount included therein for such barrels or containers.

(5) If the processor seeks to establish a special maximum price for non-current wine he shall certify that he is unable to determine an adjusted March 1942 price for the type and quality of wine and shall state all facts pertinent to a determination of the character of the wine and its proper price class, including (but not limited to):

(i) A description of the kinds and varieties of grapes from which such wine is produced, the name of the regions or districts in which such grapes were grown, and a statement of the season in which such grapes were purchased and applicant's costs therefor.

(ii) In the instance of vintage wine, the vintage year thereof.

(iii) In the instance of wine produced by blending component wines, the ages, types and characteristics of the component wines.

(iv) A description of the cellar treatment given to the wine and applicant's cost for such treatment. The description of cellar treatment shall include a statement of the length of time the wine has been aged, the nature of the cooperage used for that purpose, and the fining, stabilization, racking, binning and other cellar treatment given to it, and shall contain a comparison of the methods and costs of such cellar treatment with the methods and costs of cellar treatment given by applicant to current wine, with an explanation of any differences in methods.

(e) When and how authority is given or denied—(1) Approval of or objection to application. If within 60 days (including Sundays and holidays) after receipt of the application by the Office of Price Administration, the applicant shall not receive notice of objection to the maximum prices proposed in his application by letter from the Office of Price Administration, he shall be deemed authorized to establish such maximum prices for sales of the wine or related product in the container sizes and to the particular classes of customers described therein: Provided, That if within the 60 day period the Office of Price Administration shall by letter request supplemental information with respect to any matter stated in or omitted from the application, that period shall be figured from the date on which the requested supplemental information is received in writing by the Office of Price Administration. The authority so granted may be revoked by the Price Administrator at any time. Upon written request of the applicant received by the Office of Price Administration within 30 days (including Sundays and holidays) after the date of a notice of objection given under this paragraph, the Office of Price Administration will issue a formal order denying authority to establish the maximum prices requested in his application.

(2) By order or amendment. The Price Administrator may, at any time, by order or by amendment to this article establish maximum prices for sales of any type or quality of domestic wine or related product to one or more classes of customers. The maximum prices established by any such order or amendment shall supersede all maximum prices previously authorized under (1) above.

(f) Compliance with price posting or listing requirements. Permission to use adjustable pricing and authority to establish maximum prices granted by the Price Administrator pursuant to application under this section, or by order or by amendment to this article shall not authorize an applicant to sell or offer an item for sale until after compliance with provisions of any applicable statute, ordinance or regulation requiring the posting or listing of his prices.

SEC. 4.10 Notice of maximum prices to consumers. (a) Each processor who sells or offers packaged domestic wine for sale to consumers shall adopt before October 22, 1943, and thereafter continue to observe one of the following practices with respect to notifying consumers that prices charged are not in excess of maximum prices established under this article:

(1) Use of marking on individual containers. Before delivering an item to a consumer, a processor may mark on the container in plainly visible letters and figures, his selling price for the particular brand and container size (exclusive of retail sales taxes) and a statement that the price so marked is his maximum price under this article or less, and his name and address. The following:

OPA Price $_____
(insert amount)
(name of processor)
(address of processor)

so written or stamped on a label or on a state or local tax stamp affixed to the container shall be compliance with this requirement.

A processor who is the holder of a license or permit bearing a distinguishing number and issued under an applicable statute or ordinance, authorizing him to make sales of packaged domestic wine to consumers may substitute such license or permit number for the statement of his name and address required hereunder.

(2) Use of a sales slip or receipt. At or before delivering any individual container of packaged domestic wine to a consumer, the processor may hand the purchaser a sales slip or receipt setting forth in plainly visible letters and figures:

(i) The brand name, container, size and number of individual containers of each item sold to the purchaser, and

(ii) The selling price of each such individual container, or the total selling price for all such containers (exclusive of retail sales taxes), and

(iii) The name and address of the processor and date of sale.

A processor complying with this requirement shall post and maintain in a place readily visible to consumers making purchases in his establishment a legible sign or placard reading substantially as follows:

Prices charged in this store are our OPA ceiling prices to consumers or less (exclusive of retail sales taxes).

(3) Use of price posting in the processor's establishment. A processor may post his maximum price for each item sold or offered for sale to consumers according to one of the following methods:

(i) By displaying a list of the names of each brand of packaged domestic wine offered for sale to consumers, his maximum price therefor and a statement that such maximum price is his OPA ceiling price to consumers or less (exclusive of retail sales taxes). When more than one type, quality or container size of a particular brand is offered for sale, each such type, quality or container size and the maximum price thereof shall be separately itemized. Such list may also contain the processor's selling price for each item described therein. The list shall be posted and maintained in a place readily visible to consumers making purchases in the processor's establishment, shall be in letters and figures plainly visible and legible to such consumers and shall be maintained complete and correct. A processor complying with this requirement shall not sell or offer any item for sale to a consumer until the item and his maximum price therefor is so listed.

(ii) Except when prohibited by statute or ordinance, a processor may mark his selling and/or maximum price for each item on the shelf, bin, rack or other holder thereof in letters plainly visible and legible to consumers making purchases in his establishment. A processor complying with this requirement shall so maintain complete and correct markings of his selling and/or maximum prices for all items he offers for sale to consumers and shall not sell or offer an item for sale to a consumer until his selling price therefor is thus marked.

(iii) A processor posting or marking prices in accordance with (i) or (ii) above shall post and maintain in a place readily visible to consumers making purchases in his establishment a legible sign or placard reading substantially as follows:

Prices posted in this store are our OPA selling prices to consumers or less (exclusive of retail sales taxes).

(b) The provisions in this section shall not apply to a processor's sales of an unopened case of individual containers or to his prices therefor.

SEC. 4.11 Other provisions of this regulation applicable to sales for which maximum prices are established under this article. The following sections of Article VII of this regulation shall apply to sales for which maximum prices are established under this article:

Section 7.1 Treatment of fractional parts of a cent in figuring maximum prices.
Section. 7.1a Changes in case sizes.
Section 7.2 When a sales tax may be charged in addition to a maximum price.
Section 7.2a Treatment of brokers' compensation.
Section 7.3 When new taxes, or increases in existing taxes may be added to a maximum price.
Section 7.3a Distribution of packaged distilled spirits or wine.
Section 7.4 Use of minimum resale prices under State Fair Trade laws.
Section 7.4a Maximum prices for sellers for whom no specific provision is made.
Section 7.5 Adjustment of maximum prices for tax exempt sales to the United States or any agency thereof.
Section 7.5a Deposit charges on containers.
Section 7.6 Certain provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation continued in effect.
Section 7.6a Licensing.
Section 7.7 Export sales.
Section 7.7a Compliance with other laws or regulations.
Section 7.8 Compliance with this regulation.
Section 7.9 Current records required.
Section 7.10 Petitions for amendment.
Section 7.11 Adjustable pricing in certain instances.
Section 7.12 Definitions.
Section 7.13 Geographical applicability.

SEC. 4.12 Dates on which this article shall apply. This article shall apply to all sales and offers to sell and deliveries of bulk or packaged California grape wine and related products for which maximum prices are established or provided for therein, made on and after, but not before, October 22, 1943 by any seller subject thereto; except that

(a) This article shall not apply to deliveries made on or before October 31, 1943 pursuant to sales or contracts to sell made prior to October 1, 1943; and

(b) This article shall not apply to any sale which the seller is required by statute, ordinance or regulation to make at a price posted or listed prior to October 7, 1943 with a state or other public authority (if the price so posted or listed is greater or less than that established under this article for such sale) until on and after the first effective date for prices so posted or listed at the first opportunity after October 12, 1943; and

(c) As to a brand, type and kind of bulk or packaged non-current California grape wine for which a processor is permitted by section 4.8 to apply for authority to establish a special maximum price, if the processor gives notice of intention to file such application to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., on or before October 22, 1943, and such application is filed in accordance with section 4.9 on or before November 10, 1943, this article shall not apply to the processor's sales, offers to sell or deliveries of such bulk or packaged non-current wine made prior to the sixtieth day after the filing of such application or January 10, 1944, whichever is the earlier date, or to sales of that wine which the seller is required by statute, ordinance or regulation to make at a price posted or listed prior to the appropriate date referred to above with a state or other public authority (if the price so posted or listed is greater or less than that established under this article for such sale) until on and after the first effective date for prices so posted or listed at the first opportunity after that date.

ARTICLE V—MAXIMUM PRICES FOR SALES OF PACKAGED DISTILLED SPIRITS AND PACKAGED WINE BY WHOLESALERS, RETAILERS, MONOPOLY STATES, AND PRIMARY DISTRIBUTING AGENTS

SEC. 5.1 Purposes of Article V—(a) Generally. Article V establishes maximum prices for sales of packaged (but not bulk) distilled spirits and wine by the following persons:

(1) Wholesalers, as defined in section 7.12; (2) Retailers, as defined in section 7.12; (3) Monopoly states, as defined in section 7.12 and (4) Primary distributing agents, as defined in section 7.12; (5) Sales in the course of trade by a trustee in bankruptcy, receiver, administrator, executor, fiduciary or other officer of a court, engaged in continuing a business under a court order; (6) Privately conducted sales and auctions not held pursuant to an order of sale of a State or Federal court; (7) Sheriffs' sales, constables' or bailiffs' sales, marshals' sales and other sales or auctions held under writ or execution; (8) Sales by governmental bodies or agencies, held pursuant to statute, ordinance or both, notwithstanding the provisions of Supplementary Order No. 81.*

[Subparagraphs (5), (6), (7), and (8) added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(b) Sales to which this Article does not apply. Article V does not apply to the following sales by those persons:

(1) Sales of items which the seller imports or has imported for his account. Either section 1.4 or 1.5 or 1.7 of Article I (as may be applicable) must be used to establish maximum prices for such sales. However, an importer who prior to August 9, 1943 operated both import and wholesale divisions and had an established practice of selling items to independent wholesalers and billing them to his own wholesale division at prices equal to those he charged independent wholesalers, may while he continues to observe these practices, consider his wholesale division as a separate entity and use the percentage mark-ups provided in Article V to determine maximum prices for sales by his wholesale division. Similarly, an importer who prior to August 9, 1943 operated both wholesale and retail divisions and had an established practice of selling items to independent retailers and billing them to his own retail division at prices equal to those he charged independent retailers, may while he continues to observe those practices, treat his retail division in a like manner.

(2) Sales of items which the seller processes or has processed for his account. Maximum prices for such sales must be established under other applicable regulations or orders of the Office of Price Administration or under Articles III or IV (as applicable and when effective) of this regulation. However, a processor who prior to August 9, 1943 operated both a processing and a wholesale division and had an established practice of selling items to independent wholesalers and billing them to his own wholesale division at prices equal to those he charged independent wholesalers, may while he continues to observe those practices, consider his wholesale division as a separate entity and use the percentage mark-ups provided in Article V to determine maximum prices for sales by his wholesale division. Similarly, a processor who prior to August 9, 1943 operated both wholesale and retail divisions and had an established practice of selling items to independent retailers and billing them to his own retail division at prices equal to those he charged independent retailers, may while he continues to observe those practices, treat his retail division in a like manner.

[Subparagraphs (1) and (2) as amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 13496, effective 10-7-43]

(3) Sales by an "on premise licensee" or other person of distilled spirits or wines, by the drink for consumption on the licensed premises. However this article applies to—

(i) Sales of packaged distilled spirits or wines made to an "on premise licensee" by a wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state or primary distributing agent; and

(ii) Sales of packaged distilled spirits or wines made by an "on premise licensee" regardless of whether the seal or "strip stamp" is broken, if the purchaser is permitted to or does remove any part of the distilled spirits or wine in the container from the licensed premises.

(4) Sales of bulk distilled spirits or wine, brandy, neutral spirits, alcohol, grape spirits, spirits fruit, high wines or concentrates (whether or not by warehouse receipt or other evidence of title.)

[Subparagraphs (3) and (4) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(c) Prior regulations, orders and interpretations superseded. Except as otherwise provided in this regulation, Article V supersedes all other maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations issued by the Office of Price Administration before August 14, 1943, with respect to sales of packaged imported and domestic distilled spirits or wine by any wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state or primary distributing agent, including the applicable provisions of the following:

(1) The General Maximum Price Regulation;

(2) Maximum Price Regulation No. 193, as amended;

(3) Orders Nos. 1 through 5 inclusive under Maximum Price Regulation No. 193;

(4) Article II of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14;

(5) Section 2.3 (b) of § 1499.26 of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 1;

Provided, That such maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations shall remain in effect with respect to a particular sale of packaged distilled spirits or wine by any such person until provisions of this article become applicable thereto.

SEC. 5.2 General rules for figuring maximum prices—(a) When maximum prices are to be figured. Each wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state and primary distributing agent must figure a maximum price for any item to be sold on and after August 14, 1943 as follows:

(1) Items in stock at the close of business on August 9, 1943. Initial maximum prices for each item in stock at the close of business on August 9, 1943 must be figured between August 14, 1943 and August 30, 1943 and will apply to all sales, offers to sell and deliveries of the item made on and after August 30, 1943, unless applicability of such prices to certain sales is delayed by provisions of section 5.10 permitting compliance with state price posting or listing requirements and practices. Until the initial maximum prices for such items become applicable, a wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state and primary distributing agent may continue to sell, offer for sale or deliver those items at maximum prices established under regulations and orders of the Office of Price Administration in effect prior to the issuance of this article.

(2) Items not in stock at the close of business on August 9, 1943. Initial maximum prices for each item not in stock at the close of business on August 9, 1943 are to be figured and made applicable before any sale, offer to sell or delivery of the item is made. No wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state or primary distributing agent shall sell, offer for sale or deliver any item not in stock at the close of business on August 9, 1943 until after establishing initial maximum prices for the item in accordance with this article.

(3) Refiguring maximum prices. A wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state or primary distributing agent must refigure a maximum price for an item in accordance with this article if cost for the item changes after the maximum price has been established.

(b) Figuring maximum prices for each item separately. Each item of packaged distilled spirits or wine to be sold or offered for sale by a wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state or primary distributing agent after August 29, 1943 must have a separate maximum price. An "item" is a particular brand name, container size, type designation or formula of distilled spirits or wine. One item must not be considered the same as another if there is any difference in:

(1) Their brand names, or

(2) Their countries of origin, or

(3) The names of their processors, or

(4) Their container sizes (quarts as compared with fifths, pints as compared with half-pints etc.), or

(5) Requirements of United States labeling laws or regulations applicable to each, with respect to material information contained in their labels. Age, proof, type designation and ingredients as stated on the labels, shall be deemed material information. "Bottled in bond" domestic whiskey shall be deemed to be four years of age where no age statement appears on the labels.

[Subparagraph (5) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(c) Customer classifications. (1) Each wholesaler, retailer and primary distributing agent must establish a separate maximum price for each item to each class of his customers he sells as follows:

(i) For wholesalers. Customers are to be classified as retailers, consumers, wholesalers or monopoly states.

(ii) For retailers. Customers are to be classified as consumers or retailers.

(iii) For primary distributing agents. Customers are to be classified as wholesalers, monopoly states, retailers or consumers.

(2) Industrial users, institutional users and the United States or any agency thereof shall, for sales by wholesalers and primary distributing agents, be classified as retailers. For sales by retailers, they shall be classified as consumers.

(3) Each monopoly state must establish a separate maximum price for its sales of each item according to the types of sale it makes. It must classify a sale to a particular customer in accordance with its March 1942 customary sales classification.

(d) Discounts, allowances, price differentials and terms of sale. (1) Customary discounts in effect during March 1942, in accordance with a wholesaler's, retailer's, or primary distributing agent's March 1942 customer classifications, must be applied to his maximum prices established under this article: Provided, That discounts and allowances based solely on quantity purchases (in dollars or units) need not be maintained.

(2) If a wholesaler, retailer or primary distributing agent makes his terms of sale to a customer more onerous than those in effect during March 1942 for his sales to a customer of the same class, he must make a compensating reduction from his maximum price established under this article.

(3) If a wholesaler or primary distributing agent directly or indirectly requires a customer to make any payment in advance of delivery (whether to the seller or to another person), he must reduce his maximum price established under this article for that sale by an amount equal to interest at the rate of 5 percent per annum on the amount of the advance payment from the date the payment is made to the date on which the item is delivered or the advance payment refunded to the customer.

(e) Wholesaler or retailer acting as a primary distributing agent with respect to certain items only. A wholesaler or retailer who is a primary distributing agent for certain items shall determine his maximum prices for sales of those items in accordance with provisions of this article applicable to primary distributing agents. He shall determine his maximum prices for sales of other items under the provisions of this article applicable to wholesalers or retailers, as may be the case.

(f) F. o. b. and delivered prices. (1) Maximum prices established under this article for a wholesaler, retailer or primary distributing agent are prices f. o. b. the metropolitan area of warehouse or place of business.

(2) Maximum prices established under this article for monopoly states are prices f. o. b. March 1942 freight base zone.

(3) If a wholesaler, retailer, or primary distributing agent sells an item f. o. b. a point of delivery outside the metropolitan area of his warehouse or place of business, he may add to his maximum price for the item established under this article, the charges for transporting the item from that metropolitan area to the point of delivery at the rate he actually pays.

SEC. 5.3 Determination of "net cost" used in figuring maximum prices for wholesalers, retailers and monopoly states—(a) What purchases may be used to determine net cost. Except as otherwise provided in this article, a "base purchase" to be used by a wholesaler, retailer, or monopoly state to determine net cost of an item must be a purchase by him from a customary type of supplier delivered by a customary means of transportation. No accommodation purchase (whether or not from a customary type of supplier) shall be used as a base purchase in determining net cost of an item. Purchases made on memorandum invoice or purchases of small quantities of an item at exceptional prices to fill a shortage are accommodation purchases. No purchase (whether or not from a customary type of supplier) to fill an order of the United States or any agency thereof shall be used as a base purchase.

NOTE: For a definition of "customary type of supplier" see section 7.12.

(b) Elements of net cost. The net cost to be used by a wholesaler, retailer or monopoly state to determine a maximum price is the total of the following elements of cost actually paid by him with respect to a particular base purchase of the item to be priced:

(1) Purchase price. The supplier's selling price per case (not in excess of his maximum price under applicable regulations or orders of the Office of Price Administration), less all discounts,

[Subparagraph (1) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(i) Excepting any discount for prompt payment (cash discount); but

(ii) Including any amount subtracted from the supplier's maximum price to compensate for discontinuance of a discount for prompt payment.

(2) Freight. Transportation charges from the supplier's point of shipment to the wholesaler's, retailer's, or monopoly state's customary receiving point for the item, at the rate paid. No amount shall be included for

(i) Any transportation charges from point of shipment included in the supplier's selling price; or

(ii) Expense of hauling, drayage or handling within the metropolitan area of the shipping or receiving point: Provided, That a monopoly state may include such portion of that expense as it customarily included during March 1942 in determining cost for purposes of mark-up.

(3) Taxes and United States customs duties—(i) For wholesalers and retailers. United States customs duties and United States state and local excise taxes at rates in effect on November 2, 1942, if not included in the supplier's selling price.

(ii) For monopoly states. United States customs duties and United States excise taxes at rates in effect on March 31, 1942, if not included in the supplier's selling price, and any state taxes at rates in effect on March 31, 1942, customarily included during March 1942 in determining cost for applying mark-up.

(4) License, income, franchise, receipts, gross receipts, sales, use or other similar Federal, State or local taxes cannot be included in the net cost of a wholesaler, retailer, or monopoly state.

[Subparagraph (4) added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44. Note deleted by Am. 15]

SEC. 5.4 Maximum prices for wholesalers.

[Note deleted by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(a) Generally. A wholesaler must establish his maximum prices to each class of customers as follows:

(1) For initial maximum prices—use paragraph (b). A base purchase made between August 9, 1943 and August 30, 1943 may be used to figure initial maximum prices. A wholesaler is not required to establish a refigured maximum price for an item until he makes a base purchase thereof after August 29, 1943.

[Last two sentences added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(2) For a refigured maximum price if net cost for the item changed after August 29, 1943—use paragraph (c).

(3) A wholesaler who is the processor or primary distributing agent of an item must not use this section to determine maximum prices for that item unless permitted to do so by other provisions of this regulation.

[Subparagraph (3) added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(b) Initial maximum prices—(1) For sales to retailers. A wholesaler's initial maximum price per case to retailers shall be his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his latest base purchase of the item, or if he made no base purchase of the item since March 1942, his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his most recent purchase of the item from any supplier, multiplied by the percentage mark-up for the item being priced as follows:

(i) 1.15 for distilled spirits other than cordials, liqueurs and specialties.

(ii) 1.25 for wine, wine based cordials and other rectified wines.

(iii) 1.20 for cordials, liqueurs and specialties to which (ii) does not apply; Provided, That any Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration may, by order, adjust downward the percentage mark-up so established for sales of one or more of such classes of commodities in any state within its jurisdiction, if it appears that such percentage mark-up will permit wholesalers in such state to obtain an excessive margin. In determining whether or not margins are excessive, the appropriate office shall consider margins prevailing in the particular state for wholesalers during March 1942 and the amounts of the costs to which they were applied. A percentage mark-up provided by any such order of a Regional Office shall have the same force and effect as if expressly provided herein for the particular sales to which it is applicable.

[Subparagraph (1) as amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 11851, effective 8-25-43]

(2) For sales to consumers. A wholesaler's initial maximum price per case to a consumer shall be his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his latest base purchase of the item, or if he has made no base purchase of the item since March 1942, his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his most recent purchase of the item from any supplier, multiplied by the percentage mark-up provided in section 5.5 for sales of the same item by retailers to consumers.

(3) For sales to a monopoly state. A wholesaler's initial maximum price per case to a monopoly state shall be his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his latest base purchase of the item, or if he has made no base purchase of the item since March 1942, his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his most recent purchase of the item from any supplier. No mark-up shall be added for such sales.

(4) For sales to another wholesaler. A wholesaler's initial maximum price per case to another wholesaler shall be his maximum price per case provided in (1) above for sales of the particular container size to retailers, subject to any discount, allowance or price differential agreed upon. When making such sale the seller shall, at or before delivery of the item, give the buyer a notice in writing stating the seller's maximum price per case for the item to retailers and to consumers. A statement on the invoice substantially as follows shall be deemed compliance with this requirement:

Our ceiling prices per case to retailers for the above items are:

Item:	Maximum Price

Our ceiling prices per case to consumers for the above items are:

Item:	Maximum Price

A wholesaler's maximum price per case to any class of customers for an item purchased by him from another wholesaler shall not exceed the higher of

(i) His own maximum price for the item to a customer of the particular class figured according to the applicable provisions of this section, or

(ii) With respect to sales to retailers or consumers, the supplier's maximum price for a sale of the item to a customer of the particular class as stated in such notice plus freight for shipment from the selling wholesaler paid by the purchasing wholesaler. No markup on the amount of such freight may be added.

[Subparagraph (ii) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44. Note deleted by Am. 15]

(5) For individual containers. A wholesaler's initial maximum price for individual containers of an item to any class of customers shall be an amount determined by dividing his initial maximum price per case to a customer of the same class by the number of individual containers customarily packed in the case by his supplier: Provided, That, if a retailer has elected to purchase individual containers after a wholesaler has expressly given him the alternative of purchasing a case of the item at the wholesaler's maximum price per case for the particular container size, the wholesaler may add to his maximum price for individual containers to be sold to that retailer one of the following amounts according to the particular container size:

4 cents per container, if the container size is a gallon, half gallon, quart or fifth;
2 cents per container, if the container size is a pint or tenth;
1 cent per container, if the container size is a half-pint.

(c) Changes in maximum prices—(1) How long particular maximum prices continue in effect. A wholesaler's initial maximum prices and refigured maximum prices for an item shall apply to all his sales and offers to sell of the item so priced made prior to the date on which subsequently refigured maximum prices for sales thereof became applicable in accordance with (4) of this paragraph.

(2) When a wholesaler must refigure his maximum prices. A wholesaler who after August 29, 1943 receives a base purchase of an item shall figure his net cost therefor according to section 5.3. If such net cost per case differs from the net cost per case for the base purchase used in establishing the wholesaler's maximum prices then in effect for the item, the wholesaler may, if the most recent purchase shows the greater total and he must, if the most repent purchase shows the lesser total, establish refigured maximum prices for the item: Provided, That if the difference in net cost is 15 cents per case or less, the wholesaler shall not establish refigured maximum prices.

(3) How a wholesaler must refigure his maximum prices. A wholesaler required or permitted by this paragraph to establish refigured maximum prices for an item shall determine such prices under paragraph (b) of this section, substituting however, the net cost for his most recent base purchase for the net cost of his earlier base purchase.

(4) When refigured maximum prices become applicable. His refigured maximum prices determined under this paragraph shall apply to stock on hand and shall be the wholesaler's maximum prices for sales of the item on and after, but not before, the 4th day (exclusive of Sundays and holidays) following receipt of the base purchase to be used to establish such refigured maximum prices, until in turn superseded by other refigured maximum prices subsequently determined: Provided, That until on and after the earliest effective date for prices posted or listed at the first opportunity after the 4th day (exclusive of Sundays and holidays) after receipt of such base purchase, refigured maximum prices shall not apply to any sale which a wholesaler is required by statute, ordinance or regulation to make at a price posted or listed with a state or other public authority before receipt of the base purchase.

SEC. 5.5 Maximum prices for retailers.

[Note deleted by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(a) Generally. A retailer must establish his maximum prices to each class of customers as follows:

(1) For initial maximum prices—use paragraph (b). A base purchase made between August 9, 1943, and August 30, 1943, may be used to figure initial maximum prices. A retailer is not required to establish a refigured maximum price for an item until he makes a base purchase thereof after August 29, 1943.

[Last two sentences added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(2) For a refigured maximum price if net cost for the item changes after August 29, 1943—use paragraph (c).

(3) A retailer who is the processor or primary distributing agent of an item must not use this section to determine maximum prices for that item unless permitted to do so by other provisions of this regulation.

[Subparagraph (3) added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(b) Initial maximum prices—(1) For sales to consumers. A retailer's initial maximum price per case to consumers shall be his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his latest base purchase of the item or if he made no base purchase of the item since March 1942, his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his most recent purchase of the item from any supplier, multiplied by the percentage mark-up for the item being priced as follows:

(i) 1.333 for distilled spirits other than cordials, liqueurs and specialties.

(ii) 1.50 for wines, wine based cordials and other rectified wines.

(iii) 1.45 for cordials, liqueurs and specialties to which (ii) does not apply: Provided, That any Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration may by order adjust downward the percentage mark-up so established for sales of one or more of such classes of commodities in any state within its jurisdiction, if it appears that such percentage mark-up will permit retailers in such state to obtain an excessive margin. In determining whether or not margins are excessive the appropriate office shall consider margins prevailing in the particular state for retailers during March 1942 and the amounts of the costs to which they were applied. A percentage mark-up provided by any such order of a Regional Office shall have the same force and effect as if expressly provided herein for the particular sales to which it is applicable.

[Subparagraph (1) as amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 11851, effective 8-25-43]

(2) For sales to another retailer. A retailer's initial maximum price per case to another retailer shall be his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his latest base purchase of the item, or if he made no base purchase of the item since March 1942, his net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for his most recent purchase of the item from any supplier. No mark-up shall be added for such sales.

(3) For individual containers. A retailer's maximum price to consumers or to another retailer for individual containers of an item shall be an amount determined by dividing his initial maximum price per case to consumers or to another retailer respectively by the number of individual containers customarily packed in the case by his supplier.

[Note deleted by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(c) Changes in maximum prices—(1) How long particular maximum prices continue in effect. A retailer's initial maximum prices and refigured maximum prices for an item shall apply to all his sales and offers to sell of the item so priced made prior to the date on which subsequently refigured maximum prices for sales thereof become applicable in accordance with (4) of this paragraph.

(2) When a retailer must refigure his maximum prices. A retailer who after August 29, 1943, receives a base purchase of an item shall figure his net cost therefor according to section 5.3. If such net cost per case differs from the net cost per case for the base purchase used in establishing the retailer's maximum prices then in effect for the item, the retailer may, if the most recent purchase shows the greater total and he must, if the most recent purchase shows the lesser total, establish refigured maximum prices for the item: Provided, That if the difference in net cost is 15 cents per case or less, the retailer shall not establish refigured maximum prices.

(3) How a retailer must refigure his maximum prices. A retailer required or permitted by this paragraph to establish refigured maximum prices for an item shall determine such prices under paragraph (b) of this section, substituting however, the net cost for his most recent base purchase for the net cost of his earlier base purchase.

(4) When refigured maximum prices become applicable. His refigured maximum prices determined under this paragraph shall apply to stock on hand and shall be the retailer's maximum prices for sales of the item on and after, but not before, the 4th day (exclusive of Sundays and holidays) following receipt of the base purchase to be used to establish such refigured maximum prices, until in turn superseded by other refigured maximum prices subsequently determined: Provided, That until on and after the earliest effective date for prices posted or listed at the first opportunity after the 4th day (exclusive of Sundays and holidays) after receipt of such base purchase, refigured maximum prices shall not apply to any sale which a retailer is required by statute, ordinance or regulation to make at a price posted or listed with a state or other public authority before receipt of the base purchase.

SEC. 5.6 Maximum prices for monopoly states—(a) Generally. A monopoly state must establish its maximum prices as follows:

(1) For initial maximum prices—use paragraph (b).

(2) For a refigured maximum price if net cost for the item changes after August 29, 1943—use paragraph (c).

(b) Initial maximum prices. To figure its initial maximum price per case for an item a monopoly state shall:

(1) Multiply its net cost per case (figured according to section 5.3) for its most recent base purchase of the item (or if it made no base purchase of the item since March 1942, the net cost for its most recent purchase of the item from any supplier) by the highest percentage in use for the item during March, 1942, according to the statute, ordinance or regulation then prescribing its markup;

(2) Add to the figure at (1): (i) The applicable increase effective November 1, 1942 in United States excise taxes.

(ii) Any applicable state taxes in effect on November 2, 1942, customarily included in its price during March, 1942, to the extent that the amount thereof is not included in net cost;

(3) The resulting amount shall be the monopoly state's maximum price for sales of the item per case to the class of customers to which, during March 1942, the percentage used under (1) above applied.

(4) Where the monopoly state during March 1942, used its price to the class of customers figured on the percentage applied under (1) above as a base price, and determined its price to other classes of customers by applying a discount to, reducing or increasing that base price by an established method, its maximum prices for sales to those other classes of customers shall be determined by reducing or increasing the resulting amount under (3) in accordance with the same method.

(5) A monopoly state's initial maximum price for individual containers to any class of customers shall be its maximum price per case to a customer of the same class transformed into a price for individual containers in accordance with the method customarily used by the monopoly state during March 1942, to determine its price for individual containers.

(6) A monopoly state's initial maximum prices shall be its maximum prices for all its sales of an item made on and after, but not before, the effective date of its complete or supplementary price list first promulgated after August 29, 1943.

(c) Changes in maximum prices—(1) How long particular maximum prices remain in effect. A monopoly state's initial maximum prices and refigured maximum prices for an item shall apply to all its sales and offers to sell of the item so priced made prior to the date on which subsequently refigured maximum prices for sales thereof become applicable in accordance with (4) of this paragraph.

(2) When a monopoly state must refigure its maximum prices. A monopoly state which after August 29, 1943, receives a base purchase of an item shall, or upon acceptance of an official offer of an item, it may determine its net cost therefor according to section 5.3. If such net cost per case differs from the net cost per case of the base purchase used in establishing its maximum prices then in effect for the item, the monopoly state may, if the most recent purchase shows the greater total, and it must, if the most recent offer or purchase shows the lesser total, establish refigured maximum prices for the item; Provided, That if the difference in net cost is 15 cents per case or less, the monopoly state shall not establish refigured maximum prices.

(3) How a monopoly state must refigure its maximum prices. A monopoly state required or permitted by this paragraph to establish refigured maximum prices for an item shall determine such prices under paragraph (b) of this section, substituting, however, its net cost for the most recent offer or base purchase for the net cost of its earlier base purchase.

(4) When refigured maximum prices become applicable. Its refigured maximum prices determined under this paragraph shall be the monopoly state's maximum prices for sales of the item made on and after, but not before, the effective date of its complete or supplementary price list first promulgated after the 7th day (excluding Sunday and holidays) following receipt of the official offer or the invoice for the particular base purchase to be used.

(d) Disposition of fractional parts of a cent and rounding prices to an even 5 cents. (1) In determining its initial or refigured maximum prices under this section a monopoly state shall follow its customary March 1942 practice with reference to disposition of fractional parts of a cent and shall reduce or may increase its maximum price in accordance therewith.

(2) If during March 1942, a monopoly state customarily followed the practice of rounding its prices to a sum divisible by 5, it may continue to follow that practice by reducing or increasing its maximum prices for any item in accordance with its customary March 1942 practice.

SEC. 5.7 Maximum prices for primary distributing agents.

[Note deleted by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(a) Generally. A primary distributing agent must establish maximum prices to each class of customers as follows:

(1) For initial maximum prices—use paragraph (b)

(2) For a refigured maximum price if elements of cost for the item change after August 29, 1943—use paragraph (c).

(3) This section applies only to sales of an item for which the seller acts as a primary distributing agent.

[Subparagraph (3) added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

(b) Initial maximum prices. A primary distributing agent's initial maximum price per case for an item shall be as follows:

(1) Sales to wholesalers and monopoly states. The total of the following:

(i) Supplier's charge. A supplier's charge according to the item being priced as follows:

(a) Packaged imported distilled spirits and packaged imported wine. The importer's maximum price per case for a sale of the item to a wholesaler or monopoly state respectively as established under Article I of this regulation.

(b) Packaged domestic distilled spirits and packaged domestic wine. The processor's maximum price per case for a sale of the item to a wholesaler or monopoly state (as may be the case) as established under other applicable regulations or orders of the Office of Price Administration or under Article III or IV (as applicable and when effective) of this regulation.

(ii) Freight. Transportation charges per case from the supplier's point of shipment to the primary distributing agent's customary receiving point for the item at the rate the primary distributing agent paid. No amount shall be included for

(a) Transportation charges on items sold f. o. b. supplier's shipping point and shipped directly to the customer at the customer's expense; or

(b) Any transportation charges from point of shipment included in the supplier's charge; or

(c) Expense of hauling, drayage or handling within the metropolitan area of the shipping or receiving point.

(iii) Taxes and United States customs duties. The applicable amount per case of United States customs duties and United States, state or local excise taxes, all at rates in effect on November 2, 1942, if not included in the supplier's charge. License, income, franchise, receipt, gross receipts, sales, use or other similar federal, state or local taxes may not be included.

[Last sentence added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44. Note deleted by Am. 15]

(2) For sales to retailers. A primary distributing agent's initial maximum price per case to retailers shall be his initial maximum price per case for sales to wholesalers and monopoly states, established under (1) above, multiplied by the percentage mark-up provided under section 5.4 for a sale of the item by wholesalers to retailers. His initial maximum price to retailers for individual containers shall be an amount figured on the basis of his initial maximum price per case in the manner and subject to the limitations provided under section 5.4 for determining a wholesaler's initial maximum price to retailers for individual containers.

(3) For sales to consumers. A primary distributing agent's initial maximum price per case to consumers shall be his initial maximum price per case for sales to wholesalers and monopoly states, established under (1) above, multiplied by the percentage mark-up provided under section 5.5 for a sale of the item by retailers to consumers. His initial maximum price to consumers for individual containers shall be an amount figured on the basis of his initial maximum price per case in the manner provided under section 5.5 for determining a retailer's initial maximum price to consumers for individual containers.

(c) Changes in maximum prices—(1) How long particular maximum prices continue in effect. A primary distributing agent's initial maximum price and refigured maximum price for an item shall apply to all his sales, offers to sell of the item so priced made prior to the date on which subsequently, refigured maximum prices for sales thereof become applicable in accordance with (4) of this paragraph.

(2) When a primary distributing agent must refigure his maximum prices. A primary distributing agent who after August 29, 1943 receives a purchase of an item for which his initial maximum prices are established under this section shall figure the elements of his cost therefor included in his initial maximum price established under (b) above. If such elements of cost per case differ from the elements of cost per case used in establishing the primary distributing agent's maximum prices then in effect for the item, the primary distributing agent may, if the most recent purchase shows the greater total and he must, if the most recent purchase shows the lesser total, establish refigured maximum prices for the item; Provided, That if the difference in the total of those elements of cost is 15 cents per case or less the primary distributing agent shall not establish refigured maximum prices.

(3) How a primary distributing agent must refigure his maximum prices. A primary distributing agent required or permitted by this paragraph to establish refigured maximum prices for an item shall determine such prices under paragraph (b) of this section, substituting however, the elements of cost for his most recent purchase for the elements of cost of his earlier purchase.

(4) When refigured maximum prices become applicable. His refigured maximum prices determined under this paragraph shall apply to his stock on hand and shall be the primary distributing agent's maximum prices for sales of the item on and after, but not before, the 4th day (exclusive of Sundays and holidays) following receipt of the purchase to be used to establish such refigured maximum prices, until in turn superseded by other refigured maximum prices subsequently determined: Provided, That until on and after the earliest effective date for prices posted or listed at the first opportunity after the 4th day (exclusive of Sundays and holidays) after receipt of such purchase, refigured maximum prices shall not apply to any sale which a primary distributing agent is required by statute, ordinance or regulation to make at a price posted or listed with a state or other public authority before receipt of the purchase.

SEC. 5.8 Notice of maximum prices to consumers. (a) Each wholesaler, retailer or primary distributing agent who sells or offers packaged distilled spirits or wine for sale to consumers shall adopt before August 30, 1943, and thereafter continue to observe one of the following practices with respect to notifying consumers that prices charged are not in excess of maximum prices established under this article:

(1) Use of marking on individual containers. Before delivering an item to a customer, the wholesaler, retailer or primary distributing agent may mark on the container in plainly visible letters and figures his selling price for the particular brand and container size (exclusive of retail sales taxes), and a statement that the price so marked is his maximum price under this article or less, and his name and address. The following:

OPA price $_____
(insert amount)
(name of seller)
(address of seller)

so written or stamped on a label or on a state or local tax stamp affixed to the container shall be compliance with this requirement.

A wholesaler, retailer or primary distributing agent who is the holder of a license or permit bearing a distinguishing number and issued under an applicable statute or ordinance, authorizing him to make sales of packaged distilled spirits or wine to consumers may substitute such license or permit number for the statement of his name and address required hereunder.

(2) Use of a sales slip or receipt. At or before delivering any individual container of packaged distilled spirits or wine to a consumer, a wholesaler, retailer or primary distributing agent may hand the purchaser a sales slip or receipt setting forth in plainly visible letters and figures:

(i) The brand name, container size and number of individual containers of each item sold to the purchaser, and

(ii) The selling price of each such individual container, or the total selling price for all such containers (exclusive of retail sales taxes), and

(iii) The name and address of the seller and date of sale.

A seller complying with this requirement shall post and maintain in a place readily visible to consumers making purchases in his establishment a legible sign or placard reading substantially as follows:

Prices charged in this store are our OPA ceiling prices to consumers or less (exclusive of retail sales taxes).

(3) Use of price posting. A wholesaler, retailer or primary distributing agent may post his maximum price for each item sold or offered for sale to consumers according to one of the following methods:

(i) By displaying a list of the names of each brand of packaged distilled spirits or wine offered for sale to consumers, his maximum price therefore and a statement that such maximum price is his OPA ceiling price to consumers or less (exclusive of retail sales taxes). When more than one type, formula or container size of a particular brand is offered for sale each such type, formula or container size and the maximum price thereof shall be separately itemized. Such list may also contain the particular wholesaler's, retailer's or primary distributing agent's selling price for each item described therein. The list shall be posted and maintained in a place readily visible to consumers making purchases in the seller's establishment, shall be in letters and figures plainly visible and legible to such consumers and shall be maintained complete and correct. A seller complying with this requirement shall not sell or offer any item for sale to a consumer until the item and his maximum price therefor is so listed.

(ii) Except when prohibited by statute or ordinance, a wholesaler, retailer or primary distributing agent may mark his selling and/or maximum price for each item on the shelf, bin, rack or other holder thereof in letters plainly visible and legible to consumers making purchases in his establishment. A seller complying with this requirement shall so maintain complete and correct markings of his selling and/or maximum prices for all items he offers for sale to consumers and shall not sell or offer any item for sale to a consumer until his selling price therefor is thus marked.

(iii) A seller posting or marking prices in accordance with (i) or (ii) above shall post and maintain in a place readily visible to consumers making purchases in his establishment a legible sign or placard reading substantially as follows:

Prices posted in this store are our OPA ceiling prices to consumers or less (exclusive of retail sales taxes).

Provided, That no additional sign or placard shall be required if the seller posts and maintains a substantially identical sign or placard in accordance with other regulations of the Office of Price Administration.

(b) The provisions in this section shall not apply to sales of an unopened case of individual packages or to prices therefor, or to sales by monopoly states.

SEC. 5.9 Other provisions of this regulation applicable to sales of distilled spirits or wine by a wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state, or primary distributing agent:

Section 7.1 Treatment of fractional parts of a cent in figuring maximum prices.

Section 7.1a Changes in case sizes.

SEC. 5.10 Application for authority to establish maximum prices—(a) Who is permitted or required to file an application for authority to establish maximum prices by authorization. Any seller whose maximum price for an item of packaged distilled spirits or wine are established by this article and for whom no other maximum price or pricing method is provided in this article, shall make application to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C. for authority to establish such maximum price. After such application is filed the Price Administrator may establish a maximum price for such sale by order or by amendment to this regulation. Such order may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(b) Prohibited sales. Any seller making application under this section for sales of an item of packaged distilled spirits or wines shall not, prior to the date on which that authority is granted sell, offer to sell, or deliver the item that is the subject of the application.

(c) Contents of application. The application shall be by letter, signed by the seller or his authorized agent, and sent in duplicate to the Office of Price Administration, Beverage Section, Washington, D. C., by registered mail, return receipt requested. It shall contain the following:

(1) The seller's name and address, and the name and address of the person signing the application.

(2) A statement that the application is filed under section 5.10 of Maximum Price Regulation No. 445.

(3) A statement of the reasons for his inability to establish a maximum price under other provisions of this article.

(4) A description of the items which are the subject of the application, stating with respect to each item the following information:

(i) Brand name.

(ii) Formula.

(iii) Container size.

(iv) Classification or subclassification of identity.

(v) A statement showing the source of applicant's supply of the items to be priced and where applicable his net cost for such items.

(vi) A statement of the class of customers applicant proposes to sell.

[Sec. 5.10 added, former 5.10 redesignated 5.11 by Am. 15, effective 5–8–44]

SEC. 5.11 Dates on which this article shall apply. This article, except as otherwise provided, shall apply to all sales or offers to sell of packaged imported or domestic distilled spirits or wine made by a wholesaler, retailer, monopoly state, or primary distributing agent on and after August 30, 1943: Provided, That this article shall not apply to any sale which a wholesaler, retailer or primary distributing agent is required by statute, ordinance, or regulation to make at a price posted or listed prior to August 14, 1943, with a state or other public authority (if the price so posted or listed is greater or less than that established by this Article for such sale) until on and after the first effective date for prices so posted and listed at the first opportunity after August 19, 1943.

[Sec. 5.11, formerly 5.10, as amended by Am. 1, 8 F.R. 11851, effective 8–25–43]

ARTICLE VI—MAXIMUM PRICES FOR CERTAIN SERVICES RELATING TO THE PRODUCTION OF DOMESTIC DISTILLED SPIRITS AND WINE

SEC. 6.1 Purposes of Article VI—(a) Generally. Article VI establishes maximum prices for certain services supplied in connection with the production, sale and distribution of domestic distilled spirits and wine. Maximum prices for services other than those specifically provided for herein shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation or Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165,[1] as may be applicable.

(b) Prior regulations, orders and interpretations superseded. Except as otherwise provided in this regulation Article VI supersedes all other maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations issued by the Office of Price Administration prior to October 7, 1943, with respect to the services for which it establishes maximum prices, including the applicable provisions of the following:

(1) The General Maximum Price Regulation;

(2) Revised Maximum Price Regulation No. 165;

(3) Section 1499.26 (b) (16) of Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 11: Provided, That such maximum price regulations, orders and interpretations shall remain in force with respect to a particular transaction until the provisions of this article become applicable thereto pursuant to section 6.5.

[Sec. 6.1 added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 13500, effective 10–7–43. Former Sec. 6.1 revoked by Am. 3]

SEC. 6.2 General rules for figuring maximum prices under this article. (a) Unless otherwise specifically provided, the maximum price established by this article for a particular service is the highest price that may be charged for that service by the person who supplies or causes it to be supplied. Such maximum price shall not be evaded or avoided by splitting the performance of the service into component elements and charging separate prices for each element which in the aggregate, exceed the maximum price for the entire service.

(b) Prices charged for a service for which a maximum price is provided by this article shall, in each instance, be separately stated in the seller's invoice. Where such service is supplied as part of, or in conjunction with the supply of another service to which this article does not apply, the price charged for such other service shall not exceed the seller's maximum price therefor established under other applicable regulations or orders of the Office of Price Administration.

(c) [Revoked]

(d) [Revoked]

[Paragraphs (c) and (d) revoked by Am. 15, effective 5–8–44]

SEC. 6.3 Maximum prices for specified services. A seller's maximum price for any service listed below shall be as follows:

(a) Buying services and maximum price—(1) Commission, brokerage or fee for procuring a seller of, or for buying for the account of another, grapes, fruits or berries for winery or distillery use, 50 cents per ton of grapes, fruit, or berries purchased for delivery to the winery or distillery.

(2) Commission, brokerage or fee for procuring a seller or buyer of bulk domestic grape spirits, bulk domestic neutral brandy, bulk domestic spirits-fruit, or bulk California grape wine, or for procuring a processor to convert grapes into California grape wine, 5% of the seller's billing price (not in excess of his maximum price) for the commodity or service sold.

(3) Commission, brokerage or fee for procuring a seller or buyer of packaged California grape wine, 5% of the seller's billing price (not in excess of his maximum price) for the quantity sold but not in excess of 50 cents per case.

(4) [Revoked]

[Subparagraph (4) added by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 17415, effective 1–6–44, amended by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 105, effective 12–31–43, and revoked by Am. 15, effective 5–8–44]

(b) Services related to the production of California grape wine and maximum price—(1) Converting grapes into unfinished California grape wine (including weighing of grapes, crushing, pressing, fermenting, distilling or furnishing fortifying spirits, fortifying, cooking, racking, cellar treatment necessary to effect stabilization, storage to the March 31st (but not exceeding 180 days) following the date of crushing, and loading the bulk unfinished wine into tank cars or tank trucks: A price according to the type of wine as follows: Red table wine: $9.00 per ton of grapes weighed and crushed, or 6 cents per gallon of wine delivered, whichever is the lower. White table wine: $10.00 per ton of grapes weighed and crushed, or 8 cents per gallon of wine delivered, whichever is the lower. Dessert wine: $8.00 per ton of grapes weighed and crushed, or 10 cents per gallon of wine delivered, whichever is the lower.

(2) Finishing of California grape wine by the person who converts the grapes into the unfinished wine, including storage to the March 31st (not exceeding 180 days) following date of crushing: A price according to the type of wine as follows: Table wine: 2½ cents per gallon of wine delivered to the person for whom the service is performed. Dessert wine: 1½ cents per gallon of wine delivered to the person for whom the service is performed.

(3) Finishing of California grape wine by the person who did not convert the grapes into the unfinished wine (not including storage charges): A price according to the type of wine as follows: Table wine: 2½ cents per gallon of wine delivered to the person for whom the service is performed. Dessert wine: 1½ cents per gallon of wine delivered to the person for whom the service is performed.

NOTE: Finishing includes giving the wine the cellar treatment generally recognized as necessary to make stabilized unfinished wine into finished wine suitable for packaging.

(4) Storage of California grape wine in cooperage or tanks of the person converting the grapes into the wine stored, ¼ cent for each 30 days of storage after the March 31st or 180 days (whichever is earlier) following date of crushing.

(5) Storage of California grape wine in cooperage or tanks of persons who did not convert the grapes into the wine stored (other than storage in public warehouses), ¼ cent for each 30 days of storage (cost of unloading and loading out is included in this rate).

NOTE: The maximum price for storage of California grape wine does not include field warehouse charges (other than for storage) if any, which may be added at legally established rates, or taxes on the commodity stored, or premiums on policies of insurance protecting the owner thereof.

(6) Barreling of California grape wine for shipment in barrels, 2 cents per gallon of wine barreled and shipped in barrels.

NOTE: The maximum price for barreling does not include the cost of cooperage. If the seller performing the service furnishes cooperage which upon delivery to the person for whom the service is performed, becomes that person's property, the seller may add a charge for the barrels not in excess of his maximum price therefor.

(7) Packaging and casing California grape wine: A maximum price per case determined under other applicable regulations and orders of the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Services related to the production of distilled spirits—(1) Distilling grape spirits, spirits-fruit or neutral brandy from:

	Maximum price
(i) Fruits or berries, (except grapes and raisins), including fresh, dried, canned, frozen or other processed or partially processed forms and including culls, clippings, skins, waste and other commodities (except juices) permitted to be distilled under Food Distribution Order No. 69 issued by the War Food Administration.	20 cents per proof gallon distilled and delivered.
(ii) Juices of grapes, fruits and berries as described in (i) and (ii).
(iv) Other distilling materials including wine, wine wash, pomace wash, lees wine, brandy, and other distilling materials in liquid form.	20 cents per proof gallon distilled and delivered.

NOTE: Maximum prices under (1) include unloading and handling the distilling material and loading the product into tank cars or tank trucks, drums or other containers. If the distiller furnishes the drums or other containers which upon delivery to the person for whom the distilling service is performed, become that person's property the seller may add a charge for such containers not in excess of his maximum price therefor.

(2) Packaging and casing distilled spirits: A maximum price per case determined under other applicable regulations and orders of the Office of Price Administration.

[Sections 6.2 through 6.5 added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 13500, effective 10–7–43]

ARTICLE VII—GENERAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO PERSONS SUBJECT TO THIS REGULATION AND TO MAXIMUM PRICES ESTABLISHED HEREUNDER

SEC. 7.1 Treatment of fractional parts of a cent in figuring maximum prices. Fractional parts of a cent, except as otherwise provided in this regulation, shall be treated as follows in figuring maximum prices:

(a) Amounts computed in the process of, or as a step in figuring a maximum price (other than the maximum price itself) need not be carried to more than four decimal places (hundredths of a cent). Any further fraction shall be disregarded.

(b) When the charging of the exact maximum price established under this regulation requires the use of a fractional part of a cent, that maximum price may be increased to the next higher full cent, if the fraction is ½ cent or more, and shall be reduced to the next lower full cent, if the fraction is less than ½ cent.

SEC. 7.1a Changes in case sizes. In any instance where the case size of an item covered in this regulation is changed to contain a greater (not in excess of a total of 15 wine gallons) or lesser number of individual containers of the same item, the seller shall determine his maximum price per case of the item in the new case size as follows:

(a) Divide the maximum price per case for the item in the customary case size by the number of individual containers customarily packed in such case, and

(b) Multiply the figure so obtained by the number of individual containers packed in the new case size.

[Sec. 7.1a added by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 17415, effective 1–6–44]

SEC. 7.2 When a sales or gross receipts tax may be charged in addition to a maximum price. (a) Any seller (other than a monopoly state) may charge and collect, in addition to his maximum price for an item or a service established under this regulation, the amount of any tax upon the sale of the item, or the supplying of the service, or upon the gross receipts from either, now or hereafter imposed by any statute of the United States, or any statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, if:

[Section heading and paragraph (a) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5–8–44]

(1) The statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from separately stating and collecting the amount thereof, and he does separately state and collect it; or

(2) The amount of the tax has been separately stated and collected from the seller by a prior vendor, and

(i) The statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from separately stating and collecting the amount thereof, and

(ii) He does separately state and collect it.

(b) Any monopoly state may charge and collect, in addition to its maximum price for an item or service established under this regulation, the amount of any tax upon the sale of the item now or hereafter imposed by any statute of the United States or of that state.

SEC. 7.2a Treatment of brokers compensation. (a) Every broker shall be considered as the agent of the seller and not the agent of the buyer. In each case the amount paid by the buyer to the seller plus any amount paid by the buyer to the broker shall not exceed the seller's maximum price plus allowable transportation charges actually paid by the seller or by the broker. The term "broker" includes a "finder", "buyer's agent" and "seller's agent".

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) shall not apply to:

(1) Brokers participating in the sale of California grape wine by the processor thereof to a purchaser from that processor, provided the services performed by the broker were customarily performed by brokers and separately paid for by buyers during March 1942.

(2) Brokers participating in the purchase of imported distilled spirits or wine by an importer thereof from a foreign supplier other than a supplier located in a territory or possession of the United States.

(c) No person may charge or receive and no person may pay to a broker a fee for his services in excess of the maximum price established for such services by this regulation or by any other applicable order or regulation of the Office of Price Administration.

(d) No person may increase a maximum price established for him under this regulation by reason of having paid a fee to a broker, nor may such fee or any part thereof be included as an element of "net cost" by sellers required to determine "net cost" in computing their maximum price.

[Sec. 7.2a added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

SEC. 7.3 When new taxes or increases in existing taxes may be added to a maximum price. Any seller (including a monopoly state) may charge and collect, in addition to his maximum price for an item or a service established under this regulation:

(a) New taxes. The applicable amount of United States customs duties and United States state or local excise taxes first imposed thereon by statute effective after November 2, 1942.

(b) Increase in tax in effect on November 2, 1943. The applicable amount of any increase effective after November 2, 1942 in United States, state or local excise taxes then imposed thereon.

[Paragraphs (a) and (b) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

Provided, That the amount of any such new tax, or increase in tax is paid by the seller to the taxing authorities or to a prior vendor, and Provided further, That no seller shall include a mark-up on the amount of any tax he is authorized to charge and collect under this section.

(c) Treatment of increase effective April 1, 1944, in United States excise taxes. (1) On and after April 1, 1944, every seller must state upon each invoice to any class of customers (except monopoly states and consumers) that the prices stated in the invoice include the increase effective April 1, 1944, in United States excise taxes or the 1944 floor stocks tax and that no markup may be applied to the amount thereof. A statement in substantially the following language upon the face of the invoice shall be deemed compliance with this section:

"Our invoice prices include the increase effective April 1, 1944, in United States excise taxes or the 1944 floor stocks tax. OPA regulations prohibit a markup on the amount thereof.

Reference to floor stocks tax may be eliminated from the invoice after the seller has disposed of all merchandise upon which floor stocks tax was paid by him or by a prior vendor.

(2) For sales to monopoly states sellers of distilled spirits or wines who were heretofore required to separately state the amount of any tax which became effective after March 31, 1942, on the invoice issued in connection with each sale, or on a statement made in connection with any offer to sell, shall continue to do so notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) hereof.

Illustration. As a guide to sellers in computing their maximum prices, the following tables are added. These tables show the amount of the increase effective April 1, 1944, in United States excise taxes for representative types, proofs and container sizes of distilled spirits and wines, but is not intended to be all-inclusive. For types, proofs, and container sizes not shown on the tables, every seller must compute the actual amount of the tax increase. No seller is permitted to apply a markup on the amount of the tax increase. In figuring maximum prices, sellers such as wholesalers or retailers who are required to price by use of a percentage markup applied to "net cost", shall figure maximum prices by (1) deduct the exact amount of the tax increase with respect to each item, (2) apply markup to "net cost" exclusive of tax increase, and (3) add the exact amount of the tax increase to that figure.

[Paragraph (c) and illustration added by Am. 14, 9 F.R. 3152, effective 3-21-44. Tables I, II, III, and IV amended by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

SEC. 7.3a Distribution of packaged distilled spirits or wine. (a) Any corporation, unincorporated association, company or partnership desiring to transfer or distribute packaged distilled spirits or wine (in the form of warehouse receipts or otherwise) to its shareholders, or to representatives of or a trustee for its shareholders or members, or desiring to offer its shareholders or members as a class, the right to purchase packaged distilled spirits or wine from it either directly or through a trustee or other intermediary, shall file written notice of its intention to do so with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., at least thirty days prior to the date on which such transfer, distribution or offer is to be made. The notice shall contain a description sufficient to identify for pricing purposes all packaged distilled spirits and wine to be so transferred, distributed or offered for sale, a statement showing the terms of the transfer, distribution, or offer and the classes of shareholders or members to whom it is to be made, and shall be supplemented with such additional information as the Office of Price Administration may deem necessary and request for pricing purposes in the particular case. The Administrator may, on his own motion, at any time before or after receipt of such notice, issue an order establishing maximum prices for any or all persons who may sell packaged distilled spirits or wine to be so transferred, distributed or offered:

(b) No corporation, unincorporated association, company or partnership shall deliver or permit any packaged distilled spirits or wine (in the form of warehouse receipts or otherwise) to be delivered to its shareholders or members pursuant to the proposed transfer, or distribution or purchase right until thirty days after the notice provided for under paragraph (a) of this section has been filed.

[Sec. 7.3a added by Am. 12, 9 F.R. 2240, effective 3-2-44]

[NOTE: Revised Supplementary Order No. 34 (8 F.R. 12404) permits, under certain conditions, the addition of extra packing expenses to maximum prices on sales to procurement agencies of the United States]

SEC. 7.4 Use of minimum resale prices under State Fair Trade laws. A minimum price for resale of an item by another person may be established by contract or otherwise and such minimum price may be posted or listed with a state or other public authority. However, no such minimum price shall exceed the lowest maximum price for resale of the item established under this regulation by or for any person to whom the minimum price applies.

SEC. 7.4a Maximum prices for sellers for whom no specific provision is made. The maximum price for any seller of distilled spirits or wine for whom no maximum price is provided in this regulation and who is otherwise unable to determine a maximum price hereunder, shall be his maximum price established by whichever of the following regulations of the Office of Price Administration is applicable: Maximum Price Regulation 193; General Maximum Price Regulation; Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 14; National Regional or District Restaurant Maximum Price Regulations.

[Sec. 7.4a added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

SEC. 7.5 Adjustment of maximum prices for tax exempt sales to the United States or any agency thereof. Any maximum price for an item established under this regulation shall, if the item is being sold to the United States or any agency thereof, be adjusted to the extent of the reduction, elimination or possible refund of any United States, state or local taxes included in figuring that maximum price.

SEC. 7.5a Deposit charges on containers—(a) Deposit charge required during March 1942. Any seller who during March 1942 customarily required a deposit charge to assure the return of containers used in shipment may continue to require such deposit charge and may from time to time adjust such deposit charge to an amount that does not unduly exceed his replacement cost of the containers at ceiling prices.

(b) Deposit charge imposed after March 1942. Any seller who did not require a deposit charge for containers during March 1942 and who desires to do so may institute such deposit charge and adjust the same from time to time to an amount that does not unduly exceed his replacement cost of the containers at ceiling prices.

(c) Other requirements. (1) No markup may be applied by any seller to the amount of the deposit charge and no seller may include the amount of such charge as an element of "net cost".

(2) Any seller who receives a deposit charge from a buyer shall refund to or credit to the account of the buyer the full amount thereof upon the return of the containers in as good condition as received (reasonable wear and tear excepted). Transportation charges, risk of loss or damage and any other expense incident to the return of such containers shall be borne by the seller.

(3) Paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall not apply to sales of Spanish type blending sherry, California grape concentrates and denatured rum at maximum prices established under this regulation including the cost of containers.

(4) "Containers" as used in this section means barrels, drums and other shipping receptacles having a capacity of five gallons or more and wood or fibre board packing or shipping cases irrespective of quantity content.

[Sec. 7.5a added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

SEC. 7.6 Certain provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation continued in effect. (a) The following sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation and amendments to those sections shall apply to all sellers subject to this regulation:

§ 1499.5 Transfers of business or stock in trade.
§ 1499.11 Base period records.
§ 1499.14 Sales slips and receipts.

(b) [Revoked]

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 17415, effective 1-6-44, and revoked by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 105, effective 12-31-43]

SEC. 7.6a Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[8] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation, except monopoly states. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

[Sec. 7.6a added by Am. 11, 9 F.R. 105, effective 12-31-43]

SEC. 7.7 Export sales. (a) The maximum price at which a seller may export any commodity to which this regulation applies shall be determined in accordance with the Second Revised Maximum Export Regulation[9] and amendments thereto, or under other applicable regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) In determining the maximum price at which a wholesaler or retailer may export a commodity to which this regulation applies, the "price at which the commodity was acquired" shall be deemed to be his net cost therefor figured according to section 5.3.

SEC. 7.7a Compliance with other laws or regulations. Except as expressly required by this regulation, the provisions hereof shall not operate to make lawful any act declared to be unlawful by any statute, ordinance or regulation of the Federal Government or of any state or political subdivision thereof.

[Sec. 7.7a added by Am. 15, effective 5-8-44]

SEC. 7.8 Compliance with this regulation—(a) No buying or selling above maximum prices. On and after the effective date of this regulation, regardless of any contract, agreement or other obligation, no person to whom this regulation applies shall sell or supply, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive, any distilled spirits, wine or service at prices higher than the maximum price applicable to such sale under this regulation, and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. However, prices lower than the maximum price may be charged or paid.

(b) Evasion. The provisions of this regulation shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt, of or relating to any commodity, or service covered by this regulation, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or service, or by way of finder's fees, brokerage, commission, service, transportation or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege; by tying agreement, combination sales, or trade understanding; by any change in style or manner of packing; by requiring the buyer to purchase packaged distilled spirits or wine on a per drink basis; or in any other way. The specific enumeration of acts constituting evasion is illustrative but not exclusive.

[Paragraph (b) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5–8–44]

(c) Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and to proceedings for the suspension of licenses.

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 7 (7 F.R. 6176) provides that war procurement agencies and governments whose defense is vital to the defense of the United States shall be relieved of liability, civil or criminal, imposed by price regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration.]

SEC. 7.9 Current records required. Every person selling or supplying any distilled spirits, wine or service for which, upon sale by that person, maximum prices are established under this regulation shall keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 remains in effect:

(a) Records of the same kind that he has customarily kept relating to the prices which he charged for such of those commodities or services as he sold or offered for sale after the date on which maximum prices under this regulation for such sale became applicable.

(b) All bills, invoices, receipts and records used to determine any net cost used for the purpose of applying a mark-up under this regulation.

(c) His computations showing as precisely as possible the method and figures used to determine his maximum prices for distilled spirits or wine.

SEC. 7.10 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment to this regulation of general applicability may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[10] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

[NOTE: Procedural Regulation No. 6 (7 F.R. 5087, 5665; 8 F.R. 6173, 6174) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment of maximum prices for commodities or services under Government contracts or subcontracts. Revised Supplementary Order No. 9 (8 F.R. 6175) makes the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 6 applicable to all price regulations, excepting those which expressly prohibit such applications, and certain specific regulations listed in Revised Supplementary Order No. 9.]

[NOTE: Supplementary Order No. 28 (7 F.R. 9619) provides for the filing of applications for adjustment or petitions for amendment based on a pending wage or salary increase requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board.]

SEC. 7.11 Adjustable pricing in certain instances. Any person may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery; but no person may, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable maximum price is pending on petition for amendment, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production and if it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended. The permission may be given by letter addressed to the applicant, signed by the Price Administrator or by any official of the Office of Price Administration to whom authority to grant such permission has been delegated.

[Sec. 7.11 as amended by Am. 15, effective 5–8–44]

SEC. 7.12 Definitions.

NOTE: References in definitions to Regulations No. 4 or to Regulations No. 5 are respectively references to Regulations No. 4 (as now or hereafter amended) relating to the Labeling and Advertising of Wine, and to Regulations No. 5 (as now or hereafter amended) relating to the Labeling and Advertising of Distilled Spirits, issued under the provisions of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act, as amended.

(a) Definitions of commodities and terms descriptive thereof. (1) "Distilled spirits" means (i) the commodities included in classes 1 to 7 inclusive of Article II to Regulations No. 5 (neutral spirits, whiskey, brandy, gin, rum, cordials and liqueurs and imitations); and (ii) prepared cocktails, prepared highballs, vodka, bottled egg nog containing distilled spirits, tequilla, distilled spirits produced in or imported from Cuba or Mexico made from cane products and flavored with aromatics, and all prepared alcoholic beverage commodities covered by Article III of Regulations No. 5; and (iii) commodities containing more than 24 percent alcohol by volume but otherwise within the definition of wine.

"Distilled spirits" when used without specific reference to that commodity in packages or in bulk, means both packaged and bulk distilled spirits, and when used without specific reference to that commodity as imported or domestic, means both imported and domestic distilled spirits.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 17415, effective 1–6–44 and Am. 15, effective 5–8–44]

(2) "Imported distilled spirits" means distilled spirits or high wines produced outside of and introduced into continental United States.

[Subparagraph (2) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5–8–44]

(3) "Domestic distilled spirits" means distilled spirits produced within continental United States.

(4) "Wine" means: (i) The commodity defined as such in sections 610 and 617 of the Revenue Act of 1918 as amended; and

(ii) Other commodities not so defined, but made in the manner of wine. "Wine" includes (but is not limited to) sparkling and carbonated wine, wine made from condensed grape must, wine made from the juice of sound, ripe grapes, from berries, fruits or other agricultural products, imitation wine, compounds sold as wine, vermouth, cider, perry and sake, in each instance only if containing not less than 7 percent and not more than 24 percent alcohol by volume. "Wine" when used without specific reference to that commodity in packages or in bulk, means both packaged and bulk wine, and when used without specific reference to that commodity as imported or domestic, means both imported and domestic wine.

(5) "Imported wine" means wine produced outside of and introduced into continental United States.

(6) "Domestic wine" means wine produced within continental United States.

(7) "Cuban gin" means a commodity included in Class 3 of Article II of Regulations No. 5 and produced in the Republic of Cuba.

[Subparagraph (39) added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 13500, effective 10–7–43, and amended by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 17415, effective 1–6–44]

(40) "Non-current wine" means all California grape wine except current wine as defined in (39) above.

(41) "Varietal types of grapes" means the following varieties of grapes if grown in the State of California:

Red varieties: Cabernet Sauvignon, Pinot Noir, and Gamay (Gamai).
White varieties: Semillon, Sauvignon Blanc, Pinot Blanc, Pinot Chardonnay, Traminer, Riesling, Folle Blanche, Muscatel de Bordelaise, Ugni Blanc, Muscat de Frontignan, Muscat Canelli, and Gutedel.

Provided, That wine shall not be deemed produced principally from varietal types of grapes unless 51% or more of its volume is derived exclusively from such grapes.

[Subparagraphs (40) and (41) added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 13500, effective 10–7–43]

(42) "Cuban rum" means a commodity included in Class 5 of Article II of Regulation No. 5 and produced in the Republic of Cuba.

[Subparagraph (42) added by Am. 4, 8 F.R. 13845, effective 10–13–43]

(43) "Mexican tequila" means distilled spirits distilled from the Mezcal plant (a variety of the maguey) and produced in the Republic of Mexico.

[Subparagraph (43) added by Am. 5, 8 F.R. 14016, effective 10–19–43]

(44) "Neutral spirits" means distilled spirits distilled from any material at or above 190° proof, whether or not such proof is subsequently reduced. During the period of the unlimited national emergency proclaimed by the President on May 27, 1941, the term neutral spirits shall also include any spirits distilled at less than 190° proof, which are so distilled, or so treated in the process of distillation, or so refined by other processes after distillation, as to lack the taste, aroma and other characteristics of whiskey, brandy, rum or other potable beverage spirits. However, the term "neutral spirits" as used in this regulation does not include "domestic grape spirits", "neutral brandy", "spirits—fruit", "spirits—fruit processed" or "high proof and domestic high wines made from grapes, fruits, or berries". The term "neutral spirits" does not include "domestic high wines (manufactured from cane or grain)" as defined in (48) below.

[Subparagraph (44) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5–8–44]

(45) "Domestic whiskey containing malt whiskey" means whiskey produced in the continental United States which contains any proportion of imported or domestic malt whiskey or rye malt whiskey: Provided, That the label or labels show that malt whiskey or rye malt whiskey is a component part.

(46) "Malt whiskey" means whiskey produced in the continental United States by distillation from a fermented mash of grain of which not less than 51% of the grain is malted barley; also imported malt whiskey produced in conformity with the laws of the country from which it is imported.

(47) "Rye malt whiskey" means whiskey produced in the continental United States by distillation from a fermented mash of grain of which not less than 51% of the grain is malted rye; also imported rye malt whiskey produced in conformity with the laws of the country from which it is imported.

[Subparagraph (48) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5–8–44]

[Subparagraphs (44) through (48) added by Am. 9, 8 F.R. 17415, effective 1–6–44]

(49) "Cuban whiskey" means a commodity included in class 2 of Article II of Regulation No. 5, and produced in the Republic of Cuba.

(50) "Mexican whiskey" means a commodity included in class 2 of Article II of Regulation 5, and produced in the Republic of Mexico.

[Subparagraphs (49) and (50) added by Am. 10, 8 F.R. 16928, effective 12–16–43]

(b) Definitions of persons to whom this regulation refers. (1) "Importer" means any person who is the first consignee within continental United States of a commodity being imported for resale, holding an importer's permit issued under the provisions of the Federal Alcohol Administration Act.

(2) "Processor" means any person who

(i) Produces or blends distilled spirits or wine, or who is a packer of bulk wine, (including but not limited to) a distiller, rectifier, vintner or packer or who

(ii) Bottles under any brand name distilled spirits or wine belonging to him, or who

(iii) Causes distilled spirits or wine belonging to him to be bottled or blended for his account under his own brand name, or who

(iv) Bottles or causes to be bottled for his account distilled spirits or wine he has purchased under a license contract.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 13496, effective 10–7–43, and Am. 3, 8 F.R. 13500, effective 10–7–43]

(3) "Wholesaler" means any person (except a monopoly state or primary distributing agent) engaged in the business of buying and selling distilled spirits and/or wine without changing the form thereof, primarily to persons other than consumers, but who, when licensed and permitted by applicable state or local statute or ordinance to so do, may also sell such distilled spirits or wine to consumers.

[Subparagraph (3) as amended by Am. 8, 8 F.R. 17415, effective 1–6–44]

(4) "Open-state wholesaler" means a wholesaler doing business in a state other than a monopoly state.

(5) "Primary distributing agent" means any person (except a monopoly state) engaged in the business of acting as agent for an importer or processor in the sale of an item to wholesalers or monopoly states within a specified territory.

(6) "Retailer" means any person (except a wholesaler, monopoly state or a primary distributing agent) engaged in the business of buying and selling distilled spirits and/or wine without changing the form thereof, to consumers. A sale to an on "premise licensee" shall be deemed a sale to a retailer.

(7) "On-premise license" means a person licensed by statute, ordinance or regulation, or otherwise legally authorized to sell distilled spirits or wine for consumption on the licensed premises either as a straight or mixed drink. For his sales subject to this regulation made by an "on premise licensee" he shall be deemed a retailer.

(8) "Monopoly state" means any one of the following states of the United States, or the appropriate Alcoholic Beverage Board, Department or Commission thereof:

Alabama	Ohio
Idaho	Oregon
Iowa	Pennsylvania
Maine	Utah
Michigan	Vermont
Montana	Virginia
New Hampshire	Washington
North Carolina (except as to wine)	West Virginia
	Wyoming

[Subparagraphs (6), (7) and (8) as amended by Am. 15, effective 5–8–44]

(9) "Consumer" means any person (except an industrial or institutional user or the United States or any agency thereof) purchasing distilled spirits and/or wine for consumption and not for resale.

(10) "Industrial user" means any person who

(i) Subjects distilled spirits or wine to a process resulting in the production of a different commodity having a distinctive name, character and use; or

(ii) Who uses distilled spirits or wine as an ingredient or component part of such different commodity; or

(iii) Who uses distilled spirits or wine to place another commodity in a condition for sale or delivery.

(11) "Institutional user" means any hospital, home or other similar institution which uses distilled spirits or wine in connection with its care of the sick, aged or infirm.

(12) "Customary type of supplier" means a person determined as follows:

(i) For wholesalers. A wholesaler's customary type of supplier for an item shall be:

(a) The importer, processor, or a primary distributing agent thereof;

(b) A monopoly state, if the wholesaler is required by statute to make any of his purchases of the item from such monopoly state.

(ii) For retailers. A retailer's customary type of supplier for an item shall be:

(a) A wholesaler, or the importer, processor or a primary distributing agent thereof;

(b) A monopoly state, if the retailer is required by statute to make any purchases of the item from such monopoly state.

(iii) For monopoly states. A monopoly state's customary type of supplier for an item shall be:

(a) The importer, processor or a primary distributing agent thereof;

(b) A wholesaler if, but only if, the item is not customarily sold or offered for sale to the monopoly state by the importer, processor or a primary distributing agent thereof, and all purchases of the item made by the monopoly state during the 12 months immediately preceding the date on which its maximum price is being determined have been made from a wholesaler.

(iv) For primary distributing agents. A primary distributing agent's customary type of supplier for an item shall be the importer or processor thereof.

(13) "Bottler" means any person located anywhere in the continental United States who packages distilled spirits in containers of one gallon or less each, or wine in containers of less than 5 gallons each.

(14) "Packer" means any person other than a vintner who sells or repacks bulk wine in containers of 5 gallons or more capacity. A packer may also be a bottler.

(15) "Vintner" means any person who produces wine in a Federal bonded winery in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

(16) "Winery" means a bonded winery established in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

(17) "Processor's premises" means a processing plant, including bottling, warehousing, storage and other facilities adjacent thereto, from which shipment of distilled spirits, wine, related products, or other commodities covered by this regulation, is made. No amount may be added to any maximum price established under this regulation to cover the cost of handling those commodities between parts of a processor's premises, or for expense of hauling, drayage or handling within the metropolitan area of a processor's premises.

If a processor has an established practice of invoicing distilled spirits, wines, related products or the other commodities covered by this regulation, from a shipping point or basing point in part of the State in which one or more of his processing premises are located, such shipping point or basing point may be deemed the processor's premises if he follows a uniform practice in that respect.

(18) "Dealer" means any person other than the processor, who buys and sells a commodity to which sections 2.4 or 4.6 (h) apply without substantially changing its form, and who maintains a warehouse for storage and handling of the commodity.

[Subparagraphs (13) through (18) added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 13500, effective 10–7–43]

(c) Definitions of terms used in identification of items. (1) "United States labeling laws and regulations" means Regulations Nos. 4 or 5 as applicable.

(2) "Label" means label or labels required by United States labelling laws and regulations.

(3) "Container size" means the particular weight or unit in which distilled spirits or wine is sold to a consumer in accordance with regulations of the Federal Alcohol Administration.

(4) "Formula" means:

(i) For whiskey. The following matters applicable thereto: proof, age by percentages, whiskey and neutral spirits content by percentages respectively, and type designation in accordance with standards of identity for classes thereof listed in Regulations No. 5.

(ii) For gin, brandy, rum, cordials and liqueurs, imitations and specialties. The following matters applicable thereto: proof and type designation in accordance with standards of identity for classes thereof listed in Regulations No. 5. Further, with respect to brandy and rum, a statement of the age thereof when stated on the label, and with respect to cordials, liqueurs and specialties, a statement of the ingredients thereof as submitted to the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

(5) "Type designation" means the type and subtype of wine and distilled spirits as described in classifications thereof in Article II of Regulations Nos. 4 or 5 respectively.

(6) "Age" means the age stated on the label of distilled spirits or wine.

(7) "Vintage" means the year or season in which grapes used in the production of wine were grown.

(8) "Proof" means the proof stated on the label of distilled spirits. Distilled spirits of 100° proof are distilled spirits containing 50% alcohol by volume at a temperature of 60° Fahrenheit.

(9) "Alcohol content" means the percent of alcohol by volume stated on the label of wine, or on the label of distilled spirits not containing a statement of proof.

(10) "Ingredients" means the flavoring and aromatic materials used in the production of gin, vermouth, cordials, liqueurs, flavored brandies, specialties and other alcoholic beverages made by the addition of commodities not inherent in distillation or fermentation thereof, according to the statement thereof submitted to the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

(d) Definitions of terms used in connection with transportation. (1) "Port of embarkation" means the place outside continental United States from which distilled spirits or wine to be imported are shipped by water to the United States.

(2) "Port of arrival" or "point of arrival" means the place in continental United States where imported distilled spirits or imported wine first come into custody of United States customs.

(3) "Port of entry" means the place where imported distilled spirits or imported wine are located when released by United States customs officials after payment of customs duties and excise taxes.

(4) "Inland freight", "transportation charges" or "charges for transporting" mean lawful freight charges for movement by common or contract carrier. Such charges shall include any applicable Federal tax on transportation of commodities now or hereafter imposed, and unless otherwise provided, shall be figured at the lowest available rate. Where the seller uses his own vehicle, such charges shall be figured at the lowest rate for transportation over the same distance by common or contract carrier, exclusive of Federal tax.

(5) "Metropolitan area" of a particular place means the territory within the same municipality and the territory adjacent thereto within the same marketing area.

(6) "Naked f. o. b. processor's premises" with reference to a price means that price at such place exclusive of the cost of containers, and any applicable United States, state and local excise taxes and California state marketing order assessment.

(7) "Carload quantity" or "carload" includes truck loads and tank truck loads in the appropriate instances, and means a quantity of the particular commodity (in bulk or in packages as the case may be) having a weight equal to or in excess of the minimum weight required by common or contract carrier for shipment in that form at carload, truck load or tank truck rates respectively.

(8) "March 1942 freight base zone" means the receiving points, warehouses and stores from which the monopoly state during March 1942 delivered distilled spirits and wines, and any other points within the same state from which it elects to and does make such deliveries.

[Subparagraphs (5) through (8) added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 13500, effective 10–7–43]

(e) Definitions of miscellaneous terms. (1) "Sales in bond" means a sale of distilled spirits or wine located in a United States bonded warehouse, made prior to payment of United States customs duties and excise taxes applicable thereto.

(2) "Sales tax paid" means a sale of distilled spirits or wine for which applicable United States customs duties and excise taxes have been paid.

(3) "Official offer" means an offer by an importer, processor, primary distributing agent or wholesaler to supply an item to a monopoly state, by the terms of which deliveries are to commence within 60 days from date of acceptance.

(4) "Stock on hand" with reference to an item, means the amount thereof to which the person holds title, irrespective of location.

(5) "Strip stamps" means stamps affixed to individual containers of distilled spirits in accordance with section 2803 of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States.

(6) "Gauge" means the weight, proof, number of wine gallons, number of proof gallons, or any one or more thereof, as determined by an official United States customs gauger.

(7) "Regauge" means a gauge made after the first gauge within continental United States.

(8) "OPA price" means the seller's maximum price determined under this regulation for a sale to a purchaser of the particular class, or an amount less than that price.

(9) "License contract" means a written contract for the sale of domestic bulk distilled spirits or wine which authorizes the purchaser to bottle or to have bottled for him, and to sell such distilled spirits or wine under a trade mark or brand name owned by the seller of the bulk commodity.

[Subparagraph (9) added by Am. 2, 8 F.R. 13496, effective 10–7–43]

(10) "Gallon" or "wine gallon" when used in this regulation without qualifying adjective or phrase means a standard U. S. wine gallon of 231 cubic inches, at 68° Fahrenheit (20° Centigrade).

(11) "Warehouse receipt" means the warehouse receipt for bulk domestic distilled spirits provided for in section 3 of Regulations No. 3 issued by the Federal Alcohol Administration relating to Bulk Sales and Bottling of Distilled Spirits.

[Subparagraphs (10) and (11) added by Am. 3, 8 F.R. 13500, effective 10–7–43]

(f) Unless the context otherwise requires, definitions contained in § 1499.20 (c), (h), (i), (j), (k), (m), (o), (p), (r), and (s) of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to the same or corresponding terms used herein, and the definitions contained in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

SEC. 7.13 Geographical applicability. The provisions of this regulation shall be applicable to the forty-eight states of the United States and to the District of Columbia.

Effective date. This regulation shall become effective August 14, 1943. [MPR 445 originally issued August 9, 1943.]

[NOTE: Effective dates of amendments are shown in notes following the parts affected.]

TITLE 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter II—Corps of Engineers, War Department

PART 203—BRIDGE REGULATIONS

TACONY, PA.-PALMYRA, N. J. BRIDGE

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 5 of the River and Harbor Act of August 18, 1894 (28 Stat. 362; 33 U.S.C. 499), § 203.225 is hereby amended by adding the following subparagraph to paragraph (b):

§ 203.225 Delaware and Schuylkill Rivers, N. J. and Pa.; bridges (highway and railroad). • • •

(b) Opening the draw. (1) • • •

(2) Exception: Tacony-Palmyra Bridge. The provisions of paragraph (b) (1) shall be applicable to this bridge only between the hours of 8:00 a. m. and 6:00 p. m. until further notice. Whenever a vessel unable to pass under the closed bridge desires to pass through the draw between the hours of 6:00 p. m. and 8:00 a. m., at least two hours' advance notice of the time an opening is required shall be given to the authorized representative of the owner of or agency controlling the bridge. Upon receipt of such notice, the authorized representative of the owner of or agency controlling the bridge shall arrange for the prompt opening of the draw at the time specified in the notice for the passage of the vessel. The owner of or agency controlling the bridge shall keep conspicuously posted on both the upstream and downstream sides of the bridge, in such manner that it can be easily read at any time, a notice stating exactly how the representative specified may be reached. (28 Stat. 362; 33 U.S.C. 499) [Regs. 24 April 1944 (CE 823) (Delaware River—Tacony, Pa.-Palmyra, N. J.—Mile 107.2)—SPEWR)]

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION AND RAILROADS

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[S. O. 174, Amdt. 2]

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

ACCEPTANCE OF CARLOAD SHIPMENTS OF GRAIN

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 2d day of May, A. D. 1944.

Upon recommendation of the ODT-ICC Grain and Grain Products Transportation Conservation Committee to the Office of Defense Transportation and upon further consideration of Service Order No. 174 (9 F.R. 404) of January 7, 1944; as amended (9 F.R. 1463): It is ordered, That:

Service Order No. 174 (9 F.R. 404) of January 7, 1944, as amended (9 F.R. 1463), be, and it is hereby, amended by substituting the following paragraph (a) (1) and subdivisions (i) and (ii) and paragraph (a) (2) and subdivisions (i), (ii) and (iii) respectively, for paragraph (a) (1) and subdivisions (i) and (ii) respectively and paragraph (a) (2) and subdivisions (i), (ii) and (iii) respectively in § 95.327:

§ 95.327 Acceptance of carload shipments of grain.—(a) (1) Acceptance of carload shipments of grain, grain products, grain byproducts, seeds, and hay covered by order notify, or straight-advise bills of lading. No common carrier by railroad subject to the Interstate Commerce Act shall accept for transportation, transport or move carload shipments of grain, grain products, grain byproducts, seeds, or hay:

(i) When consigned to a "notify" party or to an "advise" party at a location other than the billed destination of the shipment;

(ii) When consigned to a "notify" or to an "advise" party at the billed destination of the shipment, unless the "notify" or "advise" party is authorized to accept notice of arrival of the shipment and to furnish disposition orders to the carrier's agent at the billed destination.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (a) (1) shall not be construed to prohibit the acceptance for transportation or the transportation or movement of carload shipments of grain, grain products, grain byproducts, seeds, or hay:

(i) When the "notify" or "advise" party is located at a river landing or other point inaccessible to carrier's deliveries; or

(ii) When the "notify" or "advise" party is located at a prepay station or on a rural free delivery route or in the interior, in which cases the shipment must be consigned to an adjacent open station designated by the shipper; or

(iii) When the destination station and consignee's post office address adjacent to such station are differently named. (40 Stat. 101, sec. 402, 41 Stat. 476, sec. 4, 54 Stat. 901; 49 U.S.C. 1 (10)-(17))

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., May 6, 1944; that a copy of this order and direction be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 3.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 54-91]

ELECTRIC POWER & LIGHT CORP., ET AL.

ORDER GRANTING JOINT APPLICATION AND PERMITTING JOINT DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 27th day of April, A. D. 1944.

In the matter of Electric Power & Light Corporation, United Gas Corporation, Houston Gulf Gas Company, Union Producing Company, and United Gas Pipe Line Company, File No. 54-91.

Electric Power & Light Corporation ("Electric"), a registered holding company, its subsidiary, United Gas Corporation ("United"), United's wholly-owned subsidiaries, Union Producing Company ("Union"), and United Gas Pipe Line Company ("Pipe Line"), and Pipe Line's wholly-owned subsidiary, Houston Gulf Gas Company ("Houston Gulf") having filed a joint application and declaration under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and particularly sections 9 (a) (1), 10 and 12 (f) thereunder regarding the sale by Houston Gulf to Union and the acquisition by Union of all of the production properties of Houston Gulf for a cash purchase price of $3,049,155.09 plus an amount equal to the cost of net additions to such properties for construction and development expenditures made since December 31, 1943 to the date of transfer; the application of a portion of the proceeds received by Houston Gulf from said sale to the payment of the remaining principal amount of $1,800,000 plus accrued interest on the note issued by Houston Gulf to the First National Bank of Boston dated August 29, 1940; and the acquisition by merger by Pipe Line of all of the remaining properties of Houston Gulf consisting of natural gas gathering and transmission properties and other assets and the assumption by Pipe Line of all of the obligations of Houston Gulf; and

A public hearing having been held after appropriate notice and the Commission being fully advised and having this day issued its findings and opinion herein:

It is ordered, That said joint application and declaration be, and the same hereby are, respectively granted and permitted to become effective subject, however, to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24 and subject to the reservation by the Commission of jurisdiction to take appropriate action in the future with respect to the accounting entries made by Union to record the transactions contemplated in said joint application and declaration.

It is further ordered and recited, That the sale by Houston Gulf of its production properties, as described in said joint application and declaration, to Union and the acquisition of the same by the latter; and the application by Houston Gulf of a portion of the proceeds of the aforesaid sale to the payment of the remaining principal amount of $1,800,000 plus accrued interest on the note issued by Houston Gulf to the First National Bank of Boston dated August 29, 1940; and the merger of Houston Gulf with Pipe Line with the consequent acquisition by the latter of the then remaining properties and assets, the assumption by it of the liabilities of Houston Gulf and the extinguishment of the capital stock and indebtedness of Houston Gulf all as hereinbefore in this order permitted and approved, are necessary and appropriate to the simplification of the holding company system of Electric and are necessary and appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, all in accordance with the meaning and requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, including section 1808 (f) and Supplement R thereof.

By the Commission.

WAR MANPOWER COMMISSION.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, AREA

MINIMUM WARTIME WORKWEEK

Designation of the Cincinnati, Ohio, Area as subject to Executive Order No. 9301.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Regional Manpower Director of Region No. V by § 903.2 of War Manpower Commission Regulation No. 3, "Minimum Wartime Workweek of 48 Hours," (8 F.R. 7225), and having found that such action will aid in alleviating labor shortages which are impeding the war effort, I hereby designate the Cincinnati, Ohio, Area as subject to the provisions of Executive Order No. 9301.

I. For the purposes of this designation, the Cincinnati Area shall include:

Hamilton County (all), Clermont County (all), Ohio.
Kenton County (all), Campbell County (all), Boone County (all), Kentucky.

II. The effective date of this designation is June 1, 1944.

III. Not later than the effective date, each employer in the Cincinnati Area shall, in accordance with War Manpower Commission Regulation No. 3:

(a) Extend to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours, the workweek of any of his workers whose workweek can be so extended without involving the release of any worker;

(b) If extension of the workweek of any of his workers to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours would involve the release of any workers, submit to the Area Manpower Director the number and occupational classification of the workers whose release would be involved, together with proposed schedules for their release, and thereafter extend such workweek when and as directed in schedules authorized by the War Manpower Commission;

(c) File an application for a minimum wartime workweek of less than 48 hours for those workers engaged in employment in which the employer claims that a workweek of 48 hours would be impracticable in view of the nature of the operations, would not contribute to the reduction of labor requirements, or would conflict with any Federal, State or local law or regulation limiting hours of work. Such applications must be filed before May 1, 1944.

Date of issuance: April 26, 1944.

ROBERT C. GOODWIN,
Regional Director, Region V.

MINIMUM WARTIME WORKWEEK

Designation of the Youngstown Area as subject to Executive Order No. 9301.

The designation of the Youngstown Area, dated February 15, 1944, (8 F.R. 7225) as subject to Executive Order No. 9301 is hereby amended to read as follows:

I. For the purposes of this designation, the Youngstown Area shall further be deemed to include:

Columbiana County (Unity and Fairfield Townships only).

II. The effective date of this amendment is May 8, 1944.

III. Not later than the effective date, each employer in Unity and Fairfield Townships of Columbiana County shall, in accordance with War Manpower Commission Regulation No. 3:

(a) Extend to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours, the workweek of any of his workers whose workweek can be so extended without involving the release of any worker;

(b) If extension of the workweek of any of his workers to a minimum wartime workweek of 48 hours would involve the release of any workers, submit to the Area Manpower Director the number and occupational classification of the workers whose release would be involved, together with proposed schedules for their release, and thereafter extend such workweek when and as directed in schedules authorized by the War Manpower Commission;

(c) File an application for a minimum wartime workweek of less than 48 hours for those workers engaged in employment in which the employer claims that a workweek of 48 hours would be impracticable in view of the nature of the operations, would not contribute to the reduction of labor requirements, or would conflict with any Federal, State or local law or regulation limiting hours of work. Such applications must be filed before May 1, 1944.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—War Food Administration

(Marketing Agreements and Orders)

PART 927—ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE NEW YORK METROPOLITAN MILK MARKETING AREA

ORDER SUSPENDING CERTAIN PROVISION

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937 (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan milk marketing area, it is hereby determined that the words "in absence of proof of use in a specific class," as contained in § 927.3 (a) (1) (iii) of the order, as amended, do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is, therefore, ordered, That effective as of 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., June 1, 1944, the words "in absence of proof of use in a specific class," as contained in § 927.3 (a) (1) (iii) of the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the New York metropolitan milk marketing area, are hereby suspended.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 3d day of May 1944.

PART 1401—DAIRY PRODUCTS

FROZEN DAIRY FOODS AND MIX

War Food Order No. 8, 8 F.R. 4319 (formerly designated as Food Distribution Order No. 8, as originally issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on January 19, 1943, 8 F.R. 953, and as amended, 8 F.R. 12163), is amended as follows:

1. By deleting the provisions of § 1401.31 (a) (6), and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

(6) The term "governmental agency" means (i) the Armed Services of the United States (for the purposes of this order, including, but not restricted to, the United States Army Post Exchanges; United States Navy Ships' Service Departments; and the United States Marine Corps Post Exchanges); (ii) the War Shipping Administration; (iii) the Veterans' Administration; and (iv) any other instrumentality or agency designated by the War Food Administrator. The term "governmental agency" also includes any person who, pursuant to a war food order, is entitled to purchase frozen dairy foods or mix subject to this order.

2. By deleting the provisions of § 1401.31 (b) (1) and § 1401.31 (b) (2) and inserting, in lieu thereof, the following:

(b) Restrictions on production of frozen dairy foods and mix. (1) During the allocation periods commencing May 1, 1944, and June 1, 1944, respectively, as specified in War Food Order No. 8.1, 9 F. R. 4319 (formerly designated as Food Distribution Order No. 8–1, as issued by the Director on February 1, 1943, 8 F. R. 1330), no processor may utilize in the production of frozen dairy foods or mix more than 75 per centum of the total milk solids used by the respective processor in the production of such products, respectively, during the corresponding portion of the base period, exclusive of all such products processed for, or sold to, a governmental agency by such processor during such corresponding portion of the base period. During each allocation period commencing after June 30, 1944, specified by the Director in said War Food Order No. 8–1, or hereafter specified by the Director, no processor may utilize in the production of frozen dairy foods or mix more than 65 per centum of the total milk solids used by the respective processor in the production of such products, respec-

PART 1460—FATS AND OILS

FISH OIL

War Food Order 60 (9 F. R. 2535, 4319), § 1460.16, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1460.16 Use, consumption, processing, and delivery of fish oil restricted—(a) Definitions. (1) "Fish oil" means oil, other than oil produced solely from the livers or viscera of fish or marine animals, produced by the reduction of the whole or any part of any fish or marine animal of the following species, commonly known as: California sardine or Pacific Coast pilchard (Sardina caerulea), menhaden (Brevoortia tyrannus), Pacific Coast herring (Clupea pallasii), West Coast mackerel (Scomber diego), Tuna and tuna-like fish, salmon (Genus: Oncorhynchus), rose fish (Sebastes marinus), and seal. The term shall include all such oil, whether crude, refined, pressed, sulphonated, or otherwise processed; and all the by-products and derivatives of such oil, including, but not limited to, foots, stearine, and fatty acids, but excluding pitch and glycerine.

(2) "Crude sardine or menhaden oil" means any oil, which has not been refined, or otherwise processed, produced by the reduction of the whole or any part of any fish of the following species, commonly known as: California sardine or Pacific Coast pilchard (Sardina caerulea or menhaden (Brevoortia tyrannus). However, fish oil as defined in paragraph (a) (1) hereof shall include crude sardine or menhaden oil as defined herein.

(3) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(4) "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of crude sardine or menhaden oil.

(5) "Distributor" means any person who purchases and resells fish oil but does not process such oil.

(6) "Tank car" means a quantity of crude sardine or menhaden oil weighing 60,000 pounds.

(7) "Certified order" means a written order given to a producer for one or more tank cars of crude sardine or menhaden oil which has included therein, or attached thereto, a certificate properly filled out and executed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) (3) hereof.

(8) "Set aside oil" means oil originally acquired from a producer pursuant to a certified order or the oil which is substituted for such oil under the applicable provisions of paragraph (b) (3) hereof.

(9) "Essential use" means the use or consumption of fish oil in hot dip tinning, terne plating, or galvanizing, or in the manufacture of any of the following products:

(i) Insulating varnishes,
(ii) Ship bottom paint,
(iii) Alkyd resins,
(iv) Heat resistant paint,
(v) Water-insoluble metallic soaps,
(vi) Lubricants,
(vii) Caulking compounds,
(viii) Mechanical packing,
(ix) Textile sizes, or
(x) Natural or synthetic rubber products.

(10) "Essential processing" means any processing of fish oil which will render it suitable for an essential use.

(11) "Vitamin A feeding oil" means vitamin feeding oil which is sold by the manufacturer thereof with a guarantee of a minimum vitamin A potency.

(12) "Vitamin D feeding oil" means vitamin feeding oil which is sold by the manufacturer thereof with a guarantee of a minimum vitamin D potency.

(13) "Vitamin A and D feeding oil" means vitamin feeding oil that is sold by the manufacturer thereof with a guarantee of a minimum potency of both vitamin A and vitamin D.

(14) "Stock pile oil" means fish oil acquired by a governmental agency under the provisions of Food Distribution Order 59 (8 F.R. 9104).

(15) "Director" means the Director of Distribution, War Food Administration.

(b) Restrictions on crude sardine or menhaden oil. (1) Every producer shall set aside for delivery pursuant to certified orders, or as specifically authorized by the Director, the following tank cars of crude sardine or menhaden oil produced by him on or after April 1, 1944, and prior to December 15, 1944, in each plant operated by him, to wit:

(i) The second,
(ii) The fourth, and
(iii) Every third tank car thereafter, that is to say, the seventh, tenth, etc.

However, in making deliveries pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph (b) (1), a producer shall be allowed a tolerance of 3,000 pounds per tank car, and shall be permitted to substitute for any tank car of crude sardine or menhaden oil required to be set aside hereunder a tank car of crude sardine or menhaden oil previously produced in the same plant.

(2) Any tank car of crude sardine or menhaden oil required to be set aside under the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof shall be released from the restrictions of said paragraph, if so ordered by the Director, or, if on the day on which the production of such tank car of crude sardine or menhaden oil is begun, the producer thereof does not have an unfilled certified order which was received by him at least 14 days prior thereto, or has not been specifically authorized by the Director to deliver such tank car of crude sardine or menhaden oil.

(3) No person shall accept delivery of crude sardine or menhaden oil, required to be set aside under the provisions of paragraph (b) (1) hereof, from a producer unless he shall order such oil from the producer in a quantity equal to a tank car or multiples thereof and shall attach to, or incorporate in, such order a duly executed certificate in the following form:

The undersigned hereby certifies to the War Food Administration and to _____ (supplier) that this certificate constitutes a part of an order by him to said supplier for _____ tank cars of crude sardine or menhaden oil and that any such oil delivered to the undersigned pursuant to this order will be subjected to an essential processing or used for an essential use by the undersigned, or in lieu thereof, the undersigned will, upon receipt of the oil ordered herewith, set aside for essential uses or essential processing an equivalent amount of fish oil, other than Pacific Coast herring oil, seal oil, or fish oil delivered pursuant to a certified order. This certificate is given in compliance with WF 60, as amended, the terms of which are familiar to the undersigned.

_____ (Purchaser)

By _____ (Authorized official)

_____ (Date)

No person who receives crude sardine or menhaden oil pursuant to an order certified as herein provided shall subject such oil to any processing other than an essential processing or use or consume such oil for any purpose other than an essential use unless he shall substitute an equivalent amount of fish oil, other than Pacific Coast herring oil, seal oil, or fish oil received pursuant to a certified order, for the amount so received, whereupon the oil so substituted shall be regarded as set aside oil. Upon the delivery of a certified order to a producer the person executing the certificate shall forthwith mail to the Director of Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. WFO 60, a true copy of such certificate.

(4) No person shall accept delivery of crude sardine or menhaden oil pursuant to certified orders in a total quantity in excess of four tank cars, unless specifically authorized by the Director. An application for such an authorization shall be made by letter to the Director, on or before May 20, 1944. The letter shall set forth:

(i) The number of tank cars which the applicant desires to accept delivery of pursuant to certified orders,

(ii) An estimate of the applicant's requirements for each use set forth in paragraph (a) (9) hereof, during the period from April 1, 1944, to April 1, 1945, and an estimate of his requirements for processing for each use set forth in said paragraph (a) (9), during such period, and

(iii) The amount of fish oil used by the applicant in essential uses or subjected to essential processing by him in the calendar year of 1943.

(c) Further restrictions on set aside oil. Except as specifically authorized by the Director:

(1) No person shall deliver set aside oil to any other person without notifying such person, in writing, prior to delivery that such oil is set aside oil;

(2) No person shall deliver set aside oil which has been processed to any person other than a distributor or a person whose business operations include an essential use; and

(3) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) (3) hereof, no person shall use or consume set aside oil for any purpose other than an essential use or subject such oil to any processing other than an essential processing.

(d) Restrictions on feed manufacturers. Except as specifically authorized by the Director, no feed manufacturer shall use or consume fish oil, as such, in the manufacture of any feed. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as prohibiting any person from using or consuming vitamin feeding oil, manufactured in compliance with the provisions of paragraph (e) hereof, in the manufacture of feed for poultry.

(e) Restrictions on the manufacture of vitamin feeding oils. Except as specifically authorized by the Director:

(1) No person shall use or consume fish oil in the manufacture of vitamin feeding oils unless such feeding oils are to be used for poultry feeding;

(2) No person shall use or consume any fish oil in the manufacture of any vitamin A feeding oil to be used for poultry feeding;

(3) No person shall use or consume any fish oil in the manufacture of any vitamin D feeding oil to be used for poultry feeding unless the vitamin feeding oil is fortified by him to contain not less than 400 A. O. A. C. units of vitamin D per gram; and

(4) No person shall use or consume any fish oil in the manufacture of vitamin A and D feeding oil to be used for poultry feeding unless the vitamin feeding oil is fortified by him to contain not less than 400 A. O. A. C. units of vitamin D per gram.

(f) Restrictions on seal oil. Except as specifically authorized by the Director:

(1) No person shall use or consume seal oil in the manufacture of any product except natural leather; and

(2) No person shall process seal oil except in such a manner as to render it suitable for use or consumption in the manufacture of natural leather.

(g) Restrictions on Pacific Coast herring oil. Except as specifically authorized by the Director:

(1) No person shall use or consume Pacific Coast herring oil except in the manufacture of water-insoluble metallic soaps, natural leather, lubricants, or metal-working compounds, other than core oils; and

(2) No person shall process Pacific Coast herring oil except in such a manner as to render it suitable for use or consumption in the manufacture of water-insoluble metallic soaps, natural leather, lubricants, or metal-working compounds, other than core oils.

(h) Restrictions on stock pile oil. No person, who after the effective date of this amendment purchases stock pile oil from a governmental agency, shall use, consume, process, or deliver such oil except as specifically authorized by the Director.

(i) Applications for authorizations. Every person requiring an authorization to use or consume fish oil shall file an application therefor on Form FDA–478, or such other form or forms as the Director may prescribe, with the Director of Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. WFO 60. The Director may prescribe in each authorization the period of time in which the authorization shall be effective. No person shall take any action pursuant tively, during the corresponding portion of the base period, exclusive of all such products processed for, or sold to, a governmental agency by such processor during such corresponding portion of the base period. The milk solids used in frozen dairy foods or mix manufactured for, or delivered to, or for the account of, a governmental agency, shall be excluded from the amount of milk solids to which the aforesaid percentages are applicable.

(2) During the months of May and June 1944 the maximum total milk solids content of frozen dairy foods manufactured, sold, or delivered by any person shall be 24 per centum (by weight). After June 30, 1944, the maximum total milk solids content of frozen dairy foods manufactured, sold, or delivered by any person, shall be 22 per centum (by weight).

This amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t. May 1, 1944. With respect to violations, rights accrued, or liabilities incurred prior to the effective time of this amendment, the provisions of War Food Order No. 8 in effect prior to the effective time hereof shall be deemed to continue in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability.

to, or in reliance on, an authorization which has expired.

(j) FDO–42. The restrictions of this order shall be construed as being supplemental to the restrictions of Food Distribution Order 42, as amended.

(k) Records and reports. (1) Every person who in any calendar quarter uses or consumes more than 6,000 pounds of fish oil shall:

(i) Fill out and file, for each month of such quarter, Bureau of the Census Form BM–1, or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director, with the Bureau of the Census, Washington 25, D. C. The report for each month shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the succeeding month; and

(ii) Fill out and file for such quarter, Bureau of the Census Form BM–2, or such other form or forms as may be prescribed by the Director, with the Bureau of the Census, Washington 25, D. C. The report for each quarter shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the second month of the succeeding quarter. Nothing in this paragraph (k) (1) shall be construed as requiring any person to file more than one form BM–1 for any month, or more than one form BM–2 for any quarter. The provisions of Food Distribution Order 37, as amended, shall apply to the filing out of Form BM–1 with respect to sperm oil.

(2) The Director shall be entitled to obtain such information from, and require such reports and the keeping of such records by, any person, as may be necessary or appropriate, in the Director's discretion, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(3) Every person subject to this order shall, for at least two years (or for such period of time as the Director may designate), maintain an accurate record of his transactions in fish oil.

(l) Audits and inspections. The Director shall be entitled to make such audit or inspection of the books, records and other writings, premises or stocks of fish oil of any person, and to make such investigations, as may be necessary or appropriate, in the Director's discretion, to the enforcement or administration of the provisions of this order.

(m) Petition for relief from hardship. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship on him, may file a petition for relief in writing with the Director, addressed as follows: Director of Food Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. WFO 60. Such petition shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. The Administrator of this order shall then act upon the petition. In the event that the petitioner is dissatisfied with the action taken by the Administrator of this order, he may request a review of such action by the Director whose decision with respect to the relief sought shall be final.

(n) Violations. Any person who violates any provision of this order may, in accordance with the applicable procedure, be prohibited from receiving, making any deliveries of, or using fish oil, or any other material subject to priority or allocation control by any governmental agency. In addition, any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order is guilty of a crime and may be prosecuted under any and all applicable laws. Further, civil action may be instituted to enforce any liability or duty created by, or to enjoin any violation of, any provision of this order.

(o) Delegation of authority. The administration of this order and the powers vested in the War Food Administrator, insofar as such powers relate to the administration of this order, are hereby delegated to the Director. The Director is authorized to redelegate to any employee of the United States Department of Agriculture any or all of the authority vested in him by this order.

(p) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless instructions to the contrary are issued by the Director, or otherwise provided herein, be addressed to the Director of Distribution, War Food Administration, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. WFO 60.

(q) Effective date. This amendment shall become effective 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., May 1, 1944. However, with respect to violations of War Food Order 60, or rights accrued or liabilities incurred thereunder, prior to said date, said War Food Order 60 shall be deemed in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by, and subsequent reporting and record-keeping requirements will be subject to the approval of, Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1468—GRAIN

LIMITATIONS ON SALE, TRANSPORTATION, AND USE OF CORN

War Food Order 98 (9 F.R. 4379), § 1468.8, is amended as follows:

1. By amending (a) (2) thereof to read as follows:

(2) "Corn" means yellow, white, or mixed shelled corn, ear corn, or snap corn, of the dent or flint varieties, whole or crushed or mixed with other whole grains, excluding, however, seed corn, popcorn, grain sorghums, sweet corn, broom corn, corn used for canning purposes, and packaged corn meal, corn grits, or other corn products packaged for human consumption.

2. By amending (b) (2) thereof to read as follows:

(2) No person shall accept corn located in the designated area for transportation or delivery to any person other than Commodity or its designated agent. This provision shall not be construed to prevent any person or his agent from transporting corn owned by him from any point within the designated area to another point within such area: Provided Such corn does not at any time move outside of the designated area.

3. By amending (c) (3) thereof to read as follows:

(3) Any feeder, upon application to the County committee for the county where corn owned by him is located, may be authorized by such committee, in writing, to transport such corn to any point within a county adjoining the designated area for the purpose of feeding livestock or poultry owned by him.

4. By amending (i) thereof to read as follows:

(i) Request for relief from hardship. Any person located in the designated area who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional or unreasonable hardship on him may file a request for relief with the County committee for the county in which such person's establishment is located. Any other person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional or unreasonable hardship on him may file a request for relief with the Chief of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, Washington 25, D. C. All requests shall be in writing and shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought. Such requests shall be acted upon by the Chief of AAA or any employee of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency designated by him.

This amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., c. w. t., May 4, 1944.

With respect to violations, rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under War Food Order No. 98 prior to the effective date of this amendment, all provisions of said War Food Order No. 98 in effect prior to this amendment shall be deemed to remain in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, liability, or appeal.

AUTHORITY: §§ 91.1 to 91.31, inclusive, issued under 23 Stat. 32, as amended, 26 Stat. 416, as amended, 32 Stat. 792, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 101–122; 26 Stat. 833, as amended; 46 U.S.C. 466a, 466b.

§ 91.1 Definitions. Whenever in these regulations the following words, names, or terms are used they shall be construed as follows:

(a) "Foreign country": Any country other than Mexico.[1]

(b) "Department": The United States Department of Agriculture.

(c) "Bureau": The Bureau of Animal Industry of the Department.

(d) "Chief of Bureau": Chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry.

(e) "Inspector": An inspector of the Bureau.

(f) "Animals": Horses, cattle, sheep, swine, and goats.

(g) "Horses": Horses, mules, and asses.

(h) "Roofing paper": Any saturated roofing paper of a grade known to the trade as 30-pound roofing paper.

(i) "Stanchion": Post or other fixed upright support.

§ 91.2 Animals to be handled in compliance with regulations. No animals covered by these regulations shall be exported to a foreign country except in compliance with the provisions thereof.

§ 91.3 Ports of export. The following are designated ports of export for animals at which inspection will be maintained: Portland, Me.; Boston, Mass.; New York, N. Y.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Baltimore, Md.; Newport News and Norfolk, Va.; Jacksonville, Port Everglades, and Miami, Fla.; Mobile, Ala.; New Orleans, La.; Galveston and Houston, Tex.; San Diego, Los Angeles, and San Francisco, Calif.; Portland, Oregon; and Seattle and Tacoma, Wash. Other ports may be designated in special cases by the Chief of Bureau.

§ 91.4 Inspection and certification. No animals shall be exported to any foreign country until they have been inspected in the manner prescribed by the Chief of Bureau and found to be free from evidence of communicable disease or exposure thereto, and until they have been tested in the manner provided in § 91.5, if they are of a class required by that section to be tested. If, upon inspection, they are found to be free from evidence of communicable disease or exposure thereto, they shall be accompanied with a certificate to that effect, signed by a Bureau inspector.

§ 91.5 Diagnostic tests for dairy and breeding cattle. No dairy or breeding cattle shall be exported to a foreign country unless they are shown by proper certificate to have passed a negative test for tuberculosis and, if they are more than 6 months old, a negative blood test for brucellosis (Bang's disease) within 30 days of the date of shipment: Provided, however, That the test for brucellosis may be waived in respect to animals that have been officially vaccinated as calves within the previous 12 months: And provided further, That either or both of these tests may be waived upon presentation by the exporter to the inspector at the port of embarkation of a written permit by an authorized representative of the foreign government to ship a specified lot of cattle to that particular country without said tests.

The tuberculin test may be applied by a Bureau inspector or by a veterinarian accredited by the Bureau, in which case the certificate shall be endorsed by the inspector in charge of disease-eradication work in the State of origin. Blood tests for brucellosis shall be made in laboratories recognized by the Bureau and State authorities for that purpose, and the certificate shall be issued or endorsed by the inspector in charge of disease-eradication work in the State of origin.

§ 91.6 Disinfection of cars and other conveyances. No animals intended for export to a foreign country shall be transported in cars or other conveyances which have been used in the transportation of livestock since they were last cleaned and disinfected: Provided, however, That express cars or other conveyances not regularly used for the transportation of livestock need not be so disinfected. If such animals are confined in crates or portable stalls, these either shall be new and previously unused or shall be cleaned and disinfected before receiving such export animals.

§ 91.7 Rest and inspection before embarkation. No animals shall be loaded upon a vessel for exportation until they have been allowed at least 5 hours' actual rest in suitable quarters at the port of embarkation: Provided, however, That such period of rest will not be required if the animals were transported thereto in cars in which there was opportunity to rest and proper feed and water were provided, or when the animals are to be stowed in box stalls aboard ship.

All animals shall remain at the port of export a sufficient length of time and under conditions to afford proper inspection during daylight. The place of detention for rest and inspection shall be subject to approval of the inspector. Movement of animals from the holding yards, pens, or stables to the transporting vessel, and their loading, storing, and tying, shall be accomplished in a manner satisfactory to the inspector.

§ 91.8 Accommodations for humane treatment of animals on vessels. Owners or masters of vessels carrying animals from the United States to a foreign country shall provide for such animals food and water, space, ventilation, fittings, and other facilities as hereinafter set forth: Provided, however, That shipments of animals to points in nearby countries involving not more than 72 hours in transit shall be subject only to such requirements as to space, ventilation, fittings, food, and water supply as the Chief of Bureau shall prescribe. Such owners or masters shall not accept for transportation any animal that in the judgment of the inspector is in an unfit condition to withstand the rigors of such transportation.

§ 91.9 Headropes and halters. Halters, ropes, or other suitable equipment satisfactory to the inspector shall be provided for the handling and tying of horses and cattle.

§ 91.10 Space on vessels. Except as specified in § 91.8, space on vessels for the various species of animals shall be as follows:

(a) Horses. Space for horses shall be not less than 6 feet 3 inches from roof or beams overhead to floor underfoot and shall be at least 8 feet in depth, except that upon approval of the inspector stalls 7 feet deep may be allowed for medium-sized horses. Single stalls shall be not less than 2½ feet wide. Not less than 20 square feet shall be allowed for each horse loose in pen, and for every large horses there shall be at least 27 square feet.

Subject to the approval of the inspector as many as four horses, or as many as seven horses weighing not more than 500 pounds each, may be shipped in pens not less than 10 by 8 feet in size. Mares in foal and stallions, however, shall be shipped only in separate stalls, which shall be not less than 8 feet deep by 3 feet wide and for mares due to foal en route shall be not less than 8 feet deep by 5 feet wide and readily accessible.

Extra stalls suitably located shall be provided in each compartment or on decks where horses are carried so that adequate hospital space can be made available for any that become sick or disabled aboard ship. The number of such stalls shall be as follows: One for the first 4 to 10 horses shipped, another for any number in excess of 10 up to and including 25, and still another for each additional 25 horses or fraction thereof.

(b) Cattle. Space for cattle shall be not less than 8 feet in depth and 6 feet from roof or beams overhead to flooring underfoot, except that where floors are raised over pipes and similar obstructions a height of not less than 5 feet 6 inches may be permitted at the discretion of the inspector. No more than four cattle weighing over 850 pounds each shall be shipped in each pen, except at the ends of rows, where five may be allowed together. In such pens there shall be at least 20 square feet of space for each animal. When any such pen includes stanchions, sounding tubes, ventilators, and other obstructions, there shall be not less than 24 square feet of free space for each animal.

Single stalls for cattle shall be not less than 8 feet in depth by 3 feet in width, and larger stalls shall be provided when required by the inspector for cows in advanced pregnancy and for large dairy or breeding cattle. Cows in advanced pregnancy and bulls shall be shipped only in separate stalls. For cows that are due to calve en route, the stalls or pens shall be not less than 5 by 8 feet in size and so located as to be easily accessible.

Calves and yearlings may be stowed at the discretion of the inspector.

(c) Sheep, goats, and swine. Space for these animals shall be not less than 3 feet in height. For each animal the space provided shall be at least 1 foot greater in length and breadth than the animal itself, with a 50-percent increase for animals in advanced pregnancy. Double-deck pens shall not exceed 20 x 8 feet in size. Lambs, kids, and pigs may be stowed at the discretion of the inspector.

§ 91.11 Crates and portable stalls. Animals may be carried in crates or portable stalls which meet the space requirements of § 91.10 and are so constructed as to afford comfort and security. All crates and portable stalls shall be equipped for the feeding and watering of the animals carried therein, and when placed on exposed decks the roofs of same shall conform with the requirements of § 91.22. Crates and portable stalls shall be subject in all cases to the approval of the inspector at the port of embarkation.

§ 91.12 Hatches. Hatches above animals shall be kept clear at all times, no feed for the animals or freight of any kind being placed thereon.

Animals may be placed on hatches on exposed decks, but the pens or stalls shall be lashed down securely to the satisfaction of the inspector.

Animals may be placed on hatches on underdecks provided the height requirements of § 91.10 can be complied with, but sufficient space shall be left clear on such hatches for passageway across ship and for brow.

On all hatches on which animals are carried and under which hay and feed are stowed, sufficient space shall be left clear for the proper removal and handling of such hay and feed. Such hatches shall be watertight.

§ 91.13 Upper-deck fittings. Animals may be carried on upper decks in space abutting the outside rails or bulwarks only if such rails or bulwarks are 3 feet or more in height from the deck and are of sufficient strength to hold the necessary fittings securely, or if the space available is sufficient to permit securing the required fittings to provide the necessary strength. When animals are carried on upper decks, bulkheads shall be erected at all unprotected ends of stalls.

§ 91.14 Protection from heat of boilers and engines. No animals shall be stowed along the alleyways by engine and boiler room unless the sides of said engine and boiler rooms are covered by a tongue-and-groove tight sheathing, making a 3-inch air space: Provided, however, That on ships powered with internal-combustion engines this sheathing will not be required.

§ 91.15 Ventilation. Each underdeck compartment on which animals are being transported shall be equipped with a system of ventilation either natural or mechanical that will furnish a complete change of air in the compartment every 5 minutes. When the latter method is employed, a sufficient number of portable blowers of approved type shall be carried to provide ventilation in case of break-down. Natural ventilation may be procured through ventilators, hatches, doors, and portholes when approved by the inspector.

§ 91.16 Feed and Water. For animals embarked for a voyage which on an average is of more than 20 hours' duration, there shall be provided to the satisfaction of the inspector sufficient amounts of suitable feed and fresh water, and proper accommodation shall be provided on board for distribution of the water and for stowage of the feed so that it shall not be unduly exposed to the weather at sea.

§ 91.17 Attendants. Each vessel on which livestock are embarked shall carry one man who is experienced in the handling of the particular species and a sufficient number of attendants to insure proper care of the animals.

§ 91.18 Lighting. All vessels carrying animals shall be equipped to provide adequate light at all times for the proper attending of all animals.

§ 91.19 Alleyways. Alleyways running fore and aft that are used for feeding, watering, and loading animals, including horses in box stalls, shall have a minimum width of 3 feet, but when horses are stowed in other than box stalls the minimum width of alleyways shall be 4 feet: Provided, however, That for a distance not to exceed 12 feet at the end of alleyways in bow and stern of ship, and where obstructions less than 3 feet in length occur, the width may be reduced to a minimum of 18 inches. A sufficient number of athwartship alleyways at least 18 inches in width in the clear shall be provided to afford ready access to scuppers and to ends of alleyways running fore and aft except that on exposed decks where scuppers and the ends of fore and aft alleyways are readily accessible athwartship alleyways may be dispensed with.

§ 91.20 Stanchions. Stanchions shall be provided for all stalls and pens for horses, cattle, sheep, goats, and swine. Metal stanchions will be acceptable if equal in strength and security as hereinafter provided for wooden stanchions.

(a) Horses and cattle. Rail stanchions shall be of not less than 4" x 6" lumber set 5 feet apart on centers secured to ship's rail or bulwark with ⅝" hook bolts or collars, and with heels properly braced to sheer streak, or waterway. Inboard stanchions of the same dimensions shall be set in line with the rail stanchions and properly braced. Stanchions shall be securely fastened to roof beams by means of cleats 2" x 4" x 8" in size butted against both sides of stanchions and also by means of angle braces not less than 1" x 6" x 24" in size properly placed and nailed to secure each stanchion to its beam. Stanchions affixed to bulwarks shall be chucked down with pieces not less than 2" x 3" x 8" lumber. On open-rail ships, spaces between the rails shall be blocked out to permit the affixing of outside planking. If supplementary stanchions are required for rump boards, these shall be not less than 3" x 4" in size properly cleated to beam and deck.

Stanchions on underdecks shall be secured by appropriate bracing, cleating, and wedging and set not more than 7 feet 6 inches apart on centers, except that this spacing may be increased to 10 feet when 3" x 10" breast boards are used.

(b) Sheep, goats, and swine. Stanchions for single- or double-tier pens for these animals shall be of not less than 3" x 4" lumber set at no greater distance than 5 feet on centers and secured in the same manner as prescribed in this regulation for horses and cattle.

§ 91.21 Beams—(a) Horses and cattle. Beams shall be of not less than 3" x 6" lumber. Those at the ends of fittings and each alternate one shall extend across the ship's beam or abut against permanent deck fittings. The intermediate short beams shall not extend beyond the inner edge of the roof.

(b) Sheep, goats, and swine. When two tiers of pens are constructed on upper or exposed decks, beams shall be provided as specified in this regulation for horses and cattle. Beams of not less than 3" x 4" lumber bolted to stanchions with ⅝" bolts shall be provided to support the roof of single-tier pens on exposed decks and the floor of double-tier pens on all decks. Beams supporting upper-tier pens shall be braced in centers by uprights of not less than 2" x 4" lumber extending from deck to under side of beams.

§ 91.22 Roofs. All pens for carrying animals on exposed decks shall be roofed with not less than 1⅛" lumber, tongued and grooved or square-edged, extending from outside planking to 2 feet beyond the line of breast boards: Provided, however, That if square-edged lumber is used, it shall be properly covered with roofing paper.

§ 91.23 Flooring—(a) Horses and cattle. Flooring shall be laid athwartship and secured by placing ends beneath the under side of foot and rump boards or under a 2" x 2" strip nailed along these boards. Floors may be either of two types, flush or raised. The flush type shall be of not less than 1" lumber laid flat on the deck. The raised type shall be of not less than 2" lumber nailed to scantlings of at least 2" x 3" dimensions laid 2 feet 6 inches apart. If desired, flooring may be laid in portable sections. Flooring will not be required on ships with wooden decks provided footlocks are secured to the deck. Cement or composite material diagonally scored one-half inch deep may be used on iron decks instead of wooden flooring if the footlocks are molded in the same and bolted to the deck.

(b) Sheep, goats, and swine. Flooring for these animals shall be the same as prescribed in this regulation for horses and cattle except that raised flooring need not be greater than 1 inch in thickness.

§ 91.24 Footlocks—(a) Horses and cattle. There shall be four footlocks of 1" x 4" lumber laid fore and aft with flat side down, and so placed as to provide in-between spaces of 12, 14, 26, and 14 inches, beginning at inside of footboard. They shall be well secured with nails of a length that will permit 1-inch clinch in 1-inch flooring and 2-inch penetration in 2-inch flooring.

(b) Sheep, goats, and swine. Footlocks for these animals shall be of not less than 1" x 2" lumber, four to each pen, equally distributed and laid in the manner prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section for horses and cattle.

§ 91.25 Outside planking. All pens for carrying animals on exposed decks shall be provided with outside planking of not less than 1⅛" tongue-and-groove lumber laid fore and aft of ship driven tightly together and securely nailed to backs of stanchions in a manner to cover all open spaces properly: Provided, however, That during warm weather the top-course planking may be left off in order to allow a free circulation of air.

§ 91.26 Breast, front, and foot boards—(a) Horses and cattle. Except as provided in § 91.8, all stalls and pens shall be equipped with breast boards of not less than 2" x 10" dressed lumber securely nailed to the stanchions. Where butting occurs the joints are to be on the stanchions and shall be covered with metal plates 3" square or 5" in diameter and not less than ¼" in thickness. A ⅝" bolt shall then be passed through the plate, joint, and stanchion and securely fastened with a nut. All breast boards shall have 1" holes bored through them at proper distances for tying animals. Breast boards shall be provided with removable sections in order that animals may be loaded into and removed from stalls and pens. All stalls and pens shall be provided with foot boards of not less than 2" x 10" lumber securely nailed or bolted to stanchions.

(b) Sheep, goats, and swine. Front boards shall be of not less than 1" x 6" pieces appropriately spaced and extending to the proper height for these species of animals. Provision shall be made for removing a section of front boards to allow entry of animals into pens and removal therefrom.

§ 91.27 Rump boards—(a) Horses and cattle. Rump boards shall form a solid wall at least 4 feet 6 inches high and shall be of lumber not less than 1⅛" thick if tongued and grooved or 2" if square-edged. Where deck is clear of obstructions rump boards may be set on inside of rail stanchions. When this is not possible, sections so affected may be brought forward to clear such obstructions and shall be fastened to stanchions provided for this purpose. In lower decks, where ship's construction so justifies, rump boards may be affixed to 2" x 6" wooden pieces set the same as prescribed for stanchions. Rump boards may be formed by filling spaces between cargo battens. Rump boards in stalls or pens built alongside hatches need be carried down only to line of coaming.

(b) Sheep, goats, and swine. Pens for these animals on all exposed decks shall be provided with rump boards of the specified size built to a height of 2 feet 6 inches.

§ 91.28 Division boards—(a) Horses and cattle. Division boards shall be used to separate all stalls and pens and to close the sides of same at the ends of rows. They shall be used in sets of four boards of 2" x 10" dressed lumber separated by 3-inch spacers, shall extend from the rump boards to the inboard stanchions, and shall be fitted into appropriate channels or slots at both ends in a manner that will permit their ready removal.

(b) Sheep, goats, and swine. Division boards and those forming ends of pens shall be the same as prescribed for front boards for these animals in § 91.26.

§ 91.29 Troughs and hayracks. All stalls and pens shall be equipped with proper troughs for feeding animals as hereinafter provided. Racks or nets furnished for feeding hay shall be of a type acceptable to the inspector.

(a) Horses and cattle. Troughs may be of metal or wood either removable or fixed. The space between the first footlock and the footboard may be utilized for feeding cattle provided a 2" x 4" piece is affixed along the top surface of said footlock so that it, together with the footboard and the battens, will form an enclosure: When wooden troughs are used an adequate supply of buckets shall be provided for the proper watering of the animals.

(b) Sheep, goats, and swine. Pens for these animals shall have feed troughs not less than 8 inches wide and proper receptacles for watering. Pens for sheep and goats should also have ample hay racks suitable for these animals.

§ 91.30 Defective fittings. If previously used fittings are employed, any portion thereof found by the inspector to be worn, decayed, unsound, or otherwise defective shall be replaced.

§ 91.31 Cleaning and disinfecting vessels, fittings, utensils and equipment. All parts of vessels, fittings, utensils, and equipment used in the loading, stowing or other handling of animals in compliance with the provisions of this order shall first be thoroughly cleaned and then disinfected with a Bureau approved disinfectant under the supervision of an inspector before being again used for or in connection with the transportation of animals from United States ports. Such disinfection of halters, ropes, and similar equipment used in handling and tying the animals shall be by immersion in the approved disinfectant.

AUTHORITY: Regulations in this subchapter issued under sec. 2 (a), 54 Stat. 676, as amended by 55 Stat. 236 and 56 Stat. 176; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; W.P.B. Reg. 1 as amended March 24, 1943, 8 F.R. 3666, 3696; Pri. Reg. 1 as amended May 15, 1943, 8 F.R. 6727.

PART 1010—SUPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-527, Stay of Execution]

BLOOMFIELD MANUFACTURING COMPANY

The Bloomfield Manufacturing Company of Chicago, Illinois, has appealed the provisions of Suspension Order No. S-527, issued April 25, 1944 (§ 1010.527), and has requested a stay on the ground that irreparable harm would be done its business if the suspension order were not stayed. The Chief Compliance Commissioner has directed that the provisions of the suspension order be stayed pending final determination of the appeal or until further order by the Chief Compliance Commissioner. In view of the foregoing,

It is hereby ordered, That: The provisions of Suspension Order No. S-527, issued April 25, 1944, are hereby stayed pending final determination of the appeal or until further order by the Chief Compliance Commissioner.

Issued this 2d day of May 1944.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S-542]

MC KAY PLUMBING CO.

J. P. McKay, G. H. McKay, and Alice R. McKay are partners, doing business as McKay Plumbing Company, in Jackson, Mississippi. The company deals in various appliances, including refrigerators. In December, 1942, the company purchased and accepted transfer of 49 new domestic mechanical refrigerators in violation of Supplementary Limitation Order L-5-d, which prohibited accepting such transfers. Order L-5-d also required that transfer of new domestic mechanical refrigerators should be made as far as practicable through normal distributive outlets; notwithstanding this, the refrigerators which the company accepted were Stewart-Warner refrigerators, although the company had never been and was not a distributive outlet for Stewart-Warner refrigerators. The company has continued to hold the refrigerators, and has refused and still refuses to transfer them in accordance with the terms of Order L-5-d and as required by the War Production Board. The company was familiar with Order L-5-d, and its failure to comply with it constitutes a wilful violation of the order. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby ordered, that:

§ 1010.542 Suspension Order No. S-542. (a) J. P. McKay, G. H. McKay, and Alice R. McKay, individually or as partners, doing business as McKay Plumbing Company, or otherwise, their successors or assigns, shall not sell, lease, trade, deliver, ship, or otherwise transfer, directly or indirectly, any of the 49 new domestic mechanical Stewart-Warner refrigerators acquired and now held by them, or the title to the refrigerators, except as hereafter specifically authorized in writing by the War Production Board.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve J. P. McKay, G. H. McKay, and Alice R. McKay, individually or as partners, doing business as McKay Plumbing Company, or otherwise, their successors or assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on May 8, 1944.

Issued this 26th day of April 1944.

Recording Secretary.

PART 3289—RADIO AND RADAR

[Conservation Order L-134, Revocation]

INSTRUMENTS, VALVES AND REGULATORS USED IN INDUSTRIAL PROCESSES

Section 3289.6 Conservation Order L-134 is revoked. This revocation, however, does not affect any liability incurred under the order. A manufacturer of products which have been subject to the restrictions of this order may, at his option, supply products made in conformity with the order or products made free of the restrictions of the order in filling purchase orders placed with him before May 3, 1944. If a customer cancels a previous order, and places another order on or after May 3, 1944, the latter is a new order even though it is intended to replace the previous order. Furthermore, if a customer on or after May 3, 1944, changes an existing purchase order so as to call for specifications previously prohibited by Conservation Order L-134, or makes a change in his purchase order which would interrupt or disrupt the manufacturer's production in process or planned production, any such change operates as a cancellation of the old order and the placing of a new order.

Issued this 3d day of May 1944.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[RO 1E,[1] Amdt. 8]

MILEAGE RATIONING: TIRE REGULATIONS FOR THE TERRITORY OF HAWAII

A rationale accompanying this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Ration Order 1E is amended in the following respects:

1. Sections 3.2 (a) (2), 4.2, 4.3, 4.4 (a), 4.5 (a) and (b), 6.1, 6.2 (a) and (b), 6.3 (a) and (c), 6.4 (a), (b), (c) (2) and (e), 6.5 (a), (b), and (c), 7.3 (a) and (b), and 7.4 are amended by inserting the word "new" before the word "tube" or "tubes" wherever the word "tube" or "tubes" appears therein.

2. The present section 3.2 (d) is redesignated as 3.2 (d) (1) and section 3.2 (d) (2) is added to read as follows:

(2) No Board may issue a certificate for a used tube.

3. The eligibility table in section 4.2 (c) is amended by deleting the words "150 miles per month or less" and the word "used".

4. Section 4.6 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 4.6 Eligibility of recappers for curing tubes. A recapper may file an application for new tubes to be used solely in recapping. He must establish that he does not have more than one serviceable air bag or tube of the required size for each mold operated by him, and that the new tube applied for is necessary to the operation of the mold.

5. Section 6.2 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Temporary transfer, mounting and use of used tires. A person may temporarily transfer, without certificate, used tires to another person who may mount and use them to:

(1) Replace a tire that is being repaired or recapped;

(2) Move a wrecked, disabled or repossessed vehicle to a garage or other place of safety or storage;

(3) Move vehicles held for resale from one sales premises to another;

(4) Move any house trailer or mobile eating establishment to a site for housing or business purposes.

Such tires shall be returned to the transferor within three (3) days after the purpose for which the tires were transferred is accomplished.

6. Section 6.7 (k) is added to read as follows:

(k) Transfer and mounting of used tubes. Any person may transfer, acquire, mount, use, alter or change the physical location of used tubes without certificate or authorization.

7. Section 6.8 (c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) Temporary transfers. Every person transferring tires temporarily pursuant to section 6.2 (c) shall keep a record showing:

(1) The purpose for which the transfer is made;

(2) The serial number of the tires transferred and the tires temporarily replaced, if any;

(3) The date of such transfer;

(4) The name and address of the person to whom the transfer is made;

(5) The date the tire is returned.

8. Section 7.5 is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 7.5 Preservation and filing of records. Any person affected by this order shall keep and file such additional records and reports as the Office of Price Administration may require. Any record required to be kept by this order, notwithstanding any amendment thereto, shall be preserved for not less than two (2) years, except that records of transfers for repair need be preserved only while the tires or new tubes to be repaired are in possession of the repairer. All records relating to tires, tubes or camelback shall be available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

This amendment shall become effective May 3, 1944.

NOTE: All record keeping and reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget as required by the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1448—EATING AND DRINKING ESTABLISHMENTS

[Rev. Restaurant MPR 5-9]

FOOD AND DRINK SOLD FOR IMMEDIATE CONSUMPTION IN LOUISIANA

Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 5-9 is redesignated Revised Restaurant Maximum Regulation No. 5-9 and is revised and amended to read as follows:

In the judgment of the District Director of the New Orleans District Office of Region No. 5, the prices of food and beverages sold for immediate consumption in the Parishes of Orleans, Jefferson, St. Bernard, Washington, East Baton Rouge, Lafayette, Calcasieu, Beauregard, Vernon, Rapides, St. Mary and Tangipahoa, in the State of Louisiana, have risen and are threatening further to rise to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders 9250 and 9328.

In the judgment of the District Director of the New Orleans District Office of Region No. 5, the maximum prices established by this regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to check inflation and to effectuate the purposes of the act. So far as practicable, the District Director of the New Orleans District Office of Region No. 5, gave due consideration to prices prevailing between October 1 and 15, 1941, and consulted with the representatives of those affected by this regulation.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation is issued simultaneously herewith.

Therefore, in accordance with the direction of the President to take action which will stabilize prices affecting the cost of living, and under the authority therewith delegated by the President pursuant to the act of Congress approved October 2, 1942, entitled "An Act to Aid in Stabilizing the Cost of Living", 77th Congress, Second Session, and under the authority of Executive Order 9250, Executive Order 9328, and the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, the District Director of the New Orleans District Office of Region No. 5 hereby issues this Revised Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 5-9, establishing as maximum prices for food and drink sold for immediate consumption in the Parishes of Louisiana mentioned above, the prices prevailing therefor during the seven-day period beginning April 4, 1943, and ending April 10, 1943.

§ 1448.409. Maximum prices for food and drink sold for immediate consumption. Under the authority vested in the District Director of the New Orleans District Office of Region No. 5 by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, Executive Order 9250, Executive Order 9328, General Order No. 50, issued by the Office of Price Administration, and Region 5 Order No. 48, Revised Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 5-9 (Food and Drink Sold for Immediate Consumption) which is annexed hereto and made part hereof, is issued.

AUTHORITY: § 1448.409 issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871; E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681, Gen. Order 50, 8 F.R. 4808.

SECTION 1. Sales at higher than ceiling prices prohibited. If you own or operate a restaurant, hotel, cafe, bar, delicatessen, soda fountain, boarding house, or any other eating or drinking place, you must not offer or sell any "food item" (including any beverage) or "meal" at a price higher than the ceiling price which you figure acording to the directions in the next two sections (sections 2 and 3). You may, of course, sell at lower than ceiling prices.

SEC. 2. How you figure ceiling prices for food items and meals you offered in the seven-day period from April 4, 1943, to April 10, 1943. Your ceiling price for any food item or meal which you offered in the seven-day period beginning Sunday, April 4, 1943, and ending Saturday, April 10, 1943, is the highest price at which you offered the same food item or meal in that seven-day period.

SEC. 3. How you figure ceiling prices for food items and meals you did not offer in the seven-day period. You must figure your ceiling price for a food item or meal which you did not offer during the seven-day period as follows:

(a) If you offered the same food item or meal at any time during the four weeks from March 7 to April 3, 1943, inclusive, and if you have adequate records of the prices you then charged, take as your ceiling price the highest price at which you offered that food item or meal during that four-week period.

(b) If you did not offer the food item or meal during the five-week period from March 7 to April 10, 1943, inclusive, or if you do not have adequate records of prices charged prior to the seven-day period you must proceed as follows:

(1) Determine the cost of the raw food which you use in preparing the new food item or meal.

(2) From the food items and meals for which you have already established ceiling prices, choose a food item or meal which currently has a raw food cost equal to or less than the raw food cost of the new food item or meal.

(3) Take as your ceiling price for the new food item or meal your ceiling price for the food item or meal chosen for comparison. The food item or meal chosen for such comparison should be of the same class as the new food item or meal. If, however, you can find no food item or meal of the same class, you may use for comparison the most similar food item or meal of another class having a food cost equal to or less than your food cost for the new food item or meal. "Currently" as used herein means current on the day you figure your price.

(c) Once your ceiling price for a food item or meal has been fixed, it may not be changed except as provided in section 4.

SEC. 4. How you figure your prices for seasonal item. First, determine your ceiling price for a "seasonal food item" (defined in section 20 (e)) in accordance with the appropriate rule of sections 2 and 3 of this regulation. Thereafter, this price must be varied in proportion to any seasonal change in the raw food cost of the item; Provided, That in no event shall the price be higher than the ceiling price as originally determined. If in the past it has been your practice to maintain one price throughout the season, you need not vary your ceiling price according to this rule provided the ceiling price was based upon estimated average raw food cost of the item for the entire season.

SEC. 5. No ceiling price for any food item or meal to be higher than the highest ceiling price for a food item or meal of the same class in the base period. Under no circumstances are you permitted to charge a higher price for a food item or a meal than:

(a) Your highest ceiling price for food items or meals of the same class offered in the seven-day period; or

(b) The last price at which you sold the same food item or meal prior to April 4, 1943, provided you first file with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board a menu or certified copy of a record showing the last price charged.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to seasonal dessert specialties specified in section 21A, Class 24a.

Example 1. If your highest ceiling price for any soup offered by you during the seven-day period is 15 cents, you may not offer any other soup at a higher price than 15 cents.

Example 2. You served sirloin steak in March at $1.50. You did not serve sirloin steak during the base period. The highest price at which you can now serve sirloin steak is $1.50.

SEC. 6. Substitution of food items in meals. If you have already determined your ceiling price for a meal you may substitute for any food item other than the entree (or main dish) in that meal any other food item of the same class without refiguring your ceiling price, provided the new food item costs you approximately as much and offers customers about the same value as the food item which it replaces. A meal becomes a "new" meal whenever the entree (or main dish) is changed or a new food item is substituted which costs you less or offers your customers lower value than the food item which it replaces, and you must therefore determine its ceiling price in accordance with the rules established by section 3.

SEC. 7. Prohibition against manipulation of meal offerings. You must not manipulate your meal offerings in a manner which will force your customers to pay more than they did during the seven-day period. Among other things you must not

(a) Reduce the number of meals offered at prices equal to or below your "middle price" for meals of the same class without making a corresponding reduction in the number of meals offered at prices above that middle price. By "middle price" is meant the price most nearly at the mid-point of your price range for meals of the same class;

(b) Cease to offer at least as many different meals at or below the lowest price charged by you for meals of the same class on any day you select in the seven-day period, as you did on that day.

Example. If you select Friday, April 9, 1943, to determine the lowest price and the number of week-day meals offered at that price, and if on that day you offered six week-day dinners, of which two were priced at 85 cents, and one each at 90 cents, $1.00, $1.10, $1.15, you must continue to offer two week-day dinners at 85 cents. Note that Sunday meals and week-day meals are meals of a different class.

SEC. 8. Evasion. (a) You must not evade or avoid the provisions of this regulation by any scheme or device whatsoever. Some, but not all, practices which will be regarded as evasive are:

(1) Dropping food items from meals, deteriorating quality or reducing quantity without making sufficient reduction in price so as to maintain the raw food cost ratio at least equal to such ratio prior to the deterioration or reduction;

(2) Withdrawing the offer, or increasing the price, of any meal ticket, weekly rate, or other arrangement by which customers may buy food items or meals at less than the prices they must pay when purchasing by item or meal;

(3) Increasing any cover, minimum, bread-and-butter, service, corkage, entertainment, check-room, parking or other special charges, or making such charges when they were not in effect in the seven-day period except that a cover or minimum charge in effect during the base period may be increased in accordance with customary practice, where it was the practice to vary the charge in accordance with the type of entertainment offered and the increase does not cause the charge to go above the highest charge made during the last twelve-month period;

(4) Requiring as a condition of sale of an item or meal the purchase of other items or meals when such condition was not in effect during the base period;

(5) Reducing the selection of meals offered at table d'hote prices when the food items which you customarily offered in such meals are being offered at a la carte prices which when added together total more than the table d'hote price for the complete meal or give your customers less value for their money.

Example 1. If you customarily offered fish on table d'hote dinners at $1.10, you may not now offer fish a la carte and refuse to offer it on a table d'hote dinner priced at $1.10.

Example 2. If you offered table d'hote dinners during the base period at 85 cents to $1.25, which included dessert and beverage, you may now offer the same food item excluding dessert and beverage at 65 cents to $1.05, providing you also offer dessert and beverage to be served with the meals at prices which do not total more than 30 cents.

(b) However, doing any of the following things will not be considered evading the provisions of this regulation, even though you did not do any of these things during the seven-day period:

(1) You may limit your customers to one pat of butter per meal.

(2) You may reduce the quantity, or eliminate altogether, condiments (such as catsup, chili sauce, etc.) which you may have customarily placed at the disposal of your customers and which now are, or may hereafter be, subject to any rationing order or rationing regulation of the Office of Price Administration.

(3) You may reduce the amount of sugar served with each cup of coffee or tea, or each bowl of cereal, fruit, or other similar food items with which sugar is served, to, but not less than, one teaspoonful, except that less may be given if required by your available supply.

You may not, however, make the curtailment authorized in the foregoing subparagraphs and furnish these curtailed items at an additional charge. For example, if during the seven-day period you furnished catsup, you may not now discontinue furnishing this item free, and at the same time offer to furnish it for an additional charge.

SEC. 9. Rules for new proprietors. (a) If you acquire another's business after the effective date of this regulation and continue the business in the same place, you are subject to the same ceiling prices and duties as the previous proprietor. However, before acquiring another's business, you may apply to the Office of Price Administration for permission to price under paragraph (b) of this section. If such permission is granted, it may be subject to such conditions as the Office of Price Administration deems necessary.

(b) If you open an eating or drinking place after the seven-day period, you must fix ceiling prices in line with the ceiling prices of the nearest eating or drinking place of the same type as yours. If the ceiling prices so fixed are too high and threaten to have an inflationary effect on the price of food or drink, the Office of Price Administration may issue an order requiring you to reduce your ceiling prices. You are subject to the record requirements of section 12 and the posting requirements of section 13 immediately upon the opening of your place.

SEC. 10. Seasonal eating and drinking places—(a) Exempt places. If you are the proprietor of a seasonal eating or drinking place that

(1) Was not open during the base period from April 4 to 10, 1943;

(2) Receives 90 percent or more of its total annual revenue during four calendar months of the year;

(3) Is located in an area for which no maximum rent regulation has been issued:

the prices for food items and meals offered by you in that place are exempt from control.

You must not regard this exemption as relieving you from the obligations imposed upon you by General Order No. 50, and you are still subject to the provisions of section 22 of this regulation. Pursuant to this latter section the District Director will by special order establish maximum prices for any seasonal eating or drinking place which takes undue advantage of the exemption.

(b) Non-exempt places. If you are the proprietor of a seasonal eating or drinking place which is not exempt under the terms of paragraph (a), you must figure your ceiling prices as follows:

(1) If the place was in operation during the base period from April 4 to April 10, 1943, use the rules set forth in sections 2, 3 and 4.

(2) If the place was not in operation during the base period from April 4 to April 10, 1943, but another place of the same type and within a reasonable distance was in operation during that period, fix your ceiling prices as a new proprietor under the terms of section 9 (b).

(3) If you cannot price under subparagraphs (1) or (2) above, you must apply for a price to the New Orleans District Office of the Office of Price Administration, 708 Canal Building, New Orleans, Louisiana. Your application must be filed ten days before the date you plan to commence operations and present the following information:

(i) Your name and address.

(ii) A brief description of your business and the manner of operation.

(iii) A list showing the prices you charged during the previous season, as well as the prices you propose to charge during the coming season.

(iv) The date when you plan to commence operations.

(v) The names of two establishments similar to yours.

You may charge the prices listed if they are not disapproved by the Office of Price Administration before the date specified for the commencement of operations. That Office may at any time, after proper investigation and hearing, establish such maximum prices for your business as it deems proper.

SEC. 11. Taxes. If in the seven-day period you stated and collected the amount of any tax separately from the price you charged, you may continue to do so. You may also separately state and collect the amount of any new tax or of any increase in the amount of a previous tax on the sale of food or drink or on the business of selling food or drink, if the tax is measured by the number or price of items or meals.

SEC. 12. Records. (a) You must observe all the record-keeping and filing requirements of General Order No. 50 which are hereby made a part of this regulation by reference.

(b) Customary records. You must preserve all your existing records relating to your price, costs and sales. You must also continue to maintain such records as you ordinarily kept. All such records shall be subject to examination by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Records of the seven-day period. You must make available for examination by any person during ordinary business hours a copy of each menu used by you in the seven-day period. If you did not use menus, you must make available for such examination a list of the highest prices you charged in the seven-day period.

(d) Filing by new proprietors. The proprietor of an eating or drinking place which was not open during the seven-day period (including newly-opened places), shall file menus or a price list in accordance with paragraph (a), (General Order No. 50), except that (1) the filing shall be for the seven-day period beginning with the first Sunday that place is open after April 4, 1943, and (2) the filing shall be made within three weeks of such first Sunday.

(e) Future records. Beginning with the effective date of this regulation, you must keep, for examination by the Office of Price Administration, two each of the menus used by you each day. If you do not use menus you must prepare in duplicate and preserve for such examination a record of the prices charged by you each day, except that you need not record prices which are the same as, or less than, prices you previously recorded for the same items or meals. Proprietors who operate a number of eating or drinking places in the same city, which have customarily been subject to central control, may keep the records required by this paragraph for these places at a central office or the principal place of business within the city.

SEC. 13. Posting. (a) Beginning October 5th, 1943, each menu must have clearly written on or attached to it the following statement:

All prices listed are our ceiling prices or below. By Office of Price Administration regulation, our ceiling prices are based on our highest prices from April 4, 1943, to April 10, 1943. Records of these prices are available for your inspection.

(b) If you made menus available in the seven-day period, you shall continue to make them available.

(c) In addition to the requirements in (a) and (b) you must post in a conspicuous place, preferably at or near the cash register, a sign or poster when furnished by the Office of Price Administration. You must enter after each meal or food item on this list your ceiling price for such meal or food item.

SEC. 14. Operation of several places. If you own or operate more than one eating or drinking place, you must do everything required by this regulation for each place separately.

SEC. 15. Relation to other maximum price regulations. The provisions of this regulation shall supersede other regulations, including the General Maximum Price Regulation, now or hereafter issued by the Office of Price Administration, insofar as they establish maximum prices for meals and food items sold by eating and drinking places. However, where a price charged during the base period of this regulation exceeded the maximum price established by another regulation applicable at that time, the maximum price under this regulation shall be the maximum price established by the regulation which was applicable at that time.

SEC. 16. Geographical application. This Revised Restaurant Maximum Price Regulation No. 5–9 applies to the Parishes of Orleans, Jefferson, St. Bernard, Washington, East Baton Rouge, Lafayette, Calcasieu, Beauregard, Vernon, Rapides, St. Mary and Tangipahoa, in the State of Louisiana.

SEC. 17. Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages and proceedings for suspension of licenses, provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

SEC. 18. Exempt sales. Sales by the following eating or drinking places are specifically exempt from the provisions of this regulation:

(a) Eating and drinking places located on church premises and operated in connection with special church, Sunday School and other religious occasions.

(b) Hospitals, except for food items and meals served to persons other than the patients when a separate charge is made for such food items and meals.

(c) Eating and drinking places located on board common carriers (when operated as such), including railroad dining cars, club, bar and buffet cars, and peddlers aboard railroad cars traveling from station to station.

(d) Eating and drinking places owned and operated by charitable, religious or cultural organizations, such as the United Service Organization, Red Cross or similar organizations selling food items or meals on a non-profit basis primarily to members of the Armed Forces.

(e) Bona fide fraternity or sorority houses located at a recognized school, college or university insofar as such houses sell only to members and bona fide guest of members. Whenever such houses sell to persons other than members or bona fide guests of members, such houses shall be considered for all sales an eating or drinking place within the meaning of this regulation. No such house shall be considered to be exempt within the meaning of this subparagraph, unless its members pay dues (more than merely nominal in amount), are elected to membership by a governing board, membership committee or other body, and it otherwise is operated as a fraternity or sorority house.

(f) Eating and drinking places operated by any school, college or university which is a non-profit institution (that is, where no part of the net earnings inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual), which sells food items or meals on a non-profit or cost basis (or as near thereto as reasonable accounting methods will permit), and substantially all sales of which are made to students, faculty members and employees of such institution. For purposes of this subparagraph, persons receiving instruction on the premises of such institution by arrangement with the War Department or Department of the Navy shall be considered students.

(g) Eating and drinking places operated on a non-profit basis by the school department of any city or town and serving food items or meals exclusively to pupils and teachers.

(h) Eating cooperatives formed by officers in the Armed Forces (as, for example, officers' mess) operated as a non-profit cooperative (where no part of the net earnings inures to the benefit of any individual), which sells food items or meals on a cost basis (or as near thereto as reasonable accounting methods will permit), and substantially all sales of which are made to officers who are members of the cooperative.

(i) Bona fide private clubs insofar as such clubs sell only to members and bona fide guests of members. Whenever such clubs sell to persons other than members or bona fide guests of members, such clubs shall be considered for all sales an eating or drinking place within the meaning of this regulation. No club shall be considered to be exempt as a private club, within the meaning of this subparagraph, unless its members pay dues (more than merely nominal in amount), are elected to membership by a governing board, membership committee or other body, and it otherwise is operated as a private club.

No club organized after the effective date of this regulation shall be exempt unless and until it has filed a request for exemption with the New Orleans District Office of the Office of Price Administration, furnishing such information as may be required, and has received communication from such office authorizing exemption as a private club.

(j) Eating and drinking places operated on a non-profit basis by the State of Louisiana or any agency thereof.

SEC. 19. Adjustments. (a) The Office of Price Administration may adjust the maximum prices for any eating establishment under the following circumstances:

(1) The establishment is operating under such hardship as to cause a substantial threat to the continuance of its operation.

(2) It is determined with reasonable certainty that such discontinuance will result in serious inconvenience to consumers in that they will either be deprived of all restaurant service or will have to turn to other establishments that present substantial difficulties as to distance, hours of service, selection of meals or food items offered, capacity, or transportation.

(3) By reason of such discontinuance, the same meals or food items will cost the customers of the eating establishment as much or more than the proposed adjusted prices.

(b) If you are the proprietor of an eating establishment which satisfies the requirements specified above, you may apply for an adjustment of your maximum prices by submitting to the New Orleans District Office of the Office of Price Administration, 708 Canal Building, New Orleans, Louisiana, a statement setting forth:

(1) Your name and address.

(2) A description of your eating establishment including: type of service rendered (such as cafeteria, table service, etc.), classes of meals offered (such as breakfast, lunch and dinner), number of persons served per day during the most recent thirty-day period,[1] and such other information that may be useful in classifying your establishment.

(3) The reason why your customers will be seriously inconvenienced if you discontinue operations.

(4) The names and addresses of the three nearest eating places of the same type as yours.

(5) A list showing your present maximum prices and your requested, adjusted prices.

(6) A profit and loss statement for your restaurant business for the most recent three-month accounting period, and a copy of your last income tax return if one was filed separately for your restaurant business.

(7) Any other information requested by the New Orleans District Director.

Applications for adjustment under this section shall be acted upon by the Director of the New Orleans District Office.

SEC. 20. Definitions and explanations. (a) "Persons" means individual, corporation, partnership, association or other organized group of persons or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, and any agencies of any of the foregoing.

(b) "Meal" means a combination of food items sold at a single price. Examples of meals are a five-course dinner, a club breakfast, a blueplate special. Two or more kinds of food which are prepared or served to be eaten together as one dish are not a "meal". Examples of such dishes are: Ham and eggs, bread and butter, apple pie and cheese.

(c) "Offered" means offered for sale and includes the listing or posting of prices for items and meals even though the items and meals so offered were not actually on hand to be sold.

(d) "Food item" means an article or portion of food (including beverages) sold or served by an eating or drinking place for consumption in or about the place or to be taken out for eating without charge in form or additional preparation. It includes two or more kinds of food which are prepared or served to be eaten together as one dish, such as ham and eggs, bread and butter, apple pie and cheese.

(e) "Seasonal food item" means a food item (including beverage) not generally offered for sale throughout the year and normally available in quantity only during certain seasonal production periods of each year. Examples are: certain shell-fish such as oysters; certain fresh fish such as salmon, trout and shad; certain vegetables such as summer squash, and certain fruits such as berries and melons.

(f) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and in the General Maximum Price Regulation, issued by the Office of Price Administration, shall apply to other terms used herein.

SEC. 21. Classes of food items and meals. (See definition of "food item" and "meal" contained in section 20.)

(a) The classes of food items.

BREAKFAST ITEMS

1. Fruits, fruit juices and vegetable juices.
2. Cereals.
3. Entrees: egg and combination egg dishes served at breakfast.
4. Entrees: meat and meat combination dishes served at breakfast.
5. Entrees: all other dishes served at breakfast.
6. Breads, rolls, buns, Danish-pastries, etc., served at breakfast.
7. All other breakfast dishes, including jams, jellies and preserves.

OTHER ITEMS

8. Appetizers, except alcoholic cocktails.
9. Soups, including soups in jelly.
10. Beef, steaks and roasts.
11. Veal; steaks, chops and roasts.
12. Pork; loins, chops, steaks, roasts.
13. Lamb or mutton; chops, roasts.
14. Poultry and fowl.
15. Fish and shell-fish.
16. Game.
17. Miscellaneous and variety meats, including liver and kidneys.
18. Prepared dishes, such as stews, casseroles, ragouts, curries, etc.
19. Egg and cheese dishes and combinations thereof.
20. All other dishes, such as spaghetti and combinations, vegetable platter, baked beans and combinations, chop suey, etc.
21. Vegetables, including potatoes.
22. Salads (except as served as a main course or appetizer course in a meal).
23. Desserts: cakes, cookies, pies, pastries and other baked goods.
24. Desserts: ice creams, sherbets, water ices, including combinations with syrups, creams, fruits and nuts.
24a. Desserts: Seasonal dessert specialties such as watermelon and cantaloupe.
25. Desserts: all others, including fruits, puddings and cheese.
26. Cold sandwiches, including garnishings, salads and vegetables.
27. Hot sandwiches, including garnishings, salads and vegetables.
28. All other food items served in a meal, including mints and preserves.
29. Beverage foods, including coffee, cocoa, chocolate, tea and milk.

BEVERAGES

30. Non-alcoholic beverages, including sparkling and mineral waters.
31. Alcoholic malt beverages, including beer and ale.
32. Wines, including sparkling wines.
33. Liquors, including whiskeys, gins and brandies.
34. Cordials, including fruit liqueurs.
35. All other alcoholic beverages.

(b) The classes of meals. For purposes of this regulation there shall be thirteen classes of meals, namely, breakfast, lunch, tea, dinner and supper during week days, and breakfast, lunch, tea, dinner and supper on Sundays, children's breakfast, lunch and dinner.

SEC. 22. Special orders. The provisions of this regulation to the contrary notwithstanding, the Office of Price Administration may, from time to time, issue special orders providing for the establishment or reduction of the maximum price of any food item or items or meal or meals sold or offered by any seller or sellers when, in the judgment of the District Director, such action is necessary or desirable to prevent inflation, to stabilize prices affecting the cost of living, or to carry out the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, and Executive Orders Nos. 9250 and 9328.

SEC. 23. Licensing. The provisions of Licensing Order No. 1 of the Office of Price Administration, licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation or schedule. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended. Under Licensing Order No. 1, a license is automatically granted without application by the seller.

SEC. 24. Revocation and amendment. (a) This regulation may be revoked, amended or corrected at any time.

(b) You may petition for an amendment of any provision of this regulation (including a petition pursuant to Supplementary Order No. 28) by proceeding in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1, except that the petition shall be filed with and acted upon by the District Director.

This regulation shall become effective May 3, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping quirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1499—COMMODITIES AND SERVICES

[Rev. SR 14 to GMPR, Amdt. 128]

RECONDITIONED VALVES AND USED VALVES

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 6.33 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Definitions. As used herein, the terms:

"Manufacturer's recommended resale price" means the manufacturer's published list price less the applicable published base resale discount (resale sheet) recommended by the manufacturer to be extended by jobbers on sales to consumers during the period October 1 to October 15, 1941.

"Valve" means any manually or motor-operated device designed to regulate, direct, or stop the movement of any liquid, gas, or vapor, in a piping system, tank, or any other restricted area, and includes, but is not limited to, angle, check, cross, gate, globe, or plug valve, or any evolution of these basic types.

"Reconditioned valve" means any used valve which has been subjected to the following reconditioning steps:

(1) The valve has been completely disassembled;

(2) The valve's operating mechanism has been thoroughly examined with particular attention to the seat;

(3) All defective worn parts have been replaced with new, reconditioned, or serviceable used parts;

(4) The valve has been reassembled and painted;

(5) A hydrostatic test at double the rated water working pressure of the valve, but not in excess of the hydrostatic test pressure to which the valve was subjected when originally tested as a new valve by the original manufacturer, has been applied and the valve has been found to be free from leaks, defects, and in free working order.

"Used valve" means any valve which had been, at any time, incorporated into or connected to a piping system, machinery, or operating mechanism, and which has not been reconditioned as set forth above.

"Manufacturer's net maximum price to jobbers" means the manufacturer's published list price less the applicable published ("J" sheet) discount extended by the manufacturer on sales to jobbers during the period October 1 to October 15, 1941.

This Amendment No. 128 shall become effective May 8, 1944.

PART 1390—MACHINERY AND TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT

[MPR 136, as Amended,[1] Incl. Amdts. 1-116]

MACHINES AND PARTS, AND MACHINERY SERVICES

This compilation of Maximum Price Regulation 136, as amended, includes Amendment 116, effective May 8, 1944. The text added or amended by Amendment 116 is underscored.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the prices of machines and parts and machinery services have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of machines and parts and machinery services prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of said act. A statement of the considerations[2] involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

Insofar as this regulation uses specifications and standards which were not, prior to such use, in general use in the trade or industry affected, or insofar as their use was not lawfully required by another Government agency, the Price Administrator has determined, with respect to such standardization, that no practicable alternative exists for securing effective price control with respect to the commodities subject to this regulation.

[Above paragraph added by Supplementary Order 70, 8 F.R. 12556, effective 9-11-43]

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 136, as amended, is hereby issued.

Sec.

1390.1 Definition of "machines and parts" and "machinery services".
1390.2 Exclusions.
1390.3 Prohibition against dealing in machines or parts, machinery services, or the rental of machines or parts at prices above the maximum.
1390.4 Maximum prices: general provisions.
1390.5 Maximum prices: published price lists and established prices.
1390.6 Maximum manufacturers' prices for modified machines or parts.
1390.7 Maximum prices: sales by the manufacturer of machines or parts without list or established prices.
1390.8 Maximum prices: sales by the manufacturer of machines or parts manufactured in new or converted plants.
1390.8a Maximum prices for fixed capacitors of the type and size used for military radio and radar equipment.
1390.9 Maximum prices: machinery services.
1390.10 Maximum prices: sales by sellers other than the manufacturer.
1390.11 Maximum prices: sales of second-hand machines and parts.
1390.12 Maximum prices: leases.
1390.13 New list prices.
1390.14 Reports on cost-plus contracts
1390.15 Emergency service charges.
1390.16 Federal and state taxes.
1390.17 Export sales.
1390.18 Contract prices, renegotiations, price-adjustment agreements, and price increases.
1390.19 Less than maximum prices.
1390.20 Evasion.
1390.21 Developmental contracts and subcontracts.
1390.22 Secret contracts.
1390.23 Emergency purchases.
1390.24 Privileges accorded to certain foreign governments.
1390.25 Petitions for amendment.
1390.25a Adjustments.
1390.26 Records and additional or substituted reports.
1390.27 Sales slips and receipts.
1390.28 Transfer of business or stock in trade.
1390.29 Enforcement.
1390.29a Licensing.

1390.31 Effective date.
1390.31a Effective dates of amendments.
1390.32 Appendix A: Machines and parts to which the October 1, 1941, date is applicable.
1390.33 Appendix B: Machines and parts to which the March 31, 1942, date is applicable.
1390.34 Appendix C: Illustrative list of products not covered by this regulation.
1390.35 Appendix D: Table of depreciation rates.
1390.36 Appendix E: Form for application for adjustment.
1390.37 Appendix F: Used equipment and machinery inventory and sales report.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1390.1 to 1390.37, inclusive, issued under 56 Stat. 23, 765; Pub. Law 151, 78th Cong.; E.O. 9250, 7 F.R. 7871 and E.O. 9328, 8 F.R. 4681 and Directive No. 35 of the War Production Board.

§ 1390.1 Definition of "machines and parts" and "machinery services." For the purposes of this regulation:

(a) The term "machines and parts" means, and is limited to, products falling within the groups listed in Appendix A and Appendix B. Any other product is subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation,[4] unless excluded therefrom or unless subject to some other specific regulation. For purposes of clarification, a list of certain products related to machinery but not covered by this regulation is contained in Appendix C;

(b) The term "machinery service" means any operation in the processing, machining, welding, treating, finishing, testing, inspecting, adjusting, maintaining, repairing or rebuilding of a "machine or part" owned by another or of a product owned by another which, as a result of such operation, becomes a "machine or part". However; the machining of a gear, pinion, or sprocket in connection with the production thereof, whether or not performed on material furnished by the customer, shall in no event be deemed a "machinery service", but shall in all cases be deemed to constitute the sale of a gear, pinion, or sprocket, respectively. The term "machinery service" also includes any service rendered in connection with the manufacture of automotive parts (as defined in Maximum Price Regulation 452—Manufacturers' Maximum Prices for Automotive Parts).

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 62, 7 F.R. 10230, effective 12-11-42 and Am. 101, 8 F.R. 14617, effective 11-4-43]

§ 1390.2 Exclusions. This regulation shall not apply to:

(a) Any sale or delivery of a machine or part or any machinery service for which a maximum price is established by any other regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration,[5] except the General Maximum Price Regulation;

(b) Any sale or delivery of a machine or part if, prior to July 22, 1942, such machine or part had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the purchaser;

(c) Any sale or delivery of a machine or part or machinery service performed pursuant to a "developmental" contract or subcontract, as provided in § 1390.21;

(d) Any sale or delivery of a machine or part or any machinery service performed pursuant to a "secret" contract or subcontract, as provided in § 1390.22;

(e) Any sale or delivery of a machine or part or any machinery service performed pursuant to an "emergency purchase", as provided in § 1390.23;

(f) Any sale or delivery at retail of a machine or part by a person other than the manufacturer thereof, except that the sale or delivery at retail of automotive trucks, motorcycles, house and truck trailers, and busses (as described in paragraph (c) of Appendix B) shall not be excluded from, but shall be covered by, this regulation. For the purpose of this exclusion, a sale or delivery is deemed to be "at retail" (1) when made to an ultimate consumer, other than an industrial, commercial, or governmental user, or (2) when made (i) from a store, shop or mail-order house where sales are predominantly made to such ultimate consumers, (ii) at a price ordinarily charged such ultimate consumers (iii) to a purchaser of a class to whom sales were regularly made on or prior to October 1, 1941, at the prices ordinarily charged such ultimate consumers.

[Paragraph (f) amended by Am. 25, 7 F.R. 9712, effective 10-9-42; Am. 96, 8 F.R. 10662, effective 8-12-43 and Am. 116, effective 5-8-44]

(g) Any sale or delivery of a machine or part or any machinery service performed pursuant to a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee or cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost contract: Provided, That a report is filed with the Office of Price Administration as provided in § 1390.14. The exemption granted by this paragraph is not applicable to machines or parts or machinery services for which the manufacturer, seller or machinery service supplier had a published list price or established price in effect on the base date for the machine or part or machinery service. When used in this paragraph the term "established price in effect on the base date" has the same meaning as that given to the term "established price in effect on October 1, 1941" by paragraph (c) of § 1390.5, except that the base date of the machine or part or machinery service shall be substituted for the date October 1, 1941.

[Paragraph (g) amended by Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43]

(h) Any lease of the following items:

(1) Public address systems.

(2) Electric storage batteries.

(3) Surveying and drafting instruments, and engineering reproduction equipment.

[Paragraph (h) added by Am. 3, 7 F.R. 6425, effective 8-19-42]

(i) Any machinery service performed in connection with the following:

(1) The repairing of public address systems.

(2) The repairing of electric storage batteries (including the charging and recharging thereof).

(3) The repairing of X-ray and electro-therapeutic apparatus.

(4) The repairing of surveying and drafting instruments, and engineering reproduction equipment.

(5) The maintenance, repair or rebuilding of automotive parts, subassemblies or accessories.

[Subparagraph (5) added by Am. 25, 7 F.R. 7912, effective 10-9-42]

[Paragraph (i) added by Am. 3, 7 F.R. 6425, effective 8-19-42]

(j) Any sale of a machine or part pursuant to a rental contract entered into prior to July 22, 1942, which provided for the transfer of title to the machine or part from the lessor to the lessee upon the payment in rentals, over and above a monthly carrying charge, of an amount equal to the valuation of the machine or part, as agreed upon at the time the contract was entered into.

[Paragraph (j) added by Am. 27, 7 F.R. 7944, effective 10-10-42]

(k) Any sale or delivery of second-hand snowplows to the United States Army.

[Paragraph (k) added by Am. 32, 7 F.R. 8479, effective 10-24-42]

(l) Any sale or delivery, until April 1, 1943, of a fixed capacitor designed and sold exclusively for use in military radio or radar apparatus.

[Paragraph (l) added by Am. 36, 7 F.R. 8897, effective 9-26-42 and amended by Am. 64, 8 F.R. 155, effective 1-1-43]

(m) Any sale or delivery to an agency of the United States of any complete plant for the manufacture of rubber tires.

(n) Any sale by any distiller to the Defense Plant Corporation of any still or fractionating column, or part thereof, installed or held as spare operating equipment.

[Paragraphs (m) and (n) added by Am. 56, 7 F.R. 9899, effective 11-26-42]

(o) Any lease of machines and parts by Defense Plant Corporation under a contract of lease which provides that machinery and equipment will be brought within the scope of the lease after purchase by the Defense Plant Corporation or the lessee for the account of Defense Plant Corporation but which contract of lease does not provide for specific rental prices allocable to specific machines or parts.

[Paragraph (o) added by Am. 72, 8 F.R. 3848, effective 4-2-43]

(p) Any sale or delivery by Isolantite, Inc., Belleville, New Jersey, of steatite insulators for the period from March 16, 1943, to October 1, 1943. The following conditions attach to this exclusion:

(1) Isolantite shall, upon each sale and delivery of steatite insulators made by it during the period of exclusion, include on, or attach to, each of its invoices for such sale, a written or printed statement to the effect that the prices charged have not been approved by the Office of Price Administration, but that it has been granted temporary exemption from the provisions of Maximum Price Regulation No. 136, as amended.

(2) Isolantite shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within five days after the same are prepared, one copy of all audit reports and profit and loss statements, made by it or for it during the period of exclusion.

[Paragraph (p) added by Am. 86, 8 F.R. 7106, effective 5-31-43 and amended by Am. 98, 8 F.R. 12748, effective 9-15-43]

(q) Any tank or vessel which (1) is installed underground at the time of sale and (2) is purchased for use in its present location.

[Paragraph (q) added by Am. 113, 9 F.R. 3578, effective 4-7-44]

§ 1390.3 Prohibition against dealing in machines or parts, machinery services, or the rental of machines or parts at prices above the maximum. (a) On and after July 22, 1942, regardless of the terms of any contract, lease or other obligation:

(1) No person shall sell, deliver, lease, rent or negotiate the sale or lease of any machine or part, or supply or negotiate the supply of any machinery service, at a price higher than the maximum fixed by this regulation.

(2) No person, in the course of trade or business, shall buy, rent, lease or receive any machine or part or machinery service at a price higher than the maximum fixed by this regulation. If the purchaser or lessee receives from the seller or lessor a written statement that the price does not exceed the maximum price, and if the purchaser or lessee has no reason to doubt the validity of this statement, the purchaser or lessee shall be deemed to have complied with this subparagraph.

(3) No person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the acts prohibited by subparagraphs (1) and (2).

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) (2) of this section shall not be applicable to:

(1) The United States or any agency thereof;

(2) The government, or any agency thereof, of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Lend-Lease Act; or

(3) Any contracting officer of any of the foregoing, and, with respect to purchases made in his official capacity, any such contracting officer or any paying finance officer shall be relieved of any and every liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this regulation or by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

[§ 1390.3 amended by Am. 89, 8 F. R. 7261, effective 6-3-43 and Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43]

§ 1390.4 Maximum prices; general provisions. (a) The base date for machines and parts set forth in Appendix A, is October 1, 1941; the base date for machines and parts set forth in Appendix B and for all machinery services is March 31, 1942. In applying the provisions of this regulation to the machines and parts set forth in Appendix B, the date March 31, 1942 shall be substituted for the date October 1, 1941 wherever it appears in this regulation. Such substitution, however, shall not be made in § 1390.10 (b) which applies only to machines and parts set forth in Appendix A.

(1) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph (a) and notwithstanding the title of Appendix A, the base date for gears, pinions, sprockets, and speed reducers, as listed in paragraph (1) of Appendix A, shall be October 15, 1941. In applying the provisions of this regulation to gears, pinions, sprockets, and speed reducers, as listed in paragraph (1) of Appendix A, the date October 15, 1941, shall be substituted for the date October 1, 1941, wherever that date appears. Corresponding changes shall be made in the dates mentioned in paragraph (b) of § 1390.10.

[Subparagraph (1) added by Am. 62, 7 F.R. 10230, effective 12-11-42]

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of this regulation:

(1) The maximum price for the sale or delivery by the manufacturer of any machine or part set forth in Administrative Notice No. 1[*] or any amendments thereto shall be the price provided for therein;

(2) The maximum price for the sale or delivery by a seller other than the manufacturer of any machine or part set forth in Administrative Notice No. 1 or any amendments thereto, for which the manufacturer has published a list price in accordance with Administrative Notice No. 1 or any amendments thereto, shall be such list price, subject to all applicable extra charges, discounts or other allowances which such seller had in effect on October 1, 1941.

§ 1390.5 Maximum prices; published price lists and established prices—(a) Applicability of this section. This section is applicable to the sale or rental of any machine or part for which the manufacturer, seller or lessor had a published price list or established price in effect on October 1, 1941. However, this section is not applicable to the sale of second-hand machines or parts.

(b) Prices. The maximum price for the sale or rental by a manufacturer, seller or lessor of any machine or part covered by this section shall be the price stated in the published price list of the manufacturer, seller or lessor in effect on October 1, 1941, or the established price that he had in effect on that date, adjusted to reflect all applicable extra charges, discounts or other allowances that he had in effect to a purchaser of the same class on October 1, 1941.

(c) Meaning of "established price in effect on October 1, 1941". An "established price in effect on October 1, 1941" is:

(1) A price which had been quoted or charged to the same class of purchasers more than twice during the six months' period prior to and including October 1, 1941, and which was not increased on or before that date;

(2) A price which had been quoted or charged to a different class of purchasers more than twice during the six months' period prior to and including October 1, 1941, and which was not increased on or before that date, adjusted to reflect the October 1, 1941, differential between the two classes of purchasers; or

(3) A price which would have been quoted on October 1, 1941, under a system of quoting prices without further cost computation.

(d) Reports. On or before December 3, 1943, every manufacturer, seller and lessor subject to this regulation shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., if he has not already done so, all published price lists and discount sheets in effect on October 1, 1941, for the sale or rental of machines or parts. However, the manufacturer of any machine shall not be required to file list prices in effect on October 1, 1941, for repair parts for such machines or mechanical devices or for tools used in the maintenance and repair of such machines or mechanical devices, unless such filing is specifically required in writing by the Office of Price Administration. Any person who on October 1, 1941, sold, leased or delivered machines or parts at prices based upon price sheets published by any other person subject to this regulation need not file such other person's published price sheets but shall file instead a statement identifying the particular price sheets he used on that date, together with his own discount sheets, if any, and a statement of any prices which constitute exceptions to such practice.

(e) [Revoked]

[§ 1390.5 amended by Am. 56, 7 F.R. 9822, effective 7-22-42; Am. 103, 8 F.R. 14763, effective 11-3-43 and Am. 115, 9 F.R. 4134, effective 4-18-44]

§ 1390.6 Maximum manufacturers' prices for modified machines or parts—(a) Pricing formula. This section is applicable to any machine or part for which the manufacturer either had a published list price or an established price in effect on the base date, or for which he has established a list price in accordance with § 1390.13. For any such machine or part in which a substantial change in design, specifications, or equipment has been made and for which machine or part as modified a new maximum price has not been previously approved by the Office of Price Administration, the manufacturer's maximum price for the machine or part as modified shall be calculated as follows:

(1) The net increase or decrease in factory costs attributable to the change in design, specifications or equipment shall first be computed by using:

(i) Direct material cost determined by using material and parts prices which are not in excess of maximum prices established by the Office of Price Administration for such materials or parts. Where materials or parts are added and eliminated, prices in effect as of the same date shall be used both for the materials or parts added and the materials or parts eliminated.

(ii) Direct labor cost determined by using labor rates in effect on October 3, 1942. If after October 3, 1942, the manufacturer voluntarily or involuntarily granted a wage increase which was approved by the National War Labor Board, the manufacturer may use that higher wage rate. Also, if the manufacturer's establishment is exempted by the National War Labor Board, he may use current wage rates.

(iii) Factory overhead allocable to such direct material and/or direct labor costs, determined in accordance with the manufacturer's method of accounting and charged at the actual rate or rates in effect in his plant on the base date, or at the standard rate or rates, if any, consistently used by the manufacturer for price determining purposes in the month which includes the base date, whichever is lower.

(2) The net increase or decrease in factory costs so calculated shall then be added to or subtracted from the maximum price to the class of purchasers commanding the lowest net price for the machine or part before modification. This computation provides the new maximum price for the machine or part as modified when sold to the class of purchasers commanding the lowest net price.

(3) The maximum price to every other class of purchasers shall then be calculated by applying to the new lowest net price the same percentage price differential as was in effect between the former lowest net maximum price and the former net maximum price to such other class of purchasers.

(b) Reports. Prior to, or within ten days after first quoting a price for any such modified machine or part, the manufacturer shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington 25, D. C., containing the following:

(1) The maximum price for the machine or part prior to modification.

(2) The maximum prices to jobbers, dealers, industrial users, government purchasers, and all other classes of purchasers as computed in accordance with paragraph (a).

(3) A detailed statement describing the changes in design, specifications or in equipment and explaining the calculation of the proposed maximum prices. The change in direct material costs, direct labor costs, and factory overhead costs due to the modification must be specified separately.

(c) Approval of prices. If the Office of Price Administration approves the proposed maximum prices or fails to disapprove them within thirty days after receiving such report, the proposed maximum prices shall become the maximum prices applicable to all subsequent sales and deliveries. However, if the Office of Price Administration later determines that such prices were not calculated in accordance with this section, such prices may be disapproved at any time. This disapproval will not be retroactive as to any deliveries made before the date of such disapproval. If the proposed maximum prices are at any time disapproved by the Office of Price Administration, the manufacturer shall file revised prices computed in accordance with paragraph (a), and the provisions of this section shall apply in all respects to such revised prices. In the event that the Office of Price Administration finds that the manufacturer's production experience does not yet warrant the establishment of a permanent maximum price, it may give temporary approval to a proposed maximum price and require further filing under this section at a later date. If the manufacturer does not file the report required by paragraph (b), the Office of Price Administration may establish a maximum price of its own accord. This price will be in line with the level of maximum prices established by this regulation, and it shall apply to all sales or deliveries of the machine or part to which such price applies made after April 18, 1944.

(d) Interim pricing. Prior to receipt of approval by the Office of Price Administration of any proposed price, or prior to the expiration of the thirty-day period after filing the report required in paragraph (b) of this section, the proposed price may be tentatively quoted and/or charged, but no more than 75% of the proposed price may be paid or received until a maximum price has been established, and final settlement shall be made in accordance with the maximum price approved by the Office of Price Administration.

[§ 1390.6 added by Am. 115, 9 F.R. 4134, effective 4-18-44. Former § 1390.6 revoked by Am. 103, 8 F.R. 14763, effective 11-3-43]

§ 1390.7 Maximum prices; sales by the manufacturer of machines or parts without list or established prices. This section is applicable to any machine or part for which the manufacturer had no published list price or established price in effect on the base date, and is not a modified machine or part covered by § 1390.6. The maximum manufacturers' price for the sale of any such machine or part to any purchaser shall be computed on the basis of the following:

[Above paragraph amended by Am. 103, 8 F.R. 14763, effective 11-3-43; and Am. 115, 9 F.R. 4134, effective 4-18-44]

(a) Pricing formula. (1) The price-determining method which was in use on October 1, 1941, applying the overhead rate, machine hour rates, if any, or other bases of computation which were in use on that date. If no such method was in use on October 1, 1941, the manufacturer shall use the method which would have been used on that date, applying the overhead rate, machine hour rates, if any, or other bases of computation which were in use or would have been used on that date. For the purposes of this subparagraph (1), the method of determining the total price in a cost-plus contract shall not be deemed to be a "price-determining method";

(2) To the extent that the price-determining method includes or is based on direct labor costs, the manufacturer shall use labor rates in effect on October 1, 1941, determined and applied in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) below;

(3) To the extent that the price-determining method includes or is based on prices paid for materials, the manufacturer shall use material prices in effect on October 1, 1941, determined and applied in accordance with the provisions of, and subject to the exceptions contained in, paragraph (c) below;

(4) To the extent that the price-determining method includes or is based on prices paid for subcontracted services, whether machinery services or otherwise, the manufacturer shall use actual prices paid or to be paid for such subcontracted services, not in excess of applicable maximum prices;

[Subparagraph (4) amended by Am. 54, 7 F.R. 9729, effective 11-25-42]

(5) To the extent that the price-determining method includes freight rates paid, the manufacturer shall use freight rates in effect on March 31, 1942, or current freight rates, whichever are lower, for outbound shipments for the mode of transportation actually used and for inbound shipments for the mode of transportation actually used and from the actual point of origin.

[Subparagraph (5) amended by Am. 90, 8 F.R. 7767, effective 6-14-43]

(6) For the labor required for installation if the machine or part is sold on an installed basis: labor rates in the area of installation in effect on, or resulting from an agreement concluded or from a grant made or announced on or before April 27, 1942, or, where the wage stabilization agreement issued May 22, 1942 between the Building and Construction Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor and certain agencies of the United States is applicable or where such rates have become the prevailing rates in that area, labor rates in effect on July 1, 1942.

[Subparagraph (6) amended by Am. 83, 8 F.R. 5818, effective 5-8-43]

(7) All applicable extra charges, discounts or other allowances in use on October 1, 1941 to a purchaser of the same class.

(8) To the extent that the price-determining method includes or is based on prices paid for perishable tools, dies, molds, patterns, or work-holding devices, the manufacturer shall use actual prices paid or to be paid for such items, not in excess of maximum prices provided by this regulation, determined in accordance with paragraph (c) (4) below.

[Subparagraph (8) added by Am. 54, 7 F.R. 9729, effective 11-25-42]

(b) Labor rates. (1) "Labor rates in effect on October 1, 1941" are the rates in the manufacturer's plant for each classification of labor that either were prevailing on October 1, 1941, or were made retroactive to or before that date by an order of the National War Labor Board. If the manufacturer employs labor of a particular classification not employed in such plant on October 1, 1941, he shall apply the rate prevailing on that date for such classification in the locality in which the manufacturing is to be performed. If labor of such classification was not employed on October 1, 1941 in such locality, the manufacturer shall apply the rate prevailing on that date for the nearest skill in the nearest comparable locality, as accurately as he is able to determine the same by reasonably diligent inquiry.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 116, effective 5-8-44]

(2) The permitted labor cost to be used in the pricing formula provided in paragraph (a) is to be determined by applying to the clock hours of each classification of labor estimated to be required on the basis of previous production experience, or, where an estimate is not used, to the clock hours actually required, the hourly rate for such classification in effect on October 1, 1941. If on October 1, 1941, an average rate was used, an average rate may be applied: Provided, That the labor rates and the method of computing the average in effect on October 1, 1941, are used. If individuals have been or are promoted from one classification to another because of increased efficiency, the higher rates may be used: Provided, That such higher rates may not be used if they result in increased prices.

(3) In determining the price for a firm price contract, the amount of overtime estimated to be required in excess of that provided for in the overhead or machine hour rate may be added to the maximum price. Further, the amount of overtime actually required in an unforeseen contingency, over and above the amount estimated, if any, may be added to the maximum price, if the purchaser agrees and it is billed separately. No markup, overhead, or profit shall be applied to that part of the labor cost which is in excess of the straight-time cost. However, no adjustment of the overhead rate or machine hour rate in effect on October 1, 1941, shall be required; and if on October 1, 1941, the manufacturer's price determining method included an amount determined by applying a fixed percentage to straight-time labor costs, he may apply mark-up, overhead or profit to that amount if he did so on October 1, 1941.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Am. 116, effective 5-8-44]

(c) Material prices. (1) The term "material prices" includes the prices for raw materials, and for materials or products which have been processed or fabricated to any degree, including parts and subassemblies.

(2) The permitted material cost to be used in the pricing formula provided in paragraph (a) is to be determined by applying material prices as determined in subparagraph (3) below to the quantities of materials estimated to be required on the basis of previous production experience or, where an estimate is not used, the quantities actually required.

(3) Except as provided in subdivisions (i) and (ii) below, the manufacturer shall use the lower of the following two prices: the price for the material which was or would have been paid by him on October 1, 1941, or the actual price for such material paid or to be paid, not in excess of the applicable maximum price.

(i) For any part or subassembly purchased, the manufacturer shall use the actual price for such part or subassembly paid or to be paid, not in excess of the applicable maximum price. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "parts and subassemblies" means, in addition to products covered by this regulation, products covered by Revised Price Schedule No. 82—Wire, Cable and Cable Accessories, Maximum Price Regulation No. 119—Original Equipment Tires and Tubes, Maximum Price Regulation No.

[*] 7 F.R. 2984, 3690, 5453, 5688, 7926. Administrative Notice No. 1 sets forth exceptions from the provisions of voluntary price agreements and arrangements.

147—Bolts, Nuts, Screws, and Rivets, and Maximum Price Regulation No. 149—Mechanical Rubber Goods, and materials bought on an installed basis in the process of erection of a machine or part sold on an erected and installed basis.

[Subparagraph (i) amended by Am. 54, 7 F.R. 9729, effective 11-25-42]

(ii) For any material for which the manufacturer is unable by reasonable diligence to determine the price he would have paid on October 1, 1941, the manufacturer shall use the actual price for such material paid or to be paid, not in excess of the applicable maximum price. In no event shall this subdivision (ii) apply if the material had a published price in effect on October 1, 1941, or if the manufacturer purchased such material on or about October 1, 1941, or if the manufacturer's supplier of the material, or one of the manufacturer's suppliers, was selling such material on or about October 1, 1941.

(4) Where the "actual price to be paid" for any material (including any part or subassembly) or machinery service is required or permitted to be used by the provisions of subparagraph (3) above, or of subparagraph (4) of paragraph (a), in calculating such price:

(i) The manufacturer shall use the price estimated by his supplier, if available: Provided, That the manufacturer has no reason to believe that the price so estimated exceeds the applicable maximum price; or

(ii) If a price estimated by a supplier is not available at the time he estimates his price, the manufacturer shall use his own estimate of the price to be paid for the material or machinery services: Provided, That if the price so estimated exceeds the actual price charged by the supplier, such actual price, not to exceed the supplier's maximum price, shall be substituted in the pricing formula and the manufacturer's maximum price recomputed accordingly. If the price so estimated is less than the actual price charged by the supplier, such actual price, not to exceed the supplier's maximum price, may be substituted in the pricing formula and the manufacturer's maximum price recomputed accordingly.

(d) Reports. If the price of any machine or part computed in accordance with the provisions of this section is at any time increased above the price charged on the previous sale or delivery, or is increased above the original contract price by renegotiation or by a price adjustment clause, unless the increase is definitely assignable to a change in specifications or a change in conditions of delivery, the manufacturer thereof shall file the report required by § 1390.18 (f).

§ 1390.8 Maximum prices; sales by the manufacturer of machines or parts manufactured in new or converted plants. If the manufacturer is unable to determine the maximum price for any machine or part pursuant to the provisions of § 1390.7 because such machine or part is manufactured in a new or converted plant or for any other reason:

(a) Price-determining method. The manufacturer shall establish a price-determining method and rates for use therein (labor rates, machine hour rates, overhead rates, and profit rates, etc.) for the determination of the maximum price for such machine or part, conforming so far as possible to the provisions of § 1390.7. The overhead rate so established shall be a reasonable rate in the light of the operations to be performed, and shall, so far as possible, be based on costs for items of overhead in effect on October 1, 1941. In the case of a newly constructed plant, however, the manufacturer may use as a base date for all purposes the date upon which price quotations were first made or upon which production was started in the plant, whichever is earlier, and shall use the labor rates for each classification of labor prevailing on that date in the locality of the plant, determined in accordance with § 1390.7 (b).

(b) Reports. The manufacturer shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing (1) the proposed price-determining method and rates used in establishing maximum prices as provided in paragraph (a); (2) a description of the items for which the maximum price is to be computed under such price-determining method; (3) a representative sample of prices computed in accordance with the proposed price-determining method; (4) an explanation of the circumstances necessitating pricing under this section; (5) relevant data bearing on the price-determining method and rates to be used, including evidence that such method and rates were determined as provided in paragraph (a); (6) a statement of whether or not quantity production has been achieved or is anticipated; (7) a brief description of the newly constructed or converted plant; and (8) any other data which the Office of Price Administration may in writing require.

(c) Maximum prices. (1) Prices computed in accordance with the proposed method reported under paragraph (b) may be quoted or charged for thirty days prior to filing such report and may be quoted or charged thereafter until the Office of Price Administration disapproves such price in writing or requires a new filing under paragraph (b). If the Office of Price Administration approves the proposed price-determining method and the prices of the machines or parts whose maximum prices are to be computed in accordance therewith, or fails to disapprove them within thirty days after receiving such report, the maximum prices for such machines or parts shall be determined in accordance with the proposed price-determining method until a new price-determining method is proposed and reported either upon the initiative of the manufacturer or as required by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) Within thirty days after receiving such report, the Office of Price Administration may in writing disapprove the proposed price-determining method and the prices resulting from its use, and upon such disapproval the manufacturer shall file a revised price-determining method in accordance with the suggestions and directions contained in such disapproval, and the provisions of this section shall apply in all respects to such revised method. In disapproving any proposed price-determining method, the Office of Price Administration may require the manufacturer to adjust all contracts made at prices determined pursuant to such method and may require that refunds be made as to all deliveries made at prices determined pursuant to such method. Such disapproval and requirement of refunds shall, upon request of the manufacturer, be embodied in an order.

(d) Not later than six months after last filing a price-determining method which was not disapproved by the Office of Price Administration, the manufacturer shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing (1) a comparison of his actual direct and indirect costs for the period under review, with the estimates on which the price-determining method being used was based and (2) so far as available, for each of the representative items for which prices were previously filed, the current price being charged, and a comparison of the actual direct and indirect costs with the estimate on which the price previously filed was based.

(e) Any manufacturer may at any time file, and the Office of Price Administration may at any time require the filing of a new or revised price-determining method in accordance with the provisions of this section, together with a representative sample of prices determined in accordance with such method.

[§ 1390.8 amended by Am. 71, 8 F.R. 3370, effective 3-24-43]

§ 1390.8a Maximum prices for fixed capacitors of the type and size used for military radio and radar equipment. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation, the maximum prices for fixed capacitors of the type and size used for military radio and radar equipment shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(a) Maximum prices; price lists. The maximum price for fixed capacitors of the type and size used for military radio and radar equipment shall be the price stated in the price list of the seller in effect on April 1, 1943 less all discounts, allowances and any other deductions from the list price in effect to a purchaser of the same class on that date. This price is subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (e).

(b) Maximum prices; formula pricing. If a fixed capacitor of the type and size used for military radio and radar equipment cannot be priced in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a), its maximum price shall be determined by using the price-determined method the seller used on April 1, 1943. In applying that price-determining method a manufacturer must use labor rates and materials prices in effect to him on April 1, 1943. The price-determining method used to compute maximum prices under this paragraph is subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (e).

(c) Mica capacitors. Manufacturers of mica capacitors may add to the maximum price determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) or (b) increases in unit costs due to increases realized subsequent to April 1, 1943, in the cost of block mica and in the cost of splitting and cutting mica film, except that nothing in this paragraph shall permit the addition of an increase in labor rates subsequent to April 1, 1943. Sellers other than manufacturers may increase the prices of mica capacitors by the amount that prices have been increased to them pursuant to the provisions of the preceding sentence.

(d) New list prices. (1) Any person who desires or is required in writing by the Office of Price Administration to establish a list price for fixed capacitors of the type and size used for military radio and radar equipment shall file a report pursuant to subparagraph (2) hereof containing a proposed price determined under paragraph (b), and such price shall thereafter be the maximum price: Provided, That the Office of Price Administration either approves such price in writing or fails to disapprove it within 30 days after the receipt of the report. Such price may be disapproved only on the ground that it was not computed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) or because the Office of Price Administration finds that a computation at a later date may result in a lower maximum price.

(2) Under the circumstances set forth in subparagraph (1), a report shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., containing the proposed list price, the proposed effective date, the class or classes of purchasers to whom such price is to be quoted, all relevant data used in determining such price, and evidence that such price was determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b).

(e) Approval of maximum prices—(1) Reports. Every seller of fixed capacitors of the type and size used for military radio and radar equipment shall file with the Office of Price Administration, in Washington, D. C., before April 30, 1943, a report stating the maximum prices established by this section, the method by which he determined those prices, and the discounts, allowances and other price differentials in effect therefor on April 1, 1943. The report filed by sellers other than manufacturers shall be accompanied by a list of the cost prices to such sellers.

(2) Approval. Each maximum price and price-determining method reported in the manner just set forth shall be subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration within 30 days after the receipt of the report. Within five days prior to filing such report, the seller may quote, contract, sell or deliver at the proposed price; but final settlement shall be made in accordance with the action of the Office of Price Administration on the report and, if required by the Office of Price Administration, refunds shall be made.

[§ 1390.8a added by Am. 79, 8 F.R. 4524, effective 4-1-43]

§ 1390.9 Maximum prices; machinery services—(a) (1) Services with list or established prices. If for any machinery service the supplier had a published machine hour rate, established price or other charge in effect on March 31, 1942, the maximum price to any purchaser for such machinery service shall be the net price which the supplier would have received on that date from a purchaser of the same class. When used in this subparagraph the term "established price in effect on March 31, 1942" has the same meaning as that given to the term "established price in effect on October 1, 1941" by paragraph (c) of § 1390.5, except that the date March 31, 1942, shall be substituted for the date October 1, 1941.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43]

(2) Reports. On or before August 1, 1942, every machinery service supplier subject to this regulation, shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., if he has not already done so, all his published and confidential machine hour rates, charge sheets, and discount sheets in effect on March 31, 1942, for machinery services.

(b) Services without list or established prices. If for any machinery service a supplier had no such published or established rate or charge in effect on March 31, 1942, the maximum price for such machinery service to any purchaser shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of § 1390.7, except that the date March 31, 1942, shall be substituted for the date October 1, 1941.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43]

(c) New or converted plants. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, if any machinery service is performed in a newly constructed plant or if the supplier is unable to determine the maximum price for any machinery service because it is performed in a converted plant or for any other reason:

(1) Price. The maximum price for each sale of such machinery service shall be a price determined so far as possible in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section and reported pursuant to subparagraph (2) below: Provided, That the Office of Price Administration either approves such price in writing or fails to disapprove it within thirty days after receipt of the report. Within five days prior to filing such report and during such thirty-day period, the supplier may quote, contract or perform such machinery service at the proposed price, but final settlement shall be made in accordance with the action of the Office of Price Administration on such report and, if required by the Office of Price Administration, refunds shall be made.

(2) Report. Such supplier shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing the proposed price, the proposed billing date, a statement of whether or not such machinery service had a published or confidential rate or charge in effect on March 31, 1942, all relevant price-determining data including evidence that the proposed price was determined so far as possible in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section, and a brief description of the newly constructed or converted plant. If the supplier desires such price to become the maximum price applicable to such machinery services thereafter performed, a statement that the report is also being filed pursuant to § 1390.13 should be made.

§ 1390.10 Maximum prices; sales by sellers other than the manufacturer—(a) Machines and parts with list or established prices. If for any machine or part a seller other than the manufacturer thereof had a published list price or established price in effect on October 1, 1941, (as defined in § 1390.5 (c)), the maximum price shall be determined as provided in § 1390.5.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43]

(b) Certain cases where seller's price is based on lower cost—(1) Applicability of this paragraph. This paragraph is applicable to the sale by a seller other than a manufacturer of a machine or part for which the seller had a list or established price in effect on the base date which was based on a cost lower than the price which his base date supplier had in effect to him on that date. When used in this paragraph the term "base date supplier" means the last person from whom the seller purchased the machine or part before the base date. This paragraph is also applicable to the sale by a seller other than a manufacturer of a machine or part whose cost has been increased to him in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(2) Price—(i) Where seller's base date price was based on price sheets published by another. Where the seller's list price in effect on the base date was based on price sheets published by another person, the maximum price shall be determined as follows: The seller shall deduct from the published price list, which such other person had in effect on the base date, or which was revised by such other person in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph, all discounts, allowances and any other deductions from the list price which the seller had in effect to a purchaser of the same class on the base date.

(ii) Where price not based on price sheets published by another. Where the seller's list or established price in effect on the base date was not based on price sheets published by another person, the seller shall determine the maximum price as follows: The seller shall multiply his selling price in effect on the base date to each class of purchasers by the percentage increase in cost to him either occurring on or before October 1, 1941, or due to an increase in price permitted by this paragraph. This percentage shall be determined as follows: The seller shall divide either the price his supplier had in effect to him on the base date, had he made a purchase, or the increased price this paragraph permits his supplier to charge, by the cost on which his base date selling price was calculated.

(3) Report and approval of price. No adjustment may be made under subparagraph (2) until the price which the seller wishes to charge is approved in writing by the Office of Price Administration. A seller, other than a manufacturer, who desires to increase his price for a machine or part in accordance with subparagraph (2) shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. This report shall contain the following information:

(i) Where the seller's base date price was based on price sheets published by another. Where the seller's base date price was based on price sheets published by another person, the report shall contain the following information:

(a) The name and address of the immediate supplier, as well as the manufacturer, of the item. If the manufacturer is also the supplier, include a statement to that effect.

(b) A description of the machine or part.

(c) A copy of the published price sheet which the seller used in determining his base date price, together with all discounts, allowances and any other deductions from that list price which he had in effect on the base date.

(d) A copy of the published price sheet which was put in effect either on or before the base date, or in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(e) The list price which the seller desires to have approved for his use, together with all applicable discounts, allowances and any other deductions from that list price.

(ii) Where the seller's base date price was not based on price sheets published by another. Where the seller's base date price was not based on price sheets published by another person, the report shall contain the following information:

(a) The name and address of the immediate supplier, as well as the manufacturer, of the item. If the manufacturer is also the supplier, include a statement to that effect.

(b) A description of the machine or part.

(c) Where the price to the seller was increased on or before the base date, the price that the seller's supplier would have charged him on the base date, had he made a purchase, and the date that price became effective. Where the price to the seller was increased in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph, the price which has been approved by the Office of Price Administration and the date that approval was given.

(d) The cost upon which the seller's base date selling price was calculated, and the period during which such cost was effective.

(e) The seller's net price in effect to each class of purchasers on the base date, and the date such price or prices became effective.

(f) The maximum price or prices determined in accordance with subparagraph (2) and the class of purchasers to which each price applies.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 95, 8 F.R. 9520, effective 7-23-43; Am. 100, 8 F.R. 13299, effective 10-4-43; and Am. 112, 9 F.R. 3085, effective 3-27-44]

(c) Machines and parts without list prices. This paragraph is applicable to any machine or part which either has been modified since the base date or for which the seller had no published list price or established price in effect on October 1, 1941. The maximum price for the sale of any such machine or part by a seller other than a manufacturer to any purchaser shall be the net price determined by applying a margin determined pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph to:

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43; and Am. 115, 9 F.R. 4184, effective 4-18-44]

(i) The seller's net invoiced cost, if available, not to exceed the applicable maximum price, or

(ii) If actual cost is not available, net invoiced cost as estimated by the seller's supplier: Provided, That the seller has no reason to believe that the price so estimated exceeds the applicable maximum price.

(2) The margin to be applied in the circumstances referred to in subparagraph (1) shall be the first of the following which is available:

(i) The weighted average percentage margin over net invoiced cost applied in prices charged by such seller on or about October 1, 1941, for the same machines or parts sold to purchasers of the same class;

(ii) The weighted average percentage margin over net invoiced cost applied in prices charged by such seller on or about October 1, 1941, for all machines and parts of the same class sold to purchasers of the same class;

(iii) The weighted average percentage margin over net invoiced cost applied in prices charged by such seller on or about October 1, 1941, for the same machines or parts sold to purchasers of a different class or, if none were sold, for machines and parts of the same class sold to purchasers of a different class, adjusted to afford the same percentage differential in price between purchasers of such different classes as was customarily made by the seller on or about October 1, 1941, for purchasers of such different classes.

[Paragraph (c) amended by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 5665, effective 7-22-42 and Am. 25, 7 F.R. 7912, effective 10-9-42]

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, where any machine or part listed in § 1390.33, Appendix B, is sold on a delivered basis and delivered by railroad, the maximum price shall be reduced by an amount equal to the difference between railroad freight figured on the basis of rates in effect on March 31, 1942, and freight figured on the basis of current railroad freight rates.

[Subparagraph (3) added by Am. 90, 8 F.R. 7767, effective 6-14-43]

(d) Machines and parts; new lines. If for any machine or part a seller other than the manufacturer thereof had no published list price or established price in effect on October 1, 1941, and if such seller sold no machine or part of the same class on or about that date:

[Above paragraph amended by Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43]

(1) Price. The maximum price for such machine or part shall be the price reported pursuant to subparagraph (2), below: Provided, That the Office of Price Administration either approves such price in writing or fails to disapprove it within thirty days after receipt of the report. Within five days prior to the filing of such report and during such thirty-day period, such seller may quote, contract, sell or deliver at the proposed price, but final settlement shall be made in accordance with the action of the Office of Price Administration on such report and, if required by the Office of Price Administration, refunds shall be made.

(2) Reports. The seller of such machine or part shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a report containing the proposed price, the proposed billing date, the net invoiced cost of such machine or part, the date of purchase, a statement of the basis on which such proposed price was determined, and an explanation of the reasons why § 1390.5 and paragraphs (a) and (c) of this section were inapplicable. If such seller desires such price to become the maximum price applicable to all subsequent sales and deliveries of such machine or part, a statement that the report is also being filed pursuant to § 1390.13 should be included.

(e) Machines and parts completely subcontracted. If a manufacturer of a machine or part also subcontracts to another the manufacture of the same machine or part which he resells in the form in which it is received from the subcontractor the maximum price for the prime contractor shall be determined as follows:

(1) If for any such machine or part the prime contractor had a published list price or established price in effect on October 1, 1941, the maximum price shall be determined in accordance with § 1390.5; or

(2) If the prime contractor had no such list or established price, the maximum price shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (d).

[Paragraph (e) amended by Am. 25, 7 F.R. 7912, effective 10-9-42, and Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43]

(f) Installed sales. Nothing in this regulation shall be deemed to establish maximum prices for installation services performed by persons other than the manufacturer or assembler of the machine or part to be installed.

§ 1390.11 Maximum prices; sales of second-hand machines and parts—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this section

(1) A "second-hand machine or part" is any machine or part which has previously been used.

(2) A "rebuilt and guaranteed" machine or part is a machine or part (i) in which all worn or missing components which should have been replaced or repaired for satisfactory operation, have been replaced or repaired, (ii) which carries a binding written guaranty of satisfactory operation for a period of not less than 60 days, and (iii) which is expressly invoiced as a rebuilt and guaranteed machine or part or its equivalent, and in addition, in those cases where the machine or part operates under power or pressure, has been tested under power or pressure so as to prove that it has a substantially equivalent performance to that of a new machine or part. In the event of either a sale by a government agency, or a sale for the benefit of creditors where a government agency is the largest creditor a written certificate may be substituted for the guarantee. The certificate must be signed by a qualified person who is not engaged in the business of selling second-hand machines or parts. This certificate must state that such person has inspected the second-hand machine or part and that all worn or missing components which should be replaced or repaired for satisfactory operation, if any, have been replaced or repaired.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 109, 9 F.R. 2138, effective 2-23-44]

(3) The "new base price", except as provided in paragraph (e) below, means the highest maximum price established by this or any other regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration to any class of purchasers for the nearest equivalent new machine or part, f. o. b. manufacturer's plant.

(b) Maximum price; rebuilt and guaranteed second-hand machines and parts. The maximum price for any rebuilt and guaranteed second-hand machine or part shall be the higher of the following:

(1) 85% of the new base price for such machine or part, or

(2) The price determined in accordance with the "depreciation method" provided in paragraph (d), below.

(c) Maximum price; second-hand machines and parts which are not rebuilt and guaranteed. The maximum price for any second-hand machine or part which is not rebuilt and guaranteed shall be the higher of the following, but shall not exceed 80% of the new base price for such machine or part:

(1) 55% of the new base price for such machine or part, or

(2) The price determined in accordance with the "depreciation method" provided in paragraph (d), below.

(d) Maximum price; "depreciation method"—(1) When "depreciation method" may be used. A maximum price may be computed under the "depreciation method" only for those machines or parts listed in Appendix D, "Table of depreciation rates".

(2) Computation of maximum price. Under the "depreciation method", the maximum price of any second-hand machine or part listed in Appendix D, "Table of depreciation rates" shall be the new base price for such machine or part less depreciation on the straight line method, at the rate provided for such type of machine or part in that Table, from the date of acquisition by the original purchaser for use of the machine or part when new to the date of sale. In measuring such period of time, a fractional period of a month consisting of 16 days or more shall be regarded as a full month and a fractional period of a month consisting of 15 days or less shall be disregarded. Upon each sale at a price computed under this paragraph, the seller shall deliver to the buyer a signed statement setting forth the name and address of the original purchaser for use of the machine or part when new and the date of acquisition of such machine or part by such purchaser.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 87, 8 F.R. 7197, effective 6-2-43]

(e) Maximum prices; second-hand machines or parts sold when new on delivered or installed price basis only—(1) Sold when new on delivered price basis only. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if the maximum price for any second-hand machine or part established by this regulation when such machine or part is sold new, is on a delivered price basis only, the new base price upon the sale of such machine or part shall be the highest maximum price to any class of purchasers for the nearest equivalent machine or part when new, delivered to the point where such second-hand machine or part is located at the time of purchase by the seller.

(2) Sold when new on installed price basis only. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, if the maximum price for any second-hand machine or part established by this regulation when such machine or part is sold when new, is on an installed price basis only (that is, a lump sum covering the cost of the machine or part, the cost of transportation, and the cost of installation), the new base price upon the sale of such machine or part shall be the price for the same machine or part when new, installed at the point of original installation.

[Paragraph (e) amended by Am. 96, 8 F.R. 10662, effective 8-12-43]

(f) Charges and expenses which may or may not be added to the maximum price—(1) Items which may not be added. The following charges and expenses are included within the maximum price for any second-hand machine or part and such charges and expenses may not be paid or received in addition to the maximum price:

(i) Any commission or service charge paid to or for the account of, the seller or any agent of the seller;

(ii) Expense of packing and crating the second-hand machine or part (except where a second-hand machine or part is sold on an "as-is where-is" basis);

(iii) Expense of dismantling and loading the second-hand machine or part for shipment to the purchaser (except where a second-hand machine or part is sold on an "as-is where-is" basis).

(2) Items which may be added. The following charges and expenses are not included within the maximum price for any second-hand machine or part and such charges and expenses, not to exceed the maximum price for such charges and expenses established by any applicable regulation or order of the Office of Price Administration, may be paid or received in addition to the maximum price, if billed or invoiced separately.

(i) The actual amount of any tax upon the sale or delivery of the second-hand machine or part;

(ii) The actual cost of transportation of the machine or part from the point of shipment to the purchaser's plant. The point of shipment means the point at which the machine is loaded on a conveyance for transportation directly to the purchaser;

(iii) The actual cost of installing the second-hand machine or part in the purchaser's plant.

(3) Sales on an "as-is where-is" basis. If a second-hand machine or part is sold on an "as-is where-is" basis and the sales price plus the actual cost incurred by the purchaser for dismantling and loading exceeds the applicable maximum price for such second-hand machine or part, the seller shall refund to the purchaser the excess over the maximum price or 10% of the maximum price, whichever sum is lower.

(g) Sales by Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy. This paragraph is applicable to the sale by the Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department and the Department of the Navy of any second-hand machine or part which was acquired by the agency in question for the purpose of rental. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation, the maximum price for such a sale shall be the price determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of paragraphs (a) to (f), inclusive, of this section or the price determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of subparagraphs (1) to (3), inclusive, of this paragraph (g), whichever is the higher.

(1) Where the purchaser is the first lessee of the machine or part under an agreement with the Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy. The maximum price shall be computed by adding the sum of the following:

(i) The cost of the machine or part to the Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy, f. o. b. the plant of the manufacturer of the machine or part;

(ii) The freight paid by the Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy from the plant of the manufacturer of the machine or part to the plant of the purchaser;

(iii) The cost to the Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy of unloading the machine or part at the plant of the purchaser;

(iv) The cost to the Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy of the installation of the machine or part in the plant of the purchaser;

(v) Interest on items (i) to (iv), inclusive, at the rate actually charged the purchaser under the agreement of lease between the Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy and the purchaser, or if no interest rate was specified in such agreement the average rate charged by the Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy to other lessees of comparable machines and parts, such interest to be computed from the date that each of such items was paid by the Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy to the date of sale.

(vi) Direct expenses actually incurred by Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy and normally charged the purchaser under the agreement of lease between Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy and the purchaser; or, if no provision for direct expenses is specified in such agreement, direct expenses actually incurred by Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy and normally charged by Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy to other lessees of comparable machines and parts.

From the sum of items (i) to (v), inclusive, deduct depreciation on the original total cost of acquisition by Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum from the date of initial use after acquisition by Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy of such machine or part, except that in the event of sale within ninety (90) days after such initial use no depreciation shall be deducted.

(2) Where the purchaser is a person other than the first lessee of the machine or part. The maximum price delivered to the plant of the purchaser shall be computed by adding the sum of the following:

(i) The cost of the machine or part to the Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy, f. o. b. the plant of the manufacturer of the machine or part;

(ii) An allowance equal to the freight charge for transportation of such machine or part from the location of the machine or part at the time of purchase to the plant of the purchaser.

From the sum of items (i) and (ii), deduct depreciation on the original total cost of acquisition by Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy at the rate of eight percent (8%) per annum from the date of initial use after acquisition by Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy of such machine or part, except that in the event of sale within ninety (90) days after such initial use no depreciation shall be deducted.

(3) To the maximum price of any second-hand machine or part, as computed in accordance with paragraphs 1 or 2 above, the Defense Plant Corporation, the War Department, or the Department of the Navy may add the amount of any tax upon the sale or delivery of such machine or part and shall bill such tax separately from the price of such machine or part.

[Paragraph (g) amended by Am. 87, 8 F.R. 7197, effective 6-2-43 and Am. 99, 8 F.R. 13124, effective 9-30-43]

(h) Sales between corporations entitled to file affiliated returns under the Internal Revenue Code—(1) Price. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, in the case of a second-hand machine or part which is (i) sold by one corporation to another corporation both of which are members of an affiliated group as defined in section 141 of the Internal Revenue Code, and (ii) is acquired by the purchasing corporation for the processing or fabricating of other commodities and not for resale in the same or in a fabricated form, the maximum price shall be the selling corporation's book value of such machine or part less depreciation computed at the rate and in the manner used by the selling corporation in the preparation of its federal income tax return.

(2) Report. Within ten days after any sale of a second-hand machine or part at a price determined pursuant to subparagraph (1) above, the selling corporation shall file with the Machinery Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., a report containing a description of the machine or part, the name and address of the purchasing corporation, the date of acquisition of the machine or part by the selling corporation, the selling price, a computation of the maximum price, in accordance with subparagraph (1) and an original statement of the purchasing corporation that the machine or part has been acquired for the processing or fabricating of other commodities and not for resale in the same or in a fabricated form.

(i) Further regulations or orders. If the maximum price provisions of this regulation for second-hand machines or parts are not adaptable to the pricing of particular machines or parts, or if they permit the charging of prices in excess of prices which could be obtained if sufficient new machines or parts were available, the Price Administrator may by separate regulation or order establish other maximum prices for the sale or delivery of such second-hand machines or parts.

(j) The maximum price of any second-hand machine or part sold in the Territory of Alaska shall be determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of this section, except that there may be added to the price so determined the amount of the actual cost of transportation of such machine or part from Seattle, Washington to its present location in Alaska.

[Paragraph (j) added by Am. 88, 8 F.R. 7260, effective 6-3-43]

[§ 1390.11 amended by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 5665, effective 7-22-42; Am. 54, 7 F.R. 9729, effective 11-25-42; Am. 76, 8 F.R. 4476, 12793, effective 4-10-43 and as otherwise noted]

§ 1390.12 Maximum prices; leases. (a) If for any machine or part the lessor thereof had a published or established rental rate in effect on October 1, 1941, (as defined in § 1390.5 (c)), the maximum rental rate shall be determined as provided in § 1390.5.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43]

(b) If for any machine or part, the lessor thereof had no published or established rental rate in effect on October 1, 1941, the maximum rental rate shall be the rental rate approved in writing by the Office of Price Administration after the lessor has submitted the report required by subparagraph (1). Such rental rate shall be in line with the rental rates charged on October 1, 1941, for the rental of machines or parts the same as, or similar to, the one being rented. Unless the Office of Price Administration shall in writing within 30 days after receipt of the report required by subparagraph (1) disapprove the maximum price as reported, such price shall be deemed to have been approved, subject to disapproval or adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration. Within five days prior to the filing of such report and during such 30 day period, such lessor may quote, contract, or lease any such machine or part at the proposed rental and may make delivery, but no rental payment shall be made until a maximum rental rate has been established either by the approval of the Office of Price Administration or its failure to disapprove within 30 days after receipt of the lessor's report. Payment shall be in accordance with the established maximum rental rate. No rental payment shall be received by a person who has leased a machine or part without submitting a report required by this paragraph. The Office of Price Administration may of its own accord set the maximum rental rate for any machine or part which has been delivered under a lease or rental and for which the report required by this paragraph has not been submitted to the Office of Price Administration within five days after delivery. Such a maximum rental rate shall be in line with the level of maximum rental rates authorized by this section.

(1) The lessor of a machine or part shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing a description in detail of the machine or part he proposes to rent, including the name of the manufacturer and the model number, the proposed rental rate, the proposed billing date, and the relevant price data used by the lessor in arriving at the proposed rental rate. If such lessor desires such rental to become the maximum rental applicable to subsequent leases and deliveries of such a machine or part, a statement that the report is also filed pursuant to § 1390.13 should be included.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 93, 8 F.R. 8889, effective 7-1-43 and Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43; subparagraph (b) (2) revoked by Am. 93.

§ 1390.13 New list prices. (a) Any person who desires or is required in writing by the Office of Price Administration to establish a list price for any machine or part or machinery service shall file a report pursuant to paragraph (b) hereof, containing a proposed price determined under §§ 1390.7 or 1390.8 (Manufacturer's Sales), 1390.9 (Machinery Services), 1390.10 (Re-seller's Sales), or 1390.12 (Leases), and such price shall thereafter be the maximum price: Provided, That the Office of Price Administration either approves such price in writing or fails to disapprove it within thirty days after receipt of the report. Such price may be disapproved only on the ground that it was not computed in accordance with the applicable provisions of this regulation or because the Office of Price Administration finds that a computation at a later date may result in a lower maximum price.

(b) Under the circumstances set forth in paragraph (a), a report shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing the proposed list price, the proposed effective date, the class or classes of purchasers to whom such price is to be quoted, all relevant data used in determining such price, and evidence that such price was determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of this regulation.

(c) This section is not applicable to manufacturers' maximum prices for any machine or part that must be priced under § 1390.6.

[Paragraph (c) added by Am. 116, 9 F.R. 4134, effective 4-18-44]

§ 1390.14 Reports on cost-plus contracts. Any person who has agreed to sell or deliver any machine or part or to perform any manufacturing service pursuant to a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee or cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost contract shall on or before August 1, 1942, or within ten days after entering into such contract file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing a copy or a summary of such contract.

§ 1390.15 Emergency service charges. Notwithstanding any other provision of this regulation, any manufacturer or machinery service supplier may add to the maximum price for a machine or part or machinery service the extra material cost resulting from his purchasing materials (not including parts and subassemblies), in an emergency and at the request of the customer, from a source more expensive than the current usual source. Also, any manufacturer, other seller, lessor or machinery service supplier may add to the maximum price for a machine or part or a machinery service his extra transportation cost resulting from his shipping the machine or part or materials used in the production of the machine or part or the supplying of the machinery service, in an emergency and at the request of the customer, by means more expensive than the current usual method of shipping. No markup, overhead or profit shall be applied to the extra material or transportation cost. The extra charges allowed by this paragraph shall be billed separately on the invoice, and a copy of the invoice must be immediately forwarded to the Machinery Branch, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

[§ 1390.15 amended by Am. 106, 9 F.R. 9032, effective 2-26-44.]

§ 1390.16 Federal and state taxes. (a) Any tax levied by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof which the seller on October 1, 1941, added to the price paid by the purchaser shall not be included in the maximum price but may be collected by the seller in addition to the maximum price if such tax is stated separately from the purchase price, except that such tax need not be stated separately if it is measured by the seller's cost of such machine or part.

(b) Any tax upon the sale or delivery of a machine or part and any compensating use tax upon a machine or part levied by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof and becoming effective on or after October 1, 1941, may also be collected by the seller making such taxable sale or delivery in addition to the maximum price if such tax is stated separately from the purchase price, unless the seller had increased his price on or before October 1, 1941, to reflect such new or increased tax, except that such tax need not be stated separately if it is measured by the seller's cost of such machine or part.

[Paragraphs (a) and (b) amended by Am. 54, 7 F.R. 9729, effective 11-25-42]

(c) (1) Any separately stated tax paid by a purchaser for resale upon the purchase of a machine or part may be collected by such purchaser in addition to the maximum price upon the resale of such machine or part unless the purchaser's price in effect on October 1, 1941, reflected the amount of such tax.

(2) Any tax paid by a manufacturer upon the purchase of a part which can be delivered separately from the principal assembly of the complete machine may also be collected by the manufacturer upon the sale of the complete machine, as well as upon the sale of the part separately, if such tax is stated separately from the purchase price, unless the manufacturer's price for the machine or for the part in effect on October 1, 1941, reflected the amount of such tax.

§ 1390.17 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export a machine or part shall be determined in accordance with the methods provided in the Maximum Export Price Regulation[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration. An "export sale" is any sale between a seller in the Continental United States and a purchaser outside thereof in which the commodity sold is transported from the Continental United States to a point outside thereof and includes any sale of a commodity outside the Continental United States by an agent of the exporter or by a corporation owned or controlled by the exporter within a period of two years after the date of shipment of the commodity from the Continental United States.

§ 1390.18 Contract prices, renegotiations, price-adjustment agreements, and price increases—(a) Existing contracts. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 1390.3, any person may until September 1, 1942, deliver, perform, or receive, or make or receive payment for, any machine or part or machinery service pursuant to a contract entered into prior to July 22, 1942, at the price provided in such contract: Provided, That on or before September 1, 1942, the contract price shall be revised so as not to exceed the maximum price computed in accordance with the provisions of this regulation and that refunds or other allowances in accordance with such recomputation are made as to deliveries made or services performed on or after July 22, 1942. In computing the maximum price for purposes of this section, no upward adjustment shall be made, and no downward adjustment need be made, for changes in the clock hours of labor or in the quantities of materials required or estimated to be required, which have occurred since the date of entering into the contract or since the date of the last change in the contract price.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 25, 7 F.R. 7912, effective 10-9-42]

(b) Prices for deliveries pursuant to a firm-price contract. Except as provided in § 1390.7 (c) (4), when the maximum price applicable to a firm price contract for the sale and delivery of any machine or part or for machinery services has been determined in accordance with the provisions of this regulation, the maximum price need not be recomputed for any subsequent deliveries pursuant to such contract unless the contract price is revised by renegotiation or adjustment in accordance with paragraphs (c) or (d) of this section.

[Former paragraph (c) amended by Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43; and revoked by Am. 116, 9 F.R. 4134, effective 4-18-44. Former (d), (e), (f), and (g) redesignated (c), (d), (e), and (f).]

(c) Renegotiations. If a contract for the sale and delivery of machines and parts or for machinery services has been or is entered into at a price which does not exceed the maximum price, computed as of the time of entering into such contract, or has been revised in accordance with any of the provisions of this section, the contract price may be reduced at any time without recomputation of the maximum price, and may be increased by renegotiation if the price, as so increased, does not exceed the maximum price computed as of the time of such renegotiation and if a report is made pursuant to paragraph (f) of this section.

(d) Adjustable pricing. If the seller, lessor or supplier wishes, he may agree with the buyer or lessee to charge a price which can be increased up to the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery. Where the seller or supplier has filed an application for adjustment under § 1390.25a, he may, in accordance with the provisions of that section, deliver at a price which will be adjusted upwards in accordance with the action taken by the Office of Price Administration on his application. In all other cases, unless authorized by the Office of Price Administration, the seller, lessor or supplier must not deliver at a price which is to be adjusted upwards in accordance with action by the Office of Price Administration after delivery. This authorization will be given only where: (1) a request for a change in the applicable price is pending; (2) authorization is necessary to promote distribution or production; and (3) it will not interfere with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended.

[Paragraph (d), formerly (e), amended by Am. 104, 8 F.R. 15462, effective 11-9-43]

(e) New contracts. Whenever a new contract is entered into for the sale and delivery of machines or parts or for machinery services for which there was no published list price or established price in effect on October 1, 1941, and which has previously been sold or supplied, the applicable maximum price shall be recomputed as of the time of entering into the new contract. For the purposes of this regulation any extension of an existing contract which provides for the delivery of a greater number of machines or parts, or for a greater number of hours or other units of machinery services, than were originally contracted for shall be deemed to be a new contract.

(f) Price increases. If the price of any machine or part or machinery service computed in accordance with the provisions of § 1390.7 is at any time increased above the price charged on the previous sale or delivery or is increased above the original contract price by renegotiation or by a price adjustment clause, unless the increase is definitely assignable to a change in specifications or a change in conditions of delivery, the seller thereof shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within ten days after making any sale or delivery at such increased price, or agreeing upon such increased price, a report containing: (1) a description of the machine or part or machinery service; (2) the price on the sale prior to the price increase, the date of such sale and the name and description of the purchaser; (3) the price charged on October 1, 1941, or on the first sale subsequent thereto, and the date of such sale; (4) the new price; (5) the date of entering into the contract providing the increased price; (6) the name and description of the purchaser; and (7) an explanation of the higher price: Provided, That if the price of a machine or part or machinery service has previously been reported pursuant to this paragraph without objection from the Office of Price Administration, the manufacturer shall not be required to report subsequent sales or deliveries at the same or a lower price.

§ 1390.19 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices, rentals, or charges than those set forth in this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1390.20 Evasion. (a) It shall be a violation of this regulation to effect a price increase above the applicable maximum price in connection with any sale, lease or delivery of any machine or part, or with the supplying of any machinery service by changing discounts or customary price differentials among classes of purchasers; by making minor changes in machines or parts or machinery services having published price lists or established prices in effect on October 1, 1941, (as defined in § 1390.5 (c)); by requiring a customer to furnish material for processing not in accordance with previous practice; by entering into a joint venture with any other person subject hereto for cross-selling, cross-purchasing, or cross-servicing; by reducing the period of any guaranty or warranty of performance; by eliminating or reducing any maintenance, repair or installation service; by undervaluing commodities received in trade; by eliminating or reducing rental credits on purchases; or by any other change in terms or conditions of sale, lease, or contract. It shall also be a violation of this regulation for any person to pay, in connection with the purchase or rental of any machine or part, whether new or used, or the purchase of any machinery service, any fees, commissions, or other compensation, whether for broker's, agent's or finder's services, or otherwise, which, when added to the amount paid by such person for the purchase or rental of such machine or part or the purchase of such machinery service would result in a total sum exceeding the applicable maximum price established by this regulation.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 96, 8 F.R. 10662, effective 8-12-43 and Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43]

(b) The Office of Price Administration may, upon request, grant written permission to any person subject to this regulation, to change a term or condition of sale, lease or contract in effect on October 1, 1941 where such change is necessitated by orders issued by the War Production Board, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System or any other agency of the United States, or by other conditions caused by the war.

§ 1390.21 Developmental contracts and subcontracts. (a) This regulation shall not apply to any sale or delivery of a machine or part or to any machinery service performed pursuant to a contract or subcontract certified in writing to the Office of Price Administration by the United States or any agency thereof as being developmental: Provided, That a report is filed pursuant to paragraph (b). For the purposes of this section, a contract is deemed to be "developmental" during the period required for the selection of a product by the purchaser or for the accumulation of sufficient production experience by the manufacturer or supplier to permit a fair estimate of the manufacturing costs, or both. After the Office of Price Administration shall have determined after consultation with the appropriate government agency that the period necessary for development has expired, and has in writing so notified such agency and the manufacturer or machinery service supplier, this regulation shall apply to all subsequent sales and deliveries of such machine or part or to all such machinery services performed thereafter.

(b) Within ten days after entering into any such developmental contract or subcontract the manufacturer or machinery service supplier shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing a description of the product or products to be manufactured or the machinery services to be supplied, a summary of the terms of the contract or subcontract including all pricing provisions, a short statement of the production plan of which this contract is a part, and an estimate of the expected duration of such developmental work. For any such contract or subcontract in effect on July 22, 1942 such report shall be filed prior to August 15, 1942.

(c) In the case of a developmental contract or subcontract which is also classified as "confidential" or "restricted" by any agency of the United States, if such agency states that such contract is "confidential" or "restricted" in the certification required by paragraph (a), the provisions of paragraph (b) shall not be applicable.

[Paragraph (c) added by Am. 81, 8 F.R. 5567, effective 5-1-43]

§ 1390.22 Secret contracts. This regulation shall not apply to any sale or delivery of a machine or part or to the sale of any machinery service pursuant to a contract or subcontract which is deemed to be a "secret" contract and is so certified to the Office of Price Administration by the United States or any agency thereof. Such certification shall set forth the date of the "secret" contract and its number or other designation. After the Office of Price Administration shall have received notice from the United States or the certifying agency that such contract is no longer deemed to be secret, this regulation shall apply to all subsequent sales and deliveries of such machine or part, or to all such machinery services completed thereafter.

§ 1390.23 Emergency purchases. (a) This regulation shall not apply to any sale or delivery pursuant to any emergency purchase by the United States or any agency thereof for immediate delivery of any machine or part or immediate performance of any machinery service: Provided, That if the total price exceeds $500, a report is filed pursuant to paragraph (b).

(b) Within ten days after making any such emergency purchase in the amount of more than $500, at a price which is known or suspected by the purchaser to be in excess of the maximum price, any person making such purchase on behalf of the United States or any agency thereof shall file a report with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., certifying that such purchase was made in a situation in which it was imperative to secure the machine, part, or machinery service immediately and in which it was impossible to secure, or unfair to require, immediate delivery or performance at the applicable maximum price and setting forth (1) the name and address of the seller or supplier; (2) date of purchase; (3) date of delivery or performance; (4) description of the machine or part purchased or machinery service performed; (5) quantity purchased; (6) price at which purchased; and (7) a brief statement of the facts giving rise to the emergency situation which necessitated the purchase at a price higher than the applicable maximum price.

§ 1390.24 Privileges accorded to certain foreign governments. The privileges accorded to the United States or any agency thereof by § 1390.21 (Developmental contracts and subcontracts), § 1390.22 (Secret contracts) and § 1390.23 (emergency purchases) shall apply to the government of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States," or to any agency of any such government.

§ 1390.25 Petitions for amendment. (a) Amendments. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

[Section heading amended by Am. 78, 8 F.R. 4516, effective 4-10-43. Former paragraph (a) amended by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 5665, effective 7-22-42 and revoked by Am. 78. Paragraph (b) revoked by Am. 87, 7 F.R. 9633, effective 12-1-42. Former paragraph (c) amended by Supplementary Order 26, 7 F.R. 9048, effective 11-4-42 and redesignated (a) by Am. 78]

(1) Mica capacitors. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation, manufacturers of mica capacitors may add to the maximum price provided herein increases in unit cost due to increases realized subsequent to March 31, 1942, in the cost of block mica and in the cost of splitting and cutting mica film, except that nothing in this subparagraph shall permit the addition of an increase in cost due to an increase in labor rates subsequent to March 31, 1942.

[Subparagraph (1) added by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 5665, effective 7-22-42]

(2) American Saw Mill Machinery Company. Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 1390.5 and 1390.6 the maximum price applicable to the sale to any purchaser of any item of woodworking or sawmill machinery, manufactured and sold by the American Saw Mill Machinery Company, Hackettstown, New Jersey, shall be the list price for such item in effect on October 1, 1941, subject to the discounts in effect to purchasers of the same class on November 1, 1941, and the maximum price applicable to the sale to any purchaser of any radial saw or part thereof manufactured and sold by said Company shall be the list price in effect on October 1, 1941, subject to the discounts in effect to purchasers of the same class on February 20, 1942.

[Subparagraph (2) added by Am. 4, 7 F.R. 6682, effective 8-26-42]

(3) Monarch Engineering and Manufacturing Company. Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 1390.5 and 1390.6, the maximum price applicable to the sale of any industrial furnace, oven or ladle heater manufactured and sold by the Monarch Engineering and Manufacturing Company, Baltimore, Maryland, for which such Company had a published or confidential list price in effect on October 1, 1941 shall be the net price determined in accordance with the provisions of § 1390.5, plus an amount equal to 4½% of such net price.

[Subparagraph (3) added by Am. 5, 7 F.R. 6682, effective 8-26-42]

(4) Middlesex Manufacturing Company. Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 1390.5 and 1390.6, the maximum price applicable to the sale of any shoe rack or accessory manufactured and sold by the Middlesex Manufacturing Company, Medford, Massachusetts, for which such Company had a published or confidential list price in effect on October 1, 1941, shall be the net price determined in accordance with the provisions of § 1390.5, plus an amount equal to 10% of such net price.

[Subparagraph (4) added by Am. 6, 7 F.R. 6682, effective 8-26-42]

(5) Petrometer Corporation. Notwithstanding the provisions of §§ 1390.5 and 1390.6, the maximum price applicable to the sale of any mechanical instrument or part manufactured by Petrometer Corporation, Long Island City, New York, shall be determined pursuant to the provisions of § 1390.5, except that the date October 27, 1941 shall be substituted for the date October 1, 1941, wherever that date appears in § 1390.5.

[Subparagraph (5) added by Am. 7, 7 F.R. 6899, effective 9-4-42]

(40) Machines and parts containing silver—(i) Maximum price. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation, except where another provision of this regulation permits the increase in cost due to the increased price of silver to be reflected in the maximum price (see §§ 1390.7 (c) (3) (i) and 1390.10 (c)), the maximum price for the sale by any seller of any machine or part containing silver shall be determined as follows: The maximum price shall be the sum of the price determined in accordance with all other applicable provisions of this regulation and an amount determined by multiplying the number of fine troy ounces of silver contained in the machine or part by 9.625 cents in the case of foreign silver and by 36.125 cents in the case of domestic or Treasury silver.

(ii) Definitions. When used in this paragraph, the term:

(a) "Domestic silver" means silver mined subsequent to July 1, 1939, from natural deposits in the United States or in any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof.

(b) "Treasury silver" means silver sold by the United States Treasury Department pursuant to an Act approved July 12, 1943, entitled "An Act to Authorize The Use for War Purposes of Silver Held or Owned by the United States" (Pub. Law 137, 78th Cong.).

(c) "Foreign silver" means any silver other than domestic or Treasury silver, as defined above.

[Subparagraph (40) added by Am. 53, 7 F.R. 9729, effective 11-25-42 and amended by Am. 108, 9 F.R. 2032, effective 2-26-44]

(41) Sales of air conditioning and refrigerating equipment pursuant to War Production Board program. (i) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation, the maximum price applicable to the sale at the direction of the War Production Board of any industrial or commercial air conditioning or refrigerating equipment to the manufacturer of such equipment by a person using such equipment and not engaged in the business of selling such equipment, shall be the installed cost of such equipment to such user, less depreciation at the rate of 5% per year (except as provided in paragraph (b)); the maximum price applicable to the resale of any such equipment by the manufacturer on a reconditioned and guaranteed basis to a new user designated by the War Production Board shall be the total cost of the equipment to the manufacturer, including the cost of inspection, dismantling, and shipment to the manufacturer's plant, estimated if necessary; plus the cost of reconditioning the equipment, of shipment to the purchaser, and of installation, estimated if necessary; plus the amount of any other out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with such sale, estimated if necessary; plus a reasonable charge for engineering and a reasonable profit, not upon the cost to the manufacturer, but in the light of the manufacturer's risk and responsibility; Provided, That the amount of such profit, together with a description of the transaction, has been submitted to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for its review and that the Office of Price Administration has approved or failed to disapprove the amount of such profit within thirty days after receipt of the information.

(ii) If, upon a sale of industrial or commercial air-conditioning or refrigerating equipment by a state government, or any agency or political subdivision thereof, the War Production Board certifies to the Office of Price Administration prior to such sale that upon the basis of a competent engineering appraisal the 5% rate of depreciation, referred to in paragraph (a), does not fairly reflect the actual depreciation of such equipment to the date of such sale, the rate of depreciation fixed by, and set forth in the certification of, the War Production Board as fairly reflecting such actual depreciation shall be used in the determination of the maximum price of such sale instead of the 5% rate of depreciation.

[Subparagraph (41) added by Am. 55, 7 F.R. 9736, effective 11-27-42 and amended by Am. 68, 8 F.R. 1382, effective 2-5-43]

(43) Loom picker sticks and other textile machinery parts made of hickory—(i) Increase in maximum prices. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation, the maximum price calculated under this regulation apart from this subparagraph for any loom picker sticks and any other weaving and spinning hardwood parts made of hickory (such as: jack sticks, sweep sticks, binders, crank or pitman arms, skewers, parallel blocks, dobby sheaves, etc.) shall be increased by the amount provided in whichever of the following subdivisions (a) to (c) is applicable:

(a) Manufacturers who buy picker stick blanks. The amount to be added by any manufacturer who buys the hickory picker stick blanks from which he manufactures the parts involved shall be the combined dollar amount of the increases in the maximum price of the picker stick blanks going into the production of the picker sticks and other textile machinery parts made of hickory being priced, which became effective April 1, 1943 and April 8, 1943. Those increases shall be the amounts by which Order No. 16 under § 1499.18 (c), as amended, of the General Maximum Price Regulation and Amendment No. 151 to Supplementary Regulation No. 14* to the General Maximum Price Regulation increased the maximum price of hickory picker stick blanks sold or delivered by the manufacturer's supplier to the manufacturer, including any increase due to delivery charges that the supplier is permitted to make.

(b) Manufacturers who make their own picker stick blanks. The amount to be added by any manufacturer who makes the hickory picker stick blanks from which he manufactures the parts involved shall be an amount in line with the amounts to be added under (a) by comparable manufacturers who buy their hickory picker stick blanks, specifically authorized in writing by the Office of Price Administration. The manufacturer shall write to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for such authorization.

(c) Sellers other than manufacturers. The amount to be added by any seller other than a manufacturer shall be the dollar amount by which the maximum price of the seller's supplier has been increased by this subparagraph on sales and deliveries to the seller. If the seller's supplier has notified the seller of the amount of such increase in accordance with subdivision (ii) and if the seller has no reason to doubt the validity of such notification, the amount of which the seller has been so notified shall be deemed to be the proper amount to be added under this subdivision (c).

(ii) Notification by sellers who sell to purchasers for resale. Every seller of loom picker sticks and other textile machinery parts made of hickory which are covered by this subparagraph, who sells such items to purchasers who buy for the purpose of resale, shall notify every such purchaser in writing of the amount by which the seller's maximum price to the purchaser has been increased on each such item calculated according to the appropriate provision in subdivision (i).

(44) Bobbins and spools. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation, the maximum manufacturers' prices for bobbins and spools calculated under this regulation apart from this subparagraph shall be increased by 6%.

[Subparagraph (44) added by Am. 105, 8 F.R. 15672, effective 11-22-43]

(45) Machines and parts sold in accordance with Materials Redistribution Program No. 2 of the Petroleum Administrator for War. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation, the maximum price, f. o. b. the present location, of any new machine or part which is sold in accordance with Materials Redistribution Program No. 2 of the Petroleum Administrator for War, issued July 9, 1943, shall be:

The maximum price at which the seller could purchase the same quantity of the machines or parts being sold from his present supplier, f. o. b. his supplier's place of business, plus the cost of transportation (including trucking or cartage from railroad siding) from the supplier's place of business to the present location of the machine or part being sold. This does not include any storage, handling or other charges paid or incurred after the machine or part is received at the seller's plant or warehouse. For the purposes of this subparagraph, if the seller is notified by his supplier of the maximum price and if the seller has no reason to doubt the validity of such notification, the price of which the seller has been notified shall be deemed to be the maximum price.

[Subparagraph (45) added by Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43]

§ 1390.25a Adjustments—(a) Application by a seller—(1) Who may receive an adjustment. The maximum price established by this regulation for a machine or part may be adjusted in the case of an essential supplier of an essential machine or part. An "essential machine or part" is one which contributes to the effective prosecution of the war. An "essential supplier" is one whose output or supply of a machine or part cannot be reasonably expected to be replaced at prices lower than the proposed adjusted maximum price. In addition, any person who has entered into, or proposes to enter into, a war contract (as defined in subparagraph (5)), or a subcontract thereunder, is an essential supplier of an essential machine or part.

(2) When adjustment may be granted—(i) In general. The Office of Price Administration, any regional office, or such other offices as may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate regional office, may adjust the maximum price in the case of an essential supplier of an essential machine or part upon the basis of information submitted by the supplier or of other information. It may make that adjustment whenever it finds that the maximum price of a machine or part is at such a level that (taking into account the cost thereof, the profits position of the supplier and the nature of his business) production or supply of the machine or part is impeded or threatened and that the adjustment would not cause an increase in the cost of living.

(ii) Factors which may be considered. (a) The following factors are relevant to the consideration of whether production or supply of the machine or part is impeded or threatened:

(1) Whether, and by what amount, the maximum price is below or above (i) the total unit costs less selling and administrative expenses properly allocable to the internal management of the business in the case of a manufacturer and (ii) the current price being charged the seller in the case of any other seller.

(2) Whether, and by what amount, the maximum price is above total unit costs.

(3) Whether, and by what amount, the supplier's current over-all profits before income and excess profits taxes are greater or less than his average over-all profits during the normal base period, increased by 7% of the additional capital investment contributed entirely by the supplier, or its stockholders, since the normal base period.

(4) Whether the proposed price is higher than the price prevailing in the industry.

(5) Whether the supplier's sales of the machine or part represent only a very small part of his total sales.

(6) Whether the supplier previously sold the machine or part at a price which was below its total unit costs.

(b) The following factors are relevant to the consideration of whether the adjustment would cause an increase in the cost of living:

(1) Whether the machine or part or a commodity in the production of which it is used is of a type sold to civilian consumers other than industrial consumers.

(2) If such is the case, whether the increase in price allowed by the adjustment would be absorbed prior to sale to a non-industrial consumer.

(3) Whether, if the applicant did not produce or supply the machine or part, his output or supply would be replaced by the same or a substitute commodity only at prices equal to or higher than the proposed adjusted maximum price.

(3) How the seller proceeds in applying for an adjustment—(i) In general. An application for adjustment under this paragraph (a) shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1 and shall be made on a copy of Form OPA 694-178a, set out in paragraph (a) of Appendix E, incorporated as § 1390.36 of this regulation. Copies of this form may be obtained from any district, state or regional office of the Office of Price Administration. If the seller's total sales of all commodities in the calendar year 1942, or in the fiscal year ending in 1942, exceeded $500,000, the application shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. If the seller's total sales of all commodities during that period did not exceed $500,000, the application shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Administration located in the same region in which the seller's business is located.

(ii) Application based on proposed wage or salary increase to be authorized by the National War Labor Board. A seller who believes that the conditions for an adjustment set forth in this paragraph (a), would exist if the National War Labor Board should grant a pending application for wage or salary increase may file an application for adjustment under this paragraph. Applications for adjustment of maximum prices based on wage or salary increases requiring the approval of the National War Labor Board must also comply with Supplementary Order No. 28, which requires, among other things, that an application for adjustment in such case be filed within 15 days after an application for a wage or salary adjustment has been filed with the National War Labor Board, or, in a disputed wage proceeding, within 15 days after the employer receives notification that the National War Labor Board has taken jurisdiction of the dispute.

(4) Prices for deliveries made pending disposition of the application. A seller who has filed an application under this paragraph (a) may contract or agree that deliveries made during the pendency of the application shall be at a specific price which is higher than the existing maximum price which the seller wants to have adjusted. However, no payment in excess of that existing maximum price may be received until final disposition is made of the application. Where the application is disposed of by an order issued under this section, the price received for deliveries made subsequent to the filing of the application may not exceed the maximum price as determined by the Office of Price Administration. Where the application is disposed of by an amendment of general applicability, payment in excess of the maximum price in effect at the time of delivery may be made for deliveries made pending disposition of the application, only as expressly authorized by order of the Price Administrator.

[Above paragraph amended by Am. 116, effective 5-8-44]

A seller who wishes to enter into such an arrangement must specifically state to the buyer the following:

(i) The maximum price for the machine or part;

(ii) The fact that an appropriate application for an adjustment of that maximum price has been filed with the Office of Price Administration; and

(iii) The fact that the specific price quoted by the seller is subject to the approval of the Office of Price Administration.

(5) Definitions—(i) Normal base period. The term "normal base period" means the period 1936-1939. If the seller shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Office of Price Administration either (a) that his entire industry was operating during the greater part of such period at an unusually depressed level or (b) that because of unusual conditions prevailing during that period, the seller was operating during that period at an unusually depressed level in comparison to other sellers in the industry and in addition that some other period prior to January 1, 1941, represents a proper "normal base period", such other period may be considered. The mere fact that the rate of production or supply has increased since 1936-1939 will not be deemed evidence that the seller was operating at an "unusually depressed level" during that period. If the seller was not in business prior to January 1, 1941, he shall state that fact in his application.

(ii) Over-all profits. The term "over-all profits" means net profit resulting from the operation of all divisions of the seller, before the creation of any reserves, except ordinary reserves for depreciation and bad debts, and before income and excess profit taxes. In the case of a subsidiary wholly owned by a parent corporation, the term "over-all profits" means the consolidated net profit before the creation of any reserves, except ordinary reserves for depreciation and bad debts, and before income and excess profit taxes.

(iii) Subcontract. The term "subcontract" means any purchase, order or agreement to perform all or any part of the work, or to make or furnish any commodity, required for the performance of another contract or subcontract.

(iv) Total unit costs. (a) In the case of a manufacturer, the term "total unit costs" means the direct unit cost of labor, materials, and subcontracted services, plus a proportion of factory overhead, administrative and other expenses, based on actual operating experience, properly allocable to the production of the machine or part, but does not include provisions for income or excess profits taxes. In evaluating total unit costs, the Office of Price Administration will determine whether the allocation of factory overhead, administrative and other expenses is based on a representative period of continuous, normal production.

(b) In the case of a seller, other than a manufacturer, the term "total unit costs" means the current price the seller is paying for the machine or part plus the handling and administrative expense, normally applicable to the handling of the commodity, properly allocable to the seller's total cost of doing business, but does not include provisions for income or excess profits taxes. In evaluating total unit costs, the Office of Price Administration will determine whether the allocation of administrative and other expenses is based on a representative period of continuous, normal production.

(v) War contract. The term "war contract" means any contract with the United States, or any agency thereof, or with the government, or any agency thereof, of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States, under the terms of the Lend-Lease Act, for the sale of a machine or part purchased (a) for the ultimate use of the armed forces of the United States or for lend-lease purposes, or (b) by any government (or agency thereof) of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Lend-Lease Act, or (c) for use in the production or manufacture of any commodity described in (a) or (b).

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 92, 8 F.R. 8544, effective 6-25-43]

(b) Application by a machinery service supplier. Paragraph (a) applies, insofar as practicable, to adjustments of the maximum prices of machinery services and to application for such adjustments. However, the procedure to be followed in applying for an adjustment differs in the following respects:

(1) The application for adjustment shall be made on Form OPA694-178B, set out in paragraph (b) of Appendix E. Copies of this form may be obtained from any district, state or regional office of the Office of Price Administration.

(2) If the supplier's total sales of machinery services for the calendar year 1942, or for the fiscal year ending in 1942, exceeded $75,000, the application shall be filed in Washington, D. C. If the supplier's total sales of machinery services for that period did not exceed $75,000 the application shall be filed with the nearest regional office of the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Application by a seller or a machinery service supplier based upon an appropriate decrease of other prices—(1) Who may receive an adjustment under this paragraph. Adjustments under this paragraph will be granted only in the case of an essential supplier of an essential machine or part or an essential supplier of an essential machinery service. The meaning of these terms is explained in paragraph (a) (1) of this section.

(2) When adjustment may be granted. The Office of Price Administration, any regional office, or such other offices as may be authorized by order issued by the appropriate regional office, may make an adjustment of the maximum price in any case in which:

(i) The seller or supplier agrees to make and (simultaneously with any increase in the maximum price that may be authorized under this paragraph (c)) makes a reduction in the selling price of products or services which will equal or exceed the total dollar amount of the adjustment granted under this paragraph; and

(ii) One of the following conditions is met:

(a) The increases and decreases in price are made for the purpose of restoring normal price relationships;

(b) The increases and decreases in price are effected by changes in the prices charged different classes of purchasers for the same commodity or service; or

(c) The increases and decreases in price are made for the purpose of changing the seller's or supplier's price list-discount structure.

An adjustment will not be granted under this paragraph where the increases in price are to be made to civilian purchasers and the decreases in price are to be made to government purchasers.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Am. 116, effective 5-8-44]

(3) What an application under this paragraph must show. An application for price adjustment under this paragraph (c) shall contain information indicating that the applicant is an essential supplier of an essential machine or part or an essential supplier of an essential machinery service and that if the proposed adjustment is granted, the gross dollar amount of sales of the machines or parts or machinery services affected by the adjustment will not be greater than it would have been in the absence of the adjustment. In any case where such an adjustment is granted, the Office of Price Administration will require appropriate reports relating to the commodities or services affected.

(4) How the seller or supplier proceeds in applying for an adjustment. An application for adjustment under this paragraph (c) shall be filed in accordance with Revised Procedural Regulation No. 1. If the seller's total sales for the calendar year 1942, or for the fiscal year ending in 1942, exceeded $500,000, the application shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. If the seller's total sales during that period did not exceed $500,000, the application shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Administration located in the same region in which the seller's business is located. If the supplier's total sales of machinery services for the calendar year 1942, or for the fiscal year ending in 1942, exceeded $75,000, the application shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. If the supplier's total sales of machinery services during that period did not exceed $75,000, the application shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Administration located in the same region in which the supplier's business is located.

[Paragraph (c) amended by Am. 92, 8 F.R. 8544, effective 6-25-43]

(d) Application by a seller or a machinery service supplier under a combination of both paragraphs (a) and (c) or paragraphs (b) and (c). A seller or a machinery service supplier who desires to apply for an adjustment under paragraph (c) may, at the time he applies under that paragraph, also apply under paragraphs (a) or (b), if the facts of his case entitle him to do so. In such case, the office considering his application will give the adjustment available under paragraphs (a) or (b) before applying paragraph (c).

[Paragraph (d) amended by Am. 92]

(e) No application for adjustment filed after April 9, 1943, under Procedural Regulation No. 6 [9] with respect to commodities and services covered by this regulation will be granted.

[Paragraph (e) amended by Am. 80, 8 F.R. 4788, effective 4-10-43]

(f) Amendment of general applicability. Where the Price Administrator deems it appropriate, he may grant the relief which he deems necessary by issuing an amendment of general applicability.

[§ 1390.25a added by Am. 78, 8 F.R. 4516, effective 4-10-43]

§ 1390.26 Records and additional or substituted reports—(a) Records. Persons subject to this regulation shall keep available for inspection by representatives of the Office of Price Administration records of the following:

(1) By the manufacturer. Records of (i) each sale, lease or delivery of a machine or part after the effective date of this regulation, showing the name of the person buying, leasing or receiving such machine or part, the date of the transaction, an identification of the machine or part providing a reference to a price list or to production records, and the net price or rental; (ii) price-determining methods, labor rates, material prices, overhead rates and machine hour rates in effect on October 1, 1941, and (iii) detailed cost-estimate sheets and other data showing the calculations of prices and rentals on transactions covered by this regulation, for which there was no list price or rental in effect on October 1, 1941, or for which no list price or rental is hereafter established.

(2) By the machinery service supplier. Records of all machinery services performed after the effective date of this regulation, showing the name of the person for whom such services were performed, the date of the transaction, identification of the services providing a reference to a price list or to production records, and the net charge therefor, and, in addition, records showing as precisely as possible the basis upon which maximum charges for machinery services have been and are determined.

(3) By a lessor other than the manufacturer. Records of each lease or delivery of a machine or part after the effective date of this regulation, showing the name of the person leasing or receiving such machine or part, the date of the transaction, the net rental and, in addition, records showing as precisely as possible the basis upon which maximum rentals for machines and parts have been and are determined.

(4) By a seller other than the manufacturer. Records of the kind such seller has customarily kept, relating to the prices of machines and parts sold after the effective date of this regulation, and, in addition, records showing as precisely as possible the basis upon which maximum prices for machines and parts have been and are determined.

(b) Additional or substituted records and reports. Every person subject to this regulation shall keep such other records and submit such other reports, including periodic financial statements, as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require in writing, either in addition to or in substitution for records and reports herein required.

(c) Reports on products brought under this regulation. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation, whenever the sale or rental of any products or services are brought within the scope of this regulation, after the effective date thereof by amendment or otherwise, the reports required by this regulation, in § 1390.5 (b) shall be filed within thirty days after the effective date of such amendment, and the reports provided for in § 1390.10 (b) may be filed within thirty days after such effective date.

[Paragraph (c) added by Am. 54, 7 F.R. 9729, effective 11-25-42]

§ 1390.26a Reports of additions to stock and offering and selling prices of certain second-hand machines and parts—(a) Who shall file. Reports of additions to stock and offering and selling prices of the second-hand machines and parts listed in the form set forth in Appendix F must be filed by every person engaged in the business of selling second-hand machines or parts, either on his own behalf or on behalf of another. For example, these reports must be filed by agents, auctioneers, brokers and dealers, and machinery manufacturers who sell second-hand machines or parts.

(b) Method of filing. These reports shall be filed on Form OPA-2:10:P1 Revised—Form WPB-2574—(Used Equipment and Machinery Inventory and Sales Report Form) which is set forth in Appendix F of this regulation. Copies of this form may be obtained from any War Production Board District Office. Within five days after the acquisition of such a second-hand machine or part by a person required to report under this section, that person shall file three copies of the information required by items 1 to 16 of the form with the District Office of the War Production Board which is located in the district in which his place of business is located. Within five days after the sale of a second-hand machine or part listed in Appendix F by a person required to report under this section, that person shall file a copy of all the information required by the form with the District Office of the War Production Board which is located in the district in which the seller's place of business is located.

(c) Records of information filed. Every person required to file reports under this section shall keep a complete and accurate record of the information contained in these reports for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect.

§ 1390.26b Notification of auction sales. Every auctioneer shall file a written notice of every public or private auction sale of second-hand machines or parts at least one week before the sale. This notice shall be sent to the District Office of the Office of Price Administration which is located in the district in which the auction is to be held. The notice shall include the place, date and time of the sale, the classes and types of machines and parts that are to be sold, and a copy of any announcement of the sale.

[§§ 1390.26a and 1390.26b added by Am. 114, 9 F.R. 4020, effective 4-15-44]

§ 1390.27 Sales slips and receipts. Any person subject to this regulation, who has regularly furnished customers with invoices, sales slips, receipts or similar documents shall continue to do so. Every person subject to this regulation shall, in any case, upon request of the customer, give such customer a signed receipt showing the date of the transaction, an identification of the machine or part sold or leased or of the machinery service performed, and the price, rental or charge therefor.

§ 1390.28 Transfer of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any business are sold or otherwise transferred after October 1, 1941, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same type of machines or parts or to perform the same type of machinery services, in the same competitive area and in an establishment separate from any establishment which he may previously have owned or operated, the transferee shall be subject to the same maximum prices as those to which his transferor would have been subject under this regulation if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor in such cases shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the provisions of this regulation.

§ 1390.29 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages or suspension of licenses provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this regulation or any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest District, State or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1390.29a Licensing—(a) License granted. The licensing provisions of Licensing Order No. 1,[9] licensing all persons who make sales under price control, are applicable to all sellers subject to this regulation. A seller's license may be suspended for violations of the license or of one or more applicable price schedules or regulations. A person whose license is suspended may not, during the period of suspension, make any sale for which his license has been suspended.

(b) Registration of certain sellers of second-hand machines or parts. Every person engaged in the business of selling second-hand machines or parts, either on his own behalf or on behalf of another, must register with the Office of Price Administration in accordance with the provisions of Licensing Order No. 3.[10]

[§ 1390.29a added by Am. 37, 7 F.R. 9001, effective 11-9-42 and amended by Supplementary Order 72, 8 F.R. 13244, effective 10-1-43; and Am. 114, 9 F.R. 4020, effective 4-15-44]

§ 1390.30 Definitions. (a) When used in this regulation, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person engaged in one or more operations in the fabrication, processing or assembly of a machine or part, and includes subcontractors as well as prime contractors.

(3) "Machinery service supplier" means any person engaged in the performance of a machinery service, and includes subcontractors as well as prime contractors.

(4) "Price" means any consideration in connection with a sale, lease, exchange or other transfer of a machine or part or of a machinery service, and includes prices, rentals, rates, and charges.

(5) "Parts and subassemblies" includes all metallic and nonmetallic component parts, adjuncts, and accessories of products set forth in Appendix A, or in Appendix B, which have been machined or fabricated. The term does not include castings as sold by the foundry, mill steel, raw, unfinished, or scrap materials, or any other materials in such form as to permit their use in the manufacture of products other than those set forth in Appendix A or Appendix B.

(6) "War procurement agency" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used in this regulation.

§ 1390.31 Effective date. This regulation (§§ 1390.1 to 1390.34, inclusive), shall become effective July 22, 1942, except that this regulation shall not apply to sales or deliveries of electric storage batteries until November 7, 1942. [MPR 136, as amended, originally issued June 30, 1942.]

[§ 1390.31 amended by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 5665, effective 7-22-42; Am. 13, 7 F.R. 6937, effective 9-1-42; Am. 28, 7 F.R. 7913, effective 10-1-42; and correction to Am. 31, 7 F.R. 8433]

§ 1390.32 Appendix A: Machines and parts to which the October 1, 1941, date is applicable—(a) Prime movers, etc.

Diesel engines, except aircraft diesel engines.
Gas engines and gas generators.
Gasoline and kerosene engines for marine, tractor, railway, and stationary use (not including portable outboard motors).
Hydraulic turbines and hydraulic turbine governors.
Steam engines and steam turbines.

(b) Industrial and marine power apparatus.

Boilers, industrial and marine.
Oil burners, industrial and marine (burning not less than No. 6 oil).
Power operated industrial and marine soot blowers and tube cleaners.
Stokers, industrial and marine (1,200 lbs. per hour or more).

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 74, 8 F.R. 4331, effective 4-8-43]

(c) Processing machinery and equipment.

Cement-making machinery.
Ceramics machinery.
Chemical process machinery.
Concrete products machinery and equipment.
Cotton-ginning machinery.
Die-casting machinery.
Electroplating and hot-dip metal coating equipment, including preparatory and finishing equipment used in connection with metal coating processes.
Floor surfacing and floor maintenance machinery (industrial).
Food and beverage machinery, including baking, canning, bottling, confectionery, brewing, grain-milling, meat-packing, edible oil, sugar and dairy machinery and equipment (except dairy farm equipment).
Foundry machinery (including ladles not over 40 ton capacity).
Glass-making machinery.
Hat-making machinery.
Laundry, dry-cleaning, and clothes pressing machinery (except domestic).
Leather-working machinery.

Lighting equipment, electrical:
Airports.
Airways.
Commercial.
Floodlighting.
Industrial.
Marine.
Seadromes.
Street and highway.
Line material, trolley.
Magnetos.
Magnets, lifting, industrial.
Metals and alloys, special electrical (except steel with less than 6% alloy content) in any fabricated form used for electrical resistance, magnetic or glass sealing purposes, including special contact alloys and special coated iron wire.
Motors.
Motor generator sets.
Outlets, metallic.
Panelboards.
Rectifiers, power, industrial.
Regulators, feeder voltage.
Searchlights, except military searchlights.
Signalling apparatus, except railway signals.
Substations, unit.
Switchboxes, metallic.
Switches, knife and enclosed.
Switchgear and switchgear accessories.
Telegraph apparatus.
Telephone apparatus, including sound powered telephone and non-electronic intercommunicating telephone equipment.
Transformers including specialty transformers, except electronic transformers.
Turbine generator sets.
Welding apparatus and supplies, electrical.
Wiring devices.

[Paragraph (e) amended by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 5665, effective 7-22-42; Am. 25, 7 F.R. 7912, effective 10-9-42; Am. 66, 8 F.R. 534, effective 1-18-43; Am. 67, 8 F.R. 1058, effective 1-27-43; and Am. 101, 8 F.R. 14617, effective 11-1-43]

(f) Railroad equipment (for steam and electric railroads and surface, elevated, and underground railways).

Freight cars (including all types and sizes of flanged wheel mining and industrial cars).
Passenger cars.
Locomotives and tenders (including mining and industrial).
Car and locomotive parts and specialties, including:
Axles.
Bearings, truck side.
Boilers, fireboxes, front ends, and cabs, fittings, fixtures, devices or appliances mounted thereon.
Brakes and brake gear.
Coupler devices or attachments.
Devices and appliances mounted on locomotives for treatment, distribution, and control of water, fuel, steam, sand, and electricity.
Doors and fixtures (except those subject to Revised Price Schedule No. 40—Builders' Hardware and Insect Screen Cloth [11]).
Draft gears, buffers, and attachments.
Driving, foundation, and running gear.
Heating, lighting, ventilating, and air conditioning equipment.
Journal boxes, assembled.
Lubricating devices.
Miscellaneous fittings, fixtures, specialties, devices or appliances designed specifically for use on cars or locomotives (not including artillery or other exclusively military or naval equipment designed for mounting on cars or locomotives).
Safety appliances and warning devices.

[11] 7 F.R. 1260, 2132, 8383, 8948; 8 F.R. 7257; 9 F.R. 1319.

Car and locomotive parts, etc.—Continued.
Sides, roofs, ends, running boards, brake steps.
Spring rigging, snubbers, shock absorbers.
Steel tires.
Train control apparatus.
Trucks, complete.
Underframes.
Wheels, iron and steel.
Machines, tools, devices, and appliances designed specifically for the installation, operation, maintenance, and protection of tracks, yards, signals, rolling stock, and motive power.
Signal equipment, including highway crossing signals.
Stationary plants for handling fuel, sand, water, and cinders.

[Paragraph (f) amended by Am. 74, 8 F.R. 4331, effective 4-8-43 and Am. 116, effective 5-8-44]

(g) Auxiliary equipment.

Air-conditioning equipment (25 tons' capacity or over).
Dust collecting equipment, industrial.
Heat exchange equipment, industrial.
Industrial furnaces and ovens (not including space heating furnaces and stoves, blast furnaces, open hearth furnaces, Bessemer converters, soaking pits, coke ovens, and industrial furnaces used solely for the manufacture of pig iron or steel).
Lubricating systems and devices, industrial.
Material handling equipment (including skid platforms; cars and trucks except those equipped with flanged wheels, racks except shelving and stationary storage racks, etc.).
Metal marking and numbering machines.
Refrigerating equipment (25 h. p. or over).
Water softening and purifying equipment, industrial.

[Paragraph (g) amended by Am. 54, 7 F.R. 9729, effective 11-25-42; Am. 74, 8 F.R. 4331, effective 4-8-43; and Am. 77, 8 F.R. 4515, effective 4-12-43]

(h) Miscellaneous.

Elevators and conveyors.
Fans and blowers (including domestic hot air furnace fans), except pedestal, portable, and ceiling household and office fans.
Gas welding and cutting equipment, welding rods, welding wire, electrodes, and supplies.
Gyroscopes.
Industrial power-operating devices for applying protective coatings or for the application of metals by spraying methods.
Mechanical instruments for measuring, testing, recording, or indicating, including aircraft, marine, scientific, laboratory, and precision instruments (not including special gages manufactured pursuant to the customer's drawings, carpenters' tools, or surgical, optical, and dental instruments).
Portable heating, melting, burning, and thawing equipment for industrial and transportation purposes (not including mechanic's fire pots and blow torches).
Portable power driven tools, which in normal use are held or guided by hand and not customarily attached to a permanent support.
Power driven tools, primarily designed for use on a bench and for the working of wood, plastics, etc. (except bench tools especially designed for metal working which are subject to Revised Price Schedule No. 67).
Pumps and compressors, except automotive, hand operated, and farm pumps.
Surveying and drafting instruments, and engineering reproduction equipment (not including school, art and office supplies).
Valves, automatic.
Weighing scales, industrial and platform.

[Paragraph (h) amended by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 5665, effective 7-22-42; Am. 3, 7 F.R. 6425, effective 8-19-42; Am. 54, 7 F.R. 9729, effective 11-25-42; Am. 65, 8 F.R. 369, effective 1-13-43; Am. 73, 8 F.R. 4331, effective 4-8-43; and Am. 101, 8 F.R. 14617, effective 11-1-43]

(i) Miscellaneous parts and subassemblies, etc.

Antifriction bearings, except automotive.
Bi-metallic thermal strips, fabricated.
Chains, sprocket, and roller and silent, except automotive.
Galvanometer and pyrometer movements.
Industrial clockwork systems used in connection with mechanical instruments.
Industrial power transmission equipment belt tighteners and shifters, clutches, couplings and collars, hangers and brackets, motor bases, pillow blocks and bearing housings, pulleys and sheaves, universal joints, variable-speed drives.
Springs for mechanical instruments set forth in paragraph (h) hereof.

[Paragraph (i) amended by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 5665, effective 7-22-42; Am. 25, 7 F.R. 7912, effective 10-9-42; Am. 54, 7 F.R. 9729, effective 11-25-42; and Am. 91, 8 F.R. 8275, effective 6-21-43]

(j) Parts and subassemblies of machine tools or of any of the items set forth in paragraphs (a) to (i), inclusive, of this Appendix A when manufactured by the manufacturer of the complete item. (This paragraph applies to any such part or subassembly, even when it is of a type listed in paragraph (c) of § 1390.33, and even though it may in some cases be incorporated in items other than those set forth in paragraphs (a) through (i) inclusive of this Appendix A).

[Paragraph (j) amended by Am. 54, 7 F.R. 9729, effective 11-25-42 and Am. 106, 8 F.R. 16132, effective 12-1-43]

(k) Machine tools (except when subject to Revised Price Schedule No. 1 [12] or Revised Price Schedule No. 67.[13]

[Paragraph (k) added by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 5665, effective 7-22-42]

(l) Machines and parts for which October 15, 1941, is the base date. Gears, pinions, sprockets, and speed reducers, including gear motors and other motorized speed reducers, and variable speed gear drives, but not including the following: (1) automotive or tractor transmissions, transfer cases, power take-offs, differentials, or axle assemblies; (2) any items designed for use in private or commercial motor vehicles or any items specially designed for use in vehicles, aircraft, or equipment used primarily for military purposes; (3) any items sold or delivered pursuant to contracts entered into by the Army, Navy, Defense Plant Corporation, Maritime Commission, Panama Canal, Procurement Division of the Treasury, or any other agency of the United States prior to February 18, 1942; (4) any items covered in paragraph (j) of this section.

[Paragraph (l) added by Amendment 62, 7 F.R. 10230, effective 12-11-42]

[12] Superseded by Maximum Price Regulation No. 1 (8 F.R. 10116, 13104). Establishes maximum prices for second-hand machine tools and extras. Revised Price Schedule No. 67 (7 F.R. 1337, 2000, 2105, 2472, 2473, 2680, 2996, 3445, 3820, 4176, 5513, 5967, 7239, 7834, 8928, 8948, 9039, 9052, 9053, 11074) establishes maximum prices for new machine tools and standard extras. Both of these Regulations remain in effect and are not superseded by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 136 as amended. Chucks, mandrels, collets and machine tool attachments (see Appendix B, § 1390.33) sold by the machine tool manufacturer as standard extras are subject to Revised Price Schedule No. 67; in all other cases they are subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 136 as amended. Parts, subassemblies, attachments and accessories, other than standard extras, sold by a subcontractor to a machine-tool manufacturer are subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 136 as amended. Rentals of machine tools and the service of repairing and rebuilding machine tools are subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 136 as amended.

§ 1390.33 Appendix B: Machines and parts to which the March 31, 1942, date is applicable. (a) Any part or subassembly of any item mentioned in Appendix A, except that when the manufacturer also manufactures one or more complete items mentioned in Appendix A and the part or subassembly in question is also in some cases used as a component of such complete item, then the part or subassembly is not included within this section but is included within Appendix A. This paragraph does not include any part or subassembly which is itself covered in Appendix A or which is mentioned in Appendix C.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Am. 25, 7 F.R. 7912, effective 10-9-42]

(b) Any part or subassembly of any item listed in this Appendix B. Also, any industrial machinery, or part or subassembly of any industrial machinery, which is not listed in Appendices A or B. "Industrial machinery" means any machinery or equipment used in the extraction, production or processing of commodities. The term "industrial machinery" does not include farm equipment covered by Maximum Price Regulation 246 [13]—Manufacturers' and Wholesale Prices for Farm Equipment, or any product excluded from the coverage of this regulation by Appendix C.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 5665, effective 7-22-42 and Am. 107, 9 F.R. 1523, effective 2-11-44]

(c) Miscellaneous.

Automotive testing and maintenance equipment, mechanical and electrical (not including any portable tools, machine or hand tools, or mechanical or electrical instruments set forth in § 1390.32).
Battery chargers (except motor generator sets).
Belting, leather.
Blocks and sheaves, tackle.
Brushes, industrial power-driven.
Bushings, porcelain, glass and steatite for electrical uses.
Casters, except those subject to Appendix A of this regulation.
Chain, chain fittings and assemblies (except jewelry chains subject to Maximum Price Regulation 188, cast manganese steel chain subject to Maximum Price Regulation 235, and power transmission chains covered by Appendix A of this regulation).
Cutting tools, including the following illustrative list:
Augers, machine.
Bits, machine.
Blades, hacksaw—all types.
Blades, power driven saw.
Blades, machine, shear, etc.
Broaches.
Chasers.
Chisels, machine.
Counterbores.
Countersinks, machine.

[13] 8 F.R. 17184.

Cutting tools, etc.—Continued.
Cutters, machine.
Dies, cutting and threading.
Drills, twist.
Dressers, abrasive wheel (except diamond dressers).
Extractors.
Files, rasps and burrs.
Form tools.
Hobs.
Knives, machine.
Knurling tools.
Punches, machine.
Reamers.
Rules, creasing, cutting, perforating.
Scraper blades, machine.
Taps.
Tips, tool, tungsten carbide, stellite, etc.
Dies, jigs and fixtures (except when the die is sold or a separate charge is made therefor in connection with the sale of the product in the production of which it is used and the maximum price established for the product includes the price for such die).
Earth and rock anchors.
Electrical wire, cable and cable accessories (except when subject to Revised Price Schedule No. 82, as amended).[14]
Electronic apparatus and parts (regardless of being referred to in Appendix A) for industrial, commercial or government uses, including but not limited to radar and radio transmitting and receiving equipment, other than domestic receivers and other apparatus covered by Revised Price Schedules No. 83 [15] and No. 84.[15] Power Rectifiers are excluded from this classification, being classified under Appendix A.
Fixed capacitors of the type and size used for military radio and radar equipment (these have an April 1, 1943 base date).
Gaskets and packing, except automotive.
Gears, pinions, sprockets and speed reducers specially designed for use in vehicles, aircraft or equipment used primarily for military purposes (except automotive gears, and automotive or tractor transmissions, transfer cases, power take-offs, differentials and axle assemblies).
Glass products, technical, scientific and industrial:
Electrical glassware:
Bulbs (incandescent, fluorescent, indicator, auto lamp, radio, television, X-ray, radar, power tube).
Flares (glass base portion for lighting, radio, television, radar, power tube).
Tubing (electrical, fluorescent).
Bushings.
Insulators.
Coil forms.
Capacitors.
Resistor tubes.
Fuse plugs.
Signal glassware:
Battery jars.
Fresnels.
Roundels.
Front glasses.
Lenses.
Airplane running light.
Obstruction light.
Explosion resisting globe.
Optical ware (color and light filters).
Laboratory and pharmaceutical glassware:
Chemical ware.
Instrument tubing.

[14] 7 F.R. 1358, 2133, 7034, 8948; 8 F.R. 5810, 10656, 17296; 9 F.R. 3821, 2858, 3387.
[15] 7 F.R. 1360, 2000, 2132, 2302, 3125, 3820, 8948.
[16] 7 F.R. 1362, 2000, 2132, 2169, 2303, 2512, 2543, 3821, 6771, 7902, 8948; 8 F.R. 3703, 5632, 15523.

Laboratory apparatus tubing.
Apparatus ware.
Pharmaceutical ware.
Industrial glassware:
Glass bulbs.
Flat gauge glasses.
Cylinders.
Gauge cup and oil cup glasses.
Rods, tubing and piping.
Meter and relay covers.
Miscellaneous industrial glassware (that is to be further fabricated by others, or that is to be incorporated as a component part of an industrial product).
Optical glass:
Rough glass blanks for optical, ophthalmic and scientific use.
Governors, engine.
Ground steel stock for punches, dies, jigs, fixtures, etc.
Hand-operated tools, especially designed for manufacture, repair, or maintenance of aircraft, military vehicles or other predominantly military equipment.
Insulators, porcelain, glass and steatite for electrical uses.
Inter-communicating systems, electronic.
Jacks and jack screws, manually operated.
Machine and machine tool attachments and accessories (except when subject to Maximum Price Regulation 1 or Revised Price Schedule No. 67). The term machine and machine tool attachments and accessories means all devices used with, but not an integral part of, machines or machine tools and includes the following illustrative list:
Adapters.
Arbors.
Blocks, machine tool.
Brakes, spindle.
Centers, bench.
Centers, lathe.
Chucks, all types.
Clamps.
Collets.
Cutter heads.
Die heads.
Die sets.
Dogs, work driving.
Edges, straight.
Electric etchers and de-magnetisers.
Fingers, feeding.
Glasses, level.
Grinders.
Guides, adjustable.
Heads, universal dividing.
Holders, tool.
Holders, work.
Mandrels, all types.
Plates, angle.
Plates, bench.
Plates, brick liner.
Plates, face.
Plates, lapping.
Plates, surface.
Plates, wearing.
Posts, tool.
Saw accessories (sets, swages, guides, clamps, bracing tools).
Sockets.
Stops, machine.
Templates.
Wheels, buffing and polishing (except as covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 816)[17].
Manufacturers' optical processing machinery, other than optical RX laboratory machinery subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 188[18]—Manufacturers' Maximum Prices for Specified Building Materials and Consumers' Goods Other Than Apparel.
Marine equipment:
Anchors (except those subject to Revised Price Schedule 41 and Maximum Price Regulation 351).
Boat hooks without handles.
Buoys, pontoons and rafts, metallic.
Capstans.
Chocks.
Cleats.
Controls, bulkhead and throttle.
Deck and man-hole plates, machined.
Fog horns and whistles, manually operated.
Gooseneck and boom bands.
Lights, oil.
Marlin spikes and belaying pins, metal.
Mooring and riding bitts.
Port lights.
Pumps, marine, manually operated.
Reels, hawser, manually operated.
Rope guides and leaders.
Rowlocks.
Shackles.
Snaps.
Sockets.
Steering apparatus, manually operated.
Ventilators.
Metal hose and tubing, flexible (except as covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 149—Mechanical Rubber Goods).
Military searchlights, completely assembled.
Molds and patterns (except when the mold or pattern is sold or a separate charge is made therefor in connection with the sale of the product in production of which it is used and the maximum price established for the product includes the price for such mold or pattern).
Neon indicator attachments.
New automotive trucks, motorcycles, house and truck trailers, and busses, originally designed for use as private or commercial motor vehicles, which are manufactured on or after August 12, 1943, when sold by any person. The foregoing does not include automotive trucks, motorcycles, trailers and busses specially designed for use as military vehicles, nor does it include cars and trucks covered by paragraph (g) of Appendix A as "Material Handling Equipment".
Open tanks and vessels (metal) except field erected tanks or vessels; domestic fuel oil storage tanks; products commonly known as plumbing fixtures, such as flush tanks and laundry trays; products commonly known as pans and cans, such as pails, buckets, non-returnable shipping containers, refuse receptacles, drip receivers, and waste receivers).
Pipe and tube tools, manually operated, including beading, belling, bending, cleaning, cutting, expanding and flaring, and wrenches for operating.
Pole line hardware and line construction specialties.
Power cylinders, hydraulic, pneumatic, and hydro-pneumatic.
Pressure tanks (metal) (except field erected tanks; high pressure cylinders not over 1,000 lbs. water capacity for shipping or storing liquids or gases at pressures up to 3,000 lbs. per square inch; range boilers or expansion tanks not over 192 gal. capacity; made of metal not over 12 BWG gauge).
Public address apparatus.
Replacement units and assemblies for mechanical refrigerators having a refrigerated volume of 16 cubic feet or less.
Rope fittings, manila and wire.
Screw machine products (this shall not include bolts, nuts, screws, and rivets, as defined in Maximum Price Regulation No. 147.[19] The sales of these are subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 147 or the General Maximum Price Regulation, depending upon the type of seller).
Sharpening and filing equipment.
Siren blowers.
Special gages manufactured pursuant to the customer's drawings (including special purpose plug, ring, snap, height, length, and location gages, but not general purpose graduated or adjustable gages).
Specially designed tools (except those subject to Appendix A of this regulation).
Springs (except springs subject to Appendix A of this regulation, and furniture and bed springs subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 188, Maximum Price Regulation No. 213,[20] and Maximum Price Regulation No. 380).[21]
Stampings, metal (except forgings, nonferrous mill products, wire goods, steel mill products, or any product for which the manufacturer has issued a catalog or price list). The term "metal stampings" means stamped or pressed metal products which are mechanically processed by the use of dies and upon which further processing or finishing operations may or may not have been performed, when sold unassembled. A metal stamping may consist of two or more pieces which have been permanently joined by methods such as brazing, welding, soldering or riveting.
Steam cleaning equipment, degreasing equipment, and parts washing and cleaning equipment.
Testing sets for electronic equipment.
Tools, manually operated, for the cutting, forming, and punching of metals.
Turnbuckles.
Vises, all types; vise mounts, stands and supports.
Wheels (except those specially designed for military use and those subject to Appendix A of this regulation, Revised Price Schedule No. 6, Maximum Price Regulation No. 246,[22] and Maximum Price Regulation No. 452[23]).
Winches and windlasses, manually operated.
X-ray apparatus.
X-ray and electro-therapeutic apparatus and supplies.

§ 1390.34 Appendix C: Illustrative list of products not covered by Maximum Price Regulation No. 136, as amended.

(NOTE: Maximum prices for the following products are established by the General Maximum Price Regulation or by other price schedules, regulations, or orders issued by the Office of Price Administration)

Abrasive wheels.
Aircraft gasoline and diesel engines.
Bolts, nuts, screws, and rivets (as defined in Maximum Price Regulation No. 147).
Carpenter's tools.
Castings, ferrous and non-ferrous, as sold by the foundry, whether rough or machined.
Christmas tree lighting sets.
Dairy farm equipment.
Diamond dies.
Domestic electrical appliances (except fans and blowers).
Domestic furnaces.
Domestic laundry, dry-cleaning, and clothes pressing machinery.
Domestic radios and phonographs.
Domestic stokers.
Drill pipe, casing and tubing.
Dry batteries.
Electrical control devices used for domestic installations.
Farm pumps.
Flashlights.
Frames, bolsters, couplers, and yokes (the maximum prices of which are established by Revised Price Schedule No. 41—Steel Castings.[24]
[Item revoked by Am. 116, effective 5-8-44]
Hand tools, except those listed in Appendices A and B.
Hand-operated pumps (except marine pumps).
Household machines.
Incandescent and fluorescent bulbs and tubes.
Instrument jewel bearings.
Iron and steel products (as defined in Revised Price Schedule No. 6.[25]
Manual valves.
Mechanical rubber goods (the maximum prices of which are established by Maximum Price Regulation No. 149[26]).
Non-ferrous bearings and bushings.
Non-ferrous forgings.
Office machines.
Parts and subassemblies sold for use in farm equipment as defined in § 1361.9 (a) (3) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 133—Retail Prices for Farm Equipment.
Photographic equipment.
Portable, pedestal, and ceiling household and office fans.
Portable lamps.
Radio receiving set and phonograph parts not primarily designed for commercial, police, or military use, or for use in the Navy or Merchant Marine (See Revised Price Schedule No. 84—Radio Receiver and Phonograph Parts).
Reducing bushings.
[Item revoked by Am. 116, effective 5-8-44]
Rubber belts and belting.
Surgical, optical, and dental instruments.
Washers.
Watches and clocks (except industrial clockwork systems used in connection with mechanical instruments.)

[§ 1390.34 amended by Am. 1, 7 F.R. 5665, effective 7-22-42; Am. 15, 7 F.R. 7010, effective, 9-9-42; Am. 25, 7 F.R. 7912, effective 10-9-42; Am. 66, 8 F.R. 134, effective 1-18-43; Am. 75, 8 F.R. 4331, effective 4-8-43; Am. 84, 8 F.R. 6359, effective 5-19-43; Am. 95, 8 F.R. 9520, effective 7-23-43; Am. 102, 8 F.R. 14619, effective 11-1-43; Am. 107, 9 F.R. 1523, effective 2-11-44 and Am. 116, effective 5-8-44]

[NOTE: The items listed in this table are not fully described. Their scope is to be ascertained from Appendix A and Appendix B. Items listed in this table are listed in the same order as they appear in Appendix A and Appendix B. The maximum price of items not listed in this table may not be ascertained by the depreciation method.]

Items in Appendix A

Machine or part	Depreciation rate per annum (percent)
(a) Prime movers, etc.:
Diesel engines (up to 400 RPM)	7½
Diesel engines (above 400 RPM)	10
Gas engines and gas generators	10
Gasoline and kerosene engines	10
Hydraulic turbines and hydraulic turbine governors	5
Steam engines and steam turbines	5
(b) Industrial and marine power apparatus:
Boilers (industrial), Up to 50 H. P.	7½
Boilers (industrial), Over 50 H. P.	5
Boilers (marine)	7½
Oil burners	10
Soot blowers and cleaners	10
Stokers	10
(c) Processing machinery and equipment:
Cement making machinery	5
Ceramics machinery	7½
Chemical process machinery	7½
Cotton ginning machinery	5
Die casting machinery	7½
Electroplating and hot dip metal coating equipment	5
Floor surfacing and floor maintenance machinery (industrial)	10
Food and beverage machinery	6
Dairy machinery	6
Foundry machinery	5
Glass making machinery	7½
Hat making machinery	5
Industrial sewing machines	6
Laundry, dry cleaning, and clothes pressing machinery	6
Leather working machinery	7½
Packaging, wrapping, filling, and labeling machinery	6
Painting and varnish making machinery	5
Petroleum refining machinery	5
Pharmaceutical machinery	5
Plastics molding and fabricating machinery	7½
Printing and publishing machinery	9
Pulp, paper and paper products machinery	6
Rod and wire working machinery	5
Rolling mill machinery	5

Application for Adjustment of Maximum Prices for Machines and Parts Under Maximum Price Regulation No. 136, as Amended

Company name _____
Address _____
(Street) (City) (State)

The following facts are furnished to the Office of Price Administration in support of this Application:

SCHEDULE A

1. General description of the company's business.

2. Designate and describe product(s) for which price increase is requested.

3. Present the following information for each product listed in Item 2 above.

NOTE: If more than one product is being reported, present the required information on another sheet.

(a) Dollar volume of unfilled orders, $_____

(b) Unit volume of unfilled orders. (Indicate unit used), _____.

(c) Degree of completion of production on unfilled orders, _____%.

(d) Anticipated dollar volume of new orders for the next: 3 months, $_____; 6 months, $_____; 12 months, $_____.

4. Present evidence that the company is an essential supplier of an essential machine or part.

NOTE: If more than one product is being reported, present the required information on another sheet.

(a) For each product designated in Item 2 above, fill in the following if you have entered into, or propose to enter into, a war contract or subcontract for the sale of that product.

(1) Indentification of contract _____
(2) Name of purchaser _____
(3) Address of purchaser _____
(Street) (City) (State)

(b) Present any other information which demonstrates that the seller is an essential supplier of an essential machine or part.

(NOTE: The terms "war contract," "subcontract", "essential supplier", and "essential machine or part" are defined in the adjustment provision under which this report is filed (§ 1390.25a of Maximum Price Regulation No. 136, as Amended).)

5. Are similar machines or parts sold by competitors in your region? _____
(Yes or No)

If yes, give names and addresses of competitors, and their prices for such machines or parts.

SCHEDULE B

Important. If you have submitted any of the following information on Office of Price Administration Financial Report Forms A and B for certain periods or have furnished same on a previous application for adjustment of a maximum price, you may omit those periods in your present report. In the case of a subsidiary wholly owned by a parent corporation consolidated financial statements as well as financial statements for the subsidiary should be submitted.

SCHEDULE B—Continued

1. Submit balance sheets and profit and loss statements for the years 1941 and 1942, and for the most recent accounting period in 1943.

(NOTE: Each profit and loss statement must contain a detailed breakdown of cost of goods sold, administrative expense, selling expenses, the total amount of officers' salaries and bonuses and the number of officers.)

2. Financial data 1936 1940.

(NOTE: The filing of the financial data designated in this item is optional. Should the applicant prefer, this information will be obtained by the Office of Price Administration directly from the Bureau of Internal Revenue.)

Either submit balance sheets and profit and loss statements for the years 1936-1940, or fill in the following condensed table.

	1936	1937	1938	1939	1940
Net sales
Cost of goods sold
Administrative expense
Selling expenses
Net operating profit
Other income less other expenses
Net profit before income taxes
Debt (except current) at end of year
Net worth at end of year
Total assets

3. As the salaries and wages of all your employees in compliance with the maximum established by the Office for Economic Stabilization? _____
(Yes or No)
If no, state exceptions.

SCHEDULE C

UNIT PRICE AND COST INFORMATION

Designation of Product: _____

NOTE: If more than one product is involved, prepare and file separate reports on this schedule for each product that you consider necessary to convey an adequate understanding of the situation which gave rise to this application.

1. Price data.

(a) Net realized price:

	Ceiling price, 194—	Current price	Requested price
1. (List) (Gross) price
2. Less: Trade discounts
3. Net realized price
4. Net realized price at maximum discount and/or commissions

(b) Analysis of sales of the above designated product: Sales for _____ (No. of months) month period _____, 1943.
(Month and Day)

	Percentage amount of commission or discounts	Dollar value of sales after discounts
Sales subject to commission of (1)	____%	$____
Sales subject to commission of (2)	____%	____
Sales not subject to commission	XXX	____
Sales subject to discount of (1)	____%	$____
Sales subject to discount of (2)	____%	____
Sales subject to discount of (3)	____%	____
Sales subject to discount of (4)	____%	____
Sales subject to discount of (5)	____%	____
Sales not subject to discount	XXX	____
Total sales of above designated product	XXX	$____

(c) Total sales for the above designated product only:

	1940	1941	1942	____ months ending ____ 1943
Total unit volume of sales
Total dollar volume of sales (net)	$____	$____	$____	$____

(d) Is the price currently charged for the product the same as the maximum price filed with OPA? _____
(Yes or No)

(If answer is "No", state date when increased price was first charged.) Date: _____, 194__.
(Month)

(e) Indicate whether the current maximum price is a list or established price ( ) or a formula price ( ) (Check one). Price used since _____, 194__.
(Month)

(f) State on a separate sheet the reasons for the need of the requested price increase.

2. Unit Cost Data:

	Ceiling date costs, ——194—	Costs, October 1942	Current date costs, ——1943
(a) Direct material	$____	$____	$____
(b) Direct labor
(c) Factory overhead
(d) Selling expense (do not include discounts and commissions under Price Data above)
(e) Administrative expense
(f) Freight out, if any
(g) Installation expense, if any
(h) Other expense, specify
(i) Total cost per unit

(j) What method is used in allocating factory overhead?

1. Standard ☐; Actual ☐; Other ☐ (Check one).

2. Direct labor cost ☐; Director labor hours ☐; Machine hours ☐; Other ☐.

(Explain separately if "other" or combination.)

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE USE OF ADJUSTMENT APPLICATION FORM FOR MACHINES AND PARTS

In preparing this application, please consider that the form is intended to cover a wide variety of products. Therefore, you will find that some of the questions do not apply to your product. Moreover, you may find that some point that is important in your case is not covered in the form. Adapt the form if this can be done or state the information on a separate sheet if that will be clearer. If any difficulty is experienced in completing this form it may be taken to the nearest OPA district accountant who will give his assistance in its preparation.

Schedule C entitled "Unit Price and Cost Information" is subject to the following explanation:

1. Price Data: (a) 1. (List) (Gross) Price: Please indicate whether the price is a list price or a gross price by crossing out the term that does not apply.

(a) 2. Dealers' Commissions: Where all dealers receive the same commission, use the full commission rate even if some sales are not subject to any commission. If several different rates affect the machine covered by the application, use the rate that applies to the largest amount of sales.

(a) 3. Trade Discounts: Deduct trade discounts at the average rate of discounts prevailing in your company for the product covered by the application.

(b) Use a sufficient number of months prior to the date of the application to give an adequate understanding of the situation. Name the period in the allotted space and fill in commission rates or discounts.

2. Unit Cost Data: In presenting unit cost data be sure to include only actual cost.

Material cost must represent actual cost. State separately any charges added to costs of materials. In the case of a seller other than a manufacturer direct material means the price at which the seller purchased the machine or part.

Where standard costs are used, adjust costs for over- or under-absorption during the period to which the costs apply.

The cost data for the ceiling date may be recomputed if the machine or part covered by the application was not manufactured on or about that date. In the recomputation apply the wage rates prevailing in your plant on the ceiling date and material cost of the same date.

Under items (f), (g) and (h) include only costs borne by the seller and not billed separately to the buyer.

(b) Instructions for filling out inventory and sales report form.

(1) Who must file. Every person engaged in the business of selling second-hand machines or parts, either on his own behalf or on behalf of another, is required to report on this form additions to stock and offering and selling prices of the second-hand machines and parts listed on the attached sheet. For example, these reports must be filed by agents, auctioneers, brokers and dealers, and machinery manufacturers who sell second-hand machines and parts. These reports must cover all second-hand machines and parts listed on the attached sheet.

Dealers, brokers, agents and manufacturers are also requested, though not required, to report specific items or classes of items, known to be available though not owned by them, in response to "Want Calls" sent out by the the War Production Board for urgently needed items.

Persons not required to file, who desire aid in disposing of used equipment and machinery, may report such items on this form.

(2) Method of filing. Four copies are to be made of the inventory report. Three of these copies must be filed with the District Office of the War Production Board which is located in the district in which the person's place of business is located. These copies must be filed within five days after the acquisition of the machine or part. Inventory is reported by filling in items 1 to 16, inclusive, of the form. The remaining copy of the inventory report must be completed by the person required to file when the item is sold or otherwise disposed of. Within five days of the sale or other disposition of the item, this completed form must also be filed by the person required to file with the District Office of the War Production Board which is located in the district in which the seller's place of business is located. This filing constitutes the sales report. Only one piece of equipment may be reported on a single form, except in the case of identical items. These reports are forwarded to the Office of Price Administration by the War Production Board. Complete and accurate records of the information contained in the reports must be kept by the person filing for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, remains in effect.

(3) Item 7. Under "Equipment Identification No." the person filing the report is to show his stock inventory number for easy reference to any particular piece of equipment or machinery. If there is no stock inventory number, this item does not have to be filled in.

(4) Item 8. Give full details on type of equipment or machine and work for which it is adapted.

(5) Item 13. Give present condition of machine in detail. The term "rebuilt and guaranteed" is defined in the regulation which covers the machine or part. Under "Other" describe by terms defined as follows:

"Unused" means a machine or part which has been transferred for use but which has never been used. Such a machine or part may be priced as new.

"Serviceable" means that the machine or part is ready for service requiring no maintenance work or repairs before installing.

"Repairable" means that the machine or part can be made ready for service by normal maintenance or minor repairs.

"Poor" means that the machine or part requires major repairs or complete rebuilding before it would be ready for service.

Machines and parts which can not qualify as "rebuilt and guaranteed" under the applicable regulation are priced as "as is" machines or parts.

(6) Item 15. If it is necessary to rebuild the machine or part, check approximate time required after receipt of order.

(7) Item 17. If the machine or part is not sold but "other disposition" is made, state in item 17 what the disposition was.

LIST OF MACHINES AND PARTS FOR WHICH USED EQUIPMENT AND MACHINERY INVENTORY AND SALES REPORTS MUST BE FILED

Machine or part:	Regulation to which subject, or appendix of MPR 136 in which listed and base date
Air-conditioning equipment (25 tons' capacity and over).	Appendix A—October 1, 1941.
Asphalt mixing plants	Appendix A—October 1, 1941.
Automotive testing and maintenance equipment, mechanical and electrical (except portable tools or machine or hand tools).	Appendix B—March 31, 1942.
Battery chargers (except motor generator sets).	Appendix B—March 31, 1942.
Boilers, industrial and marine.	Appendix A—October 1, 1941.
Capacitors (except fixed capacitors of the type and sizes used for military radio and radar equipment).	Appendix A—October 1, 1941.
Car and locomotive parts and specialties, including:	Appendix A—October 1, 1941.
Bearings, truck side.
Boilers, fireboxes, front ends, and cabs fittings, fixtures, devices or appliances mounted thereon.
Brakes and brake gear.
Coupler devices or attachments.
Devices and appliances mounted on locomotives for treatment, distribution and control of water, fuel, steam, sand and electricity.
Doors and fixtures (except those subject to Revised Price Schedule No. 40—Builders' Hardware and Insect Screen Cloth).

(140) Service of storage or warehousing when performed by a person appropriately classified as a public utility and subject to regulation as such, maximum rates or charges for such service having been established, or otherwise regulated, by a federal, state, or municipal authority having jurisdiction over such rates or charges.

(141) Any service not excepted by other subparagraphs of this supplementary regulation when performed by a person appropriately classified as a public utility and subject to regulation as such, maximum rates or charges for such service having been established, or otherwise regulated, by a federal, state, or municipal authority having jurisdiction over such rates or charges.

[Subparagraphs (140) and (141) added by Am. 45, 9 F.R. 3331, effective 3-24-44.]

(142) Leasing of trucks between carriers pursuant to directions of the Office of Defense Transportation under the provisions of its Administrative Order ODT 10, issued March 10, 1944, General Order ODT 3, Revised, as amended March 10, 1944 and General Order ODT 17, as amended March 10, 1944. This exemption applies only to the compensation charged between carriers for the rental of the truck, and does not extend to any other type of truck rental or to the rates which the lessee may charge the shipper.

The exemption granted by this paragraph shall remain in effect only until July 13, 1944.

[Subparagraph (142) added by Am. 46, 9 F.R. 4030, effective 4-14-44.]

(143) Ash, debris, garbage or trash removal when performed by or for federal, state or local governmental units, or when the rates and charges for these services are fixed or must be approved thereby.

[Subparagraph (143) added by Am. 47, effective 5-8-44.]

Provided, That where, in connection with the supply or offer for supply during March 1942 of any of the services designated in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 11, a commodity was sold or offered for sale, the rates, fees, charges or compensation for the supply of such commodity shall not be excepted from the application of the General Maximum Price Regulation if (i) a separate charge was made during March 1942 for the supply of such commodity, and (ii) if such a commodity when sold separately would otherwise be subject to the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(c) (1) Any person furnishing a service listed in subparagraph (28), (33), (41), (51), (73), (81), (82), (91), (92), (99), (110), (140), or (141) of paragraph (b) of this section shall give notice of any proposed general increase in the rates or charges for such service thirty (30) days before the effective date of the increase. The notice shall be filed with the Transportation and Public Utilities Division of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., as provided in Procedural Regulation No. 11, as amended, and shall comply with all the applicable requirements of that regulation.

(2) The requirements of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c) shall be applicable for a period of only sixty (60) days from March 24, 1944 to any service listed in subparagraph (28), (33), (41), (51), (73), (91), (99), or (110) of paragraph (b) if, in the furnishing of the service, the person so doing is not properly classified as a public utility or is not regulated as such or if maximum rates or charges for the service have not been established, or are not otherwise regulated, by a federal, state, or municipal authority having jurisdiction.

(3) The requirements of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph (c) shall not be applicable to any service listed in subparagraph (81), (82), or (92) of paragraph (b) if, in the furnishing of the service, the person so doing is not properly classified as a public utility or is not regulated as such or if maximum rates or charges for the service have not been established, or are not otherwise regulated, by a federal, state, or municipal authority having jurisdiction.

[Paragraph (c) added by Am. 45, 9 F.R. 3331, effective 3-24-44. Former paragraphs (c) and (d) redesignated (d) and (e).]

(d) Definitions. (1) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to the terms used herein.

(2) "War procurement agency" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, the Office of Scientific Research and Development and the Lend-Lease Section of the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any agency of the foregoing.

(3) The definition of "farm equipment" set forth in § 1361.9 (a) (3) of Maximum Price Regulation No. 133 shall apply for the purposes of this regulation.

(4) When used in this Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 11, the term:

(i) "Synthetic rubber" means a material obtained by chemical synthesis, possessing the approximate physical properties of natural rubber, when compared in either the vulcanized or unvulcanized condition, which can be vulcanized with sulphur or other chemicals with the application of heat, and which, when vulcanized, is capable of rapid elastic recovery after being stretched to at least twice its length at temperatures ranging from 0° F. to 150° F. at any humidity.

[Subparagraph (4) added by Am. 11, 8 F.R. 130, effective 1-6-43.]

(e) Effective date. (1) Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 11 (§ 1499.46) shall become effective August 19, 1942. [Revised Supplementary Regulation No. 11 originally issued August 13, 1942]

(2) Charges for delivery. Every manufacturer shall continue to sell on a delivered price basis to such purchasers, zones or areas to which he customarily made shipments on a delivered price basis during the period October 1–31, 1941, inclusive.

(i) In the case of shipments to points within a free delivery zone or area within which no charge for delivery was added or would have been added by the manufacturer during the period October 1–31, 1941, inclusive, the manufacturer shall not add to the maximum price established in subparagraph (1) above, any charge for delivery.

(ii) In the case of shipments to points, with the exception of shipments to points described in subdivision (i) above, for which the manufacturer added a charge for delivery, the manufacturer may add to the maximum prices established in subparagraph (1) above, his customary and established delivery charge: Provided, That in no instance may the amount of the delivery charge so added exceed the highest charge actually obtained or which would have been obtained for an identical shipment to the same purchaser, zones or areas during the period October 1–31, 1941, inclusive, by the means of transportation customarily employed for shipments to such purchaser, zones or areas, during such period.

(b) For the purposes of this Appendix B, the term:

(1) "Metropolitan area of New York" means any place within a forty mile radius of the New York City Hall.

(2) "Two piece corrugated garment box" means any unprinted two piece non-test corrugated design box of the following inside dimensions for the respective sizes, with a ½" tolerance in any one dimension:

Parcel Post	17	–11	–1⅞
Singles	21	–13½	–2½
20–2	27½	–15½	–2

[RMPR 169,[1] Amdt. 41]

BEEF AND VEAL CARCASSES AND WHOLESALE CUTS

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 1364.405 (g) is added to read as follows:

(g) Wholesalers' adjustments affecting frozen boneless beef (Army specifications). Upon a unanimous finding by the Quartermaster General, War Food Administrator and Price Administrator (1) that the facilities of any wholesaler are essential for the purpose of increasing the total supply of frozen boneless beef (Army specifications), and (2) that the production of frozen boneless beef by such wholesaler will not be accompanied by or cause a decrease in the production of frozen boneless beef (Army specifications) by any other person, and will not therefore increase the cost of prosecuting the war without achieving a greater essential supply; and

Upon a finding by the Price Administrator that the established price of frozen boneless beef impedes or will impede the wholesaler's production of this meat item for war procurement agencies because of increased carcass beef costs due to the payment of transportation and/or local delivery allowances provided in § 1364.454, carcass beef shrinkage occurring during transit of dressed carcasses from the point of origin to the wholesaler's place of business or other handling costs incurred during such transit of dressed carcasses, the Price Administrator may by order adjust the maximum price to offset such added beef carcass costs.

Each wholesaler seeking an adjustment under this paragraph (g) shall file five copies of an application showing: (i) The name and address of each person who is supplying or will supply the applicant with beef carcasses for the purpose of producing frozen boneless beef (Army specifications) for a war procurement agency and the quantity of beef carcasses supplied or to be supplied by such person to the applicant; (ii) on the basis of actual tests made on a lot of no less than 50 dressed beef carcasses (or 100 sides), a detailed test-cost analysis by grades showing the yield, each item of direct cost, indirect cost, overhead and general administrative costs involved in producing frozen boneless beef (Army specifications); (iii) the weight of dressed beef carcasses by grades (used in the test in (ii)) when shipped from each supplier referred to in (i) above, and the weight of such dressed beef carcasses when received at the applicant's place of business; (iv) the transportation and/or local delivery charges which will be incurred in making the purchases enumerated in (i) above and such other handling costs as will be incurred; and (v) the amount of adjustment in frozen boneless beef (Army specifications) prices which will be necessary to offset the increased costs of dressed carcasses due to transportation and/or local delivery payments, shrinkage and/or handling costs.

The Price Administrator shall furnish the Quartermaster General and War Food Administrator each with a copy of the application filed hereunder. The findings required to be made unanimously by the Quartermaster General, War Food Administrator and Price Administrator may be based on such other information as any of them may submit. The Price Administrator may issue temporary or indefinite orders hereunder and may include in the orders such provisions as he deems necessary to effectuate the purposes of this paragraph.

This amendment shall become effective May 4, 1944.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1418—TERRITORIES AND POSSESSIONS

[MPR 373,[1] Amdt. 53]

FEED FOR ANIMALS AND POULTRY IN HAWAII

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Section 65 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 65. Maximum prices for sales of feeds for animals and poultry.—(a) What this section covers. This section establishes maximum prices for sales and deliveries of all feeds for animals and poultry, including sales by manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers.

(b) Definitions. When used in this section:

(1) "Feed" means all feed used for the purpose of feeding animals and poultry.

(2) "Straight item" means all unmixed ingredients or single items used for feeding animals or poultry.

(3) "Mixed feeds" for animals and poultry includes "mixed feed" and "mineral mixed feed" as hereinafter defined.

(4) "Mixed feed" is a mixture or blend of more than one feed ingredient for the purpose of feeding animals and poultry, except the following commodities:

(i) Mixed feeds for any house pet birds.

(ii) Cat and dog food for which a ceiling price has been determined under the provisions of sections 40 and 41a of Maximum Price Regulation No. 373, which cat and dog foods shall be and remain subject to said provisions; and

(iii) All other cat and dog foods for which a maximum price has been determined under the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation for Hawaii,[2] which cat and dog foods shall remain subject to such provisions.

(5) "Pelleted mixed feed" is a mixed feed further processed into pellets.

(6) "Mineral mixed feed" is a mixed feed at least 60 percent of which consists of a mixture of two or more chemicals or minerals, with or without mixture with other ingredients, and customarily regarded as dietary factors in the feeding of animals and poultry.

(7) "Manufacturer" is one who produces and sells a mixed feed by grinding, mixing or blending, whether by stationary or portable equipment.

(8) A "custom mixer" is one who furnishes to a consumer for a recompense the services of producing mixed feed; either the custom mixer or the consumer or both may furnish the ingredients for the mixed feeds.

(9) A "private brand dealer" is one who resells mixed feed or mineral mixed feed ordered and bought by him from a manufacturer who produced and packed the same in containers bearing the dealer's private brand.

(10) A "wholesaler" is one who buys any feed item and resells the same to:

(i) A retailer, or

(ii) A consumer on a f. o. b. warehouse basis in lots of five tons or over, or on a f. o. b. destination dock basis.

(11) A "wholesale outlet" is a department, branch or unit of a concern or an affiliated group of concerns or organizations performing like functions as a wholesaler, and which concern or affiliated group of concerns or organizations also handles commodities subject to this section at other levels of distribution: Provided, That said wholesale outlet must be a place of business separate from any producing plant of such concern, affiliated group of concerns or organizations.

(12) A "retailer" is one who buys a feed and resells it to consumers.

(13) A "retail outlet" is a department, branch or unit of a concern or an affiliated group of concerns or organizations performing like functions as a retailer and which concern or affiliated group of concerns or organizations also handles commodities subject to this section at other levels of distribution: Provided, That said retail outlet must be a place of business separate from any producing plant of such concern or affiliated group of concerns or organizations.

(14) "Reasonable market value" shall have the meaning ascribed thereto by law. It is also known in the trade as replacement value.

(15) "L. c. l. quantities" or less than carload lots or quantities, refers to sales or deliveries of quantities less than the stated capacity of any railroad car, whether the shipment is by rail, motor vehicle, water or other means.

(16) A "billing charge" is a charge or entry as a part of the bookkeeping system of debits and credits made between different departments, branches, or units of one concern or between different units of an affiliated group of concerns or organizations for services rendered or commodities produced by one and furnished or delivered by another.

(17) "F. o. b destination dock basis" means the invoice cost of the feed plus an amount equal to the charges for ocean freight, war risk and marine insurance actually incurred not to exceed the rates charged by the War Shipping Administration and Territorial tolls and tonnage taxes shown on the bill of lading.

(18) "FSCC" refers to The Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation.

(19) "Sub-order FSCC basis" refers to a sale made to a purchaser by a seller who has authority to purchase direct from FSCC where the purchaser receives a sub-order from the seller and takes delivery himself directly either from a FSCC warehouse or directly from the dock.

(c) Maximum prices for manufacturers. Every manufacturer of mixed feeds shall determine his maximum price per 100 pounds seller's container for l. c. l. quantities for sales of each mixed feed item as follows:

(1) He shall first compute his cost per 100-pound container of the commodity to be priced as follows:

(i) He shall include the cost of every ingredient which is subject to maximum prices prescribed by the Office of Price Administration at the actual cost thereof to him as if purchased at the time of the calculation not exceeding the maximum price thereon to him at said time, for the quantities normally purchased by him.

(ii) He shall include the cost of every other ingredient used which is not subject to the maximum prices prescribed by the Office of Price Administration at the reasonable market value thereof to him when purchased, for the quantities normally purchased by him: Provided, That said reasonable market value shall be such value at his producing plant.

(iii) He shall include either the cost of one 100-pound new bag or container for the commodity to be priced at the maximum price thereof to him at the time of the bag or container purchase, where he furnishes such a bag or container; or, in such cases where second hand bags furnished by the seller are used, he may add the reasonable market value of the bags used (not exceeding any maximum prices established thereon by Revised Maximum Price Regulation 55[1]—Second-hand Bags).

(iv) In the case of feeds purchased from the FSCC stocks, he may include an allowance for shrinkage actually incurred on such purchases, not to exceed two (2) per cent.

(2) Then, for sales to wholesalers and for deliveries to his wholesale outlets, he shall add his cost per 100-pound container and the applicable dollar and cent markup set forth below:

Class 1 (except scratch feeds)[1]	$0.38
Class 2[1]	.50
Class 3[1]	.60
Scratch feeds (containing cracked corn purchased by manufacturer)	.30
Scratch feeds (containing whole corn cracked by manufacturer)	.38

[1] Classifications of mixed feeds are set forth in paragraph (e), Table 1.

The resulting price is the maximum price and billing charge at his producing plant. It shall also be known as the manufacturer's list price for sales to wholesalers and for deliveries to his wholesale outlets.

(3) Then, for sales to retailers and for deliveries to his retail outlets, he shall add his cost per 100-pound container and the applicable dollar and cent markup set forth below:

Class 1 (except scratch feeds)[1]	$0.53
Class 2[1]	.65
Class 3[1]	.75
Scratch feeds (containing cracked corn purchased by manufacturer)	.35
Scratch feeds (containing whole corn cracked by manufacturer)	.43

[1] Classifications of mixed feeds are set forth in paragraph (e), Table 6.

The resulting price is the maximum price and billing charge at his producing plant. It shall also be known as the manufacturer's list price for sales to retailers and for deliveries to his retail outlets.

(4) Then, for sales to consumers, he shall add his cost per 100-pound container and the applicable dollar and cent markup set forth below:

Class 1 (except scratch feeds)[1]	$0.78
Class 2[1]	.90
Class 3[1]	1.00
Scratch feeds (containing cracked corn purchased by manufacturer)	.60
Scratch feeds (containing whole corn cracked by manufacturer)	.68

[1] Classifications of mixed feeds are set forth in paragraph (e), Table 1.

The resulting price is the maximum price f. o. b. his producing plant.

(5) For sales in seller's containers of less than 100 pounds, the maximum price shall be the applicable maximum price less any container allowance permitted under paragraph (c) (1) (iii) above, plus the appropriate differential at the rate per ton set forth in the following schedule:

Size of container	Paper bags	Cotton bags	Other container (rate per ton)	Bales
Up to and including 5 pounds	$6.00	$6.00	Reasonable market value of containers at time of sale plus 50¢ per ton.	Reasonable market value of bales at time of sale over opposite differential for small size packages.
Over 5 pounds and up to and including 10 pounds.	5.00	5.00
Over 10 pounds and up to and including 25 pounds.	1.50	2.50
Over 25 pounds and up to and including 50 pounds.	1.00	1.25

(d) Maximum prices for wholesalers and wholesale outlets of a mixed feed manufacturer. Every wholesaler and wholesale outlet of a mixed feed manufacturer shall determine his maximum price and billing charge as follows:

(1) For sales of feed per 100-pound container to a retailer store and a retail outlet of a mixed feed manufacturer.

(i) On an f. o. b. destination dock basis or sub-order FSCC basis.

The maximum price shall be the sum of:

(a) The actual cost to the seller determined either by the list price of the mixed feed manufacturer or the current FSCC feed price list, and

(b) $4.00 per ton or 20¢ per 100-pound container less $1.00 per ton or 5¢ per 100-pound container for cash payment within 10 days after billing.

(ii) On a f. o. b. seller's warehouse basis.

The maximum price shall be the sum of:

(a) The actual cost to the seller determined either by the list price of the mixed feed manufacturer or the current FSCC Feed Price list;

(b) Transportation costs actually incurred by the seller in hauling to his warehouse, and

(c) $6.60 per ton or 33¢ per 100-pound container less $1.00 per ton or 5¢ per 100-pound container for cash payment within 10 days after billing.

(2) For sales of feed per 100-pound container to consumers.

(i) On a f. o. b. destination dock basis or sub-order FSCC basis: The maximum price shall be the applicable maximum price determined under paragraph (d) (1) (i) above, plus 1¼ %.

(ii) On a f. o. b. seller's warehouse basis, in lots of five tons or more of any feed item: The maximum price shall be the applicable maximum price determined under paragraph (d) (1) (ii) above, plus 1¼ %.

(3) For sales of feed in containers of 50 pounds or less the maximum price shall be the applicable maximum price determined under paragraph (d) (1) or (2) above, plus $1.50 per ton.

(e) Maximum prices for retailers and retail outlets of a mixed feed manufacturer. Every retailer and retail outlet of a mixed feed manufacturer shall determine his maximum price for sales of all feeds including mixed feeds as follows:

(1) For sales of all feed items purchased by the retailer from the FSCC, the maximum price shall be the sum of the following:

(i) His FSCC invoice cost.

(ii) All transportation costs actually incurred by the retailer for transportation of the item being priced to his place of business, and

(iii) A maximum markup of $10.00 per ton.

(2) For sales of all other feed items the maximum price shall be the sum of the following:

(i) Either the list price set forth in paragraph (c) (3) above, or the supplier's maximum price set forth in paragraph (d) (1) above, whichever is applicable.

(ii) All transportation costs actually incurred by the retailer for transportation of the item being priced to his place of business, and

(iii) The applicable dollar and cent markup listed in the schedule of the retail markups set forth below.

Over 25 pounds and up to and including 50 pounds	.30

(f) Maximum prices and base period reports for persons doing both wholesale and retail business—(1) Maximum prices. The maximum prices for any person doing both a wholesale and a retail business shall be determined as follows:

(i) For sales as a wholesaler, his maximum price shall be the applicable maximum price set forth in paragraph (d) hereof.

(ii) For sales as a retailer of the percentage of tonnage volume of sales as retailer listed in his base period report, his maximum price shall be the applicable maximum prices set forth in paragraph (d) hereof, plus the appropriate markups set forth below:

	Per ton
Class 1 markup[1]	$3.40
Class 2 markup[1]	5.40
Class 3 markup[1]	7.40

[1] Classifications of mixed feed are set forth in paragraph (e), Table 1.

(iii) For sales as a retailer of any increase in retail sales over the percentage of tonnage volume of sales as a retailer listed in his base period report, his maximum price shall be his invoice cost plus the maximum markup set forth in paragraph (e) (2) above.

(2) Base period reports. Any person doing both a wholesale and a retail business shall report to the Office of Price Administration, Iolani Palace, Honolulu, 2, T. H., within two weeks after the effective date of this section, his tonnage volume of sales as a wholesaler and his tonnage volume of sales as a retailer during the immediately preceding week, month, or four months period, whichever he may, at the time of his first calculation of prices, select.

(g) Delivery charges. Any seller may add to the maximum prices established by this section the actual transportation costs incurred by him for deliveries from his place of business to the buyer's receiving point, provided such deliveries are made by the usual route and method of transportation.

(h) Inability to determine maximum prices. If you are unable to determine the maximum price for any feed item covered by this regulation, you shall apply to the Office of Price Administration, Iolani Palace, Honolulu, 2, T. H., for establishment of a maximum price.

(i) Rounding of maximum prices. (1) In ascertaining maximum prices hereunder on a per ton basis round the figure obtained as the maximum price to the nearest even 20 cents.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 7 of this Maximum Price Regulation 373, in ascertaining maximum prices hereunder on a one 100-pound container basis round the figure obtained as the maximum price to the nearest one cent.

(j) Dealings between persons of the same class. No person shall sell feeds including mixed feed or mineral mixed feed bought from a person of the same class to which he belongs at higher than the maximum price at which he may buy the same from such person hereunder.

(k) Prices to be marked and posted. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 10 of this Maximum Price Regulation 373, every wholesaler or retailer shall post in his place of business a copy of his maximum prices as computed hereunder.

(l) Records and reports. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 10 of this Maximum Price Regulation 373,

(1) Every manufacturer shall keep for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect, a complete record of each sale or purchase subject hereto showing the date thereof, the names and addresses of the buyer and seller, the price contracted for, paid or received, and the quantity of the feeds for animals and poultry sold or purchased.

(2) Every wholesaler and retailer shall keep for so long as the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended, shall remain in effect, like records of his sales and purchases as he kept during the year 1942.

(2) All sales invoices shall, in addition to the above requirements, specify as a separate item such charges as may be allowed for transportation or delivery.

This amendment shall become effective as of April 1, 1944.

NOTE: The reporting and record-keeping provisions of this amendment have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Subchapter B—Bureau of the Public Debt

[1944 Dept. Circ. 530, (5th Rev.), Amdt. 5]

PART 315—REGULATIONS GOVERNING UNITED STATES SAVINGS BONDS

PAYMENT OR REISSUE

MAY 1, 1944.

Section 315.32 of Department Circular No. 530, Fifth Revision, dated June 1, 1942 (7 F.R. 5158), as amended by the Cumulative Amendment dated June 17, 1943 (8 F.R. 8744), is hereby further amended to read as follows:

§ 315.32 Payment or reissue. A savings bond registered in the names of two persons as coowners in the form "John A. Jones or Mrs. Mary C. Jones", will be paid or reissued as follows:

(a) Payment during the lives of both coowners. During the lives of both coowners the bond will be paid to either coowner upon his separate request without requiring the signature of the other coowner; and upon payment to either coowner the other person shall cease to have any interest in the bond. The bond will also be paid to both coowners upon their joint request, in which case payment will be made by check drawn to the order of both coowners in the form "John A. Jones and Mrs. Mary C. Jones", and the check must be endorsed by both payees.

(b) Reissue during the lives of both coowners. If one of the coowners is unmarried at the time of issue of the bond and subsequently marries, the bond may be reissued upon the request of both coowners to substitute the husband and wife as coowners. Such request should be on a form provided for that purpose by any Federal Reserve Bank or Branch or by the Treasury Department, Division of Loans and Currency, Merchandise Mart, Chicago 54, Illinois. No other reissue will be permitted in any form during the lives of both coowners except as specifically provided in these regulations.

(c) Payment or reissue after the death of one coowner. If either coowner dies without having presented and surrendered the bond for payment to a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasury Department, the surviving coowner will be recognized as the sole and absolute owner of the bond, and payment will be made only to him: Provided, however, That if a coowner dies after he has properly executed the request for payment and after the bond has actually been received by a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasury Department, payment of the bond, or check if one has been issued, will be made to his estate (see Subpart P hereof). Upon proof of the death of one coowner and appropriate request by the surviving coowner (unless a nonresident alien, in which case see § 315.3) the bond will be reissued in the name of such survivor alone, or in his name with another individual as coowner, or in his name payable on death to a designated beneficiary.

(d) Payment or reissue on death of both coowners in common disaster. If both coowners die in a common disaster under such conditions that it cannot be established, either by presumption of law or otherwise, which coowner died first, the bond will be considered as belonging to the estates of both coowners, and payment or reissue will be made accordingly.

(e) Payment or reissue after the death of the surviving coowner. If a surviving coowner who became solely entitled to the bond under the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section dies without having submitted the bond for payment or reissue, the bond will be paid or reissued as though it were registered in the name of such last deceased coowner alone. In this case proof of the death of both coowners and of the order in which they died will be required.

D. W. BELL,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

RICHARD GRIBBLE

ORDER REVOKING LICENSES, DIRECTING SURRENDER OF LICENSES AND REQUIRING RECORDS TO BE FURNISHED

In the matter of licensee Richard Gribble, Junction City, Trinity County, California. Proceedings for revocation of licenses.

Based upon the records in this matter, including your answer, I make the following findings of fact:

1. On March 29, 1944, a specification of charges against you setting forth violations of the Federal Explosives Act (55 Stat. 863), as amended, and the regulations pursuant thereto, of which you were accused, was mailed to you giving you notice to mail an answer within 15 days from March 29, 1944, answering the charges against you and requesting an oral hearing if you wished.

2. More than 25 days have elapsed since March 29, 1944. The length of time required for mail to be delivered to the Bureau of Mines, Washington, D. C., from Junction City, California, does not exceed eight days. The only communication received from you is your answer dated April 13, 1944. You have not requested an oral hearing.

3. All of the accusations against you which are set out in the specification of charges are true.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Federal Explosives Act and the regulations thereunder, I hereby order:

1. That all licenses issued to you under the Federal Explosives Act be and they are hereby revoked as of midnight, May 20, 1944.

2. That prior to midnight, May 20, 1944, you shall sell or otherwise dispose of, to properly licensed persons, or destroy, all explosives and ingredients of explosives owned or possessed by you, or consigned to you, or which are in your custody.

3. That after having sold or otherwise disposed of all of the explosives and ingredients of explosives as required by paragraph 2 of this order, you shall, prior to midnight, May 20, 1944, deliver or mail to R. B. Maurer, Engineer in Charge, United States Bureau of Mines, 422 Acheson Building, Berkeley 4, California, a sworn statement of your transactions in and destructions of explosives and ingredients of explosives, beginning with the date of this order and ending with the final sale or other disposition or with the final destruction of the explosives and ingredients of explosives as required above. The statement shall set forth the amount of each kind of explosives and ingredients of explosives which you had on hand at each location at the opening of business on the date of this order, the amount of each kind acquired by you that day and each day thereafter, the dates on which acquired, the names and addresses of the persons from whom acquired, the amount of each kind sold or otherwise disposed of by you, the dates on which sold or otherwise disposed of, the names and addresses and the numbers and dates of Federal explosives licenses of the persons to whom sold or otherwise disposed of, the amount of each kind destroyed by you, the dates on which destroyed and the places where destroyed.

4. That prior to midnight, May 20, 1944, you shall surrender all licenses issued to you under the Federal Explosives Act and all copies thereof by mailing or delivering them to R. B. Maurer, Engineer in Charge, United States Bureau of Mines, 422 Acheson Building, Berkeley 4, California.

Failure to comply with any of the provisions of this order will constitute a violation of the Federal Explosives Act punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

This order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of April 1944.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION.

[File No. 59-72]

COLUMBIA GAS & ELECTRIC CORPORATION

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 2d day of May 1944.

The Commission having examined, pursuant to sections 11 (a), 18 (a) and 18 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the corporate structure of Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation (hereinafter referred to as Columbia Gas), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary companies, the relationship among the companies in the holding company system of said Columbia Gas, the character of the interests thereof and the properties owned or controlled thereby, to determine the extent to which the corporate structure of such holding company system and the companies therein may be simplified, unnecessary complexities therein eliminated, voting power fairly and equitably distributed among the holders of securities thereof, and the properties and business of such system confined to those necessary or appropriate to the operations of an integrated public utility system or systems under the standards of section 11 (b) of the act; and said examination having disclosed data establishing or tending to establish the following:

I. 1. Columbia Gas, a registered holding company, is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Delaware and maintains principal offices for the doing of business in the City of New York, State of New York, and the City of Wilmington, State of Delaware. Columbia Gas is also a subsidiary of The United Corporation, a registered holding company, by virtue of The United Corporation's ownership of 19.39% of its outstanding voting securities.

2. Columbia Gas has 42 subsidiaries, one of which, Atlantic Seaboard Corporation, is a registered holding company and is also engaged in the business of transmitting natural gas; 24 of which are gas companies engaged solely in the production and/or transmission and/or distribution of gas; 5 of which are electric utilities (including one company engaged in the electric, gas and water businesses, two companies engaged in the electric, gas, water and heating business, and one company engaged in the electric and water businesses). The remaining subsidiaries are engaged in such diverse businesses as the production of oil and extraction of gasoline, street railway and bus transportation, coal mining, real estate, servicing and investments.

In addition, Columbia Gas owns, holds or controls with power to vote more than 10% of the outstanding voting securities of American Fuel and Power Company, which owns, holds or controls with power to vote more than 10% of the outstanding voting securities of Inland Gas Corporation, Kentucky Fuel Gas Corporation, Inland Gas Distribution Company, Buckeye Gas Service Company, The Kentucky Drilling Company, The Buckeye Fuel Company and Carbreath Gas Company. All of said companies are direct or indirect subsidiary companies of Columbia Gas within the meaning of the Act,[1] but are involved in bankruptcy reorganization proceedings pending in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky. These companies are not at this time being made parties to this proceeding nor are they included in the subsequent allegations herein, except where specifically named.

Columbia Gas also owns securities issued by other companies not referred to above, including 63,005 shares of common stock of American Water Works and Electric Company, Inc., a registered holding company.

3. The subsidiaries of Columbia Gas conduct their operations within fifteen states of the United States, namely, Arkansas, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, New Mexico, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Texas, West Virginia and Virginia. Altogether, one or more services are rendered to a population estimated to exceed 5,000,000 persons residing in more than 1,600 communities and in adjoining suburban and rural areas.

The combined property accounts of Columbia Gas and its subsidiaries at December 31, 1943, including intangibles, and the consolidated gross revenues for 1943 of Columbia Gas' subsidiaries, by classes, were as follows:

	Gross plant [1]		Consolidated gross revenues
	Amount	Percent of total	Amount	Percent of total
Gas	$412,017,716	68.26	$88,544,262	63.28

[1] All companies listed, except Wood Coal Company, are included in the consolidated financial statements of Columbia Gas and its subsidiaries.

5. The subsidiaries of Columbia Gas, with certain minor exceptions,[2] are geographically segregated for operating purposes into seven groups referred to as The Cincinnati Group; The Dayton Group; The Columbus Group; The Pittsburgh Group; The Binghamton Group; The Charleston Group; and The Seaboard Group, with principal executive offices located respectively in Cincinnati, Dayton and Columbus, Ohio; Pittsburgh,

[1] Columbia Gas states that the charter of American Fuel and Power Company, a Delaware corporation, was repealed for non-payment of franchise taxes, and that its corporate existence has been terminated and its assets are in possession of the trustee; Columbia Gas contends that American Fuel and Power Company and its subsidiaries are not subsidiaries of Columbia Gas.

[2] The exceptions referred to are the five oil and gasoline subsidiaries (Ohio Fuel Supply Company, Preston Oil Company, Union Gasoline and Oil Company, Viking Distributing Company and Virginian Gasoline and Oil Company), Columbia Corporation, Columbia Engineering Corporation, Bridge Gas Company, Big Marsh Oil Company, The Miami Development Company, and Wood Coal Company.

8. As of December 31, 1943, the public utility subsidiaries of Columbia Gas conducted electric utility operations in over 400 communities having an estimated aggregate population of 1,400,000 in the States of Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana. As of the same date, the system had electric generating capacity of 777,419 kva and an aggregate of 15,051 circuit miles of electric transmission and distribution lines. During the year ending December, 1943, the system sold 2,527,346,255 kwh to 409,294 electric customers (residential, commercial, industrial, municipal and non-affiliated public utilities), from which it obtained gross revenues of $40,405,920.

The electric properties of said holding company system are shown on the annexed map marked Exhibit "1", which is made a part hereto,[2] as if set out herein in full.

9. As of December 31, 1943, the subsidiaries of Columbia Gas engaged in either the production and/or transmission and/or distribution of natural, manufactured or mixed natural-manufactured gas conducted their operations in more than 1200 communities having an estimated population in excess of 5,000,000 in the States of Kentucky, Maryland, Ohio, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia. As of the same date, the system had 9,310 wells producing natural gas, gas manufacturing plants with a daily capacity of 35,000,000 cubic feet, and an aggregate of 32,200 miles of field, transmission and distribution pipe lines. During the year 1943 the system sold 187,284,477 Mcf of natural and manufactured gas to 1,240,577 customers (residential, commercial, industrial, wholesale and municipal), from which it obtained gross revenues of $88,544,262. In the year ended December 31, 1943, approximately 47% of the system's natural gas requirements were purchased from others.

Columbia Gas reported that (a) preliminary estimates as of the close of 1942 indicate that the gas reserves in the Appalachian area, available to the Columbia companies, either through leaseholds or purchase agreement, exclusive of off-peak gas which may be available from Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company, amounted to 2,759,000,000 Mcf, of which 1,995,000,000 Mcf were in lands classified as proven and 764,000,000 Mcf in lands classified as unproven; and (b) United Fuel Gas Company and The Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, subsidiaries of Columbia Gas, have since entered into contracts with non-affiliated companies for the future delivery of substantial quantities of natural gas to the Columbia system in West Virginia from large reserves located in the southwestern portion of the United States.

The gas properties of said holding company system are shown on the annexed map marked Exhibit "2", which is made a part hereto,[2] as if set out herein in full.

II. 10. The corporate and consolidated capitalization, including surplus, of Columbia Gas of December 31, 1943, is set forth below:

11. The 6% and 5% Cumulative Preferred Stocks of Columbia Gas have equal rights except as to dividend rates and redemption premiums; both have a preference as to dividends over the 5% Preference and common stock and, in the event of liquidation, either voluntary or involuntary, have a preference as to distribution of assets over the 5% Preference and common stock to the extent of $110 per share and accumulated and unpaid dividends for the 6% Preferred Stock and $105 per share and accumulated and unpaid dividends for the 5% Preferred. The 6% and 5% Cumulative Preferred are callable upon sixty days' notice, the former at $110 per share and the latter at $105 per share.

The 5% Cumulative Preference Stock has preference as to dividends over the common stock and, in the event of liquidation, either voluntary or involuntary, has preference over the common stock to the extent of $100 per share and accumulated and unpaid dividends. It is callable upon thirty days' notice at $100 per share.

12. Each share of common and Preference Stock of Columbia Gas has the right to one vote per share at all meetings of stockholders. The common stock, represented on the books at $112,537,118 or the equivalent of 36.28% of the total corporate capitalization and surplus, has 12,304,282 votes, or 99% of the total normal voting power. The Preference Stock, represented on the books at $12,386,000 or the equivalent of 3.99% of total corporate capitalization and surplus, has 123,860 votes, or 1% of total normal voting power. No additional voting power is conferred upon the Preference Stock by reason of dividend arrearages.

The 6% and 5% Cumulative Preferred Stocks (946,945 and 40,341 shares respectively), represented on the books at $108,399,755, or the equivalent of 34.9% of total capitalization and surplus, have no voting rights unless and until four quarterly dividends thereon are in default, in which event each share of such Preferred Stock is entitled to one vote.

In the event of four or more quarterly defaults on the Cumulative Preferred Stocks, such Preferred Stocks, voting as a class together with the Preference Stock and cumulating their votes, could not elect any of the nine directors of Columbia Gas.

13. As of December 31, 1943, the investment account of Columbia Gas was stated at $295,034,499,[1] after deducting $17,593,435 of special reserves, as is shown below:

Investments in Subsidiaries Consolidated:
Bonds	$2,435,500

Total		295,034,499

The investment of Columbia Gas in the common stock of American Water Works and Electric Company had an aggregate market value of $425,284 as of December 31, 1943. The claims of Columbia Gas, as the holder of mortgage bonds, debentures, notes and unsecured debts of American Fuel Power Company and two of its subsidiaries, i. e., Inland Gas Corporation and Kentucky Fuel Gas Corporation, which are presently involved in bankruptcy reorganization proceedings, were recently reviewed by the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky and were disallowed.[1] An appeal from this decision is presently pending before the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Sixth District.

The investments of Columbia Gas in its subsidiaries consist of the ownership of substantially all of their outstanding indebtedness, preferred and common stocks, except for The Cincinnati Gas & Electric Company and The Dayton Power and Light Company, each of which has large amounts of mortgage bonds and preferred stocks outstanding in the hands of the public. The aggregate $56,274,602 of notes and advances owing by the subsidiaries to Columbia Gas are payable on demand, and, with one exception, uniformly carry interest rates of 6%.

14. The subsidiaries of Columbia Gas which have outstanding indebtedness and preferred stock as of December 31, 1943, the amount thereof publicly held, the amount held within the system and the common stock and surplus of each said subsidiary are reflected in the following tabulation:

[1] As of December 31, 1943, Columbia Gas had a remaining balance of $88,513,730 of "special capital surplus" available for the removal of "inflationary items or write-ups in its investment account, and also to make such further write-downs as Columbia Gas may find desirable, if not obligatory, to bring its investments into line with the values as hereafter appear as a result of adjustments subsequently made thereon." (Cf. Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, 4 SEC 406) Officials of Columbia Gas have indicated that "substantial charges still remain to be made against this 'special capital surplus'" and that the investment account has not yet been restated to reflect the worth of Columbia Gas' investment in its subsidiaries. (Cf. Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, File No. 43-160, Tr. p. 5).

16. The corporate and consolidated net income, the dividend requirements of Columbia Gas' preferred and preference stocks, the net applicable to its common stock on corporate and consolidated bases, and the common stock dividends paid for each year from 1938 to 1943, are shown in the following table:

	Net income		Dividends on pfd. and pfnce. stk.	Net income applicable to common		Common dividends pd.

( ) Indicates negative figure.
[1] Includes for comparative purposes dividends of $653,037 declared by subsidiaries out of their Surplus Prior to January 1, 1938.

17. The earnings of the Columbia Gas system may be materially affected by a final determination of pending rate proceedings initiated by the Federal Power Commission in respect of two of the larger subsidiary companies.

18. Columbia Gas reports that, with the exception of Dayton Power and Light Company and The Miami Development Company, its various subsidiaries have made and are now making complete studies to determine the original cost of their properties, and certain of them have filed reports with regulatory commissions having jurisdiction over their property accounts. As of October 31, 1943, original cost studies have been completed by 15 subsidiary companies, and "historical cost studies" (cost to first system company acquiring the property) have been completed by five non-utility subsidiaries. The completed studies are estimated to cover approximately 43%, or $262,500,000, of the total recorded property of the subsidiaries of Columbia Gas. In addition thereto, original cost studies involving approximately $200,000,000 have been substantially completed (exclusive of Dayton Power and Light Company). One of the subsidiaries (Cincinnati Gas and Electric Company) has restated its plant accounts to original cost by a write-off of $29,937,541, pursuant to an order of the Federal Power Commission. Five non-utility subsidiaries (oil and gasoline) have adjusted their property accounts to the basis of historical cost, as defined above. Columbia Gas estimates that, at December 31, 1943, after the write-off by Cincinnati and certain other subsidiaries, there remains in the property accounts of the other subsidiaries about $89,000,000 of excess over original cost.

The incomplete status of the original cost studies and the absence of any determination, voluntary or otherwise, as to the manner of disposing of any excess cost, preclude an accurate appraisal of the ultimate effect thereof upon the Columbia system. If, however, the combined property accounts of the system companies of Columbia Gas were stated at their original cost, as estimated by such companies, less depreciation reserves, the Columbia Gas system's outstanding securities at December 31, 1943 would bear the ratios shown below to the system's combined net property and other assets.

	Per consolidated balance sheet	Percent of property base	Adjustment	As adjustment	Percent of property base

19. The depreciation and depletion reserves of subsidiaries of Columbia Gas, as of December 31, 1943, amounted to $198,905,807, or the equivalent of 32.76% of the subsidiaries' combined gross property accounts, per books. The provisions for retirement and depletion charged to income for the six years 1938–1943, and the ratios of such provisions to combined gross property accounts, are shown in the following tabulation:

	Combined gross property accts. Dec. 31	Provision for retirements and depletion
		Amount	Percent gross property
1943	$607,074,486	$16,284,064	2.68
1942	571,535,790	14,475,488	2.53
1941	603,574,331	14,326,537	2.37

1938	565,718,109	10,119,669	1.79

For the years prior to 1942, the Federal income tax returns of Columbia Gas and its subsidiaries contain deductions for depreciation substantially in excess of the provisions for retirements in the accounts of the companies.

III. It tentatively appearing to the Commission, on the basis of the allegations hereinbefore set forth, that the holding company system of Columbia Gas is not confined in its operations to those of a single integrated public utility system, within the meaning of the Act, or to those of a single integrated public utility system together with such additional integrated public utility systems as meet the requirements of section 11 (b) (1) and such other businesses as can be retained under the standards of section 11 (b) (1), and that proceedings should be instituted under section 11 (b) (1) with respect to Columbia Gas' holding company system; and

It further tentatively appearing to the Commission, on the basis of the allegations hereinbefore set forth, that the corporate structure of Columbia Gas' holding company system is unduly and unnecessarily complicated, that voting power is unfairly and inequitably distributed among the security holders thereof, and that proceedings should be instituted under section 11 (b) (2) with respect to Columbia Gas' holding company system,

Wherefore it is ordered, That Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation and each of its subsidiary companies hereinbefore named (excepting American Fuel and Power Company and its subsidiaries), all of which are hereby made respondents in this proceeding, shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before the 8th day of June 1944, joint or several answers in the form prescribed by Rule U-25, admitting, denying, or otherwise explaining their respective positions as to each of the allegations set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 19 hereof. Such answer may also include a statement by the respondents of their views as to what constitutes the "single integrated public utility system", if any, which they wish to retain, and as to what additional systems and other businesses, if any, they believe can be retained with such system under the applicable standards of section 11 (b) (1). Such answer may also include a statement as to what action respondents deem to be necessary or appropriate, and which they are prepared to take, for the purpose of limiting the operations of their holding company system to a single integrated public utility system, together with such additional systems and other businesses as can be retained under the standards of section 11 (b) (1) of the act. Such answer may also include a statement by the respondents of their views as to what steps are necessary and which respondents are prepared to take to ensure that the corporate structure or continued existence of any company in the holding company system of Columbia Gas does not unduly or unnecessarily complicate the structure, or unfairly and inequitably distribute voting power among security holders, of such holding company system.

IV. It is further ordered, That a hearing under the applicable provisions of the act and the Rules of the Commission be held on the 15th day of June, 1944, at 10 A. M., E. W. T., in Room 318 of the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at which time the Commission will hear respondents and any other interested persons with respect to the matters and questions set forth below in paragraphs (a) through (g), and as to any issues raised in and matters presented by respondents' answer, or regarding any other issues which may be present in this proceeding, and will consider the simplification of the issues, the facts and issues that appear to be without substantial basis of controversy, the order of presentation of evidence most conducive to an orderly proceeding, the naming of a trial examiner for the purpose of receiving evidence, and such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the proceeding:

(a) Whether the electric utility assets of The Cincinnati Gas & Electric Company, The Dayton Power and Light Company, The Union Light, Heat and Power Company, Miami Power Corporation, and West Harrison Electric and Water Company constitute more than a single integrated public utility system or systems additional thereto, control of which may be retained by Columbia Gas under section 11 (b) (1) of the act;

(b) Whether the non-utility operations and businesses conducted by the companies named in paragraph (a) above are reasonably incidental and economically necessary or appropriate to the operations of any single integrated system or additional system which the electric utility assets of such companies may constitute;

(c) Whether the gas utility assets, which are used for the distribution at retail of natural or manufactured gas, of the companies listed in paragraph 6 of this notice and order constitute more than a single integrated public utility system and systems additional thereto, control of which may be retained by Columbia Gas under section 11 (b) (1) of the act;

(d) Whether the non-utility businesses and operations of the subsidiaries of Columbia Gas are reasonably incidental and economically necessary or appropriate to the operations of any single integrated public utility system or additional systems thereto as referred to in paragraph (c) above;

(e) Whether under the terms of section 11 (b) (1), and especially clauses (A), (B), and (C) thereof, Columbia Gas can retain any interest in or control over any single integrated public utility system, additional system or incidental businesses as referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) above, together with any single integrated public utility system, additional systems and incidental businesses as referred to in paragraphs (c) and (d) above;

(f) Generally, what action is necessary to be taken by Columbia Gas and/or its subsidiaries to limit the operations of the holding company system of Columbia Gas to a single integrated public utility system and such additional systems, or other businesses, as are retainable under the standards of section 11 (b) (1) of the act;

(g) What steps are necessary to be taken by Columbia Gas and/or its subsidiaries to ensure that the corporate structure, or the continued existence of any company in the holding company system, does not unduly or unnecessarily complicate the structure, or unfairly and inequitably distribute the voting power among security holders, of such holding company system.

It is further ordered, That any person desiring to be heard in connection with these proceedings or proposing to intervene herein shall file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before the 8th day of June, 1944, his request or application therefor, as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission. Any such request may state the position of the applicant with respect to the matters hereinbefore set forth and with respect to what action is believed necessary to be taken by any of the respondents to comply with sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of the act. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require any interested person to intervene as a prerequisite to being heard as to matters affecting his interest.

It is further ordered, That jurisdiction be, and hereby is, reserved to separate, either in whole or in part, or for disposition in whole or in part, any of the issues or questions which may arise in these proceedings, or to consolidate these proceedings, or any portion thereof, with any proceedings which may be instituted subsequently under other provisions of said act with respect to Columbia Gas and its subsidiaries, and to take such other action as may appear conducive to an orderly, prompt and economic disposition of the matters involved.

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the hearing aforesaid by mailing a copy of this Notice and Order for Hearing to Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation and its subsidiaries named in paragraph 6, supra, to the Trustees of American Fuel and Gas Company and Inland Gas Corporation, The United Corporation, the Public Utility Commissions of the States of Arkansas, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, New Mexico, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Texas, West Virginia and Virginia not less than 20 days prior to the date hereinbefore fixed as the date of the hearing; and that notice of said hearing is hereby given to Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation and its subsidiaries, to their security holders, and to all consumers of the subsidiaries of Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation, to all state municipalities and political sub-divisions of states within which are located any of the physical assets of said companies or under the laws of which any of said companies is incorporated, all State Commissions, State Securities Commissions, and all agencies, authorities and instrumentalities of one or more states, municipalities, or other political sub-divisions having jurisdiction over Columbia Gas & Electric Corporation or its subsidiaries or any of the businesses, affairs or operations of any of them; that such notice shall be given further by a general release of the Commission, distributed to the press and mailed to the mailing list for releases issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; and that further notice be given to all persons by publication of this notice and order in the FEDERAL REGISTER not later than 20 days prior to the date hereinbefore fixed as the date of hearing.

By the Commission.

VIRGINIA ELECTRIC AND POWER CO., ET AL.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATIONS AND PERMITTING DECLARATIONS TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 29th day of April 1944.

In the matter of Virginia Electric and Power Company, Virginia Public Service Company, Engineers Public Service Company, File No. 70-846, and General Gas & Electric Corporation, File No. 70-850.

Virginia Electric and Power Company, a subsidiary company of Engineers Public Service Company, a registered holding company, Virginia Public Service Company, a subsidiary company of General Gas & Electric Corporation, a registered holding company, said Engineers Public Service Company and said General Gas & Electric Corporation, having filed applications and declarations pursuant to sections 6, 7, 9, 10, 11 and 12 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 regarding the following transactions:

1. Engineers Public Service Company proposes to acquire from General Gas & Electric Corporation and General Gas & Electric Corporation proposes to sell to Engineers Public Service Company 782,000 shares of the common stock of Virginia Public Service Company, being all of the shares of such stock outstanding, and the claim of General Gas & Electric Corporation to certain escrowed funds in the amount of $1,165,166.67, for an agreed consideration not to exceed $2,500,000, of which $1,000,000 is immediately payable in cash and an additional amount of not to exceed $1,500,000 is payable in the event that the earnings of Virginia Electric and Power Company exceed certain specified amounts.

2. Engineers Public Service Company will surrender to Virginia Public Service Company as contribution to its capital the claim to the escrowed funds.

3. Virginia Public Service Company will thereupon be merged into Virginia Electric and Power Company pursuant to Virginia law and upon the following terms:

(a) Each share of $6 Dividend Preferred Stock of Virginia Electric and Power Company will be converted into one share of $5 Dividend Preferred Stock of Virginia Electric and Power Company and will receive cash for accrued and unpaid dividends on such stock to the date the merger agreement becomes effective;

(b) Each share of 7% Preferred Stock of Virginia Public Service Company, including all rights to accrued and unpaid dividends thereon to the date the merger becomes effective, will be converted into one share of $5 Dividend Preferred Stock of Virginia Electric and Power Company and will receive $24.50 per share in cash, plus additional cash in an amount equal to accrued dividends on said 7% Preferred Stock subsequent to March 31, 1944, to the effective date of the merger;

(c) Each share of 6% Preferred Stock of Virginia Public Service Company, including all rights to accrued and unpaid dividends thereon to the date the merger becomes effective, will be converted into one share of $5 Dividend Preferred Stock of Virginia Electric and Power Company and will receive $19 in cash plus additional cash in an amount equal to accrued dividends on said 6% Preferred Stock subsequent to March 31, 1944, to the effective date of the merger;

(d) The 782,000 shares of common stock of Virginia Public Service Company will be converted into 150,000 shares of common stock of Virginia Electric and Power Company;

(e) The presently outstanding common stock of Virginia Electric and Power Company will continue unchanged.

4. Holders of the Preferred Stock of Virginia Electric and Power Company or Virginia Public Service Company assenting to the merger but not desiring to retain the new $5 Dividend Preferred Stock will be given the opportunity through an underwriting to be arranged by Virginia Electric and Power Company, to sell the new $5 Dividend Preferred Stock to which they may become entitled at the price at which such shares will be initially offered to the public by the underwriters less $1.50 per share and transfer taxes, but such price to the stockholders will not be less than $112.50 per share less transfer taxes. Any stockholders not assenting to the merger who dissent therefrom within three months after the meeting of stockholders at which the merger is approved, will be entitled to receive cash in such amount as may be obtainable under the appraisal rights existing pursuant to Virginia law.

5. In order to consummate the foregoing exchange Virginia Electric and Power Company will issue 289,491 shares of $5 Dividend Preferred Stock. Scrip will be issued in lieu of fractional shares.

6. All of the $10,500,000 aggregate principal amount of Virginia Public Service Company 5% Debentures due 1957 presently outstanding will be assumed by Virginia Electric and Power Company as a result of the merger and will be called for redemption at 104½ and accrued interest and all of the $26,000,000 aggregate principal amount of Virginia Public Service Company 3¾% First Mortgage Bonds due 1972 presently outstanding, also to be assumed by Virginia Electric and Power Company in the merger, will be called for redemption at 111⅛ and accrued interest.

7. For the primary purpose of providing funds to retire the Debentures and First Mortgage Bonds of Virginia Public Service Company, Virginia Electric and Power Company will sell at competitive bidding $23,000,000 aggregate principal amount of its First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, Series D 3%, due April 1, 1974, and will issue $9,000,000 of short term 2¼% and 2⅝% notes maturing semi-annually commencing February 1, 1945 and ending February 1, 1954. In addition, Virginia Electric and Power Company will receive a cash contribution of $2,500,000 from Enginers Public Service Company.

8. Virginia Electric and Power Company and Virginia Public Service Company will make certain accounting adjustments and, incident to the merger, Virginia Electric and Power Company will reduce the capital representing the shares of its common stock to the sum of $13,546,555.

9. Virginia Electric and Power Company and Virginia Public Service Company will solicit proxies from their respective stockholders in connection with special meetings of stockholders called for the purpose of voting upon the foregoing transactions.

Public hearings having been held upon the foregoing matters after appropriate notice, briefs having been filed and oral argument having been had, and the Commission having considered the record in this matter and having made and filed its findings herein:

It is ordered, That said applications, as amended, be and the same hereby are granted and said declarations, as amended, be and the same hereby are permitted to become effective forthwith subject, however, to the terms and conditions contained in Rule U-24 and subject also to the following terms and conditions and reservations:

1. That a copy of the Commission's report adopted concurrently herewith be sent to all stockholders of Virginia Electric and Power Company and Virginia Public Service Company in connection with the solicitation material requesting proxies for the special meetings called for the purpose of voting upon the merger and related transactions.

2. That the proposed issuance and sale of the $23,000,000 aggregate principal amount of First and Refunding Mortgage Bonds, Series D 3%, Due April 1, 1974 by Virginia Electric and Power Company shall not be consummated until the results of the competitive bidding pursuant to Rule U-50 have been made a matter of record in this proceeding and a further order shall have been entered by this Commission in the light of the record so completed, which order shall contain further terms and conditions as may then be deemed appropriate, jurisdiction being reserved for the imposition thereof in connection with the proposed transactions;

3. That no solicitation of proxies shall be made by the Dealer Managers or soliciting dealers until the fifth day after the day upon which the written solicitation material is mailed to their respective stockholders by Virginia Public Service Company and Virginia Electric and Power Company;

4. That jurisdiction be and the same hereby is reserved with respect to all legal fees incurred or to be incurred in connection with the consummation of the various transactions.

It is ordered, That, to the extent that the issue and sale of new $5 Dividend Preferred Stock of Virginia Electric and Power Company may be subject to Rule U-50, exemption therefrom be and the same hereby is granted.

It is further ordered, That the accompanying report be and the same hereby is adopted as the report of the Commission.

By the Commission.

ATLANTIC CITY ELECTRIC CO. AND AMERICAN GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION FOR LEGAL FEES

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 2d day of May, A. D. 1944.

The Commission having on April 1, 1944 issued its order herein under section 6 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 granting and permitting to become effective a joint application and declaration, as amended, of American Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company, and its subsidiary, Atlantic City Electric Company, with respect, inter alia, to the issuance and sale by Atlantic City of 55,000 shares of Cumulative Preferred Stock, to purchasers selected by competitive bidding in conformity with Rule U-50 promulgated under the act; and

The Commission having in said order reserved jurisdiction over the price to be paid to the company for such preferred stock, the dividend rate thereon; the underwriters' spread and its allocation, and all legal fees and expenses to be paid in connection with the proposed transactions; and

The Commission having on April 12, 1944 issued its order granting the application and permitting the declaration to become effective in respect of all matters as to which jurisdiction had been theretofore reserved except legal fees to be paid in connection with the proposed transactions as to which matter the reservation of jurisdiction was continued; and

The Commission now finding no basis for imposing terms and conditions with respect to said legal fees and finding the same not to be unreasonable:

It is ordered, That jurisdiction heretofore reserved over the legal fees to be paid in connection with the proposed transaction be, and the same hereby is, released.

By the Commission.

BUFFALO, NIAGARA, AND EASTERN POWER CORP.

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 2d day of May 1944.

Buffalo, Niagara and Eastern Power Corporation, a subsidiary of Niagara Hudson Power Corporation, in turn a subsidiary of The United Corporation, a registered holding company, having filed a declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the rules promulgated thereunder with respect to the following transaction:

Buffalo Niagara, having made cash advances from time to time, on open account, to its wholly-owned subsidiary, The Lockport and Newfane Power and Water Supply Company, on which an unpaid balance is owing in the amount of $285,000, now proposes, subject to a satisfactory closing agreement with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to forgive all obligations arising out of said indebtedness. Upon the elimination of said indebtedness, Buffalo Niagara then proposes to increase the carrying value of its investments in the common stocks of subsidiary companies by a like amount.

Said declaration having been filed on April 8, 1944, and the last amendment thereto having been filed on April 21, 1944, and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner provided by Rule U-23, promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said declaration within the period provided in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding that the requirements of section 12 (b) of the act and Rule U-45 promulgated thereunder are satisfied, and that no adverse findings are necessary, and deeming it appropriate, in the public interest and in the interests of investors and consumers, to permit said declaration to become effective;

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act, and subject to the terms and conditions in Rule U-24, that said declaration be, and hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

ANDERSON FURNITURE COMPANY

CONSENT ORDER

Anderson Furniture Company of Dallas, Dallas County, Texas is engaged in the general furniture business. It admits receipts of consumers goods with a cost value of approximately $35,680 in excess of the allowable receipts of the company under the provisions of paragraph (b) of Order L-219 during April, May, and June, 1943, and has consented to the issuance of this order.

Wherefore, upon the agreement and consent of Anderson Furniture Company, the Regional Compliance Chief and the Regional Attorney, and upon the approval of the Compliance Commissioner, It is hereby ordered, That:

(a) Anderson Furniture Company, its successors or assigns, shall not receive either directly or indirectly in the second quarter of 1944, any consumers goods in excess of $76,250, computed at cost in accordance with the provisions of Limitation Order L-219.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve the Anderson Furniture Company from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the War Production Board, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on issuance and shall expire on the first day of July, 1944.

Issued this 3d day of May 1944.

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 9 NUMBER 91

Washington, Saturday, May 6, 1944

The President

PROCLAMATION 2614

FLAG DAY, 1944

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

For many years June 14 has been set aside as Flag Day, observed throughout the Nation as a day of earnest rededication to those high principles of humanity and civilization which constitute the foundations of the Republic.

It is not necessary to recite that the stars and stripes of our flag symbolize the patriotic and loyal unity of one hundred and thirty-five million people in a widely diversified land. Nor is it necessary to dwell on the struggles through which we have marched, under that flag, to our present great part in the world's affairs. What we are, and what we do, speak of these things far more eloquently than any words.

Ours is a flag of battles. On the ships of our Navy, in the vanguard of our soldiers and marines, it is carrying liberation and succor into stricken lands. It is carrying our message of promise and freedom into all corners of the world.

Ours is also a flag of peace. Under its protection, men have found refuge from oppression. Under its promise, men have found release from hatreds and prejudice, from exploitation and persecution. It is the flag under which men and women of varied heritage, creed, and race may work and live or, if need be, fight and die together as only free men and women can.

Let us then display our flag proudly, knowing that it symbolizes the strong and constructive ideals—the democratic ideals—which we oppose to the evil of our enemies. Let us display our flag, and the flags of all the United Nations which fight beside us, to symbolize our joint brotherhood, our joint dedication, under God, to the cause of unity and the freedom of men.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do hereby ask that on Flag Day, June 14, 1944, the people of our Nation honor especially the members of the armed forces—men and women equally—whose unfaltering devotion to our national ideals has given the Nation's flag a new and hopeful meaning for those struggling against oppression in lands still held by our enemies.

I direct the officials of the Federal Government and I request the officials of the State and local governments to have our colors displayed on all public buildings on Flag Day, and I urge the people of the United States on that day to fly the American flag from their homes, and to arrange, where feasible, for joint displays of the emblems of the freedom-loving United Nations without whose staunch collaboration we could not have hoped for victory.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the city of Washington this 3rd day of May, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-four, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-eighth.

[SEAL]

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

By the President:

CORDELL HULL,
Secretary of State.

I) establishing the Bureau of the Budget under a Director and vesting therein the function of the preparation of the Budget and other functions under the direction of the President relative to the efficient administration of the Departments and agencies of the Government.

Fellowships will be awarded, subject to the following regulations:

Sec.
250.1 Type of fellowship.
250.2 Qualifications.
250.3 Award of fellowships.
250.4 Allowances and expenses.
250.5 Progress reports.
250.6 Duration of fellowships.
250.7 Official notification.

AUTHORITY: §§ 250.1 to 250.7, inclusive, issued under R.S. 161, 53 Stat. 1290; 42 Stat. 20; 57 Stat. 271; 5 U.S.C. 22, 22 U.S.C. 501 et seq., 31 U.S.C. 1 et seq.

§ 250.1 Type of fellowship. Fellowships shall be of the intern-training and training in research type, in the field of public administration, and may include advance university instruction in related subjects at colleges and universities, or in private institutions selected by the Bureau of the Budget, and practical training and observation in governmental Departments and agencies, under the direction of the Bureau of the Budget.

§ 250.2 Qualifications. Each applicant selected for a fellowship shall be:

(a) A citizen of an American republic other than the United States;

(b) In possession of a certificate of medical examination issued by a licensed physician within 60 days of the date of application, describing the applicant's physical condition and stating that he is free from any communicable disease, physical deformity, or disability that would interfere with the proper pursuit of studies, research, or any other activity or work incident to the fellowship;

(c) Able to speak, read, write and understand the English language;

(d) Of good moral character and possessing intellectual ability and suitable personal qualities;

(e) In possession of acceptable evidence that he has completed a standard four-year university or college course, or its equivalent, or that he has equivalent practical experience in the field of public administration or management either in the administration of operating programs or in staff work, including budgeting, finance, personnel, procurement, planning, and related services; and

(f) An employee of the government by which nominated or attached to such government in a consultative capacity in any of the fields enumerated in paragraph (e) above.

§ 250.3 Award of fellowships. Fellowships shall be awarded by the Director of the Bureau of the Budget with the approval of the Secretary of State, or the duly authorized representative of the Secretary of State. Each application shall be transmitted to the Secretary of State by the government of the American republic of which the applicant is a citizen through the American diplomatic mission accredited to that government.

§ 250.4 Allowances and expenses. An applicant awarded a fellowship may be granted any or all of the following, upon recommendation of the Director of the Bureau of the Budget:

(a) Monthly allowances. Monthly allowances for quarters and subsistence during the entire period spent in the United States, or its Territories or Possessions, in pursuance of a fellowship, beginning on the date of arrival at his initial headquarters and ending on the date of departure for his home, as follows: (1) Not exceeding $180 per month while under assignment to headquarters in a Department or agency of the Federal or a local government, or a private institution (other than a university or college) in a city of more than 100,000 population; or not exceeding $150 per month while under such assignment in a city of less than 100,000 population; and (2) not exceeding $135 per month while under assignment to receive training at colleges or universities and residing in quarters usually occupied by students in attendance thereat or in similar quarters, irrespective of the population of the city wherein the institution is located.

(b) Transportation expenses. Transportation expenses from the home of the applicant (or place in which appointment is accepted) to the place or places in the United States, its Territories, or Possessions, where the studies and research are to be pursued, and return to the home of the applicant (or point of departure), including travel via Washington, D. C., en route to the place of study or research, and from the place of study or research to Washington, D. C., and return to that place, if necessary, for consultation with reference to the fellowship, and between places of study and research in the United States, its Territories or Possessions, in accordance with the Standardized Government Travel Regulations and the Act of June 3, 1926, as amended, in which connection claim for reimbursement may be made only for items in the following schedule and contingent upon prior authorization:

(1) Rail fare:[1] First-class fare. If travel is performed on an extra-fare train, expenses in excess of the first-class fare must be borne by the traveler. No receipts are necessary. (Government transportation requests are to be used, if practicable, within the United States.)

(2) Pullman fare: Lower berth or parlor car seat. No receipts are necessary if Government transportation requests are used. If purchased with cash the Pullman stub must be attached to the reimbursement voucher.

(3) Steamer fare:[1] Not exceeding the lowest minimum first-class fare of the ship on which travel is performed. American vessels must be used if available (section 901 of the Merchant Marine Act of 1936, 49 Stat. 2015. This provision has been suspended with regard to appropriations for fiscal year 1944 according to sec. 302, Pub. Law 216, 78th Congress, Dec. 23, 1943) No receipts are necessary.

(4) Airplane fare:[1] Transportation by air will be allowed regardless of the cost when authorized by the Director of the Bureau of the Budget. When air travel has not been specifically authorized, the traveler may proceed by air with the understanding that he may claim reimbursement therefor only in an amount not exceeding what it would have cost had the travel been performed by public conveyance over land or water. No receipts are necessary.

(5) Taxicab: At the beginning and termination of the journey and at all points where a change of conveyance is necessary while in a direct travel status. No receipts are necessary.

(6) Excess baggage charges: For personal effects (not household furniture) which are not carried free by the transportation company. Receipts are necessary and they should indicate that the traveler has availed himself of the free allowance, if such an allowance is granted.

(7) Drayage or transfer of baggage: For the hauling of personal effects from home to the station or dock, et cetera. Receipts are not necessary but should be submitted where possible. Charges by porters for handling bags or baggage will not be allowed.

(8) Rental of steamer rug and steamer chair: Receipts are necessary. Charges for rental of steamer cushions will not be allowed.

[1] In all cases round trip tickets must be purchased if possible. In the event the return portion of the ticket cannot be used, it should be returned to the Bureau of the Budget for refund.

(9) Tips and gratuitous fees: Will not be allowed.

(c) Per diem. Per diem in lieu of subsistence while in travel status proceeding from, and to, his home at the following rates: $6.00 over land and by air in and outside of the United States, and $4.00 aboard vessels outside of the United States. No per diem will be allowed concurrently with monthly allowances, but per diem may be substituted therefor at the rate of $6.00 per day for any period of authorized travel.

(d) Other expenses. Enrollment fees, tuition, medical and infirmary fees, laboratory fees, cost of textbooks and rental of equipment, payable to the institution, person, firm or corporation that may have rendered the services or furnished the supplies, upon prior authorization of the Director of the Bureau of the Budget. Such expenses may be billed directly to the Bureau of the Budget, and shall bear the signature of the fellow receiving the services or using the supplies. However, should that procedure not be practicable, the fellow may pay the bill, if authorized to do so, and render an appropriate account to the Bureau of the Budget.

§ 250.5 Progress reports. Applicants awarded fellowships under these regulations shall submit written reports of progress in studies and research at such intervals as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget may direct.

§ 250.6 Duration of fellowship. Fellowships may be awarded for periods not exceeding twelve months of actual study and research, and may be extended for not exceeding the same periods in the manner prescribed under § 250.3 and subject to the availability of appropriations. Fellowships may be cancelled for cause by the Director of the Bureau of the Budget with the approval of the Secretary of State, or the duly authorized representative of the Secretary of State.

§ 250.7 Official notification. Each applicant selected by the Bureau of the Budget and approved by the Secretary of State, or the duly authorized representative of the Secretary of State, shall be notified of his award through diplomatic channels. The notification shall state the duration and type of fellowship and the allowances authorized: Provided, however, That the Director of the Bureau of the Budget may subsequently amend the course of studies and duration of the fellowship if in his opinion such action would be in the interest of obtaining better instruction, or research better suited to the needs and capabilities of the fellow than those prescribed in the notification. The amount originally authorized for monthly allowances and other expenses may also be amended, if necessary, with the approval of the Secretary of State, or the duly authorized representative of the Secretary of State.

Issued this 2d day of March 1944.

HAROLD D. SMITH,
Director.

Approved: May 1, 1944.

CORDELL HULL,
Secretary of State.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter XI—War Food Administration (Distribution Orders)

[WFO 2-3, Amdt. 1]

PART 1401—DAIRY PRODUCTS

REPORTS REQUIRED FROM CERTAIN PRODUCERS AND AUTHORIZED RECEIVERS OF BUTTER

War Food Order No. 2-3, 9 F.R. 4319 (formerly designated as Food Distribution Order No. 2-3, as issued by the Director of Food Distribution on September 30, 1943, 8 F.R. 13378), is amended to read as follows:

§ 1401.16 Reports—(a) Definitions. (1) "War Food Order No. 2" means War Food Order No. 2, 9 F.R. 4319 (formerly designated at Food Distribution Order No. 2, as issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on January 5, 1943, 8 F.R. 253, and as amended, 9 F.R. 3623).

(2) Each term defined in War Food Order No. 2 shall, when used herein, have the same meaning as set forth for such term in said War Food Order No. 2, unless otherwise distinctly expressed or manifestly incompatible with the intent hereof.

(b) Reporting requirements. (1) Each person who produced more than 12,000 pounds of butter in any calendar month from April 1943 to March 1944, inclusive, shall correctly complete form "Dairy Products Report No. 2—Butter (Creamery Set-aside Butter Report)" for April 1944 and for each subsequent calendar month thereafter during which such person has in his possession, or is obligated to have in his possession, any butter required to be set aside pursuant to the provisions of War Food Order No. 2, regardless of the quantity of butter produced by him during and after April 1944. Each such completed form shall be mailed to the United States Department of Agriculture, Box 6910-A, Chicago, Illinois, not later than the tenth day of the month next succeeding the month for which such report is made.

(2) Each person who did not produce more than 12,000 pounds of butter in any calendar month from April 1943 to March 1944, inclusive, but who produces more than 12,000 pounds of butter in April 1944 or any subsequent calendar month shall correctly complete form "Dairy Products Report No. 2—Butter (Creamery Set-aside Butter Report)" for each calendar month thereafter during which such person has in his possession, or is obligated to have in his possession, any butter required to be set aside pursuant to the provisions of War Food Order No. 2, regardless of the quantity of butter produced by the respective person during each such calendar month. Each such completed form shall be mailed to the United States Department of Agriculture, Box 6910-A, Chicago, Illinois, not later than the tenth day of the month next succeeding the month for which such report is made.

(3) Each person authorized to serve as an authorized butter receiver shall correctly complete form "Authorized Receiver's Report—Butter" for the calendar month during which he was first so authorized and for each calendar month thereafter while such authorization remains in effect and during any additional period during which the respective person has in his possession, or is obligated to have in his possession, or receives any butter required to be set aside pursuant to the provisions of War Food Order No. 2. Each such completed form shall be mailed to the United States Department of Agriculture, Box 6910-A, Chicago, Illinois, not later than the fifteenth day of the month next succeeding the month for which such report is made.

(4) After the effective time of this order each producer of butter shall correctly complete form "Dairy Products Report No. 1" (U. S. D. A. Form No. O.E. 9-119), for each calendar month and shall mail such completed form to the United States Department of Agriculture, Box 6910-A, Chicago, Illinois, not later than the tenth day of the next succeeding calendar month.

This amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t., May 1, 1944. With respect to violations, rights accrued, liabilities incurred, or appeals taken under said War Food Order No. 2-3 prior to the effective time of this amendment, all of the provisions of said War Food Order No. 2-3 in effect prior to the effective time of this amendment shall be deemed to continue in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, appeal, right, or liability.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by, and subsequent reporting and record-keeping requirements will be subject to the approval of, Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

PART 1460—FATS AND OILS

RESTRICTIONS ON USE

War Food Order No. 42 (9 F.R. 2971, 3832, 4319), § 1460.1, is amended as follows:

1. By deleting the provisions of paragraph (a) (7) thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

(7) "Principal ingredient" means the largest single ingredient by weight subject to the qualification that mayonnaise, salad dressing, and other foods for human consumption which, under the terms of section 1.1 of Ration Order 16, as amended, issued by the Office of Price Administration, are not foods covered by said Ration Order 16, as amended, but in the manufacture of which rationed fats and oils, as defined in said Ration Order 16, as amended, are used, are to be considered products of which fats and oils are not the principal ingredient, regardless of the composition thereof.

2. By deleting the provisions of Schedule A of paragraph (b) (1) thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

SCHEDULE A

Class of use	Permitted percentage
Manufacture of margarine in any calendar quarter	167
Manufacture of other edible finished products, including shortening, in any calendar quarter	83
Manufacture of package and bar soap in any calendar quarter	90
Manufacture of bulk package soap in any calendar quarter	110

Manufacture of linoleum, oilcloth (for floor coverings), and felt base floor coverings in any calendar quarter	70
Manufacture of oilcloth (for all purposes other than floor coverings) and all other coated fabrics in any calendar quarter	70
Manufacture of paint containing not more than one pound of fats and oils per gallon of paint (by a manufacturer of paste water paint, dry casein paint, or dry protein paint, as such, in the base period), in any calendar quarter	70

3. By deleting the figure "10,000" in paragraph (b) (5) (i) thereof and inserting in lieu thereof the figure "15,000".

4. By inserting immediately after paragraph (b) (10) thereof the following:

(11) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this order, the oil content of any product which is listed in a class of use under Schedule A hereof and which is purchased from the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States; the Office of Distribution, War Food Administration (including, but not restricted to the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation); or the War Shipping Administration shall not be charged against the quota of any manufacturer, if such product is used or consumed by him in the same class of use.

This amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a. m., e. w. t. May 4, 1944. However, with respect to violations of War Food Order No. 42, or rights accrued, or liabilities incurred thereunder, prior to said date, said War Food Order No. 42 shall be deemed to be in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any proper suit, action, or other proceeding with respect to any such violation, right, or liability.

(E.O. 9280, 7 F.R. 10179; E.O. 9322, 8 F.R. 3807; E.O. 9334, 8 F.R. 5423; E.O. 9392, 8 F.R. 14783)

Issued this 4th day of May 1944.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Regulations, Serial No. 3050]

PART 239—CHARTER TRIPS AND SPECIAL SERVICES

CHARTER TRIPS AND SPECIAL SERVICES BY AIR CARRIERS HOLDING CERTIFICATES OF PUBLIC CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 2d day of May 1944.

The Civil Aeronautics Board, acting pursuant to the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, particularly sections 205 (a) and 401 (f) thereof, and deeming its action necessary to carry out the provisions of said Act and to exercise its powers and perform its duties thereunder, hereby makes and promulgates the following regulation:

Effective May 2, 1944, § 239.1 of the Economic Regulations is amended in its entirety to read as follows:

§ 239.1 Charter trips and special services—(a) Approval required for special service. No air carrier holding a certificate of public convenience and necessity shall operate any charter trip or other special service (except flights originating and terminating in the territory comprised of Mexico, Central America, South America, and the countries and islands in the Caribbean area) either between points named in its certificates or otherwise, unless it shall have first secured approval thereof by the Board or its designee, or unless authorized by such further regulations as the Board may from time to time promulgate.

(b) Exceptions. The provisions of paragraph (a) shall not apply to any charter trip or special service which is (1) operated at the request of, and in aircraft owned by, the Navy Department, or (2) an emergency military mission.

(52 Stat. 984, 988; 49 U.S.C., 425 (a), 481 (f))

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket No. 4504]

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

PHILIP R. PARK, INC., ET AL.

§ 3.6 (t) Advertising falsely or misleadingly; qualities or properties of product or service: § 3.6 (x) Advertising falsely or misleadingly; results. In connection with offer, etc., of "ManAmar" or "Cattle ManAmar" livestock feeds or feed supplements, or other similar product, and among other things, as in order set forth, disseminating, etc., any advertisements by means of United States mails, or in commerce, or by any means, etc., to induce, etc., directly or indirectly, purchase in commerce, etc., of respondents' product, which advertisements represent, directly or through inference, (1) that respondents' product has any therapeutic value in the treatment of any germ or infectious disease of cattle or that its use is of any value in the prevention of any such disease or condition; (2) that respondents' product has any therapeutic value or beneficial effect in the treatment of any breeding disorder of cattle or is of any value in preventing such disorder; or (3) that respondents' product has any therapeutic value or beneficial effect in the treatment of retained placenta or that its use will have any value in preventing such condition; prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C. sec. 45i) [Modified cease and desist order, Philip R. Park, Inc., et al., Docket 4504, April 20, 1944]

§ 3.6 (a 10) Advertising falsely or misleadingly; comparative data or merits: § 3.6 (t) Advertising falsely or misleadingly; qualities or properties of product or service: § 3.6 (x) Advertising falsely or misleadingly; results: § 3.6 (ff 10) Advertising falsely or misleadingly; unique nature or advantages. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of "ManAmar" or "Cattle ManAmar" livestock feeds or feed supplements, or other similar product, and among other things, as in order set forth, representing that respondents' product (1) will have any therapeutic value in the treatment of mastitis or that its use is of any value in the prevention of such condition; (2) has any therapeutic value in the treatment of any germ or infectious disease of cattle or that its use is of any value in the prevention of any such disease or condition; (3) has any therapeutic value or beneficial effect in the treatment of any breeding disorder of cattle or that its use is of any value in preventing such disorder; (4) has any therapeutic value in the treatment of retained placenta, infectious abortion, or Bang's disease, or that its use will have any beneficial effect upon such conditions or any value in preventing such conditions; or (5) is a better supplement to feeds or constitutes a better feed for cattle than all other feed or feed supplements on the market; or representing (6) that the use of respondents' product will eliminate the necessity of veterinary treatment: prohibited. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45i) [Modified cease and desist order, Philip R. Park, Inc., et al., Docket 4504, April 20, 1944]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 20th day of April, A. D. 1944.

In the Matter of Philip R. Park, Inc., a Corporation; Philip R. Park, Harrison H. Havner, John S. Hunt, and Philip E. Iversen, Individually, and as Officers of Philip R. Park, Inc., a Corporation.

This proceeding coming on for further hearing before the Federal Trade Commission, and it appearing that on April 27, 1943, the Commission made its findings as to the facts herein and concluded therefrom that the respondents had violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act, and issued and subsequently served its order to cease and desist upon the respondents; and it further appearing that respondents thereafter filed their petition to review and set aside the said order to cease and desist in the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit; that thereafter by stipulation signed by counsel for the Commission and counsel for respondents dated December 24, 1943, it was agreed that subparagraph 5 of the second part of said order should be modified in certain respects as specifically set out in said stipulation and that the Court should enter its decree modifying said order to cease and desist in said particulars and affirming and enforcing said order as so modified; that on January 6, 1944, the said Circuit Court issued its decree modifying, affirming and enforcing the said order to cease and desist in conformity with said stipulation.

Now, therefore, pursuant to the provisions of subsection (i) of section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act, the Commission issues this, its modified order to cease and desist in conformity with said decree:

It is ordered, That the respondent Philip R. Park, Inc., a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, and respondents Philip R. Park, John S. Hunt, Philip E. Iversen, and Harrison H. Havner, individually and as officers and directors of Philip R. Park, Inc., a corporation, and their respective representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the offering for sale, sale, or distribution of livestock feeds or feed supplements for cattle and other livestock known as "ManAmar" or "Cattle ManAmar," or any other product of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or under any other name, do forthwith cease and desist from directly or indirectly:

1. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by means of the United States mails or by any means in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, which advertisement represents directly or through inference,

a. That respondents' product has any therapeutic value in the treatment of any germ or infectious disease of cattle or that its use is of any value in the prevention of any such disease or condition.

b. That respondents' product has any therapeutic value or beneficial effect in the treatment of any breeding disorder of cattle or is of any value in preventing such disorder.

c. That respondents' product has any therapeutic value or beneficial effect in the treatment of retained placenta or that its use will have any value in preventing such condition.

2. Disseminating or causing to be disseminated any advertisement by any means for the purpose of inducing or which is likely to induce directly or indirectly the purchase in commerce as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act of respondents' product, which advertisement contains any of the representations prohibited in paragraph 1 hereof and the respective subdivisions thereof.

It is further ordered, That the respondent Philip R. Park, Inc., a corporation, its officers, representatives, agents, and employees, and respondents Philip R. Park, John S. Hunt, Philip E. Iversen, and Harrison H. Havner, individually and as officers of Philip R. Park, Inc., a corporation, and their respective representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of livestock feeds or feed supplements for cattle and other livestock known as "ManAmar" or "Cattle ManAmar," or any other product of substantially similar composition or possessing substantially similar properties, whether sold under the same name or under any other name, in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from representing:

1. That respondents' product will have any therapeutic value in the treatment of mastitis or that its use is of any value in the prevention of such condition.

2. That respondents' product has any therapeutic value in the treatment of any germ or infectious disease of cattle or that its use is of any value in the prevention of any such disease or condition.

3. That respondents' product has any therapeutic value or beneficial effect in the treatment of any breeding disorder of cattle or that its use is of any value in preventing such disorder.

4. That respondents' product has any therapeutic value in the treatment of retained placenta, infectious abortion, or Bang's disease, or that its use will have any beneficial effect upon such conditions or any value in preventing such conditions.

5. That respondents' product is a better supplement to feeds or constitutes a better feed for cattle than all other feeds or feed supplements on the market.

6. That the use of respondents' product will eliminate the necessity of veterinary treatment.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within thirty (30) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing, setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

By the Commission.

[SEAL] OTIS B. JOHNSON, Secretary.

[Docket No. 5025]

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

ALEXANDER AUERBACH, ETC.

§ 3.66 (a 7) Misbranding or mislabeling; composition; Wool Products Labeling Act: § 3.66 (k) Misbranding or mislabeling; source or origin; maker or seller; Wool Products Labeling Act; § 3.71 (a) Neglecting, unfairly or deceptively, to make material disclosure; composition; Wool Products Labeling Act. I. In connection with offer, etc., in commerce, of "shoddy" or other "wool products," as such products are defined in the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, or other textile fiber materials, (1) representing to purchasers and prospective purchasers that wool products, as such products are defined in the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, not composed exclusively of "wool," as wool is defined in said act, are "wool," "100% wool," or "all wool," or composed of "wool"; (2) representing to purchasers and prospective purchasers that wool products, as such products are defined in the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, may be labeled in accordance with the provisions of said act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as "reprocessed wool," unless such products are composed exclusively of wool or reprocessed wool as those terms are defined in the said act; and (3) misrepresenting or concealing, through the use of fictitious names or otherwise, the identity of respondent or his business; and II. In connection with the introduction or manufacture for introduction into commerce, or the sale, transportation, or distribution in commerce, misbranding "shoddy" or other "wool products," as defined in and subject to aforesaid act, which contain, purport to contain, or in any way are represented as containing "wool," "reprocessed wool," or "reused wool," as those terms are defined therein, by failing to securely affix to or place on each of such products a stamp, tag, label, or other means of identification showing in a clear and conspicuous manner (a) the percentage of the total fiber weight of such wool product, exclusive of ornamentation not exceeding five percentum of said total fiber weight, of (1) wool, (2) reprocessed wool, (3) reused wool, (4) each fiber other than wool where said percentage by weight of such fiber is five percentum or more, and (5) the aggregate of all other fibers; (b) the maximum percentage of the total weight of such wool product of any non-fibrous loading, filling, or adulterating matter; (c) the name of the manufacturer of such wool product, or the manufacturer's registered identification number and the name of a seller of such wool product, or the name of one or more persons introducing such wool product into commerce, or engaged in the sale, transportation, or distribution thereof in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939; prohibited; subject to the proviso, however, that in the case of a product composed in part of "reprocessed wool," this order shall not be construed as prohibiting respondent from representing that such term may be used to designate such reprocessed wool content if the percentage of such content be stated; and subject to the further proviso that the foregoing provisions concerning misbranding shall not be construed to prohibit acts permitted by paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 3 of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939; and that nothing contained in this order shall be construed as limiting any applicable provision of said act or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. (Sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended by sec. 3, 52 Stat. 112; 15 U.S.C., sec. 45b; 54 Stat. 1128; 15 U.S.C., sec. 68) [Cease and desist order, Alexander Auerbach, etc., Docket 5025, April 18, 1944]

At a regular session of the Federal Trade Commission, held at its office in the City of Washington, D. C., on the 18th day of April, A. D. 1944.

In the Matter of Alexander Auerbach, an Individual Trading in His Own Name and as Frank Corwin, Frank Corwin Company, Frank Cohen, David Demerer, and Hanover Wool Stock Company

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the answer of respondent, in which answer respondent admits all the material allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and states that he waives all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondent has violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act and the provisions of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939:

It is ordered, That the respondent, Alexander Auerbach, individually and trading in his own name and as Frank Corwin, Frank Corwin Company, Frank Cohen, David Demerer, and Hanover Wool Stock Company, or trading under any other name, and his representatives, agents, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, of "shoddy" or other "wool products," as such products are defined in the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, or other textile fiber materials, do forthwith cease and desist from:

1. Representing to purchasers and prospective purchasers that wool products, as such products are defined in the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, not composed exclusively of "wool," as wool is defined in said act, are "wool," "100% wool," or "all wool," or composed of "wool."

2. Representing to purchasers and prospective purchasers that wool products, as such products are defined in the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, may be labeled in accordance with the provisions of said act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as "reprocessed wool," unless such products are composed exclusively of wool or reprocessed wool as those terms are defined in the said act: Provided, however, That in the case of a product composed in part of "reprocessed wool," this order shall not be construed as prohibiting respondent from representing that such term may be used to designate such reprocessed wool content if the percentage of such content be stated.

3. Misrepresenting or concealing, through the use of fictitious names or otherwise, the identity of respondent or his business.
